Why Eugene Hyacinthe Came
Home—A Boston Widow the Attraction.

During the summer of 1867, a Boston gentleman, together with his wife and widowed sister, were in Paris. Of course they, among the other wonders of the French capital, went to hear Pere Hyacinthe. The widow, who is young, has but one child, and is quite wealthy, fell in love with the Pere. Finally, meetings were brought about, at which she expressed so much joy that the feeling became mutual. Although the Camille began to express himself freely in public regarding religious matters, he did not go far enough to suit his female adorer, who had more extended views, both religious and political, regarding matters in a monarchical country, where Church and State are closely allied. Under the tutelage of the Boston lady, the priest became more and more outspoken in his views, and finally events occurred in his retirement from his monastic orders, and it was supposed he had gone to Passy to quiet. It was not known for some time in France that he had gone to America; but he, as everybody knows, came here, and after remaining in this city for some weeks, so as to get rid of all taint of suspicion, went to Boston, where he met the lady who had drawn him hither. It was with the intention of setting private affairs in France that he re- turned; but before long, as has been hinted, he will return to America, and marry the lady who has drawn him away from fatherland and mother Church.

Paragraphs.

FIFTEEN white girls are kept in captivity among the Cheyenne Indians, among them Henrietta Floyd, daughter of William H. Floyd, a furniture dealer in Boston. This girl was visiting friends in Texas with a brother, when the Indians captured them, killing her brother and carrying her away.

In spite of Isabella's denials, there can be no doubt whatever that she took the Spanish crown-diamonds with her to Paris. A French detective, who was employed by General Prim for the purpose of ferreting out the manner in which Marfori disposed of the precious jewels for the benefit of Isabella the Second, is said to have found out all about it, and to have sent Prim a complete list of the persons who purchased them.

STRENGTH OF SPIDER'S SILK.—It may surprise some readers to learn that while a bar of iron, one inch in diameter, will sustain twenty-eight tons, and a bar of steel of the same size will sustain fifty tons, a bar of spider's silk of the same dimensions will sustain seventy-four tons. This is based upon a calculation that a fibre of silk one-fourth thousandth of an inch in diameter, will sustain fifty-four grains.

In 1864 a lawyer called at the War Department to transact some official business with the late Mr. Stanton. After they were through they began to talk about their common profession, in which the Secretary had won so many victories. "Ah," said Stanton, "how I long to return to the bar! But I am here trying this cause against the Confederacy, and must stay till we enter upon final judgment. Then I shall gladly retire and look after the affairs of John Doe."

An Irishman once gave birth to the following "bull": "Jabers, Tommy, if I live till I die, and I dunno if I will or no, I want to see our Ireland again before I leave America."

The New York World says: "There is good authority for saying that the Revolution, the woman suffrage organ, of which Mrs. Elizabeth Cady Stanton is editor, and Susan B. Anthony proprietor, is to be bought and edited by Miss Anna E. Dickerson. This change, if it takes place, can be attributed, for the most part, to Mrs. Stanton's desire of retiring from the public advocacy of the cause which she, her friends claim, first brought squarely before the public in 1848, and like Lucretia Mott, leaves its further fostering to younger minds."

Take 1 part alum, 1 part salt-peter, 1 part capers, pulverize, and mix with four parts salt; give three

Our Staging.

We made a remark about our slow coach staging a short time ago which elicited an ill-natured reply from some employee of the stage company...

There are seven mail routes concentrating at San Antonio; to wit; San Antonio and Columbus; San Antonio and Austin, San Antonio and Victoria, San Antonio and El Paso, San Antonio and Eagle Pass, San Antonio and Laredo, San Antonio and Corpus Christi; the two latter are pony expresses.

The most regular service is performed by the El Paso and Eagle Pass stages. These lines cost the government an immense sum of money for the real benefit bestowed.

The Columbus and the Austin routes are the most important to our city, but they are run on the slow coach principle.

It is evident, the Advocate man belongs to the class of editors who are sorely troubled with afterthought.

The past four years have shown the people of the South the most tolerant people on earth.

When Mr. Stanton went into the Cabinet of Mr. Lincoln, his law practice was worth $20,000 per annum.

A month ago he was sent a handsome retainer in the case of the State of Pennsylvania vs. the Credit Mobilier. He wrote to Lewis Hall, who represented the State of Pennsylvania, and asked him as a personal favor to let the case rest until he had time to prepare himself to be heard for the Credit Mobilier.

It is called 80 miles to Austin, over a fine road. Twenty-four hours is allowed to make the trip or three miles and a half per hour.

twelve hours. As it is, the mail arrives about midnight and leaves at 6 o'clock in the morning before the mail from Austin is opened, thereby affording no opportunity to answer by return mail and compelling our citizens to put up with the inconvenience of waiting until the next mail, or two days to make a reply.

We blame the Post Office Department for this slow coach business; we can't blame the stage men, further than for a want of public enterprise and professional pride.

We propose to agitate this question. We have always paid our stage fare and postage bills and we are not in any way in the employ of the stage monopoly.

A YOUNG poet once wrote a piece of poetry commencing with the striking line: "See the pole martyr in his sheet of fire."

We could be free of African slavery and an intolerable taxation now, had we contended when there was a chance.—Victoria Advocate.

The "most tolerated" you mean.

Mr. Stanton's covetous and pride.

He was too sensitive to let any one know his circumstances, and toiled, when he should have rested and recuperated.

He would not take a case without earning his fee, and did not charge one-third the value of his services.

He would not take a case without earning his fee, and did not charge one-third the value of his services.

He would not take a case without earning his fee, and did not charge one-third the value of his services.

off on the ensuing Monday. Then Stanton returned the fee, and he wrote that he could not do the company justice on so short notice for preparation.

He needed that money, needed it badly, too, but he could not keep it, because he could not feel that he could earn it on so short a notice.

Headquarters 5th Military Dist. (State of Texas.) AUSTIN, TEXAS, January 27, 1870.

Complaints have been made that the County Courts of many counties of this State have levied and are collecting taxes in excess of the authority granted to them by law.

First. Where County Courts have levied taxes under the authority of the Act of 5th October, 1866, Chapter 26, any levy under the Act of 27th October, 1866, is illegal, and void.

Second. The tax authorized General Orders No. 41, dated 25th March, 1869, where the same has been levied and collections ordered in county paper—in other words, appropriated in whole or in part to the payment of the debts of the county—except as specially provided in said order—is hereby annulled.

By command of Bvt. Maj. Gen. J. J. REYNOLDS, H. CLAY WOOD, Assistant Adjutant-General.

"THE CHAIR OF PETER."—St. Peter's chair is a yellow chair, formed of four uprights, united by horizontal bars, two being higher than the others to form the back.

patium above them, which form the back, are also composed of this wood. But the most remarkable circumstance about these two different kinds of material is that all the ivory ornaments which cover the front and back of the chair are attached to the acacia portions alone and never to the parts composed of oak.

The undersigned having purchased all the right title and interest in the firm of Sampson & Torrey and Sawyer & Torrey, will continue the business on his own account and request all persons having claims against either of said firms, to present them for liquidation, and all persons indebted are expected to settle promptly. I further would respectfully solicit a share of public patronage. G. B. TORREY, San Antonio, Jan. 1st, 1870.

We take the pleasure in recommending Mr. Torrey to the patronage of the public, and solicit for him the same generous support as heretofore extended to the late firm. E. SAWYER & SAMPSON, San Antonio, Jan. 1st, 1870. (3-1-70d&w)

Dissolution. The firm of J. L. Trueheart & Co., is this day dissolved by mutual consent. The liabilities of the partnership will be liquidated by E. Miles. J. L. TRUEHEART EDWARD MILES, San Antonio, Dec. 3, 1869. (15-1-70d&w)

Local Intelligence.

PERSONAL.—Collector Drabach has moved his office from Austin to this city.

J. W. VAN SYKE, an old lawyer of our city, has returned after several years absence.

THE HERALD AND ITS STAVING.—The San Antonio Herald has recently started out on a new and grander scale, and its proprietors, having failed as a political journal, and being bankrupt in pocket, and long since bankrupt in character, the Herald proprietors, in their desperation, are trying the sphere of journalism suited both to their taste and talents; it remains to be seen if San Antonio will support that kind of newspaper literature, now so much overdone in the larger cities. During the last year, not a single prominent Republican in our community has escaped the vicious attacks of the Herald; no charge was too monstrous for its proprietors to make against a political opponent, and only the heat of a political contest has screened them from the just condemnation of every good citizen, regardless of politics. But now in the lull of political excitement, and after our community has taught the Herald that its politics is not acceptable to a large majority of our people—its proprietors still continue their slanders, slinging out as vicious men prominent for good character and standing in the community. It has been our painful duty to hold up the proprietors of the Herald to the world, as unteachable of morals, and we believe conviction has been gradually growing upon the public with every issue of that disgrace upon journalism. We recognize the fullest freedom of the press; but that liberty must not extend to the liberty of the assassin stabbing the character and fair fame of individuals. Nothing would please the Herald man better than to receive the attention of some gentleman's boot—it would make them feel they had been honored. But we live in a land of law and the ruffian arguments is not half so convincing as indictment and sentence before the proper tribunal. We advise all parties injured to try the law. Not only is our whole community injured and scandalized by the character of the best citizen is at the mercy of these slanders. A man who commits a cold blooded murder brings down the just violence of the entire community; because no man is safe as long as such a fiend is at liberty to strike a blow. Next to life, the most precious thing is private character, and next to the murderer, the wilful slanderer, is the worst enemy of the community.

REQUESTED TO GIVE NAME.—The Herald newspaper, in its issue of the 8th inst., having published an infamous slander, pointing out our late County Judge, Judge Gamble addressed the publishers of the Herald the following note:

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, Jan. 10, 1870.
To J. D. Logan & Co.,
Publishers San Antonio Herald:
You are requested to publish in your evening edition of this date, the name of the individual referred to in your paper of the 8th inst., in the article entitled "A Street Scandal." I mean the "Mormon Saint, &c." of that article.
As the article now stands, it seems rather the attack of the cowardly assassin, than a desire to reveal truth.
I am the only person who has lately been Chief Justice of this county. If the article means me, so state, and in unmistakable terms.
W. W. GAMBLE.

LETTER.—Mr. Montragon, a prominent Mexican politician and a Deputy County Collector, has left for Mexico, and not likely to return.

SCHOOLS TO OPEN.—Whereas the city free schools will open on next Monday. Proper notice of the fact will be given during the week.

MONDAY.—Monday, opened quite lively in the way of business.
What It Is For and What It Does.—These trials are self-evident. PHALON'S VITALIA OR SALVATION FOR THE HAIR is neither sticky, like molasses, nor muddy like a gutter puddle. It is, on the contrary a gentle fluid, clear, limpid, aromatic, harmless, and will restore to gray hair, wickets, beards and mustaches, their original color as certainly as sunshine melts the snow.

FACTS FOR THE LADIES.
I have used my Wheeler & Wilson ever fifteen years. It has done the sewing for two families, and numerous benevolent purposes, without one cent of repairs. I had no personal instructions, but simply followed the printed directions.
MRS. R. E. HALE.

"VITALIA;"
OR
Salvation for the Hair.
For Restoring to Gray Hair its Original Color

PHALON'S "VITALIA" differs utterly from all the "dyes," "colorers," and "restorers" (?) in use. It acts on a totally different principle. It is limpid, fragrant, and perfectly innocuous, precipitates no muddy or flacculent matter, requires no shampooing, and communicates no stain to the skin or the linen. No paper curtain is necessary to conceal its turbid appearance, for the simple reason that it is not turbid. It is, to all intents and purposes, A NEW DISCOVERY in Toilet Chemistry.
PHALON'S "VITALIA" is warranted to effect a change in the color of the hair within 10 days after the first application, the direction being carefully observed.

IT IS AS CLEAR AS WATER AND HAS NO SEDIMENT.
Price, One Dollar per Box, CONTAINING TWO BOTTLES.
SOLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS.

This wonderful vegetable restorative is the sheet-anchor of the feeble and debilitated. As a tonic and cordial for the aged and languid it has no equal among stomachics. As a remedy for the nervous weakness to which women are especially subject, it is superseding every other stimulant. In all climates, tropical, temperate or frigid, it acts as a specific in every species of disorder which undermines the bodily strength and breaks down the animal spirits.

Wherever it is introduced it becomes a standard article—a medicinal staple. It is to-day the best and purest tonic, and the most popular medicine in the civilized world—be sure and get the genuine. Sold by all Druggists, Grocers, and Country Stores.
