SUNDAY MORNING, March 25, 1877.

It is said that Lerdo has given up all claims for the Presidency of Mexico.

PRESIDENT HAYES has invited the rivals for the South Carolina governorship to Washington, for a conference upon the situation.

CHARGES of perjury have been preferred against three jurymen in the Sullivan murder case in Chicago, on the ground that they had, before the trial, expressed a belief in Sullivan's guilt, and that they ought to be hung.

The will of Joseph L. Lewis of Hoboken, N. J., leaving $1,000,000 to the Federal Government to help pay the National debt, is to be contested by a person who claims that his wife is a niece of Lewis.

Four clerks of the United States Treasury left New York for Europe last Saturday, carrying with them $10,000,000 of 4 1/2 per cent. United States bonds for the syndicate.

The Magna Charta Association has issued a proclamation, signed by Doctor Kenney, denouncing the course of De Morgan in threatening to march to the House of Commons and demand the release of the Tebbourne claimant as sedition and dangerous, and warning all Magna Chartaists not to aid him.

The Boston News Letter, the first newspaper in America, was conducted during some part of the Revolutionary War by Mrs. Margaret Draper.

Dr. Warren, President of the Boston University, says officially: "In no department of the university has the presence of young women depressed the standard of scholarship."

The Kansas City Price Current says: "An editorial in the Price Current forwarded from Texas to Kansas, the coming season, would be the figures, which was then given, 175,000, we have had reason to believe were far less than the probable number which would be driven."

The Diplomatic Costume. A Washington correspondent writes: "The diplomatic corps were in full court dress, which for the night of the 20th, was a white frock coat, a white waistcoat, and a white cravat."

A young yearling journalist infests new society of the night. He is a young fellow, with a high opinion of himself, and a low opinion of others.

They can deliver to their customers at any point in Texas as low as same instrument can be bought from the factory in New York or Boston, saving the purchase, the expense, delay, and risk of long transportation.

They supply families direct, giving them every advantage usually given agents. Parties living in towns on any of the different lines of railroad in the State, without extra expense, and in all cases ship on approval, and do not require a dollar in money until the instrument is received and found satisfactory in every respect.

A LETTER FROM MARTIN LUTHER.

The Reading (Pennsylvania) Times says that Mr. Frederick Luster, of Reading, Pa., in his keeping an original manuscript letter of the great reformer, Martin Luther, dated in the year 1542. The letter is written on a half sheet of paper, note size, and is in a well preserved condition. The manuscript is legible, and the signature, "Martin Luther, D." is written in a good, bold hand.

It is said that Lerdo has given up all claims for the Presidency of Mexico. PRESIDENT HAYES has invited the rivals for the South Carolina governorship to Washington, for a conference upon the situation.

WOMEN IN JOURNALISM.

The Lowell Offering was the first magazine in America. If not it was the first, entirely sustained by working-women. The Rev. A. C. Thomas says, "It was the first work written entirely by factory girls and the first magazine or journal written exclusively by women in all the world."

THE TEXAS CATTLE DRIVE.

The Kansas City Price Current says: "Some weeks back there was published an editorial in the Price Current forwarding from Texas to Kansas, the coming season, would be the figures, which was then given, 175,000, we have had reason to believe were far less than the probable number which would be driven."

The Story of a Beggar's Capture among the Indians and Escape.

For some time past, the story of a beggar's capture among the Indians and escape has been the talk of the city.

A number of Indians in the dead of night swooped in upon the almost defenseless family and took all prisoners.

Thus he apparently, to his life, joined for all time the fortune of the nomads.

Henry, after traveling with the party for some distance, they had a war dance around the scalp and heart, which were at the feet of long poles.

Reporting a Bandage. A young man of this city who has yearnings for fame to be acquired in journalistic circles.

"There, sir," casually remarked a Boston bar-keeper, pointing to a shabby-looking fellow who had just come in.

THE PRINTERS "SUNDAY OUT"

The Express Boys Brave the Dangers of Nicolls' Sheep Ranch.

In case the EXPRESS should fail to make its appearance on Tuesday morning, the fact may be attributed to the savage and blood-thirsty nature of the sheep on Mr. E. S. Nicolls' ranch, west of the city, about eight miles. John Nicolls proposed to give the printers of the EXPRESS a "Sunday out" by taking them to his father's ranch in an ambulance this morning, and as soon as the last "take" was in type the boys started for the sheep ranch as mentioned. For two days there had been much discussion of, and much preparation for, the event, and the Texas part of the party—who thought everything needful was prepared when the list of supplies embraced a keg of beer, a package of tobacco, a package of cigar papers, and ten cents worth of tawdles—were no little surprised when the Cincinnati man declared he would not risk his valuable life out there without shot-guns and bowie knives, for protection against the sheep. "Fats" suggested that the party were not so "green" that they need have any fears of an attack from the wool producers, whereas the man of Cin. waxed wroth and swore they couldn't fool him; he knew what a sheep was: had seen many a man in Cincinnati bitten by them, and that a sheep bite was as bad as that of a mad dog. To allay these fears a collection was taken up with a view to the purchase of defense, but when "Fats" started out for the purpose of procuring them, the man of Cin. listened to the jingling of the silver and then "re-acted." "Never mind boys," he said, in a tremulous voice and with tears in his eyes, "I can take the chances if you can. Just invest that money in another keg of beer."

If the party return tomorrow and mangled by the teeth of Nicolls' sheep, our friends in the syndicate form can say "Shake not thy gory locks at me, thou can't not say I didn't say it would be so."

The Alamo Rifles gave a ball at their Army last night.

Oh, how loud, state and important was the local item market yesterday.

There was a mad and hoarse yanking on of overcoat yesterday morning, the air being decidedly chilly.

The remains of Henry Weir, Wm. Hummel and Christopher Bower were interred in the City cemetery last week.

Look at those superb Brussels, two and three ply Carpets, Rugs, Mats and Oil Cloths at Glass & Wood's.

A frightful wind storm followed the rain in this section Friday night. Great damage reported in the West and South.

Civil cases and probate business of no special interest to the public occupied the attention of the county Court yesterday.

The great beauty of Glass & Wood's stock, is that it is new and fresh. They bought their goods low, for cash, and will sell them the same way.

The Austin Statesman puts up a half column wall, saying all kinds of business is overcast in that place. How the town up and now it is what next fall.

Is any arrangement being made for a public observance of San Jacinto day in this city? We see arrangements are being made for the celebration of the day in other cities.

A report was circulated yesterday that the frame buildings at Uvalde were flattened by the storm; Friday night, and several lives were lost; but we failed to secure any authentic account of the effect of the storm in that section.

Another citizen was arrested yesterday morning for a violation of the ordinance in relation to having chimneys cleaned. Property owners should not forget this important matter.

Two "drunks" comprised the Recorder's docket at yesterday's morning's session: a plain drunk and down for $5, and an ornamental drunk and disorderly for $10.

A sensation "in high life" is talked about, but it is said to be too high for a common newspaper reporter to reach it. However, show where it is stuck up, and there will be some of the most energetic reaching you ever saw.

Mr. Ben Sour, at the Metropolitan, belied his name last night, or rather at 2 o'clock this morning, by proving "sweet" to the EXPRESS force and embarrassing them with "spit." Ben prides himself on his resemblance to Cronin, and being one of the best of fellows, all of which the EXPRESS boys will stand by.

The story of "Baby Bates and his Pop" would be one of interest had we the space to go into details. Just in the absence of space we can only say baby was found $25 yesterday afternoon for surreptitious carrying his little pistol under his coat-tails. "Cousadad, we believe the charge was."

By reference to our advertising columns it will be seen that the G. H. & S. A. R. H. has established a General Land and Immigration Office at this city under the supervision of Mr. J. B. Andrews, Vice-President of the road. Land owners should send their advertisements and make note of the fact.

Last night Plaza street man got drunk last night and thinking it was St. January, San Jacinto Day or the Fourth of July, made the night round with a salute of eleven rounds from an old shot gun. The police hustled to the scene, and the money value of the celebration will be determined by the Recorder Monday morning.

The special contract committee on water works were in session last evening, warmly discussing the various propositions made for the creation of water works in this city, and no doubt the matter will be formally reported to the council at its next session. San Antonio needs water works, and no doubt the people would vote for any reasonable proposition to secure them; but they will not vote for the proposition looking to their paying for the works and somebody else owning them.

In writing up the case of the two boys, Capt. Fallon and Alf. Bettison, arrested in this city by Mr. Phil Sheridan and taken to Galveston the first of the week, the News of that city casts a reflection upon the arresting officer by saying "the officers of San Antonio expect a reward, and are leath to give the watch up till the reward is forthcoming." Mr. Phil Sheridan who is entitled to the reward, or a good portion of it at least, has not so far refused to produce it when the demand is made by the proper authority. He is not expected to give it up to any one who sees fit to ask for it, as it is no responsibility for the safe keeping until it is placed in the hands of the court or some officer authorized by the court.

Building Lots For Sale. Eight building lots, 50x150 feet each, within half a mile of new Government Depot. Very desirable location, on slope of hill facing the depot. Will be sold for cash, very low. Address L. F. T., this office.

OUR FAIR PROSPECTS

Growing Fairer and Fairer at Every Turn.

The Committee of merchants met the trustees of the Fair Association yesterday at per agreement, and the matters connected with the Fair Association and their present condition were fully discussed and explained. The following resolution was unanimously adopted by the Trustees:

Resolved, That the Agricultural Stock Raising and Industrial Association of West Texas grant the merchants and business men of San Antonio the right to erect such buildings and make such improvements thereto as they may deem necessary, with the right to use for the period of ten years a tract of at least five acres of land on the grounds of the Association, owned by the Association and not in controversy, with the right to control and disburse such funds as they may collect for that purpose, the merchants to have control and absolute management of such buildings and improvements, erected or constructed by them, with the privilege, on the termination of the building, to remove the same, if the same are not purchased from them by the Association.

A committee consisting of Messrs. Fred Bingham, Trustee, and Mr. H. Grenet, was appointed to select the site to be devoted to the use of the merchants.

A committee of five, consisting of President Sawyer, and Messrs. Story, Peay, Bingham and Steves, was appointed to examine and report on the plan of opening a mile track on the grounds, in lieu of the present half mile track, which heretofore do not favorably consider as suitable for race.

The Trustees will hold another meeting on Saturday, March 24, at 4 p. m., to receive reports of the committee, and arrange for the fall Fair. The Fair is proposed to be held in the latter part of October next.

It is hoped that new life will be infused, and that the Trustees, with the assistance of the business men of the city, will receive the encouragement and aid of all classes of the people of the city, county and West Texas in general.

Let us put our utmost endeavors to this end, and success will be assured.

School Examination. The Board of Directors of the German English School have notified its friends and patrons that there will be an examination of the pupils on the 26th and 27th of the present month.

Religious Notice. Rev. J. J. Buckley, of New York City, will occupy the pulpit at the Methodist Church this morning at 11 o'clock and this evening at 7:30. Dr. Buckley is one of the ablest divines in the New York Conference, and is spending a few days in San Antonio, resting after a series of protracted meetings conducted by him in Stamford N. Y., one of the city's suburbs. He is a member of the body appointed by the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church for the revision of the Hymn Book, and is an able and eloquent preacher.

Weather Probabilities. The weather indications for the Gulf States to-day, telegraphed from the observatory at Washington last night, are: Cold northerly winds and rising barometer, with rain in lower Mississippi valley, followed during the afternoon by rising temperature and falling barometer, with light and variable winds.

Signal Service Report. The officers of the Signal Service department in this city yesterday furnished the following report in regard to the storm which visited this section:

Friday at 5 p. m. the wind changed following from the north to the east, increasing in velocity up to 9:05 p. m. when it traveled at the rate of 30 miles per hour with a pressure of 29.15. The storm, which did not do much damage, was done south, the barometer at Brownsville varying but 3-100 of an inch. The rainfall at San Jacinto, 30 inches. The storm coming from the north interrupted the working of the wire, and was unable to tell the amount of damage done.

Freight Rates. First class freight rates from New York to this city are 35¢ per 100 pounds. As Austin is as far from water transportation as San Antonio, the following from the Austin Gazette of Friday will interest our merchants:

"Mr. Morgan has reduced freights by his line from New York to Austin to one dollar per hundred for first-class. This is only five cents in excess of the rate to Brownsville, and being one of the best of fellows, all of which the EXPRESS boys will stand by.

Now, if the officers of our railroad are in earnest in their expressions of friendship for us, in their vaunted desire to build up this city, they must make an effort to give us as good rates as other places. We understand the merchants of Comstock, Fredericksburg and other places in that section would ship over our road and their business here if they could get as good rates as they can get from Austin to Galveston, but failing in this go to Austin to make their shipments of produce and buy their goods.

Those River Lots. In consequence of the very low price at which those lots on the San Antonio River are being offered by Mr. P. J. Moss, general remark and attention are being given them. He offers lots one hundred and seventy feet deep, fronting east, and running back to the river, where the banks are high and covered with large trees, at four hundred dollars; lots two hundred and fifty feet deep at five hundred dollars, and others in proportion. Some are already engaged and sold, and being only seven in all to sell, they will undoubtedly be picked up in a very few days, as he offers them fully forty to fifty per cent less than any other lots in the city. They are in the vicinity of the Railroad Depot, near Avenue C, making them in the most sought-for locality in town.

During the storm Friday night some banners in the Mexican quarters amused themselves by firing off their pistols. They escaped the police who gave them a lively chase.

Buggies. Mr. Chas. Cook has brought a very fine lot of buggies, open, top and phaetons, from Lexington, Kentucky, which he desires to sell at greatly reduced prices. They can be seen at the Central Hotel.

Stoves! Stoves! Just received, 250 Cooking and Heating Stoves of every description, at manufacturers' prices, freight only added. Every stove guaranteed to give satisfaction. Call on Geo. White, 78 & 80 Commerce street, sign of the Red Coffee Pot. mh21 1w

Personal

Mr. G. A. Vinton, the Galveston safe man, is in the city. Mr. V. is well known to our citizens, not only as a business man but as a dramatic reader of brilliant attainments, and we trust he can be prevailed upon to give a reading during his visit.

We met in the city to-day, Mr. H. Wm. Mosler, representing the reliable wholesale grocery house of Heidenhausen Bros. Galveston. He will endeavor to show our dealers in groceries the advantages of purchasing near home. This firm does a large business and are accommodating and prompt business men.

That sterling Texas, Gen'l Harney, we are gratified to learn, is on a tour of observation to our city. We are warmly informed that he is prepared, with other capitalists, to make investments. As yet however, nothing definite has been accomplished—rumors to the contrary notwithstanding. Gen. H. and friends will visit various sections of Western Texas before any definite action is taken. We hope our sufficient sections of the State will afford glowing inducements for heavy investment.

Thos. J. Easterling, Beville; J. W. Dally and wife, Columbus, Texas; W. H. Jennings, Jr., San Marcos; E. E. Root and wife, Dallas; Nathaniel W. Traub, Lusk Springs; D. O. Ramsey and J. C. Strickland, G. H. & S. A. R. C.; George Cameron, Ashkaah; S. L. Cather, Galveston; J. Van Gaeken and C. Billinger, Ludwig, E. Carlin, Paris; W. G. Lockwood, Houston; Mike J. Jacobs, Galveston; John C. Russell, Louisville, Ky.; John W. Dodson, St. Louis; J. O. Harris, Ottawa, Ill.; O. B. Price, Columbus, H. Volkel, Schulenburg; D. S. Williams, Houston; and A. C. Schreyer, Chicago, were among the arrivals at the Menger yesterday.

An Atlanta correspondent of the Acorn, Ga. Telegraph, contains the following complimentary notice of Col. S. B. Spencer who is now a resident of this city: "Col. S. B. Spencer, one of the best and most eloquent advocates of the Atlanta war, has removed from this State to San Antonio, Texas. Colonel Spencer is a native of old Liberty county, and is a fine specimen of that manly type of Southern gentry—the ecocast gentleman. He commanded a regiment of cavalry during the late war between the States, and was in many of the bloodiest and most hotly contested battles of the war, in all of which Colonel Spencer conducted himself with distinguished courage, so much so on several occasions to merit and receive the commendations of his superior officers. Since the close of the struggle Colonel Spencer has resided in the city of Atlanta, being engaged in the successful and energetic practice of his profession. After two years' residence in the capital, Colonel Spencer was elected Mayor, by a large majority, which position he filled with ability and credit to himself, and advantage to the city. In politics Colonel Spencer has always been a staunch and unwavering Democrat. At one time, since the war, his activity and principles cost him the penalty of an arrest by the United States authorities in this State. We do not hesitate to recommend this genial and accomplished gentleman to the good people of the State and the city of his adoption, as an honorable gentleman, an energetic and sound lawyer, and a patriotic and public spirited citizen of enlarged and intelligent views. Though we regret his loss to our State, we wish him every success in the great west."

Lost. A check dated March 24th, 1877, drawn by E. D. L. Wickes, favor E. D. L. Wickes, or bearer, of James T. Thornton, for $1,107.75. The public is warned not to negotiate.

GRAND CONCERT. At the Central Garden, Sunday, March 25th.

Today, Sunday, at 3 p. m. there will be an Instrumental Concert at Wolfram's Central Garden, it being the annual reopening of the Garden for the summer. Free to all. mh23 2w
