the Grand Champion Steer honors at the State Fair of Texas with this steer last week. The steer won Champion of its class, then went on to take the Grand Champion honors. Holding the banners at right is Todd's father, Travis Bessire. Bailey County Agent

A DIFFERENT RIBBON CUTTING--It was different, unusual and well-attended. More than 200 people looked on at the unique 'ribbon-cutting' at the Earl M. Ladd Fire Station Saturday morning. Mayor Darrell Turner cut the 'ribbon' which was actually a fire hose. Instead of using the large scissors normally used in such an event, the mayor cut the 'ribbon' with the new Jaws of Life rescue tool. Following the ribbon cutting and dedication ceremony, members of the Muleshoe Fire Department Auxiliary served a meal of brisket and sausage to the crowd.

Test Forage For The Best Feeding Value

Just how "good" is the hay you harvested this year?

It's really hard to tell without a forage test, says Spencer Tanksley county agent with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System. The forage test is the only way that a definite feed value can be assigned to a particular lot of hay.

While a forage test may cost a few dollars, it can save you money in supplemental feed or livestock condition, contends Tanksley.

Feeding low quality hay without supplementation can result in livestock weight losses and reduced rebreeding percentages. At the same time, feeding supplement with top quality hay may not always be necessary.

Only when your hay's feeding value is known can you make a useful decision on the necessity of a protein or energy supplement. The hay's feeding value might be such that no supplement is needed or it might be such that the animal is slowly starving without a supplement.

A forage test can give a positive value on which to base a feeding program, and with the high cost of feed, that's essential for a sound management program, believes Tanksley.

Anyone interested in getting hay tested for protein, fiber, nutrient and mineral content can bring samples to the county Extension office where information forms and mailing containers are available. Forage samples will be sent to the Extension Forage Testing Laboratory, Soil and Crop Sciences Department, Texas A&M University, College Station, Tex. 77843

OCTOBER IS FISH AND SEAFOOD MONTH'

Fish and seafood month is the perfect time to enjoy fish meals that are both nutritious and tasty. So, let's discuss fat and sodium in fish.

The amount of fat and calories in fish go hand in hand. Fatter fish (meaning a higher oil content) include herring, trout, mackerel, catfish, sardines, tuna and salmon. In general the darker the color of the flesh, the higher the fat content.

Shellfish, snapper, drum, cod, sole, flounder, haddock, halibut, and other white finfish are low in fat. However, the well of fat in all fish is not always constant. Some species put on more in the summer and fall than at other times. The fat content of certain fish may be as much as 4 times higher in summer than in winter.

The primary source of fat calories in fish is the butter, margarine, oil, sauces, breaded and fried coatings added during cooking. Example: a breaded, fried fish fillet may have 4 or 5 times more calories than the white fish broiled

Canned fish packed in oil has double the calories and more than 5 times the fat of the same fish packed in water. Even though water-packed fish is lower in calories it is usually not lower in sodium. Both oil packed and water packed versions are high in sodium chloride, or salt.

A large portion of the salt that is added in processing can be removed by rinsing and draining the fish in a sieve or colander. Rinsing will not remove the other valuable nutri-

Some manufacturers have begun to eliminate salt by offering tuna with about half the sodium. If you're on a lowsodium diet, beware of smoked or dried fish because it is preserved with salt. Otherwise. fresh fish, in general is quite low in sodium.

Indian's last meal may provide clues to a vanished culture

COLLEGE STATION — The last meal of an Indian man who died about 1,000 years ago could provide an important new clue to why a lost civilization vanished in New Mexico long before white explorers came, says a Texas A&M University archaeologist.

The meal - a gruel-like mixture of ground corn and seeds with a broth brewed from mustard plants - was determined from fossilized human waste recently discovered at a burial site near Silver City in western New Mexico, part of six ruins excavated by Texas A&M and the Earth Watch organization since

Stone remains of a rudimentary irrigation system used before Spaniards came to New Mexico were also found in a nearby valley, said Texas A&M researcher Dr. Harry Shafer.

The Indian was in his late 30s or 40s when he died and apparently was a part of the lost Mimbres culture, said re-

Texas Farmers Union president Joe Rankin today condemned the action of the U.S. House of Representatives on the 1985 Farm Bill. The House killed a committee bill, spon-sored by Rep. Berley W. Bedell (D-Iowa) that called for a referendum among wheat and feed grain farmers to cutting production as a means of boosting domestic prices and reducing surpluses.

"The farm policy makers in Washington had the opportunity to relieve the financial crunch facing the family farmer and they blew it," said Rankin. "Now farmers may not even be sources for relief because of the pants. pending failure of the Farm Credit System. We're not going to support a bail out of the Farm Credit System without a 1985 Farm Bill that provides for threatens farm economy. improved agricultural income. It seems Congress would rather bail out farm banks down the road than to lend a helping hand now to the farm families that put food on their tables."

The Bedell plan was a grassroots movement backed by the Texas Farmers Union which would have gone into effect only if 60 percent of the wheat and corn farmers had voted for it in a nationwide referendum.

Rankin further sited the plan as a "viable alternative to the Reagan Administration plan to 'ratchet down' support levels to 'market-clearing' levels." He said the Bedell approach would have handed farmers the management tool needed to substantially bolster wheat and corn prices. "Farmers were crying for a shot at democracy; able to turn to their lending instead, they got a kick in the

Unsigned Letter Sent Officials; Chief Answers

(Editor's note: Although The Journal has a long-standing policy of 'NOT' printing letters to the editor which are unsigned, a letter was received in The Journal offices Monday morning. The hand printed letter was also sent to many local officials, including Muleshoe City Police Chief Les Irvin. Chief Irvin answers the unsigned letter with the following response:)

Dear B.A.,

Thank you for your letter on the subject that is my "pet Peeve", children driving with-out a drivers license.

No person under the age of 18 may obtain a drivers license unless he or she is at least 16 years old and has completed and passed an approved driver training course. There is no "hardship license available.

I am aware that there are unlicensed minors driving our streets in violation of this law, but let me assure you that the Muleshoe Police Department is enforcing the law within the limits set upon us by the state law. In the context of traffic law violations, an officer may only stop a vehicle he has observed violating the law, for example, running a stop sign. We may not stop vehicles selectively to check for drivers license unless we have personal knowledge

Muleshoe Area Retired Teachers Association Meets

The Muleshoe Area Retired Teachers Association met at the Muleshoe State Bank Community Room Friday, October 18, at 3:00 p.m. Members were served lime sherbert punch as they arrived.

Mrs. Maxine Ragsdale, president, called the meeting to order with the Pledge of Allegiance to the National Flag. Following a short business meeting a program was given by Mrs. Lois Witherspoon. It consisted of a word and picture tour of the Hearst Castle.

Members present were: Mrs. Mary Louise Thaxton, Mrs. Pauline Guinn. Mrs. Jean Moore, Miss Margie Moore, Mrs. Lois Witherspoon, Mrs. Josephine Mitchell, Mrs. Mary B. Obenhaus, Mrs. Lena Hawkins, and Mrs. Maxine Ragsdale.

The next meeting will be November 15 at the Bank Community Room.

that the driver is unlicensed. If you did not know a child's age, could you tell the difference between a 15 year old and a 16 year old just by looking?

When an officer stops a child for driving without a license, he is brought to the station where he is issued a ticket for the offense and his parents are called to the station to pick him up. On the second offense the parent is also issued a ticket for allowing an unlicensed person to operate their vehicle. Each offense carries a maximum fine of $200.00 plus court costs.

Parents should also be aware that their insurance may not cover their unlicensed children when they are driving and may also result in a canceled policy if a claim is filed.

These laws are not written to punish young drivers, but to achieve a level of maturity and dependability in people who are driving two ton death machines on our highways. The age the state has picked as a minimum is 16 years old. Your child may be able to handle the responsibility at 14 while another may not till he is 18. Some are never able to do so, however, there must be a place to say "this is the line" and in Texas that line is 16 years old with a driver education certificate.

As to city and county officials' underaged children driving without a license, I do not have knowledge of this happening. If you do, I would suggest that you make your feelings known by contacting those officials, the City Council (if a City employee) or the County Commissioners (if a County employee). If this action doesn't prove satisfactory then please contact me.

I hope I have answered your questions satisfactorily. If you have further questions please feel free to contact me at 213 ·East Avenue B or 272-4569.

Again let me assure you that these and all other laws will be enforced by this department.

Sincerely,

Chief of Police Muleshoe Police Department

GET ZINC FROM FOOD--Zinc is an essential element in the diet, but not necessarily one you need to get from a pill. Zinc is available in a wide variety of foods including red meat, liver, poultry, eggs and seafood, says Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension Service nutritionist Dr. Alice Hunt. She says zinc is also found in whole grain products like whole wheat or rye bread, oatmeal and whole corn, although it's in a form that is less available to the body than the zinc contained in meat. For example, two 3 1/2 ounce servings of red meat, 2 slices of whole wheat bread and an egg will meet an adult's daily zinc requirement.

Rotary Hosts Guest Speaker On Amendments

Two upcoming amendments were the topic of discussion for the Muleshoe Rotary Club Tuesday afternoon, when Kathy Redeker, editor of The Cross Section, was Rotary speaker. The Cross Section is a publication of the High Plains Underground Water District, headquartered in Lubbock.

Ms. Redeker was explaining the importance to everyone on the South Plains and in the Panhandle the two amendments to be voted on in the general election on November 5.

She said, "passage of Constitutional Amendment No. 1 in the general election, could provide a source of low-cost funding for many towns and cities throughout the state as they look at their wastewater treatment and handling needs and at assuring their residents of an adequate, good quality water supply.

"Additionally, voter approval of this constitutional amendment and the resultant availability of low-cost funding sources has the potential to save the residents of these cities and towns a considerable amount of money."

According to Ms. Redeker, no city has ever defaulted on a loan from the Texas Water Development Board.

Also, for Amendment No. Two, if also passed, the board of directors of the High Plains Underground Water District has agreed to apply for $1 million in loans from the Pilot Loan fund, and will in turn, loan the money to irrigators in their local service area.

She said that in the last election for water amendments, the amendments were defeated statewide by only 5,000 votes. This was attributed in part, to a very low turnout of voters on the High Plains. If people had turned out to vote for this most important issue, the 5,000 vote deficit could have easily been overcome.

Bailey County Judge Gordon H. Green was in charge of the program for the day.

Guests at Rotary included Pete Perez and Melissa Martel.

WILL BAILEY COUNTY HAVE GOOD ROADS

time Bailey County is giving serious consideration to hard serfaced highways. With an ever increasing cost of maintenance of our dirt highways this phase of highway work has become a problem. With the proper kind of hard serfaced highways maintenance becomes almost negligible.

We all know what it means to communities to be on good highways. This is the day of increasing automobile traffic. The highways of Bailey County have had much to do with the settling up of the county. They will do more if they are better.

The Journal is very anxious to learn how strong the people of Bailey County are for hardserfaced roads. In the next few days we will mail out cards to every tax payer in the county and will take a straw vote for or against hardsurfacing the two main highways.

When you receive the card, vote and send it back to the Journal. This will give us an idea of how many of the people are in favor of the hardsurfacing. We are willing to abide with the majority.

Install Locks For Safety And Lower Insurance

Simply adding locks to your doors and windows may do more for your security -- and your pocketbook -- than an elaborate burglary alarm sy-

"Before buying expensive gadgets and alarms, secure the critical points of entry into your home." advises Dr. Peggy Owens, a housing specialist with the Texas A&M University

Agricultural Extension Service.
"With a relatively small investment, you can make the job of getting inside so tough, time-consuming and risky that most would-be intruders won't consider it worth the effort,"

Better quality locks may cost a little more, but will provide tighter security. Whatever you pay for added locks, it's a small price when compared to the cost of the televisions, silver, videorecorders, computers and other consumer goods burglars are likely to take, Owens points out.

According to Dr. J. Fred Cross, Extension community development specialist, installing locks can also qualify you for a five percent reduction in homeowner's insurance pre-

Portales Childrens Home Associates Make Quilt

Muleshoe Associates of the Portales Christian Childrens Home met Monday, October 7 in the home of Ethel Julian to quilt a quilt for the benefit of the home.

Members present included: Blanche Aubrey, Bernice Amerson, Marie Collum, Oneida Cornelison, Vickie Hendricks, Mabel Caldwell, Loraine Wilson, and the hostess, Ethel Julian.

Sandwiches, pineapple cake, chips and drinks were served. The next meeting is scheduled for the first Monday in

Cross says the following burglary prevention measures are required to qualify for the insurance reduction:

· Exterior doors must be of metal or solid wood at least 1 3/8 inches thick.

• The door must have a dead bolt lock with a bolt throw of at least one inch, that penetrates a metal strike plate. The lock must be key operated from both sides, if there is breakable glass within 40 inches of the lock.

· On double exterior doors, the inactive door must be secured at top and bottom by bolts into metal strike plates. If there is glass within 40 inches of the bolts, the bolts must be flush mounted in the edge of the door.

· Dutch doors must have concealed bolt locks to interlock the top and bottom and have a 1 inch throw dead bolt lock.

• Sliding glass doors must be secured by a secondary locking device that prevents lifting and

• Garage doors must be equipped with key operated

· All windows must have auxiliary locking devices, such as key operated locks, pinning devices, dowels or screws. Or you can substitute metal bars or grating for the extra locks.

To obtain the insurance reduction, a law enforcement officer certified as an inspector by the Texas Commission on Law Enforcement Officer Standards and Education must examine your home security. After the inspection, the State Board of Insurance will be notified that you meet the requirements, and you will receive a certificate from the board to take to your insurance agent for the premium reduction, Cross says.

Women Win Top Spots In Contest

Week seven of the annual Merchant's Football Contest is history, and once again, three different winners have emerged. Each of the winners missed five games, and were the only "

players to miss five games.
This week, the difference was in the tiebreaker scores. Marilyn Engelking was only 12 points off on the double tiebreaker score, to take first place. In second place was Buck Ragsdale, who was 15 points away and third place winner was Debbie Weir, who was 29 points away on the tiebreakers. Incidentally, this became a mother and daughter week, as Debbie Weir is the daughter of Mrs. Engelking.

Previously this year, both Mrs. Engelking's husband Richard, and Debbie's husband, Doyle, have been winners in the contest.

At this point, Donna Noriega is still leading the contest with 20 points, however, there are still a few weeks to go, and it's still a wide open contest.

Junior Class Fall Tradition Being Upheld

Imagine the night of the "big game;" the family is rushing to get ready and you look in the cupboard... Gasp!! It's empty, save a few cans of Spam and tuna fish. After racking your brain, and deciding it is hopeless to make anything original out of a processed meat spread, you get a sudden craving for melt-in-your-mouth turkey, with all the delectable trimmings.

Juniors are sponsoring the traditional Thanksgiving supper Friday, October 25, in the high school cafeteria. The meal includes turkey and dressing, with all the trimmings. Serving hours are between 5:00 and 7:00 P.M., and tickets are $4.00 for adults and $2.50 for children under 12. Tickets and take-out orders are available from any member of the junior class, and take-out orders may be ordered October 25th by calling 272-4360 anytime after 4:30.

J.V. Mules Top'Cats 6-0

Last Thursday the JV Mules played the Dimmitt Bobcats on their home field. The Mules, in an upsetting win over the Bobcats, came out on top in a 6-0 victory. A handoff in the third quarter from Johnny Garcia to Armando Del Toro gave the Mules the only score of the game. Coach Lonnie Scott commented that the defense played well throughout the game, and the offense played super in the second half.

The Mules next game will be at Tulia against the Hornets on Tulia's home field. We encourage everyone to go out and cheer the Mules on to another

From The Fellowship Class

Are You Guilty? by: Mike Holt Many times people do not get a second chance in life. They do not treat life as a serious game. People go around saying, "Oh, I've got to get around to it," and as a result people go to their grave with their music still in them.

To many times people go through life just barely getting along. It has been said we are just time bombs slowly ticking away. People should utilize every minute of every day.

People were put on earth not to live but to make a life. If people do not take advantage of the opportunities in life, they cannot build a successful life. If you don't start, it's certain you can't arrive. Man was born to win, but throughout a lifetime, as a result of our negative society, men are conditioned to lose. People simply say they can't because they have been told they can't. People need to stop and take a look at themselve. An in-depth look reveals considerably more than a casual glance. People do not realize the potential they possess. A poet stated it more succinctly when he wrote, "I hear and forget. I see and hear and I remember. However, when I see, hear and do, understand and succeed." If people will see their potential, listen to only positive en-couragement, and carry out their abilities, they will not go to their grave with their music still in them.

DON'T BE S.N.I.O. Ped IN LIFE by: Jennifer Green

Are you a S.N.I.O.P? Before you take offense, allow me to explain that a S.N.I.O.P is simply a person who is susceptible to negative input from other people. In today's society, that includes almost everyone because so much of what we hear is negative.

For instance, the terminology we use even sounds negative. The first piece of bread on the loaf is termed the "end." After someone has had a wreck, we say to call the "wrecker." Instead, we should say call the tow truck.

Keep in mind that your attitude will largely determine your outlook on life. Try to condition yourself into thinking positively. Above all, do not let yourself be caught feeding negative input into others! For, as you sow, so also shall you

MHS Junior Has Top Steer At State Fair

When Todd Bessire, junior MHS student, made the decision to take his cross-breed 4-H project, "Pace Racer," to the Texas State Fair in Dallas last week, winning Grand Champion was a distant, seemingly unlikely, possibility. But that is exactly what happened.

The road to the top started last Thursday when Todd's fourteen month old steer was named winner in his class of two hundred cross breed calves. Then, he was judged against the top winners of the other six classes, and named "Grand Champion" of the show. In less than three hours, the calf that had so often kicked at Todd, and stood on his toes, had made him very proud. "I was very surprised," says Todd about how he felt when the judge slapped his calf's rear and named him winner.

Todd had intended to be gone only one day from school, flying to Dallas and home again, but when things turned out the way they did he took another of his allowed ten days to be on hand to sell the prize winner. That sale only took about three minutes in the ring--the auctioner started the bidding at $3,000, then up to 10,000, then up another $500, then the buying bid.

After the auction, Pace Racer displayed the intellegence one might expect from a winner. H was placed in a small pen near the midway for display. He allowed adults to touch, even pet his ears, but would back away and snort at little hands, not so gentle.

Todd plans to use the sale money he received for his education, but will re-invest it in the mean time. All-in-all, not bad for a Muleshoe kid.

All of the soloists, including Steven Ethridge, felt that it was great to win, but they were nervous at first.

Although winning was great, it hasn't kept the band from working hard. The competitions are just beginning so a lot of hard work still needs to be done. The Mighty 'M' is excited about upcoming contests and hopes for more victories in the future. The next opportunity the band has to compete is Saturday, October26. The band will warm-up at 2:00 p.m. and play at 3:10 p.m. The band invites all of you to come out and support them this Saturday at Jones Stadium.!!

By: Dale Keeling

We felt as though the kids played extremely hard against Dimmitt on Friday night. Playing hard is not always enough, as the many mistakes we made took their toll very quickly. We had a great start, as we ran the opening kick-off back to near mid-field. After making a first down inside Dimmitt territory. we fumbled and lost the ball. One play later, they were leading 7-0. We never regained our composure after the shock of their long touchdown early in the game.

We were very proud of our Junior Varsity teams as they defeated a very tough Dimmitt team by the score of 6-0. Dimmitt was 5 and 1 coming into the game, so we felt the kids did a tremendous job on Thursday.

Ohio State Is Favored Saturday

It's been four years since Minnesota beat Ohio State, and that was only the 6th time the Gophers had beaten the Buckeves. Ohio State has won 23 times. The football turn-around at Minnesota under Coach Lou Holtz is fairly well known now, but not everyone knows just how big a change has taken place. Two years ago, while posting a 1-10 season, the Gophers gave up 518 points, the most points given up by any team playing football in 1983. Quite a feat! Back to the present. Ohio State was upset by Illinois, 31-28. Minnesota was beaten by Oklahoma, 13-7. The Gophers are at home, but visiting Ohio State is the favorite.

We're always reluctant to exercise "bragging rights" about our forecasting average simply because when we do, we frequently get slapped down the following Saturday. However, we'll take our chances. Two weeks ago, on October 12th, with crystall ball shining brightly, we picked 144 winners out of 173 games for an .832 average. This adjusted our season totals to 800 right, 289 wrong, and 21 ties for an average of .735 Now watch the upsets roll in!

Joe Paterno's Penn State Nittany Lions are proving to be a surprise powerhouse. They've upset both Maryland and Alabama on a national level, and have kept pace with Army among Eastern independents, beating Temple and Rutgers. Penn State hosts West Virginia Saturday, and since the Mountaineer's clipped the Lions 17-14 last fall, this will be a revenge match-up. Favorite, Penn State.

entertains Notre Dame Southern California in the second of four successive home games. For the Irish, this is another "do-er-or die-r".. Notre Dame and Coach Gerry Faust should "do-er" it -barely.

Georgia should squeeze by upstart Kentucky in the Southeast Conference, S.M.U. will nudge Texas in the Southwest Conference, and Arizona. 2-0 in the Pac-10 Conference, is favored over Stanford.

AND--THE BRIDGE WON--Late Friday night, this pickup left the roadway west of Muleshoe on the West Camp Road, traveled down a ditch before hitting a bridge across the deep ditch. The bridge, made of rail ties, was scattered far down the ditch. The driver did not receive any major injuries, although his vehicle was totally destroyed.

SANDHILLS PHILOSOPHER

CONTRACTOR Editor's note: The Sandhills Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Sandy Acres comes up with an odd idea for helping the national economy.

Dear editor:

A prominent economist who achieved prominence by guessing on which way the economy was going last year says the way to avoid a downswing this year is to increase consumer Most consumers I know would be glad to spend more if somebody'd tell them how. Since economists won't, I'll take on the job myself. I got the idea from Congress.

As everybody knows, when the government wants to spend more, Congress obliges by raising the debt ceiling. It has been raised so high so often the support beams are beginning to

The consumers of this nation, in a patriotic fervor to keep the prosperity ball rolling, should vote to raise the credit limit on their individual credit cards. If your credit card says you can charge up to $1,000 and you've already done that and still want to avoid an economic downswing by increasing consumer spending, raise it to $2,000 and get going.

And there's another way. Some people order stuff from catalogs by using money orders. The post office is glad to sell you a money order and doesn't ask what you want to buy with it. But the money order business hasn't come to the 20th century. It could double, triple and maybe quadruple its business if it'd sell money orders on the installment plan. Ten dollars down on a $100 money order with 36 months to pay.

You could then take the $100 and make a downpayment on a $1,000 catalog item, and consumer spending, like government spending, could go through the ceiling.

Yours faithfully, J.A.

Cotton Moduling Must Done Right To Last

acceptance of the module builder is a vast improvement over handle before the moisture the conventional cotton trailer damages the lint and seed, he for gathering and storing the harvested crop and provides potential benefits for both producers and ginners, says a cotton specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. But the system has to be used properly, he cautioned.

Properly used, moduling systems complete the mechanization of seed cotton handling from the stalk to the bale, said Dr. James Supak, the Extension specialist. They help maintain the quantity and quality of the seed cotton, increase efficiency of handling and ultimately reduce costs, he explained.

"These factors play an important role in determining the profitability of cotton production and ginning on the Texas High Plains," he said.

Supak stressed several considerations to help producers gain maximum benefit from their moduling systems.

The first is to make sure the plants are properly dried, either by a killing frost or use of desiccants, so that the cotton in the modules has only eight to 12 percent moisture and less than four percent green leaf.

"Since the harvest season on the Plains is normally characterized by dry weather, many modules aren't covered with tarpaulins," the cotton agronomist said. Snow or rain on uncovered modules can en-

"For this reason, it is now recommended that all modules be tarped," he noted.

To prevent moisture from rain or snow from penetrating the module, seed cotton has to be compressed uniformly during the moduling, he said. for another six on a 3 yard run. The second quarter wasn't much better for the Steers as Williams intercepted a pass from Steers' quarterback, David Woods, and ran it back 37 yards for a touchdown. The two-point conversion was good on a pass from Brent Kirkland to Jeff Kinnie. The Hornets led at halftime 21-0.

Brent Kirkland scurried in the endzone from the 2 with 6:59 left on the clock in the third period. Manuel Limon put the ball throught the uprights as Sudan now led 28-0. The Steers did get on the board when David Woods ran 30 yards for six points and then he added the two-point conversion with 8:10 left in the 4th quarter. This was the only score for Farwell as Sudan clinched a 28-8 win.

The Hornets finished the night out with 269 total yardage, 91 of that being passing. Brad Smith caught a pass from Kirkland for a 26 yard gain. Kirkland and Kinnie connected 3 times for 63 yards.

Gordon Martin rushed for 55 yards and Ronald Williams and Johnny Taylor ran for 58

The defensive unit did another spectacular job as they held the Steers to 162 yards. The Hornets also caused 4 fumbles which were recovered by Lee Bartley, Abel Perales, Johnny Montez, and Bobby Murrillo. Ronald Williams had 2 interceptions. Mike May and Johnny Montez led the tackles with 9. Charles Kessler, Dean Richards, and Gordon Martin all tied with 7 tackles.

Even though the Farwell win was very important the Hornets know the most important games are coming up.

'Last week we beat Farwell which was an important game for us to win. But we can't get to confident and let up going into district play," comments senior Mike May.

The second district game for the Hornets will be Anton. The Hornets will host the Bulldogs at 7:30 p.m. on October 18. Kyle Swanson, a 6-0 190 pound senior, and Freddy Lopez (5-11, 170 senior) will lead the Bulldogs' running attack. Curt Zant (5-11, 185), Mando Gonzales (5-6, 180), and Tony Abete (5-9, 200), all seniors, will help on the line. Also up front will be juniors Darrell Parson (5-7, 145) and Darrell Bradley (6-0, 225).

In the quarterback position is 210-pound sophomore Trevor Edgemon. On the receiving end will be seniors Kirk Carlisle, who is 5-10 and 140 pounds, and Joe Sanchez (5-10, 170). Dale Sanchez a 5-10, 170 pound junior, will also be thrown the

So far this year the Hornets have a total of 1629 yards, 473 passing. The Hornets' defense has held their opponents to 218 yards per game . Ronald Williams has 456 rushing yards and Gordon Martin has 394 yards. Brent Kirland has passed for 416 yards and Jeff Kinnie has caught 8 passes for 175 yards. Ronald Williams has made 42 points and Brent Kirland-24.

All of these statistics have put these Hornets into the area high school leaders from area 1A 15. Misc.

There is a need to look back occasionally to get our bearings for the future. Past experiences often guide future action. What has proved good and profitable in the past will often prove to be the same in the days ahead. Serving God and our country through our churches and through civil and community service has always elevated us as a people and contributed to our image as a free and just country. We will not go wrong in adhering to these practices.

for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.
