THE BANKRUPT LAW has been repealed by the House of Representatives of the Congress...

THE QUESTION of abolishing the present system of electing the President by State electors is being discussed by the press...

THE following report was made by a special committee on the matter of the Comptroller's report:

There is a movement in Congress to remove the usury restrictions from the national banks.

There never was a valid reason for usury laws, and now they tend only to hamper business...

THE whole newspaper press of country, irrespective of politics, seems to be unanimous in its denunciation of the new 'West India Company'...

In general the tone is that of the boy whose parents are long enough to reach the permission. When President Grant visited the Congress...

The Washington Republicans of the 17th are the following:

The marriage of Miss Jessie Paschal, daughter of the Judge, and Mr. Frank H. Gassaway, was celebrated at the residence of the bride's parents...

not permitted to reach the goal upon fast and strait lines, it is sure that the goal will ultimately be reached all the same.

There are those living to-day who will wonder at the blindness and stupidity of those who have, and still refuse, to permit our government to eat pipe fruit...
