

How is it we do not receive the Houston Union more than once a fortnight? Who is to be blamed for it?

Our Cattle Interest.

A year ago there seemed to be a blockade on all ways and means to secure a market for our vast herds of beef cattle. The States lying between Texas and the great markets of the United States, had passed unfriendly laws to the transit through their territory of Texas herds, and the difficulties and expense attending the transfer of cattle from their wild pastures to market were formidable enough to cause the stockraisers to be content to kill their cattle and receive a price for the hides, allowing the carcasses to rot upon the ground. Twelve months have made some change in this cattle business. Hundreds of thousands of beef cattle have been driven out of Texas during the year just closed. These cattle have traveled thousands of miles, some to Kansas, some to Montana and other Territories; some to California, and some to the cities of the East, while thousands have been slaughtered and put into barrels. And still the great drain continues, and still the prairies teem with cattle, but we hear old cattle men beginning to declare that "picked beeves" are scarce, than they used to be. Yet prices are not what they used to be, even twelve years ago. Our cattle have got the start of our market facilities, and notwithstanding the thousands sold, the cattle-raiser hardly nets more, than the home price of the raw hide. The coming year will increase the drain, and even without a railroad to make the transportation easy, a question of great importance to Texas, that is, the great injury inflicted upon our State by this reckless, destructive trade, Texas, while disposing of its cattle is throwing away millions of dollars and instead of growing rich from this great source of wealth is becoming poorer, because we are exchanging an article worth so much (hard money for one tenth its native value). What is the remedy to this serious loss of wealth? Men owning their thousands of cattle are little better than beggars, and they are exchanging their capital for simply the every day's needs of life without being a bit richer at the end of each year. They add nothing to their wealth or the wealth of the State.

We say let your cattle rest for one or two years. Instead of traveling thousands of miles for a market, your market will have traveled to your very doors. Thousands of consumers are coming—peoples seeking homes in our vast solitudes; and railroads are coming bringing the markets of the distant East within possible reach. Let the cattle rest. It is the best investment in the world.

Your money will more than double in twelve months, and the State will be the gainer by millions of dollars. We look upon all schemes for the exportation of cattle from our prairies as carried on during the past year as disastrous. Our cattle men can wait, and we advise them to hold on to their cattle.

The Age of Progress.

Under the above heading the Herald ironically mentions the issuance by our "County Clerk under his official seal and signature" the authority for any one authorized "to issue the bonds which Saint Paul recommended to be honorable among all men," a negro man and a Mexican girl, and closes by saying "the father of the girl appeared to be delighted, and readily gave his consent."

We accept the caption without the irony—as being true, and we now only refer our readers to the many scores of mixed bloods in our own midst, the offspring of white fathers, often the sons of the owners, and sometimes the owners themselves—and perhaps the Herald men among them—of black mothers—and the fathers and grandfathers of the offspring "appeared to be delighted and readily gave their consent." Because the mixed blood brought "the most monies" and we doubt whether or not the one mentioned is one of progress, especially when we take into account the proximity of color often existing between the two races, and their "legal" as well as "equitable" rights.

Indians Again.

FORT MASON, TEXAS,
January 1st, 1870.

Sir—The Indians have been living with us for the last ten days, stealing horses and murdering on December 23d. They stole two horses from Charles Thompson, one from J. D. Bridges, four from C. G. Wood, two from S. Cavandish, two from George Coots, one from Dr. Barton, and last night they murdered Hamilton Briddy, and stole several more horses; all this happened in the vicinity of this place.

Very Respectfully,
D. DOOLE.

ROYALTY ON A BENDER—White Prince Arthur was at London, Canada, he occupied the house of Alderman Glackmeyer. After Prince Arthur left, the Alderman sent in a bill, in which he charged eighteen hundred dollars for the use of his house. This was regarded as an extortionate charge, and Glackmeyer was pronounced disloyal. It was intimated that he should have sent in no bill, the honor of entertaining royalty being quite sufficient. Glackmeyer failed to see it in this light, and so gave the items of his account, from which we learn that Prince Arthur is as wild a youth as his big brothers, who have left so many unpleasant reminiscences of themselves in various parts of the world.

It seems that Glackmeyer lost from his house during the royal occupation one and a half dozen table cloths, besides stockings, and finger-towels unnumbered. His sister had only one pair of stockings left, and he lost a pair of trousers. The princely party made as free with the property of their liege as did ever prince or king, of the most rapacious breed of Tule or Plantagenet. The indignant Glackmeyer further says that "a splendid Brussels carpet in the room occupied by Col. Elphinstone was almost ruined. Two tubs had been sent for in which to wash, although there was a bath in the house, and in the morning the tubs were upset and the soap suds were all over the room. This was truly a royal method of repaying hospitality, and we do not wonder that the Hamilton-Times recommends an official inquiry, and observes that "not in manner or more contemptible than the accomplishments of the Prince's visit to London, has ever happened in Canada."

The following is the text of the bill granting women the right to vote, which has lately become a law in Wyoming Territory:

A bill "for an act to grant to the women of Wyoming Territory the right of suffrage, and to hold office."

Sec 1. That every woman of the age of twenty-one years, residing in this Territory, may at every election to be held under the law thereof, cast her vote. And her rights to the elective franchise and to hold office shall be the same under the election laws of the Territory as those of electors.

Sec 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

A private letter from Wyoming says, "Now send along your superfluous women!" which is as much as to say that the act was passed for especial purpose of enticing the ladies to the Territory.

established French opera in Paris, while Handel did the same thing in England. Piccini was Gluck's great opponent, and stoutly upheld Italian opera against Gluck's French productions. The works of Piccini are forgotten, but those of Gluck still live.

The Boston Traveler says that at the meeting of the wool manufacturers the other day Mr. George William Bond told the following in illustration of the freaks of fashion and the follies of the fashionable. He said, that he heard the other day a very stylish article of cloth, made of coarse wool, at a mill in which he was formerly foreman. He had the curiosity to go to the mill to see the stylish fabric; when, lo! he immediately recognized it to be an article got up by himself over thirty years ago, for the negroes on the rice plantations of South Carolina and Georgia! The treasurer of the mill admitted that it was even so; but added, that the negroes now wanted something more showy to wear; and he was forced to close out his stock on hand to a fashionable tailor on Washington street, where it was eagerly taken by "genteel youths."

A student of Ann Arbor, Michigan, having remarked that men had more endurance than women, a lady present answered that one would like to see the thirteen hundred young men in the University laced up in steel-ribbed corsets, with hoops, heavy skirts, trails, high heels, panniers, chignons, and dozens of hair pins sticking in their scalps, cooped up in the house year after year, with exhilarating exercise, no hopes, aims, nor ambitions in life, and see if they could stand it as well as the girls. Nothing, said she, but the fact that women, like cats, have nine lives, enables them to survive the present regime to which custom dooms the sex.

DEEP SEA SOUNDING.—The laying of marine cables, it is stated, has given an extraordinary impulse to inventions of deep sea sounding apparatus. In the laying of the cable between Ireland and Newfoundland important facts were discovered in reference to the ocean bottom. The main depth of the Atlantic was ascertained to be 12,000 feet, or over two miles and a quarter; a plateau at that depth extending from the banks of Newfoundland to within 150 miles of the Irish coast. The locality where the Atlantic reaches its greatest depression is believed to be a wide chasm, ranging 1,000 miles east and west, and having a depth equal to the height of the Himalaya mountains.

Facts for the Ladies.

On the 7th day of August, 1867, I purchased a Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine, which has been used from that day to this, almost incessantly. I do not recollect any day, except Sundays, in which some work has not been done upon it. By far the greater part of the time it has been in from seven o'clock in the morning until ten, eleven, and often until twelve o'clock at night. It has never cost one cent for repairs, and is to-day in as complete working order as the day I bought it. I would not exchange it for a new machine of any other kind.

No. 1010... Animals in certain one of the most orderly cities in Texas. Who does not remember the fearful nuisance of firing and shooting, which in former years was carried on on New Year's day.

OLD BUSINESS UNDER A NEW FIRM.—The Auction business heretofore carried on under the firm of Sampson, Sawyer & Torrey had passed, as will be seen by an advertisement in another column, into the hands of George B. Torrey, the other two gentlemen withdrawing.

CRIMINAL JUDGE.—We understand that Thomas Paschal has been appointed Criminal Judge of Bexar county. Thos. Paschal is a nice young man, whom we respect as a gentleman, but not as a Judge. He is about 33 years old, without much experience as a lawyer; he holds besides, the office of United States Commissioner and City Attorney, and that ought to be enough.

FIREMEN'S LUNCH.—Fire Company No. 1, served an excellent lunch on New Year's day at the Braden Hotel. Both fire companies and the Turner's Hook and Ladder company were present and relieved the heavy laden tables of the most of its burden, consisting of whatever the season afforded.

THE COLORED MEN'S ANNIVERSARY.—The colored people of this county celebrated the anniversary of their liberation from slavery, on Saturday, the 1st of January. They assembled early in the morning at the Loyal League room, and at 10 o'clock formed in procession, led by the German Brass Band.

The bulk of the colored people marched back into town by about 5 o'clock, led by the two Marshals, Fayette Walker and Moses. With a great deal of pride, and to the credit of the colored people of this county, we can state that the day passed off without drunkenness and disturbance.

SILVERSTEIN BALL.—The ball in the Casino Hall on New Year's Eve, was one of the largest and most brilliant of the season, and certainly bore off the palm of all former. The Hall was tastefully decorated with United States flags, and garlands, but the most splendid decoration was the presence of the beauty and fascination of San Antonio.

THE MEAT AND VEGETABLE STALLS.—The renting out of the meat and vegetable stalls took place on Friday Dec. 31st. The price for most stalls varied between $40 and $50 monthly, those of the vegetable stalls between $3 and $5.

Improvement Committee to carry out their different plans. As to the butchers, we hope they will accept the increased rent with grace; they are sensible men and know the wants of the city.

HEAD QUARTERS POST OF SAN ANTONIO

General Orders, No. 1. Brevet Lieutenant Colonel Robert H. Hall, U.S.A. and Captain Charles P. Smith, U.S.A. Post Adjutant having been ordered on Court Martial duty, to Fort Davis, Texas, and relieved temporarily from duty, and will be reported on detached service, Brevet Captain Charles E. Jewell, U.S.A., will command Company "F" U.S. 10th Infantry, and Brevet Major Charles C. Cresson, U.S.A., in addition to his other duties, will act as Post Adjutant during the absence of the above named officers.

The Officers and soldiers serving in San Antonio, know that this City is one of the quietest and most orderly in the United States, and never are seen wearing arms, except when upon their professional duties. On rare occasions a soldier from other stations, not understanding that the disfiguring of a person with a revolver is unfashionable in this community, is seen troubling himself to carry one about.

By command of Bvt Maj. General JAMES H. CARLETON, CHARLES C. CRESSON, Brevet Major U. S. A., Post Adjutant.

HEADQUARTERS FIFTH MILITARY DISTRICT STATE OF TEXAS. Office of Chief, Commissary of Subsistence, Austin, Texas, Dec. 16, 1869.

SEALED PROPOSALS, which must be in triplicate, with a copy of this advertisement attached, will be received at this office, until 12 o'clock, noon, on Wednesday, January 20th, 1870, for furnishing Fresh Beef to the United States troops stationed at the following places: Calvert, Columbus, Clarksville, Jefferson, Lampasas, Nacogdoches, Tyler, West Livingston.

Blank forms for proposals and all information relative thereto, will be furnished on application to this office. The garrison of the City and town are liable to be removed or decreased in the ensuing spring.

By command of Brevet Major General J. J. REYNOLDS, SAM'L T. CUSHING, Captain, Brevet Major, 112-691 Chief Commissary Subsistence.

PLANTATION BITTERS

This wonderful vegetable restorative is the sheet anchor of the feeble and debilitated. As a tonic and cordial for the aged and languid it has no equal among stomachics. As a remedy for the nervous weakness to which women are especially subject, it is superseding every other stimulant. In all climates, tropical, temperate or frigid, it acts as a specific in every species of disorder which undermines the bodily strength and breaks down the animal spirits.

Wherever it is introduced it becomes a standard article—a medicinal staple. It is to-day the best and purest tonic, and the most popular medicine in the civilized world—be sure and get the genuine. Sold by all Druggists, Grocers and Country Stores.
