AROUND THE COUNTY by

ARTHUR BARLEMANN, JR. COUNTY AGENT

The present moisture conditions are good for spraying poisonous and noxious range plants such as bitterweed and hoarhound. Finding good wind conditions and temperature might be another matter, however. All recommendations for spraying these plants, and others as well, call for wind velocities less than eight miles per hour. Temperature conditions in the recommendations are listed at 55 to 85 degrees.

Both bitterweed and hoarhound can be sprayed with the same rate of herbicide. A livestock sprayer with a hand nozzle and less than 100 pounds of pressure can be used with a No. 6 orifice. The recommended rate is two pounds of 2,4-D, low volatile ester, at the rate of two pounds per acre in 100 gallons of water. This is a high rate of water but with this type nozzle, it is necessary. It does insure good coverage of the plant. However, this method is best for small spotted stands of bitterweed or hoarhound.

For larger acreages, it would be best to use some other means such as an airplane or power sprayer with a boomless nozzle. The recommended rate for this type equipment is lower.

When a plane is used; the recommended rate is one pound of 2,4-D, low volatile ester in four gallons of water per acre. For the power sprayer, use one pound in 15 to 25 gallons per acre.

All livestock producers are aware of the fact that the longest known period of time with no confirmed screw-worms in the state has recently ended. The discovery of several cases in Texas counties on the Rio Grande has brought out the fact that it is time to increase vigilance in the war on this expensive livestock pest.

Weather conditions in nearly every area of the state are the best for worms in years. According to Jim Hinshaw, the official weatherman for Sterling City, 6.55 inches of moisture had been gauged through the end of March. This is considerably more than has been gauged here in the first quarter of the year in a number of years.

With the favorable weather conditions, every livestock producer is urged to keep out a close watch for suspected worm cases, even this far north. If it ever warms up, and it will go directly from winter to summer someday, there is a distinct possibility of worms. One case missed this early in the season could mean trouble in the form of a major outbreak later on.

Officials as Mission are urging all producers to keep a close watch to prevent a major outbreak in the state this year. Sterile flies are available for treating areas with cases as in the past. But this can be done only if the cases are reported. Now that we are heading into shearing and with some marking still to be done all stock should be checked. If vials or mailing tubes are needed, they are available in the county agents office.

Lynn Alexander, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louie Alexander, will work in the summer camp of the Methodist Church at Mt. Wesley, near Kerrville this summer.

SIX FLAGS OVER TEXAS
SETS APRIL 13 OPENING

An exciting new addition for 1968 at SIX FLAGS Over Texas is a $180,000 air conditioned Music Hall seating 1,200 guests. Regularly scheduled shows starring collegiate talent will be presented throughout the day, beginning April 13 when the giant 140-acre family entertainment center opens for the season.

Arlington, Texas — SIX FLAGS Over Texas, the 140-acre, multi-million-dollar historical-theme park located midway between Dallas and Fort Worth, has set April 13 as its opening date for the 1968 season.

Lavish changes, new attractions and rides, and other projects stemming from a $2,000,000 expansion program are in store for SIX FLAGS visitors during 1968.

SIX FLAGS will operate in the Spring on Fridays from 5-11 p.m. and on Saturdays and Sundays from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. Starting May 25 and throughout the Summer, SIX FLAGS is open seven days a week from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. After September 2, until closing December 1, operations will be on weekends only from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m.

The Amphitheatre in the Confederate section, where talented collegians present bright and original musical variety shows, has been torn down to be replaced with a new and beautiful $200,000 white-columned, enclosed, air-conditioned theatre which will be known as the "Music Hall." Talent scouts from SIX FLAGS are nearly completed with an extensive audition tour covering about 250 colleges in the South, Southeast and Midwest, picking outstanding performers for this year's shows. The Mexican section of the Park, with its Fiesta Train Ride, has been completely redone to the tune of $400,000 to make it even more colorful and exciting. Imagine passengers' reactions when the sombrero-topped trains run through an erupting volcano, just to name one innovation. Sid and Marty Krofft, world-famous puppeteers, will present at SIX FLAGS this year The Krofft Bros. Puppet Circus. The spectacular $350,000 production, which includes a new 1,200-seat theatre costing $200,000, will stage shows 10 times each day.

SIX FLAGS, which introduced the first Log Flume ride in the country in 1963, has added another $350,000 model for 1968 because of its popularity and appeal.

Angus G. Wynne, Jr., creator/developer of SIX FLAGS Over Texas and president of the parent company, Great Southwest Corporation, said, "We are anticipating an even larger attendance in 1968 than last year's record of 2,036,000 visitors. And this year our guests and their families will be able to enjoy and participate in SIX FLAGS' activities in even greater comfort, because we have increased our capacity to handle 29,000 visitors per hour on the rides, attractions, and shows, as compared to 22,000 per hour in 1967."

Tickets are $4.50 for adults and $3.50 for children under 12 years of age. As in prior years, the one ticket purchased at the main gate enables visitors to ride all the rides and see all the attractions and shows as often as they wish during the day.

SIX FLAGS, with nearly 11,000,000 visitors since opening in 1961, is the most popular single tourist attraction in the State of Texas, according to the Texas Tourist Development Agency.

National Future Homemakers of America Week

"Focus on Citizenship" is the theme of National Future Homemakers of America Week. More than 600,000 members in over 12,000 local chapters throughout the United States and Puerto Rico will conduct special activities in observance of their 22nd annual National FHA Week, March 31 through April 6, 1968.

This national youth organization of home economics students in junior and senior high schools provides opportunities for developing individual and group initiative in planning and carrying out activities related to the home and the community. Special activities and observances during National FHA Week are designed to focus attention on the objectives and accomplishments of FHA in meeting the responsibilities of today and preparing themselves to be good citizens in the adult world of tomorrow.

Leadership and citizenship responsibilities take on new dimensions as, alert to current needs, members use creative approaches and utilize their capacity for flexibility to identify and meet the concerns of youth. Seeking to improve themselves and the world about them, they develop a broad understanding of the overall needs of our society and those things required to provide a good life for all human beings.

The FHA carries out its goals with programs based on local needs and interests. In broad fields of family relationships they tackle such problems as how to get along with parents and start family councils to discuss family problems and plans.

They learn to budget and how to make their money behave by spending it wisely and well. They hold morals and manners clinics with participation by both youth and adults. They raise funds in a variety of novel ways for worthwhile organizations. They study local government and history of the areas pointing up how government works and opportunities open to them as citizens.

They learn to understand and help with elderly, welfare groups, and school and community activities.

The FHA Creed summarizes the organization's objectives:

We are the homemakers of America

We face the future with warm courage,

And high hope.

For we have the clear consciousness of seeking

Old and precious values.

For we are the builders of homes,

Homes for America's future.

Homes where living will be the expression of everything

That is good and fair.

Homes where truth and love and security and faith

Will be realities, not dreams.

We are the Future Homemakers of America

We face the future with warm courage,

And high hope.

Kaffeeklatsch With Pecan Bread

"Coffee and" inspires friendliness just about any time, anywhere. Even such a warm and welcome tradition needn't become commonplace, though, not with the intriguing good taste of this pecan bread from the Borden Kitchen. It's made inexpensively and easily with instant nonfat dry milk. Accompany with colorful preserves or more simply with margarine and cream cheese.

Lone Star Pecan Bread

(Makes one 9 x 5 x 3-inch loaf)

- | | |
|-------------------------------------|--|
| 2-1/2 cups sifted all-purpose flour | 1 cup Borden's instant nonfat dry milk, dry form |
| 1 cup sugar | 1 cup water |
| 1 teaspoon salt | 2 eggs, well beaten |
| 2 teaspoons baking powder | 1 cup finely chopped pecans |

In a large size mixing bowl, sift together flour, sugar, salt, baking powder and nonfat dry milk. Stir water into beaten eggs. Add eggs and chopped nuts to sifted dry ingredients; mix just until blended. Butter a 9 x 5 x 3-inch loaf pan; line only the bottom with buttered waxed paper. Pour batter into prepared pan. Bake in a moderate (350° F.) oven 1 hour, or until a cake tester or wooden pick inserted in center comes out clean. Let cool in pan 10 minutes. Turn cake out of pan; carefully peel off paper. Cool thoroughly. If desired, serve with cream cheese or margarine.

Spotlight on HEALTH

BEWARE OF MEASLES

Why are parents indifferent about protecting their children against measles? One answer, suggests Dr. R. Cannon Eley of Brown University, is that they are unaware of the serious effects of the disease.

When a safe and effective polio vaccine became available, he points out, parents demanded it for their children because they could see the crippling effects of polio. But children made deaf, mentally retarded, or emotionally disturbed because of measles do not obviously incriminate the disease.

Dr. Eley emphasizes that such measles effects — plus paralysis, blindness, recurrent convulsions, psychological disturbances, pneumonia, and ear infections — are not rare.

Encephalitis or inflammation of the brain occurs in 1 out of every 1,000 cases. It kills 50% of its victims, and leaves 25 per cent of the survivors mentally retarded, the doctor points out.

And in 1966, some 250 children died from measles in the U.S. — more than twice as many deaths from measles as reported cases of polio.

If unprotected, Dr. Eley says, "90 per cent of children have the disease before the age of 6 years; the remaining 10 per cent contract it later." During the period from January to December 30, 1967, there were 62,232 reported cases of measles in this country.

Today, polio is almost nonexistent in the U.S. Tomorrow, Dr. Eley stresses, the same could be true of measles. Measles vaccine should be given to all children between the ages of 1 and 12, he says.

When they are immunized the disease will be under control, since these children — especially those in kindergarten and in the first 2 grades of elementary school — are most likely to contract the disease.

Only one "shot" is required with the Schwarz-strain vaccine, the type most commonly used in mass immunization campaigns. It provides what is believed to be lifelong protection similar to that which follows recovery from natural measles, but without the danger associated with the disease.

So don't jeopardize your child's health — or life — by neglecting his immunization. See your doctor about it today!

When You Have It Pumped!

This is Important! When someone calls at your home with a truck and tells you your tank is almost full, that is correct. It has to be full to be filtering properly, and the most harmful thing you could do would be to have it pumped, for pumping destroys the most valuable part of your tank. Pumping doesn't clean your lines or eliminate odors and you pay an enormous price for the harm done.

How To Loaf With Mince Meat

Fill-'em-up fare from the Borden Kitchen: a meat loaf sparked with the pungent good taste of ready-to-use mince meat.

Mince Meat Stuffed Meat Loaf
(Makes 6 servings)

2 lbs. ground round	2 eggs, beaten
2 tablespoons plus 1 teaspoon (one-half of 1-1/4 oz. pkg.) onion soup mix	1 teaspoon salt
	2 tablespoons dehydrated parsley flakes

STUFFING:

2 tablespoons Danish Flavor Margarine OR butter	2 tablespoons chopped green sweet pepper
1/2 cup (4-oz. can) stems and pieces mushrooms, drained and chopped	1-1/3 cups (1/2 of 28-oz. jar) None Such ready-to-use mince meat
2 tablespoons chopped red sweet pepper	1/2 teaspoon salt
	2 cups dried bread cubes
	2 tablespoons dehydrated celery flakes

In a large-size mixing bowl, combine ground round, soup mix, eggs, salt, and parsley flakes. Line the sides and bottom of a 9 x 5 x 3-inch loaf pan carefully with approximately 3/4 of the meat mixture. In a large skillet, melt margarine or butter. Sauté chopped mushrooms and peppers until golden brown. Add remaining ingredients; mix lightly. Spoon stuffing into meat-lined loaf pan. Press firmly. Cover with remaining meat mixture. Bake in a moderate (350°F.) oven about 1-1/4 hours, or until top is dark golden brown. Pour off liquid from pan. Invert pan over serving platter; carefully remove pan. If desired, pipe onion whipped potatoes through a decorators' bag across top of meat loaf.

OMAR BURLESON
CONGRESSMAN OMAR
BURLESON ANNOUNCES
FOR REELECTIO

Congressman Omar Burleson has formally announced his candidacy for re-election to Congress, subject to action of the Democratic Primary on May 4 and in the General Election in November.

"The people of Sterling County responded most generously to my campaign two years ago when I had an opponent and when the area was new to the district," Burleson said in his opening statement. Sterling County was placed in the 17th district by the State Legislature in 1966, and he began officially representing it at the beginning of 1967.

The 17th Congressional District is now composed of 31 counties, covering approximately 30,000 square miles. Within this area live about 440,000 people.

"With this tremendous area, and the fact that the Congress is in session almost continuously, it is pretty difficult to see and know people as I think their Representatives in the Congress should," Burleson said in his comments. "I believe it is incumbent upon a Congressman to know people and that they know him, to have the best representation. This is fundamental to our system," he said.

In his statement, Burleson says, "During my tenure of office I have followed two guiding principles: First, to know the views of my constituents and reflect their sentiments to the greatest degree possible in my actions in the Halls of Congress. Second, to inform and advise as closely as I can on those issues which affect our District, our State and our Nation."

Burleson termed his approach to Government as one of 'common sense', gained through the years of public service. "I have tried to see that the people's tax money is spent as wisely and as judiciously as you would have spent it had you been in my place," he said.

"The record will show that a greater part of the time I have found myself in the minority in opposing the vast spending programs which have been put into effect in recent years. In every Session of the Congress the record will show my votes for expenditures below that recommended Department and far less than actually appropriated by the Congress, except in the field of National Defense, Burleson said. He continued, "Without meaning to appear boastful, if the Congress had followed those of us who have voted consistently over the years for fiscal responsibility, our financial affairs would not be in the shape they are today."

"In areas providing for the defense of our Country, I have always supported those things to make and keep our Nation stronger than any other in the world," he said.

"I have been discerning in separating those activities which the Federal Government was not designed to do, from those which are truly its responsibility," he said.

Burleson stated that activities of State and local governments, in accordance with the Constitution, should not be infringed and encroached upon by the Federal Govern-

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

H. B. Chadwick, a senior student at the Austin Presbyterian Seminary in Austin, will be guest pastor for the 11 a.m. services at the First Presbyterian Church on Sunday, April 7.

A graduate of the University of Texas, B.A. '49, he also attended Texas A&M University, San Antonio Junior College and Trinity University.

Serving with the US Navy for three years, Chadwick was assigned to the Pacific. During this time he received the Purple Heart Award.

Before entering the seminary, he did sales work and was employed as a contact clerk by the San Antonio Public Service Board.

Chadwick and his wife, the former Miss Jeanne Frery, have four children. During the summer of 1967 he served as a student minister in Rock-springs, Texas. Chadwick is under care of the John Knox Presbytery while he is studying at the seminary.

"The Federal Government does have specific missions," he said. He gave as examples the conservation of our natural resources, the defense of the Country and its general welfare.

"At the same time, he said, "the Federal Government can not and should not try to take care of everything from Washington, either foreign or domestic. The Federal Government has grown to colossal proportions and centralized power in Washington has increased," Burleson pointed out. "To this, I am opposed and my record is clear in this respect."

Burleson is among the senior members of the U.S. House of Representatives in point of service. His seniority has carried him to the Chairmanship of the potent House Administration CCommittee, and to the second position to the Chairman on the powerful Foreign Affairs Committee. In addition, Burleson serves on two important Joint Committees formed from senior members of the House and Senate, as Chairman of one and Vice Chairman of the other.

Burleson is a former County Attorney and County Judge of Jones County. He was appointed an FBI Agent, and served in a number of assignments over the U.S. He resigned from the FBI to join the Navy in World War II, and saw duty in both the Atlantic and the Pacific.

Burleson ended his formal announcement by saying, "Although not having opposition in this year's election, it is my hope to visit my constituency as he opportunity affords. The Congress being in session at this time and expected to be long after the Primary Election, there will be little time to leave duties in Washington. I expect, however, to get back home at short intervals to do the best I can in seeing my friends and to make new ones."

Sterling High Latin Students Attend State Meet

Three delegates and their sponsor from the local Latin Club attended the annual state convention of the Junior Classical League at John H. Reagan High School in Austin on March 22-23. Beverly Brooks entered and did well on the derivative contest. Sharon Currington was a credit to S.H.S. in the costume contest where each girl represented the Roman goddess Venus. Debbie Reed entered the vocabulary contest, a new and difficult one, but her score was well above the median.

Mrs. Frank Milligan attended the evening and luncheon meetings of the Texas Classical Association, president of which is Mr. Sherman Childress of Baytown. There one learned of the six year program in Latin that many schools throughout the nation are initiating and the great shortage of Latin teachers, especially in Texas, which has resulted in the organization of Texas laymen for Latin by lay men and women interested in having their children and the children of their friends given the opportunity of studying the basic language.
