Mr. Joshua Montgomery Sears, a student in Yale College, attained his majority on Christmas Day, and with it stepped into the possession of a neat little property estimated at $90,000. His parents died in his infancy and the property has been held in trust by three trustees. About one-half of the property consists of real estate in Boston.

The Centennial year will be a good, long, full, plump year of 366 days.

A man wandered into a station house in Springfield, Massachusetts a few evenings since and requested to be looked up, as he feared that he was going to become insane. The remarkable foresight exhibited would lead to the conclusion that the man was not as crazy as he thought himself, but on the subsequent morning, he was found to be a raving maniac.
