

The History of Sterling County

BY IRA LEE WATKINS (Continued From Last Week)

One of the cowboy's best friends when cattle were worked in the open herd was the "cutting horse."

Most of the cattle on the open range were wild because of their wide range area and the fact that they were roped a great deal.

Occasionally cattle were taken from the Sterling County to ranges beyond the Pecos.

A thing which today occupies most of a rancher's attention during the warm month of the year, the doctoring of cattle for screwworms, was virtually an unknown practice on the open range.

The cattle in the early days were of a mixed breed. They were of all colors and were not a special beef type.

The improvement of the quality of cattle was greatly facilitated by the introduction of the wire fence, for then, the better-blooded animals could be segregated.

Austin Couple Dies in Head On Crash

An Austin man and his wife were killed instantly in a near headon collision 17.2 miles north of here on U. S. about 8:30 a.m. last Saturday.

Four other persons were injured in the crash.

Dead are Mr. and Mrs. Grover C. Kenyan.

In Malone Hogan Hospital Foundation at Big Spring are their two children, Betty, 14, and Bobby, 16.

Peggy J. Scott, 21, driver of the other car, and Harvey J. Scott, 28, her husband, were taken to Cowper Clinic Hospital in Big Spring.

Betty Kenyan suffered shock and scratches. Her brother sustained a broken leg.

Scott was in serious condition with a fractured pelvis, a broken leg and ankle injuries.

An investigating highway patrolman said the accident occurred when the Kenyan vehicle slipped off the shoulder of the road, pulled back onto the road and began sliding down the road roadside.

Bodies of the Austin couple were taken to Weed-Corley Funeral Home in Austin. The funeral was last Monday.

Class '28 Reunion Today

The Sterling High School graduating class of 1928 will hold a class reunion here today at the community center.

One of the 22 class members has died. She was Mrs. Marion Jackson (Mary Sone) who died in 1955 and is buried in Topeka, Kansas.

The Rev. Ross Welch of Devine is the "prod" that keeps the group alive and interested.

Large Crowd Attends V.F.D. Barbecue

A crowd of over 150 attended the barbecue supper last Friday night at the fire house. The barbecue was sponsored by the Sterling Volunteer Fire Department to raise money for equipment.

Chesley McDonald was asked by fire department president W. R. Brooks to auction off a few cakes that had not been cut for serving.

The department officers and committees were well pleased with the turnout and they all expressed their thanks to the public cooperation.

The department bought 300 feet of hose last month for the two tank trucks — the better to work fires with at a distance.

Members of the department are all volunteer and meet each second and fourth Monday nights.

Miss Wool to New Mexico

Miss Lynda Rhea Allen of Sterling City, Miss Wool of Texas, flew to Roswell, N. M. late yesterday for the Miss Wool of New Mexico Pageant to be held there today.

The New Mexico contest, which got under way Tuesday and concludes today at 8 p.m. at the Roswell Inn, has attracted nine contestants, one of who will succeed Miss Robin Read as Miss Wool of New Mexico.

A full slate of activities that will keep the contestants busy until the new winner is named has been arranged by a committee headed by Mrs. Robert Corn, director of the New Mexico pageant.

There are several luncheons and other activities planned, including a featured race at Ruidosa Downs Sunday.

Behind the 8-Ball

A power black out hit Sterling Monday about five o'clock in the afternoon. No lights burned, no motors turned and no juice came through the wires.

For about 40 minutes Sterling City was in a state of suspended animation — it seemed. Signal lights wouldn't work, gas pumps at stations wouldn't pump and horrors — the TV sets wouldn't perform.

Good showers fell last Saturday in the north and west parts of Sterling County. They were spotted but are bound to have helped the areas they fell on.

The work on the new floor at the school gym and the remodeling of the dressing rooms is well under way.

The Ray Mixons left for Ruidosa, New Mexico Wednesday afternoon.

Directors of the Upper Colorado River Authority and the Colorado River Municipal Authority will meet at the Cosden County Club in Big Spring today.

Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Reed honored Mr. and Mrs. Trinton Revell of Houston with a steak cookout at their ranch home Tuesday evening.

Present besides the honorees and the hosts were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Foster, Mr. and Mrs. D. Kirk Hopkins, Dr. and Mrs. W. J. Swann, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Augustine and the Neal J. Reeds.

Accent on Health

Are you under the impression that lightning never strikes the same place twice? If so, you are sadly mistaken, and that mistaken could cost you your life. Statistics show that lightning can and does strike the same place more than one time.

As a case in point, the Empire State Building is struck many times each year. One summer it was struck 15 times in 15 minutes.

A single bolt from one of the estimated one million annual thunderstorms is sufficient to cause injury, death or property damage.

The greatest number of injuries and deaths occur to persons who are in rural or open areas. Campers, golfers and swimmers are most vulnerable. In an open area, lightning will usually strike the highest object. Many people will run under a tree when caught in a storm, exposing themselves to great danger, as lightning often strikes lone trees.

The bolt travels down the moist interior of the tree, building up extreme heat and pressure which causes the tree to explode. Also, as the electrical charge travels down the tree small streamers may depart from the main bolt, jumping to nearby persons or objects. Many golfers and others have been killed or injured in just this manner.

However, a person standing in a large open area where there are no tall objects are equally vulnerable to a lightning strike.

Passengers in boats and swimmers are particularly good targets for lightning. Water is a good conductor of electricity spreading the current in all directions until the power is depleted. Consequently, many fish are killed and persons are either killed or injured.

Are you safe in an automobile during a thunderstorm? Yes, if the auto is all steel. The steel shell of a car will lead the electrical charge down to the wheels, and from here the charge will jump to the

Boys Ranch Stock Roundup

That popular old song, "When It's Roundup Time in Texas," has become the theme song of a group of stockmen already in the saddle in preparation for the annual West Texas Boys Ranch Roundup.

These men, called "Wagon Bosses," represent all sections of the 60-county area served by the Ranch. They assist in collection and assembly of livestock donations from ranchers who want to help in the Ranch's biggest fund drive of the year.

Mr. Ross Foster, Jr. is serving as Wagon Boss for this area. He's gearing his activities toward the week of August 24-29, at which time the maximum effort will be made to obtain gifts of sheep, cattle, goats, horses and swine. The livestock will be sold at auctions which levy no charges for handling or selling the animals—all proceeds of all sales go directly to the Ranch. Contribution of handling expenses is simply another way West Texans have of helping the Ranch.

This annual Roundup was begun five years ago and has become a main source of income for the Ranch. John Cargile of San Angelo is general chairman of the drive this year.

"The Ranch needs help to provide for some 80 boys year around," Cargile says. "I realize if this years Roundup is to be a real western type ground. But a convertible does not afford protection.

If a thunderstorm develops while you are out in the open, head for a building and stay inside until the storm is over. If you are boating, or swimming, leave the water and get to a building. If there is no building available, head for a grove of trees, but avoid a lone tree. In an open area, lie down until the storm passes.

(A weekly feature of the Public Health Education Division, Texas State Dept. of Health.)

success I will need a lot of help. I would like to ask you to pitch in and help by making a donation of livestock, farm products, or cash."

Cargile pointed out that the gift of a single cow can outfit two boys in school clothes. Ten sheep can furnish one of the smaller boys with school material for a year, and as many goats can provide work allowance for 14 boys for a month. Three pigs will furnish funds for 134 quarts of milk.

Ranchmen of this county or area are invited to contact Ross Foster for information and assistance in making their contributions.

And of course any donor can find abundant reward in knowing he has helped some boy, or perhaps several boys, who are growing into healthy, responsible citizens only because a strong man took notice of his need and gave him a boost at the right time.

REWARD NOTICE

A reward of $500.00 will be paid by the Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers Association to any person (other than law enforcement officers) giving information causing the arrest and final conviction of any person or persons found butchering or stealing any sheep or lambs or goats belonging to any Association member in good standing.

When two or more persons give information, the above sum will be divided at the discretion of the Board of the Association. When two or more defendants are involved in a single crime, the total reward is limited to $500.00, but the conviction of one defendant, even though the other defendants are acquitted, will entitle the claimant or claimants to said sum of $500.00. All claims must be submitted within ninety (90) days following conviction. If, upon conviction, a defendant confesses other thefts, no additional reward will be paid. All devisions concerning the payment of such reward and the conditions of payment will be made by the Board of Directors of the Association. TEXAS SHEEP & GOAT RAISERS ASSOCIATION

When the days are hot you probably use more electricity

Certainly you do, that's because your air conditioning system is working harder, your refrigerator is working harder and all of your other electric appliances are performing tasks which, without them, you would have to do. Let's face it---there's no substitute for all the comfort and convenience that electricity can give. Besides, the average WTU residential customer is paying an average of 17% less per KWH than in 1953---isn't that a happy thought?

Electricity costs so little you can use lots of it.

At a time when America is riding a crest of prosperity, with practically no unemployment, the House last week approved a billion-dollar "anti-poverty" bill, but not with my vote. The initial outlay is due to be increased annually until in excess of $15 billion is expended.

Probably the biggest single boondoggle in modern history, this welfare program will add to the 42 Federal anti-poverty programs already in effect. In fact, HEW Secretary Celebrezze testified that these 42 programs cost $31.8 billion last year.

Nearly every feature of the anti-poverty bill duplicates present Federal projects. We already have three Federal job training programs — vocational education, manpower training, and area redevelopment. Now this bill adds a fourth.

Much of the bill is a revival of the leaf-raking days of the depression. CCC camps are reinstated. The job training makes some sense, but it is duplication. The 47-page bill gives the poverty czar freedom to wheel and deal in taking over local functions of government, handing out checks and expanding bureaucracy. Even the farmers, if they can prove they are total failures, can board the gravy train, to the tune of $2,500 each.

The measure implements the Civil Rights law. It establishes an integrated Peace Corps, composed of men and women, boys and girls, to go out into all parts of the country to work and "advise." Norman Thomas, the veteran socialist, says the bill is the biggest step we've ever taken to convert this country into a socialist welfare state.

The late Carter Glass, great Secretary of Treasury under Woodrow Wilson and for many years a United States Senator from Virginia, once said:

"More economic blunders, if not in some instances economic crimes, have been perpetrated by Congress in the name of starving people who never starved and freezing people not one of whom has ever frozen, than the imagination can conjure up."

Among recent guests have been Robert Allman of Brownwood; Mike L. Parks of San Angelo; Major A. W. Saunders of Sonora, just back from Viet-Nam; Fred Wolff of Brady; Otto Scherz and Shirley Groseclose Wade, of San Angelo; Mrs. Zoe Stephens of Uvalde; The Fred H. Hammers of San Angelo; The Chas. Gibbs and family also of San Angelo; and 57 Boy Scouts from the Concho Valley Council, en route from Valley Forge encampment back home.

Mr. and Mrs. Trion Revell and daughters of Houston are here for a ten day visit with relatives. They are visiting Mrs. Revell's father, Arch Garrett, and Mr. Revell's mother, Mrs. J. A. Revell and other relatives.

The Alvie Coles are vacationing in Hawaii.

A NEW TOUCH CALLING TELEPHONE

A Touch Calling telephone which utilizes 10 pushbuttons numbered from zero to nine in place of the traditional rotary dial has been introduced in the Wadsworth (Ohio) exchange of Northern Ohio Telephone Company, it is announced by General Telephone & Electronics Corporation, parent company of General Telephone Company of the Southwest.

Developed by Automatic Electric Company, a GT&E subsidiary, the Touch Calling telephone was put into service following field testing in the Wadsworth exchange. A limited number of the telephones were made available to customers here for the market trial.

When making a telephone call, the appropriate buttons on the unit are pressed in sequence — a procedure that is simpler and more accurate than using the dial finger-wheel, and enables the user to select a telephone number twice as fast.

In addition to the Touch Calling instruments introduced for home and office use, an Automatic Electric pushbutton pay telephone is being demonstrated for the public in the downtown business area.

Social Security

Will your social security monthly retirement check be $100 or $120? If your wife claims her payments when she's 62, will they increase when she reaches 65? These are some of the questions you might like to have answered before you retire.

Floyd B. Ellington, District Manager of the office in San Angelo said it's a good idea to visit their office about three months before that date. There is an advantage of your applying well ahead of time. Most applications go through without any trouble, but every once in a while someone has trouble proving his age or providing some other form of needed evidence. When that happens everything grinds to a stop until a satisfactory age or birth record or other proof is supplied. If you wait until you retire to make your claim, and you don't have the records you need, your first check may be delayed. If you don't need your social security right away, it won't matter, but most folks count on that first check as part of their post-retirement budget.

When you visit the social security office three months before retirement, there are some records you'll need to take. The best way to find out what you should take is to phone ahead. In addition to a record of your age, you may need to taken your last withholding tax statement. If your wife is 62 and wants to apply for benefits also, she'll need a record of her age. If you call the social security office before you pay the pre-retirement visit, they can tell you exactly what you'll need. If there's some record you don't have, they can usually help you get it. Helping people with retirement claims is their business. For example, they know the best, and quickest way to get a record of your age.

Some people delay a trip to the social security office because they think a social security claim will be a lot of trouble. It isn't an automatic thing, but highly trained people will do everything to help you. There are three things to remember. First, plan ahead for your retirement. Second, call the social security office. Find out what to take with you, and the best time to go. Third don't wait until after you retire to make your social security claim. The San Angelo office is located at 3000 W. Harris, phone 949-4608.
