VOL. 70 "Since 1890" PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY AT STERLING CITY, TEXAS OCTOBER 19, 1962 No. 42

AROUND THE COUNTY

ARTHUR BARLEMANN, JR. COUNTY AGENT

The Texas Livestock Health Conference is being held in San Angelo Monday, October 22 in the Crystal Ballroom of the Cactus Hotel. Time is 9:00 a.m. according to Harold W. Broome, president of the Texas Producers of Veterinary Supplies and sponsor of the program. Everyone who is interested in Livestock is invited to attend.

Topics to be discussed by speakers include control of livestock pests, research on systemic insecticides and for biting flies, safe use of chemicals, poisonous plants, and the screwworm eradication program. The speakers on the program are from the Kerrville etymology station, the Development of Veterinary Medicine at Texas A&M College and the Southwest Animal Health Research Foundation.

The program will be concluded shortly after 3:00 p.m. when a question and answer session is held. A complete program can be seen in the county agent's office.

Now is the time to fertilize your lawn so the grass can go into the winter in vigorous condition. The grass will remain green longer, it will grow off earlier next spring, and you will have less trouble with winter and spring weeds.

The fertilizer should be applied about a month before the first expected frost. That means that you have very little time here to do the job if we have a normal frost date of about November 16.

A complete fertilizer is recommended at this time. In this area, a good one to use is 16-20-0 since we do not need potash, the 0 in the formula. This formula does contain 16 percent nitrogen and 20 percent phosphorus.

Apply the fertilizer at the rate of two pounds of actual nitrogen per 1000 square feet of lawn. If you use 16-20-0, this means you would need 12 or 13 pounds of the fertilizer for each 1000 square foot of lawn. After applying the fertilizer, water the lawn thoroughly unless you are fortunate enough to get a good rain after fertilizing.

Sterling County exhibitors in the Pan American Livestock Exposition of the State Fair of Texas returned home Monday afternoon. Exhibitors in the adult division sheep show were William and J.Q. Foster, Clinton Hodges, and L.F. Hodges. Betty Jo Barrett was an exhibitor in the junior division of the Rambouillet show.

This week's run of the fair is given over to the Junior Livestock show in which 4-H Club and FFA members from all over the state are showing their fat lambs, pigs and calves. In addition to the dairy show and junior beef heifer show is under way. Janis Igo, a 4-H Club member is the lone Sterling County club member exhibiting in the fat lamb show. She was accompanied by her father, Fred Igo and several FFA exhibitors.

The first week of the fair was marked by warm weather and rain. On Monday the 8th, the Dallas area received up to 6 inches of rain. Less than that fell at the fair but it was enough to wet the sheep pens and sheep.

Fair officials commented that the attendance was so small for the day that they had just as well left the gates locked. Following the huge crowds of Saturday's Rural Youth Day when nearly 100,000 rural youngsters jammed the grounds and Sunday's crowd, Monday was quiet.

Those attending the fair had no trouble seeing the fair; this was quite a contrast to the previous two days when over 250,000 people per day jammed the grounds.

This tour has been arranged by the Soil Conservation Service for ranchmen, farmers, and agricultural workers in San Angelo trade area.

It is suggested that local persons interested in making the tour meet at the Sterling courthouse at 7:30 a.m. on October 24 for pooling of transportation.

The Bearkittens drew first blood in the first quarter, scoring 6 points. Sterling City roared back with Wayland Foster scoring the touchdown and Andy Gaston converted the extra two points. The quarter ended 8-6 Sterling.

Once Garden City unknowingly touched the ball and it rolled into their end zone; and Gary Foster covered it for a Sterling T.D. The game ended 26 for the Eaglets and 14 for the Bearkittens.

Jack Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Bob Clark of Sterling City, showed his Suffolk crossbred lamb to Reserve Grand Championship of the Junior Lamb Show at the State Fair in Dallas, Wednesday, October 17.

Janis Igo had a 42nd place Suffolk crossbred. Four of these lambs were bred by Forrest Foster and one of the lambs shown by Billy Blair was bred by John Reed.

The exhibitors from Sterling went into the Suffolk crossbred class with seven lambs and placed six of them in the premium sale. There were 94 lambs in the class.

Fred Fields had a 20th place Hampshire lamb and a 5th place Shropshire lamb.

The premium sale will be held Saturday morning and Jack Clark will return to sell his Reserve Champion lamb.

Accompanying the group to the State Fair were Mrs. Lelah Bird, breeder of Clark's Reserve champion lamb, Mrs. J. R. Clark, J.R. Clark, Delmar Radde and Fred Igo, vocational agriculture teacher.

Champion and Reserve Champion Crossbreds are selected from Dorset Cross, Suffolk Cross, Hampshire Cross, Shropshire Cross and Southdown Cross first place winners.

Light Rains Thursday

Light rains covered Sterling County Thursday of this week in rains up to a third of an inch. Falling intermittently throughout the day the fall of moisture followed a cool norther that came in to the state Wednesday. The ranges will benefit from the added moisture—winter grass and winter weeds will begin to show in the pastures now.

Mr. and Mrs. Foster S. Price and family attended the State Fair in Dallas last weekend.

By Congressman O. C. FISHER

Students of government are taking increasing notice of trends in the evolution of our check-and-balance system of government. Back in school days we were taught that the judiciary, executive, and legislative were separate and distinct and that each operates as a check upon the others. Yet, observers are pointing out that in right recent years there has been a rather brazen grab for power on the part of both the judiciary and executive.

FDR's packing of the Supreme Court for the announced purpose of inducing the court to usurp the functions of the legislative branch marked the beginning of overt acts to shift the traditional functions of the three branches as contemplated by the Constitution. Since then the Supreme Court has followed through on occasions by taking over legislative prerogatives of the Congress and virtually writing laws. And the Executive has pressed the Congress repeatedly for more and more delegation of power to the President.

Pressures of that nature have been very noticeable this year—more so than usual. It is a nibbling process, and the Congress can blame itself for many generous grants of power to the executive in the past. This has "whetted the appetite" of the bureaucrats and has encouraged the President to seek more authority in many areas.

For example, the President unsuccessfully sought an expansion of power in more than 20 instances this year including: (1) power to raise or lower taxes at his will; (2) power to activate a mammoth public works program if he

Grand Jury To Meet Saturday Morning

A meeting of the 51st District Court will convene here Saturday morning at ten with meeting of the grand jury.

District Judge Joe Mays of San Angelo will preside and Justin Kever is district attorney. Not much is on the docket for consideration, said local sheriff Jim Cantrell.

Mr. and Mrs. David Glass were in Fort Worth last weekend for Parents Day at Texas Christian University. Their daughter, Wilene, is a student there. A son, Lt. Lynn Glass of Fort Hood, met them in Ft. Worth for the week end.

The H. L. Hildebrands and the Stanley Horwoods spent last weekend in Dallas.

Should decide a recession was in the making; power to bring the Federal Reserve Board chairman more under his control by changing his term from 14 to 4 years; power to withhold taxes on dividends and interest; power to establish a national compulsory health insurance care program; power to outlaw literacy tests as a pre-requisite for voting; and power to withhold union dues from pay of civilian government employees.

But the Congress did grant the President power to spend a billion dollars on so-called accelerated public works projects; power to increase control over agriculture; power to purchase bonds to support United Nations operations; and unprecedented power to negotiate trade agreements and cut tariffs.

This is our last weekly report until next year.

Make A New Marmalade

By Betty Barclay

MAKE the most of the citrus crop and make batches of delicious Marmalade. Wonderful for topping on puddings, or ice cream . . . good idea for a "hostess gift."

Three-Fruit Marmalade
3 cups prepared fruit (1 orange, 1 lemon, 1 small grapefruit); 5 cups (2 1/4 lbs.) granulated sugar; 1/2 bottle Certo fruit pectin.

Remove skins in quarters from the fruit. Lay flat; shave off and discard about half of white part. With a sharp knife slice remaining rind very fine. Add 1 1/2 cups water and 1/4 teaspoon soda; bring to a boil; simmer, covered 20 minutes, stirring occasionally. Chop peeled fruit; discard seeds. Add pulp and juice to undrained cooked rind. Simmer, covered, 10 minutes longer. Measure 3 cups into a very large saucepan.

Add sugar to fruit in saucepan and mix well. Place over high heat, bring to a full rolling boil; boil hard 1 minute, stirring constantly. Remove from heat and at once stir in Certo. Skim foam with metal spoon. Stir and skim by turns for 7 minutes to prevent floating fruit. Ladle into glasses. Cover with 1/4 inch hot paraffin. Makes 7 medium glasses.

Social Security

Over fifty million people have worked long enough under social security to qualify for cash disability benefits if they become disabled. This means that they have social security credits for five years (20 quarters) out of the past ten years. Floyd B. Ellington, district manager of the San Angelo Social Security office said. In the case of a severe disability, the worker and his dependents may be eligible for monthly cash social security disability benefits if he meets this work requirement.

It is not necessary to be completely helpless to qualify for social security disability benefits. These benefits are payable to those who suffer from a crippling disease or a severe impairment which makes them unable to do any substantial work.

Disabled adult sons and daughters of retired, deceased, or disabled workers may also receive childhood disability benefits if they become disabled before they reached age 18.

Anyone suffering a severe disability which prevents him from doing any substantial work should get in touch with the local social security office to determine his eligibility under the Social Security disability program, Ellington stated. He may be losing benefits if he fails to apply for them promptly. The social security district office will explain to disabled workers and their families their rights under the law.

$152 MILLION MADE AVAILABLE FOR RURAL HOUSING LOANS

An additional $162 million has been made available for rural housing loans, Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman announced today.

Today's action makes a total of $182 million available through the Farmers Home Administration for this type of credit during fiscal 1963. The funds come from the $430 million authorized by the Housing Act of 1961, to be expended within a four-year period. Approximately $95 million was obligated during fiscal 1962.

"These funds will help 20,000 rural families who do not now have adequate housing to obtain credit to finance a new home or improve the home they already own" Secretary Freeman said.

The rural housing program is also a driving force in rural areas development. The construction carried on with the funds provides work for local carpenters, masons, plumbers, and electricians and steps up the sales of building supply dealers and other merchants in small rural communities. The wages received by the workmen and the profits retained by the businessmen are in turn circulated through local trade channels, invested in local enterprises. The effect of the housing dollar is multiplied many times before its force is diminished.

In addition the housing loans are helping to stabilize and strengthen rural communities by creating attractive modern living facilities, the type of house construction that makes communities desirable places in which to live.

Here again the impact of the program multiplies, for the new homes built with Farmers Home Administration loans provide guide lines to the community in the economical construction of homes. In many areas the construction of these homes has stimulated the investment of private capital in similar types of construc-

"The program has also been highly successful so far as repayments are concerned," the Secretary said. More than $417,000,000 has been advanced in rural housing loans since 1949. Principal and interest payments total $17,000,000. Only $86,000, or two one-hundredths of one per cent have been written off as uncollectible.

Rural housing loans may be used to construct, modernize or repair homes and farm service buildings. They are available to farmers and residents of rural communities who cannot obtain credit from other sources.

Under the Rural Housing Program the Farmers Home Administration has made in Texas over 2,700 loans for over $20,440,000. There have been no losses on these loans. As of December 31, 1961, these borrowers had paid over $5,966,000 on principal and $2,879,000 on interest, which leaves only about $14,474,000 owed on principal. 665 of these borrowers have already paid their loans in full ahead of their maturities.

We're telling America about the business and industrial advantages

IN THE CENTER OF THE SOUTHWEST

American business and industry are on the move . . . looking toward growing areas, new markets, and expanding profit opportunities.

Our service area—the fast-growing CENTER OF THE SOUTHWEST—is one such region, because the Southwest is growing 25% faster than the Nation.

That is why we are engaged in a continuing program designed to tell American business leaders about the advantages of this portion of West Texas.

We advertise the area in national publications, mail information material to selected lists, and make personal visits to many prospects.

As this is written, a WTU Representative is in the northern and eastern industrial areas of the country, calling on key executives whose companies are looking our way. They, like WTU, are convinced that this area faces GROWTH UNLIMITED.

Home Economics Covers Large Segment of 4-H Work

Over Million Learn Home, Career Skills

CANNING was the first 4-H project for girls about 50 years ago came under the heading of "home economics." Cooking and sewing were soon added. Today about 1 1/4 million girls between 10 and 21 years old are engaged in a broad program of home economics projects.

They not only learn many skills for building happy homes, but also acquire important knowledge and experience to guide them into future careers and successful marriages.

In 1933, with the approval of the Cooperative Extension Service, a specific awards program that encompassed all 4-H home economics projects was set up. The sponsor was Montgomery Ward, which already had been an active supporter of 4-H youths for a decade.

Pretty 17-year old 4-H'er Donna Roberts is demonstrating variations of rolls to be made from a basic yeast dough. She might well be preparing for a future career as a home economist in teaching or business.

Since that time national recognition has touched 153 young women because they were selected as the most outstanding members completing home economics projects. Their reward was a college scholarship provided by the mail order firm.

Soon another batch of home economics scholarship winners will be named by the Extension Service. In November, six girls will be chosen from among 1962 state award winners who will meet at the National 4-H Club Congress opening in Chicago Nov. 25. The trips will be paid for by Montgomery Ward and all 50 girls will be guests at a banquet in their honor.

And what lies ahead for these talented young women?

The answer may be found in the results of a recent survey of former home economics scholarship recipients spanning a 25-year period. Of the 110 respondents, 78 per cent had attended college. About 86 per cent of this group pursued home economics careers in the following areas: teaching, dietetics, nursing, Extension Service, library, social work and business.

A review of additional jobs awaiting future home economics graduates suggests journalism, advertising and sales, textile and clothing design, research, interior decorating, and the vast field of human and animal nutrition including outer space travelers.

The National 4-H Home Economics program has much to offer the pre-teen member as well as the older girl.

To Midland Hospital for Knee Operation

Rance Hord entered the Midland Memorial Hospital on Tuesday of this week for another operation on his knee.

Rance will be in the hospital for a week, he said, and then he will return home for awhile with his knee in a cast. Rance had the bad knee operated on a year or two ago, but at this time a second operation was needed, according to the doctor.
