

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

A DEUTSCH off at the Menger to-night. S. DEUTSCH & Co. are receiving new goods.

The Luling stage due last night has not yet arrived.

The Postoffice Commissioners are really distinguished looking, and very pleasant intelligent gentlemen.

The proceedings of the last meeting of the city council are, very interesting and will be treated in detail hereafter.

A few more arrests and we shall succeed in stirring up Mr. Freisleben and the constabulary.

ALDERMAN SWANNEY made a political speech at the meeting of the city council yesterday.

ALDERMAN SWANNEY made a political speech at the meeting of the city council yesterday. We hope it will be the last time he will attempt it or we shall be on hand to give a verbal report.

ROBERTSON, the Sunday night last, a colored man robbed Kate Parker, a lady of the dominion of $500 worth of jewelry, the thief was arrested and the property recovered.

Next the anniversary of a proud day in Texas history, it suggests the idea that the neglected graves of Milam, and other heroes should be placed in the city limits, might be thought of, and some effort made to place over them a monument.

ACTION FOR THE LADIES.—The special auction sale for ladies will commence every morning at 10 o'clock a. m., until the entire stock is closed out. Gentlemen not admitted.

J. H. FRENCH, OLD BRANDY.—It is too late to discuss the advantages or disadvantages of securing the location of the new penitentiary; that question ought to have been settled before.

WE are authorized in stating that the building of the Military Depot will be immediately commenced, orders to that effect having been issued by Gen. Sheridan, and that Military Headquarters are to remain here permanently.

PERSONAL.—Cok Terrell, of Austin, a prominent member of the bar, is in our city. It has been eight years since the Colonel was here, and he really thinks we improved since; and he thinks the International railroad will be built in our city.

"Do you see that old moon going along there?" said a gentleman to me yesterday. "Yes," we replied, looking in the direction and seeing a tall ordinary looking man walking down the street.

JA THE BARRISTER.—The Barrister at Law, J. H. French, is in our city. He is a prominent member of the bar, and he really thinks we improved since; and he thinks the International railroad will be built in our city.

HE IS A RICH MAN.—In encountering the rich man of our city, we omitted to mention our city engineer, Mr. Freisleben. It is well known that he has grown rich in the city.

FOR COUGHS AND COLDS USE CLAYV'S WILD CHERRY AND SQUILL. For sale by J. Clayton and A. Dreiss.
