VOL. 72 "Since 1890" PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY AT STERLING CITY, TEXAS MAY 1, 1964 No. 18

Saturday Primary Election Day Here

Both Democratic and Republican

Saturday, May 2, is Primary Election Day in Sterling and all over Texas. The Democratic Party is holding election in all five of the regular voting boxes here in Sterling—being at the courthouse, R. T. Foster ranch house (Bill Blairs), the Tom Humble ranch house, the N. H. Reed ranch house, and the Billy Ralph Bynum ranch house (if it is raining, the voting will be in the Ed Bynum ranch house, said Mrs. Bill Bynum).

There are no contested local races. On the ballot will be F. J. (Jim) Cantrell for sheriff, tax assessor-collector, Worth B. Durham for County attorney, H. F. Donalson and C. J. Copeland for County Commissioners.

There is a contest in the district attorney's race for the 51st district. It is between Frank C. Dickey, Jr. and Jack Sessom, the incumbent and the assistant, respectively. State Senator Dorsey B. Hardeman is opposed by Mrs. Janita Camfield of San Angelo. Hardeman is favored to win over the district.

There is a scattering of contests among the state races, but most of them will be decided on in the first primary it is thought. Jim Langdon is expected to win his race for Railroad Commissioner over Jesse Owens. Jerry Sadler will likely beat Fred Williams for Land Commissioner. John C. White may have a real race with Millard Shivers for Agriculture Commissioner due to the name. Joe Pool is favored for Congressman at Large, and Lieutenant-Governor Preston Smith is favored over Albert Fuentes, Jr.

Governor John Connally and Don Yarborough will lead in that race with Connally given the nod by most observers.

Voters should bring their poll taxes when they vote so the election judges can mark them voted Democrat—or Republican—as the case might be.

A light turnout of votes is expected Saturday. There is no big interest in the election due to no local contests.

The results will be compiled and posted in front of the News-Record that night, said Democrat chairman, Jack Douthit.

Republicans To Vote Here

The Sterling County Republicans will hold a primary election here at the American Legion Hut. Volunteer labor will hold that election, being Mr. and Mrs. Finis Westbrook and Mr. and Mrs. Larry Glass.

No local candidates are listed on the Republican ballot—just state and district.

There is a preferential primary on presidential choice. On the ballot are names of Barry Goldwater, Nelson Rockefeller, Margaret Chase Smith and Harold Stassen.

Precinct Conventions Set

Precinct conventions will be held that afternoon. The Democrats will hold their's in Worth Durham's office. The Republicans will hold one in Dr. Swann's office.

This is the first child for the Fosters. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Craig of Nolan and Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Foster of Sterling. Great grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Templeton Foster of Sterling City.

WILLENE GLASS

WILLENE GLASS SIG EP SWEETHEART

Willene Glass, Sterling City sophomore at Texas Christian University, was crowned Sigma Phi Epsilon sweetheart at the annual Golden Heart Ball at Western Hills Country Club in Fort Worth April 11.

Miss Glass, a member of Delta Delta Delta and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Glass, was chosen from nominees Jean Crotty, Bobbie Kindeger, Judy McMaster, and Cathie Westmoreland.

Each girl received a heart charm and Miss Glass was given a bouquet of roses.

Softball Club Begins Play Next Monday

The Sterling City softball club opens the 1964 season next Monday, May 4 with a game in San Angelo with Park Heights Baptist Church. The game is set for 7:30 p.m. in the ball park in San Angelo.

The locals second game is set for 6:30 p.m. Friday, May 8 with the First Christian Church team.

The local club joined the San Angelo church softball league and are scheduled to play through July 17, said manager Marshall Blair.

STERLING CITY FFA JUDGING TEAMS PLACE IN TEXAS TECH JUDGING EVENTS

The Sterling City FFA Livestock and Wool judging teams participated in the judging contests at Texas Tech Saturday, April 25. Members of the Livestock judging team are Bill Foster, Wayne Smith and Wayland Foster. The wool judging team is composed of Dusty Dillard, Drew Durham and Larry Wilson.

The wool judging team was fifth high team in judging wool, placing fleeces and giving reasons on the placings. The team was ninth overall in the wool contest, which consisted of placing three classes of four fleeces each and giving reasons, and grading 20 fleeces according to fineness of fiber, staple length, and percent shrinkage of the fleeces. Dusty Dillard was the seventh overall high individual in the wool contest.

The livestock judging team was ninth in overall competition with over 140 teams competing. The Sterling City boys were fifth high team in judging beef cattle. Wayland Foster was the third high individual in beef cattle judging in the

Lions Club Favors Swimming Pool

The Lions Club, in an unofficial voting, favored 100% having a bond issue to provide a swimming pool and park facilities here in Sterling City. The club asked for a vote to see how members felt about a bond issue for a swimming pool here. It was decided to have a committee to look into the costs of such facilities for the city, and then proceed with plans for a bond issue to finance the project.

Wayne Loury reported that the committee on finance had raised about $360 to remodel the community center living quarters and the large hall. Some more money will be raised as additional people will be contacted, he said.

Loury also said that on a revision of plans on repainting the community center had necessitated getting new bids. Jack Peel was given the job to repaint and remodel the quarters and will do the large hall.

George Turner showed home movies he had made of two towns—Eden and Melvin. The highway skirted and missed Melvin years ago and the town is decaying and looks like a ghost town. Eden is improving with new businesses, has a city park—sponsored by the Lions Club, and has increased in population.

The livestock team placed fourth in Vocational Agriculture Area II competition. This qualifies the team to compete in the State FFA livestock judging contest to be held at A&M University, Saturday, May 2. The group will leave Sterling City Friday morning with team coach Fred Igo, local Vocational Agriculture teacher.

THE WHITE CLIFFS of Dover, English landmark, are made of millions of bodies of foraminifera, tiny sea organisms that died millions of years ago.

A SEVEN-TELESCOPE observatory has been opened at Dickinson College, Carlisle, Pa. Three 8-inch and three 3-inch telescopes plus a refracting instrument for navigational and time-determining studies are installed in the $50,000 complex.

THE COMMON conception of welding as a slow, tedious process is behind the times. New fully automated gas-shielded, flux-cored processes, says National Cylinder Gas, Chicago, achieve remarkably rapid metal-deposition rates, consuming as much as 34 1/2 feet of wire electrode a minute on long, continuous welds.

Epsilon Zeta Club

A regular meeting of the Epsilon Zeta Club was held April 28 in the community center with 14 members present. Mrs. Marshall Blair was hostess.

"Do You Need a Maid?" was given by Mrs. Wayne Louny. The club extends an invitation to all to attend a linen shower at the hospital from 3 to 5 p.m. Sunday.

Password was played and prizes were won by Mrs. Chas. Allen and Mrs. Chas. Probandt.

The door prize went to Mrs. Leslie Cole.

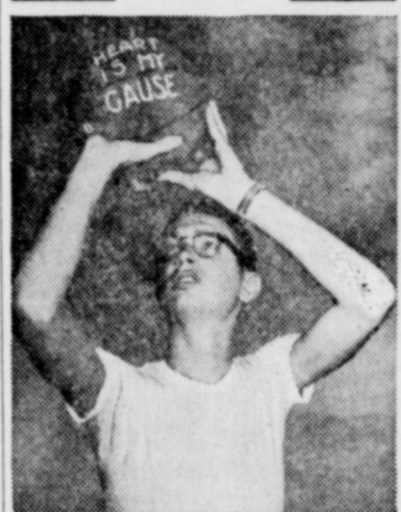

CARD OF THANKS

We want to take this method of thanking our friends for the many kindnesses of flowers, gifts, visits, cards and food since I came home and for Jim while I was in the hospital. You will never know just how much we appreciated them.

Thanks again and may God bless you all.

Ex-'Blue Baby' Scores for Heart Fund

"BLUE BABY" OPERATION was introduced at Baltimore in 1945 — just in time to save the life of Wayne Lanier, then 3, of North Charleston, S.C. A follow-up operation in 1962 made him the world's first person to undergo total correction of a "blue baby" heart defect. Now he's an active, 21-year-old student at Clemson University. He'll be among 1,750,000 volunteers visiting their neighbors for the Heart Fund on the weekend of Heart Sunday, Feb. 23.

Are Your Plants "Anemic"?

Both plants and people are living organisms, dependent on certain nutrients for growth and well being.

Scientists have long known that nitrogen, phosphorus, potassium, calcium, magnesium and sulphur are necessary for plant health. The need for certain micronutrients — such as iron, manganese, copper and zinc — is a more recent discovery. Only trace amounts of these minerals are needed, but without them plants suffer and eventually die. The most common micronutrient deficiency is a lack of iron, called iron chlorosis or "anemia".

Iron chlorosis can be found in plants all over the country, but there are some areas where most untreated plants suffer this condition. For example, in the West plants find it difficult to get all the iron they need from the soil, and in the East iron chlorosis often results from worn out soils.

Pale green or yellow young leaves is one of the major symptoms of iron chlorosis. Another sign to look for is fewer and smaller blossoms.

Iron deficiency can best be corrected with a type of chemical called a "chelate" (pronounced key-late). One of the most widely used iron chelates is Sequestrene, a development of Geigy Agricultural Chemicals. Available as a powder, it can be dissolved for application with a sprayer or used undiluted directly on the soil. Either way, it will bring an iron-starved plant back to its original glow of health.

Coming In LIFE Happy Birthday, Will!

William Shakespeare would have been 400 years old this April 23rd, a fact any schoolboy knows. But, did you know that Shakespeare originally became a playwright because he was considered not a "mediocre" actor? By the time he was 28, he had become England's leading dramatist, leaving us a legacy that includes "Romeo and Juliet" . . . "Hamlet" and "Macbeth" among the 152 sonnets and 45 plays he wrote. Today, four centuries later, scholars are still debating whether or not Shakespeare actually wrote those masterpieces.

In celebration of the Bard's birthday, the April 24th issue of LIFE will devote a special section to Shakespeare. Featured will be 10 pages of color paintings of the world of his time, plus an essay on "Hamlet" and what the play holds for modern man, and an absorbing roundup of the arguments about who really wrote Shakespeare's plays.

To the people of the 25th Senatorial District:
 It has been my desire and effort to visit with each voter, personally, but the vast area of the 20-County District has made this impossible. Thus, I take this means of soliciting your vote and support for my re-election as your State Senator. Numerous issues must be resolved — redistricting, educational excellence at all levels, increased teachers' salaries, water resources conservation, industrial and tourism development, to mention a few. I pledge continued honorable, dignified and effective representation of all the citizens of the 25th District. My seniority of service, my experience, and proved qualifications are back of this pledge. On this basis I respectfully request your vote for me for State Senator, on May 2.

Travel Log by Judy Graham

Amerigo Vespucci, the navigator who lent his name to this continent, thought the Caribbean Island of Curacao a beautiful haven when he shared in its discovery with Alonzo de Ojeda in 1499.

Modern travellers find more people than did Vespucci—but the same serenity. A favorite spot for sun-bound vacationers, Curacao has the added attraction of being a free-port. Duty-free gifts can be bought at prices up to 40% cheaper than in the U.S.

This Netherlands Antilles island has enhanced its personality by encouraging new industries with benefits that can even include a 10 year tax holiday. For further information on tourism or investment write: Curacao Information Center, 1270 Avenue of the Americas, New York, N. Y. 10020.

Our WASHINGTON Letter

By Congressman O. C. FISHER

People fearing that disarmament is gaining ground in the U. S., were reassured last week when the House voted 365-to-0 in favor of a $46.8 billion appropriation for national defense. Designed to continue and expand the strongest military establishment in the peacetime history of this country, the measure reassures U. S. supremacy over the Soviets.

With a cost tag amounting to nearly half of the national budget, defense items include money to clothe, feed, and equip 2,655,000 men and women in uniform; supports a total of 687 military installations; maintains about 875 active naval vessels; maintains over 30,000 active military aircraft; and the procurement of 2,655 additional aircraft.

The bill includes funds for 53 new naval vessels and the conversion of 7 existing naval vessels and over $1.6 billion for the procurement of Army equipment of all types.

The measure continues support for the submarine fleet and the polaris underwater missiles. Recent sea trials for the USS TECUMSEH, our 21st Polaris type nuclear sub, is regarded as a major accomplishment in our defense arsenal.

The $46.8 billion bill was trimmed $7 billion below budget requests, but was $7 billion above the defense funds voted in 1960 and 1961. Every essential request was met, but George Mahons committee trimmed non-essentials to the bone.

Recent guests have included: Lt. Col. A. S. Reinhart, now stationed in Washington, and his wife and father and mother, the A. F. Reinharts, all of Del Rio; Wendall Mayes of Brownwood; Gilbert Felt of Sabinal; Mrs. S. F. Hignett and Mrs. Leroy Clark, of San Angelo, here attending the national convention of the Colonial Dames; Mrs. Clyde Westbrook of Melvin; David Shahan of San Angelo; Wm. Paull Harris of San Angelo; John Ward, formerly of Sonora but now with Sun Oil Co. in Washington; and Houston Harte of San Angelo.

A. W. Dearen, local Justice of the Peace, recently underwent an operation in a Big Spring hospital. He returned home last weekend.

Civil Service Opportunities

The U.S. Civil Service Commission has announced new examinations for Recreation Resource Specialists (paying $6,675 to $14,565 a year) and Public Health Educators (paying $6,675 to $12,845 a year) for work in Washington, D.C., and throughout the United States.

Recreation Resource Specialists are employed mainly in the Department of the Interior to provide technical advice and guidance to Federal, state, and local governments in connection with outdoor recreation needs and resources. Related experience is required although appropriate education may be substituted for some of the experience. Applications will be accepted until further notice by the Board of U.S. Civil Service Examiners, Department of the Interior, Washington, D.C. 2240. See Announcement No. 308 B.

Public Health Educators are employed chiefly in the Public Health Service of the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare; they provide leadership in developing sound educational methods of solving health problems. Appropriate education and experience are required. Applications should be filed with the Board of U.S. Civil Service Examiners, U.S. Public Health Service, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, Washington, D.C. 20201. See announcement 309 B for complete details.

RADIO TRANSMITTING tubes as big as fire hydrants are going to power a new Voice of America station having almost 5,000,000 watts capacity. Construction by Votator of a special trailer-truck-size Thermex tube tester that can deliver continuous power of 1,200,000 watts was required to test the new tubes, which extend beyond the range and power frequencies of previously available equipment.

FEED CHILDREN fewer calories per day, advise Cornell University scientists. If protein and vitamin consumption are kept at accepted levels, the children will grow to be smaller but longer-lived adults. Average life spans of 110 years and more are envisioned.

CELLOPHANE is trying to push cotton out of the top of the pill bottle. About 4,000,000 pounds of cellophane will be stuffed in bottles this year by one leading firm. Adherents claim it protects pills more efficiently against chipping and breaking.
