THE CONGRESSIONAL CONVENTION

NO TIME TO BE LOST.

There appears to exist a feeling for furnishing the necessary funds for the support of the sixth congressional district, and with a determination of the sixth congressional district, as to its population, means of communication, etc. This information should be turned upon the governor, for he does not appear to take any pains to post himself upon the subject.

It is a matter of course that the people of this district should be kept advised of the progress of the convention, and that the people of the district should be kept advised of the progress of the convention.

A gentleman well acquainted with the Chinese market and the obstacles which American contend, says: "China is our best market and is constantly growing more important. Now that we have come down to a gold basis the export trade was expected to take a new start. The time, therefore, is particularly unfortunate in which to discuss the harmony of the relations existing between the two countries."

LEGISLATIVE NOTES.

Mr. Coker, Mr. President, we are brought to the realization of the uncertainty of life, and the fleeting and transitory nature of worldly pursuits, worldly hopes and ambitions, by the death of Hon. Gustav Schleicher.

The country is said to be infested with Mexican horse thieves.

San Antonio News.

Our reporter has among the many indictments returned by the late grand jury one charging that John Vance, brother, and Milton Vance, son of William Vance, of this city, did commit the crime of theft. The articles alleged to have been stolen, as specified in detail in the indictment, were various documents of different kinds, books, blank paper, brass keys, etc. The list is rather long, and the compound value of the articles is valued at $1100. They are said to have been fraudulently and feloniously taken from Mr. Robert Eger, formerly manager of the Vance estate. Upon the return of the indictment, the accused were brought into court and entered into a personal recognizance before his honor, Judge Noyes, to appear from term to term until the charges against them are settled.

Stolen Goods.

The House, Vance, the reporter learns, claim that the articles alleged to have been stolen were left in a desk at Vance & Bro.'s office. When the desk was sent to its owner, it was found to contain a large quantity of stolen goods, as the property of the Vance family, or thrown away among an accumulation of rubbish. They, of course, deny the serious charge brought against them.

Stolen Goods.

It is reported that a Mexican or French practitioner of medicine, whose name of operation was in the Mexican register, had been guilty of a most gross and outrageous abuse of his profession. Some weeks since, the small-pox appeared in the city, and several persons called upon this doctor to be vaccinated. Having obtained no result, as is used by physicians in such cases, he proceeded to apply his hands to the bodies of persons afflicted with the disease, one said to have been in a dying condition, and used this method to cure the disease. He is now in the city, and several principally children, died. His conduct is being investigated by the authorities, and he is being held in custody. It is a proper effort on the part of the officers to whom the punishment of criminals is given as a special charge, and we trust his case will be properly dealt with.

Departments Notes.

Recruit Robert A. Smith, called in this city by Captain J. W. Cross, 24th infantry, recruiting officer, has been assigned to Co. M, 24th infantry.

General Court.

A general court martial will convene at Fort Clark, Texas, on Monday, the 24th of March, 1879, at 10 o'clock, a. m., at or near thereabout as practicable, for the trial of such persons as may be properly brought before it.

News for the Reader.

Mr. Louis Dwyer, who has for a long while been proprietor of the elegant Metropolitan saloon, on Commerce street, has concluded to change his base to the east side of the river. He has leased the corner bar, east side of Alamo plaza, and will at once remove the fixtures and billiard tables of the Metropolitan to the new place. He is going to furnish the people living east of the river, and guests at the Menger, with only the best of everything in the line, and he will add to the attractions of that section as pretty and inviting a saloon and billiard parlor as there is any where. Mr. Dwyer will certainly exert his best efforts to make his new place gratify his pride to the extent that he promises.
