TUESDAY, EEB. 22, 1870.

A REW days ago the Telegraph transmitted to us the highly important news from Paris, that the Prince Imperial was skating on the lake of bois du Boulogne.

We only regret that the reporter of the Associated press has not used due diligence in making out how His Imperial Highness enjoyed the skating, whether Ire met with any accident, fell upon his nose, or some other delicate part of his body, and whether this was the only Prince in Europe who spent his leisure time in skating. All this is so extremely interesting to our readers, that we feel compelled to-lead the attention of the Reporter to this omission, hoping, he will in future give full details of the doing of the Imperial AUSTIN, Feb. 17th 1870. Weather-Still Water-Senatorial Pot Simmering &c.

A terrible norther bas prevailed to-day, having a most depressing effect upon politics. Austin is a hard place in a norther, the bold hills and wide avenues afford full play to the storm, while clouds of sand make out-door locometive horrible, and indoors everything is quietly from the newspaper you read to the liest steak you eat.

The Legislature is calmly awaiting the 22nd to begin the Senatorial contest; and the ship of State seems to be floating in still water. It is the fault of the sedate and careful Senate, that the Scuatorial business is not over now, and Texas on her way rejoicing to see her old Uncle th

Sam at Washington, to ask to be taken back into the bosom of his family. But if the business is done in short order when the 22nd gomes around, we shall not grumble much.

The second man as well as the fluid is still a puzzle.

The House has displayed splendid temper in the matter of the contested seats. It being proven by the printed Journals of the Legislature, that M. L. Catholic, and Jesuits, the Scotch and English are mostly Protestant. and one of the worst features about it is the intimations that money is being used to influence the votes of part, quiet farmers and mechanics, while the half-breeds are given to members; for the credit of our Legislature we hope the result will prove otherwise. On Monday there will be a strong effort to hold a cancus and decide the matter so far as the Republicaus are concerned.

The most interesting feature developed in the log-rolling, is the anxiety over the Internal Improvement Committees of either House this simple anxiety speaks volumes -it is a plain declaration that there is an army of schemes in reserve, who are aiming at the credit of the State through the Legislature. the Hudson Bay Company.

The Freuch Jesuits, at the head of whom is Bishop Tache, are said to be men of ability, reverenced by the half-breeds, who follow their advice in civil as well as spiritual af fairs. It is believed that these shrewd organizers are at the bottom of the insurrection. Exercising almost absolute control, they were apprehensive that the transfer of the Northwest Territory to the New Dominion would injuriously affect their power. Their agency in the rebellion is inferred from the fact that, when the convention was called to decide upon resistance to The Denton Monitor, of the 15th, McDongal, then on his way to Fort has the following: On Monday

The convention was followed by the organization of a Council of ten, of which Reil was made President, O'Donohue, Secretary. It was composed exclusively of French halfmoney by calling a water can get the FALL AND WINTER STOCK breeds. This council has its headquarters at Fort Garry, and directs the new government. It was by its order that McDongal was expelled, the loyalists ordered the property several times with arrows. It seems of the Hudson Bay Company seized, and a forced loan made upon the treasury of the company to provide funds for the war.

The resources of the Government, which is neither republic nor monvenge, as they have been bolder in archical, but rather provisional, are their depredations than they were extremely limited. So far, the stores hefere. They now operate in very and money of the Hudson Bay Company have supplied the sinews of war; and as the half-breeds have nothing else to do, they are probably glad to play soldier during the winter months for shelter and provisions. These half-breeds could probably muster five hundred ettective men, and the Scotch and English as many more, it they determined to co-operate in the move ment. They do not show zeal, and and it is not improbable, were a torce of Canadians sent there, they would join them in defeating the M. stole out of the Quartermasters movement. At present, as they corral four horses and eighteen cannot help themselves, and having no voice in affairs, they remain neutral, or affect to be in sympathy with the half-breeds.

The soldiers are old hunters and excellent marksmen, but are for the most part armed with the old flint lock muskets. They carry the ancient powderhorn and bullet pouch, after the fasion of the Continental soldiers. Improved arms are hardly known among them. They would do good service, however, and their intimate knowledge of the country would give them an advantage they would not be slow to improve.

It is manifest that if the rebels had to depend on themselves they could not long resist. They expect external assistance. The flag adopted by the new government consists of three fleur de la above three shaurocks in a wite field, with gold tringe around the border. The shamrocks indicate that Fenian aid is anticipated. - O'Donohue, the secretary of the Conheil of Ten, is a Fenian, and it is reported that an an agent of the Fenlan, head cente of the brotherhood in the United States has already made a visit to Fort Garry affd returned, after having made satisfactory arrangements with the Jesuit priests, who, after all, are the controling spirits of the movement

To-pay is Washington's birth day. Okt Bexar celebrates this day in grand style, by procession and ball. A salute will be fired by order of the General commanding.

WE call the attention of parties who wish to purchase city property, to the sale of the Earhart place, which will take place on the 22d, in front of the Courthouse. The house and seven lots will be sold without reserve by D Y Portis, trustee.

WE learn that the last session of our County Court-Judge Klocke, presidinghas been a very busy one, and paid for all expenses of the Court, leaving even a surplus in the County Treasury. A good many gambling cases have been tried and the defaulters fined according to law.

SAN ANTONIO, Feb. 21st, 1870.

Editor of the San Autonio Express : Sir :- I find from the programme, that I am the orator of the day, for the morrow. Not having been consulted, I decline being made a gass pipe. Revering the memory of General Washington, proud of our past and prospective success as a government, I yet claim the decency of consultation, when called upon to play the part of orator.

Respectfully,

JOHN A. COCKE.

Pasr driving is now the order of to day. Whoever owns a poney or two must make a show by furiously driving through the uarrow streets of our city. Smashes up are of daily occurrence, and it was only on Sunday that we witnessed a broken buggy passing along with three wheels on. Who was the happy driver, and who broke his nose or setatched his leg, we could not

The second concert of the Tyrolese singers took place on Saturday evening at Muench's Hall. A large and select hudience was present, and if we judge from the smiling faces and the unanimous applause, the smilisfaction was general. We at least were much pleased with the songs, as well as the performances on the Zithern, the Glasses and on Wood and Straw. It is not so much the music which we admire, as the originality of the thing. Singing and playing on the violin and other musical-instruments, we hear every day; but this kind of music is entirely new and strikes the ear with a peculiar touch. The interest manifested by all present in the different performances is evidence enough of the general appreciation of the same. We were unable to attend Sunday's concert, and consequently can give 'no secount of it. It is generally understood that the Casino Hall will be tendered to the troupe for a few performances, and we doubt not that if such is the case, the house will be crowded at each concert.

This wonderful vegetable restorative is the sheet-anchor of the feeble and debilitated. As a tonic and cordial for the aged and languid it has no equal among stomachics. As a remedy for the nervous weakness to which women are especfally subject, it is superseding every other stimulant. In all climates, tropical, temperate or frigid, it acts as a specific in every species of disorder which undermines the bodily strength and breaks down the animal spirits.

Wherever it is introduced it becomes a standard article--- medicinal staple. It is to-day the best and purest ionic, and the most popular medicine in the civilized world---be sure and get the genuine. Sold by all Druggists, Grocers and Country Stores.
