Diamond Jubilee of County Discussed by Lions Club

The Lions Club met for the regular luncheon meeting in the community center Wednesday. Guests present were Cy Martin of Water Valley, Kenneth Jeffers of San Angelo and Ray Piper and Spot Cockrell of Big Spring.

County Agent Arthur Barlemann told of the plans for the Sterling County Stock Show set for Monday.

President Stan Horwood told of a meeting here with West Texas Chamber of Commerce officials last week and he told of eight firms and individuals joining the organization.

Horwood also told of The Rogers Company wanting to help stage a Diamond Jubilee Celebration here this summer. The company would furnish a director to stage a pageant of history of the county, it was said. Talk about such a celebration and a barbecue and dance took some time.

Sterling County was organized in June 1891, seventy-five years ago. Further talks along this line are planned for the future.

Bank Stockholders Met Tuesday

The annual stockholders meeting of the First National Bank was held here Tuesday at the bank building. The stockholders renamed all of the directors of the institution, and then the directors renamed all officers for another year.

Directors of the bank are Flavy E. Davis, Worth Durham, Ross Foster, R.T. Foster Jr., H. L. Hildebrand, D. Kirk Hopkins and Roland L. Lowe.

H. L. Hildebrand is president of the bank, Worth Durham is vice-president, Kirk Hopkins is executive vice-president and cashier, and Nan E. Davis is assistant cashier.

The bank has shown growth the past year to new highs in all departments. The official bank statement of condition is printed in this paper on page two.

It's Sorta Legal Now!

ALBUQUERQUE — Secretary of the Interior Stewart L. Udall has authorized the taking of golden eagles without permit to seasonally protect domestic livestock during the period from December 15, 1965, through June 15, 1966, in 32 West Texas counties.

Permission to take golden eagles is granted only where absolutely necessary to protect livestock, and the permission applies only to owners of livestock and their agents. Golden eagles may be taken by any suitable means except through the use of poisons or aircraft. Golden eagles or any parts thereof may not be possessed, purchased, sold, traded, bartered, or offered for sale, trade or barter.

The authorization to take eagles applies to the counties of El Paso, Jeff Davis, Brewster, Val Verde, Uvalde, Kerr, Edwards, Crockett Ward, Culberson, Real, Irion, Glasscock, Reagan, Irion, Tom Green, Coke, Schleicher, Burnet, Crane, McCullough, Blanco and San Saba. This area contains the greater part of the Texas sheep and goat industry and is also used by wintering golden eagles. The length of the period during which taking without permit is allowed covers the lambing and kidding seasons in these west Texas counties.

Cancer Unit Met Monday

The Sterling County Cancer Unit met here Monday evening in the community center. A film was shown and committee chairmen gave reports of activities through the past month.

The new Congress will face new problems, a sort of hangover from the last session. The Great Welfare Society spawned so many expensive programs last year that the digestive capacity of the nation is being sorely tested in efforts to absorb them.

The deficit for the current fiscal year, which ends next June, is now officially estimated at about $9 billion. And already the deficit for the following year, ending in June of 1967, is being estimated at about the same amount.

This all adds up to inevitable inflation. That brings on talk of another tax bill. But this being election year a tax increase is not likely. Another alternative would be to reduce Welfare Society outlays. There will probably be some of that, but promises and commitments can't be turned off like water faucet without repercussions. When that was suggested, Martin Luther King hit the ceiling, and so did ADA—the big spending liberal lobby.

A budget of nearly $115 billion is indicated, accompanied by a lot of talk about economy and restraint occasioned by the Vietnamese war.

Despite assurances to the contrary, the Administration appears to be worried about the dilemma. Cost of living is rising now at the highest rate in 7 years, and an increase in interest rates has been forced upward due to inflationary pressures brought on, in large part, by the big deficits.

Defense costs will soon jump from $50 billion to $60 billion a year. Welfare Society costs, the major item in the current $9 billion deficit, caused Secretary of Defense McNamara to freeze practically all military construction funds, at least for the present. Some think it would have made more sense to have frozen a few billion earmarked for the new Society Welfare programs. But, again, it was evident that would have brought on more repercussions particularly from the big spending element of our society.

In any event, some agonizing readjustments must be made—either this year or within a year or so. When all these new expensive ventures in the field of welfare were being enacted last year, sponsors gave little heed to the inevitable budget strain that was being created. Now the chickens are coming home to roost.

Zettlers Opening Robert Lee Restaurant

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Zettler are opening their Zettler's Restaurant in Robert Lee on next Monday, January 17.

The Zettlers owned and operated the Zettler's Restaurant here until selling out to Winn McClure last year. About two months ago they bought the old "Y" Cafe in Robert Lee and began remodeling it. They completely renovated and remodelled the building giving the interior a Spanish or Mexican motif. Some of the decorations were bought in Old Mexico.

Mr. and Mrs. Zettler in announcing their opening are inviting their Sterling friends to stop in to see them when in Robert Lee.

BASKETBALL NOTES

Juniors Play in Bronte Tournament

Coach J. R. Dillard's Junior High basketball teams played in the Bronte Junior High Invitational Tournament last weekend. The Sterling boys advanced to the finals with Bronte and were beaten by one point (27-26) by Bronte in the final thriller. A local player, Reuben Rodriguez, was named on the all-tournament team.

The Sterling boys won over Blackwell in the first game and beat Robert Lee in the second—then were beaten by Bronte in the finals.

The girls team lost to the Blackwell girls in the first game and lost to Winters in their second game.

Played Silver Here Monday

Monday night the junior boys won a thriller 42-40 over Silver here. The game was close all the way and featured plenty of action by the Silver boys as well as the locals.

The girls lost their game to the Silver girls.

The high school teams began conference play last week in Garden City, and play the second games tonight at Robert Lee. Game time is 6:30 for the girls game and 7:30 for the boys game.

Noratadata Club Met Monday Night

Mrs. Winn McClure was hostess to members of the Noratadata Club Monday evening in the home of Mrs. Robert Foster. She served a dinner plate.

Bridge was played and high score was made by Mrs. Forrest Foster, and high cuts to Mrs. Hubert Williams and Mrs. Wayne Loury.

Guests included were Mrs. Leah Wyckoff, Mrs. Wayne Loury, and Mrs. Jim Windle of Lubbock.

Members present were Mrs. Alvie Cole, Mrs. Dayton Barrett, Mrs. D. Kirk Hopkins, Mrs. W.R. Brooks, Mrs. Martin Reed, Mrs. J.L. Cope, Mrs. J. W. Terry, Mrs. Hubert Williams, Mrs. Forrest Foster, Mrs. Worth Durham, Mrs. Billy Ralph Bynum, Mrs. F. Westbrook, Mrs. Robert Foster and Mrs. F.S. Price.

Has 90th Birthday in Hospital

Mrs. Will Atkinson, a patient in the Sterling County Hospital, observed her 90th birthday Sunday. The staff baked a cake and some members of her family brought the cookies and punch and all helped the hospitalized lady observe her birthday.

Fire Prevention Program at P.T.A. Next Monday

Assistant Fire Marshal of Midland, Bill Tyler, will put on a fire prevention program at the PTA meeting Monday evening at the school auditorium. Fire chief Ross Foster said Tyler will probably be accompanied by fire chief J. M. Little and fire marshal Bill Clatt. Ross invited the program here after seeing it at the fire training school at A&M.

Mrs. H. E. Barton will give the devotional and Tommy Bynum is to play a musical number.

Everybody is urged to come out and see the program—and it is good.

Let's have a good crowd.

W.R. Brooks Out for Reelection

County Judge W.R. Brooks said last week that he would be a candidate for reelection to the office of Sterling County Judge. In concerning his announcement, Judge Brooks said:

"As I ask the voters of Sterling County for their support and influence in my campaign for re-election to the office of County Judge, I want to take this opportunity to express my thanks and appreciation to each of you for your past support and consideration. If I am again given the opportunity of serving you in the office of County Judge, I will continue the policy of a fair and impartial administration of justice in the County Court and the policy of economy in the administration of the business affairs of the county."

Sincerely,
W.R. BROOKS

"I'm Glad She's Fine, Doctor"

Cats are hardy animals and there are only a few essential precautions necessary to keep them healthy. After you've chosen a kitten, the first and perhaps most important step is to take her to your veterinarian for her shots. Infectious feline enteritis, otherwise known as cat distemper, is a highly contagious virus of the lower intestinal tract. This most deadly cat disease that strikes without warning can be prevented by a series of inoculations. Your veterinarian can also help guard against pneumonitis, a widespread cat disease which resembles a cold. Immunization reduces the severity of the attack. Cat authorities at the Purina Pet Care Center in St. Louis warn that if your cat develops any symptoms of illness, refrain from dosing her with any patent medicine. It may only aggravate the condition. Consulting the Veterinarian for diagnosis and treatment is the best way to insure a continuingly healthy pet.

SCIENCE SKETCHES

DRAGONFLY EYES may some day help medical students understand the human eye better, say University of Wisconsin scientists. Insects have large compound eyes with thousands of transparent "windows," or facets. Beneath each facet are light-sensitive receptor cells, corresponding to the retinal rods or cones of vertebrate eyes.

MISSILE AND AIRCRAFT components aren't the only things tested in a Morton Grove, Ill., wind tunnel. More practical items including street lamp and roofing shingles are also tested. To check the effects of icing and wind, Cardox carbon dioxide brings the tunnel temperature down to -20 degree F.

DRINKING WATER was kept in silver pitchers by Greeks 2,000 years ago. They believed that fewer diseases came from water in these containers.

Community leadership by four former 4-H'ers has led to their being honored by the Co-operative Extension Service.

Recipients of 4-H Alumni Recognition awards are Mrs. Clovis C. Cowan of Longview, Mrs. Matthew A. Whitley of 2021 Alameda-Genoa Rd., Houston; Odell Burch of Sinton, and Jimmy Davis of Lorenzo.

Each was presented a bur-nished copper plaque mounted on walnut by the Olin Mathieson Chemical Corporation, sponsor of the national program.

Versatile Housewife

Mrs. Cowan, a housewife, has served as an interviewer for the Bureau of the Census in Rusk County and has worked for Sears-Roebuck & Co. in Longview and the Veterans Administration Hospital in McKinney.

A 4-H adult leader since 1959, Mrs. Cowan has served as organizational and foods group leader. She is a charter member of the Gregg County Adult Leaders' Association and District 4-H Advisory Council.

At the Centre Presbyterian Church she has taught the adult Sunday School class and the Young People's Class.

Mrs. Cowan served as vice-president and secretary of Women of the Church. A PTA member, she also was a Cub Scout den mother. During her six years in 4-H, she carried home economics projects and her yellow sponge cake was a state award winner. Her maiden name was Olive Hull.

Mrs. Whitley, a housewife and farmerette, has been an adult 4-H leader for 17 years. Two years ago she was honored at Texas A & M University by the Texas 4-H Youth Development Foundation. She also received an honorary adult life membership pin from the Women's Society of Christian Service.

A Sunday School teacher for 24 years, she trained 52 teachers for vacation Bible Schools in the Houston East District. She is grandmother of three 4-H boys.

As Genettie Garner, she belonged to the first 4-H canning club in her county and remembers her first blue ribbons with her tomatoes. In 1938, this farmerette began buying calves. The income from her cattle helped with her children's education.

Co-op Official

Burch has been manager of San Patricio Electric Co-op, Inc., since 1952. The Co-op donates 4-H awards, transportation, publicity and recognition dinners to 4-H'ers and coaches demonstration teams.

Burch served as state board member and vice-president of Texas Electric Cooperatives; board member of Kiwanis Club and Methodist Church. He received the Friend of 4-H award and Lone Star Honorary Farmer degree.

During his 4-H membership in Burnet County his corn won first at the State Fair.

Davis farms over 1,500 acres of crop land, is a partner in a farm supply store which does custom crop spraying, fertilizing, and other custom farm work, and is part-owner of a cotton gin. He is president of West Texas Cotton Growers Alliance and a member of Plains Cotton Growers.

An outstanding 4-H organizational leader, he has led recreation at camp, taken members to leadership lab and is chairman of County Adult Leader Committee. He helped to raise funds for the new football stadium and for Acuff Baptist Church. He won state honors in poultry and public speaking as a 4-H'er.

DID YOU KNOW?

Ancient Greek women who'd gotten too near their home fires and burned themselves used cucumber rinds to soothe the skin. The expression "cool as a cucumber" comes from the therapeutic use of this vegetable.

Women in the 16th century treated their cuts with balsam, an aromatic plant resin. This crude antiseptic was kept in jars near cooking areas in case of kitchen accidents.

Kitchen cuts and burns still plague today's homemaker. The modern antiseptic solution, S.T. 37, made by the Quinton Company, is an excellent treatment for these common kitchen accidents.

Texas Co-eds Recall Visit to National 4-H Congress in Chicago

Never-to-be-forgotten experiences crowd the minds of three Texas co-eds who have just returned from the National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago.

As state winners in their 4-H projects, Robbie Brown, 18, of Knott; Judy Pinnell, 18, of Andrews, and Linda Smith, 19, of Abilene, were awarded five days of educational sightseeing, lively fellowship, inspiration and discussion on the theme, "Young America and World Affairs."

Miss Brown, dress revue winner, modeled at the congress the winning ensemble which she fashioned of all-cotton fabrics. Her gold and black hounds-tooth check dress was styled with a cowl neckline. The black leatherette coat was belted at the hipline. Her trip to Chicago was donated by the Simplicity Pattern Co. Inc.

Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brown. She is a freshman at Texas Technical College in Lubbock.

Miss Pinnell, who took top honors in the foods-nutrition program, sponsored by General Foods Corporation, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Pinnell.

Besides cooking more than 1,200 dishes and 200 meals during her seven years in 4-H, she has carried out unusual experiments on albino rats, including studies on protein and calcium deficiency and on the effects of diet after radiation exposure.

This fall she entered Texas Technical College.

Miss Smith received her award in the home economics program, sponsored by Montgomery Ward. She has demonstrated outstanding skills in clothing, foods, gardening, food preservation, home improvement and judging. She has made 134 exhibits at local, county, district or state levels. She is the daughter of Mrs. Charles G. Smith. This year she is a sophomore at Abilene Christian College.

The girls have in common that they come from farms and are all majoring in home economics. They were chosen for their honors by the Cooperative Extension Service, which directs 4-H work.

IT'S A FACT!

AFTER THE STORM

"Hurricane" comes from the Carib Indian word meaning "big wind." The high velocity gusts—sometimes up to 186 mph—generally hit coastal areas. The energy released by such a storm in one second is as great as that of several atomic bombs.

Small towns as well as larger cities which lie in the storm's wake have millions of dollars of damage done. Most trouble comes from falling trees which obstruct roads and pavements, cut telephone wires and electric lines, and cave in house roof tops.

The best tool in speeding up essential after storm damage is the chain saw. The latest improvements have made the Remington chain saw so light-weight and versatile that an area can be cleared with it in one-tenth the time it took the old hand saw.

PRISON INMATES TO TALK TO SCHOOL

On January 26 five inmates from the prison system at Huntsville will speak to the school here in assembly on the "way and pitfalls of crime". The talk is called operation Teenager said Jeanie McDonald, who invited the group to speak here.

Jeanie had heard the group talk at the Attorney Generals Youth Conference on Crime last summer in Austin.

High school principal Earl B. Seago said the group was to talk at the school assembly at ten o'clock that morning and patrons of the school would be welcome to attend.

NEW CIVIL SERVICE

The U. S. Civil Service Commission has announced two new examinations this week, for Technician and Social Worker.

The Engineering and Scientific Technician examination covers a wide range of positions principally in the Washington, D. C. area. These technicians act as non-professional assistants to engineers, mathematicians, and other scientists such as chemists, physicists, astronomers, geologists, metallurgists, electronic scientists, and the like. The salary ranges from $4,480 to $10,250 a year. Varying amounts of non-professional technician experience are required, increasing with the grade of position. Study in college or technical institutes can be substituted for some experience.

The new Social Worker examination covers professional social worker positions and related positions known as Social Work Associate and Social Service Representative for work in Washington, D. C. and throughout the country. Salaries range from $6,050 to $16,460 for Social Worker and $6,630 to $10,250 for the other positions. Professional Social Workers are required to have completed graduate study in Social Work with professional experience in addition for the higher grades. The Associate and Representative positions require experience in welfare activities although appropriate education may be substituted for some of the needed required experience.

Announcements and appropriate application forms may be obtained from most post offices located throughout the country or from the U. S. Civil Service Commission, Washington, D. C. 20415.

Aliens Must Report Addresses

Mr. J. W. Holland of the United States Immigration and Naturalization Service stated that the period within which aliens must report their addresses is almost at hand.

The month of January has been set for the address reporting period. All aliens in the United States, with few exceptions, must report their addresses to the Government during that period.

Mr. Holland said that forms with which to make the report will be available to all Post Offices and Offices of the Immigration and Naturalization Service during the month of January.

He urges all aliens to comply with the reporting requirements, as willful failure to do so may lead to serious consequences.

Social Security

APPLY FOR MEDICARE

The 1965 Amendments established a Medicare program for all persons 65 or over which will help pay both hospital and doctor bills. However, this is not automatic and the individual must apply for it unless he is already receiving Social Security benefits or Railroad Retirement benefits. If he is an Old-Age Assistance recipient the welfare department will supply him with an application form.

Everyone else should come to the Social Security Office at 3000 West Harris in San Angelo and make application for the Medicare program benefits. We are open Monday through Friday from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., and Tuesday and Thursday evenings from 4:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. We have been open on Saturday mornings for the past several weeks but next Saturday, Christmas Day, and the following Saturday, New Year's Day we will be closed.

NEW HEALTH INSURANCE PROTECTION

The enactment of a health insurance program gave new meaning to Social Security for thousands of Senior Citizens, Floyd B. Ellington, Social Security District Manager in San Angelo, said today.

Health insurance protection become effective July 1, 1966. For that reason, older persons should not drop any private health insurance policies before next July. Some policies will be revised to consider medicare by then.

"Almost everyone who is 65 before 1968 will be eligible for the health insurance which is in two parts," according to Ellington.

The two parts are: "Hospital Insurance" and "Medical Insurance." Together, the two will go a long way toward paying the cost of health care for most older persons.

All workers over 65 who have not applied for their retirement insurance need to sign up to receive the health protection. Even those who are still working and earn too much to receive the cash retirement benefits should take such action now.

Plans are being made to sign up recipients of state old age assistance. They should not call on the social security office at this time. All other 65 year olds should apply right away, Ellington emphasized.

Further information can be secured from the Social Security Administration, 3000 West Harris, San Angelo, Texas.

SMOOTH SELLING

by George N. Kahn, Marketing Consultant

GET ACQUAINTED WITH YOUR COMPANY

Copyright—George N. Kahn

If I were a mathematician I would try to work out a formula to prove that the number of sales you make will depend on the amount of knowledge you have about your company.

I may not hit it on the nose, but I bet I could come pretty close.

A salesman cannot expect to sell effectively if he does not know his company and his product. Such ignorance can be compared to sailing a boat without a rudder. Company and product information are at the very foundation of good salesmanship.

Some of you doubting Thomases might say:

"What about that fabulous salesman, Charlie Smith, who made a million just selling on the strength of his personality; or the great Jack Brown, who could charm an order from a sphinx?"

Personality and charm are fine attributes for a salesman, but they are not enough.

Customer Wants Facts

Today's customer wants facts about your firm. The buyer must be able to trust your advice and judgment based on those facts. The customer is not buying charm and personality; he is purchasing your product on the basis of what he knows about the producer.

The guy ahead of you may have given the prospect a thorough picture of his company and its product and services. You can expect the buyer to compare your offer with that of your competition.

As Les Ryson, sales manager for a chemical company, tells his men:

"Remember, the prospect has got a scorecard in his head. Whenever you make your pitch, he is mentally adding up your points to see how they stack up with your competitor's."

Knowledge Inspires Confidence

Company knowledge plays a positive part in selling. A buyer feels more confidence in a salesman who demonstrates that he is familiar with his company's product, policies, price discounts, organization, credit procedures, key personnel and servicing practices.

Your outfit may be a multi-million dollar corporation with an A-1 reputation. But to your prospect or customer 500 or 1,000 miles from headquarters, your company is you.

Jerry Madison, a top producing power equipment salesman, described to me one of his first experiences with a tough prospect.

"He began firing questions about my firm that I couldn't answer," Jerry recalled. "What must that prospect have thought of me?"

Jerry resolved to correct this situation. For one week he did not make one call. He stayed home and read everything about his company and the industry he could lay his hands on. He topped this effort off by asking for and getting a complete tour of his plant where he talked to virtually everyone he met, including the workers on the production line.

"That cram session cost me income but I have more than made up for it since," Jerry said. "I was a walking encyclopedia about my firm."

Today Jerry is one of the biggest earners in his field.

Facts Boost Sales Ego

Now let's forget about the prospect for a moment. I want to concentrate on you. Factual information about your company and product is bound to increase your confidence in yourself and make you a better salesman.

If you know your outfit is well organized, progressive and reliable, you'll feel better about working for it. A salesman can't do his best for a company he knows little or nothing about.

It always gave me a good feeling to know that my firm was financially sound, well regarded and kept its word with both its salesmen and customers.

Selling The Company First

What should you know about your company? Experienced and successful salesmen I've discussed this matter with put these items at the top of their list:

1. History and development.
2. Size, including branches, divisions and other holdings or subsidiaries.
3. Financial structure. The buyer wants to know he's dealing with a sound firm.
4. Reputation. If you can truthfully boast about your company's reputation you've got a fine selling point.
5. Everything about the product, starting with the raw material.
6. Company's distribution system. Your firm's outlets should be ingrained in your mind.
7. Credit policies. Be sure you're right on this or you can be in hot water with both the customer and your boss.

8. Handling of orders. The salesman should know how the order is processed, routed, etc. He should also find out who at the plant is responsible for the processing, amount of inventory and the billing system.

Information Sources

This kind of data is available to the salesman from several sources. They include sales training programs, sales conferences, plant tours, promotional literature, financial reports, employee publications, brochures, sales kits and manuals.

And don't forget the best source of all—the people in your company. Ask questions whenever you need information.

Plant tours, guided or unguided, are a must for the man who wants to build up his production and company knowledge.

An eastern sales manager compels his men to visit the factory at least twice a year. The trip is then discussed at a subsequent sales meeting attended by the heads of other departments.

Your company's annual financial report is easily available and will take only an hour of your time to read and digest it.

If you're just breaking in with a firm, ask old customers what they think of it. Chances are that you'll get a flock of endorsements that you can profitably use with prospects. I always found my regular customers eager to plug the firm.

If you sell a good product for a good firm, why not make the most of those plus points?

Here is a self-survey to find out if you do know your company and are using the information to help you make sales. If you can answer "yes" to nine or more questions, you're moving toward success.

Have You Met Your Company?

1. Do you read company literature, manuals given you? Yes No
2. If a prospect stumps you with a question about your firm, do you do anything about it? Yes No
3. Are you interested in the operation of other departments? Yes No
4. Have you ever visited the production line at your company? Yes No
5. Could you this minute describe your firm's distribution system? Yes No
6. Do you have a pretty good idea of your outfit's financial structure? Yes No
7. Can you honestly tell a prospect how his order will be handled? Yes No
8. Do you know your firm's inventory on products you sell? Yes No
9. Do you feel customers have confidence in you? Yes No
10. Do you keep a file on company data? Yes No
11. Do you worry about not having enough knowledge about your firm? Yes No
12. Do you know the actual size of your company? Yes No

Big Spring Librarian Studies Methods Here

Mrs. J. H. Fryar, who has been asked to set up a central library in one of the newer schools in Big Spring, spent an entire day recently with Mrs. Frank Milligan in the high school library here. She studied every detail possible, the manner in which books are ordered, placed on the accession list, catalogued, various supplies secured, and the many other details of policy and practice used here.

SOCIAL SECURITY

"You don't have to retire completely to get social security benefits," Floyd B. Ellington, social security district manager in San Angelo said today.

"If you earn $1200 or less in a year, you are considered to be completely retired and would be entitled to all your benefits," he added.

If you earn over $1200 in a year, you may be considered partly retired and entitled to part of your social security benefits. For example, a worker would have only one dollar in benefits withheld for every two dollars earned between $1200 and $1700. For earnings over $1700 annually, one dollar in benefits is withheld for each dollar of earnings.

Ellington emphasized the fact that, no matter how much you earn in a year, you can be paid your social security benefits for any month in which you neither earn over $100 as an employee, nor render substantial services as a self-employed person.
