COTTON PRODUCTION OF PECOS VALLEY WILL PASS 45,000 BALES

Expected To Exceed Last Year's Record By At Least 3,000 Bales—North Eddy County To Pick 10,000 Bales.

The Pecos valley is expected to harvest better than 45,000 bales of cotton this year, against 42,000 for last year, a record yield up to that time. Some estimates place the present production of the valley cotton crop at 50,000 bales, but this figure is generally regarded as a little high. North Eddy county will easily produce 10,000 bales this year, despite the fact that upward of 1,000 bales was lost in a hail storm in the Artesia section during the early part of October. Last year north Eddy county with the Lake Arthur section included gathered 10,000 bales of cotton, this year, the yield will run higher.

Ginnings of the Pecos valley thru the 21st totaled 37,876 bales, divided as follows: Carlsbad project 16,000 bales, north Eddy county 8,551; Hagerman district 4,933; Roswell district 7,852. Valley ginnings on this date were slightly more than 10,000 bales ahead of the corresponding period of last year which totaled 27,468 bales.

Ginnings of this district ran 8,753 bales according to tabulations compiled up to Tuesday evening, which is 569 bales ahead of last week. The ginnings are divided as follows:

Cottonwood gin.....	1,925
Association gin, Espula.....	1,719
Association gin, Artesia.....	2,197
Farmers gin, Artesia.....	1,409
Association gin, Atoka.....	1,503
Total.....	8,753

W. A. LOSEY IS ELECTED PRESIDENT OF BANKERS ASSOCIATION, GROUP 3

Representatives from six banks were present at the Artesia hotel roof garden on Saturday night for the regular quarterly business meeting and the annual election of officers for group number three of the New Mexico Bankers Association. This group is composed of all banks located in Chaves, Eddy, Lea, Lincoln and Otero counties.

The main feature of the program was a report of the annual convention of the American Bankers Association, which was held at Cleveland, Ohio. This report was made by Mrs. Margaret Barnes of Albuquerque, secretary of the New Mexico Bankers Association. A general discussion of cooperative advertising and group credit information was given by W. A. Losey, cashier of the First National Bank of Hagerman, and G. K. Richardson of Carlsbad, president of the New Mexico Bankers Association.

W. A. Losey was elected chairman of this group of the state organization with W. J. McInnis, cashier of the Bank of Commerce of Roswell elected as vice-chairman. Floyd Childress, auditor of the First National Bank of Roswell was reelected to the office of secretary and treasurer. D. C. Berry, cashier of the Lea county State Bank of Lovington and E. M. Brickley, cashier of the First National Bank of Carrizozo were elected as members of the executive board.

This concern recently opened for business in the new location and will distribute the International Harvester Company's complete line of farm implements. A formal opening of the Meyers Company has been planned as soon as several car loads of machinery now en route to Artesia have been unloaded and placed on display, according to announcement made by James P. Bates, local manager. The Meyers Company now maintains stores at El Paso, Loving, Cloudcroft, Las Cruces, Fabens, Texas and Chihuahua, Mexico, carrying a complete line of farming implements.

The office personnel of the Artesia store consists of James P. Bates, local manager and Dayton Reser, who has charge of the service and repairs. All employees of the Meyers Company are trained for the distribution work and are required to familiarize themselves with the sales and service end of the work. Mr. Waterman and his associates were in Artesia last week, writing up orders for several car loads of machinery for the Artesia and Carlsbad houses.

TURNING MERCHANDISE INTO READY MONEY

"Turning merchandise into money," is what the Peoples Mercantile Co., propose to do for twenty-three days, beginning Friday. Prices on wearing apparel have been greatly reduced on many items in order to move the merchandise. The sale of the Peoples Mercantile Co., is a valley wide affair and includes all stores in this section. The message of this concern will be found in a double page ad in to-day's issue. The many bargains offered will have a special appeal to the holiday shopper.

The Pecos Valley Compress Co., at Roswell has compressed better than 29,000 bales, according to a report the first of the week. At the same time, gins of the valley report more than 38,000 bales ginned.

Texas School Teacher Is Fatally Hurt In Accident

Miss Sophia Pappenhagen
Dallas, Killed When Car
Is Overtaken Tuesday P.
M. North Roswell, When Tire Blows Out.

Losing control of her car on the Vaughn highway, 12 miles north of Roswell Tuesday afternoon, Miss Sophia Pappenhagen, 55, a pioneer school teacher of Dallas, was killed instantly when the vehicle plunged into a 10 foot ditch at the side of the road, according to the Roswell Dispatch.

Mrs. Bell L. Martyn, also of Dallas, who was driving with Miss Pappenhagen, was only slightly injured in the accident.

Miss Pappenhagen and Mrs. Martyn were returning to Dallas after visiting friends in Santa Fe when the accident occurred. They were traveling at a moderate rate of speed when the Buick sedan became unmanageable, Mrs. Martyn said. A blowout is believed to have caused the crash.

The Dallas visitors had planned to go to Carlsbad and visit the cavern, before returning to their homes.

D. D. Wimberly, Roswell, came by the scene of the accident immediately after the crash and brought Mrs. Martyn to Roswell. A Talmadge ambulance was dispatched to the scene and brought the dead woman to Roswell.

An inquest Tuesday night placed the cause of death as an accident. Miss Pappenhagen was prominent in Dallas, having taught school in that city for 35 years, 32 of which were spent in the Bryan High school. She was the teacher of several of Dallas' most prominent citizens.

With Mrs. Martyn, Miss Pappenhagen left Dallas last Wednesday and drove to Santa Fe on what was to have been a brief vacation.

The dead woman is survived by relatives in Ohio and Pennsylvania. Attempts were being made Tuesday night to communicate with these relatives. Meantime, the body is being held at Talmage Mortuary pending funeral arrangements.

GETTY INSTALLING PUMPING MACHINERY

The Getty Oil Co., is installing three new independent pumping units over three wells in the Getty pool, from which they plan to supply road oil for the State Oil and Refining plant at Dayton. The largest well of the group of completions will not be produced at the present time.

BULLDOGS WILL CLOSE FOOTBALL SEASON AT CARLSBAD TURKEY DAY

The Artesia high school Bulldogs will close the football season, Turkey Day at Carlsbad, when they meet their ancient enemy, The Cavemen. The Turkey Day game is usually rated as the most important of the season from the stand point of interest. Just now it appears that the two opposing teams are pretty evenly matched. Early in the season, the two elevens played to a scoreless tie here and it will be recalled that Artesia and Carlsbad played a scoreless tie last Thanksgiving. Artesia has developed considerable strength since the first meeting with Carlsbad this year and will furnish plenty of competition. If Carlsbad wins the Thanksgiving game and Portales loses to Clovis, the Cavemen will lay claim to the championship of eastern New Mexico. But there is a great big "IF" and Artesia is the major part of that if.

The probable starting line up follows:

A STABILIZING FACTOR

Recent bank failures in some sections of the east,
indicate that these particular sectors of the country have not reached the bottom of the present business depression yet. The quicker the bottom is reached, however, the quicker will the country as a whole return to normal. The worst seems to have passed in most sections of the country and business is on the upgrade.

The Pecos valley and eastern New Mexico, has been fortunate so far. Social conditions are not as we would like to see them, but unless something unforeseen happens, we will not be compelled to undergo the sufferings experienced by some parts of the nation.
We occupy a rather peculiar and fortunate position at the present time, after this section of the country has apparently learned its lesson during the period following the war. Among the things that we learned was that over-expansion was bad business and must be reckoned with.

In view of the fact that conditions have been more nearly normal here than many other parts of the country, should stabilize property values or should at least assist in stabilizing values. For the past ten or twelve years, farm lands in the Pecos valley have not brought a value in proportion to their returns. This state of affairs was brought about by uncertainty, but it appears to us that the uncertainty has been largely removed and should boost the value of the farm lands.

SOME FACTS

Here are the "Ten Advantages" of newspaper advertising as given by the Bureau of Advertising of the American Newspaper Publishers Association:

1. Newspapers reach everyone. Just about everyone who reads at all reads a newspaper.
2. Newspaper advertising produces immediate action.
3. Newspaper advertising tells where to buy.
4. Newspaper advertising enables the advertiser to check results.
5. The newspaper dollar goes farther—reaches more readers.
6. Newspaper advertising insures dealer goodwill.
7. In newspaper advertising only profitable markets need be selected.
8. "Newspaper advertising" is a product of the ability to spot copy quickly.
9. Newspaper advertising enlists many aids to distribution.
10. Every newspaper fits its market.—N. E. A. Bulletin.

HOUSE CLEANING IN SANTA FE

If all reports be true the incoming administration evidently believes that "to the victor belongs the spoils," as there has been much talk of a general house cleaning. The house may need cleaning all right, but it is certainly a questionable policy so far as the public interest is concerned to make a clean sweep without even leaving a working nucleus. Such a policy which has been followed by both parties more or less makes it more evident that some of the public offices should be taken out of politics. This is especially true of the land office, now probably the most important office in the state. This office furnishes a large portion of the state revenue as well as a large portion of the common school funds and the chances are that it will furnish an increasing amount of money to the public schools and state institutions
as the oil development in this section continues.

It is highly important that a constructive policy be inaugurated with reference to the development of our resources and that the same policy be adhered to, regardless of the changes in administration. Producing oil companies are loathe to invest in state oil leases where there is likelihood that the leasing law and the general procedure may be changed, hence we do not believe that Mr. Hinkle the land commissioner elect, will submit to any drastic change in the administration of the affairs of his office.

It is easy enough to make a cleaning in every office in the capitol, but difficult to give efficient service, until such time as the employees to be, learn the run of the office. Complications might arise that would turn the tide and we would face the prospect of another house cleaning two years from now. Least of all we do not envy the positions of the incoming officers at the present time with the horde of office holders to satisfy. Regardless of the quality of appointments made there will be a bunch of disgruntled politicians to pacify.

GIVE RELIGION A CHANCE

Business and politics have failed to solve the most serious of all post-war problems, now give religion a chance, urges Doctor Henry A. Atkinson. Put prosperity up to the churches.

Doctor Atkinson is the general secretary and organizer of the world conference for international peace through religion, which, in November, 1932, will bring together in Washington leaders of all the major religions to consider how the church people of the world
—Christians, Jews, Mohammedans, Buddhists and all the other great sects—can best cooperate to prevent war. Economic conditions will undergo no permanent improvement, he believes, until the world has better assurance of a peaceful future. In a report to his executive committee, which includes such leaders
as Doctor S. Parkes Cadman, Doctor Einstein of Germany, Doctor Tagore of India, and the Lord Bishop of Liverpool, England, Doctor Atkinson says:

"Wherever one turns one finds cynicism in the face of existing conditions and skepticism regarding any possibility of a peaceful future. Economic conditions are bad all the world over. At a time when the industries of the world should be to their utmost capacity to build up what was destroyed during the years of war, we find the wheels slowing down, or that they have come to a complete stop. The religions of the world have at their command the force for helping humanity at this juncture of world affairs. If the combined religious, moral and spiritual resources of mankind coordinated and brought to bear upon these problems cannot help, then there is no help possible."

Plans for the Washington Conference thus take on a new significance. Can religions succeed where business and politics have failed?

GIVE THANKS

To-day has been set aside by the state and national leaders as a day of thanksgiving. We should remember that there is still a great deal to be thankful for even if cotton is a dime, and boll worm and hail have caused deductions from that. It takes a great spirit, a philosopher, and moral hero to be thankful for the misfortunes of life. In our ascendancy over burdens, and catastrophes, we are lifted nearer to God. A picture cannot be made with white paint alone. There must be the depth that is given by the darker colors.
Even so it is with life. The colorless existence is a bane to development of character, and it is the weight and trial of misfortunes that strengthens our body, our mind, or our soul. Be thankful that you are men enough to give thanks, in a time when you had rather grumble at your hard luck.

INSIDE INFORMATION

A convenient arrangement of the kitchen with work centers in a logical sequence reduces the time spent in it.

When introducing new foods into a child's diet, give only one food at a time, and that in small quantity,
well cooked and nicely served.

A 3 year old child can be taught to carry a plate of food or a glass of milk safely, and takes great delight in doing so. He learns self-reliance and independence. He can carry a tray of lunch if it is not too heavy, and play at "cafeteria."

To protect the top of blankets and quilts from being soiled, bind
the edge with a piece of cheesecloth or other inexpensive material about 16 inches wide, matching the blanket in color. When this is soiled it can easily be removed and laundered.

Always cook okra in an agate, porcelain or earthenware vessel. If copper, brass, or iron cooking utensil is used for this vegetable, the pods will be discolored and possibly made less wholesome.

CATTLEMEN TO MEET AT COLLEGE RANCH

A cattlemen's meeting will be held on December 3 at the College Ranch on the Jornada Range Reserve which all cattlemen of the state are urged to attend.

Speakers for the day will be President Kent of the New Mexico
Agricultural College, Prof. J. L.
Lantow, head of the livestock department at the experiment station and Robert Campbell of the Jornada Range Reserve.

The results of the trial of corn vs.
cottonseed cake as a supplement to grass for calves and cows will be shown on a chart; also, the financial side of feeding cake when cake and cattle sell at different prices will be discussed. The results of the mineral experiment carried on at the College Ranch with salt, bone meal and disodium phosphate will also be given.

An opportunity will be given those attending the meeting to look over the cattle on the ranch, also to visit the new well, corrals, water system, tank and experimental weighing shed.

The meeting opens at 11:00 a. m.
and a regular cowboy dinner will be served at noon. It is hoped that a large number of representative cattlemen will be present.

Frost with boiled frosting. Nuts may be added to the cake if desired.

Boiled Frosting

2 cups granulated sugar; 2/3 cup cold water; 1/2 tsp. pure cider vinegar.

Boil without stirring until the frosting forms a long thread which does not shrink when dropped from tip of spoon. Remove from fire, and pour over 2 stiffly beaten egg whites. Beat until creamy, flavor with vanilla,
and spread over cake.

Chocolate Spice Cake

2 cups sugar; 4 eggs; 2/3 cup butter;
2 squares chocolate; 1 cup mashed potatoes; 2 cups flour; 3/4 tsp. baking powder; 2/3 cup milk; 1/2 teaspoon ground cloves; 1/2 teaspoon nutmeg; 1/2 teaspoon mace; 1 teaspoon cinnamon; 1 cup chopped nuts.

Cream the butter and half of the sugar, and add the egg yolks, which have been beaten with the rest of the sugar. Then add the melted chocolate to the hot mashed potatoes, and combine with the first mixture. Sift the dry ingredients together, and stir into the cake mixture alternately with the milk. Add the chopped nuts, which have been dredged with a little flour, and fold in the stiffly beaten egg whites. Bake in a loaf pan in a moderate oven. When cool, cover with boiled icing.

HOW

CHILD'S GAMES AND TOYS
HELP MIND FORMATION.—
Toys and games are no longer regarded merely as medium-for keeping the children entertained until they are old enough to drop such foolishness. Child psychologists now recognize that through the child's games and his play he is keeping himself busy, active and healthy and is molding both body and mind into their future adult form.

Myrtle Meyer Eldred, in an article in Hygela Magazine, suggests how parents may provide toys that fulfill a child's needs. She advises large blocks that require effort to lift to develop the child's lifting and pulling muscles, special steps and ladders for climbing, bean bags and rubber balls for throwing.

Outdoor play apparatus is highly important. If it is interesting the child will play happily while he is getting his full share of sunshine and air.
A sandpile is the first outdoor apparatus necessary. It should be placed, if possible, where it will receive the morning sun
and where it will not be too hot for afternoon. Next to the sandpile comes a swing, which may be the simple rope swung from a tree or the more elaborate steel frame long enough to support flying rings or a cross bar on which the young acrobat can chin himself.

How Nitroglycerin Is Employed to Fight Fire

Amazing methods in fighting oil field fires, chief among which is the use of nitroglycerin, powerful explosive, are interestingly described in an article in Modern Mechanics Magazine.

Although ordinary oil well fires can usually be conquered by steam, shooting, as the nitroglycerin method is called, is the only effectual way man has of pitting his resources against the frightful blaze of big gassers and gushers. First, all wreckage about the burning well is taken away, while the ground around the inferno must be kept cool with water from hose running continually. Clothed in asbestos from head to foot, the firefighter goes to within a few feet of the hurricane of flame taking with him his shots of deadly explosive, which have been poured into shells holding 30 quarts each. These are slid along an asbestos belt into the fire, and the man turns and runs for his life. Firefighters work under terrific heat that causes the body to swell, and deaths are often and horrible in this hazardous means of earning a livelihood.

How Helium Is Extracted

The isolation of helium in the pure
state is a matter of some difficulty.
To begin with, some mineral containing the gas, like cleveite or uraninite, is finely powdered and heated with dilute sulphuric acid, the air being excluded and the expelled gas being collected over mercury. The gas—mostly helium, but containing also nitrogen and other atmospheric constituents—is next transferred into an evacuated vessel partly filled with a mass of charcoal and cooled from the outside with liquid air; the charcoal gradually absorbs everything except the helium and part of the neon, and if the process is repeated several times, nothing but pure helium remains behind un-absorbed.

NEW RULES FOR COTTON TRADES ARE DISCUSSED

WASHINGTON — The possibility of further wheat purchases by the farm board and additional regulations affecting grain cotton exchanges were discussed Monday at Senator McNary's farm conference.

McNary, chairman of the senate's agriculture committee, said Chairman Legge of the farm board and Secretary Hyde made recommendations. He did not reveal their nature.

He did say, however, that Legge believed the farm board could sus-tain the wheat price at 76 cents a bushel, now more than 20 cents above
the Liverpool market.

Leggs discussed the board's reasons for buying already more than 100,000,000 bushels of wheat.

Secretary Hyde proposed amplification of existing regulations governing the grain and cotton exchanges.

DEMOCRATS REAFFIRM INTENTION TO CARRY OUT PARTY PLATFORM

Democratic state officials elect on Friday afternoon in conference at Santa Fe reaffirmed their "absolute intention" of carrying out every platform pledge made to the people during the campaign, and held a general round table discussion on the policies they will make for their various offices and the qualifications they will consider in making appointments.

"We had a frank and full discussion on policies," Democratic Chairman Carl Hatch said. "The meeting was entirely harmonious and the officials-elect are in complete accord in their views."

"All agreed that qualifications and efficiency will be the first consideration of all officials in making appointments and selecting employees for their offices."

Judge Hatch said that there was no discussion of appointments for any particular office.

"We have had many applications for positions in the statehouse," Judge Hatch said, "but in every instance I have found that those persons making applications are perfectly willing and anxious to conform to the spirit of the democratic program. They told us if we feel that we can do away with the office they have applied for to enhance an efficient and economical administration of the state government, that such action is perfectly satisfactory to them."

"Every official," Judge Hatch said, "renewed his absolute intention to see that every platform of the democratic party is fulfilled. I am so impressed with their sincerity that I will say now that if anything goes wrong with the democratic program in the legislature, it certainly will not be the fault of the democrats."

While the meeting progressed, quite a group of job hunters who came here expecting the meeting to consider appointments and the so-called in political circles "pie splitting" program were waiting at the local hotels for announcements. All were informed, however, that no appointments or assignments of jobs had been made.

Judge Hatch said that democratic state headquarters in Santa Fe will be kept open until after the legislative session.

Coal Mine Accidents Show Higher Death Rate

Washington.—Coal mine accidents in July showed a higher death rate per million tons produced than in June of the present year or in July of last year, according to a report of the bureau of mines of the Commerce department. Coal production amounted to 40,373,000 tons, a decrease of 5,795,000 tons over July a year ago and fatalities totaled 143, as compared with 155 for the corresponding period last year.

Bituminous coal production had a death rate of 3.05 per million tons in July of this year, while for the same month last year, in which 6,460,000 more tons were mined, the rate was 2.91. Production of coal in the anthracite regions showed an increase of 665,000 tons over July of last year, with a fatality rate of 6.54.

For the first seven months of 1930 coal production declined 10 per cent over the same period a year ago, while the death rate was reduced but 3 per cent; 304,790,000 tons of coal were mined, resulting in 1,132 fatalities.

Berlin, Conn.—The Berlin town court has set a valuation of $10 upon one kiss. That was the amount of fine Charles Mageret of New Britain had to pay when he was arraigned for kissing Miss Anna Hollo of Kensington without her permission.

Railroad Fare Is High When the King Travels

London.—Former President Coolidge's action in dispensing with a special train in the interests of economy were recalled here when it was revealed that the royal pocketbook is nicked considerably when the king and queen and members of their party go to Balmoral castle in Scotland.

The journey costs the crown $3.20 a mile for use of the royal train, in addition to first-class fares for every member of the party.

Every precaution to prevent accident to the train is taken. Before the departure the entire route is carefully inspected and plans made for signaling the train in case of a line breakdown or fogs.

Miocene Age Fossils Found in Colorado

Chicago.—The fossil of a remote ancestor of the common morning glory that bloomed 21,000,000 years ago, and the feather of a bird of the same period have been discovered by the Field museum geological expedition in the vicinity of Florissant, Colo.

The deposits from which the fossils were obtained are of the Miocene age and have yielded a number of previously unknown species of prehistoric insect and plant fossils.

NO INCREASE IN POSTAGE RATES INDICATED NOW

WASHINGTON—Postmaster General Brown hopes the coming congress will raise postage on letters to 2½ cents, Representative Clyde Kelly of Pennsylvania believes the cabinet member is in for disappointment.

Kelly, ranking majority member of the house post office committee, said Saturday no action would be taken during the coming session on the proposal.

When the rate on post cards was increased to 2 cents, Kelly said, postal officials forecast a $10,000,000 increase in revenues. Instead, he said, revenues decreased $6,000,000 through lowered volume.

THE NEW CHEVROLET SIX HAS MANY IMPROVEMENTS

The introduction of the new Chevrolet Six marks the most impressive forward step in Chevrolet's twenty-year record of constant progress and improvement.

For this Bigger and Better Six offers new beauty of line and color, new luxury, new completeness and new quality—yet it sells at lower prices!

In every curve and sweep of Chevrolet's modern lines—in every detail of its smart new Fisher bodies, you will see the fine hand of the master designer and the skillful craftsman. And the more closely you inspect it, the more deeply impressed you will be.

The improvements in the new Chevrolet Six begin at the smart new chrome-plated headlamps and extend throughout the entire car. The radiator is deeper and unusually efficient. Due to the increased wheelbase, the lines are longer and lower, giving an air of exceptional fleetness and grace. And the new Fisher bodies combine with this more attractive exterior appearance, a new degree of interior luxury.

The upholstery is of fine quality mohair or broadcloth, carefully tailored and fitted. The number of individual springs in the rear seat cushions has been increased by 25%. The windshield and windows have been redesigned to provide wider vision. And all interior fittings have been made more pleasing to the eye.

The chassis of the new Chevrolet Six has also been refined and advanced in a number of different ways. The frame is heavier, deeper and stronger than before. There is a smoother operating, long lived clutch; a sturdier front axle; an entirely new steering mechanism of the worm and sector type; an easier shifting transmission. In fact, every vital feature of the new car has been made better and more satisfactory to the owner.

Obviously, these many improvements are responsible for a higher standard of quality than before. And they become doubly significant when you consider that they are offered in a car which provides the smooth, quiet, flexible performance of a 50-horsepower, six-cylinder motor—the comfort of four long semi-elliptic springs and four hydraulic shock absorbers—the safety of a gasoline tank at the rear of the car—and an economy of operation not surpassed by any automobile.

» AT NEW LOW PRICES «

Fine as it is, the new Chevrolet Six now sells at lower prices—making the economy and satisfaction of Chevrolet ownership even more outstanding. We urge you to come in and see the Bigger and Better Chevrolet. Its modern design reflects the spirit of the times—and it represents a value which will command the interest of every buyer in the low-price field.

CALIFORNIANS SEE ROAD OIL RIVAL IN GETTY POOL

California road oil has lost a market in New Mexico through the development of the Getty pool south of Artesia by one California company and the deepening and expansion of the Dayton refinery by other California capital, according to a dispatch from Los Angeles.

The Getty pool produces asphalt base oil, similar to California's and entirely distinct from the high grade paraffin product of Hobbs. It tests about 19 gravity, the wells are about 1300 feet deep, and their present production is from 500 to 1300 barrels.—Hobbs Reporter.

BREWERY UNION STARTS MOVE FOR MODIFICATION

NEW YORK—Formation of a national labor legislative committee for the amendment of the Volstead act with legalization of 2.75 per cent beer as its immediate object, has been undertaken by several union leaders.

John Sullivan, president of the New York State Federation of Labor said the movement was started a few weeks ago at a meeting in Washington of union heads called together by Joseph Obregfell of Cincinnati, secretary-treasurer of the Brewery Workers Union.

An organization meeting has been called for Washington on December 2 and 3, after which the matter will be presented to William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, for his approval.

LAND OFFICE BUDGET FILED

SANTA FE—No increase in the annual appropriations for the state land office have been asked for according to State Comptroller Rupert Asplund, who received the land office's budget for the next biennium Friday.

The requests for the next two years are the same as for the 18th fiscal year, and are no less than for the present fiscal year.

Expenses for the present year were increased by reason of $20,000 for the audit now being made, and an item of $9,954 for contingent expenses which are eliminated from the recommendations for the 20th and 21st years. The salaries recommendations remain at $57,459.45.

The budget filed by the board of nurse examiners shows that the board spent $869.32 last year. No appropriation is asked. The board is supported by its fees.

Hints on the Colonial Home

The Colonial atmosphere created by furniture and wall-treatment is carried out in curtains echoing the framed sampler at the right.

THE vogue for Colonial atmosphere in the typical home of today calls for much care in the selection of furnishings if the simple charm of the early American bedside is to be achieved.

The choice of the major furnishings has been much simplified. A gate-leg table or a butterfly, a ladder chair or a Windsor, a secretary or a spinet desk may be selected from well-styled and authentic reproductions and will be quite at home with any treasured "antiques."

It rests with the accessories, however, to achieve the final touch. They must be consistent throughout, or the entire effect of the room is lost. Pewter vessels and blue Willow-ware on the shelves, hooked rugs, a banjo clock, a framed sampler will all help to achieve an interior of distinction.

Pictures must be carefully chosen. The shops are now showing excellent copies of the rare Currier and Ives prints and one of these, framed in dark wood or maple, may be hung to advantage. Silhouettes, in square or oval frames, are also good.

Curtains constitute an insistent problem of the Colonial home. Recently there have appeared new patterns in lace curtains designed to carry out the simple Colonial home atmosphere. Lurelle Guild, authority on early American antiques, is said to have created the designs from his own collection of old samplers. They are all in natural color suggestive of the real "unbleached" linens of old, and combine effectively with over-draperies of chintz, cretonne or toile. Chintz, however, is just a bit smarter, particularly in the new semi-glazed finish.

CURB FOREST FIRES IN GUARDED AREAS

Patrolled Districts Saved as Others Are Swept.

Washington.—With approximately 31,000,000 additional acres of land brought under some form of organized forest-fire protection last year, losses on protected areas in the United States are held to a fraction of those on unprotected lands, according to a report recently completed by the forest service of the Agriculture department.

Of 134,895 forest fires reported last year, 44,076 were on protected lands and 90,819 were on areas without organized protection. Careless smokers accounted for the greatest number of fires, there being 21 per cent of blazes on protected lands started in this manner.

While 1929 was a bad year for acreage burned, it was noted that almost 90 per cent of all fires were recorded on unprotected lands. Total acreage burned on protected areas was 4,876,320, as compared with 41,353,000 acres lost on unprotected land.

These states hardest hit by forest fires in 1929 were in the southeastern and gulf regions. The percentage of fires recorded in these areas was 88.3 per cent of the total number reported in the United States. While the southeastern states had the highest percentage of fires recorded, they were able to keep the number of fires on protected areas down to 1 per cent of the total. The gulf states held the burned area to 4 per cent.

Dairy Health Film Is Retired to Shelf by U. S.

Washington, D. C.—"Out of the Shadows," an agricultural film depicting the dangers of tuberculosis to cows, has gone the way of many other old pictures produced by the Department of Agriculture. After nine years of service in the fight against bovine tuberculosis, the film has been laid on the shelf.

The last remaining copy of the 42 put into circulation has been withdrawn because it is battered, "rainy," and full of sprocket holes. As it has done its work, no more copies will be printed.

No other film produced by the Agriculture department has made a record approaching that of "Out of the Shadows." It has been used in every fight against tuberculosis since 1921, and has been shown in almost every rural community in the United States where dairy cattle are important. The 42 copies put into circulation have been sent into the field 1,644 times.

Sixty-one copies of this film have been sold for use in foreign countries, including Uruguay, Belgium, Guatemala, the Union of South Africa, and Great Britain.

"Out of the Shadows" told the story of a hard-headed old dairyman to whom the tuberculin test was a "new-fangled" idea until his daughter was sent to a hospital for tubercular treatment. A test showed her pet cow, the source of the milk she drank, reacted to the test. The dairyman learns his lesson, the daughter comes home well and strong again, and every one is happy. The film was acted by amateurs, but it proved to be of great effect in field work.

How Forests Petrified

So-called petrified forests are composed of the trunks and branches of trees which were petrified while buried and later exposed. Many of the petrified trees in the western states remain in their original upright position and rise to heights of 20 or 30 feet. It is believed that the growing trees were covered with volcanic ash and pumice ages ago. Continual rains and nature's chemistry did the rest. The silica-laden water trickled through the volcanic stratum and, particle by particle, the minerals replaced the organic matter of the trees.—Pathfinder Magazine.

HEALTH NEWS

PROTECT YOUR CHILD AGAINST DIPHThERIA NOW

By a strong drive for taxin-antitoxin immunization last winter we made Eddy county free from diphtheria for several months. We are very anxious to keep the county entirely free from this disease. In order to do this, we should give taxin-antitoxin to all children from six months of age to five years of age.

I quote below an extract from a paper read before the New Mexico Medical Society in June 1930, by Dr. Wylder, a child specialist of Albuquerque.

"That splendid observer of the 18th century, Edward Jenner, brot out a prophylactic measure that has saved hundreds of millions of lives and untold suffering. By the universal use of vaccination against smallpox, this disease could be banished from the earth. This has been absolutely proved, yet there are many otherwise intelligent people who fight vaccination. An hour could be spent on this subject alone. Diphtheria is another disease that can be banished from any community that will make the effort. The universal use of T. A. T. or Toxoid will accomplish this. We should bow our heads in shame and admit our failure whenever diphtheria is allowed to show its head, for T. A. T. should be given to every baby when six months of age; and six months is the time of choice, for a natural immunity exists up to that time. The earlier it is given, the less reaction. In older children and adults, the reaction will be more severe.

No sane person now questions the efficiency of typhoid vaccine. Any community that will make the effort can now be free from this fever. In all the wars previous to the world war, typhoid fever killed more soldiers than the enemy's bullet. In the world war, typhoid fever was ruled out. This is one of the contributions that medicine gave toward winning the war. What other profession has done as much?

In order to free Eddy county of typhoid fever and keep it free, a large per cent of the people should receive typhoid vaccination. Statistics prove that both of these diseases can be prevented. I ask the parents of Eddy county to join in the drive to banish diphtheria and typhoid fever from our country. You may see your doctor or the health officer for further information.

O. E. PUCKETT,
Health Officer.

In this connection we might mention that Dr. Puckett has given 215 local school children the Schick test to determine whether or not the previous vaccination against diphtheria made them immune to the disease. Of the 215 children tested, only two reacted unfavorably. Three children who were not vaccinated were given the test and all showed

Inquisitive Wife Opens Box and Gets Rude Jolt

Los Angeles, Calif.—W. O. Jenks warned his wife, Sylvia, not to open his steel strong box after he had died. "If you open it, you'll be sorry," he told her, "but you are a woman and probably will."

Jenks left his home last August 1, according to an explanation by Mrs. Jenks in Superior court. Twenty days later he died. Shortly afterward a strange woman called upon Mrs. Jenks, said she had been Jenks' fiancée and demanded his effects.

Mrs. Jenks was bewildered. She remembered her husband's warning, but could not resist the temptation to open the steel box.

She found a divorce decree he had obtained in Mexico last year and never told her about.

Jenks, who was sixty-five when he died, left an estate valued at $90,000.

Raises Boll Weevils to Feed His Chickens

Charleston, S. C.—When the boll weevil eats up your cotton crop, raise boll weevils and feed your chickens on them, says Lieut. Charles W. Jenkins, of the Charleston police department.

Lieutenant Jenkins who, in the heyday of the Sea Island cotton, whose long, silky strands brought over $1 a pound, was an expert in its culture, still cultivates a row or two in the yard of his home. He brought a couple of long, silky bolls to the police station, remarking that he is now raising the cotton for the boll weevils, which he feeds to the chickens.

Now is the time to change to Germ-Processed oil . . . It's DE-WAXED. That means easy starting . . . and its Penetrative Lubricity means safer Lubri- cation during the trying months ahead

Is your car hard to start these cold mornings? Let that be a reminder that these are danger months for your motor!

It takes more turning-over to start, and more running to warm-up your motor during the cold months. So now, more than ever, you need the extra protection of this oil with two big cold-weather advantages!

Conoco Germ-Processed Motor Oil is de-waxed to prevent congealing at low temperatures. That's the first reason. Second, its penetrative lubricity insures instant lubrication at the first touch of the starter. By decreasing friction, Germ-Processed oil adds to the ease of starting.

You may be able to buy some other oils which are de-waxed, but there is only one oil with penetrative lubricity, only one that penetrates metal-surfaces and never drains away from working parts.

It's Conoco Germ-Processed Motor Oil. Ask for it whenever you see the Conoco Red Triangle.

Style Trend For Windows

Net curtains in a new Georgian period design here soften the formality of the over-draperies and reflect the gracious atmosphere of the room.

THE well-dressed window, like the well-dressed woman, keeps pace with style. And in style details make up the correct whole. In curtains these all-important points are design, color, mesh and arrangement. With these satisfactorily solved, the window becomes, literally, well-dressed.

Heretofore glass curtains have been a difficult problem in carrying out the "period" room treatment. The fact that net curtains are hung straight against the pane stresses the design. If the motif is alien to the furnishings and wall-treatment, it spoils the unity of the room. If it is "just something neutral," the room becomes commonplace.

Net curtains authentically styled to period interiors are now seen in the shops in a considerable variety of designs. The ever-popular Colonial interior, for instance, will be enhanced by curtains featuring historic motifs. A variety of such timely designs have appeared "taught" in a natural color that simulates the unbleached tints associated with those early days. Or for the home in the English country house manner, there are designs in a new shade known as "pongee" to recreate the charm of Georgian days.

The new patterns seem sufficiently varied to meet all tastes and lighting requirements. Where wallpaper of pictorial interest is used, for instance, a more set pattern is required for contrast. For the room where daylight is precious, there are designs in light tracery. Still other patterns grow heavier in design toward the bottom so that an objectionable view may be concealed.

The usual mesh is ten point; that is to say, there are ten threads to the inch.

PICKED UP ON MAIN

We don't suppose that it has ever occurred to any one, but we have a suspicion that the wholesale migration of Arkansayers to the Cottonwood may have had something to do with weakening the Arkansas banks and causing so many failures. Garner, Woods, et al, ought to have been a little more careful and not drawn all the money out of Arkansas at one time. H. Q. Haley, Jim Berry and others in this neck of the woods have been away from Arkansas a little too long to affect the finances of the sovereign free state.

We've been taken to task a time or two due to the fact that we gave the wrong deer hunter credit for getting a buck. A good way to eliminate any mix up in the future is to bring a piece of venison around to the Advocate office as evidence of what you did, then too this is the only way we'll ever get to taste any deer meat, as we have sent the boss out after some the past twelve years or more and ain't to this day had a piece of venison that this nimrod has brung back. Course we wouldn't accuse him of getting the "buck." Looks like he is passing it.

Two city dads, Messrs. M. W. Evans and Arba Green went over to El Paso to stay a day, but after arriving they learned that a bear war was on and will prolong their stay, it is understood.

How Watches Are Jeweled

If a watch has 23 jewels, then the going hand or center wheel and third wheel, the fourth wheel, the escape wheel, the lever and the balance have a hole jewel at each end of each arbor, making 14. The balance, the lever and the escape wheel have end stones as well, which make six more. Then there are three jewels in the escapement, which make 23. If the movement has 21 jewels, then the hole jewels of the going barrel have been omitted. If 19, the end stones of the escapement wheel have been omitted also. If the watch has only seven jewels, they usually consist of the three escapement jewels, two hole jewels, and two end stones for the balance arbor.

ENGRAVING AT THE ADVOCATE

ONE EMANCIPATION FEW REALLY DESIRE

The emancipation of women, according to one Dr. Olga Stastny, can be attained simply by tilting back in their chairs and putting their feet on the desk—just like a man.

It is an easy way to achieve emancipation, and there is no doubt some kinds of work can be done in this position. A business woman could read her mail with her feet higher than her head; could dictate letters; might even take dictation if the boss were not reduced to speechlessness by the novel spectacle. But for such jobs as cooking, minding the baby, doing the family wash, and so forth, the feet-on-the-table stance would violate all efficiency rules.

As for emancipation, we can only ask: "Emancipation from what?" Probably the doctor never thought of that. Ask anybody, man or woman, if he wants to be emancipated, and it is dollars to doughnuts he will say yes. Ask him what he wants to be emancipated from, and it is a $100 to $1 shot he won't answer.

Work? Not a chance. Man, who has been putting his feet on the desk since desks were invented, never worked harder. He is still bound to the wheel. Why should women, by imitating him in this respect, hope to achieve what he obviously has not achieved? They could not do it even by standing on their heads.

Emancipation? Vain word. There is no such thing. It is a will-o'-the-wisp which it is folly to pursue. Work, worries, cares, responsibilities, sorrow and adversity—there is no escaping them. Some stand them better than others, but only by grace of superior spiritual and moral resources—certainly not by being emancipated from them. Only one thing can do that—and, while it is often spoken of as turning up one's toes, it is not putting one's feet on the desk.—New Bedford Standard.

TWO-BIT FEE ELIMINATED

There will be no "two-bit" charge for notary fees when the sale of 1931 automobile licenses begins in the state on December 1, it was announced Friday by the state motor vehicle department.

The license plates will be on sale in each county seat in the state for one month without the two-bit charge, the statement sent out by the department said.

Mr. Asplund, state comptroller, in Santa Fe Friday, directed attention to the law which makes automobile licenses delinquent after December 31 and subject to penalty of 25 per cent of the regular fee and $5.00 per day for operating cars without a new license.

After December 31, the distributors will be withdrawn entirely, or if continued, their compensation will be derived from payment of the regular notary fees.

"It is the hope of the state comptroller and the motor vehicle department," Mr. Asplund said, "that the public will respond to this appeal to get their licenses during December."

BANKING CONDITIONS ARE GOOD OVER THE NATION REPORTS SAY

WASHINGTON—Sound and satisfactory banking conditions throughout the country generally were reported Monday in statements telegraphed to the United States Daily by state commissioners of banking. Recent failures were attributed to local causes and were said by the banking officials to have strengthened the general position by the elimination of weak spots.

The situation in North Carolina, where there were several recent failures, was said by John Mitchell, chief bank examiner, to have resulted from a purely local situation, made acute by the investment banking house failure.

There have been a few small failures in Tennessee, said D. D. Robertson, superintendent of banks, due largely to heavy withdrawals occasioned by failure of large banks in this and adjoining states affiliated with the Caldwell interests.

No further bank trouble is expected in Kentucky, Banking Commissioner O. S. Denny said.

That several of the banks which closed in Arkansas have already reopened, and most of the others except those connected with one chain will do so, was the statement of Walter E. Taylor, banking commissioner.

"Many of the suspended banks," he continued, "closed temporarily as a protection of depositors, and were at no time insolvent."

Wood Produced From Cotton

Synthetic wood produced from compressed and hardened cotton material has been perfected by a Clerkenwell (England) man. It is said to be indistinguishable from mahogany, oak or any other wood, and can be used in making furniture and all kinds of house fixtures. Its cost is much less than ordinary wood and its life will be as long, the inventor says. It may be molded into any shape or thickness and does not warp. It is expected to reduce the cost of houses as well as of furniture.

The "Spirit Picture"

By JANE OSBORN
(Copyright.)

"WHO'S the pretty girl?" There was surprise in Mrs. Claverly's tone as she looked first at the small photograph print and then at her nephew, Thomas Slaverly, seated opposite her.

"Pretty girl?" queried Tom. "Why, in one of these pictures that you gave me to look at here in this envelope that you said contained views of your shack, it's rather queer. There's a girl, big as life and twice as natural standing beside the cabin—that's perfectly clear."

"Let's see," said Tom, stretching a much tanned hand across the table. "To tell the truth, I hadn't seen the prints. I got them on my way home and didn't look at them. But the only pictures I took were of the shack, with one or two of Bob. There weren't any girls there. Good Lord! How the deuce—"

"Tom!" Mrs. Claverly looked intently into her nephew's face. "It's—it's—Tom. I never thought you were psychic enough to have anything like that happen to you. You know that medium had some spirit pictures—"

To all of this Tom said "Bosh." And that was all there was to it for several days so far as Tom was concerned. He did not know that the next night, when he was working at the office, his aunt, Mrs. Claverly, went to another of "those fool seances," and that she carried with her, carefully wrapped in tissue paper, the picture of Tom's mountain shack and his soulmate—his occult love, as she called it. She showed it proudly to the medium who made it perfectly clear that the girl in question was still among the living. And she was the soulmate of the man who lived in the shack. Her spirit was haunting him—

On Tuesday night Tom came home from his office in apparent excitement. He hurriedly fumbled through the pictures in the envelope on the living room table until he found the "spook picture." He studied it carefully, and then looked as carefully at a newspaper clipping that he took from his pocket and then opened and read—or reread—a letter also taken from his pocket.

At dinner he was a little abrupt to his aunt. "Who has had those prints?" he demanded, and the poor aunt hedged, but admitted the truth. "Did you know the fool medium gave the print to the newspapers, and also gave my name and my business connection? The whole thing came out in a Sunday supplement day before yesterday from the girl—"

"The girl in the picture—your soulmate? Oh, do let me have the letter. I must show it to the medium."

"Show it to nobody," said Tom. "You've messed things up enough already."

And that was all the satisfaction that Mrs. Claverly got from Tom. The next morning Tom announced he was going to make a call out of town; he might not be back that night.

Monday at dinner she was frankly repentant.

"You have been so cool to me lately," she said, a little tearfully. "I am sure it was all because of that snapshot of yours. Honestly, I didn't know what the medium was going to do with it, and I hope you'll forgive me—"

"Don't talk about forgiveness, aunt," said Tom. "After all I'm much obliged to you and your medium friend. The laugh may be on her after all. But to change the subject, aunt, I want to tell you of my engagement. I feel sure you'll like her. She—"

"But, Tom, how about the spirit girl?" "That's the girl I'm engaged to. You see—but suppose you let Eleanor explain. I've asked her and her aunt to come to 'ladies' night' at the club tomorrow. You join us."

At the club the next night, when the preliminaries of introduction were over with, Mrs. Claverly looked long and intently at the girl.

"Excuse me for staring," she said, "but I couldn't believe that you were really the girl in the picture. So you're Tom's occult sweetheart, after all! Isn't it wonderful to feel—"

"Wasn't it the funniest thing?" giggled Eleanor. "And we are so much obliged to the medium, too, because if it hadn't been for the picture I never would have been able to find Tom. You know how it was? You see, Tom stopped for the night at the hotel where my aunt and I were stopping. I admit that I was attracted from the first and knew that Tom had noticed me, but of course there was no way of our getting an introduction. Well, anyway, the next morning, quite by accident, I left my little camera in the lobby."

"Tom must have left his camera in the lobby, too, and when he went back for it he got mine."

"There must have been a picture of me in the camera he took. He took one over it and made a double exposure. Then when my picture appeared in the paper, all my friends recognized it as me and teased me unmercifully about it. So we wrote and right away Tom came out to see us and—well, won't it be rich! When we sent the announcement of our engagement to the papers we'll let the world know that there really wasn't anything spooky about the pictures after all, because of course there never is—"

And so impressed was Aunt Claverly that she merely murmured: "Of course not."

Here's to Beautiful Skin

Doris Hall
Du Barry Beauty Consultant

Daily Basic Cleansing Helps Keep Your Skin In Good Condition

NOT LONG ago I received the following letter from a woman in Kansas: "I am very puzzled about my skin. I ought to have a beautiful skin, for I eat plenty of fresh fruits and vegetables, and am outside most of the time. I live on a farm, and must get-up very early in the morning—but I get more sleep than most women, for I go to bed early. Although I am only thirty-three, my skin is beginning to show fine little wrinkles, and seems to be growing darker and coarser all the time. I never have used anything but soap and water on my face, because I thought all I needed was to keep my skin clean. Please tell me what else I must do to have a good complexion."

This letter tells volumes about the skins of many women. In a way, the little lady from Kansas is right. By leading a healthful life and keeping your skin clean you can have a lovely complexion. But soap and water are only a part of the cleanliness story. If soap and water were all you need to keep your skin beautiful, creams and lotions never would have been invented. No, you must use more than soap and water. In those tiny pores of your skin, little oil is working all the time. It works too hard, or the relaxed, you have what an oily skin. When the do not work hard enough dry out the skin with strong soap and water, a dry, parched skin. lies in cleansing your ery, and then giving whatever special treatment need to function normal.

Perhaps you wonder you should stop using water on your face. Certainly if your skin is mild and absolutely removing make-up and accumulation of dirt skin with the basic I have just described, face gently with warm soap. This will leave in perfect condition for special treatment you use.

It is poor economy to cut the tops out of sound, large trees to make Christmas trees. To do so destroys the value of the trees for timber.

Moth balls or naphthalene will prevent weevils or grain moths from injuring seed corn. Be sure the corn is thoroughly dry. Put it in a tight mouse-proof container, enclosing 1 pound of moth balls or naphthalene to each bushel of corn.

If the layers in the poultry flock are confined to the poultry house or if there is little sunshine in late fall and winter, it is well to add 1 per cent of cod liver oil to the mash ration. Use 1 pint of oil to each 100 pounds of mash. Don't add oil to more than two weeks' supply of feed.

The most effective moisture-resistant coatings for wood are those containing aluminum leaf between coats of other materials such as paint, varnish, or the like, says the forest service of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, which has made hundreds of experiments the last fifteen years in a search for wood coatings that will exclude moisture. For exteriors, linseed oil paint is effective for use with the aluminum leaf because it stands up well under weathering. For interiors, use a varnish, enamel, or paint with the leaf, says the forest service.

It is bad management to let the farm horse lose weight during the winter and then try to bring up back to normal by heavy feeding before spring work starts. Farm horses (except brood mares or growing stock) do well in winter on a ration consisting largely of the coarser hays, straw, or corn fodder. If the horse drinks plenty of water, it will increase the utilization of these dry roughages. Supplement the coarser roughages with a legume such as alfalfa, clover, soybean, or cowpea hay, but feed these sparingly. If no legume is fed, give a small amount of grain. On or two bran mashes a week or a little linseed meal each day helps to keep the horse's digestive system in good condition.

LOOKOUT ELEVATOR BUILDER AT CAVERN

Among the cavern visitors Friday was Herbert S. Salmon, of Birmingham, Alabama, who is checking over the local situation with a view to submitting a bid on the elevator and shaft to be built by the National Park Service.

Salmon & Cowin were contractors for the elevator and shaft built down into the Lookout Mountain cave near Chattanooga. This shaft is a little over 400 feet deep, contains a single elevator, and has been operating steadily since installation.—Carlsbad Current-Argus.

Good Drivers—and Others

THE difference between good and bad driving depends almost entirely on the amount of thought and concentration the driver puts into it. Almost invariably bad driving is the result of thoughtlessness and inattention. As a rule the new driver is more careful than the experienced one. His inexperience fills him with the full significance of his responsibility and the danger of driving.

On the other hand, the experienced driver becomes careless or, to put it more gently, over-confident of his ability. He or she may display this over-confidence by engaging in conversation or by looking at the scenery while driving. Driving a car requires the full attention of the driver, particularly in these days of heavy traffic. I don't know why it is, but it seems that I am always running into the bird who stays in the middle of the road when he should be over to the right. He is the cause of many accidents and should be warned by any well-meaning driver, and certainly by law enforcement officials, that he is a nuisance and a menace.

Then there is that other moron who speeds up to rush across a road just as the light is changing. It would be a real pleasure for me to tell him just exactly what I think of him. These two examples of bad driving are direct results of thoughtlessness and recklessness and I am making it my duty to stop and talk to this sort of motorist just as a matter of motoring education. In the last year, I have talked to about twenty transgressors of this type and only once has the recipient of my remarks become angry and told me to mind my own business. As it happened, I followed this driver and it was only five miles from where I first encountered him that I found him in the arms (literally) of the law. I took the trouble to add my complaint to those already lodged and I really believe he will be a better driver when he gets his license back.

It is true there is a multiplicity of driving regulations and it is equally true that it is almost impossible for the average individual to keep track of all of them. But rules of common courtesy should not have to be remembered. They should be habitual. Yet if they were observed on American highways, driving conditions would show a vast improvement overnight. And such an improvement would not only net greater peace of mind for all motorists but it would save hundreds of thousands of dollars annually as a result of fewer accidents.

HOPE FIRM LOSES HEAVILY BY FIRE

No plans have been made to rebuild the Riley Chevrolet Co., building at Hope, which was completely destroyed by fire on the night of the 17th, according to Pat Riley, proprietor, who was in Artesia Monday. The loss on the building was approximately $10,000 and several hundred dollars additional was lost on the equipment and used cars. It is probable that the Riley Chevrolet Co., will rent a building and continue in business, Mr. Riley said.

Dallas Man Suffering With Kidney Ailment Finds First Relief In New Medicine.

"For over a year and a half I suffered with rheumatism and kidney trouble," said Mr. W. E. Rowley, 216 Bryan Street, Dallas. "I had dull aching pains across my back and was forced to rise frequently at night. A constant pain in my right leg caused me much misery and I limped in getting around. Pains in my back and side did not permit a good night's rest. I felt dull and listless and my vitality became lower and lower."

MR. W. E. ROWLEY

"A friend, who knew my condition, told me about Konjola. Konjola did so much for me that I am at a loss to express my appreciation. The rheumatic pains in my leg have left me for the first time in a year. My kidneys are once again functioning properly. My sleep is no longer broken by pains in my side and back. I have only taken two bottles but certainly shall continue the treatment."

It is recommended that Konjola be taken over a six to eight week period. Best results are usually obtained in such cases.

Konjola is sold in Artesia at Palace Drug Store, and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.

Evening service 7:00 p. m. Starting Sunday evening the pastor will deliver a series of sermons on the subject: "A Christian and Amusements." Don't fail to hear these sermons.

NO TWO-BIT CHARGE FOR AUTO LICENSES

Dalies under the above caption advise the public that the 1931 automobile licenses will be available December 1st without the customary two-bit charge for notary fees and that after December 31st a penalty of 25 per cent will be charged for operating cars without licenses.

This is a step in the right direction.

The notice could have gone further and advised the public that blank applications for the licenses are obtainable from the state comptroller and that the licenses can be secured by mail upon the proper application and fee.

Heretofore it has been a nuisance for those 40 or 60 miles from the county seats to make a trip to Carlsbad, stand in line an hour or so and in some instances when closing time arrives come home without results only to make another trip to the county seat. The county representative hands over an auto plate on execution of the application and receipt of the fee but does not issue the registration card. This comes later from Santa Fe.

Even when the Carlsbad representative comes to Artesia, for several days there is a wait in line that is anything but pleasant.

It is hoped that the next legislature will turn the issuance of auto plates and registration cards over to the county clerks at an increased salary with additional pay for extra clerks for some sixty days or during the rush for licenses.

RAIL HEARINGS SET OVER INDEFINITELY

Hearing on plea in abatement of the two injunction suits filed against the El Paso Rock Island and Southern Pacific railway companies by Bloom Land and Cattle company and Eastern New Mexico Water Protective association has been postponed indefinitely, it was announced at Roswell yesterday.

The third postponement was announced following the receiving of word from Judge H. A. Kiker, Raton, that he would be unable to conduct the hearing due to continued illness. Physicians have ordered him to discontinue work for at least two weeks longer.

The hearing was to have been held at Roswell Monday. It probably will be some time in January before the first legal skirmish between the plaintiffs and defendants can be staged, according to attorneys for the plaintiffs, L. O. Fullen and W. A. Dunn.

The exhibit which consists of mummified bodies, beads, baskets and clothing of the basket makers, will be shown in the Gilbert and Collins building Friday and Saturday. The collection has been shown in a number of Texas cities and has attracted major interest where ever exhibited. Mr. White made his collections in the Guadalupe mountains southwest of Carlsbad. The basket makers race is supposed to have lived 2,000 years before Christ. See the announcement of Messrs. Barker and Rascoe elsewhere in the Advocate.

FAMED DEER SHOT BY TEXAS HUNTER

A deer with 29 points, proof of his long and unmolested reign in the Sacramento mountains, was on exhibition at Roswell by B. L. Hoover, of Pampa, Texas. The deer was killed above Pinon, just east of Clouderoft. For many years hunters have referred to the animal as the king of the Sacramento mountains.

A crew is now located east of the bridge, repairing and grading the oil field road between Artesia and the Pecos river bridge. The east route will be in good condition with a little moisture. The stretch of road between here and Elk is in fine condition for fast travel with repairs completed west of Hope. Residents of the mountain section say that the west road is in better shape than it has been for years.

CARL GORDON IN AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT

Carl Gordon, local constable was painfully, but not seriously injured Saturday night, about four miles north of town, when he drove into a highway truck. His car, a Ford was badly wrecked as result of the collision and he suffered bruises about the face and chest. It is regarded as fortunate that Mr. Gordon's injuries were not more serious.

TWO FIRES AT SAME TIME SUNDAY — FARM DWELLING BURNS UP

A vacant dwelling, some three and a half miles south of town burned to the ground Sunday night. The residence was the former property of the Pecos Valley Development Co., but was purchased sometime ago by Charley Rogers. It was not learned whether the building was insured. The Artesia fire department was summoned, but the dwelling was practically demolished before the truck arrived. The fire is believed to have been the result of a Sunday "crap" game. Opinion was expressed that the "crap shooters," probably left fire somewhere around the house, which later caused its destruction.

At the same time the alarm was sounded for the farm building, the Refinery plant experienced a still fire. Workmen at the plant, however succeeded in keeping the blaze under control with a steam hose and were able to extinguish the fire before any serious damage was done. The amount of loss suffered by the refinery was not learned.
