The Prospect.

Next to war and pestilence, we believe that no single evil has more power to cripple the energies, impede the growth, and impair the prosperity of a people, than the use of a fluctuating and depreciated currency.

It imparts to business the dangerous and demoralizing flavor of gambling; and closes the paths to many forms of patient and useful industry, because small profits need to be sure, and no profits can be sure, when all values are changeable as the temperature of the passing hour.

At such periods prices are lifted unattainably high; money obtains an interest, that industry cannot afford to pay; the workman must ask wages in proportion, and the landlords demand rents to cover every change of prices.

The course of trade is impeded when every contract threatens a loss, and every purchase involves a possible sacrifice. If business is forced forward, it must be forced uphill. Such has been our financial status for nine years—induced by the pressure of the great civil war. There is cheering consolation in the prospect that we are escaping finally from the dismal slough of currency depreciation.

We heartily welcome the promise of an early return to a natural and permanent basis for industry. The road is a hard one, and many will sorely feel the pinch, but the country is able to bear the test, and the end will be a sure and stable prosperity.

Thousands were made bankrupts by that panic, and Butterfield Grant and "Sis" came in for their share; and now the Committee declare that "the report is too voluminous for publication."—S. A. Herald.

Here is a direct and positive charge that President Grant shared in the spoils of the great gold speculation in Wall street last September. The report of the Congressional Committee has been published, and it affirms that there is no shred of proof or probability connecting President Grant with these financial "wreckers."

What private channels of knowledge the Herald possesses on this subject, we are not informed. But it now makes the point-blank affirmation, that the President received a "share." We call for the proof.

Surely no Journal published or sustained in a civilized community, can be so unmanly and abandoned as to make such a violent assault against the honor of any American citizen without having ample and adequate proof.

We invite the production of the evidence, and if it is not forthcoming, and as clear and direct as the charge itself, our citizens will form their own conclusions.

DIVISION.—We believe that the division of Texas is only a question of time, but we hope that the unsatisfactory and unwise plan proposed by Mr. Howard will not be pushed through.

Let our admission be accomplished; our civil government become permanent; our school system be established, and our projected trunk railroads be put into operation. Then the people of Texas will be ready to entertain and properly adjust the division question. But the consideration of the subject at this time, would jeopardize matters of primary importance, and delay the political progress of the State.

A SPECIE STANDARD.—Stewart and Claflin the leading dry-goods firms of New York have put their immense stocks of goods upon the market without reserve at a specie basis. Other merchants in New York and Philadelphia are follow-put their goods down to a gold value, and will pay out change in silver. From the present outlook, it is not a long road to a specie standard of values.

Public Meeting.

Upon the reception of intelligence of the untimely death of the Hon. A. K. Foster, Senator elect of the 26th Senatorial District, composed of the counties of Colorado and Lavaca, a large and respectable meeting of the qualified voters of Columbus and vicinity assembled at the Methodist Episcopal Church at Columbus, to take the same into consideration.

Upon motion the Hon. T. C. Barden was unanimously chosen President of the meeting, took the Chair, and in a manner suitable to the occasion explained the objects of the meeting.

After which, upon motion a committee of five (and to which the President was added), was appointed to draft resolutions appropriate to the solemn occasion, and after deliberation reported the following resolutions which were unanimously adopted:

1. Resolved, That the news of the untimely death (by Pneumonia) of the Hon. A. K. Foster, Senator elect of this the 25th Senatorial District, has been received with the most profound regret.

2. Resolved, That by the death of the Hon. A. K. Foster, society has lost one of its brightest ornaments, the State, one of its ablest and most valued public servants, and this Senatorial District its chosen Representative, whose place in the councils of the State will be hard to fill.

3. Resolved, That we tender our heartfelt sympathies to the bereaved wife and family of the Hon. A. K. Foster deceased, and that a copy of these resolutions be transmitted to them, and also to the Houston Union, Austin State Journal and San Antonio Express for publication.

(Signed) CAMILLUS JONES, EDMUND EASON, ISAAC YATES, R. P. TENDICK, T. C. BARDEN, D. D. CLAYBORN, Committee.

After which upon motion the meeting adjourned.

T. C. BARDEN, President.

FOR THE LADIES.—A physician publishes the following useful information, of which the ladies will make a note:

No woman should wear her garter below her knee. It is ruinous to the shape of the calf. More than this, it has serious consequences of another kind. The principal vein of the leg runs just beneath the skin until it reaches the knee, when it sinks beneath the muscles. Now if this is constricted at its largest part by a tight garter, the blood is checked in its return to the heart, the feet are easily chilled, and more liable to disease, the other veins of the leg are swollen into hard, blue knots, becoming varicose, as it is called, and often break, forming obstinate ulcers. This is a picture which a physician sees nearly every day. With the garter fastened above the knee all this pain and deformity are avoided.

INCREASE OF WATER ON PLAINS.—It is said that the streams between the Sierra Nevada and Missouri have been steadily increasing in volume for some years past, and in many places there are now running streams where, twenty years ago, there was not a drop of water. Denver was built on the banks of an extinct creek; it is now a stream crossed by bridges. The Huerfano, the Roysa Pecos, and other streams which were dry during the summer months, ten years ago, are now constantly running with considerable volume. The Laramie plains, over which travelers had to carry water, are now pretty well supplied.

Salt Lake is higher than it was seven years ago. In many places the streams have increased one fourth in five years past, and in many more places where there were no streams, "all hail! there they are."

A Cincinnati paper advertises for "girls for cooking." A cotemporary replies: "You would like them raw, when you get accustomed to them."

MORNING envelopes—Dressing

A Boy's First Boots.

The boot period is the dividing line between babyhood and boyhood. Before the boots one is tramped upon by comrades, and stuck with pins, and we walk with an air of apology for the fact that we were born at all. Robust school fellows strike us across the cheek, and when we turn to them they cry "Who are you looking at?" or what is worse than any possible insult, have somebody chuck us under the chin and call us "Bub." Before the crisis of boots, the country boy carries no handkerchief. This keeps him in a state of constant humiliation. Whatever crisis may come in a boy's history, no handkerchief. This is the very unpopular period of snuffles. But at last the period of boots dawns upon a boy. Look out how you call him "Bub." He parts his hair on the side, has the end of his white handkerchief sticking out of the top of his pocket as if it were recently arranged so, has a dignified and manly mode of expectoration, and walks down the road with long strides, as much as to say, "Clear the track for my boots!" We have seen imposing men, but none have so impressed us as the shoemaker, who, with waxy hand, delivered into our possession our first pedal adornments. As he put the awl through the leather, and then inserted the bristles, and drew them through it, and then, bending over the lap-stone, grasped the threads with a jerk that made the shop shake, we said to ourself, "Here is a gracefulness for you, and power."

It was a Sabbath day when we broke them in. Oh! the rapture of that moment when we lay hold of the straps at one end, and with our big brother pushing at the other, the boot went on! We fear that we got but little advantage that day from the services. All the pulpit admonition about worldliness and pride struck the toe of our boots and fell back. We tramped under our feet all good counsel. We have to repeat that, while some trust in horses and some in chariots, we put stress upon leather. Though our purchase was so tight in the instep that as soon as we got to the woods we went limping on our way—what boots is! We felt that in such a cause it was noble to suffer. For some reason, boots are not what they used to be. You pay a big price, and you might walk all day without heading from them; but the original pair, of which I tell spake out for themselves. No one doubted whether you had been to church after you had once walked up the aisle in company with leather. It was pure eloquence of calf-skin.—[Heath and Home.

Beecher Indignant.

One Dr. Sherman, a truss manufacturer, has been puffing his wares by advertisements in the New York papers, in the form of letters addressed to the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher. The latter has grown angry at last, as the following letter shows:

Brooklyn, Feb. 27, 1870.
T. A. Sherman:
SIR—You have for several weeks addressed to me letters implying that we are in correspondence, and that I am in sympathy with you in your method of treating ruptures. These letters are then published by you as advertisements. I regard your action toward me as an impertinence, and your treatment of the public as a deliberate swindle.

If you will put one of your trusses upon your own mouth, we shall have a test case, for I know of no other rupture so eminent and disgusting.

HENRY WARD BEECHER.
P. S.—This letter, the only one which I have ever addressed to you, you are at liberty to publish.

We notice another clergyman in amiable difficulties. The Rev. David Fisher, who is a Bishop of the Dunkard Church at Monticello, Ind., and a very old man, is charged with ruining the daughter of a brother clergyman. The peculiarity of the case is, that after the story had become public property, the venerable shepherd instead of asking for a suspension of public judgment, walked boldly into his own pulpit as if nothing had happened; whereupon the sheep did not hold a meeting, did not call a council, did not request the Bishop to resign, but did instantaneously, with force and arms, pull the Reverend David out of the pulpit, exhibiting upon the occasion, a more than ovine energy.

Barnum said that if he got all the profits that came from the sale of liquors in New York, he would engage to give a barrel of flour to every family in New York, a suit of clothes to every man in the city, a silk dress to every woman, a library of 100 volumes to every house, a million of dollars to charity, and would then have for himself eight millions of dollars to invest in the

Two Mexicans were arrested on Tuesday, charged with horse stealing.

We had the pleasure yesterday of a call from Major Alden, A. Q. M., U. S. A. The Major is en route for Austin.

The first colored Baptist society has bought the land on which to erect a church.

TEXAS FARMERS GAZETTE.—The first number of the second volume of this excellent agricultural monthly, is now issued. It is doubled in size, and presents an attractive table of contents to farmers and others. Price $1.50 specie per year.

THE Government has taken military possession of the Mexican Gulf railroad, and Mr. Woodward has been installed as superintendent. We hope and believe that this seizure will occasion but a very temporary halt in the extension of the road.

DISTRICT COURT.—Two divorce cases tried. Miss Lottie Stevens has permission to resume her maiden name, having obtained a divorce from her husband. In the other case jury not yet agreed.

THE WELCOME TO OUR GOVERNOR.—On Tuesday evening over one hundred persons, comprising much of the business worth, fashion and beauty of our city, assembled at the ample rooms of the Casino, to meet and greet the Governor elect and his estimable lady.

Among the invited guests were General Reynolds, Carleton, Graham and Gilliam, with Majors Rendlebrook, Terrill and Brooks; Capt. Porter and other officers of the National army.

The Governor moved quietly through the room, chatting with his friends, and saluting the ladies, who brightened the occasion with their rich toilettes and smiles.

After an hour spent agreeably in general converse, the doors to the supper room were thrown open, and the music of the band was the signal of invitation. The table was laid in the theatre of the Casino, and furnished by our leading and justly celebrated caterer, Tobin, with a bountiful supply of choice edibles, carefully and delicately prepared.

The guests sat long at the table. The first toast was offered by Judge Gamble, "Our Governor, General E. J. Davis," accompanied with a few appropriate remarks. The Governor responded in a fitting manner.

Dr. Stearns proposed the health of "Our District Commander, General Reynolds." The General made a beautiful and eloquent response.

Mayor Thielepape proposed "Our President, General Grant." This toast was appropriately responded to by Hon. J. P. Newcomb, Secretary of State.

Captain Porter offered a toast to "Kansas and the Pacific Railways," and called on Prof. Crawford for a reply.

The Prof. happily and promptly met the call, and ended with a humorous compliment to the "Fair women and fat men of San Antonio."

Judge Van Antwerp replied at length to the toast, "Our country and its prospects," and Mr. Stanley Welch to the sentiment, "The Ladies." Upon this inspiring theme the young and eloquent speaker made some graceful and felicitous remarks, to the marked satisfaction of the assembled guests.

To the supper succeeded the dance, and the night was far spent when the pleasant gathering dispersed.

ARRIVALS AT THE MEXICO.—T. M. Farnum, New York; H. Mayer, Savannah; Governor E. J. Davis and lady, Mrs. F. Britton, Mrs. Eady, H. C. Jordan, Corpus Christi; W. E. Fildlander, E. D. Brook, J. S. Stewart, U. S. A.; Geo. Wood, Nevada; J. Wood, N. York; General L. P. Graham, Geo. E. Alden, A. C. Gilliam, U. S. A.; W. E. Parrott, Galveston; John Shaw, Bryan; J. J. Walsh, New Orleans.

GRATEFUL credit is due our city Fathers for the vigorous measures they have been taking for the improvement of our streets. Flores st., formerly impassable in wet weather, will soon present a graded and macadamized front, durable and dry at all seasons. The repairs in other streets will be taken up and pushed forward to permanent completion, as fast as the city finances will permit.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Max Neundorff, well known as a careful instructor in dancing, will give lessons at the Casino Hall. A supply of flower bulbs, such as Dahlias, Tuberoses, Heliopsis, &c., for sale at this office.

THE improvements on the homestead of J. J. Giddings, near the Alamo, are offered at public auction on Tuesday next, by Adams & Wickes.

TRADE.—In the way of trade and business operations, our city pursues the even tenor of its way. Our merchants are busy, though the recent rise in currency has almost destroyed their expectant profits.

active, and a degree of prosperity is apparent, which shows that the foundations of our growth and progress are securely laid.

THE COLD WEATHER.—The dry norther which began to blow on Monday evening, continued without cessation till sundown on Tuesday. Monday night ice was formed of nearly half an inch thickness, but the dryness of the air and the violent wind it is thought saved the fruit trees. Tuesday night was still and quietly cold; the leaves of the peach trees hang blackening in the sun, and the coming crop of fruit is materially injured, if not destroyed. This is a great misfortune to many people here, who, in good seasons almost support their families from the products of their peach orchards.

SKILLING OUT AT COST.—Now is the time for every one who wants goods cheap, to call at Mr. Julius Piper, corner of Alamo and Alameda streets, who is selling out his entire stock, consisting of Family Groceries, Dry Goods, Crockery, Hardware, etc., etc., at and below cost.

FACTS FOR THE LADIES.—We have had our Wheeler & Wilson Sewing-Machine for ten years; have made five hundred suits of heavy cloth upon it, quite a number of tents—which is very heavy work—a quantity of family sewing, from the finest material to the coarsest, and never spent a cent for repairs. I have seen a great many other machines, but would not now exchange mine for any other. Miss S. H. ALEXANDER. Newbern, Va.

A NEW DISCOVERY!!
PHALON'S
"VITALIA;"
Salvation for the Hair.
For Restoring to Gray Hair its Original Color

PHALON'S "VITALIA" differs utterly from all the "dyes,"
"colorers," and "restorers" (?) in use. It acts on a totally different principle. It is limpid, fragrant, and perfectly innocuous, precipitates no muddy or flocculent matter, requires no shaving up, and communicates no stain to the skin or the linen. No paper curtain is necessary to conceal its turbid appearance, for the simple reason that it is not turbid. It is, to all intents and purposes, a NEW DISCOVERY in Toilet Chemistry.

PHALON'S "VITALIA" is warranted to effect a change in the color of the hair within 10 days after the first application, the directions being carefully observed.

IT IS AS CLEAR AS WATER!
AND HAS NO SEDIMENT.
Price, One Dollar per Box, CONTAINING TWO BOTTLES.
SOLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS.

If your Druggist has not "Vitalia" on hand, write, enclosing $1.00, and we will forward it immediately.
