He has been making extraordinary preparations for something unknown of late. He was fifty-five years old and quite wealthy. NATIONAL CAPITAL NOTES.

Washington, August 5, - A call is to be is ment, the object being to perfect an organization.

Secretary Sherman will make several visits to New York this month during his resistance in the neighborhood of that city. The treasury officials are reticent concerning the character of his business in New York.

A report has been received at the Indian Office from Peter Roman, Indian agent at Flathcad agency, giving an account of the recovery by Captain George, a friendly Nez Perces, of his daughter who was stolen from him by white men. Captain George had been useful to the whites & an interpreter, and was aided by them to get his daughter from Sitting Bull's camp. He returned with her as far as Carrol, and was there attacked and left for dead by the white men, who carried off his daughter. After his recovery he searched throughout the country for his child, with his wounds three with the country for his child, with his wounds unhealed, and in constant danger from the whites, who were liable to mistake him for a hostile, and was finally successful in his search. His daughter subsequently made her escape.

During the storm this evening Castle Sieward, which is reuled to the Chingses Embassy, was unroofed. About fifty houses in virious parts of the city were unroofed. Great danage was none to the savers. Hall fell with great violence. At the height of the storm Fennsylvania avenue locked like a rapidly flowing river. The Fittent Office, Smittsonian Institute, the office of the Fost. Church of the Holy Cross and other buildings were struck by lightning but not very seriously damaged. A colored woman was blown into the Fotome and drowned.

The Secretaries of the War and Nays remained their official duties here to-day.

The Treasury Department made another body an engine and instantly killed.

Morristown, N. J., August 6.—During a severe winds and hall storm yesterday, trees who have a proportion of the city unroofed.

Here Mr. Marshall, a large ship owner, testified directly opposite, and said that doing away with the prohibitory law and the reduction of taxes were the trea remedies.

Mr. Graham then broke into civil service reform and the settlement of poor people on prairie lands, which he favored.

Horatio D. Shepherd suggested as a remedy the removal of the many taxes in industries and placing them on the aristocratic orwealthy. There is too much inflation and not enough taxation on the wealthy classes.

He would restore the income tax.

Mr. Strasser, Preadent of the Cigar Makers' Union, demanded that the importation of coolies to San Francisco be stopped. More signs are made now that ever before, yet business is worse.

flouston, August 5. Nearly every mit-way town in Texas is quarantined, with vigillant guards on the trains, who eject passengers and mails from New Orleans, No vessels from the sea are allowed to land anywhere or under any circumstances. Everybody is terribly in earnest in this mat-ter of quarantine, including the railway and mail officers. Towns and cities are being cleaned of every impurity, and disinfectants are poured out without limit. Not a case of yellow fever is yet reported in the State, and is is thought next to impossible for it to come.

SEIZURE OF SMUGGLED GOODS.

New London, Conn., August 5.— The Custom House officers seized a large quantity of smuggled goods on board the United States school ship St. Mary's, just arrived from Maderia. The captain of the ship says most of the goods were sent home by the officers of the Luited States ship Alliance, now at Liebon. The goods will be confiscated. Mr. Seasuek of Sam Prametsee

(From the San Francisco Chronicie, July 17.)

At 20 minutes before 1 o'clock yesterday morning the wife of G. W. Schenck, residing at Ro. 40 Austin street, off Folk, between Bush and Pine, gave birth to an infant son, and immediately she and the bright, well-formed little infant proceeded, as in all such cases, to do as well as could be expected. The gratified father having had the baby exhibited to him, and seen that his wife was left in the care of an excellent nurse and Br. Pinching, the attending physician, retired to his separate spartment, and as the father's pleasurable excitement wore off he dropped into a gentle slumber, enlivened with delightful dreams of what fun he would now have at night, getting up and carrying around his new little son, on its little stomach, when it had the regular cherubic colic. He hadn't got very far along with his dreams when he was awakened at half past 4 by the nurse.

"Well "said he, in some alarm, "is there man well looking, the Italian of middle size, or was a superior or collection."

In external appearance the German is a large, the Englishman well made, the Frenchman was large, the Englishman well made, the Frenchman was looking, the Italian of middle size, or was a large, the Englishman well looking, the Italian of middle size, or was a large, the Englishman well looking, the Italian of middle size, or was a large, the Englishman well made, the Frenchman was awakened at half past 4 by the nurse.

"Oh, no, I didn't because I couldn't you know. It wasn't born then."
"Heavens" 'Exclaimed Mr. Schenck, 'anothers" and making a hasty toilet he descended and was formally presented to the account cervit, and having again seen the mother and twins comfortably bestowed he again retired to seek a few minutes of needed but off-interrupted repose. But at half-past 7, just as in dreams he had an infant in either arm, his sleep was again broken in upon by the smiling and untiring nurse. He looked up into her laughing face, and his prescient soul leaped to the sensational announcement.
"Don't" said he. "Nurse, don't say the word: Surely there's not another. The last one was a half-past 3, and according to schedule time the next is not due for an hour the fenglishman a lion, the Frenchman an eage, the Italian a fox, the Spaniard an eleghant.

The many friends and acquaintances in this city of Mr. Albert Patton, of Freddricks burg, will be pleased to learn that he had an addition to his family in the shape of a number was a long, lean, black woman, named Texans, escorted by a "Mr." Brown bouncing girl baby. He has now a boy and a girl. Well done, Albert, k-cep on with the good work.

People complain of dull times, money being scarce and all that sort of things, but at the same time buildings, both for stores and family residences, are going up in every direction. It takes money, and plenty of it, to do all this, and somebody must have plenty of the "root of all evil" about their old clothes.

He was reported upon the streets yesterday that John Lanham, the man who did the shooting at the Green Front Theatre Saturday night, had shot and killed the Sheriff and Deputy Sheriff of Uvalde county, who were attempting to arrest him. We do not credit the report, however, and simply give it for what it is worth.

—Perhaps our readers may never have remarked it, but one of the sadest and most heart-reading scenes in this life—that is to the small boy—and the most amusing to the spectator, is to witness a ragged street Arab struggling with a green peach, with one hand affectionately caressing his stomach, while he is profoundly wondering how many of the stones he has swallowed.

—Mr. Asa Frary, of Fort Concho, was aroused from his sleep in his room at Hord's yesterday morning about 4 o clock by some one fumbling around his pillow. On awakening, he found a man standing by his bed, and asked him what he wanted. The fellow replied that he was searching for his pistol. Explanation was not taken as truthful, however, and the fellow was ordered to leave which he accordingly did.

The heavy mercantile establishment of John Wolfram was discovered to be on free this merning. The fire got under considerable headway before the fire companies reached the seene. The freemen soon got the fismes under control. Mr. Wolfram's loss was heavy, but he was fully insured in the Fire Association of Philadelphia.

The above clipped from no less a paper than the Dallas Herald. may be taken as fair sample of events transpiring in San Antonio as published by papers elsewhere, and reminds us of a story we remember to have read some years ago: A lady reported to her neighbor (as ladies are in the habit of doing) that Mrs. So. and So took smafl. By the time it reached the third neighbor it was aid Mrs. So. and So was in the habit of doing that Mrs. So. and So occur, Mr. Wolfram keeps neither a heavy nor a light mercantile establishment, but in the proprietor of a beer garden and dancing hall.
