

COMMERCIAL CLUB MET MONDAY NIGHT

Organization Shaping Into Perfection—Gaining New Members Rapidly

The Chamber of Commerce met Monday evening in the city hall. After checking up a number of new members, discussions by a number of members revealed several needed improvements. One especially was the condition of the roads leading to and from our city. A committee was appointed to confer with the proper authorities and see that the roads are rid of the mud holes, etc. The following from our fellow townsman, Mr. Hanna, we thought worthy of publication:

The mud holes in the local roads are not caused by the natural rain fall but by the overflow of Eagle Draw. Therefore we must take care of Eagle Draw before we can keep up the roads. The roads have been graded just enough so that when the draw comes down, it takes grade, road and all with it.

The farmers living near the road or street that the main current of Eagle washes through take care of most of the water by turning it into their fields before it reaches town. If they had not done this, these last few rises in Eagle Draw would have come down thru Artesia and made the people take notice. It would have probably been a good thing if it had been turned loose to wake the city up so they would do something.

Some of the mud holes caused by the overflow of Eagle Draw are so bad that one couldn't get thru them with a government mule. There are such holes on every road leading into town and several of the farmers, unable to get into Artesia, have followed good roads to nearby towns to get their supplies, so it behooves us to take care of the Eagle and we must have the help and co-operation of the City and Road Commission.

Our President, Mr. Jackson, had the following to say:

Every person who accepts a place of trust or responsibility should take it seriously and go to the work with vim and determination, but we are all apt to play sometimes. Let us all pull together and each do his part and in such co-operative work, we will not fail to accomplish what we set out to do. All the Commercial Clubs of this community must combine efforts and get up many inducements and go after their work as if they knew they were going to put it thru.

We have as many farms, ranches, railroads and other resources and conveniences as any other community city and if we all pull together, we can make our town grow in population and along all other lines.

A certain man once offered each of his two sons a prize if they could break a bundle of twigs or sticks that were tied around with a twine. Each tried to break the bundle of sticks but failed and the father took the bundle, untied the string and broke the sticks one at a time. So here is a lesson for us; we must be united for strength. We appreciate the hearty co-operation all members of the Club have expressed.

There were various other committees appointed from which we expect to hear good results from soon. One was the appointment of a committee, made after a few remarks by our excellent health officer, Dr. Russell, on cleaning up Artesia and making it an ideal city. We are looking forward to that day.

The following from the pen of Col. Wm. C. Hunter may be the means of YOU becoming a member of the Artesia Chamber of Commerce, thereby gaining your compensation for doing good or bad:

"You will have to pay for everything you get in this world. You will get pay for everything you do in this world."

You will get paid good for good and bad for bad, and never good for bad or bad for good.

You may eat first and pay later, or you may pay first and eat later, but it is certain whether you eat first or pay first you must pay.

We will get reward for good and punishment for bad, and that reward or punishment is given right here on earth."

The above paragraphs refers to every citizen of Artesia and vicinity—it spares none. It is not unlike the Judgement Day, we are all bound to be held for an accounting on that great day. We are all being held responsible today—not tomorrow—for the betterment of Artesia and vicinity.

What will your compensation be? Do you expect your neighbor across the way to gain the good or bad compensation for you?

Come out next Monday evening and join the town boosters, we need YOU.

HE SAW THE LIGHT.

Alderman C. O. Brown returned Sunday from a visit to relatives in Kingman, Kansas. Mr. Brown said that his old town had not changed but little in twenty years, the population being practically the same, that it had not progressed in any way. He also informed us that he changed cars at Harper and with his brother-in-law rode over the recently constructed paved streets and said they were fine and the town was an up to date place with a new white way, sewerage system, fine water-works system, paved streets, and a clean town, all owned by the city making it one that appealed to anyone. Now Mr. Brown the editor happened to live in this little city of Harper a number of years and just three years ago this said city was 1150 population and since these spoken of improvements the city is now nearly 2000. Moral—dear Artesian—why not.

ROADS.

The last few days the writer has heard similar remarks as this by farmers and travelers from various parts of the country. "The roads near Artesia need fixing up and if they are not made so we farmers can get to town we are going to trade elsewhere." Now there are a number of places close to the city, specially south on that road toward Lakewood that the Carlsbad Chamber of Commerce says is the best in the county. There have been dozens of autos stuck in several places on this road of late. These roads can and should be repaired so they are passable at least and the proper authorities should be notified and give this vicinity what is justly coming to us.

LATER—The secretary of the Chamber has received word from Engineer Davidson that he would soon be in the vicinity of Artesia with a force of men to repair the above referred to mud holes. He says he is doing all in his power to fix the roads but has a big job on his hands as the floods of late has the roads in the worse condition they have been for years.

In The Mud Two Hours.

A farmer from south of the city said you can tell the Carlsbad Chamber of Commerce that if they come to Artesia soon they had better ride the "burro" as it took one man that lives south of Carlsbad, two hours with the aid of four horses and several men to get out of the mud hole on that best road in the county between here and Lakewood. The man referred to lives on that second best road below Carlsbad.

DIED.

T. J. Summers, 72 years old died last Saturday at the home of his son Jack, who resides on the A. D. Hill farm on Upper Cottonwood. He had been a resident of this county for six or seven years. He was a member of the Lake Arthur Masonic Lodge, that organization having charge of the burying, interment being in Woodbine cemetery, Artesia.

MORALS AND PAVED STREETS

What might in some respects apply to Artesia can be learned by reading the following from Judge W. H. Todhunter of Middleton, Ohio. Read it! It may help you to see the light of a better day:

To the average individual there may seem to be no direct connection between paved streets and public and private morals, but Judge W. H. Todhunter of the municipal court contends that there is a vital relation between clean, paved, well-lighted and well-drained streets and good morals.

The demi-monde gathers in the dark corners, the judge contends. Disorderly houses are located on some little frequented, inaccessible street, unexposed to the constant view of passers-by. In the dark places the bootlegger, the gambler and the panderer flourish, he says, and when a street finally is improved by paving, installing street lights, making it desirable as a residence district, the creatures of darkness fold their tents and seek some less public part of town.

The judge was referring concretely to South Garfield avenue. For some time it has been the most notorious part of town. There flourished half a dozen low dives, the patronage of which was drawn from the lowest strata, white and black, of the whole community. Dreadful orgies took place there was violence every little while, and the police even now are forced to keep a close watch upon some of the soft drink parlors and pool rooms of that vicinity lest violence of some sort break out unexpectedly.

Garfield avenue should be paved clear through to connect with South Yankee road, Judge Todhunter believes, it then would be a connecting thoroughfare from South Yankee road, one of the principal entries into the city to Third street, near the business center.

Cafvry cemetery prevents extending the street straight through to Tytus avenue, so the northern limit of Garfield avenue as a diagonal artery of traffic from the south will be Third street at least for many years to come.

There is much wisdom in Judge Todhunter's suggestion. The churches of Middleton have made great efforts through establishment of a Union Mission in that locality to clean up the morals of South Garfield avenue. They have made great strides, but the swiftest way to clean up the district would be to improve it by paving, assessing the cost upon the abutting property holders. South Garfield would be an ideal residence district and affording a short-cut outlet to Yankee road would build up rapidly and the last danger spot in the city would be wiped out.

Since the departure of D. Popp and his lieutenants the region in the vicinity of Del and Garfield avenues has been quieter, but there always lurks the possibility for trouble in an unimproved locality of that sort.

NEW LAW CUTS DOWN NEW MEXICO'S SHARE FOR FEDERAL HIGHWAYS

Santa Fe, N. M., June 27.—New Mexico with other western states has won the fight to have federal highway aid apportioned to the states in proportion to the area of federal lands, in each, according to a telegram received by State Highway Engineer, Gillette today from Congressman Montoya advising of the passage by both houses of the Doll highway bill. In New Mexico instead of matching federal appropriations fifty-fifty, under the new measure the proportion will be 28 to 72 or 38 to 62, depending on whether or not the national forests and Indian reservations are included in the basis for the New Mexico apportionment.

LIKE A DIAMOND IN A MUD HOLE.

The H. M. B. Company are building the Ozark Trail Monument this week and are doing a fine job. It is located at the corner of the L. P. Evans establishment.

It will be twenty feet high with electric lights on the top and will guide the traveler through our city. Now why not pave our streets and have a good appearance around?

Oscar Jacobson was down from Roswell last week.

OIL NEWS

The operations of the different companies drilling for oil in the Artesia field are practically the same as reported last week. The drills continue to go down and satisfactory progress is being made. There seems to be a spirit of optimism among the operators that may foreshadow future events. Three or four of the wells are reaching interesting depths and it would not surprise the Advocate if a producer was brought in at any time.

Several of the wells in the lower valley drilling on the east side of the Pecos river have encountered deposits of potash. One well in Crane county is reported to have passed through a 200 foot deposit of potash that runs 16 per cent. This is said by one of the Texas geologists to be the largest deposit of potash ever discovered. This fact adds interest to the development east of the Pecos as there are numerous salt lakes and salt deposits east of the Pecos.

There is a persistent rumor afloat to the effect that the Dutch Shell interests are negotiating a deal to take over the National Exploration Company with its vast holdings.

BELL DISCOVERY WELL AGAIN PRODUCING OIL.

An excellent showing in the Bell No. 1, and the announcement of the early start of two new operations in the Pecos territory features the oil news of the past week in the Pecos territory.

The oil in the Bell well, the second found within a week, stood for fifty feet in the hole on Thursday after the bit had penetrated four feet into an oil saturated line, but indications at that depth indicated that the drill was about to pass through that oil formation.

The first showing was had at 1890 feet last Friday, when about two feet of oil bearing formation was passed through. This yielded a small quantity of oil. At 1900 the bit struck the latter showing, and several bailers of a high grade green oil, apparently of high grade gasoline content was bailed from the hole.

Drilling operations were stopped except for the daylight shift in order to more thoroughly analyze the formations and bailings were frequent. The general belief of the operators and the crew is that these showings are not the production that may be expected, but that they are indications of bigger production below. There was considerable gas with the second showing, and its condition was such that it was believed that a good well could be obtained by shooting the thin stratum if necessary.—Pecos Times.

The Old Wagon Yard To Go—Thanks.

The old wagon yard at the back of the new postoffice will be eliminated next Tuesday. A committee from the Chamber of Commerce met with the council Tuesday evening to co-operate with the city officials in a clean up of the city. Among one of the things the council brought up was the elimination of the old wagon yard. On Tuesday morning all those who wish this place cleaned up come out and lend a hand. This place will soon be one of the beauty spots of the city, as the ladies of the W. C. T. U. are contemplating making a park on this site. Let's help the ladies fix up!

If you want a rep For kindly deeds For the love o' Mike Please cut your weeds. —Barber County Index.

Band Concert.

There will be a band concert Friday evening, July 15. The boys are giving us some fine music, so come out and give them encouragement by your presence.

CLOUDY WEATHER GENERAL SHOWERS

As the weather man would say, "Continued cloudy weather with intermittent precipitation" has prevailed in Eddy county for the greater part of the past two weeks.

The crops have grown so fast that all are assured now, without further rainfall or irrigation. A big crop of milo maize, kaffir corn, Indian corn, sorghum and millet will be raised in the Artesia district. Plenty of stock water in the natural lakes of Eddy county. There is going to be all the stuff that the farmers can gather and a cash market for every ton of feed raised by reason of failure to raise feed crops in other sections of the county.

It never rains but it pours.

WILL SOON HAVE NEW POST OFFICE READY.

In conversation with Mr. Hise we were informed that the fixtures for the new postoffice room have arrived and there is a force of men at work placing same in position. The office will move to the new location on the nineteenth of this month.

The fixtures are all steel and are the most up-to-date in the state and Artesia should no doubt and is proud of the new office. It is located in the south part of the Hise building at the corner of the alley. It is very gratifying to the patrons to know we will soon have a nice clean place to get our mail.

WINGFIELD-STORY.

The beautiful lovers lane east of Roswell was the scene of a wedding of interest to Artesians last Monday morning. The bridal couple, Mr. Louis Story and Miss Merle Wingfield, taking with them the Rev. Dr. Mathes and accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Roselle, started in the early morning hours Monday for that sylvan retreat, where the marriage ceremony was performed under one of the stately trees and to the accompaniment of bird song. For the ceremony the bride wore a beautiful blue gown with picture hat and carried a bouquet of brides' roses. Following a wedding breakfast in Roswell the happy couple departed by auto for a honeymoon trip to Clouderoff and El Paso. On their return they will be at home in the Corbin house on west Main street.

The marriage of Mr. Story and Miss Wingfield unites two of our most estimable young people. Mr. Story is one of our successful young business men and his bride is an active member of the Presbyterian church and Rebekah lodge. Their numerous friends join in congratulations and best wishes.

Bullock-Feather.

A pretty home wedding occurred at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Bullock Wednesday evening at seven o'clock when Miss Mary Sue Bullock became the bride of Mr. Landis Feather.

To the strains of Mandelsohn's wedding march, played by Miss Jessie Glenn Bullock, the bride, charming in a dainty white organ-die dress and carrying a bouquet of bride's roses, entered the parlor on the arm of her father and was met by the groom and the minister, the Rev. R. F. Davis. The beautiful ring ceremony was used, the tiny sister of the bride, Laura Elizabeth, bearing the ring on a white satin pillow. The parlors were beautifully adorned with roses, daisies and potted plants.

Only the two families witnessed the ceremony which united these young people, who are considered among Artesia's most substantial and promising young folks.

The groom has held a responsible position in the First National Bank for a number of years and like his bride is active in the work of the Methodist church and Sunday School of which both are members.

Immediately following the ceremony they left by auto for a short honeymoon trip after which they will go to hoteekeeping in the Drake bungalow on Main street.

COUNCIL ORDERED A GENERAL CLEAN UP

The city council met last evening and ordered a clean up of the city. All those who do not cut their weeds, clean up their alley ways, rid them of tin cans, rubbish, etc., will be dealt with according to law. The city marshal has his instructions to see that this is done for the benefit of the health of the city. There is no doubt about this order meeting with the approval of the citizens as a whole.

The council also ordered all out buildings condemned, and all holes filled up. This is another one of the fine orders that will be enforced to the letter by our city officials.

Now this order is fine and it meets the wishes of nearly all our citizens. But here is one thing that may prevent our city from having an epidemic of typhoid fever and that is for the city to put in that sewerage system, now. It will be cheaper than to put in cess pools as all property owners will be compelled to do when the change is made. It will be cheaper for the property owner to pay his or her little share on a twenty year bond issue than to dig up the price of a cess pool that will meet the requirement of the law, if there is a law that you can put in a cess pool in a town the size of Artesia and have it sanitary. Why not go a little further and protect our citizenship by reaching out into the resident part of our city? If it is good for the business center of the city it is also good for the people in the resident district.

"Old Subscriber: Finding a spider in your paper was neither good luck nor bad luck for you. The spider was merely looking over our paper to see which merchant is not advertising, so that he can go to that store, spin his web across the door and lead a life of undisturbed peace ever afterwards."

The recent forest fires in the Zuni mountains proved to be very disastrous. Some twenty-five thousand acres of land, partly timbered, was burned over. It was stated that had rains not set in it would have required at least 200 men to have put the fires out. The estimated damage was placed at between $40,000 and $45,000.— State Record.

NEW FIRESTONE TIRE UNIVERSAL IN ADAPTATION.

Considerable local interest has been aroused over the new types of truck tire on display at the Firestone agency. According to Mr. W. L. Wyman the new tire has caused quite a sensation in tire and truck circles.

It seems that from general opinion based on the performance of the different cushion tires on the market there is an impression that cushions can only be used on small trucks. The new Giant Cushion completely overthrows this theory for it can be adapted to any size truck from three fourths of a ton to seven and one-half tons. Also it can be used in every type of service Firestone experts say.

According to Mr. W. L. Wyman, the larger volume of rubber, extra width of tread and larger contact on the road, gives a low pressure and strain on the tire which makes it generate less heat and live longer. He further points out that this new giant Cushion with its cups, grooves and cross bars makes a Non-skid tread as nearly perfect as can be in a tire without air. Together with the familiar Firestone cushion shape these features keep down the tendency of the tire's edges breaking off, common with solids due to abuse by operators.

Being of S. A. E. Dimensions, built to carry heavy loads and able to protect the roads from abuse it is no wonder that production is already falling behind the sales of this new Giant Cushion.

Roswell Giants Still Winning.

The Roswell Giants won all three games played in Roswell last Friday Saturday and Sunday from the 90th Aero Squadron of Ft. Bliss, Texas. The Sunday game went fourteen innings before it was decided, the score being 1 to 0. Although, twirled for Roswell, allowing three hits. Ray Harper, for several years third baseman for the local team, now with Roswell at the same position, made the run for the Giants, getting a two bagger and scoring on a long fly to center. The Etz brothers are with Roswell again this year and they have the strongest lineup seen in years. The team recently made a road trip into Texas, playing seventeen games, winning all but three. They played the best teams in several Panhandle towns, never losing a series with any of the strong teams encountered.

INTOLERANCE

(Samuel H. Moore in Golden Rule Magazine) From the beginning the world over, there has ever been in evidence the unwillingness of some people to tolerate opinions or beliefs contrary to their own.

This is not in reference alone to religious opinions and beliefs, but it is likewise true in business, social and domestic life.

Much more real happiness could be found in the day's life and work if Christian people would learn to tolerate and respect the religious viewpoint of their neighbor.

Capital and Labor would get on better if both would unselfishly recognize the rights and feelings of the other, and then deal fairly with each other.

The Home and Social Life could be greatly improved and placed on a much higher plane if toleration were practiced in the "little things" that mean so much in life.

The Devil loves nothing better than intolerance, ignorance, selfishness and bigotry, because they dwarf the soul and make men stupid and uncharitable and likewise more susceptible to Satanic influence.

The task and triumph of Christianity is to make men and nations true, just and upright in all their dealings. Christianity is intended to be our guide or companion on life's journey—it stands for Culture, Pure Morals, Good Literature, Tolerance, Character, Unselfishness, Truth and Righteousness and fills the breast with immortal hopes in dying moments.

In the present day there seems to be a vast diversity of opinion regarding the merit of certain social reforms which, from time to time, are brought about by well meaning folk, and the question as to whether the motive behind all such reforms is tolerant, is obviously, a debatable one.

It is now current that Sunday Blue Laws are about to be suggested for the strict regulation of personal habits of all people on the Sabbath day.

We venture to predict that some such regulation may be necessary and wise, but let us have a care that intolerance does not creep in to the extent of requiring that mufflers be placed on canary birds so they cannot whistle or sing on the Sabbath.

If perchance, out of all the agitation, some form of Blue Laws quite so silly should develop, we say, "Oh! liberty, how many crimes are committed in thy name."

KILLING NEAR EL PASO GAP

Deputy Sheriff Dolph Shattuck was in Carlsbad Thursday, bringing in a Mexican, one Pascual Trizarray, who had surrendered to Shattuck, acknowledging he had killed a Frenchman named Juan Arreguy, at the Bostito sheep camp, about six miles from El Paso Gap, Otero county, Wednesday evening. The Mexican and Frenchman had indulged in a fight the day before, in which the Mexican was worsted, and according to the Mexican the Frenchman was coming for him again, this time with a razor, when he split the Frenchman's head with an ax, killing him. The Mexican surrendered to the deputy sheriff, who is an official of Eddy county, although the killing was done in Otero county. The Mexican was brought to Carlsbad and jailed, and the sheriff at Alamogordo notified, and the latter will come to Carlsbad and take the prisoner to Alamogordo. The parties to the killing are both sheep herders in the employ of Botisto.—Carlsbad Argus.

CROP CONDITIONS GOOD

The crop conditions in the north part of Eddy county are in excellent condition at this time. There being no damaging hail in this part of the county and cotton, alfalfa, wheat, oats and apples, are in excellent condition. The range has not been better in years. There will be several hundred cars of apples shipped from the north part of Eddy county, including the Hope Valley, this fall. There being quite a sprinkle of pears and peaches in this vicinity.

McKinley and Sound Money

It was the martyr President William McKinley who made the term "sound money" famous. President McKinley was a great believer in banks. He frequently advised his friends to bank their money.

A bank account is a cure for worry.

A HOME COURSE IN DOMESTIC SCIENCE

"Twenty Lessons in Domestic Science," by Marlon Cote Fisher has recently been received by us for review.

This is a complete advanced course in domestic science and home economics boiled down to meet the requirements of the housewife and student.

The entire course consists of twenty practical lessons—one hundred pages filled with the most valuable information the housewife can possess—heretofore taught only in domestic science schools.

Do you know the relative value of food, which fruits to use for cooking what purpose salads serve, the correct use of condiments, about proper kitchen equipments, about U. S. Government bulletins, how to reduce the high cost of living, how to promote and protect your own and your families health, how to make house-keeping simpler and more economical and pleasant by utilizing modern science in the home.

This book we note, is priced at $2 per copy and from what we understand it contains a complete $100.00 college course, condensed, and it is practically FREE to every interested housewife.

Write the Home Economics Department of the Calumet Baking Powder Co., 4100-28 Fillmore St., Chicago, Illinois, for full particulars regarding the book and how to secure it.

BEATS THE ICE BILL

Ice is an expensive luxury. And tending the refrigerator is downright drudgery.

You can end it for all time to come with a Gedwin Ice-less Cooler.

Even when the thermometer is hovering around 90 to 100 in the shade, the temperature inside a Gedwin ranges from 56 to 60 degrees—and without ice.

It's remarkable when you stop to think that the interior of the cooling chamber of the average ice box runs from 55 to 65 degrees.

Dice of Destiny

A Gamble for a strong Man's Soul, starring H. B. Warner and Lillian Rich. Human as a big hearted Policeman. Suspenseful as a Roll of Dice. Romantic as a honeymoon. Dramatic as an escape from jail. Merry as a peal of hearty laughter. A romance of a nimble fingered Jewel Thief, who finding the game not worth the candle, goes straight, plays fair, and how he does win your sympathy! A trip hammer drama whose blows hit hard on the heart. Friday night, together with episode No. 11, Double Adventure

Elsie Ferguson in "Witness for the Defense" brings to the screen one of the most sensational and yet, dramatic versions of the story by the famous playwright, A. E. W. Mason. Elsie, known as Stella Derrick is deeply in love with the son of a wealthy Englishman, who in return loves Stella most dearly, but a wire from her father who is in India, advising of his serious illness, Stella faltering between love and duty finally decides to go to her father. Dick agrees to await her return but on finding her father in rather straight circumstances is finally induced to marry a wealthy army officer, who in short abuses her and finally ends in the accidental death of her husband. Stella, who refuses to testify in her own behalf, is tried for the murder but at the crucial moment is exonerated and finally returns to find Dick still waiting. The climax will be reached Saturday night.

WHEN THE SHIP COMES IN.

We'll give the soldiers their bonus when our ship comes in. That seems to be the substance of the argument in Washington. We have not the ready cash, we could not sell the bonds, and we do not like to ask our war profiteers to hand over the money.

But the European powers, small and large, owe us something like eleven billions. And Cuba and Greece are the only countries that have paid us interest on the money we shoveled out so handsomely during the war. The other nations owe us over nine hundred million dollars in interest, past due. Senator Norris would pay the bonus with this accrued interest.

Yes, that's it. We'll pay the bonus when our ship comes in, loaded down with accrued interest on the European debt.

Even President Harding will be willing to pay the soldier bonus out of that nine hundred millions.

So, the boys will get their money when our ship comes in. When the cows come home, to use a more pastoral expression of the same time factor. When Bryan refuses to make a speech. When the street car company keeps its promises. But no sound financial adviser will advise the vets to borrow much money on the bonus prospect.—Wichita Eagle.

Dubuque, Ia.—Night riders cut four acres of corn on the farm of Peter Munster, in Moslem township, during the night and when Munster awoke today he found the corn withering in a hot sun. He and his family heard nothing during the night and were mystified with the speed and silence apparently used to cut the corn. There were evidences of the presence of a large party. This was the second time crops have been molested at night in Moslem township.

A Town's Solid Citizens

Church membership does not insure a man's honesty, integrity or kind-heartedness. But in every town the people who are relied upon to support the best interests of the community are usually those who are found in the church of their choice regularly on Sunday morning.

Go to Church Every Sunday

Why not emulate Christ's example and yourself go to church—not only this Sunday, but every Sunday. Bring your children to Sunday school. Learn what the Bible teaches about your relation to others. It will mean a happier household and a pleasanter life. The people of our town who make the greatest contribution to the culture of the community go to church.

AMERICANS—ALL.

The soldier performers making up the "Americans-All" detachments have been trained and educated at the Recruit Educational Center, Upton, N. Y. The remarkable thing about these men is that they were all either foreign-born or American born illiterates when they entered the Army school.

The entertainments given by the "Americans-All" on the Radcliffe Chautauqua program have never been seen outside of fifteen of the largest cities in the United States except in the other towns that have been placed on our Chautauqua circuits. Wherever such entertainment has been given in large cities, before Chambers of Commerce, Rotary Clubs and in Washington before members of the United States Senate, and the House of Representatives, the work of these men has been acclaimed as most wonderful. The entertainments given by the "Americans-All" are possibly the most unique numbers to be found on any Chautauqua program this year. Their drills and physical culture exercises are executed with a precision that commands admiration. They render popular songs with vim and "pep" that is inspiring. But through it all there is the human appeal of men who have undergone an amazing transformation in the melting pot that melts—and it is this subtle, indefinable something in back of all they do, in their very presence and facial expression, and especially in their speeches which make their program really remarkable.

THE MEDICINE BOTTLE.

"If you think my life is a pleasant one," said the Medicine Bottle, "I'll tell you from the start that it isn't. In the first place I was in the doctor's office. I saw the people quake and shake when they were told they had to take some bitter medicine. I don't suppose they really shook as much as I thought they did, but I was standing quite still at the time and they seemed to make a great deal of fuss.

"Then I heard someone say, 'Doctors give us horrible stuff. When we think we're sick enough. But after all they make us well.' And this fact, too, I think we should tell."

"Then someone else said, 'I wonder if the doctor has taken 'em from the medicine bottle which must be shaken. It's hard to swallow it and he holds by the nose. While we get down the horrible dose.'"

"Such are the things I've heard," said the Medicine Bottle.

"Did all the people speak like that, the little White Pills. They didn't speak in rhyme like that," said the Medicine Bottle, "but those were the things they said which I've changed into rhymes. A medicine bottle must have something to cheer it up at times. Yes, I'll tell you my life is not a pleasant one. I'm never greeted with a smile. Fancy that, White Pills! I'm never greeted with a smile. I'm always greeted with a scowl, often with tears and usually with grumbles.

"No one likes me! It is too bad! When I am empty I am filled up again. Oh, I have a horrid life. Now, you're not bad to take at all. People take you very easily and without complaint in the least. You are so easy to take.

"You can be swallowed down with a drop of water and no one can taste you."

"But think, Medicine Bottle," said the White Pills, "when you're being taken folks can be pretty sure they're getting something whereas with tasteless pills, as we are, it doesn't seem as though we amount to anything."

"Oh," said the Medicine Bottle, "it is good of you to cheer me up. But I can't very well be cheered up. Here I sit on the mantelpiece and three times a day taken down and shaken as though they'd like to kill me, I do believe, and then with grumps or tears or complaints I'm swallowed. Or rather, some of the medicine from me is swallowed.

"And the faces that are made about me! Oh, they're awful! Truly, awful faces are made up because of me!"

"Now you are taken without all that fuss. You do good even if you don't taste bad."

"But I taste so bad that no one can appreciate me, or rather the medicine in me."

"It's a terrible life that I lead! And when I am emptied I will be filled again. Or for a time I may sit about with a lot of other ugly medicine bottles, and we'll all be put on a shelf that sees very little life, and there we'll gather dust."

"We'll stay there, some of us with a little medicine left in us and outside of us as well, until we're wanted for refilling."

"I started from a doctor's office, and here I am in this house."

"Goodness only knows when I'll go back to the old shelf again. I wish the doctor would take me back. I never did the doctor any harm."

"I helped him all I could. All I knew how! But oh dear, life is very hard when one has to go through it and be scowled at wherever one goes."

"And the very worst thing about it is that I wouldn't really have a great deal of respect or admiration for any one who smiled at me, for it would show they had wretched taste. Yes, that is the saddest part of my sad story! I may do good, but oh, the medicine that I hold, tastes too horrid for mere words to describe!"

"Now, Edwin," said the Sunday school teacher to a member of the juvenile class, "which would you rather be—the wheat or the tares?"

"The tares," answered Edwin.

"Why?" asked the teacher in surprise. "How can you say that when you know wheat represents the good and the tares the bad?"

"Oh, that's all right," replied the precocious youngster, "the wheat gets thrashed and the tares don't."

Wheat Gets Thrashed.

"Now, Edwin," said the Sunday school teacher to a member of the juvenile class, "which would you rather be—the wheat or the tares?"

"The tares," answered Edwin.

A Friend of Mine

By W. R. Hornbaker.
Copyrighted 1921.

A friend of mine had some stock to sell in a hole they were pleased to call a well. It seemed they were right on top of the sand. But were needing a friend to lend a hand. So I put in my pile—Alas! alas! They were sure it would pay in oil or gas. And it's in there yet. How I love that shark who sold me that beautiful work of art. All tinted with gold; it is certainly fine. And I've written across it: "From a friend of mine."

A friend of mine with no coin to spare was offering me the final share of stock in a new and going concern. That would roll in money to spend or burn. He assured me the stock was not even damp. And if I'd invest I could henceforth camp in a mansion, and spend the rest of my days in luxury. So I've caught the craze, and mortgaged my all to raise some tin. Then calmly waited till my ship came in. When the infern was cut I got the mine. And a sickening smile from that friend of mine.

A friend of mine who was selling land and making money to beat the band. Decided he'd form a Syndicate. And take me in as his silent mate. All I needed to do was to furnish the dough. He'd do all the work,—so the deal was a go.—Now no one can say that I lost my nerve. But this simple fact I DO observe. I lost the last red cent of my pile. While this friend of mine lives in lordly style. Yet it's not my purpose to wall and pine. Tho' it's costly to fool with these friends of mine.

A friend of mine who claimed he was wise. As to how the market would dip or rise. Persuaded me that the thing to do was to pool our coin with a chosen few. And he was selected to hold the bag. Since he was a shrewd old 'exchange' stag. Now I never did quite understand the trick. But I know it almost made me sick. For when the pool was full to the brim. A thirsty bull suck'd the whole pile in. And the tears I shed were mingled with brine. As I charged THAT loss to a friend of mine.

A friend of mine who was true and straight. One morning came rushing through my gate. And breathlessly said: "Here's a lot of cash I'll leave in your care." And he went like a flash. I supposed he was late in catching a plane. Tho' he acted somewhat like a man insane. But I thot to myself "now it's coming my way. I guess it is true 'every dog has his day.' A few hours later they searched my trunk. And found it all with my other junk. I fled with the 'buttons' but to no avail. They said I had left such an easy trail. And they hustled me off to the jail to dine. While I breathed a blessing on that friend of mine.

REVEALS A DRAMA OF WAR

Paris, June 30.—The demand of Deputy Andre Berthon of the Seine department that he be permitted to interpellate the cabinet on measures to be taken against General Boyer for having two second lieutenants, Herduin and Millot, summarily shot in the Battle of Verdun, has brought out one of the most dramatic incidents of the war.

The lieutenants, who were commanding sections in a critical period of the battle of Fleury, brought back their men without orders and were found forty-eight hours later in the citadel of Verdun with some of their men. An investigation showed, according to the Echo de Paris, that these men retired in such a way as to uncover and endanger the whole line. General Boyer thereupon ordered the lieutenants shot without further procedure.

Lieutenant Herduin was permitted to give the command to fire to the squad which shot him. He said:

"Soldiers: You are going to shoot me, but I am not a coward and neither is my comrade. We however, abandoned a position in which we should have remained to the bitter end. If you ever find yourselves in the same situation hold out until the death. Don't abandon your posts. Now aim straight for the heart. Take aim. Fire."

PROF. COLL VISITING BURGETT.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Coll who left Artesia some two weeks ago by auto for Washington, D. C., are now visiting with John Earl Burgett at his home in Columbus, Ohio, arriving there last Saturday and will spend several days there before going on to the capital. Burgett will accompany them to Washington where he has a position with the government.

HONORS FOR DEAD SOLDIERS.

A committee from Bryan Mudgett Post, American Legion, met the train from the south Thursday evening, to do honor to two Pecos Valley soldier boys who lost their lives in battle in France. Upon receiving information of the arrival of the bodies here Post Commander Paul Mahan appointed the following guard of honor who remained with the bodies until the departure of the train for the north: Jim Farrell, Chas. Rarey, Edward Purdy, Ed Wright, Kenneth Jones, Lowell Warren and Paul Mahan. Wreaths and cut flowers were provided by Mrs. H. F. Christian from her garden and that of George Frederick. The bodies thus given military honors were those of Clarence Kepple of Artesia, of Company A, 356th Infantry, and Aecua Lang, of the 340th Field Artillery, and were escorted by Sergeant McGregor, of Company B, Seventh Cavalry, and Sergeant John K. St. Clair, both stationed at Fort Bliss, Texas. A firing squad, consisting of Ed Wright, Chas. Rarey, Don Donald, Lowell Warren, Clyde Duncan, Edward Purdy, Sam Batton, K. A. Jones, Otto Matheson, Lee Blossom, Paul Collier and Bill Howeth, went north this morning by automobile to attend the funeral of Kepple at Artesia this afternoon. Particulars as to the deaths of the two soldier boys were not known by the escorts, only that both were killed in France. It is presumed that a firing squad will go from Roswell to Hagerman to give proper military honors to the interment of Lang. These are the first bodies of Pecos Valley soldiers who were killed in action to pass through Carlsbad, although the bodies of McClure and Mitchell were buried with military honors, having died of disease in camp. It is not known whether the body of Bryan Mudgett, who was killed in battle in France, has arrived in this country or not, or whether it will be disturbed in its resting place in the military cemetery in battle-scarred France.—Carlsbad Argus.

Paris, July 1.—For the first time since 1905 the foreign trade balance has turned in favor of France. Provisional, but approximately exact, figures for the first three months of this year show total exports of 4,811,000,000 francs and imports of 4,781,000,000.

The importations of France before the war, excepting in 1905, ran from 20 to 25 per cent higher than the exports.

An unexpected showing is that France exported during the three months 262 per cent more manufactured articles than in the first three months of the last normal year before the war.

W. A. CANNON, Prop.
Successor to W. L. Wyman

Postoffice Inspector J. C. Andrix was in Carlsbad the first of the week for the purpose of returning letters to certain Carlsbad citizens which Mr. Andrix had recovered in Roswell when he arrested a man going under the name of B. F. Laney. The letters had been taken from the combination lock boxes of the Carlsbad postoffice, it is thought from such as make a practice of leaving their boxes unlocked, which according to Postmaster John Wells, is the custom of box renters who do not care to go to the trouble of using the combination with which each box is equipped. The recovery of the letters in Roswell was purely accidental, as the man, Laney, was arrested under another charge. He is now in jail in Roswell. Postmaster Wells informs the Argus that he has frequently recovered mail taken from boxes by boys who make a practice of trying each box, to see if it is unlocked.

Recently he recovered quite a bunch of letters from a boy who had gone through the mail in search of cash, and finding the other letters under the culvert at the rear of Joyce-Fruit company's store. Also, almost every day, the postmaster is compelled to chase small boys who turn the combinations just for devilment. Mr. Wells requests patrons to always lock their boxes after opening, as very little thieving will result if the boxes are kept locked. —Carlsbad Argus.

TAILLESS CALF.

RADCLIFFE CHAUTAUQUA COMING.

The local Chautauqua Committee desires to announce July 22-23-25 as the dates upon which the Radcliffe Chautauqua will be held here. The Bureau at Washington promises the people of our community an unusually attractive and varied program. No time or effort has been spared by Mr. Radcliffe to bring to nearly 2,000 of America's smaller communities that spirit of civic pride and world wide outlook which hitherto has been expected only in the large cities.

It will be a great Community asset—a real festival of inspiring music, wholesome amusement and lectures by such men of vision and leadership, who will discuss topics on subjects in which every American is vitally concerned. In building the program the utmost care was exercised in engaging only artists whose ability on the public platform has been thoroughly tried and proven. Each is a real artist in his or her line thereby assuring musical treats of the highest character.

In the series of lectures the keynote of Americanism and American ideals will be sounded with a clarity that will grip all. The messages are timed to the needs of the hour. They will be accurate, vigorous and delivered in a virile, convincing style. In brief, the program in its entirety, will touch all phases of life for the help, encouragement and entertainment of all kinds of people.

The Chautauqua Director will be DR. Wm. E. ADAMS of Seattle, Washington and in addition to being in charge of the program he will speak on the second day. The other lecturers and entertainers are: Edward Tomlinson, of Atlanta, Ga., "the brilliant young American orator who explained America to the British Army." Harry Hirschman, L. L. D., of Spokane, Wash., Lawyer, Official A. E. F. lecturer in France; Member of the Council of Defense and of the Committee of Public Defense.

HAVE YOU GOT YOUR $52.42 OF MONEY IN CIRCULATION

Washington, July 8.—Money in circulation in the United States July 1 amounted to $52.42 per capita, according to a statement today by the treasury. The total was $5,774,065,000. A year ago the per capita amount was $57.18 and the total $6,084,854,000, the reduction being brought about through the decreased issue of federal reserve bank notes.

Buy a pipe and some

Get the joy that's due

We print it right here that if you don't feel it and the friendship of a joyous jimmy, GO GET ONE! And—get some Prince Albert and bang a howdy-do on the big smoke-gong!

For, Prince Albert's quality—flavor—coolness—fragrance—is in a class of its own! You never tasted such tobacco! Why—figure out what it alone means to your tongue and temper when we tell you that Prince Albert can't bite, can't parch! Our exclusive patented process fixes that!

Prince Albert is a revelation in a makin's cigarette! My, but how that delightful flavor makes a dent! And, how it does answer that hankering! Prince Albert rolls easy and stays put because it is crimped cut. And, say—oh, go on and get the papers or a pipe! Do it right now!

Prince Albert is sold in tippy red bags, tidy red tins, handsome pound and half pound tin humidors and in the pound crystal glass humidors with sponge moisture top.

FRED BRAINARD HITTING HARD

Fred Brainard, local baseball player, went on another hitting rampage Monday in the Columbus-Kansas City double header played at Kansas City. He copped two hits in the first game, a double and three bagger, but his team lost by a 2 to 1 count. In the second game he poled four hits in five trips to the plate, one being a home run and the other three for two bases each. K. C. lost, 14 to 10.

The race in the American Association is still very close, Columbus in the cellar being only nine games behind Louisville, the leaders. In the last list of batting averages of the Association, Fred was going at a 300 lick but has lifted his average 25 points since that time.
