can estimate the peril of the country, in the unequal contest. Lincoln was renominated over the opposition of Mr. Greeley, and reclected, and the war for the Union was a success. I happen to know, however, that this movement of Mr. Greeley gave Mr. Lincoln more poignant anguish than any event of the kind during the war. It was a fire in the rear that he had not anticipated. And now when the war issues are rapidly approaching settlement, when the seal of this will be given by the re-election of Gen.

What the New York "Tribume" Agriculturist Has Done in the Past.

A correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial says:

Since his celebrated letter dissolving the famous political ring of Tweed, Seward and Greeley, Mr. Greeley has never led his party, Whig or Republicans, in his own State. But he has always led a faction. It has happened that Gen. Grant has not given to him and his faction the consideration that he telt they deserved. This is the matter with him. Mr. Greeley has rendered eminent, service to the suprementation of the Supreme Court at its present session, by any and every means.
