county, Counsel for A J Evans elijested, and asked for delay, on the ground that he had not received notice that his seat was to be contested and was therefore unprepared to make a defence. In answer, S W Ford urged the Committee to proceed, alleging shat A J Evans had been served with notice Eogether with a full statement of the grounds upon which his seat was to be contested in compliance with the statute in such sase provided.

Upon investigation of the testimony presented the committee decided that it was in proof that A J Evans had been duly served with notic, and supple time afforded him to prepare for trial. Upon these facts the committee decided that the complaint of A J Evans could only have been made for the purpose of evasion or dation or threatened violeece practiced upon colored voters in the county of Falls. The instances of intimidation threats of life, loss of of employment and social os-tracism that were rife in many counties in this State against voters who sought to exercise a free ballot would if unrebuked subvert Republican Government in any exercise a free ballot would if unre subvert Republican Government in any State. Such attempted terrorism is the very mockery of freedom. Phis flagrant example in the county of Falls and its swift rebuke by this body will serve as a warning to those, who have heretofore maintained their rule and the suppression of the spirit of progress by threaenings and terror. Such will know hereafter that a seat in a Texas Legislature obtained by an attempt to coerce a free expression.

Reform-Movement of the New Orleans Germans.

Our New Orleans exchanges are full with reflections on the reformmovement just started among the Germans of that city. It seems they consider it a very earnest movement, which if carried out according to the programme laid down, will materially change the status of political parties in Louisiana.

It is well known that the German citizens of New Orleans have so far invariably voted the Democratic ticket, and as the German vote in this city alone is estimated at 6000, its withdrawel from the Democratic party would reduce the latter to a hopeless minority, even if the Germans should hesitate for a time to cordially foin the Republicans, which they will ultimately be compelled to do.

More than 15 years, have passed since the Germans of the North cut loose en-masse from the Democratie party and gave that strength to the Republicans which flually led to the victory of 1860. The South has been slow, but is now walking up to the duties of the present age. That old game of the Democrats by which they led the attention of their followers off from themselves, by crying "stop the thief" has played out. Even the South comes gradually to an understanding of the imbecility of a party, which for the last ten from day to day.

It matters little to us, whether the States. Germans in Louisiana have inaugurated this movement in favor of the human progress in this country, charges; we know nothing about directing taxes collected to be refunded, The Republican press rejoices at it them. as the following, taken from the New Orleans Republican, demonstrates.

"Our readers are cognizant of the re-cent vain efforts of the Democratic leaders to revive their organization and inaugu-rate the days of 1808 again."

"No sooner did these Democratic calls, resolutions and proceedings appear, than the German Gazette warned its readers, comprising the whole German constituen-cy, of the attempts of the party, backs in general to resume their away.

reneral to resume their away.

It disclaimed any disposition, particularly, to interfere with the plans of Messrs.
Sambola, Tully, Cotton, Jonas, et downer genus, but called upon the German citizens, to aiding and premoting a better adminis-tration of our municipal affairs. No class are more interested in property, progress, trade and commerce than the Germans. "Accordingly they have organized an earnest movement to three oil the shack-less sought to be reimposed upon them by the Democratic party, and take a due share of participation in public affairs into their own hands, with the intention of joining with their other fellow-citizens having the with their other fellow-citizens having the public welfare at heart; it, nominating and electing honest and capable men to office, on the ground of their integrity and fitness, and not on the ground of their having been violent, proscriptive and intoler-ant Democrats or Know-Nothings.

The following are some of the names of the Germans organizing the movement, and ward organizations are tobe formed, auxiliary to the club which these gentlemen have formed:

Miller, Louis Leonhard, D. Simon, J. J. Weckerling, Rudolph F. Thenrer, Jeseph Ziegler, Jacob Friedrich, Herman Einbeck,

The Picayune, speaking of these names, says as follows :

"These gentlemen are considered representative Germans, and are numbered among the best of our citizens. Under such leaders the unevenient which, at first, found little support, may be successful and productive of good."

The Picayone, in addition to being a good judge, and publishing the best record as well as prognostications of the weather, has also, for years, enjoyed the peculiar function of distinguishing the best and most respectable citizens. For once we agree with it, and we opine that no one will dispute with the Picayune when it says that the above are "representative. Germans," and "among the best of our citizens." 3 9 where the Democracy could boast of having absolute control of the German vote. But this movement was artfully directed into a wrong channel and consequently died out without any momentous result. But if the signs of time do not deceive us, it was the last effort of the Democratic party to secure the support of the Germans in that section of the 43 votes against 26. country. It is now well understood that the future of the German population of Texas lies with the Republicans; the Germans of the West went almost unanimously with them in the last election, and as a matter of course succeeded in obtaining a fair representation in the councils of the State.

This they never were able to secure, as long as they followed their old Democratic leaders.

SOMETIME ago we read a report on a resolution of the city council, favoring the fencing in of the center part of Main Plaza, and the planting of trees and orna: mental shrabs within the fencing. Since then we have heard nothing of it, and saw less than nothing. The time for planting trees is passing by fast. If it is the intention of the city fathers to ornament Main Plaza, an improvement that will meet the hearty approval of all citizens, it ought to

FROM the disability bill which passed the Senate on February 8th, and is now before the House, we publish the following names from Bexar county

THE front of the new Cathedral on Main Plaza is now developing all its architectural beauty. This Cathedrel will be an ornament to the city, and a great improvement to Main Plaza. We venture to predict that those old ugly Mexican buildings that stretch along on the south side of the Main Plaza, will disappear in less thantwo years, and make room for elegant buildings, more suitable to the refined taste of the present generation.

THE CELEBRATION OF WASHINGTON'S BIRTH DAY .- The 22d of February is a sacred day to all Americans. It gave birth to the most honest Republican of this Continent, and will ever be remembered by those who enjoy the blessings of this free Government, the existence of which, as an independent Republic, is mainly due to Washington.

As far as the weather was concerned, yesterday, (Tuesday) did not commence very cheeringly. A heavy mist hung over town, and from all appearances rain seemed to be the nent thing in order. But man supposes, etc. A few minutes before 9 o'clock the rays of the Sun had worked their way through the clouds, and the airy weil fell down as by magic. One of the fairest and sunniest days of the season, was greeted by all who intended to on, was greeted by all who intended to enjoy the festivals of the day.

According to programme, the different associations met at their respective Halls and marched to the Military Plaza, where the procession was formed. The Marshall, Capt. Karber, took the lead on his fine, stately horse, and was immediately followed by the forman brane band, who struck up one of their sweetest tunes. The two fire companies followed next, with Engines and Hook and Ladder Wagons, tastefully decorated with guarlands and flags, and after them the Turner's Association, fairly represented, bearing the United States and Gaiman flag, made their appearance. The next in order was the Mexican club, with the Mexican flag, led by the Mexican lens, why was this so for the principal and in good faith in making any such payments since the 1st day of April, A. D. 1861. All such persons acting as officers of said city, any such bonds, treasury rootes, currency or serion account of the principal and interest, or either of them, the city of said city, from the 1st day of April, A. D. 1861. All such persons acting as officers of said city, from the text of any persons of persons, claiming to act or any persons, claiming to act or said city, from the 1st day of October, 1865, in preciping in the name of said city, the Bonds, Treasury Notes or currency of the late Confederate Government, worlthises paper, purperting to be city scrip of said city, said city, sor in assuming to set in the name of said city in assuming to set in the name of said city in assuming to set in the name of said city in assuming to set in the name of said city in assuming to set in the name of said city in assuming to set in the name of said city in assuming to set in the name of said city in assuming to set in the name of said city in assuming to set in the name of said city in assuming to set in the name of said city in assuming to set in the name of said city in assuming to set in the name of said city in assuming to set in the name of said city in assuming to set in the

Why was this so ?

From the Military Plaza, the procession moved to the tunes of the music through Main street, to the Alamo Plaza, where Col. Newton read Washington's Farewell Address, and from thence back to the Military Plaza, where it dispersed. A grand ball at the Menger Hotel concluded the celebration.

AT the general meeting of the Casino was rented to the Alpine singers for two nights during the week. The first concert will take place to morrow.

A son of intemperance who evidently indulged too early in strong beverages to fairly enjoy Washington's birthday, was yesterday morning by force and violencetransported down Main street to the jail, where he found save lodgement for some time. From his bloody face we judge that he had some unpleasant rencontre before the policemen took hold of him.

This wonderful vege table restorative is the sheet-anchor of the feeble and debilitated. As a tonic and cordial for the aged and languid it has no equal among stomachics. As a remedy for the nervous weakness to which women are especially subject, it is superseding every other stimulant. In all climates, tropical, temperate or frigid, it acts as a specific in every species of disorder which undermines the bodily strength and breaks down the animal spirits.

Wherever it is introduced it becomes a standard article--a medicinal staple. It is to-day the best and purest tonic, and the most popular medicine in the civilized world---be sure and getthe genuine. Sold by all Druggists, Grocers and Country Stores.
