We are now assured by ple fact that a man is a member of a legisthem that the only error in our statement was, (and even for that we were not at rault,) in asserting that the Judge issued a positive the rest. It is true this is a bad policy on order to the Sheriff to proceed with the collection of the tax against those who were not parties to the suit by being named in the record. Such order was asked by the Counsel, but finally withdrawn, because it was the opinion of not only the Judge, but the State's Counsel, that no such order was necessary.

Upon this question of law the vided. Mr. Berend's Counsel maintain that the appeal holds good for every tax-payer in the city; the Counsel on the other side insist that it can effect only those who the appeal bond. It is not our design to enter into any legal argument, nor to decide the Supreme Court in good time; but we wish our readers to know. that, in what we stated, we gave what we were told the judge himself believed to be the effect of his decision, and what the attornies who drew the decree still believe it to be.

We believe we stated the exact truth, and that it is the duty of the State administration. Sheriff to proceed with the collection of the tax against every person who is not by name a party to the suit appealed.

cious perversion of truth in the state-Sheriff was a party to the suit, he fore no procedendo, nor special order, was necessary.

We, therefore, submit, that we are in no need of funeral ceremonies yet. If there are any bad odors all his cows to a thoroughbred Jersey

THE following communication from Hon, P. E. Grothaus to the Republica Convention of the 24th Senatorial District has been transmitted to us from Indianols, with the request to publish the same. San Antonio, Texas, Sept. 5, 1872,

Mr. President and Goutlemen of the Convention: I would not have the honor of placing myself before you as a candidate to-day, if it were not for many requests of Repub lican friends to do so; because I believe in the doctrine that " the office should seek the man, not the man the office." Besides this, I am sorry to say that I am deprived of the pleasure and honor to appear before you in person, since private affairs have detained me in this city for some time, and will for a few weeks more. Allow me, gentlemen of the Convention, to say right here, that if you can find one among the candidates for the Senatorial office who appears to you more available, more likely to be successful in the ensuing campaign than myself, I sincerely trust you will nominate him; and rest assured that I will use all my influence to secure serves." Now, we fear that H. G.'s his election, without feeling any disappointment on my part.

Another point, which I beg you gentlemen to take into consideration before you make your choice, is that I am poor, have no means, at least, to enable me to canvass to receive a variety of other polite the whole district, as I would like, and as appellations, indicative of peculiar every candidate ought to do. It is true, I aptness to learn of his new master was a member of our last Legislature, might have sold my votes and be better off to-day, like others; but as I never had any connection with railroad men, and even did not know how to control a sherifi-I remained poor. Very respectfully, yours,

"Our Home Journal" describes a visit to ment, in this : that he stated upon a Louisiana stock farm, distant about 70 miles from New Orleans. There are about 80 head all told, composed of thoroughbreds, grades, crosses and some natives. From 50 to 80 pounds of butter is made weekly, and furnished to regular custom ers in the city at 75 cents per pound. This amount the owner expects to increase by weeding out all the other stock, and keeping none but the Jersey and its grades, and to that end is now breeding

The Missouri Democrat says: There is not among the "reformers now prominently before the country a sin Montgomery Blair during the war, gle man who is not morally, if not legally, guilty of some offense for which hundreds of men have been sent to the Penisentisry. If the reader has any doubt of the fact, let him study the list carefully and draw his own conclusions. He will find somewhere in the record of every one of them a big gouge which would have closeds the prison bars behind a less conspicuous individual.
