Cars Wool Popped From Artesia To Date

Wool Total 140,000 With About 100,000 To Come; Quality Wool Considerably Improved.

Wool popping over this section is well advanced. The season this year is about three weeks ahead of the corresponding season of last year. The first car of wool was popped on June 3rd and the first car went out on June 10th. To date five car loads amounting to 140,000 pounds of wool have been shipped from the Bullock house with about 60,000 pounds in storage. It is estimated that 100,000 pounds of wool will be stored and shipped.

Wool sold here this season is about 10 cents per pound more than last year. The highest bid made for wool was 17.5 cents per pound. The wool is of a better quality than last year. The ranchers are pleased with the range conditions.

Mr. Lee has made an enviable record in this important office during the past eighteen months and on the basis of this record alone is entitled to re-election. His tenure of office has been marked by fairness, efficiency, and good judgment in the handling of law enforcement and other matters coming under his jurisdiction and the citizens of Eddy county know that their interests are safe with him. Due to the duties of his position and the many calls upon his time in the line of service, it will be most difficult for him to call upon his many friends in person during this campaign but he wishes it to be known that he will be grateful for the support and backing of every Eddy county voter.

Lusk Seeks Second Term

Support of Voters Commissioner of District No. 1.

Artesia Advocate is authorizing a campaign for re-election as Commissioner of District No. 1. Mr. Lusk needs no introduction to the voters of the county. He has since infancy held in the highest esteem by all who know him. He seeks a second term as Commissioner of District No. 1. He has made during the past year a record for the office of county commissioner that is a credit to the county. He has shown very little of the faults which are just and others are not, but a great deal of credit is being given to the most able and efficient of the county's public officers. There are many requests and demands, which are just and others are not, but a great deal of credit is being given to the most able and efficient of the county's public officers.

Committees Report Progress On Funds For Lighted Field

Committees appointed to solicit funds for the lighting equipment for a softball and football field are reported to be making progress. A canvass of the business district is being made and according to reports a total of $700.00 has been pledged, with $300.00 more in sight. The committees are still approximately $200.00 short of the funds needed to purchase equipment which is figured to cost $1,200.00. The sponsors hope to have the necessary funds raised shortly so that the work of building the lighted field may proceed.

Half Bonus Bonds Are Certified Up To Yesterday P M

A special setup has been made at the local post office by Postmaster J. L. Truett for certifying the soldier bonus bonds. Mrs. Nola Pollard is assisting Mr. Truett in this work. The special arrangement or special setup will be effective for the remainder of the week with office hours from 9:00 to 11:00 a. m., in the morning and 1:00 to 3:00 each afternoon. After this week the special arrangement will be discontinued. Ex-service men who have not done so are requested to present their bonds for certification at the earliest possible opportunity.

Out of 112 service certificates to be mailed here, a total of fifty ex-service men had their bonds certified up to yesterday afternoon. The fifty ex-service men were paid a total of $24,000, or an average of approximately $480 per individual. The post office department is making a special effort to distribute the bonds as rapidly as possible and the cooperation of the ex-soldiers will be appreciated.

Lee Wants To Be Reelected Sheriff

Authorizes His Announcement Subject To Action of Democratic Primary.

Sheriff Dwight Lee has, this week, announced that he is a candidate for re-election, subject to the democratic primary to be held on August 8th.

Mr. Lee has made an enviable record in this important office during the past eighteen months and on the basis of this record alone is entitled to re-election. His tenure of office has been marked by fairness, efficiency, and good judgment in the handling of law enforcement and other matters coming under his jurisdiction and the citizens of Eddy county know that their interests are safe with him. Due to the duties of his position and the many calls upon his time in the line of service, it will be most difficult for him to call upon his many friends in person during this campaign but he wishes it to be known that he will be grateful for the support and backing of every Eddy county voter.

Mosquitoes Breed In Bogs; Plague Farmers and City Residents

Millions of mosquitoes have emerged from the bogs southeast to plague the farmers of that area and the residents of Artesia. Farmers say the mosquitoes have made life miserable for livestock in the farming section and any kind of spray is of little or no value. Hay growers in the midst of hay cutting said teams used in haying operations were literally covered by the pests. The teams are harrowed by flies and mosquitoes in the day time and by mosquitoes by night.

Livestock And Ranges Improve Over Last Year

Aided by fairly heavy rains over eastern New Mexico, the ranges have shown consistent improvement and the grass and weed crop is probably the best seen here in several months. Stock water is ample over the state. The condition of the range is reported at eighty-five per cent of normal as compared with eighty-one per cent last month and eighty-four per cent on a ten-year average.

In the afternoon, stops will be made at Weed and Cloudercroft, where the trippers will spend the night. On the last day out, Mayhill will be visited in the morning, with dinner at the Elk store. Unofficial information is to the effect that a barbecue will be served at Elk, but there is no definite information about this yet. Hooten's store and Lower Penasco will be visited next Thursday afternoon with the trippers returning home through Hope.

A canvass of the business district will be made by Mr. Green, probably Saturday, to determine the number of people who will make the trip. Mr. Green also stated the caravan from here would likely be placed in charge of a marshal in order to keep the crowd together.

CONSIDER THE CASE OF THE PUBLIC OFFICIAL

We kick and cuss the public official because we have the authority; an authority exercised by some people so little that it makes them unreasonable. Like the Carlsbad Current-Argus says in a recent editorial, the office holder is responsible not to one man or a group of men, but to every voter. And he is supposed to be never so busy but that he can answer the instant whim of the public.

To make the holding of a public office sound more like a pie counter job, as it may be in some sections, the legislature saw fit to limit the office holder to a term of four years, provided he is lucky enough to be elected on his second term. There is some satisfaction in gaining public recognition, but aside from this the public official usually is poorer financially by his experience.

The present salaries of our state and county officials, are not any more than the competent individual in private life could command, but if the individual in private life had to stand the expense, the effort and worry of the men in public life, it is doubtful if he would make the effort.

In our own state, the state officials command a salary from $4,000 downward. From this $4,000 he has to make a campaign or two, stand the expense of moving to the state capital and is expected to give to everything and everybody after he gets in office. And all for a term not to exceed four years. In New Mexico the successful state official makes a campaign of thirty-one counties, while in Texas the governor for instance makes or tries to make a campaign of 252 counties for a salary of $4,000.

In such campaigns, it can readily be seen how easy it is for the candidate to spend a year's salary. It can also be readily seen how difficult it is for the man of limited finances to become a candidate and expect to get anywhere, yet several states have attempted to increase the salaries of the public official by popular vote and the moves have met with defeat.

In truth it seems we expect the office holder to be a magician, one who can live on the prescribed salary and still have money left for practically all causes and furthermore to have the power and authority to get a job for us or our kinfolks, if one is wanted.

SAVE US!

During the next four months, both political parties will be busy saving the nation. Judging from the battle cry laid down at the GOP convention last week, the United States is in a bad way and nothing but the election of a republican ticket will save us from destruction. The cry of "Save us from Roosevelt, save us from a bureaucratic administration, save the constitution, save the taxpayers and save the individual," will be heard from coast to coast.

A person not familiar with the American form of government would have no doubt been dumbfounded after hearing the GOP convention speeches last week in which several speakers referred to the present time as the greatest crisis since the time of Abraham Lincoln in 1860.

The principal difference between now and four years ago to many who can remember that far back, is that while governmental efforts have cost money, enough confidence has been restored to remove the threat of a possible bloody revolution and the spectre of empty stomachs and of hungry men, women and children. Saving the constitution and saving his industrial freedom, does not begin to worry a man much until after he fills his stomach. At least we have progressed far enough to have found a new worry and that's something.

And you can put it down in your little note book that regardless of who is our next president, the administration isn't going back to the Hoover days of handling the social, the economic and the farm problems.

ARTESIA COMES THROUGH

Indications are favorable that the Artesia community will have a well equipped lighted softball and football field before many weeks have passed. In this project the citizens have responded generously in supplying funds for a lighted field, such as many other communities already have.

It is a credit to the community that the citizens are as responsive to a public need, not alone in this one instance, but in numerous instances in the past ten years. Few communities have shown the same public spirit, according to their financial means as has this one.

It is unfortunate perhaps that we have with us those who expect much and do little. We have with us those who will take full advantage of every public facility offered, yet who will knock the community and its people at every opportunity. In the past few years an unhealthy indifferent spirit has been acquired by many folks, who are convinced the world owes them a living, who accept funds supplied by the thrifty citizens and who want to give nothing in return.

There ought to be some way of segregating and colonizing these people and of letting them shift for themselves and belly-ache to their heart's content.

Police say that motorists are triple parking. Well, if there's not enough room in the streets to park, let 'em use the sidewalks—pedestrians can crawl underneath or over the top.

A contemporary claims that the average span of human life has lengthened. It looked that way for a while, but we think the automobile has taken up all the slack.

A feller says it's all right to pay as we go in the depression. Nother feller wanted to know if we're goin' anywhere.

An official hangman in Europe tried to hang himself. Probably figured it was time to have one on the house.

And there seems to be reason to wonder how secure is social security?

Pat lay down to rest while Mike watched. Pat had not lain long when he was awakened by Mike shouting, "They're coming! They're coming!"

"Who's coming?" demanded Pat.
"The enemy!" replied Mike.
"How many are there?" queried Pat.

"About fifty thousand."
"Glorious!" shouted Pat, jumping up and grabbing his gun, "our fortune is made!"—Cork Weekly Examiner.

Cowmen To Meet Lovington June 27

"The first quarterly executive board meeting of The New Mexico Cattle Growers Association to be held at Lovington, June 27, will be of great interest to all cattlemen," says A. D. Brownfield, president, "and should be attended by a large number who are interested in the many vital problems with which they are confronted at this time."

The range program for soil conservation will be discussed. Regulations governing government lands will take care of the soil conservation service's plan but the discussion of the proposed amendment to the soil erosion act as to the range program will be of interest to the users of other grazing lands.

There will be a discussion of the Navajo reservation boundary bill. The association has gone on record as opposing this bill for the reason that if passed, it will take a large acreage from the tax rolls of the state.

All national legislation which remains unfinished when congress adjourns, of interest to the cattlemen, will be discussed.

A representative of the U. S. Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine will attend the meeting and discuss with the cattlemen the administration of funds recently appropriated for screw worm control, to be used for investigational and demonstrational work in the states where this insect is a major problem.

A representative of the New Mexico College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts will talk to the meeting on the mineral analysis of grasses on the New Mexico ranges, which is a follow-up of the resolution adopted by the association at its recent convention asking for this analysis to be made.

The meeting is to be held in the court house at 10:00 o'clock in the morning. The afternoon session will be called at 2:00 o'clock.

PUCKETT-PRUIETT NUPTIALS

The marriage of Miss Edna Puckett, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. O. E. Puckett of Carlsbad and former teacher in the Hope schools, to William Flavil Pruiett, will be of interest to many friends of the Puckett family in this section. The following account of the wedding was taken from the Carlsbad Current-Argus of Friday:

Before an improvised altar of fern and pink delphinium, with an attractive arrangement of cut flowers in floor baskets furnishing the background, Miss Edna Puckett and Mr. William Flavil Pruiett of Wink, Texas, were married at an eight o'clock ceremony Friday at the home of the bride's parents, Dr. and Mrs. O. E. Puckett of Carlsbad.

Allen E. Johnson, minister of the Church of Christ at Artesia, friend of the Puckett family, read the impressive nuptial vows before thirty relatives and close friends of the couple. Avis C. Wiggins of the Carlsbad church, assisted with the service.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white embroidered organdie garden frock, the wedding dress of her sister, Mrs. F. R. Zumwalt of Cottonwood, who, with Mr. Zumwalt, celebrated their third wedding anniversary Friday at the ceremony.

A white picture hat, trimmed with flowers, and a corsage of Talisman roses and baby's breath, completed the bride's ensemble. The something old of her costume was a handkerchief which belonged to an aunt many years ago.

Mrs. Zumwalt played and sang "At Dawning," preceding the ceremony. As the bride entered the garden with her father, she played the Bridal Chorus, from the opera, "Lohengrin, by Wagner.

She played "I Love You Truly" during the ceremony. After the ceremony, Dr. and Mrs. Puckett entertained the wedding party at a reception in the living room, where punch and cake were served.

Immediately after the reception Mr. and Mrs. Pruiett left for the Texas Centennial, after which they will make a short visit here before going to Wink to reside, where he is associated with the Wink Laundry company.

Mrs. Pruiett's going-away costume was of navy blue sheer crepe.

Mrs. Pruiett has attended Abilene Christian College, Abilene, Texas, the State University at Albuquerque, and State College at Las Cruces.

At Abilene Christian College she was a member of the Kitten club and reigned as queen of its 1932 carnival. She was a leader of the pep squad and a member of Ko-Jo-Kai social sorority.

She has taught at the Hope public school the past two years.

Dr. Puckett is district health officer and the family is prominent in Church of Christ activities and pioneer residents of the Pecos valley.

Mr. Pruiett is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Pruiett of Carlsbad, and Mrs. William Patterson, a sister, also resides here.

"Prima Donna dishes" have been defined as those very delectable, even elegant dishes that are superb when they come out right and rank when they don't. They are those temperamental ladies of the cook book who will perform beautifully for some cooks and refuse to behave at all for the next ones.

Witchcraft, They Say
The tireless departments of food manufacturers, the schemers employed by publications for such purposes, have tried to tame some of these turbulent prima donnas of the kitchen, so they come out right by the same recipe, every time. It may never be entirely possible, for some say Fate sits on Luck in their making and others claim that a Black Mass is incanted by those who can pop out a moral soufflé every time, and Witchery employed by such as can turn over a Baked Alaska and not spill a drop. One faction even says the toothpicks used in making Jelly roll are bewitched by a jealous few.

Perhaps you do not "have a way with you" as people are said to have with flowers; mayhap you will never do any better. But let us at least try again on some of these new and improved versions of the prima donna dishes. No mistakes will be rectified after leaving the desk, but we think you'll have better luck this time!

Souffle Is Soothed
Your soufflé will incline, not decline, if you add rice to it for "body." Try this cheese-y one and see if it doesn't help!

Rice and Cheese Souffle
1½ cups cooked rice
1½ cups white sauce
3 eggs
1½ cups American cheese, (put through food chopper)
¼ teaspoon baking soda
Salt and paprika

Season the white sauce highly with paprika, then add cheese, stir constantly until melted, and turn in the rice mixture, and then fold in the whites beaten stiff. Transfer to well oiled baking dish, set in pan of hot water, and bake in a moderate oven (350° F.) for 30 minutes.

Jelly Roll That Rolls
Part of the "cracking up" troubles of the jelly roll aviatrix will be solved if the sponge-cake foundation is right. The clever use of a wide spatula helps, and string and toothpicks may come in handy.

Jelly Roll
3 eggs
1 cup sugar
¼ cup water
½ teaspoon lemon flavoring
1½ cups pastry flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
¼ teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons mazola
Sugar
Jam or jelly

Beat eggs until very light; then beat in sugar. Add water and lemon flavoring. Sift flour, baking powder and salt together and fold into eggs. Stir in mazola and pour at once into shallow pan, 8 by 16, lined with paper and oiled. Bake in hot oven (400° F.) about 15 to 20 minutes, or until firm. Remove from oven to cloth and sprinkle with granulated sugar. Peel off paper immediately. Spread with jam or soft jelly and roll in cloth and allow to stand for ten minutes.

Muffins That Are Moist
Do your bran muffins seem tasteless and dry out quickly? Then what you need are some bananas and a new recipe. The flavor and moisture qualities of the fruit will change your luck.

Banana Bran Muffins
1 cup sifted flour
½ teaspoon salt
¾ teaspoon soda
2 tablespoons shortening
¼ cup sugar
1 egg, well beaten
1 cup bran
2 tablespoons sour milk
2 cups thinly sliced bananas (2 to 3 bananas)

Mix and sift together the flour, salt and soda. Cream shortening, add sugar gradually and cream well. Add egg, bran and sour milk. Mix and let stand while slicing banana. Add banana and mix well. Add sifted dry ingredients, stirring only enough to dampen all the flour. Bake in well-greased muffin tins in moderately hot oven (375° F.) for 30 to 35 minutes. Makes 6 large or 12 small muffins.

Gingerbread That Is!
If the mysteries of molasses measuring are beyond you, then never mind. Gingerbread that is guaranteed to come out right every time (or your money back) is easy—you just add a cup of water to the contents of a package of gingerbread mix (the kind based on Mary Washington's recipe) and your worries are over.

Jess Funk, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Brundrett and daughter, Mrs. J. A. Clayton and children, and Mrs. Main.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Brundrett and daughter has as guests at dinner last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Terry and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Funk and son, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Reed and daughter, and Mr. and Mrs. Witcher Angell and daughter.

Centennial Notes

DALLAS — One hundred wild Mexican cattle, bought in the interior of Mexico, are in the Texas Centennial Exposition corrals, for use of the World Championship Rodeo.

Three hundred actors play a thousand roles in "Cavalcade of Texas" at the Centennial Exposition in Dallas. The play contains nearly fifty scenes, and covers more than 400 years of Texas history.

More than 1,800,000 admission tickets to the Texas Centennial Exposition had been sold prior to the opening June 6th. This establishes a new all-time record for advance ticket sales to a world fair and is the barometer for the prediction that twelve million persons will pay their way through the turnstiles before the closing on November 29.

The entire Pacific fleet was combed to pick 100 former Texas residents for the Texas Bluejacket company stationed at the Texas Centennial Exposition. Every man and officer among them is a Texan.

Electricity used to illuminate the grounds at the Texas Centennial Exposition is sufficient to supply power for the lighting of the commercial and residential areas of America's busiest city of 100,000 population.

Anton Januszewski, 40, Milwaukee, entered the home of Mrs. Gozdalski unannounced, and put himself to bed without removing his shoes. When the police got him and the judge asked an excuse, Anton couldn't remember. "Guess I was drunk," he said. "That's your guess," answered the judge. "My guess is it will cost you $25."

NYA Program To Continue In Eddy

Appropriations have been made for the continuation of the national youth administration program in Eddy county for another year, Bernice Perry, Eddy county supervisor, announced at Carlsbad Friday.

New appropriations voted by the congress provide funds for a program for the fiscal year starting July 1.

Mrs. Perry said that she had been advised to outline the NYA projects for Eddy county for the coming fiscal year, but that she had not been informed as to the amount of the appropriation for Eddy county.

How many youths are to be provided with employment for next year's program also is yet to be determined, Mrs. Perry said.

The Eddy county NYA setup, started in the early spring, has given employment to about fifty youths over the county since its inauguration, combining part-time jobs with an opportunity to receive business and practical training.

Improvements in many Eddy county rural schools and municipal institutions have been made thru the program. Other youths have worked in various county, city and federal offices in Carlsbad.

On examination of children's teeth for dental caries in a school developed an unusual condition. One child presented a perfect set of teeth. The investigators started to fathom the mystery and this is what they discovered. The child had never cleaned his teeth, never had a tooth brush, nor done anything supposed to prevent early disintegration. The mother's explanation, made apologetically to the investigators, was that she did not "know anything about caries."

Control Weeds By Chemicals

It is the time to plan an ef-fective program against all weeds, whether they be by the use of chemicals or by close cultiva-tion. T. M. Reid of the New Mexico State College. Whichever method is used, the work should be done with a definite goal in mind, complete eradication, as the weeds will be of little value, and only poor results will be obtained over the state, but only in areas which makes them easily controlled. They ap-ply moisture and plant food and the growth of adjoining weeds. Close cultivation which prevent the weeds from de-veloping surface growth would kill them; however, few weeds will go to this trouble. Demonstrations on weed control use of chlorates have been given by the Extension Service period of years. It has been found that when carefully and properly applied as a spray, such as Johnson grass, Bermuda grass, and similar per-ennial weeds can be controlled. The weeds are obtained when treat-ment late in the season, but results can be obtained on all weeds after the plants are in bloom. A solution to use is one pound of sodium chlorate dissolved in one gallon of water and applied as a spray. Every plant should be sprayed thoroughly to get good results. Any type of sprayer is satisfactory, but the most efficient is one that will develop 70 pounds of pressure and throw out a fine mist. Weeds that should not be treated should not be treated by cultivating, plow-ing, or immediately before several months after treat-ment is sometimes necessary to lightly a few months after treatment to get the few weeds that were missed by the first treatment.

The Suicide

I have not stopped to reason why. Nor pondered on the cost. No hatred rankles in my heart. I have not loved and lost. No pang of conscience urges me, I do not know despair. I simply feel like passing on. And somehow I don't care. My steps lead to the waterfront. A place I've never been. Between long rows of tenements And knots of homeless men. I scan each face in sympathy. They eye me in disdain. These men who laugh at poverty And grin at worldly pain. An infant in a mother's arms. She croons a lullaby. In stately rags she sings of love, While I just want to die. A hurdy gurdy stops to play, The urchins dance with glee. Beside a man of destiny Who seeks eternity. Why come such sights and sounds to me On my last hour on earth. What joker brings these man-ners, What magic gave them birth. I pause above the river's brink. It's good to be alive. Some saving grace reminds me that, I never learned to dive.

A GIFT

from the Indians

WE ARE indebted to the Indi-ans for many things. One of the chief of these is corn. For hundreds, perhaps thousands of years before Columbus took the grains of corn which were to spread its cultivation all over the world, the Indians had cultivated and eaten this important food. Just as we prize corn most highly, so did the Indians. Each year the six Indian tribes of the Iroquois family celebrated Green Corn Festival—four days of feast and thanksgiving to the Great Spirit who had given them corn.

June Water Level In Ten-Year High

Clifford Smith, artesian well su-pervisor, who several months ago established an office at the City Hall, said here Tuesday substantial progress is being made by the well plugging crew working in the lower part of the artesian basin. The crew has plugged seventeen wells in the Lakewood community and has about three more to plug be-fore moving closer to the Artesia sector. The crew will endeavor to stop the flow in all leaky and abandoned wells in the territory between Seven Rivers and Four Mile before leaving that territory.

The upper well plugging crew has plugged four wells in the Orchard Park district and will shortly move into the Dexter community. When questioned by an Advocate reporter as to whether the present well plugging might not eventually dry up the bogs southeast of Ar-tesia, Mr. Smith said in his opinion practically all the irrigation water was flowing into these bogs and the stopping of the artesian water would not materially affect the bogs. He said the best way to get rid of the bogs was to drain them.

The June readings of the three water gauges in the artesian basin of the Pecos valley are the highest in ten years, according to Clifford Smith, well supervisor. The rising water level in the basin is due largely to the well plugging under-way for the past two years. Two gauges, one here and one at Or-chard Park, showed the water level to be the highest since 1926.

Artesia records: June 2, 1936, 0.0 feet, the water level being lower each year back by the fol-lowing feet: 8.1, 7.4, 8.0, 3.8, 4.6, 1.0, 2.1, 9.5, 7.1, and 2.5 lower in 1926.

Orchard Park records: Orchard Park 1936, June 2 reading, 0.0, then going back year by year the water level was lower each year than this year on the June 2 date by the following feet: 7.2, 10.3, 9.8, 0.2, 7.2, 8.7, 12.0, 8.5, 8.0 and 0.0 feet in 1926 in June.

At the Berrendo recorder the water level is lower by the fol-lowing feet in each year back to 1926, beginning with this year: 0.0 feet, 0.3, 0.6, 2.7, 3.0, 4.0, 4.8, 4.7, 5.4, 6.7. In other words in the Berrendo readings the water level has dropped 6.7 feet below the reading in 1926 in June.

These readings show good in-creases this year in the Artesia and Orchard Park water levels and lower in the Berrendo. The ex-planation of that, of course, is that Artesia and Orchard Park is lower than the Berrendo and the lower part of the Artesia basin is filling first.

Mrs. Emma Peters, Legonier, Pennsylvania, put a spring lock on her chicken house door hoping to trap thieves. Forgetting about it, she entered the house and was locked in. She screamed and the hens cackled for three hours be-fore she was released.

BONUS IS REFUSED BY MANY VETERANS

The bonus went begging in sev-eral quarters Tuesday. As Uncle Sam polished off dis-tribution of $1,650,000,000 in baby bonds to 3,000,000 World war vet-erans and turned to the job of satisfying those who preferred cash to bonds, there appeared certain potential beneficiaries who rendered a polite "No, thank you."

Donald A. Hobart, commander of the American Veterans' Associa-tion, which claims 13,000 mem-bers, announced in New York that between 500 and 600 members had denied to themselves personal use of their bonds but were turning them into the organization's treas-ury to help in its campaign for more funds for wounded ex-soldiers and war widows.

EVERYBODY ENJOYS AN ELECTRIC REFRIGERATOR

When you consider everything you will find that an electric re-frigerator brings unusual bene-fits to those who purchase them. Electric Refrigerators do not cost much. They last many years. Operation and maintenance costs are now very low. But electric refrigerators approach perfection in performance—no matter how hot the weather you can always depend on these three im-portant essentials of good refrigerators:

1. An abundance of ice cubes.
2. Positive food compartment temperature below 50 degrees, the critical danger point.
3. Fast, dependable freezing of desserts.

During the past ten years improvement in electric refrigerators has been rapid. The whole family enjoys them. An electric refrigerator represents real economy.

Health Column

Conducted by Dr. J. R. Earp, Director, New Mexico Bureau of Public Health.

Neonatal Death

The infant mortality rate measures the deaths of babies in the first year of life. The neonatal mortality rate measures death in the first month of life. New Mexico still has the highest infant mortality rate in the United States but it is coming down. New Mexico also has the highest neonatal death rate in the United States and it is not coming down. Our rate in 1929, when our registration was first accepted as satisfactory, was 52; our rate in 1934 was 51. Such a small difference as this is well within the limits of chance fluctuation. The rate means that out of every 1,000 babies born in this state 51 die before they are one month old. The next highest rate in the United States for 1934 was that of Georgia which was 44. For the whole United States the rate was 34. The rate in Denmark is 29, in New Zealand 23.

Most of the babies that die in the first month of their lives die from causes that are present at the time of birth. They may have been born before their time and are not strong enough to face the struggle for existence in the big world. They may have received injuries on the difficult journey. They may be born with a dangerous and often fatal disease—syphilis—which they have caught from their mothers. Such disasters can only be avoided by proper care given to the mother before birth and at the time of birth. When we realize that there are six New Mexico counties in which less than one quarter of the mothers receive medical care at childbirth we cannot be surprised that our neonatal mortality is high.

The new division of maternal and child health in the state bureau of public health is very much concerned about this problem of properly caring for mothers. Dr. Geo. S. Littell, its director, is anxious to hear from New Mexicans who are willing to help him in its solution. He will find work for every volunteer.

A Rounded Program

What is the health department's job? Some think it is only to prevent the spread of acute contagious disease. Some think it should be mainly a matter of food inspection. Some, including the writer, tend to put the chief emphasis on health education. Each of us is likely to be a little one-sided in his

The lesson-sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science text book: "There is no physical science, inasmuch as all truth proceeds from the divine mind. Therefore truth is not human, and is not a law of matter, for matter is not a lawgiver. Science is an emanation of divine mind, and is alone able to interpret God aright. It has a spiritual, and not a material origin."

Twenty Beneficiaries Get $1,717,624.90 From State Land Rentals During 1936

According to compilations made by the Taxpayers Association of New Mexico from the records of the state auditor, for the year ending April 30, 1936, a total of $1,717,624.90 was derived from state land rentals and from interest on investment of permanent funds. From land rentals the earnings amounted to $1,494,509.61, and from interest on investment of permanent funds $223,115.29. There are twenty beneficiaries of these earnings as shown below:

Table with columns: Land Rentals, Interest from Investments, Total. Lists 20 beneficiaries including Agricultural College, School for Blind, School for Deaf, etc.

Eight institutions have pledged revenues from these sources to pay interest on and to retire bond issues. To that extent these institutions will lose this revenue for maintenance purposes and taxpayers will have to make up the difference. In the case of the University, debt service for next year will require $53,550, while the revenue available may be three or four thousand dollars short of this amount.

would agree entirely that these marks are rightly distributed. Nobody should become a slave to a ready-made standard and local conditions will call for local emphasis. At the same time it is interesting to see what a committee of experts believes to be the proper field of public health and the relative importance of its several activities.

TALKS ON THE FLAG Fred Cole gave an interesting talk on the flag, its history and origin, at the luncheon program of the Artesia Rotary club Tuesday.

The talk was in commemoration of Flag day, which occurred two days earlier. A history of the United States flag, one of the oldest in the world, together with points of "flag etiquette," proved to be an interesting topic for members of the Rotary club and visitors.

Visitors present were: J. R. Ogden, Carlsbad; Jeff Atwood, Roswell; A. C. Lafolette of LaVerne, California; Fred Cole and D. C. Blue of Artesia.

In the Los Angeles traffic court, the judge said to the accused: "What's your name?"

"Safety First," said the prisoner. "Don't kid me, young man. Give your right name or I'll fine you for contempt."

"Safety First," was again the answer. Investigation proved the accused told the truth.

"Discharged," said the judge. "Let your name be your motto."

C. E. Notes

The young people's Christian Endeavor society enjoyed an interesting lesson prepared by the leader, Cecil Fletcher, Sunday evening, June 14. The topic was "The Responsibilities of Youth," and many interesting discussions were obtained from different members of the Endeavor.

The lesson next Sunday is under the direction of our president, Alvin Hadley, and a very interesting lesson is in store for all young people present. We should like to see all our old members and as many new ones as possible at this meeting.

Attention all committee chairmen: Remember it is less than three weeks until our July social when you will have to give a written report of all work done—so you had better get busy.

C. E. Jest "Fat" Kissinger is suffering with a sore neck this week, caused from wearing a necktie Sunday night to Endeavor.

Waiter in restaurant (trying to be cordial): "It looks like rain." Alvin Hadley (pointing to soup): "Yes, it looks like rain, but it tastes like carboic acid."

It seems that Marjorie Rowland's loneliness Sunday night was caused by "HIS" being away for a whole day!

We hear that two of our Endeavor members, Laurent Gordon and Olin Woodside, are in the hospital with a severe case of sunburned tonsils. (Probably caused from open-mouthed starting at the attractions of the Texas Centennial.)

Who was the handsome young gigolo who escorted Ruby Rowland to Endeavor Sunday night?

Marion Coll (working in garden): "Look, Bubs, at the cute little green snake."

"Bubs" Coll: "You had better keep away from it. It may be as dangerous as a ripe one."

Everyone welcome at Christian Endeavor Sunday night.

County Jail Inmates Battle Sheriff and Jailer Friday

Sheriff Dwight Lee and Fred Hill, jailor, learned Friday that putting a man in a straight jacket is a real assignment and that it sometimes makes knots on one's head.

The two officers were preparing to send Francisco Griego, 33-year-old, Carlsbad, and Lalo Jierro, 23, Loving, to Roswell to be committed by the district court to the insane asylum.

Pierro, whose condition was believed to have been the result of a railroad accident several years ago, was docile, but Griego was vicious.

When the officers approached the cell they found Griego with belts tied tightly around his biceps. He had bitten his own arms until the blood flowed freely.

When he saw the officers he grabbed shoes and threatened to club them. Hill reached for a broom handle and Griego quieted down.

But when they started to put him in a straight jacket Griego started fighting and the officers came out of the melee with bruises and torn shirts—but Griego was in the straight jacket.

The young and old people attending the Methodist assembly enjoyed a fine sermon Friday evening. The subject was "In My Name Build A Life." Dr. W. H. ### Chevrolet Rounds Out Great Period In Sales History

Chevrolet dealers rounded out the greatest three months in the history of the Chevrolet Motor Company by delivering 129,816 new cars and trucks in May, W. E. Holler, vice president and general sales manager, announced recently. May sales were the highest on record, exceeding those for the highest previous May, that of 1928, by 7,379 units.

The company's sales in April established a new all-time high for any month of any year, and the totals for March and for May approached that high point so closely as to concentrate within the past ninety days all three of Chevrolet's biggest months. Total sales for that period were 389,556 units, bringing the total for the year to date, from January 1, to 535,634.

May used car sales by Chevrolet dealers set an all-time high of 229,223 units, Mr. Holler announced, resulting in a substantial decline in the stocks on hand, and contributing to the outlook for heavy new unit volume in June.

Three-Day Cooking Institute Closing Today Draws Big Crowd

The three-day cooking institute held at the Ocotillo Theater, opening Tuesday morning and closing this morning, drew record crowds the last two days.

A number of the local merchants cooperated with the Pecos Valley Gas Company, sponsors of the institute, and assisted in making this one of the most successful schools ever held in Artesia. Frank Deatur White, Princeton graduate, nationally known caterer, dietician, lecturer and author of numerous cook books, conducted the school.

A modern gas-equipped kitchen for cooking, water heating and refrigeration was arranged on the stage. A new model range, the Modernistic Roper, was displayed for the first time. Mr. White, a famous expert in the art of cookery, demonstrated to housewives new ideas in cooking and food economy. He particularly stressed the importance of modern equipment and demonstrated the advantages of a gas-equipped kitchen.

Mr. White, who has visited in most every section of our nation, believes that the kitchen of today should be as up-to-date as the family car.

Recipes were given while tasty delicacies were being prepared. The equipment and cooking utensils used by Mr. White and the foods used in every recipe may be found in the local stores of Artesia.

Merchants who cooperated in the institute were: Peoples Mercantile Co., McClay Furniture Store, Joyce-Fruit Store, Brainard Corbin Hardware Store. Others contributing were Ocotillo Theater, The Artesia Laundry & Cleaners, Dr. Pepper, The Artesia Advocate, The Vaughn Beauty Shop and the Southwestern Public Service Co.

Decision In Oil Proration Hearing Is Expected Soon

The State Oil Conservation Commission is expected to render a decision soon on the hearing held at Santa Fe Friday on petition of the Barnsdall Oil Corp., operating in the Monument pool for a change in the proration order No. 22. The present proration agreement is based on the acreage and static bottom hole pressure; twenty-five per cent for the former and seventy-five per cent for the latter. On the previous day, which was last Thursday, the Phillips Petroleum Co., withdrew its petition for an increased allowable in the Cooper district.

Soil Conservation Payments Average $11.10 In Eddy Co.

The average rate for soil conserving payments to Eddy county farmers who join in the Agricultural Conservation program will be $11.10 an acre, County Agent Fred Barham was informed last week in a statement from Director G. R. Quesenberry of the State College Extension Service.

The statement included the rates for each county of the state and he stressed that the rate an individual farmer will receive depends upon the productivity of the soil on his farm. Rates may be subject to further revision, the director stated.

Maximum acreage upon which farmers can receive these payments is fifteen per cent of the general soil-depleting base acreage for the farm, according to the statement. These payments are distinct from the soil-building payments announced recently.

The average rates an acre for New Mexico counties are:

NORRIS WILL AGAIN AID ROOSEVELT

WASHINGTON—New support for President Roosevelt came Monday from Senator Norris, Nebraska's independent republican, who calls Governor Alf M. Landon a man "nobody knows."

Expressing his opinions in a broadcast Sunday night, the veteran senator reiterated his stand behind the president, whom he supported four years ago, and criticized the republican national convention selection of a presidential nominee.

"These eminent gentlemen behind the smoke screen at Cleveland nominated a man for president whose greatest asset is that nobody knows him and nobody knows what he stands for," said Norris.

PLANTS CHANNEL CAT IN LAKE McMILLAN

Deputy Game Warden M. Stevenson of Roswell reported yesterday that twenty-eight channel cat had been transplanted in Lake McMillan from Elephant Butte lake. The cat range in length from fourteen to eighteen inches in length. In commenting on the planting, Mr. Stevenson said: "The game department has gone to a considerable expense in transplanting these fish. If local anglers happen to catch one of these fish, we ask that you be a sport and throw them back in the lake."

Bonus Payments Estimated Worth $250,000 To Eddy County Veterans

Approximately 500 veterans of the World war, living in Eddy county will receive their bonus bonds shortly. Bonds were mailed out from one of the twelve distribution offices of the treasury department on June 15th and many were scheduled to have been delivered over the county yesterday, from the nearest point of distribution, which was Dallas, Texas.

The average value of the adjusted service certificates over the county is computed at $500.00 each. On this basis $250,000 will be received in the county in bonus. It is estimated that there are 150 ex-service men living in this trade area which will mean that holders of bonds in the north Eddy area will receive about $65,000.

The bonds are being sent by registered mail, deliverable to the addressee only; the mail carrier or postal clerk making the delivery will be held responsible for the proper person. After the delivery to the addressee, it will be necessary for each veteran to call at the post office and have his bonds validated for sending it to the pay master, if he wishes the bonds to be cashed, which in this instance is Albuquerque.

Veterans will fill out the form on the back of the bonus certificate, which will be certified by the postmaster or other designated employee, if the veteran wishes to convert the bonds into cash.

The local postoffice in any place in the county, will not be in a position to cash the checks, but they may be cashed at banks and elsewhere as in the case of ordinary checks. Some veterans are not expected to redeem their bonds at this time, but to keep them as an investment. They will bear interest until their maturity in 1945.

To Expedite Delivery

The postoffice department has cancelled all leaves of absence, except in emergency cases, of regular clerks during the entire month of June, and of postmasters and city carriers between June 16 and 31, in order that the bonus distribution may be accomplished with a maximum of efficiency.

Undeliverable bonds cannot be forwarded to any change of address, but must be returned to the department for re-mailing. Any veteran who has changed his address since making application for his bonds may give notice of such change to the office from which he made application. Proper form will then be sent the veteran upon which such change may be certified, and the bonds will then be sent to the new address.

Payment of the bonus will cost the federal government $1,924,000, the department reveals.

$15,000,000 for State

It is estimated that the state of New Mexico's share of the soldier's bonus will reach fifteen million dollars. It is predicted that the greater part of the bonds delivered will be redeemed by the veterans for cash which will find its way to the coffers of merchants in every community.

No definite estimate can be made as to how and where this huge sum of money will be spent by the veterans who redeem their bonds. The men will spend their individual portions in the same manner as any other citizen suddenly handed a sizeable sum of money. Some will pay off debts; others will buy new and badly needed clothes; many will turn in decrepit and worn-out cars with the necessary cash payment for a new one; many will buy pianos, radios, vacuum cleaners, washing machines, refrigerators, ladies and children's clothing, and all the other necessities of life that they have, perhaps, been denied for the past few years.

True, some of the money will go into savings accounts, but it is predicted that the greater majority of it will be SPENT, and it should go a long way toward stimulating business.

The bonus was paid Monday to veterans of the World war.

The fruit of a seventeen-year struggle over various forms of adjusted compensation, "baby" bonds worth almost $1,650,000,000 moved through the mail to some 3,000,000 ex-service men. When the work is completed 38,000,000 bonds will have been sent out.

Government experts said that by the end of the week millions of dollars in cash would be in the hands of those men who seek immediately to swap the bonds for government checks—and the cash then will flow into the trade channels.

Light To Heavy Rains Fall South and West of Artesia On Monday

Heavy to light showers fell south and west of Artesia Monday afternoon, while only a sprinkle fell here. The moisture extended westward into the Sacramento mountains. Hope reported a half inch of precipitation. Southwest of Hope the rain was heavier. Charley White draw on 83 west of Hope checked traffic for a short time as the Penasco ran bank full.

Farther west the highways were slick and traffic hazardous.

Miss Jewel Anderson of Claypool, Arizona, is spending the week visiting at the home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Perly George.
