Plans for Nursing Home Told at Lions Club

Could Be a Reality Soon Here

Melvin Smith told the Lions Club members and guests that a nursing home for senior citizens could be built here if two conditions could be met. First, a suitable plot of land or ground site would be made available or donated to the builders, and second, the State Department of Public Welfare would have to approve the site and the setup for the hospital type nursing home for senior citizens.

Smith said if the two conditions could be met a $40,000 nursing home (for 30 beds) could be started right away, and the building would be an L shaped concrete block type building with a brick front, and be built in the manner of a hospital. Thirty senior citizens could be kept in it, as in the manner of the Baptist Memorial Hospital in San Angelo.

The place would be privately operated and the nursing care home could keep anyone in their old age, both pensioners or those who needed a place to spend their time with nurses in attendance and all needs taken care of.

Smith said the place would have a payroll of $3,000 a month, do their buying of their needs and services here in town, and that visitors to visit residents or patients in the home would spend money here.

City councilman Roland L. Lowe introduced Smith, and he also had mayor Lee Reed and bank president Roy Foster at the luncheon as his guests. Reed later in the day said the city could and probably would deed them the city owned land just east of the old depot for the home. So, only the state approval is needed.

Other guests at the luncheon included Si Richards, Bill McRee and a Mr. Compton. The prize went to Leroy Butler.

H. A. Chapple reported that a total of $87.95 had been turned in on the Points for Polio ball game pledge and some more yet was to be reported.

Join Air Forces

Bill Coleman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Coleman and Jimmy Joe Bauer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bauer, have joined the Air Forces and left here Monday morning. They went to Abilene first and from there they were to go on to Lackland Air Base at San Antonio for processing.

They caught a ride to Abilene with Marion Hays, after they found out that the bus from here was late and could not make connections.

FFA BOYS SHOW AT SAN ANTONIO SHOW

Fred Igo, Future Farmers of America sponsor and vocational agriculture instructor, returned home Tuesday night from the San Antonio Livestock Show and Exposition.

FFA boys taking animals to the show included David Foster, Jack Clark, Billy Blair and Mike Foster. Fred Fields sent some animals.

Igo said in the Registered Ewe Lamb class Fred Fields showed a 3rd place lamb.

At the El Paso show, Fields had the grand champion fine-wool lamb (bred by George McEntire); the reserve grand champion fine-wool lamb and a third place Hampshire lamb and sold his grand champion lamb for $310 and the reserve champion for $225 in the show sale that followed.

Bill Foster had the grand champion registered Suffolk ram lamb in the El Paso show and his cousin, Mike Foster, had the grand champion ewe. Igo said Mike and Bill got placings from first on down as far as their entries went in the El Paso show (1st, 2nd, 3rd, etc.).

Freddie's 1st place registered Rambouillet ewe lamb at the show was a Hodges ewe that had been financed through the FFA chapter with Sears Foundation money, said Igo. Other El Paso exhibitors included Billy Blair, Janis Igo and Gary Foster.

In San Antonio Janis Igo had a 9th place fine-wool lamb in the open show as well as a 14th place. Her brother, Lee Wayne Igo, had a 12th place crossbred lamb.

Igo said that the Hodges sheep (registered Rambouillet) won reserve champion ribbon; was first in aged ewes and first in aged rams.

Clintons lamb that was reserve champion lamb at El Paso was also reserve champion lamb at San Antonio.

Clinton had three Hereford calves at the San Antonio show. In a lightweight class one of them placed 2nd and as a pen of 3 they all placed 3rd. They are of Lester Foster breeding, said Igo.

Among exhibitors at the El Paso stock show last week were a number of Sterling people. Among the Suffolk classes Wm. and J.Q. Foster and their boys had winners. Bill Foster had the grand champion ram and Mike Foster had the grand champion ewe in the Junior Suffolk show. In the adult or open Suffolk show J.Q. had the reserve champion ram and the reserve champion ewe.

Mike showed an 18th place lamb in the fat lamb show; a Southdown.

The girls Saturday beat the Bronte B team 32 to 27 and Silvre nudged them out of the championship 30 to 24.

Allen-Smith Wedding in New Mexico

A quiet, informal wedding, with a few friends in attendance, was solemnized at the home of Mrs. Rulene Allen and her son Freddie as she became the bride of Norman Smith on February 1.

The Rev. F. F. Payas, retired Presbyterian minister, officiated for the five o'clock ceremony before the living room fireplace which was banked with white and yellow chrysanthemums.

Given in marriage by her son Freddie Allen, the bride wore a gold dress, with appliqued gold braid, a matching cap and gold veil of the same material, gold jewelry and a cymbidium corsage.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held with a 3-tiered wedding cake decorated in white and yellow. Mrs. Walter Unruh served the cake and Mrs. Steve Franken poured.

Mrs. Rufus Foster of Sterling City, mother of the bride, and Mrs. Grace B. Smith, who is teaching in Arizona, mother of the bridegroom, were unable to attend.

Following a ten-day wedding trip to various points, Mr. and Mrs. Smith will be at home in Las Vegas where he is employed by the highway department. Mrs. Smith has been employed at Murphy's Drugstore for the past year.

Weather Man Brings Snow and Cold

The weather man brought winter back to Sterling and to the whole state this week with a cold blast Monday morning early. First a rain left nearly a half inch of bad-ly needed moisture and then snow covered everything before sun up Monday. Again early Tuesday snow fell between the hours of 6 and 9 a.m.

The school here did not open on Tuesday due to the snow and icy road conditions. In fact a number of schools over West Texas did not open on Monday or Tuesday and some Wednesday.

PTA Game Night Here Feb. 16

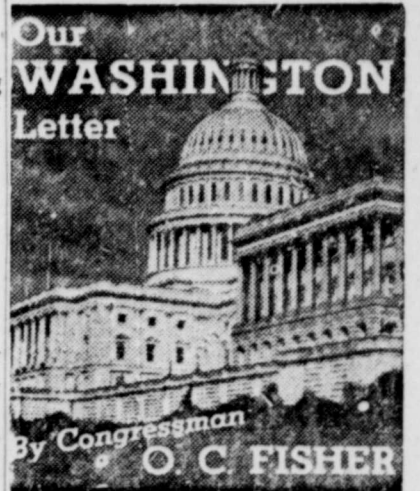

The local Parent-Teacher Association will hold a game night at the school gym on Saturday, February 16. The adult games will be held in the gym and there will be a picture show in the auditorium, said Mrs. Chesley McDonald. Pie and drinks will be served to all that come.

Cost will be $1.00 for adults and 50c for children. The admission price pays for all, including the pie and drink.

The PTA needs $200 by the month of March to make a down payment on air conditioners for the school, it was said. The finance committee of the group have this game night planned to help raise the money.

Games to be played will be dominoes, 42, bridge, scrabble and any others that patrons want to play, said Mrs. J.R. Dillard. Starting time is 7:00 o'clock that evening.

The finance committee is making plans to have a tasting tea soon. They want all who will to send in a copy of their favorite recipe—to Mrs. Chesley McDonald or Mrs. Dillard. They will make the recipes up into a cook book and sell them at the Tasting Tea. Date for the tea will be announced later, said Mrs. Dillard. Money raised will go to the air conditioner fund.

Reports reaching here are that the field team sent to Texas by Secretary of Interior Stewart Udall, to collect information on the depredating habits of the golden eagle and the best means of controlling them, resulted in an avalanche of evidence confirming (1) that the eagles virtually live on lambs and kids during the winter and spring months, and (2) that the only effective means of destroying them is through the use of airplanes.

Despite our vigorous protests, the Secretary of Interior saw fit to issue a regulation to prohibit the use of airplanes. Everyone familiar with the problem knows that the only effective means of finding and killing the eagles is through the use of planes. We repeatedly assured him of that fact before he issued the regulation.

It is hoped that as a result of the disclosures that have been made to the field specialists, Udall will recognize his error and take immediate steps to correct it. This he can do with one stroke of the pen. The Congress has never made it a violation to kill golden eagles from airplanes. That was strictly the idea of the Secretary, by the issuance of a regulation.

Since the department is now engaged in seeking information on the subject it would be familiar with the destructive habits of these birds of prey to write detailed accounts of their experiences and address them promptly to: Hon. Stewart Udall, Secretary of Interior, and to Mr. Daniel Janzen, Director, Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife, Department of Interior, Washington 25, D.C.

The Cuban situation has worsened since last October. While all available evidence indicates there are no known offensive missiles remaining on the island, and the IL-28 bombers have been removed, the fact remains that the Soviets have tightened their hold on the base and have been steadily building up ground strength, including a supply of defensive-type missiles. And they have become more dominant and more solidly entrenched in the political sense.

We had the initiative last fall; we do not have it now. When the blockade was on we could call the shots, but we seem to have lost that advantage. In short, we have lost the psychological leverage we enjoyed during Khrushchev's ignominious retreat from his brazen missile buildup.

But we have dilly-dallied. Now there are 18,000 Soviets in Cuba. Last October we were in a position to demand that they be cleared out. We had the initiative, and we had free world support. Today there is more risk.

But regardless of risk, our objective should be to rid Cuba of this threat to our security, and with the minimum of delay. Time is running against us. Khrushchev should be told in no uncertain terms that this is our part of the world; that the Cuban threat must be removed; that we will tolerate no Soviet buildup there. And then take whatever steps are needed to regain the initiative and follow through.

Stupid lad that I am, I have been wondering all along what all this loud talk about higher education meant. Now I know. Federal aid to education, more school rooms, higher pay for the teachers, scholarships to colleges and I am for them all. For we have got to have some awful smart birds to get us out of this financial mess that we are in.

They have shore got to know more than how to cross the forty yard line for A touchdown in A football game. And the day is here, it ain't coming, when you ain't got A degree of something you are just out in the rain without a slicker.

And what are you going to do if you ain't got the money. You can't get A job till you have the degree and you can't get A degree without the money. Answer that puzzle, you McGimpers.

This country was made by men without degrees and we was getting along fine till them Md's and PHD's come into fashion. The law then was to let other peoples business alone and take care of your own. Now, your business is everybodys business, both Ctate and National.

Yes, there is three things that we shore have plenty of in Washington, Education, Hot Air and Confusion. In fact, we have so much of them three things, that is has seeped over into the foreign countries.

We have got good men in Washington, allright. But what we need is better advisors. Let them good men in Washington go back to Harvard and teach the young poloticians how to get rich from the sweat of other peoples brow. They won't live happy BUT they will live.

Navy Now Accepting Three Year Enlistments

The Navy will accept volunteers for the first year term enlistment and will permit certain young men to reenlist for two or three years in an experimental program. Vice Admiral William R. Smedberg, III, Chief of Naval Personnel announced today.

The experimental program has been placed in operation, Admiral Smedberg said, to meet the increased readiness posture of the Navy and the Nation. It will remain in effect until June 30th, 1962. The three year enlistment program is open to men who have had no prior military training. Under the reenlistment program, eligible personnel who have been released from active duty may reenlist with an option of up to 30 days advance leave. Formerly, broken service men reenlisted for four or six years with no advanced leave authorized. Admiral Smedberg said this new experimental program would afford young men of the country an opportunity to train and serve patriotically while learning of Navy life with only a three year commitment.

The experimental program will in no way effect the Navy's current stay in school policy, young men will continue to be encouraged to stay in school.

Social Security

Over fifty million people have worked long enough under social security to qualify for cash disability benefits if they become disabled. This means that they have social security credits for five years (20 quarters) out of the past ten years, Floyd B. Ellington, district manager of the San Angelo Social Security office said. In the case of a severe disability, the worker and his dependents may be eligible for monthly cash social security disability benefits if he meets this work requirement.

It is not necessary to be completely helpless to qualify for social security disability benefits. These benefits are payable to those who suffer from a crippling disease or a severe impairment which makes them unable to do any substantial work.

Disabled adult sons and daughters of retired, deceased, or disabled workers may also receive childhood disability benefits if they become disabled before they reached age 18.

Anyone suffering a severe disability which prevents him from doing any substantial work should get in touch with the local social security office to determine his eligibility under the Social Security disability program, Ellington stated. He may be losing benefits if he fails to apply for them promptly. The social security district office will explain to disabled workers and their families their rights under the law.

USDA ANNOUNCES GUIDELINES FOR PILOT RECREATION ENTERPRISES ON FARMS

A limited number of farmers in Sterling County may be eligible for cost-share assistance in establishing pilot recreation enterprises on their cropland in 1963, according to Eschol Crook, County Office Manager, Sterling County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service.

The enterprises, part of the long-range program of land-use adjustment designed to help farmers convert their farms from crop production to grass, trees, wildlife and income-producing recreation uses, were authorized by Congress as a part of the Food and Agriculture Act of 1962.

Under the program, the Government will share with a limited number of farmers the cost of conservation practices needed in order to make these conversions. In addition, adjustment payments will be made to help farmers make conversion if the land is suited for regular use in production of crops. Primary responsibility for administering this program has been delegated to USDA's Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service, in cooperation with other Department agencies, Mr Crook pointed out.

The pilot recreation developments may include conversion of all or part of the eligible land on a farm to recreation uses. Only farmers or group of farmers who own or operate cropland which is being devoted to the production of row crops or small grain, and tame hay, will be eligible to participate in the program. Land already in forest trees or shrubs for wildlife or water impoundments will not be eligible, nor will land which has changed ownership in the past two years.

Loans for facilities such as buildings and boat docks will be available to qualified participants through USDA's Farmers Home Administration. In addition, plans for recreation development on family farms and in rural areas were announced by the USDA recently.

Practices aimed at developing fishing, swimming, picking, hunting preserves, picnicking, camping, and other recreational use of land will be considered in developing the pilot developments in addition to wildlife conservation practices with the soil and water benefits.

Individual farmers or small groups of farmers who are interested in participating in the pilot program should contact the local Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation office as soon as possible to discuss their proposals, Mr Crook urged.

Clean Up Campaign For Town

A clean up campaign for the town, including the clearing of vacant lots and bad corners is taking shape and plans for the cooperation of everyone is to be announced soon. Some help from the fire department on burning off of weeds, etc. is expected and help for the hauling of trash is needed. A cleaner, more attractive town is hoped for, as well as a removal of fire hazards.

Some expense will probably be incurred and should anyone who owns vacant lots or other property want to contribute to some clearing expense, they are asked to mail or give donations to Mrs. W.N. Reed of the Wimoudausis Club.
