Hayes Takes First, Villalobos In Lead

Once again - Mules - not one single football contest entry picked Abernathy over the Mules. And...besides that, we had one coach who deserves a blue ribbon. Although Coach Scott Murray didn't place in the contest, he picked the EXACT tie-breaker score for the Mule-Lope game.

The contests are definitely getting closer each week and this week we have a brand new first place winner, in a big way. Mrs. John (Kathleen) Hayes took first place honors in the contest, missing only two games. She was six points off in the tiebreaker score. Kathleen will get $6 and 10 points for her winning entry.

Taking second place, maintaining and furthering his contest lead is Raymond Villalobos. Ray missed three games and was only one tiny point off in the tiebreaker score. By adding the six points to his previous total of 16 from last week, he takes a wide lead with a total now of 22 points. Ray also gets a check for $3 for his trouble.

Third place winner in this "TOGETHER WE CAN"...Big, bad John Isaac, #71 runs interference for Mark Moton #22 as the Mules push for yardage against the Abernathy Antelopes last Friday night. Moton was the leading rusher of the night with 209 yards in 17 carries, and Isaac, as always was a workhorse for the Mules.

Mules Will Meet Dimmitt In Second Conference Tilt

Windy Williams' Muleshoe Mules will have their work cut out for them from here on through the end of District games on November 4. Their second district game will come this Friday evening, October 14, as they take on the Dimmitt Bobcats at 7:30 in Benny Douglass Stadium.

The Mule coaching staff was pleased with the teams' efforts in the Abernathy game and the general consensus is that they played well, after a shaky start. The Mules were overall able to control the Antelopes with both defense and offense. While a number of penalties were drawn, most of them were "aggressive-type" penalties, and according to Coach Kevin Wiseman, "When you've got a hustling team, you will draw these penalties." Some of the calls however, both fans and coaches felt were questionable.

Most of the Mules are healthy, with the exception of Darin Shaw, who suffered a couple of fractured ribs after taking a hard hit late in the Abernathy game. Shaw is probably out for this week, but will possibly be in for the Littlefield battle.

As far as the game at hand, Coach Wiseman says that the Bobcats are probably one of the best teams in the district right now. Wiseman said, "The Bobcat's game against Littlefield was much closer than the score indicated." Coach Gene Griffin, head coach at Dimmitt, is in his second year there and has done a good job with the squad. While the 'Cats mainly try to go with a running game, they will throw and they have a defense similar to the Mules. Offensively, their squad is similar to Floydada.

In a conversation with Coach Griffin on Monday, he told the Journal that the one big thing the Bobcats had going for them was that they played as a team, plus they've got a "lot of intestinal fortitude." "Our execution has been good, and while we basically are run-oriented, we can put the ball in the air." Dimmitt has a new sophomore quarterback this year in Woody Glass, who also does the punting. The Bobcats are reported by scouts to have a lot of quickness and are tenacious, so the Mules will have to be at their best to pull off this second win. Also, the Bobcats are healthy, and while they don't have quite the size that the Mules do, they make up for a lot of it with desire to play and win.

Coach Griffin indicated to the Journal that he was very impressed with the Mules. Cont. Page 6, Col. 6

High School Boys Speak At Rotary

The special guests, Jay Cage and Aldo Almanza told of a talk made by the Rotary District Governor on the "four-way Rotary test." The boys were able to participate in such activities as horseback riding, computer games, and gun target practice. Each cabin full of boys

Texans Face Eleven Amendment Proposals

Local Fire Department Stresses Fire Prevention

On October 9 through October 15th is National Fire Prevention Week. Each year, according to National Fire Protection Association statistics, about 6,000 Americans die in fires, most of which are caused by carelessness or ignorance.

Instead of relying on one week to carry the news on fire prevention, fire departments have begun to rely on year-round fire safety education programs to teach citizens what to do in the event of fire, and also how to keep this from happening in the first place.

This year's Fire Prevention Week's theme carries a special message of significance: "Learn Not To Burn - all through the year."

In Muleshoe, the department is made up of entirely all volunteer fire-fighters.

Many of these people are self-employed, but make themselves available for calls, both day and night. A Cont. Page 6, Col. 7

When Texas voters go to the polls on November 8, 1983 for the general election, eleven amendments to the Texas Constitution proposed by the Texas Legislature will be voted upon.

On the ballot, the proposed amendments will be described in English and in Spanish and a brief description of each amendment is given in the following paragraphs.

Proposition 1 on the ballot comes from House Joint Resolution (HJR) 91 which proposed a constitutional amendment requiring a county with a population of 30,000 or more to be divided into not less than four nor more than eight justice of the peace precincts; and, also provides for further changes. The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot in this manner: "The constitutional amendment authorizing fewer justice of the peace and constable precincts in counties with a population of less than 30,000 and providing for continuous service by justices of the peace, constables and county commissioners when precinct boundaries are changed."

Proposition Number 2 on the ballot is a result of HJR 105 and proposes a constitutional amendment limiting a homestead in a city, town or village to a lot or lots amounting to not more than one acre of land, together with any improvements on the land. This amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The proposed constitutional amendment replacing the limitation on the value of an urban homestead with a limitation based on size."

Senate Joint Resolution 1 will appear as Proposition 3 on the November ballot, and if adopted will bring into effect Senate Bill 607. Proposition Three will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment providing for the advancement of food and fiber production and marketing in this state through research, education, and promotion

7th Grade Mules Whip Antelopes

The seventh grade Mules met the Abernathy Antelopes at Abernathy last Thursday, October 6.

Daniel Olivas kicked off to the Antelopes, which led to a touchdown for the Antelopes. They tried for the two extra points but failed, leaving a score of 6-0.

During the second quarter, the Mules scored their first touchdown on a reverse play by Daniel Olivas 20 yards out from the endzone. The Mules' try for the two extra points failed, leading to a halftime score of 6-6.

Daniel Olivas scored another touchdown during the third quarter, this time on an off tackle drive from 20 yards out. The Mules' try for the extra points was successful when David Sanders pitched the ball to Daniel Olivas, who was wrapped on the one yard line and made a flea-flicker pitch to teammate Michael Dunham, who made the two extra points. The Mules then led the ball game 14-6.

In the fourth quarter, David Sanders ran up the middle from the one-yard line for a touchdown. In an unusual move for a Jr. High team, Daniel Oliva kicked the extra point, which led to a final score of 21-6 for the Mules.

The Mules were caught by surprise when they found themselves trailing 20-0 in the middle of the second quarter by the Antelopes strength, speed and quickness. When everything looked dim for the Mules, they came back with a 85-yard kickoff return by Joel Leye with an outstanding line of blockers. This was the spark for the Mules that brought their confidence back. The defense toughened up after that and the first half ended up 20-6 in favor of Abernathy.

The Mules made a defensive adjustment at halftime. The Mules turned the momentum of the game around and stopped the Antelopes dead in their tracks. The Antelopes made only one

Students See Cow Autopsy

The date: October 5, 1983. The subject: The autopsy of a cow. The people: 6th, 7th, and 8th grade gifted and talented students. The result: Bloody, gutsy, fun!

Recently the G/T studnets and their teacher, Mrs. Liles, visited Dr. Jerry Gleason's veterinary clinic to watch him perform an autopsy on a cow. Dr. Gleason wnet through all the major organs, explaining their functions as he went. The big surprise came when a baby calf was found in the womb of the mother cow. Although it was just six weeks old the little heifer had already developed its main features. Because the little one had died with the mother, the students were able to bring it back to school for Mrs. Scoggin to put in formaldehyde. "The trip was educational and fun," said one G/T student, "I'd like to see it done again!"

Antelopes Outpace Eighth Grade Mules

The 8th grade Mules lost their second game of the season Thursday night in a determined effort, 26-14.

The Mules were caught by surprise when they found themselves trailing 20-0 in the middle of the second quarter by the Antelopes strength, speed and quickness. When everything looked dim for the Mules, they came back with a 85-yard kickoff return by Joel Leye with an outstanding line of blockers. This was the spark for the Mules that brought their confidence back. The defense toughened up after that and the first half ended up 20-6 in favor of Abernathy.

The Mules made a defensive adjustment at halftime. The Mules turned the momentum of the game around and stopped the Antelopes dead in their tracks. The Antelopes made only one more touchdown, and that was in the fourth quarter. The Mules weren't through yet and proved that on a forty yard bomb from Johnny Garcia to the wing-back, Ronnie Perez, who outstripped his opponents to the endzone. Armando Del Toro ran it in for the PAT and the score was 26-14. Speaking of Armando Del Toro, he had 13 tackles in the game.

When the game time expired, the Mules found themselves on the low end of the score 26-14. Coach Donaldson commented, "Coming home the Mules had their heads held high because they felt that they had established themselves as winners in the second half. We are anxious to meet the Dimmitt Bobcats October 13 at home to prove that the Mighty Mules are alive and still kicking."

Jr Mules Dehorn Rams

The Mules put another victory in the win bank when they beat the Portales Rams 20-12, September 29, on the Mules' home field. The Mules kicked off to the Rams, and the Rams second play ended in a safety for the Mules, making the score 2-0. The Mules' drive ended in a touchdown by Joe Mendoza, and the PAT was good which made the score 10-0.

In the second quarter the Rams made a 75 yard touchdown around the left end, bringing the score to 10-6. The next drive for the Mules resulted in another touchdown by Joe Mendoza, and once again the PAT was good. The score stood 18-6 at the end of the first half.

The Mules received in the third quarter but fumbled on their drive toward the endzone. The first play the Rams made was recovered by Johnny Garcia. In the fourth quarter the Mules had to punt which put the Rams on their own ten-yard line. The Mules' outstanding defense forced the Rams to punt from their own endzone. The defensive line blocked the punt which ended up in a safety, which made the score 20-6. The Rams made a touchdown, but the PAT failed, making the score 20-12. The Rams kicked an onside kick, but the Mules fell on the ball. With seconds ticking away, the Mules fumbled, with a recovery by the Rams with two seconds left in the game. The final score was 20-12.

Coach Roy Donaldson commented: "this puts us going into district with a 3-1 record. I feel like we're starting district in excellent shape. Our defense has been looking super for the past two weeks. Our offensive line is improved over the past four weeks. We're going to miss Jerry Bob Graves who is out due to broken bones in his hand. When we played the second game against Floydada, we were thrown into darkness, and through the darkness we were faithful to each other and to our team and school and we overcame our darkness. I feel like our men met the standards of the stanza in our school song, "Rise Ye Men, Today."

A convention meeting and educational program could be given each day and still not cover all the hard work, investigation, studies and research that has made fire fighting and prevention as safe and efficient as it is today. This year's slogan is "Learn Not To Burn."

Muleshoe Road Riders Finish '83 Season

The year of 1983 has been an active one for the Muleshoe Road Riders, a group of motor cycle riders which organized in February of 1983. A rally was held in March in Muleshoe, a club formed in April and the charter received from the Texas Motorcycle Road Rider Association at that time. They have enjoyed a steady growth throughout the year.

The first rally held was successful, with 224 riders attending from three states. Proceeds from this rally were donated to the Youth Activity Committee to help with the Miniature Golf Course completion. The number five hole at the course is dedicated to the Roadriders.

The group has attended rallies in a tri-state area and made good showings each time, according to a spokesman for the Road Riders. Several club trophies as well as individual awards have been won.

The riding season for 1983 was finished up with the Lea County rally in Carlsbad, New Mexico and the Ruidoso Motorcycle Festival. The rallies were both large with over eight thousand cyclists registering. The Muleshoe group placed well, with Odell Rasco winning a first place in three separate divisions of the two shows.

Although the regular season is over, the Roadriders will continue with their regular monthly meetings and supper runs. Regular meetings are held at 8 p.m. the second Tuesday of the month in the Farmers Spraying Service office.

Mary's Memories

Time is running out to buy an annual. Annuals are nine dollars through October 31 and will go up to ten dollars. The last day to buy an annual will be November 15.

The eighth and seventh grade Mules played the Abernathy Antelopes Thursday, October 6. The eighth grade Mules were stomped by the Antelopes 26-14. The seventh grade Mules bucked the Antelopes with the score of 21-6.

MJHS will have a pep-rally Thursday October 13, and everyone is excited for their second pep-rally in the year.

Report cards were passed out to students Wednesday, October 5. Some of the students were happy with their grade and others weren't. Some parents gave their children hugs, others rewarded them. Some parents grounded their children and some didn't say anything.

The eighth grade boys played the Portales Rams here in Muleshoe Thursday September 29.

The Student Council sells pickles, kool-aide, and popcorn on Wednesdays for only 25 cents.

Memory Mates are here, for the football players, cheerleaders, and twirlers. You may pay $5.00 and pick them up from Mrs. Watson, room 22.

By the way: SPIRIT. That's the key word - and the Mule Maniac is still spreading it around - Did we say spreading? Change that to stomping. In fact it "be-hooves" us to say that the maniac, alis MM, has gone the extra "hoof" mile and will soon be sweetening up the scene - keep your eyes and ears open for future developments....

Again we would like to remind all of the parents that time is running out to buy an annual.

MR. AND MRS. FRANKLIN DEE BUCKNER
(nee Donna Denise Parish)

Miss Donna Parish became the bride of Franklin Dee Buckner in a candle-light ceremony at 7:30 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 24 at the First Baptist Church. James Williams of Snyder read the double ring vows.

Vows were repeated before a fan candelabra with 15 apple blossom pink votive candles, pink gladiolas and saffron pink carnations with baby's breath and fresh leather leaf fern. On either side of the fan were two candelabras, each with seven votive candles complemented with leather leaf fern and baby's breath adorned with large pink bows. The unity candle featured sculptured roses embossed in the candle and enhanced with a pink bow and white side candles. Two large silk orchid plants were placed on either side. Parents and grandparents pews were marked with pink satin bows.

Musical selections included "Theme From Love Story", "Somewhere My Love" and "Ice Castle".

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white organza and lace gown designed by Mi Deb of New York. The high lace neckline featured an illusion yoke accented with embroidery and seed pearls. The bodice was covered in Chantilly lace and featured a natural waistline. The split bishop sleeves were outlined in Chantilly lace and featured a cuff of Chantilly lace.

The full circular skirt fell to floor length in three deep tiers and was edged in ruffled lace. The tiers swept to chapel length.

A coronet of seed pearls held the bride's veil of silk illusion which fell in three tiers edged with Chantilly lace. She carried a cascade of pink rosebuds, white miniature carnations, white baby's breath, lemon leaf and for something old, a lace handkerchief.

In keeping with tradition something new was the bride's dress; something old, a handkerchief carried by her mother, grandmother, great grandmother and great great grandmother; something blue was her garter; and something borrowed was a penny for her shoe.

Jana Dwyer of Lubbock served as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Larry Free of Muleshoe and Nancy Garcia of Canyon. The attendants wore dusty pink gowns of polyester and voile lined in acetate taffeta featuring shoulder straps and slightly raised waistline with a satin ribbon tie belt. The back of the skirt featured a bustle. Combs of silk flowers were worn in their hair. They carried a pink carnation accented with baby's breath and tree fern.

Kendra Kendrick served as flower girl. She wore a dusty pink sleeveless long gown with a ruffle and lace accenting the yoke and a bustle in the back. She wore a barrett of silk flowers in her hair.

Rickie Claybrook served as best man. Groomsman were Jimmy Hodnett and James Law. Ross Parish, brother of the bride, was ring bearer. Ushers and candlelighters were Earl Parish, Jr., brother of the bride, of Muleshoe and T.L. Broumley of Rio Vista.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the fellowship hall. Tamm Buckner, sister of the groom, registered the guest servers were Carla Shafer of Lubbock, and Michelle Buckner of Jonesboro cousin of the groom.

Following a wedding trip to San Antonio and Austin the couple are making their home in Muleshoe.

(Keep Them Paid)

Most holders of stock in a corporation believe that if the corporation fails, they have no further liability beyond their investment in the stock. Wrong! You could have additional exposure.

Creditors of a corporation are ordinarily barred from obtaining recovery from shareholders when the company goes under. In contrast to this, the Internal Revenue Service has a special regulation which imposes a personal liability upon "responsible persons" in their capacity as corporate officers who willfully fail to collect or pay in withholding taxes.

This special provision requires the responsible person to pay a "penalty" equal to 100% of the taxes due, and this obligation cannot be discharged in corporate or personal bankruptcy. The Internal Revenue Service does not have to pro-rate the liability over all shareholders; it can simply collect from the responsible person.

For example, suppose the income tax and FICA withheld from employees, including owner-employees, plus the employer's share of the payroll taxes are $25,000. The IRS can collect a total of $25,000 from a "responsible person" (usually an officer or shareholder of the corporation). This $25,000 is a penalty and is not deductible on your tax return.

When your company develops cash flow problems, using the IRS as a "banker" may not be a good idea. No one likes to see a company fail, but when a cash flow problem develops, consider owing open line creditors instead of the IRS.

To keep your unpaid payroll taxes from becoming uncontrollably high, consider depositing payroll taxes on each payday. It seems that payments in smaller amounts are easier to budget for. You may bypass the temptation to let this temporarily silent creditor grow to a balance that is impossible for the company to handle.

Barn Ceremony Unites Paula Perry, Winkler

Paula Delana Perry became the bride of Larry C. Winkler in a double ring ceremony Saturday, Oct. 1 at 8 p.m. in Jeff Smith's Barn.

Parents of the couple are Mrs. Walter Perry, Jr. of Lubbock and Mrs. L.C. Winkler of Dickens.

The barn was decorated with yellow and gold mums, hay stacks with pumpkins and fall colored streamers.

Sam Hill and the Texas Hand Band provided the musical selections.

The bride wore an old fashioned Southern Bell dress of blue chiffon with lace off the shoulders. She also wore a blue hat with white trim and lace. She carried a bouquet of blue and white daisies.

Let Children

Eat Cheese

For Snacks

A foolproof way of providing youngsters with nutritious snacks is to stick to basic foods like cheese and apples. It's smart to keep extra amounts of certain staples on hand, so you can select from two or three of the food groups for between-meal eating.

Let them eat cheese! Children like cheese. They'll enjoy being little cooks if you stash three plastic bags in the refrigerator for an after-school raid. These bags will hold cheese cubes, vegetable pieces and fruit chunks. Supply youngsters with wooden picks and let them make their own mini kabobs.

Real cheese supplies protein, calcium and phosphorus in much the same amounts as milk. One and one-half ounces of cheese contains the same amount of calcium as one cup (8 oz.) milk. A one-ounce serving of cheese can furnish 21 percent of the protein for seven-to-ten-year-olds. At the same time, cheese is a dependable source of phosphorus since it supplies about 18 percent.

Children can have a great time playing grown-up if you furnish them with cheese dips, either the homemade variety or process cheese spreads purchased in glass jars or plastic tubs. These, too, can be served with veggies, fruit or wheat crackers, all good basic foods.

Older children who know how to use oven, broiler or griddle will enjoy making their own pizza on English muffins. See that they have canned pizza sauce and some shredded cheese on hand. Mozzarella is often used, but Scamorze and Provolone can give pizza an Italian accent. Pizza can be varied for a change of pace just by changing the cheese to Cheddar.

An assortment of shredded or grated cheese—those leftover bits and pieces—can always find their way into a sandwich spread or cracker topper. Peanut butter can win new honors with some Swiss cheese and chopped apple. A smidgeon of tuna salad goes further the addition of process American cheese. Cream cheese can mellow a sharp Cheddar cheese spread to children's taste.

So, let the children have cheese. It's another way for them to get milk's nutrition.

served as maid of honor. Bridesmaid was Georgene Robert of Lubbock. Miss Dunn wore an antique gold dress with black lace, black gloves and a black hat with trim and lace. She carried a bouquet of white daisies. The bridesmaid wore an Old Fashion Southern dress of turquoise with white lace and trim. She wore a white hat with lace and trim and carried a bouquet of white daisies.

Don Hines of Crosbyton served as bestman. Groomsman was Randy Bush.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the barn. Carman Day and Jennifer Tillema served a barbecue dinner.

Keep A

Household

Inventory

The things inside your home are probably worth far more than you realize.

An inventory of household furnishings and possessions can help determine the value of your property, says home economist Nancy Granovsky.

The inventory is important to estimate your need for insurance, and to settle insurance claims quickly and efficiently, says Granovsky, a specialist in family resource management with Texas A&M's Agricultural Extension Service.

"Your memory may fail you, especially under the stress of a natural disaster of a burglary, but an inventory will have information needed for a claim," she says.

An inventory should note the date or year of purchase and purchase price for each item. If you don't know when you bought an item or what the purchase price was, says Granovsky, you can estimate the replacement cost. This information can help you specify exactly what was lost and its worth, she explains.

No matter what type of inventory you make, it's critical to store it in a safe deposit box or some other secure place away from your home, notes the specialist.

Photographing each wall of every room in your house with all cabinets and drawers open is the easiest way to make an inventory. Also save the negatives from these pictures to make enlargements which could provide important details for an insurance claim, she says.

Another method for making an inventory is to list all household goods, room by room. Include everything on the walls, in the closets, food in the freezer or pantry and items in the garage, says the home economist.

If you have extensive collections of things that are difficult to photograph or tedious to write down, such as book or record collections, Granovsky suggests using a tape recorder to dictate the information onto a cassette.

and FFA is an elective course which is taught in 880 school districts in the state of Texas. Students in Production Agriculture (years 1 through 4) are required to carry on a successful supervised occupational experience program each year they are enrolled in the course. The vo-ag program offers students the opportunity to enroll also in part time cooperative training. Those eligible for this particular training are either juniors or seniors and are enrolled in regular academic classes for one half of the school day and then work in an agri-business training situation each day.

Junior and senior students may also receive training in pre-employment laboratory work. This training is offered in such areas as: farm power and machinery, ornamental horticulture, forest products harvesting, meat processing, feedlot employment, agriculture resources, agriculture chemicals and fertilizers and in general mechanics.

Approximately 1700 vocational agriculture teachers direct and assist the 880 school districts in Texas, in order that a successful vocational agriculture program may be carried out. Lazbuddie is one of the success stories, says Copp.

seemed to create problems for Lazbuddie in the past. "We can't afford to give them any gift touchdowns or any easy ones," Williams said, cautioning that concentration will eliminate mistakes.

Lazbuddie's defense has improved greatly in the last two games played, they will have to have a strong right defensive side; however to play Vega individually on defense, Lee Scott, Ralph Gonzales, Paul Gonzales and Paul Stanley have played well in the last games. Robert Tapia, Dewayne Ivy and Luis Alarcon have also played well, especially against the Amherst team, as did Scott Holt.

On offense, Coach Williams says that the Horns will have to establish their rushing game. Nail will need to make inside yardage. If we can move the ball on the ground, then we can also pass, he said. In the last two games, the entire offensive line has blocked well on both the passing and rushing situation, at times having complete control of the line of scrimmage. Williams has been throwing well also, the coach mentioned. Both Larry Nail and Noe Gonzales have had some good rushing yardage and we had good blocking on the option, which was our big ground gainer, Williams said.

Alabama hosts Tennessee in Birmingham Saturday with understandable trepidation. Tennessee drove the first chink in Alabama's armor midway in the 1982 season, upsetting the Tide 35-28. Alabama had been impressive - and undefeated - up to that point. The Volunteers initiated Bama's decline as the Tide lost four of its final six games, coming back to beat Illinois in the Liberty Bowl 21-15. The Vols had a rather impressive season of their own in '82 though their upset of Alabama and a 24-24 standoff with L.S.U. were the high spots. Tennessee played low in the Peach Bowl, losing 28-22. This year both teams were undefeated through games of October 1st, but L.S.U. and Penn State were lying in wait last Saturday for Vols and Tide respectively. Ray Perkins' Alabamians will take revenge for their loss to Tennessee.

We're sorta waiting - a little expectantly - to see what kind of surprise party Coach Lou Holtz and his Arkansas Razorbacks have planned for the visiting Texas Longhorns. The Hoggs were shocked out of their shoes almost three weeks ago when the Rebels of Old Miss staged their own brand of Southern hospitality, beating Arkansas 13-10. The Razorbacks will need to pull all available stops to hold back the Longhorns even though Texas is coming off a huge set-to with Oklahoma. There has been no consistency in the Texas-Arkansas match-ups the past two years. The Longhorns rolled by the Razorbacks last fall 33-7, but in 1981, it was all Arkansas 42-11. This fall ..

Farmer Owned Reserve Selling Time Extended

Farmer Owned Reserve Selling Time Extended

Last week, the United States Department of Agriculture announced that farmers who still want to sell corn, oats and sorghum stored in farmer-owned reserves could continue to do so through the end of October and possibly into November. This announcement applies to all corn and oats placed in reserve and sorghum stored from October 6, 1981 through June 30, 1982. Created in 1977, the reserve enables farmers to stop marketing grain when great surpluses begin to depress prices. After the commodities are placed in the reserve, they are stored and then released after three years.

The products may be sold earlier by farmers, however, if prices reach the "trigger" or release levels. A summer drought this year has caused many grain prices to rise, forcing the opening of the reserve, the USDA says. USDA spokesmen indicate that the average corn market price, adjusted to reflect prices received by farmers was $3.39 per bushel. The price was higher than the $3.15 and $3.25 per bushel prices that triggered the opening of the corn reserves this summer.

Everett Rank, administrator of the departments ASCS, told press representatives that the adjusted price for sorghum was $5.41. The release level for that commodity is $5.36. Oats has an adjusted price of $1.65 per bushel, which matches the current release level.

Rank said that storage payments for corn and released sorghum will not be made in October and interest will be charged on price support loans for grain that remains in the reserve.

number of Muleshoe's volunteers are employed by others and must rely on their employer's cooperation to enable them to participate as a volunteer fireman. Almost to a man, the businesses in Muleshoe cooperate with this plan and allow men time from the job for this civic duty.

The cooperation of both city and county, as well as community has given the Muleshoe Volunteer Fire Department is of great necessity. The dedication of the volunteer Fire Chief is something that takes a great deal of time and effort and is filled with responsibility. Contributions to the fire department help them to keep going.

This year, Fire Prevention Week serves as a reminder to all that fire safety must last all year long, because fires are an ever-present threat.

The Muleshoe Volunteer Fire Department will continue to serve the public as in the past, and will be attempting to educate them about fire safety so that we can all "Learn Not To Burn All Through The Year."

"We don't have the Mules size, their speed, nor as strong a defense," Griffin stated.

However, the game is not over until the final whistle blows, and the answer hangs in the balance for Friday's game. Dimmitt has a 4-2-0 record, while the Mules are 4-1-1.

Enochs News
By: Mrs. J.D. Bayless

Mr. and Mrs. Robert George of Lubbock had been to their cabin at the Capatin Mountains and they stopped in Enochs to see their parents, the E.N. McCalls, as they were returning home, Sunday evening.

We express our sympathy to the family of Dorothy Neutzler of Lubbock who died Friday. She is a former resident of our area.

Some received .3 of rain during the weekend, it is really appreciated but we need a good rain.

Mr. and Mrs. E.N. McCall was surprised with a huge bouquet of big white mums and small bronze ones. Sunday morning following church services at the Baptist Church, this was their 50th anniversary. October 2, they also received a book from their friends of the area. They had wrote comments and signed their names in it, also an offering for the Enochs Cemetery.

Mrs. Bill Key and Mrs. Ima Roberts visited Mrs. G.O. Smith Saturday afternoon also Mrs. Bonnie Long at Morton.

The events for the revival at the Baptist Church begin with a cottage prayer meeting at the E.N. McCall's and the Chester Petree homes Tuesday night. Revival services Wednesday night, 12 noon Thursday was ladies luncheon also the preachers and singer, Thursday night following church services was an ice cream fellowship in the fellowship hall of the church. 7:00 p.m. Friday was a covered dish supper revival services at 8:00. Saturday at 7:00 a.m. was men's breakfast revival services at 8:00 p.m. with youth night following the services with a banana split bash, with dinner in the fellowship hall of the Church Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. R.M. Walker of Mt. Vernon, Texas spent a few days in the area the Bill Keys' and others and attended the Baptist revival, then on Wednesday the Walkers, Key's also the Homer Kelly's of Texico formerly of Maple, made a short trip to Red River and area and visited with some friends, the George Hendersons of Questa, the Hendersons had been friends of the Keys since the early 60's. It was a beautiful drive, color leaves changing truly a handiwork of our God and so restful.

The Senior Citizens met September 26, Dr. G.O. Smith was in charge of the meeting and introduced the guest speaker Glen Williams of Muleshoe, he spoke of the aging people and how many senior citizens there are.

There were 14 present, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Snitker, G.O. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. J.D. Bayless, Mrs. Etta Layton, Mrs. Winnie Byars, Mr. and Mrs. Stuff Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Edd Autry, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Welch and our guest, Glen Williams.

Mrs. Northcutt Services Held Tuesday

Services for Ruby Mills, 80, were held at 11 a.m. Wednesday, Oct. 12 in the Chapel of the Chimes of Ellis Funeral Home with Bobby Burris officiating.

Burial was in the Muleshoe Cemetery under the direction of Ellis Funeral Home. Mrs. Mills died Monday in the Farwell Convalescent Center where she had lived three months.

She was born Sept. 7, 1903, in Pauls Valley, Okla. and moved to Muleshoe in 1955, from Wickenburg, Ariz. She married J.A. Mills in November of 1941, in Salome, Ariz. She was self employed as a cook and waitress.

SEASONS CHANGE

For a time leaves are green, then in early fall they become brilliant with many colors. Finally they turn brown and fall from the trees, leaving them drab and lonely looking.

God never changes, he is an ever present help.

"For I am the Lord, I change not"

Attend church and learn more of God's wonderful and never changing love.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny, the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

TEXAS PRIDE IN TEXAS SCHOOLS TSTA Tips For Parents

The Texas State Teachers Association wants to be your partner in helping your child learn all that is possible about the natural world in which we live. The following is part five in an eight part series to encourage learning away from school.

Social Studies

Encourage curiosity in the area of geography, land formations, climate and weather. Try to answer questions when your child is young and, when older, how to find the answers. Discuss current events, encourage the reading of newspapers and periodicals and the watching of local and national news telecasts.

Provide your child with social studies research materials, including a dictionary, atlas, globe and almanac. A map of the city and gasoline road maps are excellent for plotting trips and helping the child understand geographic relationships. Keep the research items conveniently close to the TV set for use during news and documentary programs.

Map puzzles are good "learn as you play" items for youngsters. Distinctive shapes of states, countries, continents form pictures in the child's mind to help your child learn and remember.

Discuss the world of work with your child, including the demands of various jobs and professions and the work and training necessary to qualify.

Stress the idea that training can begin at an early age and that attention to school work is vital for future success. Feel out notions about future career plans, including personal preferences, inclinations and natural skills.

Teach your child the importance of being a good citizen by discussing at the dinner table local candidates for public office, issues and problems of the community. Help with the judgment of each person individually rather than by race, creed, color and by curbing unthinking remarks about others.

Give books that reflect the diversity of American culture. Don't be afraid to guide talk with your teenagers into the fascinating realm of ideas. Junior high and high school students love "bull sessions" on serious topics.

The Texas State Teachers Association wants to help you stimulate your child in discovering the surrounding world. The following is part six in an eight part series to assist parents in helping children learn.

The World of Science

Encourage curiosity about the feel of textures and materials, characteristic smells, sounds, tastes, weights and sizes of things. Train the child to look carefully and to see beyond the surface appearance of the environment.

Children are normally curious and should be encouraged to find answers to questions by patient observation and through the use of references, either at home or in libraries and museums.

Let the child manipulate and learn about familiar objects: a dripping faucet, the household water system, a nut-cracker, an old doorbell, discarded appliances, locks and door hinges, household plants and gardens. When making household repairs, servicing the family car or other domestic equipment, include your child as an observer.

Natural scientific and mechanical skills can be discovered and developed in this way, and many scientific principles can be demonstrated in first-hand and practical ways.

Make certain that you teach your child rules of safety in the handling of electrical, mechanical and chemical equipment. In this modern scientific era, a whole range of educationally approved toys and games are on sale for gift-giving to the budding young scientist in your home.

Consider giving a subscription to a scientific magazine, an easy-to-assemble radio ear-phone set, a general science kit, an ant farm or toy farm that grows real frogs.

Confer with the child's science teachers. They welcome such parental interest and can give many useful tips.

The Texas State Teachers Association understands the importance of your child's health. The following is part seven in an eight part series and focuses on "health, and physical education."

Physical Fitness

Your child's health is reflected in most areas of schooling and should be cared for by you and your physician and dentist. Any condition of a serious nature should be reported to the school.

You should continue to emphasize personal hygiene and cleanliness. Diet is of prime importance. A good breakfast to start off each day is important.

Follow through on eye and ear screenings and routine immunizations. Consult your child's physical education teacher concerning physical development and coordination and how you may assist.

See that your child has enough sleep each day and is properly dressed for weather conditions. The child should be kept home from school if definite signs of illness arise, such as temperature, suspicious rash or a severe cough. Send a note to explain the absence when the child returns to school. Be alert for signs of poor vision, such as squinting, frowning or red, watery eyes. Faulty hearing can be indicated by earaches, chronic inattention or too frequent requests that statements be repeated.

Encourage the habit of vigorous daily activity. Active play builds strong muscles, which are basic to good health and posture. Join your child in active games and stress good sportsmanship. Encourage participation in creative activities and individual and team sports.

The Texas State Teachers Association wants to help parents teach the fundamentals of safety to our Texas children. The following is the final installment of an eight part series, this one dealing with "safety habits."

Your Child's Safety

Children should be taught their full name, address and telephone number at an early age. Select the safest, most direct walking route to school and check to see that your child uses it.

Explain any traffic hazards along the way. Teach your child to stop at the curb or at the side of the road; to look in both directions to be sure there is no traffic or that traffic has stopped before crossing; to WALK across the road in the crosswalk; and to obey a student patrol or adult crossing guard if there is one.

Warn your child never to get in a car or accept a ride with a stranger. If your child has to travel to and from school on a bus, explain the fundamentals of bus safety—to stand well back from the road while waiting for the bus; to always remain seated while the bus is moving and to keep head and arms inside the bus at all times.

When it is necessary to cross the street to board the bus, teach your child to STOP, LOOK and then WALK across the street to the bus only after the bus driver has signaled that it is safe. Children learn very quickly from experience. Why not ride a bus with your child and demonstrate the fundamentals of bus safety?

If your child is permitted to ride a bicycle to school, be sure the child knows and obeys bicycle laws. The bicycle should be checked frequently to be sure the brakes are working properly and that the handlebars and seat are not loose.

The members of the Texas State Teachers Association hope you have found these series of articles helpful. When in doubt, talk to a TSTA teacher so that the two of you can work together.

Remember! Listen with interest, encourage and ask questions, be generous with praise, enthusiasm and sympathy. You can bridge the gap between home and school and make learning fun for both you and your child.
