OIL NEWS NOTES

Stanolind Oil & Gas Co. Saturday was reported, with out official confirmation, to have paid Ray Albaugh $25 an acre for several hundred acres of scattered, checker-boarded oil and gas leases in northwestern Sterling County.

The purchases were out of a block of approximately 33,000 acres on which core tests have been drilled. Several other companies and independent operators also have acquired spreads out of the Albaugh block in recent months, it was stated.

Albaugh early in September announced plans to drill a wildcat on the block to 9,500 feet if necessary to explore the Ellenburger, but never has started operations. The test was to be No. 1 Parramore in the southwest quarter of the northeast quarter of section 201-39-W&NW, about five miles southeast of the Howard-Glascock field.

Humble No. 1 1-B W. L. Ellwood estate, slated Ellenburger wildcat 2 1/2 miles east in north central Sterling County, was drilling this week past 3,000 feet. It is in the C NE NW 56-18-SPRR.

Anderson Prichard and Vickers Petroleum No. 1 Miss Marvin Frances Foster, lower Permian lime discovery 7 1/2 miles south of Sterling City, has passed 7500 feet, due to continue to the Ellenburger. Location is the C SW SW 12-15-H&TC.

Three and one-half sections of the Foster River Ranch were leased for oil and gas purposes to Mr. Duffield of Midland last week for $5 per acre. The land is between Sterling City and the Marvin Frances Foster well south of Sterling.

SWING OF SOUTHWEST FARM MARKETS

By United States Department of Agriculture

(USDA)—Most southwest farm products sold around steady to a little higher during the past week, according to the Production and Marketing Administration, U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Alternate up and down movements left cotton around $1 high-line, spot middling 15-16 inch closed Monday at 34.30 cents per pound at Dallas. Southwest fruit and vegetable producing areas passed a week of generally steady to strong-ery markets. Increased spinach shipments from south Texas sold higher. Cabbage continued upward in the Lower Rio Grande Valley, while carrots and beans remained about steady to firm. First Valley onions rolled to strong markets. Colorado potatoes and Louisiana sweet potatoes changed little in county demand. Hammond, Louisiana, began carlot shipments of strawberries in a dull market.

Eggs weakened very little last week, as the Easter season approached, and Monday's markets held mostly steady to firm at around 38 to 40 cents a dozen for current receipts. Eggs in the southwest. Poultry gained some strength last week and continued firm to higher Monday. Heavy hens ranged mostly from 27 to 30 cents.

Widespread strikes of packing case workers found only half as many cattle coming to 12 midwest markets last week as the week before, and generally fewer hogs and sheep. However, Texas and Oklahoma terminals attracted about as many cattle and more hogs and sheep compared to the previous week's weather-lightened receipts. Demand from killers, order operators and those packers still able to operate helped offset the effect of strike-bound plants who were out of the market, and southwest stock prices showed more gains than losses for the week.

Other uneven trends prevailed Monday's cattle markets, with Too, old magazines of interest to women are wanted for the same purpose.

While preparing breakfast at her home Monday morning Mrs. M. W. Smith suffered painful burns when a coffee maker blew up. She was painfully burned but not seriously.

spots of strength and weakness. Medium and good steers and yearlings ranged from $23 to $28 in Texas and Oklahoma, and good steers sold from $25.50 to $27 at Wichita and Denver. Active hog markets gained 50 cents to $1.50 Monday. A spread from $23.50 to $24.50 took most good and choice medium weight butchers. Sows moved mainly at $17 to $18.50, but San Antonio paid up to $20.50. Lambs predominated in this week's opening sheep markets in slow trade. Fort Worth bought choice spring lambs to $23.50.

Grain markets fluctuated during the week but closed Monday three to six cents a bushel lower on most types. White corn netted about one or two cents gain, to sell around $2.95 at Texas common points. No. 1 hard wheat brought $2.48 1/2, and No. 2 oats $1.40 to $1.44. Milo dropped 15 cents to $3.70 to $3.75 a hundred.

Rice held barely steady last week, with Commodity Credit-Corporation a major outlet. Wheat millfeeds averaged higher for the week, but some feeds tended lower. Increased hay offerings moved fairly well. Treated seed peanuts sold around 22 to 23 cents a pound. Southwest wool buying reached a near standstill.

To Granddaughter's Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Collins and Claudia have gone to Dallas to attend the wedding of the Collinses granddaughter, Miss Eleanor Ruth Mendenhall to Robert Craig Seet, which will take place Saturday night in the Highland Baptist Church. The bride is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Elliott Mendenhall of Dallas and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl W. Seet of Indianapolis, Ind.

Little Claudia Collins will be the flower girl. Carl Seet, Jr. will be his brother's best man. Mrs. Carl Seet, Jr. will be one of Miss Mendenhall's attendants.

Miss Mendenhall attended Highland Park High School, SMU and the University of Mexico and received her degree from Baylor University. She is a member of Sigma Tau Delta, honorary English organization; Sigma Delta Pi, Spanish honorary, and Alpha Chi, a scholastic honorary. She received her degree from Baylor cum laude.

Mr. Seet, who was graduated from Shortridge high school, Indianapolis, is a graduate of Butler University and is now attending the law school of Indiana University. Among the organizations of which he is a member are Sigma Chi, his social fraternity; Sigma Delta Kappa, legal fraternity; Kappa Kappa Psi, national band honorary; Tau Kappa Alpha, national debate group. During his three years' service in the AAF during the war, he spent about eighteen months in the Pacific. He was released as a first lieutenant.

EAGLES HUNTED WITH PLANE

Ray Baumgardner of Fort Stockton, predatory animal hunter, who hires out with his airplanes to stockmen, hunted eagles here this week. Ray gets $10 per hour, and hunts wolves, eagles, etc.

On Tuesday Ray killed a large eagle, and hunted Wednesday and Thursday with no success at finding eagles.

In the south west part of the county eagles have been seen getting lambs and other signs point to destruction by eagles, said County Agent Byron W. Frierson, who arranged the hunt.

WIMODAUSSIS BAKE SALE SATURDAY

The Wimodausis Club is having a bake sale in the lobby of the Palace Theater at 10:30 a. m. Saturday, March 27, it was announced Thursday of this week. Buy your Easter cakes from the club this Saturday.

NORTH CONCHO GETS UP

A slight rise Sunday and Monday was caused by the rain here and Garden City Saturday night and Sunday morning.

Most of the rise here was due to a drainage of waters from Lacy Creek. Rains north and west of Garden City were reported from 1 1/2 to 2 1/2 inches.

Mild weather has reigned here in West Texas, but a killing freeze killed fruit in bloom around El Paso Monday. Aside from the high winds, which usually are present this time of the year here, the mild weather is seemingly here to stay.

"Covering the County"

By Byron W. Frierson, Sterling County Agent

The Sonora Wool and Mohair Show has been scheduled for June 16 and 17. Entries are due in Sonora June 8. Classes have been set up for boys entries and adult entries, for single fleeces or bag lots, for grade and registered; for fine wool and halfblood; and for 8-month and 12-month wool. We have some good wool in the county and hope to see some entered in the Sonora Show. If you are interested come by the office for further details.

Clinton Hodges, Donn Gann, and Bob Mitchell spent one day last week in San Angelo at the Santa Rita Wool Warehouse. A wool and mohair school was held for 4-H boys of this area, and instruction was handled by Walter Garth and W. R. Nesbit. The boys are preparing for the judging contest to be held in connection with the Sonora show.

We are wholeheartedly in support of the cleanup week that has been scheduled for April 5-10. Just a little work from everybody will make a great difference in the appearance of our town, and will reduce the fire hazard.

W. Y. Bengel has been using a home-made sparrow trap in his chicken yard, and is having pretty good luck. It was pretty simple to make, too, he says. Somebody asked him what he did with the sparrows after he caught them. His reply was that he had an order for a large number of sparrows, and was shipping them to Arabia.

An eagle hunt is scheduled for the southwest section of Sterling County. Some lambs are being lost, and from reports we have six or eight eagles at least, working out in that section. The specific date is not yet set, but word is being awaited from Ray Baumgardner of Fort Stockton, whose plane is being hired for the hunt. William Foster, Joe Emery and R. P. Brown have volunteered to ride in the plane with the pilot.

Cattle lice are our main current livestock pest. Eight pounds of 50% wettable DDT powder per 100 gallons of water is the correct mixture for spraying for lice. One spraying THOROUGHLY applied will do the job. Remember these points in spraying for lice: 1. If you use wettable powder, be sure you have an agitator in the machine. 2. Wet the dew-laps, brisket, belly and flank as well as the rest of the body. 3. If you do not do a thorough job, repeat the treatment in 14 days.

Some cattle have already been sprayed, others are being sprayed, and many others need spraying. Complete information on control of parasites of cattle is available at my office.

PHIPPS BOY LOST FOR WHOLE AFTERNOON

The three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Phipps was lost the Sanata Fe ranch most of Tuesday afternoon. Quite a crowd of people went out to help in the hunt for the child. He was found about six o'clock a mile from the house no worse for the wear.

Since eagles are numerous in that part of the county, it was feared at first that an eagle might have "nabbed" the child.

SCHOOL CENSUS—NOTICE

If you have a child who has not been taken on the school census, and who will be six years of age and will not be eighteen before September 1, 1948, please notify Supt. O. T. Jones. There are some beginners who have not been registered. Only three married women who are still under 18 have been registered so far. Both married men and women who are still under 18 can be registered.

$1.00 REWARD
Any information regarding these will be rewarded by $1.00 for each one taken.

OUR WASHINGTON NEWS LETTER

By Congressman O. C. Fisher

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

The President's message on world affairs was an open and frank discussion of our relations with Russia. The situation as it is was outlined—a review of Russia's Communist march. Then he called for a stronger America, a more united America, to face the threat to our security—a threat he described as "critical."

The president, through our Intelligence Service, should be the best informed man on that subject in the country.

In my judgment, the President's request should have the support of the Congress and the Nation. I know of no one except Henry Wallace and the Communists who deny the necessity of building up our own strength as well as strengthening the Nations of Western Europe. Russia is not a nation to listen to reason. She respects only strength. So our best chance at stopping Russia is to continue to build up our army, navy and air forces. We know that strong men do not fear attacks from bullies and braggarts. Nobody goes around punching Joe Lewis on the nose.

I had hoped that the president would make an appeal for more funds for the air forces. General Eaker said in modern warfare, a second best air force is about as valuable as a second best poker hand. Today Russia is reported to be stronger in the air than the United States. Even England is stronger than we are. We must maintain the most modern planes and weapons, with men trained to use them.

The army, navy and air forces have thus far been given every cent they and the president have requested. But with Secretary of Air Symington stating that we now rank third in air power, more attention should be given to this vital branch of our armed forces.

THE MOHAIR SITUATION

The sluggish mohair market continues with about the same market reports coming in each week: "Dealing in mohair was at a standstill."

There is a 6-million-pound surplus in Texas warehouses now, and the spring clip will soon be shorn.

Since the mohair market slump last fall, I have been urging the use of our surplus mohair in the European Recovery Program, and have had a number of conferences with officials who are administering that program.

However, prospects for success in this plan—which would be a happy solution to our problem—are not very encouraging. Mr. Jesse Gilmer, who heads a board appointed by the president to study available surpluses that can be used in the program, has been trying to get mohair included. Our difficulty has been in the fact that Europeans have not included mohair or mohair products in the list of essentials that are needed and can't be obtained from other sources. But our effort will be intensified, with the enactment of the new law to provide additional aid.

Our position is that we have a surplus of mohair. Its presence depresses our markets. Surpluses should have high priority among commodities we give away. WE should determine what we will give and not be controlled by the tastes of the recipient countries.

We are appealing to the Secretary of Agriculture to find a suitable place in European Recovery Program for this mohair surplus, then to buy it and ship it overseas and remove it from our market.

AGRICULTURE BILL

Last week, the House passed the Agriculture appropriation bill and sent it to the Senate. The total amount was about $30 million below the budget recommendations. The allocations for REA loans, soil conservation, school lunches, continued fight against the spread of foot and mouth disease in Mexico, were in the main satisfactory. REA was allowed $400 million for loans which was above the budget request. This money is borrowed by the government and then loaned to the various REA coops to build lines with. The program really costs the government nothing.

"PEACE"
 By C. D. McEntire
 "Jesus came and stood in the midst and saith unto them, peace be unto you." (John 20:19.)

"Peace" be unto you". In Eastern lands that is still the ordinary salutation. It is merely an empty courtesy. But from the lips of the risen Lord, it meant a benediction, a gift, an endowment.
 "Peace be unto you", when the risen Lord, appeared and spoke these words, the doubts of his disciples vanished. The fears of their consciences disappeared. The sadness and their sorrow passed away for the Master was now with them again. Jesus has been with His followers every since. "And lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world."

That fear crazed little band of disciples that had gone down into the depths of despair over the crucifixion of their Lord and Master, skyrocketed from the depths of despondency and despair to dare devil devines, and all died preaching the story of the risen Lord. They were empowered with a new zeal and fire after they saw and heard their risen Lord. He had returned from that uncharted land from whence no traveler had ever returned, and had walked with his followers for forty days to encourage them and command them to go into all the world and tell the wonderful story of His resurrection and salvation, that whosoever believeth in Him should follow Him not only through this life of lilies, and sepulchers, but on out into the eons of eternal life.

His ancient word is modern and powerful. He is a contemporary Christ, and His omnipotent power is felt every day, and "He is able also to save them to the uttermost, that come unto God by Him, seeing He ever liveth to make intercession for them." (Heb. 7:25.)

And concerning our resurrection from our sleep of death with John, we can say, "Beloved, now we are the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be, but we know that when He shall appear we shall be like Him as He is." (1 John 3:2.)

"I held it truth with him who sings
 To one clear harp with diverse tones,
 That men may rise on stepping stones
 Of their dead selves to higher things."
 Alfred Lord Tennyson.

Did You Forget Vets Serving Life Terms?

By ELGAR BROWN
Noted INS War Correspondent

Early in the last war I rode from the Atlantic seaboard to the Midwest on a train bringing wounded GIs from Europe to hospitals near their homes.

That was a trainload of misery. That was the Heartbreak Special. It wasn't all stark tragedy. Some boys were quite happy, knowing they'd soon be well. Some were buoyed by stubborn hope. But some were filled with bitter cynicism. These last were the life-terminers. They were "jail-bound" forevermore. They wouldn't get well and they knew it. They wanted to die, many of them, but they couldn't. And cynicism set in.

In a naval hospital on Guam, where a hundred medical miracles happened each day, I sensed the same awful fear that had gripped the "life-terminers" on the hospital train.

It was the fear of loneliness, the dread of being forgotten. This is what they talked about, the doomed ones, if they would talk at all.

"I know how it'll be," I was told by a New Jersey paraplegic who would never get off his back. "I can look up at the ceiling and see the whole dreary expanse of my life ahead."

"Folks mean well and they are grateful and they want us to be happy," he murmured, his thin lips twisted into a wry smile. "They'll make a guy like me comfortable as long as they can; they want me to be happy, too."

"But after awhile the war ends and years pass and they go away and live their own lives. That's just human nature. But I can't go away and live at all, really. I'm not going anywhere, ever. And after all, I'm human too."

I'm as humanly forgetful and self-centered as the next guy but I shall never forget those words. I think donating to the Hospitalized Veterans Foundation is a fine way to help me remember. Don't you?

Pie Appeal

By BETTY BARCLAY

Pie has always been famous for its appeal, particularly to the male of the species — young or old. And the larger or deeper the pie, the greater the appeal.

So here's a recipe for a deep dish dainty to delight your particular males. Try it today!

- Deep-dish Cherry Pie
- 1 quart canned sour pickled cherries
 - 3 1/2 tablespoons corn starch
 - 1/4 teaspoon salt
 - 1/2 teaspoon almond extract
 - 1 teaspoon lemon juice
 - 1 teaspoon grated lemon rind
 - 1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
 - 1 tablespoon melted butter or margarine
 - 1 cup KARO Syrup, Red Label
 - 1/2 recipe pastry

Drain cherries and reserve juice. Place cherries in a 9-inch deep pie dish. Combine 1/2 cup of the cherry juice with corn starch (saving remaining cherry juice to use in a sauce, fruit drink or gelatin dessert). Add remaining ingredients; blend well. Pour over cherries.

Cut 9-inch circle from pastry, roll 1/4 inch thick. With sharp knife cut slits or cherry design to let steam escape. Place over cherry mixture. Bake in hot oven (450° F.) 10 minutes; reduce to moderate (350° F.) and bake 40 minutes longer. Serve warm with whipped cream, if desired.

And a touch that reminded one further of Texas was an ad which read, "World's biggest hot dogs."

Of course, Texas has the biggest in just about every line; that Arkansas advertiser must have been newly arrived from Texas and had not yet got over his Texas habits.

From the business district of Little Rock, when you look toward the capitol, because of a hill in between, you see just the dome, apparently hanging in space.

You can walk across a bridge over the Arkansas River. As a boy, I seem to remember the big stream as having two or three steamboats puffing up and down, with others moored at the wharf. But, the other day, there were just two barges and a houseboat in sight.

And I've never eaten any finer fried chicken than at a Little Rock cafeteria—Mrs. Atkinson's. It melts in your mouth like ice cream—only ice cream doesn't have as good a flavor as that fried chicken.

In early days, the sight of a "benzine buggy", as the auto was known, scared horses. A man explained, "When a horse sees a buggy running down the road with nothing pulling it, it's as if a man was to see a pair of empty pants run by him. Wouldn't that scare you?"

RUPTURE

SHIELD EXPERT HERE
H. M. SHEVNAN, widely known expert of Chicago, will personally be at the Cactus Hotel, San Angelo Friday only, April 2, from 9 A.M. to 4 P.M.

Mr. Shevnan says: The Zoetic Shield is a tremendous improvement over all former methods, effecting immediate results. It will not only hold the rupture perfectly no matter the size or location but it will increase the circulation, strengthen the weakened parts, and thereby close the opening in ten days on the average case, regardless of heavy lifting, straining or any position the body may assume. A nationally known scientific method. No under straps or cumbersome arrangements and absolutely no medicines or medical treatments. Mr. Shevnan will be glad to demonstrate without charge. 6509 N. Artesian Ave., Chicago 45 Large incisional hernia or rupture following surgical operation especially solicited.
