THE LITTLE MAIDS SONG.

O happy, happy, shining day!
The time to dance and sing and play!
I wish I only knew
Why all the cleuds are gone to sleep,
And lie like flocks of lazy sheep,
Far up there on the blue. AUCTION

COMMISSION HOUSE The aster must be glad that nods So cheery to the golden rods;
Wide open is its eye;
And happy is the scarlet vine That runs along the dark green pine, As if to reach the aky.

This afternoon, down at the brook A bright-eyed squirrel stopped and took
A dozen little drinks;
Some nuts were lying at my feet,
He looked as if he thought them sweet,
And gave some knowing winks, Austien cales of Day Goods, CLOTHING HAYS, BOOTS, SLOSS, FURNITURE, and every ust then a little leaf quite brown Into the brook came rustling down,

And sailed off like a ship;
The squirrel gave his tail a whisk,
Then made a funny sideway friek,
And left me with a skip.

There's red and yellow, green and pink, And purple too—it makes me think Of Joseph's little coat; The wood is in a rainbow dressed; The hills are like a robin's breast, Or like my pigeon's threat.

Such pretty colors everywhere! Such pleasant feelings in the air! I'm glad as glad can be. Here, Rover, come, let's take a run, And catch a gord-night from the sun Behind the maple tree.

In nine cases out of ten this state of lassitude and torper arises from a morbid stomach. Indigestion destroys the energy of both mind and body; When the waste of nature is not supplied by a due and regular assimilation of the food, every organ is starved, every function interrupted.

Now, what does common sense suggest under these circumstances of depression ! The system needs rousing and trenghtening; not merely for an hour or two, to aink afterwards into a more pitiable condition than ever (as it assuredly would do if an ordinary alcoholic atimulant were resorted to), but radically and permanently. How is this desirable object to be account plished? The answer to his question founded on the unvarying experience of a century, is easily given. Infuse new vigor into the digestive organs by a course of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. THE MERCING AS THE TUNNER'S HALL.—A faw days more poster appeared on the street corners which called on the German voters and stern dissatisfied with the County and City nominations of both parties, to assemble at Turner's Hall on Sunday evening, for the purpose of deciding what course should be pursued by the German voters, at the coming election. In ebedience to this call, which was signed by that irresponsible individual, "Many Citizens," about 100 persons came togethor at the time and place already mentioned. The meeting was called to order by Mr. Elmendorf. Judge H. Klocke was on the occasion of nominating Mr. F. Groos as an independent candidate. Mr. Dittmer made some additional remarks in reference to the Republican Convention to the required use, and singularly conven which nominated the City officers, expressing warm indignation at the conduct pursued by the Republicans on that occasion.

Finally acommittee of two from each Ward, was chosen, to select a municipal ticket, and it being too late in the canvass for the gentlemen present to select a ticket of their own, it was decided that the proposed ticket should be made up of the candidates of both parties now in the field,

The committee retired, and during the interval which ensued, Mr. Groos was called to make a speech. Mr. Groos stigmatized the leaders of the Republicans as " a few miserable fellows," and that it was their object to out-vote them.

Mr. Dittmar was again called upon, and made just the kind of a speech that might have been expected from a disappointed candidate.

Mr. Alex. E. Sweet having obtained per mission from the meeting, referred briefly to Mr. Dittmar's service in Duff's regiment and his subsequent willingness to accept locrative appointment.

The committee returned and reported the fellowing numinations, which were read with commentaries by Mr. Elmandorf chairman of the committee :

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Delicate Creatures.—This is the ohrase applied by His Blackness, the doore of Venice, to the fair ladies of Italy. t was the levely complexion of Desdemo-na, such a radient contrast to his own, that won his heart: sud sooth to say, every man of discernment considers a fair skin, like a sweet voice. "an excellent thing in woman." Now this is a charm which can be acquired. There is a healthful and odoriferous toilet article, known everywhere as Hagan's Magnolia Balm, which literally transfigures a cloudy or sallow skin, suffusing the discolored face. sallow skin, sinusing the discorrect lace, neck, arms and besom with a soft, pearly tinge, and imparting to the surface a smoothness and a gloss like that of polished marble. Instead of clogging the pores, like the sticky enamels, or contracting them, and thus obstructing perspiration like the astringent cosmetics, it cleanses the skin from all impurities and wonder fully improves its texture. This peculiar is particularly appreciated by our ru-belies, who find that the coarseness and roughness, which country air is apt engander, are speedily removed from ir faces, hands, and arms, by this delightful preparation.

sive-Each, one red Cedar Water Can made of Cedar grown on the Battle Field of Murfreesboro, for the purpose of raising an Endowment Fund for the Benefit of the Confede-RATE CEMETERY AT MURFREESBORO, TENN., and the fund will be placed in the hands of the Memorial Association of Mur-freesboro, of which Mrs. D. D. Wendel is President, and Mrs. Gen. John H. Morgan is Treasurer, to be used in keeping in re pair the Confederate Cemetery near Mur freesboro, Tenn.

The drawing will take place under the direction of a Committee selected by the Shareholders and those present at the drawing, in full view of the audience, and will be by blind children, from 10 to 15 years of age, from two glass wheels, the contents of which can be seen by the auon printed slips in sealed boxes, and the other leather tags with numbers on them corresponding to all the tickets sold. After the contents of both wheels are ter the contents of both wheels are thoroughly mixed by revolving the blind child at the first will draw a number therefrom, and then the child at the second wheel will draw a gift therefrom, and the gift thus drawn will belong the number drawn immediately before Thus this process will continue until the 651 gifts are drawn, and it is evident that by this mode of drawing, fraud, favoritism, or a knowledge of what gift any num-ber will draw, is impossible.
