CHAMBER OF COMMERCE BANQUET

UNUSUALLY LARGE NUMBER OF BUSINESS MEN PRESENT. EXCELLENT ADDRESSES BY WELL KNOWN SPEAKERS

The third banquet to be conducted under the management of the Artesia Chamber of Commerce was attended by over sixty business and professional men and farmers on last Thursday evening at the Hardwick dining hall. The affair was the third event of its nature to be conducted at this place. The series of suppers is proving to be very popular and the large crowd of men present clearly shows the fine interest manifested in the affairs of the local Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. L. G. Syfred, the dining hall wizard, second only to the great Fred Harvey system, was responsible for the appetizing supper, presented to the prominent men of the town. The two course supper was enjoyed by all present. As some stated, "It was some feed."

Immediately following the supper, J. H. Jackson, president of the Artesia Chamber of Commerce, introduced B. A. Paulson, head engineer of the Lakewood-Artesia road project surveying party, Henry Davis, a new member of the high school faculty, and Bert Newcomer, of Albuquerque, as three special guests at this affair. A. C. Keinath, cashier of the First State Bank, was the toastmaster at this occasion and introduced W. M. Todd, as the first speaker of the evening. The speaker praised the town council very highly in his brief words on the subject: "What I would do, if I were the town council." The old-timers would not know our town, if Mr. Todd was to become a member of the council and do all the things that he said he would do if such was the case. However, we are sure that the improvements mentioned could easily be secured and it is hoped that the new outlined program of the Chamber of Commerce and the town council will bring about the desired changes.

Dr. E. E. Mathes, pastor of the Presbyterian church, spoke on the interesting subject, "What I Would Do If I Were a Member of the School Board." He clearly stated the duties of all good citizens toward the public school system. The task of serving as a member of the Board of Education is a very prominent and responsible task and every citizen should cooperate with the school board and the faculties in making the schools the best possible. One of the most vital matters connected with this office is the employing of proper teachers in so far as it is possible. The course of study or curriculum is another important factor.

W. R. Hornbaker, manager of the Artesia Alfalfa Growers Association, announced that the Chamber of Commerce and all live wires of the town are urging the renewal of an old custom at Artesia. Many years ago, it was known by the entire valley that Artesia would have an Alfalfa Festival, similar to the county fairs and other celebrations. The farmers would exhibit their products and other attractions would be secured to make the week a gala occasion. Plans are now being formulated to establish this custom again and it is hoped that an Alfalfa Festival can be conducted at Artesia this fall. The speaker stressed the necessity of letting the world know what the Pecos valley can do. Everything on the menu at this banquet, except the pepper and the tea, are products of the Pecos Valley. The Artesia Chamber of Commerce is now a member of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce and many opportunities will be presented to the people in this section of the state to profit by this fact. Further plans will be made public at a later date.

Mr. B. A. Paulson, engineer in charge of the surveying party, now actively engaged in surveying the right-of-way for the new Lakewood-Artesia highway, responded to a request that he give a few details concerning this new road. Operations on the construction of the road bed will begin in a few months. The road will be graded similar to the highway between Artesia and Hope. When this road is completed, it is expected to continue doing the same thing towards the state line, south of Carlsbad. This will be of much benefit to the motorists in this section of the state.

A very noticeable fact concerning this banquet was the presence of a large number of the younger men of the town. Both young and old enjoyed the excellent spirit of fellowship and interest, for which purpose the series of suppers were planned. Among those present were Chester Russell, Ernest Hannah, L. B. Feather, L. L. Feather, Rex Westley, I. C. Keller, Fred Cole, R. G. Knoeller, John Richards, C. Bert Smith, B. A. Bishop, Frank Wilson, Murray Schenck, J. M. Story, Bob Miller, H. Austin Stroup, Oscar Samelson, George Frisch, Preston Dunn, R. D. Dunn, E. E. Mathes, W. M. Todd, George Sasser, R. R. Coffey, W. R. Hornbaker, Sidney Cox, A. C. Keinath, Henry Davis, George Bina, B.

Stephenson, Gail Hamilton, William Linell, Walter Ferriman, Thornton Person, J. H. Jackson, E. B. McCaw, D. E. Buckles, Bert Newcomer, M. P. Sken, Lee Vandegriff, B. A. Paulson, S. W. Gilbert, A. F. Roselle, C. E. Schumaker, Frank Donahue, J. P. Lowry, E. S. Shattuck, Bibson, George Flanders, J. E. Robinson, S. E. Ferree, Edward Conner, J. C. Floore, Kenneth Wiseman, A. V. Wiseman, Otis Brown, Cecil Brownlee, R. A. Brewer, L. G. Syfred, Bob Caraway, Stanley Stehwein and Jack Hastie.

NIGHT WATCHMAN SHOOTS AT HOUSE BREAKER

M. Stevenson, night watchman for the town of Artesia, fired three shots at a house breaker on last Monday night, a short time before daybreak. The culprit was trying to gain admission into Schenck's Garage, when the noise, caused by the culprit was heard by the officer. The man tore a piece of sheet metal from the front entrance door of the building. The officer was near the Christian church, when he heard the strange noise. Upon investigation, he discovered that the man had noticed the arrival of the officer and started down Main street at a rapid rate of speed. The officer commanded him to halt, but this order was not obeyed. The officer gave chase and fired three times at the fugitive. The shots tended to hasten the speed of the man and enabled him to escape.

Nothing was taken from the garage as the entrance had not been gained at the time of the discovery. This is the third time that this garage has been entered in the past few months by house breakers. The officers are following a clew and hope to arrest the culprit in a few days.

MANY RATTLESNAKES EAST OF RIVER

M. R. E. Horne, who is engaged in road work east of Carlsbad, near the county line, between Lea and Eddy counties, announces that the rattlesnakes are very plentiful in that section of the country. The road crew has a camp about forty miles from Carlsbad, where many snakes are killed every day. Seventeen rattlesnakes were killed by the workmen in one week and as many as six have been killed in one day. The biggest snake to be killed was approximately eight feet long, and had fifteen rattlers. No one has been bit by any of the reptiles, but a person can see several of the big fellows as he drives over the roads. Several of the snakes have been killed in the camp.

Other persons, coming from the plains country, east of the Pecos river, state that the snakes are numerous, and can easily be found in the early morning.

MRS. ALLIE HOLLIS BURIED AT PAMPA, TEXAS

The remains of Mrs. Allie Hollis, who died at the home of her son in the west part of Artesia on last Wednesday evening, was accompanied to Pampa, Texas, by W. T. Hollis on Friday night. The funeral services were conducted at that place upon the arrival of the remains of the deceased woman.

Mrs. Hollis was born November first, 1835, and died at the age of almost eighty-seven years. She came to Artesia, New Mexico, from Pampa, Texas, about sixteen months ago, with her son, W. T. Hollis, and his family. The deceased has been helpless for the past nine months and passed to her reward after a hard fight for life.

She is survived by four children: W. T. Hollis of Artesia; M. M. Hollis, of Sterling, Oklahoma; Lydia Mayfield of Stonewall, Oklahoma; and Ida Long of Knoxville, Georgia. She is also survived by a host of relatives and friends, who mourn at her death.

GIN AT HAGERMAN

After several weeks of hesitation and hoping for some kindly disposed capitalist to come along and build a gin for Hagerman only to have their hopes dissipated, the citizens of this community finally took the bull by the horns, organized a gin company and have placed orders for complete and modern gin machinery, which will be installed in ample time to take care of the crop this fall.—Hagerman Messenger.

DORIS LUCILE HENRICHSON BORN

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Henrichson are the proud parents of a fine baby girl, born on Saturday, August 26. The new arrival weighed eight pounds and has been honored with the name of Doris Lucile Henrichson.

A. N. Coward and family departed last week for Poteet, Texas. They were called there in answer to a telegram stating that an uncle of Mr. Coward's was dangerously ill.

Miss Bertha Shattuck, who underwent an operation on her tonsils last week, is reported to be improving. The young woman almost bled to death as a result of the operation, according to a report brought back to Artesia. The operation was performed at Carlsbad.

CHEERS THE DEMOCRATS ON SENATOR POMERENE, CONDEMNING G. O. P. LEGISLATION, PREDICTS VICTORY

Columbus, O., Aug. 22.—Charging that the Republican administration at Washington had repudiated its campaign pledges of 1920, and that a great part of legislation by the present congress had been for the benefit of the big business rather than the ordinary citizen, Senator Pomerene, delivering the keynote address at the Democratic convention here today, predicted a Democratic victory in November.

Bitter criticism of the Republican tariff bill, which he termed "the greatest piece of 'pork barrel' legislation in the history of congress," formed the major part of the address.

G. O. P. GEMS

From the Ohio State Journal (Rep.) What does H. Cabot Lodge know about coarse, unwashed wool or anything like that—Cabot ought to be fixing the duties on silk hats, boutonnieres and de luxe editions.

Uncle Truman Newberry's record is an open checkbook.

We used to say that we Republicans simply had to get the taxes down, even if it was only a matter of bookkeeping, and now, as the campaign approaches apace, we are prepared to go a step farther and announce that we've got to do it, even if it's a matter of straight lying.

AMERICAN LEGION DELEGATES LEAVE

John B. Muncy and Thomas C. Cox left on last Saturday for Las Vegas, where they will represent the Clarence Kettle post, No. 41, of the American Legion. The trip was made in the Ford coupe of Comrade Cox. The two men represented the local post at the New Mexico convention of the American Legion, which met on August 28, 29, and 30th. The Artesia post was ably represented by these two ex-service men. After attending the American Legion convention at Las Vegas, the two men attended the State Democratic convention at Albuquerque.

BAND CONCERT

Several hundred persons were on the streets of Artesia on last Saturday night. The Artesia concert band, under the direction of R. A. Brewer rendered a very pleasing concert at this time on Main street. The Artesia public is well pleased with these musical concerts, which will continue until cold weather prevents. Several school students, who have been unable to be in Artesia during the summer, will join the organization as soon as the public schools open. This will be of much benefit to the band.

OH BOY!!

R. V. Young is going around town saying, "Oh Boy, we got a boy at our house." Yes, that is right, a boy came to stay at the home of R. V. Young and wife last Monday. Margaret says it sure is a fine boy. Mother and baby doing well and R. V. is still excited.

CLASS PICNIC AT SPRING

Miss Virginia Atteberry and Miss Elizabeth Solomon chaperoned a group of girls to a delightful picnic party at the spring north of Artesia on last Wednesday evening. The girls were the members of the Sunday school class taught by Miss Atteberry in the Baptist Sunday school and their friends.

After a bounteous picnic supper, the little girls played many interesting games, later going to the tennis meeting. Among those present were Mattie Addington, Lucile Floore, Velma Richards, Ina Cole, Gladys Cole, Bertie Hooper, Mary Jackson, Eva McDaniel, Carmen Brown and Edna Bullock.

SIX O'CLOCK DINNER

Each girl brought something to prepare for the dinner and all present assisted in the preparation of the good eats. The dinner was served in two courses. Those present at this delightful and unique affair were Mrs. Eldredge Solomon, Misses Irene Gage, Lorie Davis, Ethel Bullock, Mildred Frisch, Vesta Frisch, Adele Ohnemus, and Gladys Cowan.

Much fruit is being hauled to Artesia and shipped from the local yards. Especially is this true of the apple crop. The shipments will increase as soon as the strike situation is settled.

Mrs. James, president of the Rebekah Assembly of New Mexico, was in Artesia last week and was an honored guest of the local Sunrise Rebekah Lodge, No. 9, on Tuesday evening at the Oddfellows hall. A large representation of the local lodge was present at this meeting. The president made a special talk to the members present.

STILL CAPTURED BY COUNTY SHERIFF AND DEPUTY

Sheriff Sam Batton and Deputy Sheriff M. Stevenson captured another still and a large quantity of mash and whiskey on Tuesday afternoon. The officers suspected that a still was located in the vicinity where prohibition officers and deputy Stevenson captured a still recently. Upon search, a still was found within a few yards of the Pecos river bank, among the thick growth of salt cedar about twelve miles southeast of Artesia. A well-worn path was discovered from the river bank to the still, where water had been carried by the manufacturer of the illicit booze.

About forty gallons of whiskey, almost ready for the purchaser, was discovered with two barrels of mash. The officers took the products in charge. A man, known as Charles Tuttle, recently arrested in Roswell by Chief of Police Carl Gordon, is believed to be the main operator of the captured still. This is the second still to be captured on the river bank by local officers in the past few weeks.

HOUSES SCARCE

Vacant houses in Artesia are being sought by many school patrons who desire to enroll their children in the public schools. The houses are all filled and the supply does not equal the demand. This is indeed a high recommendation for the public schools of Artesia and the school authorities are to be congratulated on their success in making the Artesia schools rank with the leading high schools and grammar schools of the country.

ARTESIA LAD IN ROSWELL FOR OPERATION

John Gates, young son of Mr. and Mrs. V. L. Gates, was in Roswell last week, where he was subjected to an operation by Dr. Swearingen, specialist at that place. The lad was troubled with Mastoid infection. The trouble became so acute that the operation on the inner ear became imperative. The lad was taken to Roswell, where the operation was performed on last Thursday.

The operation was successful and the boy is rapidly recovering from the effects of the case. While the Gates family were enjoying a summer vacation in the mountains, the first symptoms of the trouble were noticed. It continued to develop until the operation resulted.

PICNIC AT BATES FARM

Miss Lillian Meadows chaperoned a group of boys and girls from the Baptist Sunday School on a picnic to the Bates farm north of Artesia on Monday evening. The young people left Artesia about sundown, arriving at their destination with ample time for a swim in the large reservoir.

A picnic supper, consisting of sandwiches, cakes, fruit and many other good things to eat, was a special feature of the occasion.

REV. LYONS AT METHODIST CHURCH

Rev. W. E. Lyons, conference secretary for the Centenary movement of the Methodist Episcopal church, south, delivered an address at the Methodist church on last Thursday evening concerning the work of the Centenary department in the foreign fields. A fair sized audience was present as this speaker presented the work of this department by means of a stereopticon. He presented views from the fields where the missionaries of the Methodist church are actively engaged.

The attendance would have been much larger if the people had been informed of the address. The announcement concerning the program was not made known until a very late date. All present were pleased with the program.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bigler and daughter, Ruth, returned on last Friday from a brief visit with friends and relatives at Albuquerque.

Mr. George O'Bannon and representative F. G. Hartell left this week for Albuquerque, where they will attend the Democratic convention of the state of New Mexico.

The Baptist Young Peoples Union of the Artesia church rendered a special program at Hope on Sunday evening. The Hope organization invited the Artesia young people to present a special program on the Educational board and Christian Education at the Hope Baptist church, preceding the regular evangelistic services.

About fifteen members went from Artesia to participate in this program. A sumptuous supper was served to the visitors at the church at six o'clock by the hospitable Hope young people. Oscar Hines, president of the Hope Union was in charge of the meeting, during the preliminary portion of the service. Anson Fite representing the Hope organization introduced Fred Cole of Artesia, as the leader of the evening's program, who spoke a few minutes concerning the Pecos Valley Baptist Young Peoples' Union and urged the Hope Union to cooperate with this valley association.

The speakers on the program were Mrs. Deyton Reecer, Misses Elizabeth Solomon and Grace Langston, and Messrs. Harvey Widney and Harvey Klopfenstein. A special quartet, composed of Mrs. Deyton Reecer, Miss Zanaida Mann and Messrs. Fred Cole and Harvey Klopfenstein sang an appropriate selection in connection with the program.

After the young peoples program Rev. Stap of Alamogordo preached the regular sermon. An unusually large crowd was present at this program and at the preaching service. A revival meeting is in progress at the Baptist church at Hope.

Miss Margaret Mathes is at Artesia visiting her parents. She has been actively engaged in musical activity in California for several months.

Word has been received at Artesia that Mr. and Mrs. John Simons are the parents of a fine eight pound boy. Mr. Simons was formerly connected with the Joyce-Fruit stores at Artesia. They now live at Magdalena, New Mexico.

Mr. Donald Mathes returned to Artesia on Saturday after spending the summer at Fort Logan, Colorado, in military training. He did not return to Artesia at the close of his college term last year. He will spend a few days with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. E. E. Mathes before returning to college.

Messrs. H. P. and Harold Larsh arrived in Artesia on last Saturday. Harold returned this week to Oklahoma City, where he is in the employ of a bank at that place. His father will remain at Artesia being manager of the local cotton gin, and interested in the cotton industry at Carlsbad and Loving.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Graham and family left on Sunday for a short vacation in the mountains. They recently returned from El Paso, but the health of Mr. Graham, who is a salesman in the Joyce-Fruit dry goods department, demanded that they rest for a few weeks. They expect to be away for about one month.

Mrs. Fred Brainerd returned to Artesia last week where she will remain until the arrival of Mr. Brainerd who will return as soon as the baseball-season closes. Mr. Brainerd is a professional ball player and has an enviable record in the major leagues. He is now playing with Newark, New Jersey. Mrs. Brainerd will stay with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hoffman.

The management of the Artesia baseball club is making arrangements with the Alamogordo baseball club for a game or series of baseball games to be played on the Artesia diamond on next week. The business men are backing the aggregation and some excellent games are assured. Help the boys defeat this strong aggregation by giving them your support.

The executive committee of the various young peoples organizations of the town met at the home of Miss Nila Wingfield on Tuesday evening for the purpose of planning a special program on Stewardship, which will be presented on Sunday evening. About twenty young people from the different churches of the town were present. R. A. Brewer was elected chairman of the meeting and Lloyd Cowan was appointed secretary.

Many fishing parties continue to be successful on the Pecos river below Lake McMillan. Hundreds of fish of various kinds are being brought to Artesia by the sportsmen. The lake is almost dry and the fish are stranded in holes of water below the dam, where they have been carried by the water, leaving the lake. Carp, buffalo, sucker, perch, catfish and other varieties are being caught with bare hands.

HOLINESS CAMP MEETING CLOSING

The first state camp meeting of the Church of the Nazarene in New Mexico, which recently closed, was the biggest meeting of its class ever conducted by the Nazarene denomination in the state. Much interest was manifested in the meeting by members of the Nazarene church in New Mexico and West Texas, as well as the people of Artesia. Many campers from all sections of the country camped at the Artesia camping grounds during the ten days program.

Everyone was well pleased with the work of the Evangelists. Rev. W. E. Sheppard of Los Angeles, California, and Rev. J. E. L. Moore of Olivit, Illinois, did the preaching. Prof. A. S. London, head of the music department of the Nazarene college at Hamlin, Texas, and his wife directed the musical part of each program or service, which was featured in itself. Services were conducted at all hours of the day. A sunrise prayer meeting was conducted each morning at six o'clock. At ten o'clock, a rousing people's meeting was conducted with a sermon. A sermon was preached in the afternoon and the big service of the day conducted in the evening at seven-thirty, preceded by a prayer meeting.

A large tent was erected on the corner of Main and Sixth streets for this old fashioned camp meeting. Hundreds crowded into the tent, while large crowds were unable to get under the canopy and would sit in automobiles at each service.

The meeting has reaped many results. Scores of people went to the meeting seeking an experience in grace and scores were rewarded for their desires. The camp meeting will long be remembered by the people in this section of the country. The collections were excellent at each service. Several hundred dollars were contributed for the various causes.

Night watchman M. Stevenson stated to an Advocate reporter that he would have to get W. F. Daugherty to do his running after night prowlers if he saw any more trying to gain admission to a business house in the early morning. Mr. Daugherty can outrun almost anybody, since he accompanied officer Stevenson to Dayton last year to arrest a Mexican gunman. The officer says that he needed a fast runner to catch the man he shot after on Monday night.

D. A. Paddock and family arrived home from Artesia Wednesday evening. Hot weather prevailed in the Pecos valley in their report. Fruit and vegetables in abundance: Jonathans apples $1 a box, peaches $1 per basket, Bartlett pears at 2c per pound, plums at bargain prices, tomatoes 2c per pound. It is reported that the Quick-Way Stage Line is to be extended on to El Paso, Texas. It is better for us than a railroad, and don't cost near as much. There is a move on to build a concrete garage and waiting room for them. One man agrees to start the subscription with five hundred dollars. See Hugh Gage and tell him what you will do. Ride with the Quick-Way Stage boys. It's cheaper than going in your own car.

Many thanks are due Will Robinson, of the Roswell News, and editor J. R. Hoffman of Artesia. Advertisements was the presence of a Rodeo by splendid advertising given Hope. If either of these good old boys ever want a "sit" they may have the highest stool in the Press office.

Individualism is rapidly passing away. To be, or to remain oneself is a menace. Were Thomas Jefferson, that admirable gentleman, alive today, he would be obliged to join the Rotary club or the Wampum Lodge in order for his opinions to have any weight. More and more people yield to the popular craze of joining things, for belonging to something which requires them to wear a badge or button. Can you imagine a man who belonged to no organization, club or lodge? How totally insignificant he would be. One or two persons might see his merit and love him for himself. But who would bury him and who would attend his funeral?

A Triumph for Value

IN the past two months Firestone has built and marketed more tires than in any similar period in its history. This steadily increasing public preference is proof of the recognition by car owners of the greater values offered by Firestone. It is a tribute to Firestone men—all stockholders in the company—all actuated by the operating principle of Most Miles per Dollar. The high average performance of Firestone Cords is without equal in the annals of tire making and is reflected by the general tendency to specify Firestone for hard service. Taxicab and bus lines, buying tires by the mile, are universally equipping with Firestone Cords. There are many reasons for the high quality of Firestone tires but chief among the special manufacturing processes are double gum-dipping, thus eliminating internal friction by insulating each cord strand, and air-bag cure, insuring a well-balanced and perfectly shaped product. Don't speculate in tires—you will find the right combination of price and quality in Firestone. Come in and let us tell you about the service these Cords are giving other car-owners whom you know.

ARTESIA, N. M.

SPARKS OF TRUTH

(By Bevo)

The United States has produced many suggestions for the settlement of the railway and coal strikes. Artesia citizens could have easily settled the matter many weeks ago, judging by the suggestions.

Some folks say that the Artesia girls are bobbing their hair in order to devote more time to their school work or social activities. We'll admit that bobbed hair saves time in hair dressing, when a social event is scheduled, but where does the school come.

The only true one hundred per cent efficiency is a small boy surrounding a piece of pie or an ice cream cone.

When a bunch of girls get together, the Lord pity the first one to leave. It is always the young man who stays the longest that "gets in bad". Of course in a different way because "Papa" assists in the latter.

It has been stated that only the rich get mixed up in a scandal case. If this is true, we will all be hearing scandal as a result of the immense crops raised in the Pecos valley.

A young man stated that he never enjoyed a kiss from a girl, who had never been kissed, because she did not know how to cooperate. Everyone should advocate cooperation, according to our efficiency experts.

If a man is driving his car on the right side of the street or road, he needs to fear only a cop, another car, a bad crossing, or a hole in the road.

"Don't live in a tent, when you can live in a home of your own," sounds nice but costs much more.

Wouldn't we be surprised if the Pecos valley has a few candidates in the political election this year. The balance of power must be changing if its ancient location.

The age old question, "What do men and women think of each other?" has not been answered in any public newspaper on account of the strict censorship of those awful words used so often.

If the longer skirt, in course of time, the sawed-off skirt suppliants, will the girls, now wearing knickers, be wearing longer pants?

We like a good fight, so watch Hornsby, Williams, Sisler, Ruth and other baseball players of repute fight for first honors. This is much better than a scrap between the employees and the employers.

Safety has been known for many years. Just think of the safety pins which have been used and forgotten many moons ago.

TICKLING WILL CALM BEAR

Poke Him in Ribs and He Forgets His Hostile Advice of Portland Park Officers.

Portland, Oregon.—If you want to make a bear behave, just tickle him in the ribs.

This is what Portland police and park officers are advising after their experience with a cub which escaped from a pen and lodged in a high tree, defying for twenty-four hours efforts to get him to come down, until a long bamboo pole was obtained. Unable to resist the tickling of his ribs with the pole, young Tony hastened down and tumbled into a trap at the base of the tree.

"He got to laughing so dinged that he simply forgot himself and tumbled to earth," the keeper reported.

Rules for Longevity.

Poplar Bluff, Mo.—There are three rules for longevity, according to William Huskey, one hundred years old, of Smeltville. These reasons are: First, moderate habits; second, work hard; third, attend to your own business. A few days ago Huskey celebrated his one hundredth birthday, sitting in his "old favorite" rocking chair by his "fireplace" in the little farm home. Huskey is married and his wife is eighty-four years of age. He is the father of 18 children. He can neither read nor write, but is quite conversant with the questions of the day.

Fire Chief Revived by Ringing of Gong

From the operating table to the scene of a fire was a trip made in a few minutes' time by Thomas L. Graham, chief of the fire department of Corvallis, Ore. The operation had been performed and the patient neatly trussed up in many bandages. Just as this process was completed the fire gong clanged, and Graham, who was coming out from under ether, leaped from his bed.

All doctors, nurses, and attendants in the hospital failed to hold him. Half dazed, he jumped into his automobile, dashed up the street, and arrived at the burning building in time to direct the firemen.

HAM, EGGS, AND GREEN OLIVES

Friends pop in for a meal and no meal is ready—what woman has not been in this predicament? This recipe solves the problem nicely: Eggs, bread, butter and a bottle of green olives always on hand, parsley in the garden, ham in the corner store—and you have everything you need.

Put one-half pound boiled ham through the food chopper and fry in a little butter. Add six eggs and mix thoroughly. Stir in one cup chopped Spanish green olives and one teaspoonful minced parsley. Serve hot on buttered toast. It's delicious.

One of our citizens recently made a trip to the mountains and was caught in a heavy rain storm. In order to secure shelter he crawled into a hollow log. The rain continued for some time and the log became soaked and swelled until he found that he was held fast and could not get out. He then began to meditate upon his good and bad deeds in the past and upon reflection discovered that he had never built a house in his home town, never repainted the old one he had bought, never repaired his fence, never built a garage for his car and when he happened to think that he had never made arrangements with the KEMP LUMBER COMPANY to place Mu-metal weather strips on his doors and windows to save his wife running all over the house with a dust cloth and mop and every time a car passed, he felt so small that he immediately crawled out of the log.

Call at our office and let us show you model of the best weather strip on the market for the money.

Burial Lot in Durham, N. H., Has the Only Spite Monument in Existence.

DISPUTE OVER WILL IS CAUSE

Brother and Sister Disagree Over What Constitutes a "Suitable Monument"—Courts Finally Called Upon to Settle Matter.

Durham, N. H.—Spite fences are not unusual, and there is the tradition of cutting off the nose to spite the face, but what is probably the only spite monument in existence stands in the little burial lot of the Joy family at Packer's Falls in this town. The outcome of years of family disagreements and controversies, a rough stone, bearing a quotation from the will of Sarah E. (Joy) Griffiths and erected as a reproach to her memory by her brother, Samuel Joy, still stands today in the little burial lot which has been owned by the Joy family since 1780, and the reason for its existence is almost forgotten.

A hand chiseled on the rough stone, which is of native New Hampshire granite and about 4 by 5 in dimensions, points to the handsome marble monument towering 15 feet above the ground and bearing the name of David F. and Sarah E. Griffiths. Beside the hand is the inscription in large capitals: "A Suitable Monument and Fit Up the Lot." It was the manner in which this provision in the will of his sister, Sarah, was carried out that angered Samuel and caused him to take such a novel means of perpetuating the memory of a fancied injustice.

Left Strange Will.

The story begins with the marriage of Sarah E. Joy to David F. Griffiths on February 11, 1846.

There were two children from the marriage, both of whom died in infancy, and David also died at the age of thirty-six years and was buried in the lot of the Griffiths family in Durham. It is not clear whether there was any ill-feeling between Sarah and her husband, but after his death she moved to Manchester, and in her will she requested that she be buried in the Joy family lot and not with her husband.

Sarah survived her husband by 32 years, dying in 1887. She left an estate of about $4,000—and a will. Her immediate heirs were Nancy S. Fesler, her sister, and Samuel, her brother. Apparently Nancy was not avaricious, but the $4,000 would have been of more gratification to Samuel had it not been for the will.

The stumbling block in the will was the provision that a suitable monument be erected to the memory of Sarah and the burial lot fitted up. Nancy and Samuel, the administrators, differed as to how this provision should be construed; Nancy insisting that an imposing monument be erected, while Samuel held that a "suitable monument" meant merely a simple headstone such as had been erected at the graves of other members of the Joy family buried in the lot.

Nancy, however, was firm for the "suitable monument," and insisted that her sister deserved a more imposing commemoration than a mere headstone.

After this controversy over the suitability of the monument had gone on for some time, Samuel became bitter. Deciding it was time to let the world know the folly of his sister, Sarah, in leaving such a will, he erected about her grave, which was still without a stone, a board fence on which he painted the words, "A $3,000 Grave."

Taken Into Court.

Up to this point the nephews of David F. Griffiths, Edward and Arioch, had taken no part in the quarrel, feeling that the affairs of their uncle's wife did not concern them. But at this overt act, Arioch decided that it was time for him to take a hand in the proceedings, and one dark night he removed the fence with its sarcastic legend and left the grave once more bare.

Samuel was not to be thwarted in his purpose, however, and his next move was to put up a small stone bearing the words, "I Am a Socialist."

What became of the stone remains a mystery. However, the son of Nancy Fesler had taken sides with his mother and with the Griffiths brothers and its disappearance is credited to him.

Three or four years had now passed since Sarah's death and the terms of her will had not yet been carried out. It was a hopeless deadlock, and after many fruitless conferences between Nancy and Samuel, the case was finally taken to court. George W. Sanborn of Kingston was appointed to execute the will, which he did without delay. His action must have given gratification to Nancy, for he caused to be erected a huge monument costing $3,500, and spent the remainder of the money on a fence to surround the lot.

Samuel, defeated on all sides, was still determined on revenge. Deprived of any participation in the estate of his sister and seeing his opponents victorious in the end, he hired a stone cutter to carve the hand and the words from the will on the block of granite and set it up in the burial lot about 20 feet from the marble shaft over which there had been such bitter feeling.
