senate was that presented by the Reyistas, whose chief claim was that the condition of the county was too near anarchy to warrant the holding of elections on the date fixed.

Little time was used by the senators in discussing the petition. Between Maderistas and anti-Maderistas the audience appeared about evenly divided. Those speaking against the petition argued that the state of aflairs was not so bad as what might follow an alteration in the electoral plans, openly expressing the belief that civil war might be expected as the result.

Francisco Bulges, one of the most pronounced of the anti-Maderistas group, declared that the chamber had no right to change the election date, that the majority should al ways rule and that it was evident that the majority wanted to name Madero president and that as soon as possible.

"Five Hundred" Party.

Mrs. Brooks was the charming hostess at a delightful morning party given Wednesday from nine to twelve, out to her pretty home two miles west of the city. The house was prettily decorated in cut flowers. "Five Hundred" was played. At noon a most delicious three course luncheon was served. Covers were laid for thirteen, each guest was given a beautiful bouquet of flowers. This was a very pretty affair and those present en joyed a royal good time.

Mrs. Wright Entertains.

During the afternoon delicious punch was served and later in the afternoon an ice course.

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION

An Enthusiastic Meeting and Most right of way matters must be Perfect Harmony Prevails.

The Eddy county democratic convention met Thursday as Carlsbad. The utmost har mony prevailed and the gathering was an enthusiastic one. Democrats from all sections of the country were there and each gave encouraging news as to democratic success at the November election.

The following delegates were selected to attend the state democratic convention to meet at Santa Fe next Tuesday:

Scott Etter, G. U. McCrary, L. Emerson, J. G. Warner, J. M. Wood, A. C. Heard, E. J. Davis, R. E. Dick, J. H. Jackson and Getzenweller.

I am not a candidate for or against Carlsbad, Artesia, the Plains or any other section of Eddy county, but for the entire county and if elected will represent Eddy county as a whole and not any section thereof.

As to the matter of county division, whenever the people of Eddy county desire it, I am for it, and not until that time.

I believe in good roads, efficient schools, and equal, fair and just opportunities and privileges for every section of Eddy county.

Last Thursday night a most delightful little entertainment for about fifty friends was given by Prof. Webster, the music teacher of Western College, and some of his advanced pupils. Tenor solos, soprano solos, chorus and piano and violin music were the musical features. A witty and excellently rendered reading by Miss Hamilton, teacher of expression, was loudly applauded by the delighted audience. Mr. Webster's apartments were beautifully decorated and all were delighted with evening's entertainment.

P. F. B. Banquet.

The jolly good fellows of the P. F. B. met Thursday night at 10o'clock for a formal banquet, and a jolly good time at Hotel Hardwick Cafe. All the members were present and the evening was spent most pleasantly. Wally Ong the congenial manager of the cafe fixed the goodies and was complimentdd by all. The menu for a $2.00 per plate luncheon was as follows and was certainly complimented by all.

Cold Roast Pork Roast Beef Spring Fried Chicken Pickled Tongue Creme Gravv

Celery Pickles Potato Salad Chicken Salad Lemon Pie Mince Pie American Cheese

Grape Punch Marble Cake French Coffee.

The members present were Major Patrick, Noble Brainard, Ed Williamson, K. D. Erb, Arthur Gooper, H. J. Mendenhalt, (Hub), Horace William Harper, and Russell Hardwick.

After luncheon was served each member made a speech, the president made the first speech, after which he chose the next speaker and gave him a subject. This was done until each member had taken his ing that a great complex com- turn. Major Patrick, presi- for the Democratic nomination as bination of corporations under dent, spoke first, his subject a centralized control, dominat- being "The good fellowship of ing the trade of the country in the P. All enjoyed a pleasant evening and complimented Wally on the luncheon served.

Santa Fe Boosting Pecos Valley.

The Santa Fe is doing considerable systematic advertising for the Pecos Valley. The periodicals used have a combined circulation of 4,262,500 copies and include almost every class of publication, consequently it is expected to reach a varied number of people who are seeking homes.

Mr. J. Brinker general passenger agent of the Santa Fe favored the Advocate with sample' copies of several of these publications containing the advertisement for Pecos Valley. This ad occupies a space of five inches double column and it contains matter that will most surely attract the home-seeker and investor.

Shipped a Carload of Horses.

Messrs. Russell & Farrell, who own one of the largest horse ranches in this part of the southwest, shipped out two car loads of fine three year old fillies to Louisiana, last Friday morning. They were all in fine condition, which speaks well for the range southwest of here where the numerous local showers have kept the grass in fine growing condition. Mr. Farrall reports that the open range in that part of the country as being better than it has been at this season of the year for many years past.-Carlsbad
