

Adolpho Lara Killed Beneath Hay Rake Tues.

Lad Thrown Under Rake When Tongue Drops and Meets Death When Team Stars Running—Funeral Yesterday.

Adolpho Lara, aged thirteen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lara, who live on the V. L. Gates farm a mile and a half east of Artesia met death in a tragic accident Tuesday evening about 3:20 p. m. The lad was running a hay rake at the time of the accident and when the rake tongue dropped down Adolpho was thrown from his seat under the rake. When the tongue dropped and the lad fell from his seat the team became frightened and started running.

V. L. Gates, owner of the farm was standing about thirty yards from the boy at the time of the accident. Events occurred so swiftly and so much dust was raised by the running team, Mr. Gates said he never saw the boy after the horses started running. He said he heard Adolpho cry, "Whoa! whoa!" to the team as soon as the rake tongue dropped from the breast yoke. The lad he said held onto the reins and attempted to stop the team, but found it impossible. Had the boy let go of the reins his life might have been spared.

When the run away team was checked Mr. Gates rescued the boy from under the rake and found him bleeding profusely from a head wound caused by a rake tooth. The boy was rushed here for medical attention but was dead when the doctor's office was reached. He was still apparently alive when taken from under the rake but the gash from the rake tooth, proved fatal. Joe Lara, the father was at the office of the Alfalfa Association with a load of alfalfa hay at the time of the accident.

Funeral services were held yesterday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Anderson and Mrs. J. A. Brown and son all of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma arrived last week for a visit with the parents of Mmes. Anderson and Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gribble. Mr. Anderson returned home Saturday, the ladies remained for a longer visit.

Few Wool Clips Sell at Private Sale Past Week

The wool clip has been moving to market and to storage at a speedy rate with the bulk of the clip already stored or sold. Shearing operations are expected to be finished by July 4th over this district. The quantity of the clip added by one of the best summer ranges seen in several years, is probably larger than usual and is averaging eight and a half pounds per animal on many ranches.

Movement of the clip has been quieter than usual due to the fact that a larger percent of the clip was contracted early in the spring at substantial prices. One car of wool representing the clips of about ten small growers was sold at private sale at the Bullock warehouse last week. Other smaller clips are coming in. Ed Watts, Dunken rancher is reported to have topped the market at a private sale in Roswell last week when he received thirty cents per pound for 40,000 pounds.

Joe Lewis Knocks Braddock Out to Win Heavy Title

COMISKY PARK, Chicago. — Battered and bleeding, James J. Braddock went down once Tuesday night under the crushing impact of a right hand smash to the side of the head, and lost the heavy weight boxing championship of the world to Joe Louis, 23 year old boy from the cotton fields of Alabama.

In a stunning climax to the first mixed match for the big title in twenty two years, Louis came back from a first round knockdown to batter the defending champion into a bloody pulp and become the second member of his race ever to capture the most prized crown in pugilism.

Braddock, game to the core and a gallant fighter right down to the last blow, collapsed and was counted out by the referee Tommy Thomas just one minute and ten seconds after the eighth round started.

City Delivery of Mail Is Prospect

Project Approved by First Assistant and Sent to Inspector's Department

PROJECT WOULD COVER ABOUT SEVENTY BLOCKS

Free delivery of mail in the city limits of Artesia is a prospect now according to J. L. Truett, post master. Application to establish one route here has been approved by the first assistant to the postmaster general and passed to the inspection department. An inspector is expected here soon to go over the proposed project, covering seventy blocks and make recommendations as to the feasibility of inaugurating the route. If approved the route would give employment to one carrier. Efforts will be made to have the route established in the early fall.

A few things are essential if the project is approved by the inspector. One is that all residences be plainly numbered. If mail is to be delivered to the residence part of Artesia, it should be addressed to the house number. If it is to be delivered to the box in the post office, it should bear the box number.

Prospects for securing free city delivery of mail for those who want it has been brightened by completion of the recent paving program.

Survey Started In Co., for ACP

Three surveying groups have begun surveys of Eddy county farms for the Agriculture Conservation program, according to an announcement by Fred Barham, county agent.

One group is working in the northern part of the county while the other group is working in the south. Barham said five more groups are expected to begin work soon. About seventy five percent of the county farms will be included in this survey, he said.

The survey is under the direction of Franklin Yuetter, state engineer of the A. C. P. He is assisted by C. E. Withers, extension agricultural engineer, from the state agricultural college.

In each group there are three men. One is the plane table man, while two are chain men. Work in the south is being done on property of the Valley Land company.

"IRISH LUCK" SAVES MAN FROM DEATH 200 TIMES

All in all, James Geelan, 61-year old farmer, of Emmetsburg, Iowa, figures he has had more than 200 accidents in 35 years. He has narrowly escaped death several times and has been on crutches 12 different times since 1931.

His more serious accidents include almost severing his foot with an ax, falling from a load of hay and breaking two arms, getting blood poisoning from a rusty nail, and getting two broken legs, a fractured arm and a crushed chest when a car hit him.

Geelan lays his survival to "the luck of the Irish."

Trend of the major oil play has shifted westward with Eddy county the scene of renewed activity during the past week. Of the twelve new locations staked for the period, four of the new tests are located in Eddy county and two of these are in wildcat territory. The two wells which will be closely followed are the T. Higher Price For Cattle Is Seen

WASHINGTON.—Higher prices for most grades of slaughter cattle this summer and fall were predicted Saturday by the government livestock experts.

Noting that the price of cattle had risen steadily since last fall, the bureau of agricultural economics said this trend was shown also by stronger consumer demand for beef, smaller market supplies and prospective large grain crops.

Shorter fed supplies and high cost of feed, the bureau said, had caused many producers to sell their herds short last year.

Common slaughter grades continued upward in price during May so that the average price at Chicago for all grades the bureau figures showed, was $22.21 a hundred pounds, or 46 cents above April and 8 cents above last year.

The bureau said the seasonal decline this summer and early fall would likely be less than average.

Healy said he knew nothing concerning a report here that the WPA state offices were to be moved to Albuquerque within a few months.

The purpose of the meeting is to form an organization, which will have for its objective the revision of some of the rules and regulations of the state game and fish department, particularly as these rules and regulations may affect the planting of fish in the various parts of the state and in reference to the issuance of permits on the public domain.

Efforts will be made to organize a state wide protective association, either on the order of a state game protective association or an Isaac Walton league, following the meeting here.

HOT ENOUGH FOR YOU?

It took an all-time record blast of 155 quarts of nitroglycerin to extinguish this fire at the Continental Oil Company well at Monument Field, New Mexico. The blast raged eight days but was finally tamed by Myron M. and Floyd T. Kinley, famed fire-fighters, flown to the scene by Conoco. So intense was the heat that high-pressure fire hose carrying a full stream of water burned like paper during the conflagration.

Association Vault Robbed of $200.00 Cash Last Night

Robber or Robbers Entered Building by Cutting Hole in Back Door—Final Check May Reveal Greater Loss.

The office safe or vault of the Artesia Alfalfa association was robbed last night and approximately $200.00 in cash in addition to valuable papers and documents, W. R. Hornbaker, manager announced this morning. The extent of the loss had not been determined at an early hour this morning and it was not known whether any merchandise was taken from the office.

Entrance to the office was made through the back door. The robber or robbers entered the office through the back door by cutting a hole through the door panel after failing to cut out around the lock. Evidence showed the burglar first attempted to cut the lock out of the door but was foiled by an iron bar. The door of the office vault was found open and only one box of valuable papers taken. This box belonging to W. G. Everett had $118.00 in cash in addition to deeds, abstracts, etc. A total of $82.00 in cash was taken from the association. Several other individual lock boxes in the vault were not molested.

Officials of the association said they had not determined whether the vault was actually opened or the lock "jimmied". Examination of the vault door awaited the arrival of officers to obtain fingerprints.

No merchandise was missed from the store room on an initial check.

Red Bluff Filled To Capacity Now

The Red Bluff reservoir on the Pecos river has been full to overflowing for two weeks or more. Engineers Saturday announced results of an inspection. The engineers found small leaks and seepages in the dam, but they said these were to be expected and should cause no concern. The reservoir contains about 280,000 acre feet of water which the virtual capacity and the water is maintained at approximately the same level through control of the flood gates. The inflow of the river was said to be about 5,000 second feet, but water was being released through the spillway gates at about the same rate. The discharge from the reservoir has kept the Pecos full and overflowing in many places.

New Valley Theater Opened to the Public Saturday Afternoon

The new Valley theater, which was formally opened to the public Saturday afternoon was accorded an enthusiastic reception according to Bill Bartlett, manager. Patrons were turned away from the new theater Saturday evening for lack of room. And the patronage accorded the new theater has apparently not lessened the numbers who regularly patronize the Occitillo theater, Ray Bartlett, co-owner said Monday.

The new Valley theater has all the conveniences a modern theater should have including the best of sound equipment and the public response indicates the new theater is appreciated.

Operatives of the treasury department have been at work on the case for several days.

Four counterfeit bills were known to have been passed here, thirteen at Carlsbad and seventeen at Hobbs.

Stone Bond Is Set At $1,000

Bond Fixed at Preliminary Here Has Not Been Made To Date

HEARING TO BE HELD AS SOON AS VICTIM RECOVERS

Walter Stone, Cottonwood farm laborer was given a preliminary in the justice of the peace court here Friday before W. H. Ballard on charges of assault with a deadly weapon and his bond set at $1,000 which he had not made up to a late hour Tuesday. Stone is in the county jail at Carlsbad and faces a charge of assault with a deadly weapon, which grew out of an altercation between Stone and J. F. Newman, Cottonwood farmer at the Jess Funk farm on June 10th. Stone is alleged to have stabbed Newman several times with a file. Newman first brought to the home of Luther Jones here was later taken to Roswell for medical attention, where he is recovering.

Sheriff Dwight Lee said here Tuesday the preliminary trial for Stone would be held as soon as Newman recovered sufficiently to appear at the hearing. Howard Stone, implicated with his brother in the alleged stabbing was released to the custody of his father shortly after the trouble occurred.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Savoie yesterday morning.

McGhee Hears Paving Suit

CLOVIS.—In a decision of wide interest in New Mexico, Judge James B. McGhee of Roswell, sitting in district court at Clovis in the absence of Judge Harry L. Patton, who is ill, held last week that paving liens issued before 1929 against property sold for taxes under the 1929 special sessions act must be paid by the tax deed purchaser but cleared the property of all paving liens issued after the passage of the law.

The suit was brought by H. C. Walton against the City of Portales. Walton bought a tax deed to property there and sought to escape payment of all paving liens, both before and after the passage of the 1929 law.

It was decided before court action was started that the case would be carried to the state supreme court for decision, for nearly every city in the state is affected.

This is the first case of its kind in the state, for although the tax deed law was passed in 1929 no deeds were issued until December, 1936.

The City of Portales stands to lose the amount due on paving after 1929 on property sold for taxes, for Portales, like most other cities in the state, guaranteed collection of the assessments in order to sell paving bonds.

140 ON GOODWILL TOUR

A total of 140 people including the Artesia school band visited the Sacramento mountain area last week on the annual goodwill tour. Approximately 250 gathered for the picnic dinner served at Pinon the first day out and 500 plates were served at Elk when the Elk residents were hosts to the good-willers last Thursday noon. A soft ball team composed of Weed's girls defeated a local men's team at Weed and the Artesia baseball nine won the game from the Elk nine last Thursday afternoon at Elk.

Tourist Traffic Increasing Now Over the Sector

Correct Information on the Highway Conditions Held to be Responsible for Traffic Increase Over the State.

The number of tourists passing through this section has increased at a rapid rate the past few days with corrected information on the condition of the highways. With travel at a virtual standstill about a month ago due to flooded highways, the increase in traffic has been gradual up until a few days ago when traffic hit its normal stride and is expected to reach its seasonal peak shortly.

Heavy rains and high water affected travel to the Sacramento mountain area and has cut down the expected attendance at all assemblies on the Sacramento Methodist assembly grounds and also the attendance at the summer session of McMurry College which began Monday. While no official information is available as to the actual attendance, unofficial sources give the enrollment at 100 or better.

Claude Simpson, secretary of the Roswell Chamber of Commerce attributes the remarkable increase in traffic through the Pecos valley the past few days to correct highway information. Various chambers of commerce in the valley have been cooperating in getting the actual highway conditions to those who contemplate a visit to this section. The unfortunate situation with reference to flood waters was largely the result of false rumors, but the public is forgetting these rumors now that all roads are open.

Joseph A. Bursley, director of the state tourist bureau estimates foreign cars coming into New Mexico at the rate of two a minute over a twenty four hour period. Mr. Bursley predicts a twelve percent increase in the tourist flow over the corresponding period of last year. Last year approximately 1,000,000 foreign licensed cars entered the state. A twelve percent increase this year means 25,000 more cars bearing 338,000 people, he said.

In May the tourist bureau began keeping check on the number of incoming tourist trailers. During the first twenty four hour count, sixty eight trailers from twenty four states passed through the ports of entry.

Potash Co., Suspends Operations Tuesday To Make Improvements

Underground operations at the Potash Company of America were expected to be suspended for a short time beginning Tuesday, according to an announcement made by L. D. Anderson, refining engineer at Carlsbad Tuesday.

Suspension is being made to facilitate the making of changes and connections for the new unit which is being constructed at the potash mine. These changes will be made as rapidly as possible in order to minimize the period of suspension, Anderson said.

Rapid progress is being made with the new addition to the present refinery of the potash company, Anderson stated. The new warehouse has been completed and other buildings are looming up.

SOCIALISM IS THE OBJECTIVE

Now pending in Congress are a number of bills with a similar objective. That objective is the promotion of publicly owned electric systems—which is a polite way of saying socialization of the electric industry. If the objective is reached, an industry with an investment of some $12,000,000,000, representing savings of millions of citizens, will be impaired or destroyed. Taxes running into the hundreds of millions annually will be lost to the federal, state and local governments. And the taxpayers of the nation, in addition to making up this serious loss, will be directly responsible for any and all deficits that public plans may create.

Two of the pending bills are indicative of the trend. One would establish half a dozen or so power districts in strategic parts of the country, modeled after the TVA. The fact that all of these sections are at present served with electricity at low cost, and that in most of them there is considerable excess of supply over demand, is not considered.

Another of the bills, recently introduced in the house, says: "The purpose of this act is to provide for the public operation of the coal, electrical energy, oil and natural gas industries in the Continental United States, and of their products. It is declared to be in the public interest that these industries be operated as a national unified system." The act then provides that a corporation be formed to secure these ends either by negotiation or by exercising the right of eminent domain. What it would cost to do all this is staggering—it would run into the scores of billions, and would establish socialism in America on a major scale. But cost to the taxpayers doesn't seem to matter to those who vision the tremendous possibilities for political power and patronage in government seizure of our basic industries.

Certainly the American people have never voiced a desire for socialism. On many occasions in local elections held in every state, they have voided their opposition to it. It is safe to say that in a general election these national bills, if presented under their true colors, namely, attempts to socialize industry, would be overwhelmingly defeated. The only way to assure that such legislation, which would undermine the right to private ownership of property in the United States, does not become law, is eternal vigilance on the part of the people.

WHY BE A HICK TOWN?

"Another one of those honky-tonk carnivals is unloading," said a Santa Fe citizen, resident of the south part of town, today. "My wife is sick and I don't know what it will do to her, having to listen to the nerve-racking hullabaloo again, just after the other one left."

Hick town stuff. Nearly every other town in New Mexico has turned thumbs down on this cheap racket and public nuisance, but apparently Santa Fe welcomes everything that will make a din and take money out of town. Any barn-storming airplane owner can come here and roar low over town day and night to take the coin away, specializing in an ear-splitting din over the house tops on a Sabbath morning. Any truck can thunder and cough and bank around our principal tourist hotel to entertain the sleepers at one a. m. It is about time for the merchants here to co-operate in keeping the citizenry awake nights, for the usual month in midsummer by selling firecrackers not on the Fourth of July or the day before but for weeks ahead of the date.

It's probably a part of the phenomenon which makes it necessary to accompany all movie newsreels with a howling cacophony and blare of bands and trumpets to have Christmas carols detonating in the Plaza from two weeks before Christmas on, and which moves the motorist to have a noisy radio at his ear while he is driving.

But the fact remains that noise has been recognized in most cities and towns as something to be regulated by the community, and there are few places, as here, where a man can sit on an automobile horn on a down town street and keep it going for an hour to amuse himself.

A good place to start with noise regulation is with this carnival racket which thrives on suckers, relieves our poorer citizens so continually of their relief payments, and which is forbidden to stop in the majority of New Mexico towns; and with heading off this year's thirty-day Fourth celebration before it begins.—Santa Fe New Mexican.

THE HOOTENANNY

The temptation of parents to look with indulgence upon the "hootenanny," that vehicle technically described as consisting of a motor, chassis, four wheels and no brakes, is understandable. It is easy to think of the ownership of such a contraption in terms of the ingenuity and enterprise that has gone into putting it on the streets. Unfortunately, from a public point of view, parental tolerance or even pride are no substitute for elementary safety equipment.

That motor cars of this type, driven by high school students, have not been involved as yet in any spectacular accident is no guarantee for the future. Cars without brakes are a constant menace both to their occupants and to the general public. The decision of the police to take more active measures against the hootenanny and its driver would seem entirely justified particularly in view of what is reported to be the refusal of many parents to pay heed to friendly warnings on the subject. The presence of a brakeless car on the streets today cannot be treated as a harmless prank.—Kansas City Star.

And still we have strikes, strike pickets and sit down strikes. Aside from the fact the CIO is in the thick of it, nobody appears to know just what it is all about. It is becoming increasingly apparent, however that officials are hopeless to cope with the situation. The only thing we know is the public is paying for the labor unrest in higher cost of goods and the laborer has not received any benefits from the strikes up to now.

PLACING SUGAR IN PIES

In baking fruit pies, put the sugar on the bottom crust rather than on top of the fruit to prevent the juice from running out. Butter cut into small pieces and scattered with the sugar has a tendency to thicken the juice and prevent its running out. A little beaten egg yolk rubbed over the bottom crust of the pie may prevent the juice from soaking through.

Chislings

Many a man in love with a dimple, makes the mistake of marrying the whole girl.

My dog visited the flea circus and stole the show.

Hubby "What possessed you to choose lemon color for your new dress?"

Wife: "Because I had such a job squeezing it out of you."

Brown: "What are the Christian names of that young couple who have come to live next door?"

Wife: "We won't be able to find out for a week or so. They've just been married and he calls her Birdie and she calls him Pettie."

Cottonwood's three most eligible bachelors: Shappo Hershey, Col. W. McCormick and Ara Buel.

One cold night, according to the Santa Fe Magazine, Benjamin Franklin rode up to a tavern, got down from his horse, and strode inside. There was no vacant seat before the fire where he could warm himself.

"Half a peck of oysters in the shell for my horse," he ordered loudly.

Everyone around the fireplace rushed out to see a horse eat oysters. Soon they came back disgustedly and told Ben that his horse wouldn't eat the oysters.

"Won't he?" said Franklin, now comfortably seated by the fire. "Bring them in then and I'll eat them myself."—The Open Road.

Milton Smith (not Representative Smith from Carlsbad) had drowned in the river, and a policeman was sent to his home to break the news to his wife.

"Don't scare her to death," his superior officer warned.

So the officer wended his way to the Smith home and knocked on the door. When Mrs. Smith answered the summons the visitor said: "Is this where Widow Smith lives?"

"I am Mrs. Smith," said the lady, "but I am not a widow."

And the caller said simply: "What will you bet?"

COLE TALKS ON BANKING

Fred Cole, the principal speaker at the luncheon program of the Artesia Rotary club Tuesday, told some interesting facts about banking and the things employees of a bank must watch, which includes signatures of bank customers, the appearance of counterfeit money, detecting forgeries, etc.

Of interest to those watching the progress of the club here is the fact that Artesia led the twenty-three clubs in the forty second district in attendance during the past month and also placed first in attendance for the first six months of the present year.

Visitors present included A. C. LaFollette of LaVerne, California, Guy Nickson, Chas. Butler, George Hill and Syl Johnson all of Roswell. Fred Cole of Artesia and R. P. Myers of Baltimore, Maryland.

ROUGH FISH CAUGHT

M. Stevenson, deputy game warden informed us Monday that approximately 5,000 pounds of rough fish were taken Friday when the gates were closed at the McMillian Dam. The fish were caught when they attempted to swim up stream and were trapped by the closed gates. Mr. Stevenson said he saw no evidence of where fishermen attempted to gig the fish to catch them. He said the game department appreciated the co-operation of the public in observing the regulations of the fish and game department. About 600 buffalo fish were distributed publically here.

Soil Conservation Districts Favored

In the reorganization meeting held at State College recently, the New Mexico Farm and Livestock Bureau went on record as favoring certain steps to be taken in regard to improving various conditions in the state affecting the agricultural and range lands, as well as general conditions.

One of the major resolutions adopted was that in regard to the formation of soil conservation districts under the new state law to give the operators of range and farm lands equal consideration in the new districts.

Under the new law enacted by the 1937 legislature, provision is made whereby two-thirds of the landowners in any district may petition for the formation of a soil conservation district. In view of the fact that many of these areas where districts may be considered have large acreages of range lands immediately adjoining large numbers of farms, it is felt that each should develop a separate district. Or, where the number of farms is small and the number of ranch units is also small, thus not justifying the creation of two districts, it is favored that one district be created. However, in the creation of such a district, the provisions required for the formation of the district be applied to both the farms and ranches.

The Farm Bureau feels that this is an important factor in the creation of districts and will prevent controversy in the future. This resolution will probably be of considerable importance in view of the fact that the meeting of the Soil Conservation Committee will be held early in July. At that time, this committee expects to consider the formation of districts in the various parts of the state.

MOSQUITOS HELD STUDENTS' EXAMS BUT NOT US

AUSTIN, Texas. — After all other methods had failed to ward off sleep while cramming for final exams, University of Texas students tried mosquitos.

A pre-medical student turned loose six of the insects in his room and says he was kept awake half the night by their buzzing. The rest of the night he spent in scratching.

"Then there's the possibility you might become ill with malaria and earn a postponed examination," said another hopeful experimenter.

McClure Reserves Decision in Hearing Shallow Well Applications

State Engineer Thomas McClure at Roswell Friday heard testimony of five applications for shallow wells in Chaves county, and reserved decision until later.

McClure said he will have all testimony transcribed, and announce his decision after further deliberation.

Protests had been dropped against the five applications heard Friday because they had not been filed within the time allowed by state statutes. Applicants were Glenn Wheeler, E. C. Whitney, R. O. Whitney and Ernest Nelson.

Five witnesses, whose testimony favored the applicants, were on the stand Friday. Because protests had been stricken out, the opposition was not represented at the hearing.

McClure announced that he would examine all applications in regard to the attorney general's ruling that all protests filed more than ten days after the date of the last publication on applications should be knocked out.

Ross Malone, Jr., of Roswell, attorney for the applicants, said that he did not know how many protests the ruling will cut from the list, but that the number will be "considerably larger than was expected at first."

Mr. McClure said he would conduct hearings only on those cases which were filed within the legal time limit.

Five farmers operating shallow wells, one of whom has an artesian well, filed all 113 protests against shallow well applications, asserting

SOCIETY

Methodist
The Methodist Missionary society met for an all day meeting and a covered dish luncheon at the home of their president, Mrs. Reed Brainard Thursday. Because of the conference minutes were not available at this time and since the morning session of this all day meeting is usually devoted to the study of these minutes the council minutes were used for this purpose at this meeting. Mrs. I. C. Dixon and Mrs. Brainard reported on this phase of the missionary work in their usual capable manner.

During the noon hour the ladies and visitors had the pleasure of a most enjoyable meal and the hour was quickly spent with the lovely dinner and the social chatter of the twenty seven ladies and twelve youngsters present. Two visitors, Mrs. William Crockett and son, Billy, of Roswell and Mrs. J. H. Naylor attended the meeting.
Mrs. C. R. Blocker was leader of the program which occupied the main part of the afternoon session. "Christian Missions and the Social Leaven" or "Where Charity Begins" was the theme for the day's study. Mrs. Blocker was assisted in making this topic one of real interest and inspiration by Mmes. John McCann, George Frisch, Leslie Martin and I. C. Dixon. The program contained many worthwhile and thought provoking ideas that added the needed touch to the splendid day of study and companionship of the group.

Christian Women's Association
Mrs. I. S. Reser, who has long been affiliated with this group of church women and who has given of her time and services in the work of this group was honored by their meeting, last Thursday, at the home of Mrs. A. B. Coll, with a surprise handkerchief shower celebrating her birthday. More than thirty five ladies were present for the covered dish luncheon and all day meeting at this time.
Mrs. H. H. Walker led the inspiring devotional service which was followed by a prayer led by Mrs. Jeff Hightower. The theme for the day's study was "Women of the Bible" and was discussed at length with a very interesting commentary by Mrs. I. S. Reser. Variety was added to the program in the piano solos played by Miss Marion Coll. A delightful social hour during which time Mrs. Reser was presented with the showed followed the program for the day.

The Presbyterian Missionary society which was scheduled to meet last Thursday, at the home of Mrs. Russell Rogers, southeast of town, was postponed and will be held this afternoon instead.

LOCAL GIRL TO MAKE EUROPEAN TOUR

Miss Jack Ward left today for New York City where she will sail on the Stantendam of the Holland-American line for a ten week trip in Europe. Miss Ward will go with friends from Lindenwood college and in a tour sponsored by Miss Margaret Stookey director of physical education and teacher in Lindenwood. The planned trip is one of unusual qualities since the main aim of the tour is to eliminate the accepted meaning of "tours" and give its participants an intimate feeling of having lived among the peoples of the countries and become acquainted with their life both with its historical background and its present setting. A trip of art and dancing, which promises contacts with the outstanding people in these lines both cultural and folk, in France, Germany, Italy, Czech-Slovakia, Yugo-Slavia, Austria, Hungary, Denmark, Sweden and England is planned by Miss Ward and her fellow travelers. She will visit the Paris Exposition as one of the high lights of the trip and will also be the guests of friends in London.

THURSDAY BRIDGE CLUB HOLDS THE LAST MEETING OF SEASON

Archer, Luther Caraway, Fred Daugherty, Merrill Sharp, Charles Morgan, W. R. Schoonmaker, and M. A. Lapsley. Mrs. Gissler won high score for the afternoon and Mrs. Morgan won second high. Method Handling Social Security Blanks Changed

After June 30th, the social security forms will be handled by newly created boards in many of the larger communities of the state. Detailed information as to the new set up is not available and it is not known whether Artesia will be permitted to have a board, but in the event no social security board is organized here, applicants will be required to send their applications to the nearest social security board.

Heretofore social security forms have been handled through the local post offices. Post offices where boards are not organized will continue to supply applicants with needed forms to obtain their social security numbers, but when the forms are supplied the transaction will be ended so far as the post office is concerned.

ALBUQUERQUE. — With a few days remaining during which social security account numbers will be assigned by postmasters throughout the country, the Social Security board announced the virtual completion of its plans for taking over the job on July 1. Applications for account numbers under the federal old-age benefits program were made at the rate of approximately 41,000 a working day during the month of May, the board said. It was added that this rate probably will be lessened after June 30. The total of assigned account numbers in the records division of the bureau of federal old-age benefits on June 1 was 27,787,838.

Grant M. Hamm, manager of the Albuquerque field office of the social security board, explained that workers may continue to obtain blank application forms from the post offices after June 30 except in cities where the board has established field offices, but that the actual assignment of account numbers will be made in New Mexico through the Albuquerque field office.

By the last day in June every employer in industry and commerce will have to make sure that each of his employees has a social security account number in order to make a required report to the Treasury Department on wages paid for employment since January 1, 1937. If an employee has failed to obtain a number, a Treasury regulation stipulates that the employer must file an application for an account number on his behalf. The employer must file this initial information return on or before July 31.

BANKHEAD HOTEL AT ROSWELL BURNS

A landmark of Roswell was destroyed Saturday in the burning of the Bankhead hotel on Main street. The blaze started in the room of Bill Dibrell, a Roswell cattleman and was said to have originated from a discarded cigarette. Dibrell was awakened by smoke from flaming window curtains. He ran to the bathroom with the flaming curtains, but when he returned the ceiling was on fire. By the time the fire department was called the flames had gained too much headway to be checked without a loss. Tom White co-owner of the building with his brother George White estimated the damage at $20,000. He said the building would be salvaged and rebuilt.

Berry Damage Suit to be Heard On July 1 and 2

District Judge T. J. Mabry of Albuquerque, sitting in place of Judge James B. McGhee of the fifth judicial district, will hear petition of O. B. Berry of Dexter against six defendants on July 1 and 2 instead of prior dates set of June 24 and 25, it was announced at Roswell Saturday.

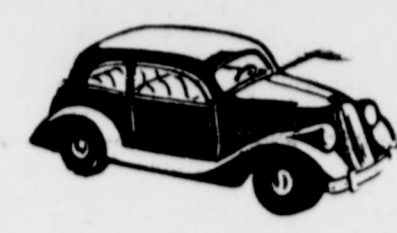

On May 18 Berry filed suit in district court against E. O. Moore, Phillip E. Estes, B. F. Knoll, Ernest Langenegger, H. W. Ware, and W. C. Urton for $10,000 damages.

Berry alleging the six defendants protested his shallow well application for selfish reasons, and that all crops on two tracts of valley land near Greenfield and Dexter would be lost because of the denied application and their action.

Protestants claiming, the petition asserted, their priority rights in water would be damaged by further permits for water in the shallow water basin, while Berry alleged ed his well would have no effect upon other waters. Whales have the largest brains of all mammals.

June Thirty Daysful of Occasions Offer Glamour, Grace to Hostesses

June, moon, love, dove, miss, kiss—yes, it's the reason of rhyning and romance, from front hall to kitchen stoop. Falling in love or out of it sends a shower of parties upon us, and if there's a bride in your circle, there's certain to be much ado about the "I do!"

Junetime parties—and besides the pre- and post-nuptial parties, last, there are anniversary parties, last, meeting - until fall of your clubs, end-of-school teas, house-guests parties and what all!—are the kind you can go "glamour girl" about. Let your house abound with garden flowers; bring out your colored glass and tea-cloths; put transparent strays in your beverages; frost your cup cakes in the rosy pink; put a nasturtium in the salad. Oh, June's the time to go gay and let your romantic tendencies get you into the right kind of trouble!

Ideas for Your Parties
Think it over and see what ideas you can "secure up" to give a blossomy and gala touch to your parties. Read your favorite columns and look at the ads. And for your collection—if they merit it—are some ideas, given below.

Bouquet Cup Cakes
Make cup cakes with the recipe given below (a delicious and different batter with bananas stirred right in!) Frost in different colored frostings, almond flavored. Make a few into "stuffed" cup cakes, by cutting a cone-shaped piece from top with sharp knife, filling cavity with mixture of nuts and whipped cream. Replace top.

Banana Cup Cakes
Two cups sifted flour; 1/2 teaspoon baking powder; 1/4 teaspoon soda; 1/2 teaspoon salt; 1/4 cup sour milk or buttermilk; 1 cup mashed banana (2 to 3 bananas); & cup shortening; 1 1/2 cups sugar; 2 eggs well beaten; 1 teaspoon vanilla extract; 1 cup heavy cream, whipped and sweetened; 3 bananas, sliced.

Sift together the flour, baking powder, soda and salt. Add milk to mashed banana. Rub the shortening to a creamy consistency with the back of a spoon. Stir the sugar, a few tablespoons at a time, into the shortening and continue stirring after each addition until light the communion and preaching. Sermon subject: "What It Should Mean to Be a Church Member."

Everyone cordially invited.
7:00—Union young people's service at the Christian church. Marion Coll will direct the meeting on the subject: "Recreation That Builds Character."

THOMAS MASSIE,
Minister.

DEAN BOGER TO PREACH AT METHODIST CHURCH

Dean R. G. Boger of the McMurry College at Abilene, Texas, will supply for Pastor John S. Rice of the First Methodist church here, at the morning hour it was announced yesterday. Dean Boger is one of the faculty members of the McMurry college summer school underway at Sacramento.

and fluffy. Add eggs and beat well. Add flour mixture, alternately with combined milk and banana, a small amount at a time. Beat after each addition until smooth. Stir in frosting. Pour into greased cup cake tins and bake in a moderate oven (375° F.) about 20 minutes or until cup cake is done. Cool. Makes 8 large cup cakes.

Almond-Flavored Frosting
Two egg whites; 1 1/2 cups sugar; 5 tbsps. water; 1 1/2 tbsps. white karo; 1/4 teasp. almond extract; coloring.

Combine in top of double boiler, egg whites, sugar, karo and water. Beat with rotary beater to mix, beat with rapidly boiling water. Cook seven minutes, beating constantly until frosting stands in peaks. Remove and separate into as many pans as you wish colors. Tint each separate portion a delicate shade of pink, yellow, lavender, etc. Beat each until thick enough to spread.

"Groom's Cake"
You can have the groom's cake for the wedding ready to bake in three minutes if you use that fruit cake mix based on an old southern recipe—all the goodness and flavor of a homemade fruit cake but none of the trouble! Just add an egg and a third-cup of liquid to the contents of the package and bake it right in the tin it comes in!

Reception Sherbet
One cup sugar; 1 cup boiling water; 1/2 pkg. lemon gelatin; 3 egg whites; 2 cups canned grapefruit juice; Juice of 1/2 lemon; pinch of salt.

Boil 1/2 cup of the sugar and boiling water together for 10 minutes; pour over gelatin to dissolve; add fruit juice and lemon juice. Place mixture in freezing tray and freeze to a mush. Beat egg whites until very stiff; add remaining 1/2 cup sugar gradually. Beat fruit mixture until foamy; combine with egg whites and sugar. Return to freezing tray and stir every half hour until sherbet begins to freeze. Serves 8.

THIRTEEN IS TOO MANY

Thirteen is either unlucky or too many to go on a picnic. At least several local people think so. And if you take their advice either get a rabbit's foot, turn back and go home or get an even number (dogs don't count). Listen to this and see if you don't agree thirteen brings bad luck. Sunday a group of thirteen people went on a picnic at Walnut grove. Just as the group was getting ready to really enjoy the outing Don Morgan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Morgan fell fifteen feet from a tree and was unconscious for a time. A short time later, John Birdwell another member of the group suffered a slight heart attack and in the midst of the excitement Chas. Morgan ran around to the trunk of his car and struck his nose on the car trunk door, inflicting a slight but painful wound.

MORGAN FARM AN EXAMPLE OF KEEPING BLOOD LINES

Livestock men who believe desirable breeds or blood lines occasionally should be perpetuated by foundations—rather than by individuals who cannot afford the expense—point to the United States Morgan Horse Farm at Middlebury, Vt., as an example. The farm is managed by the Department of Agriculture.

About the beginning of this century, the valuable blood of the Morgan horse, a true American breed, was so scattered and diluted by years of mixing with trotting- and saddle-horse blood that there was danger of losing it entirely. In 1906 the United States Department of Agriculture and the Vermont State Experiment Station, to prevent the breed's extinction, assembled a few mares at the Burlington, Vt., station. Later, when Joseph Battell, a Morgan admirer, donated his farm near Middlebury as a breeding head headquarters, the work was transferred there and the station named the United States Morgan Horse Farm. This farm now covers about 1,000 acres. Here maintenance of the breed is assured. And now that a return to a general-purpose horse is evident in places, descendants of old Justin Morgan are available.

Justin Morgan was foaled about 1793 and died in 1821. He was the property of a Vermont schoolmaster by that name. Meager records indicate he carried a great deal of Arabian blood. His potency was so great that his descendants look and act as he did.

Morgans are noted for their ruggedness, style, courage, intelligence, and general usefulness both in harness and under the saddle. For years they have been used as remount stallions in the army. In the United States many of the great trotters and saddle horses carry Morgan blood; and on the western plains they have been crossed with native range stock to produce good "cow horses." Morgan blood also is scattered in other parts of the world. Morgan horses have been sent to Japan, China, Central and South America, Canada, Cuba, Puerto Rico, and the island of Guam. Wherever they have gone they have left their mark. Today, horses of this famous breed are available throughout the foresight of the government and others who cooperated.

DAILY OIL ALLOWABLE FOR MONTH OF JUNE

The daily oil allocation for the state has been set at 114,500 barrels daily for the last half of June according to information received from the office of G. C. Staley, protraction umpire. The Artesia area, which includes the Jackson, Grayburg, Maljamar fields has been set at 6,815 daily. A total of 3,500 of the above amount represents the daily run of the Trans-Pecos Pipe Line Co., to the Gulf coast and hence to the foreign market. Allowable of the Getty pool remains at 200. The allowable for the Lea county districts is 106,440 barrels daily with a top allowable of eighty five barrels per well for fields in that county.

She left Artesia with Mrs. Knorr and her three sons, two of whom have been at school at the Institute this year. They drove by way of Santa Fe where Mrs. Shenn took the train for home while the others continued by motor.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Martin and three daughters left Monday morning for a week's fishing trip through the northern part of New Mexico. They will go to El Vado dam and from there up on the Chama river. Their plans include a sightseeing trip down through Santa Fe, Taos and other points of interest.

"MAKE WAY FOR TOMORROW" with VICTOR MOORE and BEULAH BONDI

A fine production, both from the point of view of mechanics and of emotional appeal. There are situations that will draw tears, no matter how hard one may try to resist the "surrender." One can hardly resist tears when witnessing so heart-rending an occurrence—that of two elderly people whose children don't want them, because they are in the way. It will strike home with many sons and daughters; it should do more good to them than all the preachments in the world. The appeal is much deeper in this instance because of the excellent work of Victor Moore, as the father, and of Beulah Bondi, as the mother. The picture could have been still more excellent had the elderly mother not been made so annoying at different times in the home of the son with whom she had been living, for as it now stands one is inclined to consider her somewhat as a meddling. Another point where it could have been improved is the ending; the last scene shows the two elderly folk at the station, the husband taking the train for California, to go to one of the sons, leaving the wife behind. The continued separation of two people who, as the spectator feels, deserve a better fate leaves one dissatisfied.

The plot has been based on the novel "The Years Are So Long," by Josephine Lawrence. Leo McCarey has done a fine job as producer as well as director. Vina Delmar wrote the screen play. Fay Bainter, Thomas Mitchell, Ray Mayer, and Barbara Read as some of those in the supporting cast.

Suitable for the entire family—Class A.
Note: It is doubtful if the picture will draw for lack of box office names. But this should not discourage an exhibitor; he should do all he can to exploit it, so as to draw as many people as possible. It is the sort of picture that does honor to the industry.

Road Construction Hampered on East Part of Highway 83

Highway work on the new WPA project beginning about eleven miles east of here has been hampered by failure of motorists to cooperate in staying off the newly surveyed portion of the project, George Nixon, WPA foreman reported this week. About two miles of the grade has been put up by the WPA forces, from the end of the new part of the highway completed several months ago. Stakes for the new grade were driven for about another two miles, but these have been knocked down by motorists who insist on traveling the unfinished road, Mr. Nixon reported. If the public will cooperate the project will be finished more rapidly and the new road placed in use sooner.

Part of the WPA crew or about twenty men were transferred to repair the road just east of the river bridge and as soon as the flooded road is surfaced the men will be placed back on the regular job.

BALE TIES

Those jumbled letters of last week spelled Bale Ties.

FARMERS: You are interested in BALE TIES. You are interested in high grade ties, too, because ONE broken tie while you are at work baling hay will offset five times over the difference in cost between an inferior tie and a good one.

Our Bale ties have ten twists; the cheap ones have five twists in the loop. Ours weigh 25 pounds to the bundle, cheap ones weigh twenty one to twenty three. DO YOU LIKE BROKEN TIES?

OILERS LOSE

The Artesia Oilers lost a night baseball game to the Roswell Sunshiners of the West Texas-New Mexico league last night at Roswell by a score of 13 to 4. The game was marked by many errors. The Oilers took the short end of the score last night after whipping the strong Potash team at Carlsbad Sunday 8 to 7. So far Artesia has suffered only two losses this season.

FLORE'S BOND IS $1,000

Preliminary hearing for Eulalio Flores on grand larceny charges was held Saturday morning at Carlsbad and bond was set at $1,000. Flores was charged with stealing two suitcases of clothing from a Hobbs car last March 28. He was arrested early last week as he was returning to Carlsbad from Colorado.

Eddy County Farm News

Dr. H. L. Kent, former president of State College addressed members of the southeastern New Mexico Livestock association Tuesday afternoon at Carlsbad on the livestock market outlook. He addressed livestockmen at a series of meetings held at Lovington, Carlsbad, Roswell and Carrizozo, the last meeting ended at Carrizozo today. Dr. Kent described the outlook for cattle as good, but said the sheep market would depend on the feed crop. The lamb crop this year was larger than usual.

Crop prospects over the county are somewhat spotted. Cotton is showing unusual development in the south end of the county, but growth in the north end has been held back some by weather conditions and cool nights. Cotton prospects in this section are not on par with the corresponding period of last year, due partly to the flood and hails and cool nights. Practically all of the early cotton will be in bloom by July 4th.
