Daily Express

Published by the Express Printing Company, Wednesday Morning, October 1, 1919.

Another meeting of refugees from Memphis has been held in St. Louis, having reference to the means to be adopted for the relief of the stricken city.

When we have reason to expect the removal of the restrictions on colored people from the states as soon as possible...

The San Diego member of the party who called another a liar, and when asked to prove that he was not a liar...

It is doubtful if the people of Ohio know whether there is any existence of any kind outside of that state.

Mr. G. M. Doores, of Council Bluffs, Iowa, is horrified at an enthusiastic Grant that, and the St. Louis member says: "It is this same Dodge who was regularly subpoenaed as a witness during the Credit Mobilier investigation."

The people of Blanco county are agitating the question of removing the county seat from Blanco City to Johnson City.

The Rev. Dr. J. J. Conner is the last remnant of Commodore Perry's flag, Lawrence, will find them in Charles L. Webster's barn.

It is a weekly publication, devoted to the dissemination of information relative to the various states and territories.

Trains will be important business brought up at the regular meeting of the legislature...

NO MORE NEGROES WANTED.

The colored people who go to Kansas after this date will not receive a very cordial welcome, and will receive no acknowledgment or aid unless they are in an absolute starving condition.

OUR PUBLIC LIBRARY

What is Needed, What to do and How to do it.

It is very available in our citizens to take a deep interest in any institution that is a benefit to our community.

On the 23rd inst., as our readers will be reminded, a horse barked with the trappings of a traveler.

These facts have in substance reached us from a half-dozen sources, and are undoubtedly a proper statement of the affair as far as they go.

These two ways of doing this, first, by asking the library society if you are not a member, the second, by voluntary subscription.

It is my opinion that the press of Texas is somewhat at fault in publishing such statements without first investigating the same.

Year readers will probably agree with me that it would be almost impossible to locate one hundred people in the best section of our country.

The balance of the colony informed me in person that it would be much better for all concerned that this gentleman return or leave for good.

Early yesterday morning, Mr. J. M. Nixon, manager of the business of the Texas Express company in this city, and who resides with his family at the residence of Mrs. Thompson, on North Sibley street, observed a negro man in the room window.

The San Antonio police club give an entertainment at Casino hall this evening which will be appreciated by everyone who attends.

Mr. J. J. Wessinger, of Seguin, was married last evening at the German Lutheran church, to Miss Emma Kirkman of this city.

SHIRING GOLD

A Rich Discovery of the Precious Metal on the Northern Mexican Frontier.

A gentleman who has been traveling through the state of Coahuila, Mexico, discovered, while riding along a cañon, near the bank of a little stream which crossed his way by him, what appeared to be very rich and valuable ore.

These facts have in substance reached us from a half-dozen sources, and are undoubtedly a proper statement of the affair as far as they go.
