LIONS CLUB

The Lions Club member voted Wednesday to have a turkey shoot at the gun club range November 6. Money, if any raised, will go into the fund for glasses for children of the town. Jim Davis and Charlie Probandt announced plans at the weekly luncheon. Entry fees for contestants is to be $1 per class and turkeys will be prizes. They have 20 premium turkeys for prizes.

The civic improvement committee chairman Roland Lowe announced that the yield signs would be put back up over town on Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock. All members are asked to be out to help in the project at four today.

Jim Davis also asked that club members show up at the gun club range Saturday morning to help get the facilities in readiness for the club turkey shoot.

The club voted to have the secretary write a letter to the construction company that is building the Robert Lee dam inviting workers to make their home in Sterling City while construction is going on.

President Kirk Hopkins appointed a committee to meet with the city council and see if the city was interested in putting in a sewer system in Sterling City. It was pointed out that federal money for half of such improvement projects was available and now might be a good time to put in a sewer system here.

The prize went to Dr. Wm. J. Swann.

First Screwworms Since June, 1965

The first case of screwworms in Sterling County since June 27, 1965 was positively identified by the Screwworm Eradication Program Laboratory at Mission last week. Sent in by George Sisco of Water Valley, the sample was taken from dehorning wounds on three calves. The location of the place is nine miles east of Sterling City on the San Angelo road. Sisco also had a case of screwworms on his place at Water Valley.

The cases were investigated by Seberg Henderson of the Texas Animal Health Commission, said Arthur Barlemann, Jr., county agent. Henderson sent in the map coordinates of the place and said that sterile flies were to be air-dropped in the area to cut down on the spread of screwworms in the area.

To date this year, forty-nine samples have been sent to the laboratory for identification. One has been reported out as screwworms, forty-eight as non-screwworms. All suspected samples should be sent to the lab; one case of screwworms missed now could result in an outbreak next spring if the flies overwintered in the area in some warm place such as a pump house. Vials and mailing tubes are available in the county agent's office.

When contacted Wednesday night, Henderson reported he was investigating a case in Mitchell County Thursday morning. This case is just across the line from Sterling County in Mitchell County. Nolan Fincher took the sample from a horse and brought it to Sterling City where it was mailed Monday evening by the county agent. Henderson had the positive diagnosis on it Wednesday and was to check it out Thursday for an airdrop of sterile flies. This case is just a couple of miles from the Sterling County line; producers in that area are urged to check their livestock.

The local minister, Rev. Hubert Travis, officiated, and he was assisted by the Church of Christ minister, Marion Hays.

Mrs. Atkinson had died in the local hospital about 3:00 p.m. Sunday. She had been hospitalized since a fall at her home over a year ago.

She was born Rebecca Katherine Boyce January 9, 1876 in Burnet County. She was married to Robert E. Lee Clark March 2, 1890 in Menard County. Mr. Clark passed away in 1921. She married W. B. Atkinson in Sterling City in 1924. Mr. Atkinson passed away in 1948. Five children were born of the Clark marriage, three of whom are still living. Two daughters preceded Mrs. Atkinson in death were Willie Mae Clark and Mrs. Oscar Atkinson.

Mrs. Atkinson was a life-long member of the Presbyterian Church. While hospitalized she knitted a large number of afghans—for her relatives and friends. She had, years earlier, suffered a broken hip while playing ball with some neighborhood boys in street ball.

Survivors include a daughter, Mrs. Alvie L. Cole, Sterling City; two sons, John S. Clark of Cheapside, Texas and Aaron Clark of Sterling City; three sisters, Mrs. C.A. ## Beat Sands 28 to 0 There Last Friday

The Sterling City Eagles opened conference play last weekend by beating the Sands (Ackerly) boys 28 to 0 in a well-played game there. The Eagles kept the ball game under control after the first quarter was over.

As the first quarter was drawing to a close, Wayland Foster, quarterback, passed a long pass to Collin Douthit, getting the ball down into Sands' territory. Then Wayland scooted with the ball to the one yard line. Then he pushed the pigskin over for the T.D. on the first play of the second quarter. Alex Sedillo carried the ball over for two extra points. The score at halftime was 8 to 0.

About the middle of the third quarter, Sedillo got away and loped for a counter. In the final quarter Esau Vargas intercepted a Mustang pass on his own 20 yard line and ran the rest of the field for a touchdown. Try for extra points failed. And a little later, Wayland gave the ball to Esau on a pretty reverse that saw Vargas run over the pay stripe again. A pass from Wayland to Gary Foster made two extra points.

Dillard's boys had won the first conference game 28 to 0.

Gail Here Tonight in Crucial Game

The second test of the conference season hits here tonight at 7:30 on the Eagle field. Gail is ranked along the top of this district, but the locals are beating the drums for a victory here tonight. Monday—in fact Sunday—signs on cars, on streets, etc. began to show reading 'BEAT GAIL'—'GO EAGLES', and the like. Tonight comes the big test—if Gail can be beat, things look good for district—and perhaps beyond.

FFA Members Show Lambs at State Fair

Sterling City FFA members exhibited 10 lambs at the Texas State Fair in Dallas last week.

Larry Wilson exhibited the 41st place finewool lamb; Corwin Collins' finewool lamb placed 54th in the class.

Gary Foster exhibited the 16th place purebred Suffolk lamb.

Jay Clark Has a Second Place
In the Suffolk-Finewool crossbred class Jay Clark placed second and 29th with lambs produced by Marvin Foster. Robert Lively exhibited 19th and 51st place Suffolk crossbred lambs. The lambs were bred by Collins and Wilson. Gary Foster exhibited 39th and 40th place Suffolk crossbred lambs. The lambs were bred by William and J.Q. Foster. Larry Wilson exhibited the 41st place Suffolk crossbred lamb. Larry's lambs were bred by Collins and Wilson.

BEAT GAIL, OCTOBER 28!

the labels of Democrats and Republicans might eventually disappear and the names then might read Conservatives and Liberals.

And it could. His columns are somewhat lengthy for a small paper like this, but I'll squeeze some of them in along.

8-BALL
The few light frosts we have had so far this month have blackened the top of tomato plants, curled some of the fig leaves and made the two persimmon trees on the courthouse square shed their already turning leaves.

Behind the 8-Ball

Well, the Eagles are on the way now. They showed real form and confidence at the opening of conference play last Friday night at Sands.

The line was holding, the backfield moved the ball and the passes clicked. The boys were playing heads up and managed to look like district winners.

Appropos, as the (if we can borrow a phrase from San Angelo) "Angry Purple and Gold" we, too, could be angry from being beat out of the district title last year by a loss to Garden City, — we need to keep up the good work and spirit—and go on to a district title.

So, perhaps, with the stride finally hit, the Eagles will go on to district.

Tonight is perhaps the most crucial test for the Eagles. We've gotta beat Gail—the Borden County Coyotes. And I'll bet we do!

8-BALL
John J. Synon of Richmond, Virginia, writes a column of national interest about any thing of interest. His columns are meaty, interesting, well-written and factual and very thought provoking. He deals primarily with the political scene and introduces much of interest and "food for thought" for all.

In one of his latest ones he points out the "threat" of Alabama's governor George Wallace to the political scene in 1968. He points out that although Wallace would never be elected or nominated for president on the two top tickets—that he could split the votes up and fix it where the electoral college would deadlock and through the presidential election into the House of Representatives. (It has happened before).

He suggests that possibly

 Did you

 bran and prune flakes are de-enough milk into sour cream or yogurt until it's the right consistency, pour the mixture over the cereal and sprinkle brown sugar on top.

 Another flavorful way to use bran and prune flakes is with

Sweet Potato Casserole
 One 1-lb. 2-oz. can sweet po-pineapple; 3 tablespoons but-egg; 2 tablespoons brown sugar;

 ½ teaspoon salt; 1½ cups bran
 and prune flakes.
 Drain and mash potatoes.
 Blend in pineapple, 2 tablespoons butter, egg, sugar, and salt. Gently stir in ½ cup cere-

AS IT LOOKS FROM HERE

By Omar Burleson, Member of Congress, 17th District

Washington, D.C.—This issue will conclude "As It Looks from Here" until the Congress returns in January to begin the first year of its 90th session.

My thanks go to those who have responded to these weekly comments and who have lent support and encouragement to it.

Shortly before the next session of the Congress opens individuals to whom this is sent and the newspapers which use it will be contacted to determine if you wish to continue to receive it.

As this Congress closes there will follow appraisals of its accomplishments by writers and news analysts. Evaluations will come from all quarters, and the mark given, as usual, will depend on the particular evaluator's point of view.

There is a tendency on the part of many to grade a Session of Congress on the quantity, rather than the quality of legislation enacted. Too often the scorecard uses the total number of Presidential proposals adopted, as compared with the number requested. On this scoreboard the Congressional Session of 1966 does not rate as high as did the Sessions of either of the two immediately preceding years. On reason for this is that it is an election year, but not a Presidential one, which causes a more independent attitude by Members of Congress. Members know they must run on their own record, and it is going to be an interesting Election year in many parts of the country to see how well the Administration's programs fare. The election should determine if Members of Congress truly represent the people who elected them, rather than adhering to a line laid down by a Party decree.

Incidentally, in appraising this or any other session, it seems to me that there should also be a score on what the Congress failed to do, as well as that which it did. The 1st Session of the 89th Congress (1965) turned down few proposals of the Administration, but a number have been rejected in the session just closed.

Many good and long overdue measures were finally adopted in 1966. Among them is legislation to preserve certain of our natural resources for future generations. The Veterans Readjustment Assistance Act to assist in educating ex-servicemen was highly constructive.

Some of the programs, such as automobile and highway safety, have their good intents, but of course, are yet to be proved. The Interstate Highway Program was continued on an advanced level. Continued and expanded were programs to combat air and water pollution and to promote soil and water conservation.

The collective judgment of the Congress is more reflective of the National mood than any evaluation made by pollsters or the expert analyst. The 435 members of the House of Representatives and 100 Senators speak for the people in deciding issues. Whether or not we, as individuals, agree with the majority verdict, it is our system and we abide by it. If the Congress and the administrators of Laws passed by it are in accord with Constitutional principles, we have no

Planning To Open Pre-School Kindergarten

Mrs. Louie Alexander said this week that she was considering opening a pre-school kindergarten here on November 1. She would like any interested parents to contact her by that date, so she could make plans. Children should be registered on or before that date.

Mrs. Alexander said the ages accepted would be 4½ years to school age and the classes would be from 9 to 11:30 a.m. five days a week.

She said accredited pre-school work would be featured along with large muscle development, music and hand-crafts.

If enough parents respond to justify a kindergarten she will conduct it. Her phone is 8-3261.

Oil in Sterling Tests

Two Sterling County wildcat recovered shows on drillstem tests and testing continued at a pay opener.

Shaheen & Son, Abilene, No. 1-94 Nick and John Reed, in 94-2-H&TC, wildcat 10 miles northwest of Sterling City, recovered shows on a drillstem test in the Fusselman.

Tool was open 1½ hours on the test open between 8,565-671 feet, which surfaced gas in two hours, no gauges. Recovery was the 2,000-foot water blanket which was gas and oil cut and 165 feet of oil and gas cut mud. Flowing pressure was 896 pounds; 30-minute initial shut-in and 60-minute final shut-in pressures were 3,825 and 3,914 pounds, respectively.

Drilling continued below 9,703 feet in shale on a re-scheduled 9,000--Fusselman contract. It originally was staked to 6,700 feet to test the Wolfcamp.

Scurlock Oil Co., Houston, No. 1 Hannah B. Bailey, in 23-2-T&P, wildcat, 19 miles southwest of Sterling City, 5 miles northeast of the Cope (Spraberry) field and nine miles west of the WAM, South (Fusselman) field, recovered 10 feet of oil and gas cut mud on a drillstem test in an unidentified formation.

Tool was open 30 minutes on the test taken between 9,260-75 feet. Shut-in pressure was 4,015 pounds.

The project, slated for 9,500 feet, was bottomed at 9,315 feet in lime, and operator was running a drillstem test between 9,275-315 feet.

Champlin Petroleum Co., No. 1 R.T. Foster, in 13-21-H&TC, assured lower Leonard pay opener in the WAM, South (Wolfcamp and Fusselman) field, one mile northwest of Fusselman production and 3¼ miles northwest of the recent Wolfcamp opener, and 10 miles south of Sterling City, swabbed 64 barrels of new oil, no water, in seven hours, from the Leonard.

Recovery was through perforations between 5,316-19 and 5,322-36 feet.

The project has been shut in for bottomhole pressure build up.

Earlier, it tested through Wolfcamp perforations at 6,022-28 feet, recovering new oil along with load water, and through Fusselman perforations between 8,537-560 feet.

thing to complain about, but rather, to change it if we do not like it.

Our system of government is the best ever devised by man. It is often clumsy, cumbersome and often apparently inefficient, but it is our Government and under it are the recipients of the greatest blessings ever known to man.

When the Congress is slow to act, it is usually because there is no clear view as to how the people of the Nation feel. When opinion is divided Congress does not act hurriedly. When the people are obviously united behind a proposal, action comes quickly.

Thomas Jefeerson said, "I think it a duty in those entrusted with the administration of their affairs to conform themselves to the decided choice of their constituents."

In other words, Members of Congress are to be representatives of the people, not trustees acting in a "we know best" manner.

Ruth and I look forward to seeing our friends when we return home.

AROUND THE COUNTY by ARTHUR BARLEMANN, JR. COUNTY AGENT

Four Sterling County 4-H club members placed six six lambs in the market lamb show of the State Fair of Texas. The six lambs were all sold in the auction sale on Saturday morning. Sale price of the lambs was 32¢ per pound.

Lee Igo had the 13th place lamb in the Corriedale, Columbia, Panama purebred or crossbred class. Janis Igo showed the 28th place Hampshire crossbred lamb. Both the lambs shown by Lee and Janis were bred by Gene Alley.

Skeete Foster had the 27th place and 32nd place Suffolk crossbred lambs. Charlotte Foster was the exhibitor of the 38th and 54th place Suffolk crossbred lambs. These four lambs were bred by Ross Foster.

A Hereford steer bred in Sterling County was a blue ribbon winner in the Market Steer show at the State Fair last week. The steer was bred by R. T. Foster Jr. and fed by a Concho County 4-H club member, Demp Dobson.

In the Market Steer show, two judges grade the steer on their estimated cutout and yield. The blue ribbon winners are classified as choice, then the red ribbon winners a lower grade, and finally the white ribbon another grade. The two judges also choose the top ten steers in the blue ribbon group. The Dobson steer was one of these chosen in the top ten. These steers are slaughtered and complete data compiled on them from the cutout and yield of the main cuts. This material will be made available in several weeks or as soon as it can be completed.

Notice has just been received from Jack Price, agricultural chemicals leader with the Agricultural Extension Service, that a feed additive for use in controlling bloat in cattle on legume pastures has been cleared by the Food and Drug Administration. The additive, Poloxalene, has been found effective in tests; it reduces bloat to a minimum.

The drug is a liquid which is put on top of the feed before turning cattle on legume pastures. Recommended rate of usage is 10 milligrams per day for cattle up to 1,000 pounds and 20 milligrams for cattle weighing over 1,000 pounds.

Trade name of the drug is "Bloat Guard". There may be others on the market in the future but this one is presently available and cleared for use.

The supervisors of the North Concho River Soil Conservation District recently purchased a water testing kit for use here. Purpose of the testing kit is to determine the salt content of the water wells in the county.

Anyone who would like to determine the salt content of their wells can bring a sample of water into the ASC office, the SCS office, or the county agent's office. The sample will be run at a small cost to cover the necessary chemicals used. After testing, the location of the well in the county will be plotted on a map.

There is growing concern over the water supply in many areas and this is an attempt to keep the local operators advised of the state of their wells. The district supervisors feel that an annual test of all the wells in the county would give each operator an indication of what is happening. Some wells have progressed to a point where the salt content is high enough that stock do not like the water.

If you would like to get your wells tested, bring in the samples to any of the three agencies named. The test will be run and you will have an idea of the salt content based on parts per million which is commonly used in testing water. This could be a valuable

Lions To Sponsor Turkey Shoot Nov. 6

For Eye Glasses for Needy Fund

The Sterling City Lions Club is sponsoring a turkey shoot at the gun club range about 4 miles up the Big Spring highway. Time is 1:00 p.m. said Jim Davis, on Sunday, November 6.

Events will include trap shooting, running deer target, rifle and pistol targets.

A total of 20 large Swift's frozen turkeys will be given as prizes to winners.

Money raised will go into the club's fund for eye glasses for local children. The club normally does this kind of "sight conservation" each year.

Davis said "shooting" will start on that day at 1 p.m. and hunters should come out and enter to get their "practice" in for the hunting season.

The money goes for a good cause.
