MEASURING EUROPE'S FUTURE

Among statesmen and business men alike, one of the great economic question marks of the post war period is still the problem of Europe's recovery.

It has looked in recent years quite definitely as if Europe had turned the corner. Americans have poured billions of dollars into Europe to make this recovery a certainty instead of a probability. Readers of the financial pages had the choice between buying Austrian industrial bonds, German steel bonds, Italian hydroelectric issues,—and so they made possible the rehabilitation of a once poverty-stricken continent.

But then something else happened. Great American prosperity caused a boom in domestic securities without precedent requiring an enormous amount of money to finance this large volume of security speculation and causing in its wake the highest money rates seen in many a year. And thus with call money commanding a higher price in our markets than in Europe, no incentive existed to lend much further money to European industries, and on the contrary, millions of European dollars found their way into the New York money market. So we find Berlin, Vienna, Budapest and other centers with excessive bank rates, desperately trying to keep funds in their countries, yet simultaneously suffering from a business depression caused by these high money rates.

One of the brightest financial minds in the international field is an American, H. Murray Jacoby of New York, who has pointed out that there has always been much confusion in measuring accurately the real underlying intrinsic come back of Europe. His position is supported by the fact that a leading senator, sent by the late President Harding to central Europe after the war to report conditions, came back with the prediction of Chaos. Later, the president of one of the largest New York banks had to resign because he guessed wrong on Europe's recovery. On the other hand, the head of one of the large international banking houses was as optimistic as these other observers were pessimistic.

Washington is now told that the reparation settlement will solve the main difficulties of Europe. No less an authority than Professor Keynes says this is wrong and that the problem is still a problem. All this shows the difficulty of gauging the trend. In fact, the best existing yardstick with which to judge the European recovery is represented in the Jacoby-Stillich Index of European Production. This index is published annually by the Cambridge Associates, and represents in one single figure the agricultural output of the principal European countries, and in another figure the industrial output. It was created at the conclusion of the war as a purely scientific enterprise, by Mr. Jacoby, the New York banker and Doctor Oscar Stillich, German economist. With the confusion which the European economic picture presents at the present time, official Washington is relying on these figures more than on any other available material.

GOOD WILL — AND OTHERWISE

The Buick Motor company's decision and announcement that it will stop billboard advertising hereabouts is an investment in public good will that will pay dividends. It follows the example of no less a corporation than the Standard Oil Company, which has taken the lead in the move to preserve the beauty of the American landscape.

The Continental Oil Company, which took pains to build its filling stations here in the Santa Fe style so as to fit in with the community, invested in good will. It pays. Vere Boyle, the florist, who voluntarily deeded a strip of land along his property to the city to help beautify the Santa Fe river, and who is taking an active and useful part in this enterprise, has made a gilt edge investment in good will.

And by the same token, any citizen who attempts to block this community undertaking, who persists in trying to uphold a property title to the "middle of the river" and who contemplates having his private interest stick up like a sore thumb in the midst of the finest bit of civic beautification in the southwest is making an investment in community ill-will which will also pay dividends.

It is about time for a little plain talk.—Santa Fe New Mexican.

In the last issue of the Advocate there appeared 101 items of personal interest, sixteen items of social interest, twenty-five items of general interest to valley residents, fourteen local news items, twenty-seven personals from other communities, in addition to many other features appearing regularly in the Advocate.
And last week's issue was no exception.

BAIL FOR MRS. HALSEY

The following comment taken from WillRob's opinion in the Southwestern Dispatch, expresses pretty well the public's reaction to the fact that Mrs. Katherine Halsey was released on bail:

The popular reaction to the admission of Mrs.
Katherine Halsey to bail, with the probability that she will never again be brought to trial has been exactly what might have been expected.

It is a bad thing for the popular respect for the courts and the American system of justice, for it means that the laws are made to apply to some and not to others. The rest of this group are in the penitentiary for life, unless after a while, some governor sees the injustice of the matter and pardons them also. Certainly that should be done if this woman is given entire freedom, and finally escapes punishment altogether if one "material" witness has disappeared. His testimony given under oath and full rights of cross-examination, was transcribed in the first case, and there is not the least probability that it would be changed if he could be produced in court.

The real blame harks back to the supreme court, for in each case, Mrs. Halsey was tried before a competent and impartial court, before an excellent jury, with the fullest rights of attorney, and yet in its reluctance at hanging a woman, the higher tribunal recognized a technicality that while undoubtedly legal, was morally all wrong. But for the backbone of Governor Dillon, the men in the case would have been hung and the woman would have gone free, though she was equally guilty in fact with the rest of them.

There must be an entire re-alignment of attorneys if the case of Mrs. Halsey ever comes to trial, which it won't unless by some remote accident Zach Teal is located and brought into court.

The whole thing is a sad commentary on American legal process and unworthy of a law abiding state like New Mexico.

THE COMMUNIST HOLIDAY FAILS

August 1 was to have been a Communist "holiday."
All over the world, in the great cities, special details of police were on duty to keep order in case of demonstrations by the radicals on behalf of the "exploited" and "oppressed" wage earners.

August 1 came and nothing happened. It was merely another day. The Communist demonstration was a flat and pathetic failure. In this country, especially, the workers seem content to ride about in their automobiles, live in modern homes, attend high-grade amusements and work for good wages under the best of conditions.

It is from sources other than communism that danger threatens American ideals and traditions. The slow encroachment of local and federal socialism that has placed our government in competition with various lines of industries, all the way from printing envelopes to carrying freight and doing banking business, is insidiously undermining the doctrines of individualism and personal liberty.

As the politician is exalted, the private citizen is pushed down. Such a tendency constitutes the greatest menace to democracy and free government.

FEDERAL GOVERNMENT CUTS COST

At the end of the last fiscal year on June 30, the federal government had a surplus of $185,000,000 in the treasury, five times the estimated surplus. During the year the national debt was reduced $673,000,000 and is now less than $17,000,000,000.

The policy of retrenchment in federal expenditures established a few years ago, has resulted in the conversion of savings into tax reduction for the people.
Within eight years nearly two million people have been relieved entirely of federal taxation.

President Hoover has announced that a careful study is being made to determine the possibilities for reducing federal taxes in the future. This will probably be done, but it will be of little direct benefit to the public if the orgy of spending by local units of government, that has multiplied their cost time and again in recent years, is continued.

TOO GOOD TO BE TRUE.

Too good to be true! Friday a whole bunch of solicitors, including half a dozen boys and a girl, were around Las Cruces taking orders for magazines and succeeded in getting quite a bunch. But their proposition was so attractive that one or two customers became suspicious and phoned the sheriff. Lucero got on the job but the grapevine telegraph preceded him and the bosses of the gang got over the Texas line, leaving the kids here jobless and broke. The outfit was offering two magazines for 99 cents and throwing in a silk bedspread that was worth $5.00 of any woman's money.
Of course the subscribers would never see either the magazines or a bedspread. — Rio Grande Farmer.

TO LIMIT FEDERAL BUREAUCRACY

President Hoover will appoint a commission of nine or ten, five of which will be from public land states to study the existing policies now being pursued and to recommend changes in the existing laws, which might be beneficial to residents of western states. The measure will have for its purpose the bringing about of a greater control of the public lands situated within the states by the states themselves.

In a letter to Joseph M. Dixon assistant secretary of the interior, President Hoover wrote:
"Generally I may state," the chief executive said,
"that it is my desire to work out more constructive policies for conservation in our grazing lands, our water storage and our mineral resources, at the same time check the growth of federal bureaucracy, reduce federal interference in affairs of essentially local interest and thereby increase the opportunity of the states to govern themselves, and in all obtain better government."

TOBACCO

In the price paid in dollars and cents for tobacco in this country, the following comparative table compiled by the National Education Association for the year 1926, based on United States treasury department tax returns, is illuminating:

Cost of public school, elementary, secondary, and collegiate, in 1926	$2,255,251,327
Spent for tobacco, 1926	$2,087,110,000
Spent for life insurance 1926	$2,624,000,000

THE MAN WITH THE HOE

The following poem was sent to us by Wm. M. Carle, former pastor of the Artesia Presbyterian church.
This poem was composed by Rev.
Carle, who was pastor here during the years 1904-05:

Upon his back the burden of the world
He bears—for by his toil he feeds and clothes
Them all—and yet he stands unbowed by weight
Of load that long had crushed one less in strength.
Erect, and in his hand the hoe he holds
As scepter of a king. With flashing eye
And lifted head the very heaven he seems To pierce with that strong gaze.
What figure this!
Ye Gods! can this be into whose hands
Dominion of the earth was given when light.
Drove darkness into hell, revealing man
In God's own image made? God's image? Yes.
Then marred? O, yes. But, bowing to God's wise Decree "in sweat of face to eat his bread,"
He toils and sweats to turn the stubborn sod.

Unlashed by the city's lights so false
And vain, he dwells apart, and nurtured on Fair Nature's breast, he grows to man's estate
Beneath the soft, pure light of stars.
His gaze
Is fixt beyond their great, unfathomed depths,
And, rapt, he dreams of their Creator God.
And then in high adventure dares to call Himself God's son. A son? E'en now.
What yet,
God only knows. And, simple, humble, grand,
In conscious dignity he walks. One day
His country, torn, lifts up despairing cry.
He lays aside the hoe and takes the sword,
And, lo, there stands in majesty a
man,
A Washington; ev'n as the Lord of Heaven
Himself once proudly dared that cross so dread
And drop his saw and plane to save a world.

When you take inventory, balance your

TURNER'S HERE

Turner and daughter, Miss Catherine former residents of this section, now of Los Angeles, California stopped off here Tuesday for a short visit with friends while en route home from the Carlsbad Caverns. Many Artesia people who knew the elder Turner daughter, Miss Leola and who heard her in a recital given at the school auditorium several years ago will be interested to know that she is in France and will appear in grand opera at an early date. F. E. Turner is a pioneer ranchman of the Pecos valley and is well known to many of the early stockmen of this section.

METHODIST MISSIONARY SOCIETY PICNIC

LOSERS ENTERTAIN WINNERS—LION'S BANQUET

The Artesia Lions club with a group of the new hotel officials as their guests gathered in the roof garden of the new hotel on last Friday evening for an entertainment given as a result of an attendance contest recently closed in the Lion's club.

With the elevator running at record speed for twenty or thirty trips, the entire pack was assembled. Boone Barnett as captain of a group of Lions which recently lost in an attendance contest announced that refreshments would soon be available. About the same time, the "dumb waiter" appeared loaded with the feed. Each one present was soon munching on cheese sandwiches, ham sandwiches, onions, sardines, pretzels, soda pop and other items of refreshment.

From observation, it appeared as if Rube Dunn had been in the Sahara desert for a week. Howell Gage and Willis Morgan seemed to be going strong on the soda pop with Charles Sharp of the hotel company being the leading destroyer of sandwiches.

After the feed and a general survey of the city from the sixth story heights of the hotel, the fellows all enjoyed a friendly little pastime all their own. The elevator boy soon became sleepy so all had to descend and go home, declaring the event a worth while occasion.

There remains much to be said about the affair which may be kept a secret in the archives of the Lion's club.

THE VALUE OF SUNDAY SCHOOL TO OUR NATION AND COMMUNITY

True service and true religion are twin sisters and the supreme aim of both is character. The vast structure of modern society and government rests on the basis of character—honesty. The annual cost of crime would build three ten million dollar colleges annually.

Now character:—Virtuous character, must be cultivated, like all beautiful things. Religious education holds the hope of the future. Our nation cannot survive materially unless it is preserved spiritually.

"Where there is no vision, the people perish." What can give that vision but the faithful work of the Sunday school. Surely the time has come when the American parent must set aside his lazy habits and lead his children, (lead, and not merely send) to the church school every Sunday morning. What better heritage can a parent hand down to his child than the memory of a home and life which honored God's day, God's house and God's word.

Sunday, September 8th, has been set aside by the churches of Artesia as a "Go To Sunday School Sunday." Let all who have been negligent start this good habit and keep it up fifty-two Sundays each year.

JOHN P. SINCLAIR,
Secretary of Artesia Council of Churches.

STATE TREASURER WILL BUY DEBENTURE BONDS SEPTEMBER 1, HE SAYS

SANTA FE—State Treasurer Emerson Watts announced recently that he will buy $500,000 worth of state highway debentures out of the current school funds as soon as the debentures are printed about September 1.

Mr. Watts said he believes he has a buyer for the entire block of debentures and that the current school funds will be replaced as soon as he can resell the debentures.

He said he would follow the suggestion of District Judge Reed Holloman and would not sell the United States bonds in which permanent school funds are invested until the bond market recovers so that the school fund would not have to take a loss. The purchase of the $500,000 worth of debentures will permit the highway department program to go ahead and will enable the highway department to continue to finance the state until December taxes are paid.

Let the extra miles in CONOCO gasoline buy it for you....

IF you keep an accurate record of gasoline costs, you know that every extra mile you get from a gallon is so much velvet. In the aggregate these extra miles represent a handsome saving—enough to pay for those greatly desired accessories you've had in mind; perhaps a pair of new inner tubes or an extra set of spark plugs. That's why it will pay you well to fill only at the Conoco sign—the red triangle—the symbol of extra miles. Conoco gasoline is refined to produce maximum mileage without in any way sacrificing those other essentials of a good motor fuel—quick starting and rapid acceleration. It functions efficiently at every step in the driving operation with special emphasis on power and mileage.

Look for the new Conoco Red Triangle. Fill 'er up. Then speed away for extra miles.

FEDERAL FARM BOARD
TO HELP COTTON MEN
IN MARKETING CROP

Following a number of officials of the American Cotton Growers Exchange, the Federal Farm Board has tentatively agreed to make certain financial advances to cotton cooperative associations of the south to assist in the movement of this year's crop. These associations are now able to obtain loans from the Federal Intermediate Credit Banks to the amount of 65% of the value of the cotton. The Federal Farm Board proposes to loan an additional 25%—a total of 90% for the two government agencies—on cotton on which a definite value has been fixed by hedging in the futures market. The total volume of advances of this sort to be made by the Federal Farm Board will be limited only by the actual requirements of the cotton cooperative associations. It is expected that the sum involved for this year's marketing operations will run somewhere between $5,000,000 and $10,000,000.

The effect of the secondary loans by the Federal Farm Board will be to permit the cooperative association to make final settlement with the member-grower when the latter desires to sell his cotton, without forcing that cotton onto the market at a time when buyers may already be oversupplied.

CLOUDCROFT TO HAVE
AGRICULTURAL FAIR

At a meeting of the leading business men of Cloudcroft held last week it was decided to hold an agricultural fair at the pavilion at that place on the 19th, 20th and 21st of September of this year. Claud Herndon was elected chairman for the fair and David L. C. Hoyer was elected secretary treasurer. Arch Campbell is chairman of the finance committee, and all of the business men and the women of the community have pledged themselves to work hard and to make the fair a big success.

This is a splendid year to launch a fair project in the Cloudcroft community. Crops in the mountain section as well as in the valleys are the best that have been known in several years and there is an abundance of fine exhibit and all communities will be asked to cooperate in the fair. Premium lists and programs are being worked up and will be sent out within a short time to all parts of the county inviting everyone to bring in their exhibits and to join in the fun.

There will be the usual features of all agricultural exhibits and the lists will be comprised of fruits, vegetables, field crops, canned goods, baked goods, needle work, etc.

This is the first fair that Cloudcroft has attempted in several years and with the interest that is being shown it should be a good one. The weather should be delightful at that time of the year and a trip to the mountains with three days of profitable contact with other people of the county and things agricultural and horticultural and other kinds of cultural should appeal to every one in the county. The roads into Cloudcroft are better than they have been and it is a nice comfortable trip now. Cloudcroft will welcome its visitors and will leave nothing undone to show everyone a good time.

PIPE FOR NATURAL GAS
SYSTEM IS ON WAY

Five thousand feet of 6-inch pipe have been shipped to Clovis for the natural gas distribution system in this city according to a telegram to Joe Burkett, general manager of the Pecos Valley Gas Co.

The Frick-Reid Supply Co., of Tulsa, from whom the pipe was purchased, advised Mr. Burkett that the remainder of the pipe had been ordered from the factory and would be shipped immediately.

Morris Brown, representative of the gas company, is in Clovis to-day completing arrangements with Mr. Franklin, the engineer who will have charge of the work here, for starting work on the system. The big ditching machine will arrive the last of the week and before the middle of next week a large force of men will be at work.

From now until completed the work will be rushed on the system here and at Portales and on the pipe line from the Lea county gas fields—admittedly the largest potential gas production area in the world.

It is entirely probable, say gas company representatives, that natural gas will be available in Clovis by

WESTERN STATES
RECEIVE PROFFER
200,000,000 ACRES

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah—Representatives of eleven western states meeting here Monday received from the United States government a proffer of a gift of some 200,000,000 acres of public lands, regarded as askance and decided to think it over until tomorrow.

Governor George H. Dern of Utah who took the floor after Joseph M. Dixon, first assistant secretary of the interior, had made the offer as President Hoover's spokesman, expressed the fear that "what looks at a distance like a fine, large horse might turn out on closer inspection to be a white elephant."

Other speakers took a different view, and while some of them were not as enthusiastic as might be when gifts are in question, others urged that the public land states should take all they could get now, and hope for more later.

The difference of opinion arose over the proposal of the president that mineral rights to the lands, together with the forests and other acreage set aside for specific purpose such as national parks and Indian reservations, be withheld from the grant to the states.

Without the forest lands and the minerals, Governor Dern insisted, the land would be more of a liability than an asset to the states, which would have to administer it.

RED CROSS REBUILDS HOMES

SANTA FE.—The American Red Cross has agreed to underwrite all relief work in the lower Rio Grande flood area, including the building of adobe houses for families who have lost their homes, Miss Margaret Reeves head of the child welfare department, announced Tuesday after a conference with E. S. Transue, Red Cross flood relief director, before he returned to Socorro Tuesday.

Mr. Transue came to Santa Fe for a conference with the heads of state departments to apportion the relief work so there would be no overlapping in effort of financial expenditures.

There has been no conflict in authority, because the state workers have all placed themselves subject to the direction of Mr. Transue, since his arrival in the flood area from Denver, but it was felt that a fixed program would bring about the best results.

F. A. HUBBELL NOTED STATE POLITICIAN DIES IN CALIFORNIA MON.

ALBUQUERQUE. — Frank Alric Hubbell, 67 years old, the second outstanding republican leader of New Mexico to die within a week, died at six o'clock Monday morning at Santa Monica, California after an acute heart attack.

Thus within a week the state of New Mexico pays its final tribute to Frank A. Hubbell of Albuquerque and to Secundino Romero, of Las Vegas.

A native son of New Mexico of Spanish and English parentage Frank Hubbell from the time of his majority until the closing years of his life was one of the most powerful influences in republican politics in the state. He had been a leader and worker in the party and early in his life he built up a following particularly in the central section of the state which always had to be reckoned with in state or county conventions and in political campaigns.

SODA JERKERS TROUCE FIRE DEPARTMENT

The old adage of "age before beauty" was given a terrific blow on Thursday afternoon when the young and handsome "Soda Jerkers" defeated the veterans of the Fire Department in a hard fought baseball game at Brainard Athletic Park, to the tune of 19 to 1.

A large crowd, estimated at less than six hundred spectators witnessed the game, which developed into a battle between the fire fighters and Pashea, youthful twirler of the Root Beer dispensers. With Miller doing the receiving, Pashea had the batsmen at his mercy, allowing only two hits and sending fifteen men to the dugout by the strikeout route. The firemen used Richards, Bates and Feather in the pitchers box in an attempt to stop the slugging soda skeits.

HEALTH NEWS

I believe parents should know that we continue to have a few sporadic cases of diphtheria over the county. We quarantine one case and immunize all known contacts and seemingly controlled that outbreak. But in a few days or a few weeks another case will show up in another neighborhood. One case of diphtheria was reported in this county, recently, that was contracted in Arkansas.

The only way known to positively prevent diphtheria is to give all children three doses of toxin-antitoxin. It does not cost much. It is perfectly harmless and protects 90 to 95 per cent of those so immunized, for ten or more years. Probably for life.

Parents are urged to see their family physicians or the health officer and talk over the toxin-antitoxin treatment.

O. E. PUCKET, Health Officer.

Judge (after charging jury): "Is there any question that anyone would like to ask before considering the evidence?"

Juror: A couple of us would like to know if the defendant boiled the mash one or two hours, and how he keeps the yeast out?"

AN ARRAY OF NOTED SPEAKERS EXPECTED AT LEGION CONVENTION

With an array of speakers including such dignitaries as Governor R. C. Dillon, Senators Bronson M. Cutting and Sam G. Bratton and Congressman A. G. Sims gracing the program, the state convention, of the American Legion will be held in Las Cruces, New Mexico, September 5th, 6th and 7th.

The New Mexico senators and congressmen have, of necessity, limited their promise on the condition of national legislation that is coming up now for hearing. All three have very important committee memberships. However, they have signified their intention of meeting with the boys in Las Cruces, and it is expected that each will have a part on the program of the Legion convention.

Governor Dillon has been very busy helping the flood sufferers of San Marcial. He has given this problem his personal attention and there is hope that with the continued vital interest there, and with the state game department meeting at Hot Springs just ahead of the Legion convention, the lower end of the state will have him as their guest during the convention period.

FUEL SUPPLY IN THE PLYMOUTH ENGINE IS CONTROLLED BY PUMP

"Automobile owners who have burned out engine bearings because of low oil supply can appreciate the fuel and lubrication systems in the Plymouth engine—an engine in which it is practically impossible for this accident to occur," according to H. E. Heath, service manager of the Plymouth Motor Corporation at Detroit.

"The principal on which the Plymouth engine operates," said Mr. Heath, "is the control of the vacuum tank by means of the pump which circulates the lubricating oil to all moving parts of the engine. The fuel feeding system and the lubrication system thus work together and each acts as a check upon the other.

"This system of feeding fuel to the engine," he continued, "is quite simple, yet it has many advantages. A suction line running from the oil pump to the vacuum tank creates a vacuum in this tank supplying gasoline to the carburetor. In actual operation, if the supply of oil becomes low so that it no longer circulates to the bearings and other wearing parts of the engine, the suction line does not produce a vacuum in the tank and the engine stops running for want of gasoline.

"Another advantage of the system is the fact that the vacuum in the tank is at all times in harmony with the speed of the engine.

As the engine is speeded up there is a consequent greater demand for gasoline. The speeding of the engine, by causing the oil pump to operate faster, causes a greater vacuum in the tank with the result that an increasing supply of gasoline is actually delivered to the engine. This differs from the inlet manifold type of vacuum control in that the greatest vacuum is produced when it is needed most, while the older system the greatest vacuum is available when the throttle is closed and the engine should be burning a minimum amount of gasoline.

This is but one of a number of quality features of the Plymouth car that are found in the low priced field exclusively on the Plymouth. The Plymouth, being a Chrysler Motors product, is built to certain standards of quality that are insisted upon for all Chrysler products. Not only must the Plymouth car maintain its own good name—it must maintain the good name of every Chrysler Motors product.

BUSINESS ORGANIZATIONS FOSTER THRIFT PLANS

By S. W. Straus, President American Society for Thrift.

Thrift plans fostered by business organizations for the benefit of their own employees are being given wide attention.

Encouraging indeed is this sign of progress. Business is realizing more and more that it helps itself most when it in turn helps others.

These thrift plans take various forms, being called in some cases, profit-sharing, employee stock ownership, thrift and welfare policies.

Many corporations are assisting their employees to purchase stock on a most profitable basis and often below the open market price. Such stock ownership gives the employee a more intense interest in his work and permits him to make a profit on his activity in addition to his salary or wage. Other corporations provide home ownership plans whereby the company in each instance helps the employee in owning a home. Special savings plans are also frequently used by firms and corporations for the benefit of the employees.

To be happy and successful in business requires happiness and success in the home.

Thus business organizations which encourage thrift among employees are in turn reaping the rewards of greater efficiency.

But this is not to be viewed from the standpoint of selfishness. While the company secures benefits from the thrift of its employees, the community, the nation and society in general are likewise benefited. The establishment of a thrifty family in a community is always an added force to the progress of that community.

As this movement gains headway, real progress in the problem of human relations will be achieved.

PROGRESS IN NATION'S CAPITOL

Workmen are busy tearing down the war hotels located between the capitol and the Union Station. When they are cleared away the land will be converted into a beautiful plaza, which was the original intention, when it was purchased.

This is the beginning of the removal of the mushroom buildings that the World War forced the government to erect. A large number of the departments and commissions that are engaged in doing the work of the nation are still housed in temporary buildings, just as they were during the war. These buildings are probably the most uncomfortable, winter and summer, in Washington; so uncomfortable in summer that on very hot days the clerks are unable to stay in them after 2:00 p. m., and are released.

With the completion of the great building program on the Mall, now under way, most of these government agencies will be well housed in the most modern buildings in Washington. There is now going up the last unit of the Department of Agriculture building, the Internal Revenue building and the immense Department of Commerce building. Others have been projected, and work on them will start within a year or two.

One can appreciate how the government has grown within a generation from two simple facts. Twenty-five years ago the Department of Commerce was very insignificant; today it is building the largest building in Washington and one of the largest in floor space in the world to house its various activities. Attorney General Olney of Cleveland's last cabinet occupied, with his entire staff, a small residence; to-day Attorney General Mitchell has an eleven story office building to house his staff, and it is cramped.

OLDEN TEXT—The hand of our

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC— How Prayer Helps.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC— Prayer and Providence.

The Leader—Ezra (7:1-10).
Who he was (vv. 1-6).
A priest (vv. 1-5). He was from the which was to stand between and the people, a descendant of Ah, the chief priest who had a back to Aaron. The leader of first company was Zerubbabel, a of military governor. The great now was for a religious leader, the people had gone far from God.

A ready scribe (v. 6).
was a teacher of the law of A scribe's training began at thir-years, but he did not enter upon official duties till thirty years of giving him seventeen years of age.

His high ambition (vv. 7-10).
He set his heart to seek the of the Lord (v. 10). He definitely with the purpose to know God's No one who purposes in his to seek the law of the Lord can

He set his heart to obey the (v. 10).
was not only concerned with ing God's word, but obeying it. word cannot be known in its ess by the intellect; it must be fenced.

He set his heart to teach in God's statutes and judgments (v. 10). He not only had a love for word, but a desire to implant it the hearts of others.

Ezra's Commission (7:11-26).
The king, gave him a of the decree, authorizing him to company back to Jerusalem.
The king empowered him;

to collect funds (vv. 15, 16).
to levy tribute (vv. 21, 22).
to appoint magistrates and judges to execute penalties (v. 26). this great favor Ezra lifted his to God in thanksgiving (vv. 27, 28).

The Company Which Returned
(v. 1).
company was comparatively only seventeen hundred and four males, but including women and servants there were seven thousand people.

Ezra's Prayer and Fasting
(8:1-18).
The first thing that Ezra did was God's guidance. All Christians, as leaders of the people, seek divine guidance and help in new undertakings. No success is realized without His help and guidance. The reason Ezra sought the help was that as far as possible he desired his mission to be free from human dependence. He did not fear the dangers attending his journey, but since he had assured the king that the hand of the Lord would be with him, he was now ashamed to ask the king for a military escort to protect them from the marauding Arabs. His desire was to prove to the king the value of God's help, for God's honor and the heathen was at stake. This was the real test of faith, but God was with him.

The Successful Journey (8:24-35).
The king heard their prayer. The transported to them was great. Percentage of the value of money and of the journey was about five million pieces of silver. For a small caravan carrying an amount of money to go to a country infested by robbers was most perilous, but Ezra trusted that God was able and would help them. Observe:

God's care should be exercised in the Lord's money.
their safe arrival (vv. 31, 32). four and one-half months were to make the journey. God them safely to their destination proving that He is faithful who put their trust in Him.

Answer Not Always Yes
The girl had been invited to a party. Being a devout little prayed for fine weather and time. But on the morning of the skies were gray and rainy. Instead of roaming in the she stood looking out on a landscape. "You prayed for her, dearie," said her mother.
"He hasn't answered your prayer?" "Oh, yes. He has, came the apt reply, "and said 'No.'"

KATHERINE HALSEY MAY NEVER GO TO TRIAL AGAIN--REPORT

Nannie Catherine Halsey, released Friday from the Chaves county jail under bond of $7,500 after spending more than five years in prison, may never again be brought to trial on a charge of being an accessory to the murder of her husband.

This was the opinion expressed Saturday by attorneys of Roswell and others closely in touch with the case. Upon two occasions Mrs. Halsey has heard a jury return a verdict of guilty in her case. Upon one occasion she was sentenced to hang and upon another sentenced to serve 99 years in the state prison in Santa Fe.

Mrs. Halsey spent several years in the "death row" at the penitentiary at Santa Fe with a sentence of death hanging over her. Before and after that time she has spent considerable time in the jails of Eddy, Chaves and Curry counties, awaiting the outcome of appeals to the state supreme court.

Her alleged conspirators in the death of her husband, Fred Halsey, prominent ranchman and farmer of the Hope section in Eddy county, are now serving life sentences in the state penitentiary. William Archer known as "Cottonwood Bill," the mystery man from Texas, is serving his sentence by virtue of a commutation from Governor Dillon.

Governor Dillon's action followed an order of the supreme court, ordering that Luther Foster's sentence be changed from life imprisonment and that Mrs. Halsey be granted a new trial.

Zack Teal was the principal witness against Mrs. Halsey and efforts to locate him since the first trial have failed. Unless Teal is located Mrs. Halsey will probably never face another jury. Just what influence has been brought into play which has prevented Teal from being located by officials, no one cares to say.

Because the supreme court ruled that Judge Brice did not permit attorneys to complete their cross examination of Teal in the first trial, the state is prevented from presenting to another jury a transcript of the Teal testimony as given on the first trial.

A number of other witnesses testified during the trial here that Foster, alleged to have been a sweetheart of Mrs. Halsey, offered them various sums to kill Halsey, but Teal was the only witness who testified directly that Mrs. Halsey had offered him inducements to kill her husband.

There is a mass of circumstantial testimony against Mrs. Halsey in this case which might be presented to a jury, but without the testimony of Zack Teal, it is believed that a conviction would be impossible.

Mrs. Halsey left the Chaves county jail Friday just before noon, leaving no address, although it was believed that she was on her way to Carlsbad and other points in Eddy county.

The bond was signed by J. C.
Queen, Samuel Hughes, J. M. Pardue, and R. J. Toffelmire, all of Carlsbad.

From the Federal Intermediate Credit Bank and the Federal Farm Board, the association will receive advances equal to 90% of the fixed value. To this amount the cotton associations will add 10% from their own capital reserves, will pay in full the grower who is in distress and must have money, and will at the same time be able to merchandise the cotton in an orderly fashion as the spinning mills of the world require it.

CARBON PAPER—The Advocate

COVER CROPS PAY DIVIDENDS IN SOUTH

A green cover crop is a great advantage to cultivated soils in the south during the winter months, says the research department of the National Association of farm equipment manufacturers. In many cases, a cover crop holds the soil fertility.
When a cover crop such as vetch, rye or Austrian peas is plowed under in the spring, it adds plant food for the crop to follow and helps to increase yields.

In an experiment at the Mississippi station in 1928, corn produced on land where vetch had been grown and plowed under yielded 75 per cent more than corn on land which had no cover crop.

The Mississippi station recommends hairy vetch and Australian winter peas for cover crops because they are hardy and adapted to a wide range of soils. They have an additional advantage in being legumes. Rye is another cover crop, as are fall sowed wheat and oats. Crimson and bur clover can be used to advantage in some sections.

Early planting is considered best for cover crops, although any time between the first of September and the last of October is generally satisfactory. Any of the cover crops or crop mixtures can be seeded with a broadcast seeder. Cotton middles often make a good seed bed as they are but may need disking if too grassy. The seed can be covered lightly with a spring tooth harrow or any cultivator with small shovels.
If the seedbed needs firming, it is often helpful to follow the harrow or cultivator with a soil pulverizer.

The Mississippi station recommends plowing the cover crop under from two to six weeks before the planting time of the crop to follow in the spring.

BIG INCREASES IN STATE CROPS NOW FORECAST

LAS CRUCES—A substantial increase in a number of farm crops for New Mexico is indicated by forecasts recently issued by R. F. Hare, agricultural statistician. Corn production is forecast at 4,335,000 bushels against a production last season of 3,482,000. The winter wheat yield estimated at 4,730,000 bushels is said to be the largest ever recorded in the state. The yield last year was 1,500,000.

Yield forecast for other important crops follows: Oats, 1,272,000 bu.; barley, 302,000; rye, 18,000; potatoes, 260,000; beans 1,260,000; grain sorghum, 4,036,000; broom corn, 7,000 tons; cotton, 91,000 bales; hay 475, 000 tons; apples, 475,000 tons; pears, 555,000 bu.; peaches, 101,000 bu.

OILERS FAIL TO HOLD LEAD AND ROSWELL TAKES GAME SUNDAY

The Oilers were unable to hold an early lead at Brainard Park, Sunday and thereby lost another game to the Roswell Giants. The local players and fans alike were enjoying a seven run lead till the sixth, when Roswell broke out with a four run rally. From this time onward everything went Roswell by a large majority.

Gifford and Brainard alternated the pitching burden for the locals, while Mickey and H. Etz did likewise for the visitors. Gifford pitched some great ball for five innings but couldn't get by the sixth. Mickey experienced trouble even sooner, and had to trade places with H. Etz, who in turn was ready to trade back when he got into trouble in the ninth. The locals started things in the third by making five runs. McCutcheon hit one to right field that Harris was kind enough to kick under a car. McCutcheon made the round trip while Harris was looking for the ball. The Oilers added the other four on singles by Watson and Manda, Fessler's double and another brace of singles by Brainard and Kyle.

Jackson made a great catch of Mickey's drive in the fourth to cut off a Roswell marker. R. Etz, who was on second at the time set sail for the plate thinking it was a sure hit. Jackson doubled him off second with a throw to Manda.

Brainard walked with one away in the fifth and went all the way to third a little later when no one covered second on Nymeyer's peg. Rideout also walked and Gifford scored both runners with a double. This ended the scoring for the locals.

Gifford's sprint to second seemed to affect his pitching in the next round, as the Giants got to him for four runs on his by Harris and Fellows, Nymeyer's infield out, two wild pitches; followed by Brainard's error and Short's single.

The Roswell outfit evened things up in their half of the eighth by counting three times. With two men down, Henry Etz doubled and Mickey scored him with a single. At this time Mr. Short, the Art Shires of local baseball, hit one in the general direction of Roswell which cleared the left field fence with several feet to spare. The visitors finished things in the ninth by scoring three more. Pirtle singled after Welpton was an infield out. Pirtle went to third on Fellow's single and scored when Nymeyer rapped to Gifford at first, who made a belated effort to throw the runner out at home. Roswell then added two more for good luck.

Roswell made an effort to give the game back to the locals on the last of the ninth, but the home boys didn't seem to be in a receptive mood. H. Etz walked the first two men and turned the ball over to Mickey, who walked Brainard. This brought Kyle up with the bases full and no outs. Mickey's first offering to Kyle was low and got away from Nymeyer, but Fessler was out at the plate when he attempted to score. Kyle then struck out and Rideout's best effort was a feeble roller to Short.

HEALTH NEWS

Dr. Puckett visited the City and County Health offices in El Paso last week, and found a number of cases of small-pox had been reported in Jaurez and El Paso. Both county and city health officers are vaccinating adults and children against the disease.

It is a very easy matter for small-pox to be transmitted quite a distance. Cotton pickers are liable to come into the Pecos valley from Jaurez and El Paso at any time. People of Eddy county are warned of this out-break, and those wishing to be protected may get vaccinated.

Eddy County Health Department.

THE JACKSON-BOLTON CHEVROLET CO. WILL STAGE BANQUET SOON

V. D. Bolton, junior member of the Jackson-Bolton Chevrolet Co., plans to spend the week end in El Paso arranging for extra cars during the months of September and October. Mr. Bolton is expecting to stage the greatest selling campaign in the history of the firm during these two months and will be prepared to care for the extra business with an additional number of new cars. During the present year the firm has more than doubled the quota and has sold more than 650 new and used cars. The first anniversary of the company will end on September 1st and the event will be commemorated with a banquet, the date and place to be announced later.

RAISE HERD RECORD 5,000 POUNDS PER COW

The average milk production of a herd of dairy cows in Tioga, county, New York was raised 5,000 pounds per year by the employment of modern methods, says the research department of the National Association of farm equipment manufacturers. The herd, which is owned by K. Bradley and Giles Cartright of Spencer, had an average production of 11,856 pounds of milk for the testing year 1928-29. The increase transferred the herd from the doubtful columns to a profitable basis.

Gordon Holley, Dairy Herd Improvement Association representative who tested the herd, comments on this exceptional record as follows: "This herd produced 5,000 pounds more milk per cow this year than a year ago. The increase production can be accounted for by: (1) better feeding and general management, (2) water buckets (drinking cups), (3) better ventilation and more comfortable stalls."

TEXAS TO OPEN BIDS ON EL PASO-ARTESIA ROAD

The El Paso Post of August 15th, carries the following item with reference to El Paso connecting with the Artesia link of the western highway:

Preliminary steps toward connecting El Paso by a direct highway with the rich trade territory around Artesia will be taken September 10, when the state highway department opens bids on construction of 12.5 miles of the road.

The road is to be built in Hudspeth county with funds of the El Paso-Hudspeth county road district.

It will leave the new Carlsbad highway 29 miles from El Paso and run 12.5 miles north to the Texas-New Mexico line.

From the end of this construction a road will have to be built in New Mexico to Russel Gap, where a road now leads over to Artesia.

Chambers of Commerce of both El Paso and Artesia are interested in the construction of the road. If the state of New Mexico cannot be induced to build the connecting link between Russel Gap and the state line a movement probably will be started to raise funds for the work by public subscription.

OILERS LOSE ANOTHER GAME TO ROSWELL THURSDAY, SCORE 6-12

Manager Brainard started a new hurler against the Giants at Roswell Thursday, in the person of a Mr. Parr, much to the delight of the Roswell hitters who made nine runs off his delivery before Brainard decided that Mr. Parr was not on a par with the Roswell batters. He gave way for a pinch hitter in the fourth and Fessler finished with better results.

Pirtle, who started for the Giants made a hurried exit in the third when Brainard and Kyle got to him for successive home runs, scoring four markers all told. Mickey had very little trouble over the remainder of the route.

Both teams put up a ragged fielding exhibition, many misplays figuring in the scoring.

The score:

Artesia	004 011 000-6 11 5
Roswell	126 000 012-12 14 3

BAG LIMIT OF FIFTEEN FOR DUCK HUNTERS NOW

SAN FRANCISCO—A resolution favoring a nationwide reduction of duck shooting limits to 15 ducks per person, was adopted recently by the western association of state fish and game commissioners at the concluding session of their two-day meeting here. All but four of the eleven states represented at the meeting have a 15-duck limit law. California permits the shooting of 25 ducks per person in one day, although recent legislation limits shooting to three days a week and holidays.

W. L. Perry, state fish and game warden, Santa Fe, N. M., was elected associate president for the ensuing year. Santa Fe, N. M., was selected for the 1930 meeting.

HUGE SUM SPENT YEARLY ON OIL WELLS

NEW YORK—More than $500,000,000 was spent in this country last year in drilling wells for oil and gas. As near as can be estimated the total expenditure was $503,332,000, but the American Petroleum Institute which canvassed oil companies on the subject, believes this figure errs on the side of conservatism.

The average cost of drilling a well was $22,450, as compared with the $2,500 average cost 20 years ago. Moreover, the average well of 1928 went to depths of 4,000 to 7,000 feet. Two decades ago a well 1,000 to 2,000 feet down was a "deep" hole.

The information is contained in "Petroleum Facts and Figures," year book of the petroleum industry, newly published by the American Petroleum Institute in the 1929, or second edition. Costs of drilling wells and production figures represent only one phase of the information concerning the petroleum industry and its place in the world picture, contained in the 287 page volume. The industry's many and varied activities are covered in a manner that supplies the reader, professional or lay, with a vast amount of information and reference material—technical, statistical, historical and general.

Tables and figures appearing in the 1928, or first edition, have been brought up to date. Several new sections have been added, notably those on taxation, uses of petroleum, marketing practices, petroleum substitutes, costs of drilling, the petroleum conservation movement and the code of marketing practices.

The volume indicates that of the 22,331 wells completed last year, only 12,526 actually produced oil. Gas was obtained from 2,727 and 7,078 were reported "dry." These dry holes, incidentally, cost the industry about $24,000 each, or $165,799,000 in all.

CATTLE SALE AT MESCALERO

At a cattle sale at the Mescalero Indian reservation Friday nearly 1,000 head were sold. They netted the Indians nearly $50,000. Seven hundred old cows brought $58.55 around, and a ten per cent cut-back $48.55 each. Two hundred forty yearlings, heifers and steers sold at $50.05 around and 28 bulls sold at better than $75 a piece. Ranges on the reservation are said to be the best in years and the range superintendent, Fred Crosby, with about 15 cowboys will begin the annual roundup this month. About 3,500 young calves are branded in the roundup and the herds are sorted into different pastures at that time.—Alamogordo Advertiser.
