For Social Security

About one of every five applicants for social security disability benefits delays so long before making his application that he risks possible loss of some payments, Ted F. Moellering, district manager of social security in San Angelo, said today.

In an effort to remedy this situation, the Social Security Administration is asking anyone who might possibly qualify for disability benefits to get in touch with a social security office as soon as possible.

"Some people fail to apply because they don't realize that they can benefit from the program," Moellering said. "Younger people often think that social security payments only for people in their sixties, whereas the disability was specifically set up to protect the wage earner who is forced to stop working before he is old enough to collect retirement benefits."

A person under 65 can receive monthly payments if he has a physical or mental impairment that has kept, or will keep, him from working for a year or more. Individual benefits range from $44 to $152 a month. If the worker has dependents, total family benefits can amount to as much as $339 monthly.

"Others don't file because they are under the impression that they have to be permanently disabled. This was generally true before a 1965 change in the law, but now payments can go to a person whose disability has lasted, or is expected to last, for 12 months or longer," Moellering pointed out.

Benefits begin after a person has been disabled for 6 full months. No benefits can be paid for months during this "waiting period." Also, the law limits the back benefits a person can collect to the 12 months before the month in which he applies.

This means that the latest a person can file without losing any back benefits is the month that comes after the 18th month of his disability. (These 18 months cover the waiting period and the 12-month limit of retroactive benefits.)

A recent social security survey shows that at least 19 percent of disability applicants file later than this, thus risking loss of benefits they might otherwise have received. An undetermined number of disabled persons do not file at all and so miss out entirely.

Moellering cautioned, however, that benefits can be paid only if a person's disability is severe enough to prevent him from doing not only his usual job, but also any work in keeping with his age, education, and experience. And, to be eligible, a person must have worked under social security for at least 5 of the 10 years before he became disabled.

Benefits continue for as long as the disability lasts, or until the beneficiary reaches 65. At age 65, disability benefits are converted to retirement benefits, without any change in the amount.

Currently, over a million disabled persons—plus more than a million of their dependents—are receiving benefits under the program.

"If you know of anyone who might qualify," Moellering urged, "tell him to phone, write, or visit the nearest social security office. Your tip may lead to his not losing out in whole or part in this benefit that is meant to help replace earnings lost because of disability incurred before retirement age."

REWARD NOTICE

A reward of $500.00 will be paid by the Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers Association to any person (other than law enforcement officers) giving information causing the arrest and final conviction of any person or persons found butchering or stealing any sheep or lambs or goats belonging to any Association member in good standing. When two or more persons give information, the above sum will be divided at the discretion of the Board of the Association. When two or more defendants are involved in a single crime, the total reward is limited to $500.00, but the conviction of one defendant, even though the other defendants are acquitted, will entitle the claimant or claimants to said sum of $500.00. All claims must be submitted within ninety (90) days following conviction. If, upon conviction, a defendant confesses other thefts, no additional reward will be paid. All devisions concerning the payment of such reward and the conditions of payment will be made by the Board of Directors of the Association.

Texas Prison Rodeo

HUNTSVILLE Some of the nation's topflight entertainment personalities have been booked for personal appearances at the 36th Annual Texas Prison Rodeo each Sunday in October at Huntsville.

H. H. Coffield of Rockdale, prison board chairman and chairman of the rodeo committee, announced that three artists of the Lawrence Welk television show will appear the first two Sundays. Jo Ann Castle, Welk's piano stylist, will give out with her own brand of honky tonk piano playing on October 1, followed by Norma Zimmer and Larry Hooper on October 8. Roth Miss Castle and Miss Zimmer were favorites during the 1966 rodeo series. Miss Zimmer's singing has brought her many honors. Hooper doubles as a genial pianist and deep-voiced singer. His rendition of "Oh Happy Day" piled up an impressive sales record of one million discs.

For the October 15 show, the featured attraction will be Judy Lynn and the Judy Lynn Show, said to be the most colorful figures in the country-western stable of music.

Sharing the October 22 limelight will be two well-known country music stars, Buck Owens and Floyd Tillman. Both have reputations as real crowd pleasers. Owens will be supported by his own musical group, The Buckaroos.

Closing the 1967 rodeo series on October 29 will be Roy Acuff, no stranger to prison rodeo fans. He will again bring his own brand of country music—the kind that spelled fame and fortune for this native son of Tennessee. Also on the bill of fare all five Sundays will be former inmate Candy Barr, who proved to be a popular attraction last year. The famous Zoppe Family will be presented during each performance in the prison stadium beginning at 2 p.m.

NEW LEGISLATION TO HELP STERLING COUNTY FAMILIES OBTAIN HOUSING

The U. S. Departments of Agriculture's Farmers Home Administration is better equipped to handle the housing credit needs of low and moderate income Sterling County families as a result of legislation recently signed into law, according to Patrick F. Sullivan, Farmers Home Administration county supervisor. Sullivan said the Demonstration Cities and Metropolitan Development Act, signed last month by President Johnson, makes it possible for a broader range of Sterling County families to qualify for housing loan authorities of the Farmers Home Administration.

The new legislation Sullivan continued, makes more mortgage credit available to low and moderate income families in Sterling County by increasing the level of activity of the Agency's rural housing loan program.

Here are some of the other changes in the rural housing loan program administered by the Farmers Home Administration: —Many Sterling County who had to go the long route of planning, contracting and building a house can now buy newly constructed buildings. Before the new legislation, these families could only purchase previously occupied buildings.

—Qualified low-income families can now obtain housing credit from Farmers Home Administration on the basis of a cosigner. Previously, only those rural persons 62 years and older qualified for this assistance.

—The new legislation increases from $1,000 to $1,500 the maximum amount of assistance the agency can make for emergency repairs or improvements to owner-occupied rural housing or farm service buildings. This credit is not designed to upgrade a building but only to remove hazards to the health and the safety of the family and the community.

—Rural families on the verge of losing their homes through foreclosure may save their homes if a sound basis can be developed by the Farmers Home Administration to refinance their debts.

—Financial assistance can be given to construct rental housing for low and moderate income rural families of all age groups. Previously, rental housing financed by FHA had to be occupied by rural people 62 years and older.

Loans by the Farmers Home Administration are made to Sterling County applicants who are unable to obtain credit they need from private lenders at reasonable rates and terms.
