Behind the 8-Ball

Seen at the hospital here — Dr. McDaniel over from Robert Lee . . . Jim Hinshaw glad to be out of "back" traction.

8-BALL
Well, the runoff election got held last Saturday. It only cost a little over $2.50 per vote in the Democratic primary. Only 17 persons voted at the Demo place and ten over at the Republican spot.

No interest shown here at all—but the law required a run-off.

8-BALL
In some foreign countries it is against the law NOT TO vote. Here we want the right TO vote or NOT to vote.

8-BALL
The hail about 5:30 on June 4 was varied in size and had no set pattern of make-up. It seemed more like hunks or chunks. No real damage was reported but everyone was apprehensive.

8-BALL
Don't look now, but hot, dry weather is upon us.

8-BALL
Our thanks to the election judges and workers who helped hold the election here last Saturday. At the Demo box were Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Jones, Mrs. Lee Augustine and D. Kirk Hopkins. At the Republican box were the Finis Westbrooks and the Larry Glasses.

8-BALL
Mission San Saba at Menard is in a sad state. It has a medalion on a good wall but a slight earth tremor could send most all of the standing wall crumbling down. It is a shame that it couldn't be restored.

8-BALL
Lynda Allen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Worth Allen, is Sterling's entry in the Miss Wool of Texas contest next week in Odessa. She's a lovely entrant and here's hoping she wins the title.

8-BALL
When everything fouls up and nothing goes right, you can always say — well, the country is going to the dogs, anyway. Shaggy type beatles or beagles or poodles.

8-BALL
I wish I could settle the presidential campaign as simply as I fill out a Gallup Poll sheet. I'd fix things up in a hurry—to my own satisfaction.

8-BALL
Water skiers have about taken over the lakes—where there is any water. The fishermen just have to take a back seat now. On lakes you see skiers on two skis or on one only; or on ski sleds or motorized skis.

8-BALL
Sailboats gracefully skim along—making no noise at all and will go in any direction—regardless of the wind—it seems.

8-BALL
Clayton Stewart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Stewart, is home from Sam Houston State College, Huntsville, for the summer.

8-BALL
Sonny Rawls has been down in the valley for a long time doing survey work for the Humble Oil Co. Mrs. Rawls is teaching in San Angelo Central High. She is working on her master's degree at Southwest Texas State, San Marcos, and plans to work further on a Ph. D.

8-BALL
The army trucks are going back through from operation "Desert Strike" that was held in the Mojave Desert of California and Arizona. It took them a month to pass through going — a month of the war games — and a month to pass through going back. And the vehicles all look mighty dusty now.

8-BALL
Billy Blair, son of Mr. and Mrs. John I. Blair, has finished his freshman year in Texas Tech. He has enrolled in Lubbock Christian College for a summer session.

AROUND THE COUNTY

ARTHUR BARLEMANN, JR. COUNTY AGENT

Sterling County can be proud of the seven 4-H club members who took part in the 4-H Club Round Up and state contests last week at College Station. Every one of the team members brought home a medal signifying that the team of which they were a member placed in the top three teams in the state. One of the members competing as an individual placed second while the others competing as teams placed third.

Jeanie McDonald won second in the Soil, Water, and Range Conservation Demonstration as an individual. Jeanie's score in the contest was ninety-five out of a possible hundred points. First place individual in the contest scored 96 points and the third place individual made a score of 94. Thus, the top three individuals were separated by only two points.

The Soil, Water and Range Conservation Demonstration team placed third in the state contest. Team members were Barbara Durham and Rosanne Foster. Their score was ninety-one out of a possible hundred points. The first place team's score was 95 and the second place team's score was 94.

The range judging team placed third in the state contest with a score of 906 out of a possible twelve hundred points. Team members and their individual scores were: Larry Stewart, 305; James Morgan, 302; Jack Clark, 299; and David Foster, 291. Possible score for an individual was four hundred points. First place winner in this contest was Sutton County with Glasscock County second.

Glasscock County team members turned the tables on the range team from Sterling this year. The Sterling team had beaten their team in several contests this year but the neighbors from Garden City made up for it in the state contest. Last year, the Glasscock County team beat Sterling in all the contests only to see the Sterling team beat them at the state level.

I feel that the four boys and three girls did a very fine job. The made a good showing in the contests and were good representatives of their club and their county. When they can compete on the state level in these contests and place in the top three, they are putting forth a good effort. I am proud of them and I know that their friends are proud of them. The silver medal won by the second place individual and the bronze medals won by the third place winners are symbols of much experience which cannot be measured.

The girls were accompanied by Mrs. Worth Durham and Mrs. Ross Foster. Their help is appreciated.

A lamb conference is being held at College Station June 25-27. The conference is designed to help bring the entire lamb industry a little closer together in its thinking on show business and carcass lamb being demanded by every one who is interested in attending. Directors of the Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers' Association will be holding their quarterly meeting on the campus on the 26th and 27th and will be represented at the conference by a number of people.

One of the features of the conference is a carcass evaluation class. Those attending the conference will grade the lambs on foot. The lambs will then be slaughtered and the carcasses evaluated by meats men. This has proved quite interesting in the past—the show type lambs have not placed as high as the other types.

Lambs for this class are being furnished by a number of breeders throughout the state. Four finewool lambs are being sent to the conference by Clinton Hodges.

Don't forget the ram sale being held by the American Rambouillet Association in San Angelo next Thursday, June 18. The sale starts at 10:00 a. m. Sale manager this year is Clinton Hodges.

There will be lots of good rams available. Anyone looking for rams that will help improve his sheep should be able to find some to his liking in the sale offering.

Lynda Allen of Sterling City will be competing in the Miss Wool of Texas contest next week in Odessa. Lynda is the first contestant from Sterling in several years. Good luck, Lynda.

Little League Game Saturday

There will be a little league baseball game at the ball park just back of the D. C. Durham house here Saturday, June 13 at 4 p.m.

This matched game is one of the first and everyone is invited and urged to come out and watch, said Fred McDonald.

Softball Team Moves Up

The local softball club knocked off the top team of the San Angelo church league Tuesday night by beating First Baptist 2-1.

This win put Sterling in fourth place with a 5-3 season record. Earl Seago and the First Baptist pitcher slugged it out in a real pitching duel. Jack Asbill got a homer early in the game and later stole in home on an out—giving the locals enough to bump the top team from its perch.

Alumni Meeting June 20 in San Angelo

The Sterling High School Alumni Association will hold its annual meeting and dance on June 20 at the River Club in San Angelo.

Following the association dinner meeting a dance will be held. Al Ricci's orchestra will play for the dance, and everyone is cordially invited to attend the dance.

Blackwell - Tindall Marriage

Miss Cynthia Ann Blackwell and Billy Joe Tindall were married last Saturday, June 6, in Alpine. The wedding took place in the reception room of the Holland House Hotel there at 10 a.m.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Blackwell of Alpine and Billy Joe is a son of the Ray Tindalls of Sterling City. The Ray Tindalls attended the wedding.

The couple will live in Alpine where Billy Joe works as a mechanic.

Postmaster and Mrs. Hal Knight attended the postmasters convention in San Antonio this week.

Johnny Augustine, student in A.C.C. is in Memphis, Tennessee in a training period, following which he will work for the company.

The Sam Augustines of Jackson, Mississippi, visited relatives here last week.

LIONS CLUB

Bill McRee, Boy Scout Executive, showed slides of the Buffalo Trail Boy Scout Camp near Ft. Davis to the Lions Wednesday. The camp covers 6,000 acres in the rugged Davis mountains.

It was announced that the Lions would hold a barbecue supper at the city park on July 10 at 7 p.m. Plates will be 50c for under 12) and $1.25 for adults. Everyone is invited. After the barbecue, the crowd will go to the ball field for a little league ball game.

The club voted to buy a "sweetheart" pin for the new club pianist, Nelwyn King. The commissioners court, it was told, was to fix up the main hall of the community center. The club and the court had recently remodelled the center's living quarters.

The History of Sterling County

BY IRA LEE WATKINS

The names of two tributaries in the Concho River System bear witness to the presence of two Indian tribes in this section in early days. Kiowa Creek, which heads in south Sterling County, is a tributary to the Middle Concho, and Kickapoo Creek is a tributary to the South Concho. Also, near the city of San Angelo is to be found a section of the country known as Lipan Flats.

Thus it seems that Indians from the four above mentioned tribes, Lipans, Kickapoos, Kiowas, and Comanches, have roamed and hunted at one time or another on Sterling County soil. Whether they shared the North Concho hunting grounds or whether each tribe occupied it at different times is a matter of conjecture. Perhaps when tribes were on friendly terms they shared it, and when on unfriendly terms, the stronger tribe claimed it.

If the arrow heads which Sterling County boys pick up could speak, or if Tower Hill could suddenly find a way of releasing its secrets, no doubt we would stand amazed at stories of a culture and a civilization which prevailed on the very ground where we walk every day. That civilization is gone, and only in our imagination can we reconstruct the drama that was enacted in what is now our own back yard; but if by some magic circumstance, say, for instance, a sip of a Medieval witch's brew, we could have that Indian panorama placed before our eyes, this is what we could see:

We could see the Indian on his pony
Chasing the mighty buffalo.
We could hear the animal's death-moan
As the hunter's spear pierced his side.

We could see the warrior take the buffalo skin
And from it make his robe, his shield, his wigwag;
And the Indian fishing in the Concho, the Colorado,
And Sterling Creek, which was then a rippling stream;

Could hear the singing arrow and its dull thud
As it struck the bounding deer
From which the red man got meat and buckskin.

We could see him lying flat, quenching his thirst
With the clear, cool waters of Dripping Spring.

In the village, on the concho
We could see the women grinding corn, for making bread,
Cooking stew of buffalo and deer meat, in clay vessels,
Preparing hominy and squash;
and other women
Working in the cornfield pulling weeds;

Children playing in the village
Throwing mud at each other;
Dogs lying in the way;
Old men sitting in the sun.

We could see the Indian
Sending a message in the smoke code
From the top of Tower Hill;
See him stealthily creeping up behind a member
Of the enemy tribe;

Or lurking in the shadows
Near the Pioneer's lonely cabin,
Countenance dark seeking vengeance
Against the man who took his home,
His hunting ground, his game.

We could see him watching the thunder cloud,
Listening to the ominous rumble
Of the oncoming storm,
Greeting the rising sun,
Searching the hot and cloudless sky

For signs of rain,
Standing atop the rugged hill,
Arms outstretched, face toward the heavens,
In honest supplication
To the Great Father.

We could see the grotesquely masked
Medicine man
With his magic owl feathers;
The robed and feathered chieftain
In council with his wise men;
The tribe in ceremonial array

Dancing the Buffalo Dance, the Green Corn Dance, The Rain Dance, the War Dance;

Could hear the steady beating of the tom-tom
Could see a score of rhythmic feet,
Plumes and feathers bobbing.

As the Indian gave expression To his aesthetic nature.
We could see the arrowmaker
Busy shaping arrows;
Women weaving baskets,
Skillfully bending reeds
To make a hundred different shapes;

And last, we could see the hardy pioneer,
Hear his lumbering wagon
As he came to take the Indian's place;

And see the red man disappearing,
Fading away to take up his abode
On the reservation,
And there adopt
The white man's ways.

Interesting Indian remains have been found in Sterling County. About fourteen miles south of Sterling City is Dripping Spring which in recent years has ceased to flow. At this place are to be found signs which indicate that the spot was once a favorite camping ground of the Indian. On one rock is found two smoothly rounded out holes which appear to have been used as mortars in which the Indians ground their corn. Numerous arrow points and flint chips in the vicinity indicate that arrows were once manufactured here.

Veterans Administration Question & Answers

Q — Can I allow my annual GI insurance dividend to remain on deposit to meet future premium?

A — Yes, you may. You should notify the Insurance Service of the Veterans Administration Office where you pay your premiums to hold future dividends to your credit, at interest, to meet premiums if you should fail to pay when due.

Q — I served less than a year in the Army between 1942 and 1943 and was honorably discharged at my own request to accept employment in essential industry. Will I be entitled to a pension when I become 65 years old?

A — Pension may be granted at any age if a veteran has the requisite honorable service and is unable to follow substantially gainful employment due to disability.

Q — I had service during both World War II and the Korean Conflict but I have heard that the later period would be used in determining my deadline for a GI loan. Is this true?

A — Ordinarily yes. However, if the computed time based on a long period of service during the Korean Conflict, the World War II period may be used.

OIL TAKES BILLIONS

It takes a lot of millions, billions, and trillions to measure the Texas petroleum industry, according to Texas Mid-Continent Oil & Gas Association, which this week published its annual "64 Facts About Texas Oil and Gas."

The annual leaflet, which rounds up frequently-used statistics about the state's oil and gas operations, included these among the 64 selected this year:

Texas has produced 26.7 billion barrels of oil, or 36.3% of the U. S. total.

Texas produced 973,097,000 barrels of crude oil in 1963; 35.4% of U. S.

The value of Texas crude oil, natural gas and gas liquids in 1963 was $4.1 billion.

Texas has 18.6 billion barrels of oil reserves — 14.6 billion in crude oil; 4.0 billion from natural gas liquids.

Texas drilling in 1963 totaled about 63 million feet of hole.

Texas royalty owners received $456 million from oil and gas production in 1963.

Appointed to Christian Science Board of Lectureship

Thomas O. Poyser — who left Dallas a few years ago to serve the Christian Science church at its world headquarters in Boston — has now been appointed to The Christian Science Board of Lectureship. The announcement was made in Boston, where the church's Annual Meeting is being held. In his new position, Mr. Poyser will go on tour as a public lecturer on Christian Science, speaking to audiences throughout the United States and other countries at the invitation of local branch churches.

Mr. Poyser is a graduate in engineering at the University of Michigan, and during World War II was awarded the Bronze Star while serving in the United States Army Air Corps. He eventually became manager of a wholesale supply company in Dallas, but left this position in 1952 to devote full time to the public practice of Christian Science healing. He is a former First Reader and executive board member of Fifth Church of Christ, Scientist, Dallas.

PATTERNS FOR PROGRESS

What makes a community grow?

Our recent PATTERNS FOR PROGRESS ads have summarized basic economic development factors. The series continues as we advance to community development, which is made possible by sound economic development.

The West Texas community of Ballinger is a shining example. With organization, teamwork and sound planning, Ballinger has developed a $400,000 Memorial Hospital (pictured above) . . . 17 new commercial buildings . . . modernization of 16 others . . . 21 new businesses . . . a new community center . . . major park improvements . . . a frontier museum . . . and the adoption of a new city charter.

Ballinger is an outstanding PATTERN FOR PROGRESS.

When such a community spirit seeks new industry, even more growth comes. National studies show payrolls from 100 basic new jobs increase local personal income by $660,000 . . . bank deposits by $229,000 . . . annual retail sales by $331,000 . . . add three new retail outlets . . . increase population by 359 including 91 school children . . . add 100 new homes . . . 97 more car registrations . . . and create 65 new non-manufacturing jobs.

WTU's area representatives will assist growth-conscious communities in planning for community development programs and activities. This service is available on request through your WTU local manager.

WILLIAM E. YOUNG

CHURCH OF CHRIST MEETING STARTS SUNDAY

The local church of Christ has scheduled their summer meeting for June 14—21. William E. Young, well known evangelist from Lubbock will be the visiting preacher. He is presently the associate minister of Personal Evangelism for the Broadway church in Lubbock.

Day services will be held at 7:00 a.m. Monday—Friday and the evening services will be conducted at 8 p.m. each week night.

The something-for-nothing boys; the less-work-and-more-pay gentry; the government-owes-me-a-living crowd—all got a boost the other day when a group of economists, educators, union leaders and others proposed to President Johnson that the government pay all Americans an "adequate" income whether or not they work.

No, this is not a joke. It actually happened.

"We are confronted with a paradox of managing an economy of abundance on rules devised for an economy of scarcity", a 29 page memorandum delivered to the White House said.

Distribution should be divorced from job-holding by "an unqualified commitment to provide every individual and every family with an adequate income as a matter of right", the committee insisted.

This guaranteed income would replace the present "patchwork of welfare measures", and stabilize the government's paternalism program, the group maintained.

The guaranteed income concept is the branchchild of economist Robert Theobald, and the statement was prepared by the "Ad Hoc Committee on the Triple Revolution", organized by Theobald and Robert L. Helstein, president of the CIO's United Packinghouse, food and Allied Workers, at Princeton last October.

Maybe it was the heat that did it. But this new concept proves one thing—that this triple revolution idea is one jump ahead of anything yet proposed by the anti-poverty welfare-staters. The Theobald-Helstein bunch would make pickers out of the timid souls who would be content with just passing out an occasional government check.

It's tourist time on the Potomac. There'll be 6 million Americans in Washington during the five-month vacation period from April through August. They will spend about $358 million, according to the local Board of Trade estimates. The number has doubled in 10 years. It is a wonderful thing that so many can now find it possible to visit their seat of government.

Class of '28 Plans Reunion

Did you ever try to keep track of 22 active persons over a period of 36 years? It is a rather large undertaking, but it can be done. For example, there is the Sterling City High School graduating class of 1928, probably the largest class to ever receive diplomas from the local high school. Members of this class took a pledge that so long as five of them survived they would get together in a class reunion every succeeding leap year.

This is the ninth leap year since their graduation and they will be meeting in Sterling City for their class reunion, August 4. It will be an informal meeting in the Community Center, with a barbecue dinner at the noon hour.

Only one member of the Class of '28 has died. Mrs. Marion I. Jackson (Mary Stone) died Sept. 26, 1955 at the age of 46, and is buried in Maple Hill Cemetery at Topeka, Kansas. She is survived by two sons.

Of the remaining 22, about half have finished a college or university and a number are still in the teaching profession, one is a Methodist minister, one is in public health service, and one is a lawyer. Three still live in Sterling City, four live out of Texas. Not all of the class members have been heard from regarding this year's reunion, but the fourteen who have responded are making an effort to attend. One is from New York, another from Nevada.

Sponsor for this class was Miss Johnnie Weyerts, who has returned to her home town of Alpine and continues to distinguish herself in the teaching profession. At the 1960 Reunion in Robert Lee, Mrs. Ray Cook, 19 E. 11th, San Angelo, who went through ten grades with this class, then transferred to San Angelo, re-joined the group.

The class roll as it looks today is as follows:

1. Mrs. Avis (Askey) Logan, 327 Chenworth, Corpus Christi;
2. W. Y. Bengel, 506 E. Ave. C, Alpine;
3. Mrs. Edwina (Bynum) Cope, Box 493, Sterling City;
4. Claude Collins, Cactus Hotel, San Angelo;
5. Mrs. Wanda (Collins) Becker, 13 Dock Pathway, New Rochelle, N. Y.;
6. James Conger, 800 N. Oklahoma, Fort Stockton;
7. Mrs. Gladys (Copeland) Newcomb, 622 South Progress, Edna;
8. Mrs. Doris (Crawford) Durham, 1609 So. Madison, San Angelo;
9. Lawrence Davis, Box 1452, Coahoma;
10. Truman C. Davis, Box 632, Fritch;
11. Worth Durham, Box 456, Sterling City;
12. Mrs. Hazel (Edwards) Bearm, San Antonio;
13. Helen McCabe, Box 409, Tonopah, Nevada;
14. Mrs. Lucile (McWhorter) Dean, Box 61, Robert Lee;
15. Wayne Munn, Box 426, Water Valley;
16. Audrey C. Peays, 115 Camille Court, Alamo, Calif.;
17. Vernon Phillips, 505 East 13th, Big Spring;
18. James Rushing, 33 Little Back River Road, Hampton, Va.;
19. Mrs. Evelynne (Stamps) Murray, 2609 Merrick, Houston;
20. Deceased
21. Mrs. Helen (Wade) Drake, 3724 Ruth Rd., Fort Worth;
22. Guinn O. Welch, Box 414, Sterling City; and
23. Rev. Ross T. Welch, Box 589, Devine.

The last named has served all these years as the prod to keep alive the interest in the reunions and to maintain a current list of addresses. After the last reunion he was rewarded by his classmates with a handsome brief case, which—needless to say—is well filled. If any member of the class sees this who has not responded to this year's invitation, you are urgently requested to do so.

We challenge any other graduating class to match this record.

At T. U. In Drama Classes

Forty-one high school students who are eager to learn more about the theater have enrolled for The University of Texas Drama Department's second annual theater workshop which begins Wednesday (June 10) and ends July 2.

The workshop will give students a general introduction to acting, directing and stagecraft. Classes will be taught by UT Drama Department faculty members in the air-conditioned Drama Building.

Special guest lecturer at several workshop sessions will be actress Kathryn Grant (Mrs. Bing Crosby), a 1955 UT drama graduate who will be rehearsing here for her role in the July 6-8 Drama Department production of "Pygmalion."

A three-semester-hour course in high school play production also is being offered to teachers in conjunction with the workshop. Teachers enrolled for the credit course include Frank L. Myers, ORANGE High School; John R. (Bob) Pickett, St. Stephens Episcopal School, AUSTIN; Joe E. Manry, Stephen F. Austin High School, PORT ARTHUR, and Miss Annette Gillespie, SANTA BARBARA (CALIF.) High School.

Student participants include Shirley Price of Sterling City.

SHOT 'N SMOKE The Wildcat Mt. Gun Club

The first of two trap shoots this month at the Wildcat Mt. Gun Club was held with its usual windy weather, but with the addition of hot temperatures. This must be the correct combination for some shooters because some fine scores were shot by several of 13 shooters. Robert Lively had a good day again and turned in his best scores so far. Robert broke 10 for 10 twice and Jim Davis broke 10 for 10 once.

Two 16 yard doubles matches were tried this time. This is a round in which two birds are thrown to the shooter at the same time. The object being to break both birds before they reach the ground. Both matches were won by Mims Reed with 16/20 and 5/10 with Robert Lively shooting 13/20 and 4/10. J. D. Helwig also shot a 4/10 in the second doubles round.

Only one 25 bird round was shot this time and all five shooters posted a good score. Scores ran: Mims Reed, 22/25, Bob Clemmons 20/25, J. D. Helwig 19/25, and Jim Davis 17/25.

Turkeys will be awarded to the big Father's Day winners. Come out—have fun—put some meat in the pot!

Social Security Tips

If you are one of the many people receiving a monthly social security check in this area, you no doubt look forward to its arrival the first week of each month. Floyd B. Ellington, District Manager of Social Security in San Angelo, advises that most of the difficulties associated with the late arrival of checks could be avoided if beneficiaries would notify the Social Security Administration well in advance of any change in address.

Here's what you should do in case you change your address. Notify your social security district office just as soon you know the new address. Remember this: You have to sign the notice of the change in your address, and it must be reported under your social security number. Just your name is not enough.

It's a good idea to notify the post office of your new address. This gives you "double insurance" that you will get your check promptly. This will permit the post office to forward

Health & Safety Tips FROM THE AMERICAN MEDICAL ASSOCIATION Child Development

The cooing and prattle most mothers seem to instinctively lavish on their children isn't just so much "baby talk."

Psychiatrists and pediatricians now recognize such maternal "gushiness" as highly important to the emotional development of children.

Of course talk isn't the only thing that stirs interest, curiosity and intellect—factors which go to make up emotional development in an infant. But it is one of the most readily available means of communication between parent and child—even if they don't understand each other's words—and early communication is the basis for emotional development.

All babies, except those with congenital disorders, start out babbling and cooing. But if the child gets no encouragement—if no one coddles and talks to him—he loses interest after awhile and fails to learn words when he should.

Words, and the ability to link them into thoughts, are highly important tools of learning. If these tools aren't learned, the child has difficulty developing. He becomes, in effect, walled off from the normal world about him.

It is, of course, possible to over-coddle a child. Because a rich stimulation of a child is good doesn't mean that more stimulation is better. He can be pushed too hard, made to develop too fast, and this can create its own set of difficulties.

The important thing is to make certain that your child does have a rich stimulation; that he gets the attention and the palaver he needs to encourage his curiosity, interest and imagination.

There are many preparations that will relieve the "miserics" of a cold to some extent, but none can truthfully be represented as a cure.

your check, if there should be a delay in getting the new address listed on the social security records.

The social security office and the post office will not know where you are living unless you tell them. A letter or a call at the social security office will save you time and worry. Better still, it will get your social security check to you at the right time. But remember—any written notice to social security about a new address should contain, in addition to the new address, the old address, the social security number, and the signature of the person receiving benefits.
