Board of Supervisors:
Zach Jones, Chairman
L. R. Reed, Vice Chairman
Foster S. Price, Secretary
J. R. Mims, Supervisor
J. W. Cox, Supervisor
Foster S. Price, Secretary. Board of Supervisors in reporting on the progress of the District, states that, since the North Concho River Soil Conservation District started ranch and farm planning, January 18, 1942, Conservation plans have been developed by 92 land owners and operators with the assistance of Soil Conservation Service technicians available through the District Supervisors. These 92 plans cover 433,765 acres or 39% of the total land area of the district. That the value of prompt establishment of planned practices is recognized by the co-operators is emphasized by the fact that 137 miles of level closed end terraces have been built to hold the water on crop land on 3993 acres of crop land on 41 stock farms. Ranchers have reduced livestock on ranges to properly stock 50%, or over 200,000 acres of the range land on which conservation plans have been completed.

We are proud of the progress that has been made but we must always keep as our goal the treatment of every acre of range and cultivated land in this district in a manner that will keep the fertile surface layer of soil in place and use the maximum amount of rainfall for grass and crop production thus yielding the greatest return in feed, fiber and food.

Following are a few examples of some of the immediate benefits to be derived by the application of one of the practices recommended by the Soil Conservation District: J. R. Mims last year, 1943, by running at the rate of 165 ewes per section received a net return of $4200.00 from 1400 acres or $3.00 per acre. The grass reserve built up last summer and fall conditioned the ewes for fall breeding

Lions Club Barbecue Climaxing Drive for New Members

The Sterling City Lions Club will have a ladies night barbecue dinner in the park next Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock, climaxing a drive for new members which ended this week. Captain Webb Hudson's side won the contest, so Captain S. M. Bailey's group has to serve the food and furnish the dessert.

New members gained were Martin Reed, Ross Hardy, Mac Benge, W.W. Durham, Ted Brown, D. Hall, O.T. Jones, Earl Bailey, and County Agent Dodd.

The Lions and their wives will have their annual ladies night meeting with the barbecue dinner.

Vern Davis presented a timely talk on "Post War Planning" at the luncheon Wednesday. Rev. B. B. Hestir was a guest. Mrs. Rufus Foster and Mrs. Lura McClellan served the lunch.

Livestock Shipments

W.L. Foster shipped three cars of cattle to Illinois last Sunday. That day Jeff Davis shipped 3 cars of sheep to Kansas and H. J. McConnell shipped five cars of sheep to Kansas City.

W.N. and L.R. Reed shipped two loads of Rambouillet lambs to the Fort Worth market Monday. They weighed 72 pounds and brought 12 1/2 c.

Jeff Davis, livestock dealer has bought 800 lambs from Roy Foster and 500 from Mud Allen for fall delivery at 9c.

E.H. Switzer, about 50, manager of a wholesale grocery concern in Big Spring, died instantly about 6:30 p. m. Sunday when the car in which he was riding ran off a steep embankment, jumped the first wing of a concrete culvert and collided with the second wing about 10 miles west of Sterling City on the Big Spring highway.

Mr. and Mrs. Seamon Smith of Lamesa, both about 35, other occupants of the 1939 Plymouth sedan, are in a Big Spring hospital undergoing treatment for injuries sustained in the crash. Smith suffered bruises and his wife has a broken jaw, possible internal injuries, and had several teeth knocked out.

It was sometime after the accident before Smith was able to flag down assistance, it was reported.

Appendectomy

Mrs. Homer Pearce underwent an appendectomy operation at the Shannon hospital in San Angelo Tuesday afternoon following an acute attack on Monday.

Mrs. Pearce is recovering from the operation nicely.

Two Volunteers

Paul Collins and Jim Butler, Jr. have volunteered for the Army and will leave here the latter part of the month for examination and induction.

Paul is the son of Rev. and Mrs. Lester Collins of Dallas, and is Claude Collins' nephew. Jim is son of the Jim Butlers.

Both boys volunteered for the Army and Paul requested immediate induction, waiving the 21-day furlough.

Noratadata Club

Mrs. J. S. Augustine, Jr. was hostess to the Noratadata Club at their last meeting of the year, entertaining recently in the home of Mrs. Lee Augustine. The theme for the program was "Anchors Aweigh", and was featured by a "Toast" by the skipper, Mrs. G.C. Murrell, president for this club year. "Toasts" by the deck hands, club members, were given in turn, and the meeting was closed by Mrs. Murrell reading the names of new committees appointed for the ensuing year by Miss Sue Nelson, incoming president. A salad course was served.

Games of bridge were played, and Miss Jamie Sue McEntire won the prize for high score, and Mrs. Edwin Aiken won Bingo. Others present included Meses. Dayton Barrett, Fred Allen, Martin Reed, Trinton Revell, Harold Gober, Foster Sims Price, Harvey Hennigan and Tommie Johnson.

PFC. JAMES R. CLARK

M. P. in A. A. F. In England

Pfc. James R. Clark, 23, has been with the U.S. Air Forces in England for over six months. Having volunteered in June 1942, he received his basic training at Fort Sam Houston and Sheppard Field, Texas. He spent most of time before going overseas at Buckley Field, Colorado.

His wife and small daughter, Barbara Ann, reside here with Jim Bob's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Aaron F. Clark. Finishing high school here, Jim Bob is an M. P. in the Army Air Forces.

Pfc. Clark wishes that Sterling County was getting some of the rains that fall so regularly over in England.

Home After Two Years Overseas

Dewitt Ayres, son of Mack Ayres, is home on a furlough after having spent two years fighting in North Africa, Sicily and Italy. Staff Sergeant Ayres was awarded the Purple Heart. He received shell fragment wounds between the shoulders during the Sicilian campaign. This veteran of General Mark Clark's 5th Army wears the American Defense Ribbon, Good Conduct Ribbon, and the European Campaign Ribbon.

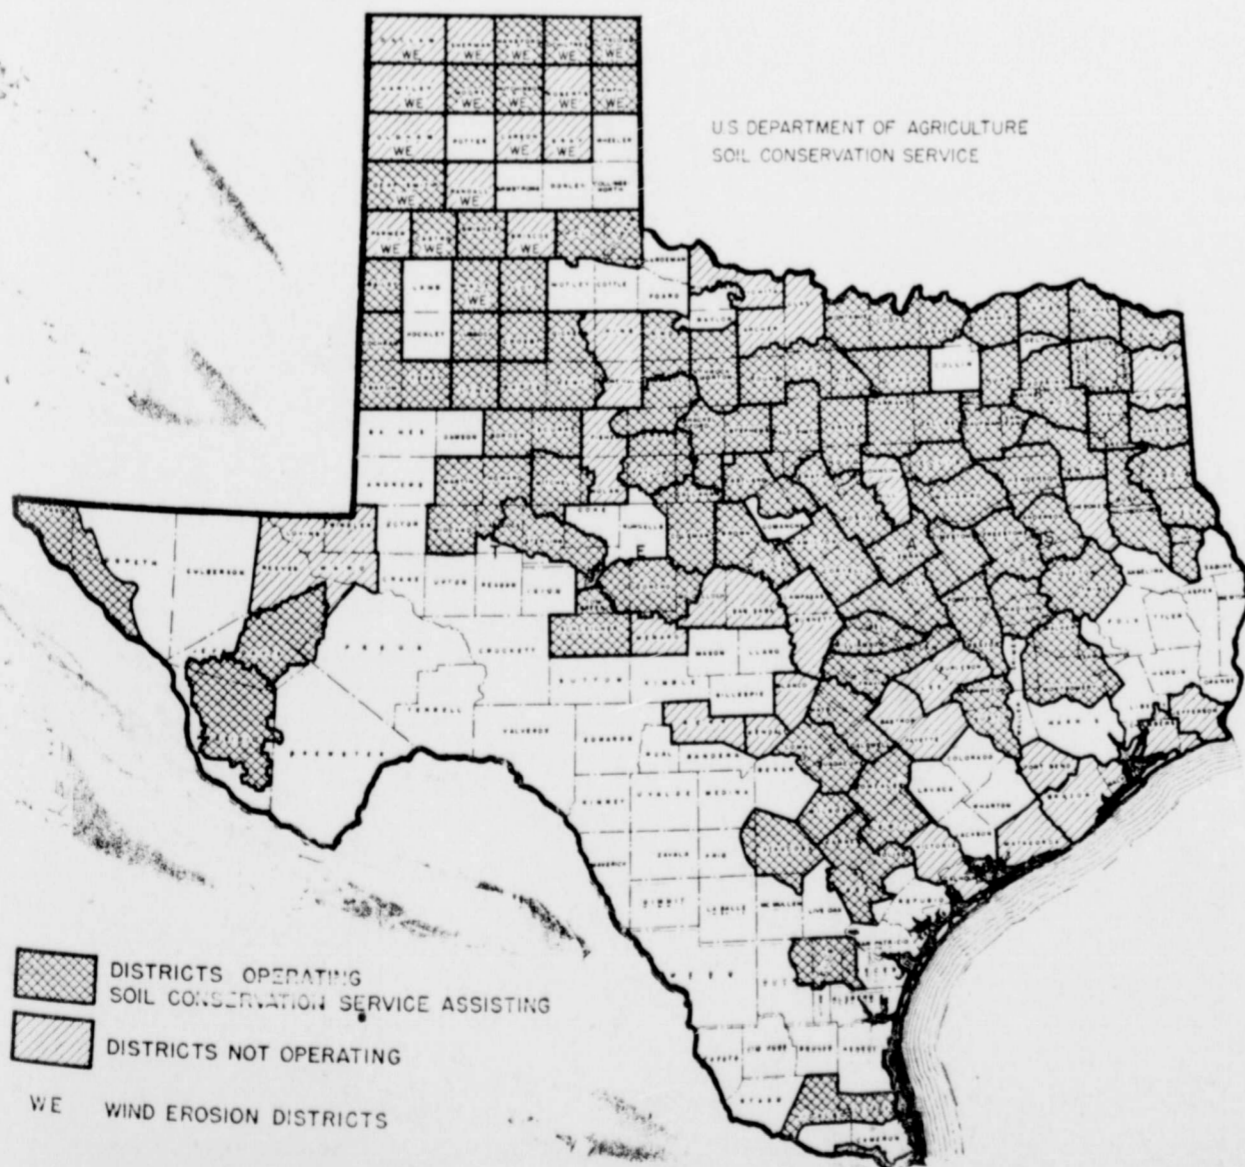

Sgt. Ayres joined the Army in January 1940 at Fort Sam Houston. He trained at Fort Ord, California, and shipped to England in August 1942, thence to North Africa. He received his wounds the second day of the Sicilian invasion. He saw President Roosevelt when he was in North Africa.

After Sgt. Ayres' 21 day furlough is up, he will report to Fort Sam Houston for reassignment.

Hears from Son In Japan

Mrs. Laura Green was notified Wednesday by Washington, D. C. that they had intercepted a short wave broadcast Tuesday from her son, Sgt. Henry P. Latham in Japan. Latham said that he was happy to be able to send the message, that he was well and had been getting letters from his mother and friends and also a package from his mother. He asked her to send him pictures. Sgt. Latham was captured following the fall of Bataan.

Claude Collins sold 500 yearling ewes to C.L. West of Forsan last week.

On July 1, 1944 Texas had 113 Soil Conservation Districts organized, covering 100,781,000 acres, or 60 per cent of the state's land area and 80 per cent of the farms and ranches. The North Concho River Soil Conservation District covers 1,136,000 acres. 91 of these districts are operating with the technical assistance of the Soil Conservation Service. 22 districts are not operating because the Soil Conservation Service has not had the available personnel to give the needed technical assistance.

GASonomy HOW TO PUT JELL IN JELLIES

Do you remember when grandmother had trouble putting the "jell" in jellies? Or, once in a while, when she turned the jelly out on a plate, it would stand but not quiver, and the color was dark and the jelly had lost the fresh fruit flavor?

One of the reasons for her trouble was the lack of a range with quick-cooking facilities. Long cooking always reduces fruit flavor, darkens color, and may even break down the pectin which is responsible for the "jelling" quality.

Now, quick-cooking gas ranges make jam and jelly making easy and are available everywhere. Even homemakers living in suburban, rural or semi-rural areas have regular gas service through "bottled" or "tank" gas.

For quivery, tasty blackberry jam, use these directions: Wash and hull berries, allowing 3/4 cup sugar for each cup of fruit. Mash fruit as it heats. Bring to boiling; add sugar and cook until thick—not more than 20 minutes. Seal in hot, sterilized glasses.

HERE'S A HANDY BROILING CHART

Busy farm wives find broiling a highly suitable method for cooking meat because it's time-saving. When properly broiled under a gas flame, meats are attractively browned outside, juicy inside, and have a plump, full appearance.

Point-conscious cooks will use a 350° F. oven for broiling, instead of turning the flame high. Not only do high temperatures shrink the meat, but waste points and precious fuel which has gone to war. If you are using "bottled" or "tank" gas, remember it is doing war work in factories and on the battlefronts.

Here is a time-table for broiling. Set gas broiler at 350° F. and maintain constant temperature throughout the broiling period.

Meat	Weight Pounds	Cooking Time	Rare	Medium
Beef
Chuck Steak—
1 inch	2½	24	30

Loin Chops—

1½ inches	5 oz.	18

Lamb chops are not served rare. Ham is always cooked well done; it requires about 25-30 minutes for a slice 1 inch thick. The time for broiling bacon is influenced by personal preference as to crispness.

Why Farmers Should Buy and Keep War Bonds

by R. R. Renne
President
Montana State College

BUILDING financial reserves, paying off debts, helping to fight dangerous inflation, and patriotism, are all good reasons why farmers should buy and hold War Bonds.

A good financial reserve is an important part of sound farm management. War Bonds are safe investments and are almost as liquid as cash. Thus, they comprise an excellent financial reserve for unexpected needs and emergencies. After the last war prices fell rapidly, as they have after every major war, and thousands of American farmers lost their farms because they could not weather the economic storm. No other factor is more essential for continued satisfactory farm operations, through good years and bad, than adequate financial reserves.

In addition to unexpected needs for emergencies, farmers need adequate reserves to finance repairs, replacements and improvements around the farm. Difficulties in obtaining needed materials and labor for these expenditures cause farm buildings and equipment to wear out faster during the war period than in peacetime. If farmers can wait until sometime after the war ends to make these repairs and improvements, their dollars should go farther than they will immediately following the war, and better quality materials will probably be available. Moreover, too rapid or forced cashing of War Bonds immediately after the war could create a serious situation and contribute to post-war inflation. Also, holding Bonds to maturity makes it possible for the farmer to increase his investment by one-fourth through accumulated interest. Still another reason for having a good reserve in the form of War Bonds is that funds will be available for the boys when they return, to assist them in getting established in peacetime pursuits.

Many farmers still have long-term mortgage debt outstanding against their property. Investment in War Bonds now makes it possible for the farmer to help finance the war and at the same time accumulate the funds which will enable him to liquidate his debt in a lump sum after the war. Systematic purchase of War Bonds furnishes a very orderly and sure way of accumulating the necessary funds for liquidation of debt that requires large lump sums for settlement.

The extremely heavy expenditures required to carry on modern total war creates high purchasing power, which combined with shortages of materials and labor, cause serious inflationary threats. Most farmers can remember the very high prices which occurred during the last war and the very low prices and depression which followed. With the present scale of operations much greater than during the first war, it is imperative that widespread inflation in general prices and in land be prevented. Using surplus funds to purchase War Bonds helps reduce inflationary pressure in commodity markets and, at the same time, helps finance the war.

Building financial reserves, paying off debts and fighting inflation, comprise adequate reasons for buying War Bonds. However, there is still another major reason why farmers should invest in War Bonds until it hurts and this is the patriotic reason. We are engaged in a very serious struggle to preserve democracy and our way of life. The sooner we can win this war the fewer lives of our sons and daughters will be lost. Our youth are making great sacrifices on the battlefronts all over the world, and it is up to each one of us on the homefront to give all we have. Large sums of money are needed for winning the war and if we will all buy War Bonds to the limit of our resources voluntarily, we can help finish the war at an early date.

Your BABY

By Lillian B. Storms

When baby is served his first semi-solid foods — that's an event. With some babies, cereal is the first of these. Whole grain cereals, such as prepared strained oatmeal or cereal food, contain minerals and vitamins, while highly refined cereals have little of either minerals or vitamins. While nutritive substances in whole grains are of value, they contain coarse fiber, which is not suitable for the sensitive digestive tract of a baby, so the problem of preparing cereals for baby is one of using whole grain cereals but putting them in a suitable form.

You can obtain these cereals specially prepared for young infants. They are fine in texture, taste good, and babies like them and thrive on them.

For instance, ready-to-serve cereal food — a thoroughly cooked mixture of finely ground whole wheat, farina and corn meal to which wheat germ, malt, dried yeast and calcium, phosphorus and iron salts have been added.

Another is prepared strained oatmeal — wheat-free, a mixture of finely ground oatmeal, dried yeast, plus calcium, phosphorus and iron salts. It is thoroughly cooked, strained, dried and all ready to serve by adding milk or baby's formula.

You may also want to try a two-cereal plan. By alternating oatmeal and cereal food at each feeding, baby will eat better because he likes variety too! Many Doctors think the two-cereal idea so good that they're recommending it to Mothers.
