Items of Interest to the Ranchmen and Heel-Squatters

The lamb and sheep market at Fort Worth has broken and is now "double-tough" according to one commission company. The market broke Tuesday. D. Hall said he had nine cars of lambs to go out this week if the market holds, but they won't go unless it picks up.

Earl Bailey and Fred Counsel have sold approximately 6,000 mixed lambs to Don Anderson through Otho Drake, for fall delivery. The lambs will average between 60 and 70 pounds.

D. Hall, local Santa Fe agent says he bets the Santa Fe has a pile of junk bombs on its hands. The man compressing the scrap bombs left June 3 and was to return in three days - but hasn't shown up yet.

J. T. Davis shipped six cars of lambs to Fort Worth Tuesday. The 1194 head of lambs weighed 120,000 pounds.

Rogers Hefley is selling tickets to the Big Spring Rodeo August 2, 3, 4 and 5. Rogers, a member of the Big Spring Lions Club, was given the tickets by the club to peddle down in this neck of the woods. If you want tickets, see Hefley.

J. T. Davis was laid up with a lame back this week. He told Doc Swann that he had no idea as to what caused it—except he knew it wasn't whiskey.

Martin and John Reed drenched 2,000 sheep Wednesday.

John Reed recently shipped 2100 yearling muttons from Coleman County to Fort Worth. He sold Ray Lane of Stiles 1000 lambs from Coke County. Prices ranged from 11 1/2 to 12 1/2 cents.

A slight shower fell in Sterling City Wednesday afternoon.

Victory Garden Prizes Awarded

MRS. H. BADE IS FIRST

Mrs. H. Bade took first prize with her victory garden in the Lions Club contest which closed last week. Dan Glass took first prize in the junior division. The first ten places in the senior division went to the following people:

1. Mrs. H. Bade
2. D. C. Durham and W. A. Reed (tie)
3. J. T. Johnson
4. Chas. H. Waddell
5. Malcom Black
6. Mud Allen
7. R. P. Brown
8. Ira Ratliff
9. J. O. Longshore
10. Andy Davis

The first ten places in the junior division were as follows:

1. Dan Glass
2. Hal Knight, Jr.
3. Alfred Thieme, Jr.
4. Alvin Moore
5. Billie Joe Swann
6. Blaine Mitchell
7. Delmar Rodde
8. Duard Grosshans
9. Hollis Kennemer
10. Bob Mitchell

The committee for the Lions Club Victory Garden Contest was composed of J. M. Starr, A. T. Bratton and Jack Douthit.

A summary of the Sterling Victory Gardens by the County Agent J. W. Starr shows a total of 175 gardens yielding 1900 bushels of produce valued at $8,520.00. The average garden produced $50 worth of vegetables at 5c per pound (pre-war prices), but would really run about double that amount with present high prices.

Lions Award Garden Prizes

PRESIDENT BRATTON TO LEAVE

The Victory Garden contest winners were awarded their prize moneys and certificates at the Lions Club Wednesday by County Agent J. M. Starr. The prizes went to Mrs. H. Bade, W. A. Reed, and D. C. Durham and J. T. Johnson in the senior division, and to Dan Glass, Hal Knight, Jr. and Alfred Thieme, Jr. in the junior division. Charles Waddell, who placed fourth, was a guest of the club.

The standing committees of the club were elected, after presentation of such by the directors.

The Private Papers Of a Newspaperman:

This is a personal message to a few irresponsible American women, who do not realize the headaches they are causing some of our Commanding Officers—by causing heartaches to our fighting men. . . . This message was suggested by Government and war leaders who apparently are concerned about a certain matter—and here it is.

A fighting man is only as good as his fighting heart. . . . And inside his heart he carries the woman he loves. . . . Anybody in the armed services—from the hard-boiled top sergeants to the understanding chaplains—will tell you that a fighter can best protect our country when the woman he loves is protecting his heart. . . . It is the source of a soldier's greatest strength—and it is also the possible source of his greatest trouble.

This means that a certain, thoughtless, small percentage of American women must do their duty to their country—by giving their absent fighting men more consideration. . . . It is an extremely sad occurrence when a telegram arrives in some American home—with the news that an American fighting man is a casualty. . . . It is also sad when an American fighting man—on a firing line—receives a letter telling him that his affection for the woman he loves is a casualty back home. . . . Think that over.

A Washington paper, reporting that Joe Kamp and Ed Rumely were trying to have Congressional indictments against them dismissed, quoted their counsellors as saying the indictments should be thrown out "on grounds that the subpoenas were addressed to the House sergeant at arms and not the defendants."

Oh, don't change the subject!

Many soldiers are writing this reporter because they do not understand the GI Bill of Rights. . . . The U. S. Gov't owes its fighting forces the same thorough education in their civilian rights that it insisted upon—in their military duties. . . . The American people expect each fighting man to get as much assistance under the GI Bill of Rights as that fighting man gave service under the articles of war. . . . This Gov't owes it to each fighting man to bring as much attention to his return to civil life as it put forth to bring him as a civilian into the armed

Personal

Mrs. Willie Mae Ivy of Oakland, California, is here visiting her husband's parents, the L. S. Ivys. Her husband, John Ivy, S 2C is in the Pacific.

The John Clarks of Gonzales are here visiting the Will Atkinsons and other relatives.

Capt. James Knight, brother of Hal Knight, sent Hal, Jr. a German storm lantern, an all-purpose wrench and a spoon and fork from Germany. Capt. Knight's wife lives in Austin.

Recent guests at Mrs. G. A. Stockton's home were her brother and sister, J. E. Cannon of Beeville and Mrs. M. B. Gannaway of Austin.

Mrs. Owen Ingram and her two children of Stanton are here visiting her mother, Mrs. H. Bade.

Sgt. Sammie Ray Langford and family are here visiting Sgt. Langford's parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Langford. Sgt. Langford is stationed at Texarkana.

Ira Ratliff is up and about now, having fully recovered from injuries sustained when a cow pinned him up in a stall, injuring his back.

services. . . . If the Gov't is able to seek out a deserter to punish him—it ought to be able to seek out its heroes to reward them. . . . Each fighting man is entitled to expert advice at Gov't expense. . . . This is more than simple justice. It is sound national policy.

It is easy to understand why the officials (responsible for the transportation of our returned men) had them ride in coaches while prisoners of war rode in Pullmans. . . . This excerpt from a soldier reveals that higher-ups give more consideration to prisoners. Look: "Gallbach, Austria: Yesterday I saw something that burned me up. I went for a ride along the Alps and saw German soldiers who had surrendered (120,000 in all), who had never been put in a prisoner's cage. Instead, they were living in the best hotels, swimming, sun-bathing, riding vehicles and probably got their gas from us men; they had all the American ciggies and food they wanted. They also carried small arms, such as pistols, rifles and machine gats. Can you imagine that? This through the courtesy of the American 7th Army. Maybe I'm on the wrong side!"

This is a short and ugly story about a war hero. His name is Cpl. Edward Majeski of Hastings, Minn. He was the first soldier from the 1st ward of that community to leave for combat duty. He served 4 years in uniform—most of that time in actual combat overseas—18 months of which he suffered in a Nazi prison camp. . . . He was wounded. . . . When he returned to Hastings there was no crowd at the station, no cheering, no bands, no paper or confetti shower, no flags. No nuttin'. . . . Only this "greeting" from a storekeeper, who had the police hand Majeski a summons and complaint. . . . Corporal Majeski was fined $10 and court costs for riding a bike on a Hastings sidewalk. . . . Whew!

Second Thoughts on Some

Second Raters:

Hitler, according to the Moscow mighties, is a suicide, the first victim of his killings people can be glad about. But the tragic part of it all is we could have had him dead by his own dirty hand a decade ago. Had one nation—France, Britain, anybody—pulled a gun on him when he marched into the Ruhr, Hitler, by compact with the High Command, was pledged to blow his looney top off.

AMERICAN HEROES

by WOODY COWAN

COMDR. JAMES HAILE MINI, U.S.N., already holder of a DFC, has been awarded a Navy Cross for leading a flight of carrier planes against the Japs in the Philippines. He so deployed his command that they severely damaged six major combat vessels. Despite heavy anti-aircraft fire, he made an accurate bomb-run on a battleship, scoring a direct hit with a 1000-pound bomb. War Bonds helped pay for the planes and bombs that enabled the Manila-born officer to render that ineffective. His home now is at Vallejo, California.

Orange Roll Offers Refreshing New Dessert

The family will enjoy this orange-flavored treat.

FEATHER-LIGHT Orange Roll is a happy ending for any meal. Marjorie Griffin, rural home editor of Capper's Farmer, advises homemakers faced with the daily task of providing zestful desserts.

"Dinner guests will think you're super smart to prepare it," she writes in the magazine read by 1,250,000 farm families. "Surround it with thinnest of orange slices and green leaves on a handsome platter."

The recipe she provides will make 10 slices, or enough for some "seconds" in the average family.

Orange Roll

3 eggs 1 1/2 tsp. baking powder
1 c. sugar 1/4 tsp. salt
3 tbsps. orange juice Confectioners' sugar
1 c. cake flour

Beat eggs until lemon colored; add sugar, beating until mixture is thick.

Add orange juice. Sift together flour; baking powder and salt; add to first mixture, mixing only to blend. Line a shallow pan, 10 by 15 inches, with waxed paper. Pour in batter; bake at 375° F. for 20 minutes. Sift confectioners' sugar on piece of paper. Turn cake out on this and remove waxed paper. Spread with Orange Filling; roll up like jelly roll.

Orange Filling

1 c. orange juice 3 tbsps. cornstarch
1 egg yolk 2 tbsps. butter
1/2 c. corn syrup salt

Add 1/4 c. orange juice to beaten egg yolk, add syrup and cornstarch and mix thoroughly. Heat remaining orange juice in top of double boiler; add to egg mixture and return to double boiler. Cook, stirring constantly until thickened; cover and cook 5 minutes longer. Remove from heat, add butter and salt; cool.

Behind Your Bonds Lies the Might of America

MEAT

The huge plants in Chicago's "Packing Town" every day pour dollars into the national treasury to back your War Bonds. John B. Sherman opened the first centralized stockyards, Bull's Head yards, in 1848. In 1865 he organized the Union Stockyard and Transit Company. The growth of this business developed rapidly with the development of refrigerator cars and improved organization of the big packing firms. The city's chief industry in the value of its products, it processes annually 12 million animals valued at $250,000,000.

Afternoon Dress Adds Bond Money
