The Witch Doctor

AROUND THE COUNTY

ARTHUR BRALEMANN, JR. COUNTY AGENT

All livestock producers in this area are invited to attend the information meeting on the screwworm control program in San Angelo this Saturday, July 22. This announcement was made by Tom Wallace, executive secretary of the Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers' Association, sponsors of the meeting.

The meeting will be held at the San Angelo Boat Club on Lake Nasworthy at 1:00 P. M. A barbecue will precede the meeting and all are invited to the barbecue as well as the meeting.

Dr. Bushland will report on recent developments in the fly research program at the USDA entomology station at Kerrville. Dr. Garrett will represent the Texas Animal Health Commission and Dr. Wilbur the USDA Animal Inspection and Quarantine Division. Primary subject for discussion is the screwworm fly eradication program which is under consideration for the Southwestern United States.

Dr. Bushland worked on the program in Florida which eradicated the screwworm there and in other parts of the Southwestern United States. He has a very good program on results, how it can be done, and what will take to do the job.

The Eleventh Annual Beef Cattle Short Course will be held on the campus of Texas A&M College, July 31 through August 2, according to the Extension Service beef cattle specialists. All cattlemen are invited to attend. Registration fee is $5.00.

Topics to be discussed and worked on are carcass and breeding relationship, breeding programs, records, nutrition, feed additives, influence of pelleting rations, roughage concentrate rations, the future of the beef cattle business, and other items of interest.

There will be a smorgasbord supper the first night. The Texas Beef Cattle Improvement Association will meet at 8:30 on the second night.

"Red touch yellow, kill a fellow
Red touch black, venom
ck."

This little jingle will help you distinguish between the poisonous coral snake and a colored non-poisonous snake. Mrs. Nolan Stewart called wanting to know the distinction between the two snakes. She had killed a colorful snake in their yard but wasn't sure if it was poisonous or not.

The color pattern of the coral snake consists of yellow, red, and black rings encircling the body. The yellow ring always touches the red ring, while this is not true for the non-poisonous king snake. Coral snakes are small and slender, usually less than 30 inches long. The eye pupils are round, the head distinctly wider than the neck, and the fangs are permanently erect, not movable as in the case of the rattlesnake. Ordinarily the coral snake will bite only if handled roughly and then only on the finger of toe as they cannot open the mouth very wide. They are a member of the cobra-like family and the venom is a nerve poison rather than a blood poison as are the other well known poisonous snakes.

Leaflet 354, Poisonous snakes in Texas, describes all poisonous snakes and first aid treatment for snakebite. A copy is available for anyone who would like it. It shows how to tell whether a snake is poisonous or not from the tooth marks made by the bite.

Gene Alley will attend the Livestock Marketing Clinic in San Antonio next Monday and Tuesday with me. The clinic, to be held at the Union Stockyards in San Antonio, is sponsored by that group and the Extension Service.

Topics on the program include: THE NEED FOR COORDINATED MARKETING SERVICE, RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE MARKET INDUSTRY IN THE CONTROL OF REGULATORY DISEASES, grading, inspection, marketing, and the use of ultrasound techniques for improvement of beef cattle, and a packing house tour.

Cancer Crusade In Sterling Cited

Leaders of the 1961 Cancer Crusade in Sterling County have been commended by officials of the Texas Division of the American Cancer Society for their part in what appears to be a record-breaking year for cancer control education and fund-raising in Texas.

Crusade Chairman W. R. Brooks has been notified by the Society that an all-time high for Texas is now within reach before this year's activity concludes in August.

Sterling County has reported total Crusade funds raised of $583.62. The county's assigned minimum share of state goal was $500.00. It is one of 112 counties in Texas which have already gone over the top.

With more than $1,100.00 already reported, Texas has in prospect a new record contribution to the control of cancer. The highest year previously was 1959, when Texans put $1,189,563 into the fight against cancer. State officials now predict that when the books are closed on the current Crusade at the end of August, this record will have been surpassed.

In a letter of commendation received by Judge Brooks, Texas Division Chairman Edwin T. Phillips, Jr., and President John H. Childers, M.D., pointed out that the key to this promising report is the thousands of hours of volunteer work done.

"This report," they said, "represents many thousands of hours contributed by our county Crusade leaders who brought to this Crusade the wealth of their personal abilities. Your efforts exemplify the spirit of the Society and its desire to 'get the job done.' We know that because of your more funds will be available during the coming year to expand our program of research, education and service."

These funds from the Crusade will be put to work immediately in the Society's program of research, education and service. Research, the hope for future control of the disease, draws the largest share of funds.

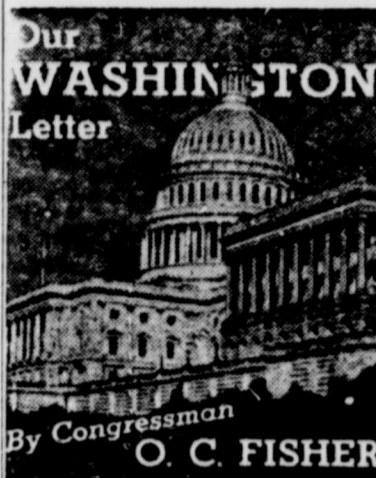

Sixteen scientists and three medical institutions in Texas are currently working under grants of the Society. Total grants by the American Cancer Society for current research projects in Texas amount to $372,537.

The Presidential Campaign of '64 is shaping up awful fast. And it can plainly be seen what it is going to be. Democrats, Republicans and Jimmy Hoifa. And if Jimmy don't run for president he will control the purse strings of the powerful union. And the democrats will be singing that old song to him, TIE ME TO YOUR APRON STRINGS AGAIN.

And why not, he is the most powerful man in the U.S. today. He has been envistigated by the best and come out as clean as a hound's tooth. He has the money or the know how to get it. And I can't imagine any better McGimper to latch onto, since the Teamsters Union Convention in Florida. He knows what he has got to sell. He knows how to sell it and shore ain't afraid to rear up on his hind feet and speak his piece. And don't laugh at the idea of running for the presidency. And if he does, don't be surprised if he wins. He has the confidence of his his people.

And when the Congressional Envistigators tell him what to do he just does as he pleases. On Meet the Press program, Sunday he was A wee bit evasive but cool and confident. Didn't have to lick his lips or button his coat or ask his advisors what to say. He wasn't looking for votes he had all of them he needed, plus A big raise in salary. When he says rabbit, several hundred thousand people start hopping. And if they don't hop they

With but a few more weeks to go, the one recent development of special nationwide interest in Congress relates to Federal Aid to Education. Right now observers and some congressional leaders are saying there will be no school aid enacted at this session. At least it looks that way right now.

In all likelihood aid for impacted areas will be extended in a separate bill before Congress adjourns. Under that program some money is sent to communities where federal projects have caused an extraordinary burden to be imposed on local schools.

The right of cattlemen to do cattle brand inspection work on posted markets, recently ordered revoked by USDA, may be reinstated, at least on a limited basis, according to information given me by the Department officials. The order is to be effective on September 1. The cattle raisers have asked that the order be rescinded. The Department contends there are some marker areas where there is practically no branding carried on, and under federal law 8 cents per head is deducted for each head of cattle sold. This goes into an inspection fund. And the cattle raisers also contribute.

It is believed a plan can be worked out to apply the law in a limited basis, but make it fully effective in all markets where very many branded animals are sold. The inspection program has been valuable in the fight against cattle thieves, and should be continued.

Among recent guests have been the Frank Lates and their daughter Jan, of San Angelo; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Scofield and Kay of Lampasas; Edwin Mayer of San Angelo; Arthur Stehling of Fredericksburg; Dan Bus of Del Rio; Mr. and Mrs. M.H. Stephens, Mr. and Mrs. R. Wilton Holley, and the Fred Perrys—all of Brownwood—the three couples having attended the International Kiwanis convention in Toronto; Robert Hargrave of Sonora—just back from Europe where he has been an exchange student; Douglas Williams of San Angelo.

Girl Scout Day Camp Held

Brownies and Girl Scouts of Sterling City have completed a week (July 10-14) of day camping at the Bend of the River Day Camp on Fowler McEntire's ranch.

Although the weather did not cooperate every day, a good time was had by all. Those attending were Sally Mixon, Linda Munoz, Amy White, Charlotte Foster, Juanita Munoz, Carolyn Sue Cole, Pam McEntire, Jaynell Cope, Lynn Alexander, Connie Legg, Jinx Traylor, Diana Cole, Susan Mixon, Beverly Brooks and Debbie Reed.

don't eat. And if he was to tell them not to hop, things shore be gummed up in A very short time.

So it is Plain to be seen that Jimmy has the power. And the best we can hope for is that he has some common sense (which is very uncommon nowadays) that he will use along with his great power.

LIONS CLUB

The second portion of the program on civil defense was presented to the members of the Lions Club following the Wednesday luncheon. Arthur Bralemann, Jr. and W. R. Brooks gave the program.

Guests were Billy Bauer and Tommy Williams. Henry Bauer reported that he had talked with the manager of the Sunset Motor Co. about the freight service here in Sterling City. The manager told Bauer that he planned to come up to Sterling City this week and try to arrange for better freight service for Sterling businesses.

Social Security for Men Now at 62 If Desired

Beginning for the month of August, men can take their social security retirement insurance as early as age 62, according to District Manager Floyd B. Ellington, of the Social Security Administration.

"This change in the law makes it possible for those who have been forced into early retirement because of unemployment or poor health to draw their social security before age 65. Dependents' benefits can also be paid to a retired worker's child under 18 or disabled, and to his wife while she has the care of such a child or when she reaches age 62."

A worker who starts his payments at age 62 will get only 80 per cent as much as he would get if he waits until 65, Ellington explained. The amount is not later increased when he reaches 65. The reduction amounts to exactly five ninths of 1 per cent for each month the worker is under age 65.

On the average, the total amount received for the rest of his life will be the same whether a worker takes reduced payments before 65 or if he waits for the higher payments to begin after he is 65. Dependent husbands or widowers of women workers as well as dependent parents of deceased workers can also receive payments as early as 62, he added.

Applications under these provisions may be filed now. More information about these and other changes in the law can be secured from the Social Security Administration, 204 Continental Building, San Angelo, Texas.

Lonnie McCarty is a patient in a San Angelo hospital. Lee Lefford has also been hospitalized in San Angelo.

Back in 1776 in this month of July, the original 13 colonies wrote and signed a Declaration which established them as free and independent states.

In the 185 years since then, the United States of America has grown to 50 states and has become the most powerful Nation on earth.

But of more significance today, in a world filled with turmoil, it stands as a mighty bulwark against tyranny and the threat of oppression.

We of General Telephone join with all freedom-loving Americans in expressing humble pride in our heritage and the principles of liberty for which it stands.

Survivors May Be Eligible For Social Security Payments

Social security benefits may now be paid to survivors of workers who died between March 31, 1938, and January 1, 1940, if the worker had at least a year and a half of social security work before he died, says Floyd B. Ellington, manager of the San Angelo Social Security Administration District Office.

Before the Social Security Amendments of 1960, no monthly benefits were payable to the survivors of a worker who died before 1940.

Under the new law, if such worker had worked under social security for at least a year and a half, benefits are payable to his widow and dependent mother at age 62, to his dependent father at age 65, and to his disabled children who were disabled before they became age 18. This is true even if the family had collected the "lump sum" at the time he died.

For further information regarding this new provision, contact your social security office, 204 Continental Building, in San Angelo.

Tractors and machinery, drownings, firearms and burns from fires are the leading causes of death on farmland and around farm buildings.

Puddings That Please

By Betty Barclay

WHEN the back-to-school parade begins, and youngsters march in for dinner with hearty appetites, a filling dessert to their liking can be one of the easiest ways to win their approval for your entire menu. Today's recipe for Peanut Butter Crunch Pudding includes ingredients that please youngsters most, and its easy preparation is gratifying to every homemaker.

Peanut Butter Crunch Pudding
 1 package vanilla pudding and pie filling mix; 2 cups milk; 1 1/4 cups graham cracker crumbs (about 20 crackers); 3/4 cup sugar; 1/4 cup creamy-style peanut butter; 3 tablespoons butter. Combine pudding mix and milk in saucepan. Cook and stir over medium heat until mixture comes to a full boil. Remove from heat. Let cool to room temperature.

Meanwhile, combine graham cracker crumbs, sugar, peanut butter, and butter. Mix thoroughly. Spread 3/4 cup crumb mixture in an 8x8-inch cake pan. Cover with 1 cup of the pudding. Then add alternate layers of 3/4 cup crumb mixture and remaining pudding. Sprinkle with remaining crumb mixture. Chill. Makes 9 servings.

How about a Fair Break for Railroads?

we're asking your support for equal treatment by government of all carriers, including the railroads

The Association of American Railroads has drawn up a document called "Magna Carta for Transportation."

We're asking for public support of this common-sense statement on public transportation policy, hoping citizens will recognize that an entire industry that serves them is being deprived of its natural rights—and will want to help.

What to do? Ask your congressman to help restore to the railroads these "four freedoms":

- Freedom from discriminatory regulation
- Freedom from discriminatory taxation
- Freedom from subsidized competition
- Freedom to provide a diversified transportation service
