Producers Are Finished in Two Areas in Week

Cooper District Gets the Biggest Well of Week—Phillips Completes One of Best Wells in Vacuum District.

Two good producers were completed in the Lea county fields during the past week along with a number of smaller wells, ten locations were made, one a south outpost to the Vacuum district and an old well was plugged and abandoned.

The largest well of the southwestern area was finished in the Cooper field, Lea county in the Kan-Mex Oil Corporation, Vaughn 2, NW corner sec. 3-24-36. Drilled to a total depth of 3,638 feet, the Vaughn 2 made 112 barrels of oil an hour flowing through tubing.

In the Vacuum area, Phillips Petroleum Co. drilled in its first well in the Santa Fe 1, NW sec. 31-17-35. At a depth of 4,665 feet the Santa Fe flowed at the rate of sixty barrels an hour, on an initial flow through tubing, natural. The initial test would rate the new well at 1,440 barrels daily, one of the best in the field. Another well in this section has reached a crucial depth, this being the Texas Company, Corbin 1, SW sec. 10-18-33, which is drilling below 4,900 feet. Last oil was found around 4,820 feet.

Also another interesting well is the Getty Oil Co., Riggs 1, NW sec. 1-26-37, which is estimated to be flowing 158 barrels daily while cleaning out following a shot at 3,346 feet. Total depth of the well is now 3,358 feet.

An old well abandoned several months ago is now plugging to abandon, this being the Mascho et al., Cloyd 1, SE sec. 20-22-33, drilled to 3,516 feet.

Probably the outstanding location from the standpoint of general interest is the Phillips Petroleum Co., Santa Fe 3, NW sec. 5-18-35, a south outpost to the Vacuum district. Other locations made during the week by districts include: Sand belt—Continental Oil Co., Jack 2, SE sec. 20-24-37; Standard Oil and Gas Co., Myers 5-B, SW sec. 9-24-36; Texas Company, Black 3, NE sec. 21-24-37. Monument district: Continental, Britt 1, NW sec. 15-20-37. Vacuum area: Ohio Oil Co., Warn 2, SW sec. 31-17-35. Jal field: Amerada Petroleum Co., Stuart 1, NE sec. 22-25-37; Texas Company, Fristole 4, SE sec. 3-25-37. No Bids Offered On the Old Court House Monday

There were no bidders when the west wing of the old county court house was offered to the highest bidder at Carlsbad Monday. When Rude Wilcox offered the old building at auction Monday, nobody responded. Commissioners had previously hoped to get enough out of the old building to pay for the cost of tearing it down, but contractors and others did not think enough of the salvage materials to even offer a bid. A good sized crowd gathered at the auction, but no one seemed interested.

Now the commissioners court will have to include the cost of razing the building when asking contractors to bid on the construction of the court house wing and jail.

The old wing has been practically vacated by county officers. Most of the officers housed in the old building have moved into the Carter building.

It was announced Tuesday at Carlsbad that the Eddy county commissioners had decided to try to sell the old west wing of the court house to private parties, after having failed to get a bid at the auction held there Monday. The court will meet again Monday it was said to compare notes and decide on future action.

COAST FOG IS GRITTY

A Pacific coast fog, blowing over New Mexico caused the worst sand storm of the year. Visibility was almost zero at times here yesterday, but the wind did not reach the velocity of that blowing over the plains. At Hobbs it was learned that signs were blown down and roofs of some out buildings were blown off.

Albert Foster, Lakewood rancher said yesterday the high winds blew down two windmills on his ranch west of Lakewood.

Italy Is Ready For War Now

ROME—Premier Mussolini yesterday called on the Italian people to meet the menace of aerial warfare by moving from big cities into small country towns, villages and the countryside.

Before a crowded, intent senate, Du Ce told of Italy's readiness for war in a speech broadcast to all Italy and many countries abroad.

He told his people they should quit the cities before it was too late to escape the consequences of war in the air.

He lauded Italy's war-making power, asserting the nation could "completely mobilize in a short time a number of units greater than engaged in the Battle of Vittorio Veneto"—Italy's world war victory in which fifty-seven divisions fought.

This fund is distributed each month from the public school fund coming from the emergency school tax (two per cent sales tax). Receipts paid to other counties in this district were: Curry, $14,116.20; Chaves, $13,783.10; Lea, $14,142.00; Lincoln, $9,387.60; Roosevelt, $12,249.90. Bernalillo county received the largest portion of the distribution, receiving $29,990.10.

Serious Accident Is Narrowly Averted At Iverson Tool Plant

A serious and possibly fatal accident was narrowly averted Saturday afternoon in an explosion at the Iverson Tool Co. plant here as two men worked over a drill bit. The explosion was caused by friction of the drill bit in the socket and after the drill bit became red hot. The socket, it was said, lacked the proper vent for the fumes.

The two men, W. G. Alexander, blacksmith of Wink, Texas and his helper, Clell English moved just a second before the bit and socket went flying through the air. The socket was blown through the back door and the bit twenty or thirty feet. The two men were fortunate in escaping with cuts and burns, although painful but not particularly serious.

Hot cinders blown in the air started three fires in the building of the Iverson Tool Co. and a grass fire outside the building.

Cotton Acreage Increase Wins Committee Okey

WASHINGTON—An increase of more than 1,000,000 acres in cotton acreage under the new farm act won approval Tuesday of a joint congressional committee.

The senate-house group, after two days discussion, approved more than a score of amendments to the 1938 agricultural adjustment act which now goes back to the two chambers for final approval.

Chairman Smith (D-SC) of the senate agricultural committee said the cotton increases, included in a four percent boost of previously announced quotas, would "fix up all border counties and areas where there are many small cotton farms."

The committee voted to increase average allotments of cotton farmers 1,052,000 acres, the change increasing each cotton state's quota four percent. The previously announced national total was 26,300,000.

The committee also dropped a house provision which would have given Arizona, California, New Mexico and Oklahoma special treatment in cotton acreage allotments. A senate approved amendment by Senator Gillette (D-Iowa), intended to prevent substitution of wheat for corn as a livestock feed, also was discarded.

Provisions by Chairman Smith for speeding up the $130,000,000 bonus payments on the 1937 cotton crop and for paying a bonus of $1.25 a bale to growers who surrendered title on loan cotton to the government also were rejected.

Farm and Range Meeting To Be Held April 7-9

Herbert Little of Carlsbad yesterday announced a series of farm and range meetings of interest to the farmers and ranchers of this section. On next Thursday, April 7th, beginning at 2:00 p. m., a range meeting will be held at the Chamber of Commerce building. At this time the 1938 range program will be explained. Mr. Little will also insist in filling out the range applications where the rancher so desires. This is the only meeting to be held in north Eddy county at the present time, due to the fact that the officials are working behind schedule.

In connection with the farm program, farmers will be assisted in making up their 1938 work sheets on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, April 7, 8 and 9. Work sheets have already been made out in most instances and this case the work sheets will be checked. Where farms are not listed a complete history of the farm from 1933 to 1937 will be necessary.

Lambing Season Well Under Way Next Few Days

Lambing will be general over this district within the next few days. A few sheppens have already ended the season, but the bulk of the crop is yet to come. Prospects are good for a fine crop this year. Elzie Swift is reported to have 1,700 new lambs on his ranch west of town. W. Leslie Martin said yesterday if his luck continued he might secure a 100 percent crop from 1,850 ewes. The number of new born lambs have been boosted by twins and triplets.

Highway Bridge Caves In-Truck Driver Escapes

A highway bridge over the Berrendo, north of Roswell caved in under the weight of a truck and thirty ton rock crusher of Skousen Brothers, which was being moved toward Roswell. Edd Colter, driver of the truck that pulled the crusher, suffered only a minor injury as the bridge gave way and his truck and its heavy load plummeted ten or fifteen feet to the bottom of the river. Colter, who was standing on the running board of his truck to see if the crusher cleared the superstructure of the bridge, fell backward when his truck hit the bottom. The truck did not turn over but a wheel of the truck was sheared off by the crusher. Four hitch hikers got out from under the bridge as it went down, barely escaping with their lives.

The rock crusher was badly damaged. A detour was made around the bridge.

Administration Wins Legal Fight

WASHINGTON—The Roosevelt administration won a long drawn-out legal struggle with utility holding companies Monday when the supreme court decided the companies must register with the securities and exchange commission.

In a six to one decision, the court held constitutional provisions of the 1935 holding company act requiring the companies to register and submit financial statements. Justice McReynolds dissented, and Justices Cardozo and Reed took no part in the decision. Prominent "holdouts" among the utility firms began registering Monday afternoon. Such registrations were filed by United Corporation Commonwealth and Southern and United Telephone and Electric Corporation of Wilmington, Delaware.

Some Types Federal Housing Loans Are Available Here Now

Some types of loans are available under the federal housing administration, title 2, it was learned here recently. Boone Barnett, local chairman of the federal housing administration returned from El Paso, Texas late Thursday evening where he conferred with J. Bryon Barton of Santa Fe, chief underwriter of the federal housing administration. He said some types of loans are ready to be made here under title 2, but rural loans, covering the construction of farm and ranch houses are not far enough advanced to be available to the farmers and ranchers.

Officials hope to have practically all types of loans ready for local use shortly and anticipate that the services offered will stimulate both the building of new homes and the repairing of old ones.

Number Voters May Be Unable To Vote April 5

A number of voters who expect to participate in the city election April 5th may be disappointed. To vote in the coming election, your name must be registered in the ward in which you live and to vote on the hospital bond issue you must be a property tax payer and have paid all or part of your 1937 taxes. The ticket filed by the Citizens' committee, including practically all of the present city council up for reelection was the only ticket filed in the coming election.

Total number of registered voters eligible to participate in the city election, according to the records are 1,704. The heaviest registration is in ward 1 where 353 voters are registered. Ward 2 has 162, ward 3 has 340 and ward 4 has 192.

No Outlet Found For Mexico's Oil

MEXICO CITY—Lack of foreign markets Tuesday pressed urgent problems against the government's newly-acquired oil industry.

Eleven days without sales abroad since the government took over seventeen American and British oil companies, March 18, filled the nation's tanks to capacity. Production was curtailed to sixty-five to seventy-five percent, but there appears no place to house the "black gold."

Suspension of purchases of Mexican silver by the United States treasury started the peso on a rapid decline.

There was some fear that the United States is considering an upward adjustment of tariffs.

Ministers Sponsor Go To Church Campaign Here

The Ministerial Alliance of Artesia is sponsoring a "Go To Church Campaign," which is extended through May. The ministers of Artesia feel that it is particularly appropriate to call attention to the "Go To Church Campaign" with the approach of the Easter season and that such a campaign will bring lasting benefits to the community. A special invitation is extended especially to the non-church members of this section to attend church regularly for the next two months.

Ministers are endeavoring to make their services just as worthwhile as possible; the services for the next weeks should be of particular interest to everyone.

Church members and ministers believe the better churches are supported, the better the community will develop, for no worthwhile village, city or town can do without the influence of the church and prosper.

Sentences Passed On Prisoners In Eddy County Jail

Two would-be jail breakers who beat Jailer Fred Hill with a piece of brass before he overpowered them and put them back in jail March 10, Monday were sentenced to twenty-five to thirty years in jail when they pleaded guilty before District Judge James B. McGhee at Carlsbad.

The prisoners are C. L. Burke, 18, Carlsbad, and Hugo Hall, 22, Artesia, both of whom were held on larceny charges before the attempted break. Later, they were charged with attempted jail break and assault with a deadly weapon.

Merl Mesh, 18, of Tulsa, Oklahoma, also implicated in the break, was being held for federal officers.

The three prisoners attacked Hill when he started to remove an ash can from the jail. The jailer received six scalp wounds and was kicked in the eye before he forced them back in the jail.

They pleaded not guilty earlier, but changed their pleas to guilty Monday.

Manuel Calinda, up for the third time before the court, admitted stealing automobile tires and was sentenced to from five to seven years in the penitentiary.

The court deferred sentence in the case of George Reed, Jr., of Artesia, held with Burke on a car theft charge, when he pleaded guilty.

Cisto Rodriguez, who pleaded guilty to petty larceny, was held as a state witness in the case of Euliro Mendoza, who pleaded not guilty to the same charge.

Hill took Burke and Hall to Santa Fe Tuesday to start serving their sentences.

Farmers Wait For A Definite Farm Program

Committee Appointed At A Meeting Last Evening To Keep in Touch with General Situation Over Country.

Farmers of this section are anxiously waiting the final adoption of the 1938 farm bill, as the time nears for the planting of cotton. Aside from appointing a committee to keep in touch with the general situation, the cotton growers have adopted a watchful waiting policy.

A group of farmers met last evening at the Chamber of Commerce building and heard a report from a committee who went to Las Cruces to contact administrative officials. The committee, consisting of I. S. Reser, R. E. Coleman, G. R. Brainard, Chas. Rogers and Chas. Martin returned Tuesday from Las Cruces where they contacted W. A. Wunsch, executive secretary and Fred Daniels, agricultural statistician. The purpose of the visit of the committee was to try to obtain an increase in the county cotton allotment and to file a protest on setting up a separate administrative district in the county, such as proposed by the Carlsbad Irrigation district. Farmers pointed out that such a district in the county would double the expense of administering a control plan within the county as well as double the expense of the state, so far as it dealt with the county.

There are numerous amendments proposed to the bill now pending in congress; one would give each individual farmer an allotment, rather than setting the allotment of counties and districts. The present bill is based on the estimated acreage of the cotton growing sections, rather than the actual acreage. Under this condition, Eddy county is actually about 5,500 acres short on the cotton acreage and while the proposal approved by the congressional committee would increase the cotton acreage 1,000,000 acres, which would give the entire state an additional thousand acres or approximately 1,000 acres more. County farmers have previously filed a brief with the administration at Washington asking that the actual and diverted acreage of the county be increased from 37,000 to 43,000 acres.

G. R. Brainard presided over the meeting here last night and farmers heard a report from the Las Cruces committee. At the conclusion of discussions, W. Leslie Martin made a motion that the chairman appoint a committee of three to keep in touch with the general situation and to formulate a program of protest against setting up a separate administrative district in the county. This committee includes: S. A. Lanning, W. Leslie Martin and Chas. Martin.

The latter part of the meeting was taken up with a discussion of a farm bureau organization, with Fred Barham, county agent explaining some of the benefits of the organization. Earlier in the evening Mr. Barham met with the Artesia 4-H boys club.

Six Are Acquitted In Potash Trial

Six defendants charged by the government with using the mails to defraud in selling New Mexico Potash and Chemical company stock were acquitted by a federal court jury at Albuquerque.

The defendants acquitted were W. G. Halthusen of Albuquerque, secretary-treasurer of the company and a one-time adjutant general of New Mexico; Hugh Williams of Deming, a former state Corporation Commissioner; Charles E. Lamb, Albuquerque; George E. Montgomery, A. C. Nebeker and George Edgar, all of Carlsbad.

Presiding Judge T. Blake Kennedy of Cheyenne, Wyoming ordered dismissal of similar charges against four others at the conclusion of the government's case. Three of the defendants in the trial just ended are named in a separate indictment, with four other officers of the Royalty Bond and Share company, on similar charges. The trial date has been set for next autumn.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Will Taylor were in from their ranch near Maljamar Monday, shopping and visiting friends.

LAW ENFORCEMENT

Reading of all the activities of the G-men the average man probably sees a closer cooperation between the officers of the law and the citizens in putting down crime and in the elimination of the gangster. After all the local, county or state officers can not enforce the law unless backed by public opinion. Good citizens too can be of much aid in helping to ferret out the criminals.

We are not coming back to the days of the vigilantes, but recent efforts of local citizens in lending support to officers in stopping bank robberies in small cities has been one of the outstanding examples in making the criminal pass up the smaller places.

The plan worked out by one sheriff in Michigan, where the officer had two or three of the trusted citizens near the bank arm themselves worked out so well that the plan will likely be followed in other communities. So, to say the least it shows how much can be accomplished when the citizens and officers work together.

4-H CLUB WORK

The 4-H club work as taught by the extension department of the United States department of agriculture is one of the greatest assets to the youth of the rural sections. More and more people are coming to realize the true precept of the 4-H club work; that it teaches the youth how to help himself and how to become a better citizen. The 4-H club activities really means to the rural youth than scouting activities mean to the urban boy or girl, for 4-H club work not only teaches the farm youth how to be a better citizen, it teaches him how to be a better farmer and the value of helping himself through his own efforts.

It has often been said, but the saying will bear repetition that through such activities the better talent is kept in the rural communities, which prevents congestion in the larger centers through a migration of the farm youth to the cities to find better opportunities.

THE WAY OF DICTATORSHIP

One of the outstanding lessons the world has learned from dictators is this: A dictator can force himself into power and stay there so long as his people retain free speech and free, uncensored, newspapers.

Hitler, Mussolini, Stalin, and all of their lesser imitators learned that. But now Hitler, fresh from his Austrian conquest, is irritated by comments of newspapers in free countries. So he proposes international treaties establishing official government control of all newspapers. What he means is this: "You see that your newspapers say only nice things about me and I'll do the same for you."

Up speaks Dr. Carl W. Akerman, Dean of the Pulitzer School of Journalism at Columbia University, a lifelong student of newspapers and their problems and duties. After pointing out that such a treaty would require amendment to the American Constitution, he adds:

"I consider these developments so ominous that I think the foreign press policy of the German government should be fully explained and earnestly studied. If governmental control of the printed and spoken word is a requirement of peace with Germany, we should know the conditions now and not later."

Hitler's plan doubtless suits some Americans. A United States senator said in a radio speech the other day that ninety-eight percent of America's city newspapers are biased. What he meant was that they did not agree with him.

How different he is from Voltaire who once said: "While I might not agree with what you say I shall defend to the death your right to say it!"

Americans doubtless will agree with their own constitution and with Voltaire rather than Hitler and the senator, for down the Hitler-Senator road lies dictatorship.

LIFE BEGINS AT FORTY

Seventeen of the presidents of twenty-eight gilt-edge corporations of the United States are in the sixties. Four are in the seventies, two in the eighties, and five in the fifties.

Fifteen receive annual compensation exceeding $100,000 a year. The smallest compensation reported is $48,750, and the largest is $303,816.

The youngest man in the group is W. S. Gifford, president of the American Telephone & Telegraph Co., the largest corporation. He is fifty-three.

With four exceptions, the corporations paid dividends throughout the depression.

What does it mean? To Sales Management, the magazine that dug up the information, it means that for executives "life begins at forty," and that they are in their prime in the sixties.—Imperial Magazine.

A city columnist has defined the farmer as an individual who gets up at 4:00 o'clock in the morning so he can produce a crop surplus to glut the market and get less for his crop.

"Papa, vat's a vacuum?"
"A vacuum is a void, sonny."
"I know, papa, but vat's the void mean?"

A young man whose first job was that of reporter on a newspaper was having trouble writing his stories. All his efforts seemed to find their way into the trash basket.

One day the City Editor called him and said: "Look—you don't quite know what the public is interested in, you don't sense what news really is. For example, if a dog bites a man, that isn't news. But if a man bites a dog, that's news."

The next day the reporter submitted a story under the following headline:

FIRE PLUG BREAKS—WETS DOG!

A man who hadn't kissed his wife for five years shot a fellow who did.

Standing on the toes is supposed to be a good way to keep from getting flat feet, and keeping on the toes is also a good way to keep from getting flat broke.

Speaking of changes and how modern machinery may replace men in industry, let us remind you that thirty years ago a town you that size of Artesia might boast of as many as three lively stables and the same town today is served by no less than thirty filling stations and all the filling stations seem to be making a living. At least they are staying in business.

What kind of a speller are you? Here are the ten hardest words to spell. College men and English teachers have missed from four to seven out of the ten when asked to spell the following words correctly. Can you tell how many of these words are misspelled? Inoculate, embarrass, harass, supercede, ennuar, rarely, villeyf, pleguey, desiccate, picnicing.

There are two things the children of the southwest do not have to worry about. Putting on rubbers in rainy weather and wearing gas masks while at play, like some of the European children do.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SOCIETY

613 West Main Street

"Unreality" is the subject of the lesson-sermon which will be read in all societies and churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, April 3rd.

The Golden Text is: "The world passeth away, and the lust thereof; but he that doeth the will of God abideth forever.—(I John 2:17)."

Among the citations which comprise the lesson-sermon is the following from the Bible: "Cast thy burden upon the Lord, and he shall sustain thee; he shall never suffer the righteous to be moved.—(Ps. 55:22)."

The lesson-sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science text book: "Spiritual development germinates not from seed sown in the soil of material hopes, but when these decay, love propagates anew the higher joys of spirit, which have no taint of earth. Each successive stage of experience unfolds new views of divine goodness and love."

Kernels From An Old Nut

One hears, rather persistently, expressions of regret at the alleged decadence, in character and ability, of the national congress. Men who make such comment lament the passing of men like Webster,

Clay and Calhoun from national leadership. We hear also mentioned the names of men who were active in national affairs much more recently; but who have passed from the scene of action. Mention of their names is always accompanied with expressions of regret that their kind is no more.

The facts do not bear out so melancholy an estimate of the situation. In the first place, experience supports the scriptural declaration that a prophet is not without honor save in his own country. It is likewise true that distance lends enchantment. In the second place, our ideas of the eternal fitness of things change, to a considerable extent, in the course of a few years. Finally, the day when a man's value was estimated by his ability to sway the multitudes by his oratory passed with the whirlwind campaigns of the Boy Whirler of the Plate.

If one studies the deliberations of congress a hundred years ago he may be a little surprised to find that it was not unheard of for men to appear on the floor or either house in a state of more or less maudlin drunkenness. Challenges to duels frequently resulted from intemperate statements made from the floor, and duels were occasionally fought. Burr, Hamilton, Jackson, Clay, Randolph and others fought duels—some of them resulting in death—and apparently only Burr's reputation suffered by it, and that by reason of a combination of circumstances.

Senator Circumstances caned Senator Sumner in the capitol building for something the latter said upon the floor of the senate. Sumner never wholly recovered from the effects of that assault; but nothing was ever done about it.

When the renewal of the charter of the United States Bank was before congress, Webster "borrowed" $32,000 from the bank and many, many other smaller amounts, few of them good or ever repaid. In addition, Webster was retained by the bank as its counsel. At least one senator within my memory went to jail for a similar retainer.

TALKS ON BRAZIL

Mrs. Doris Deter Welborne gave an interesting talk to the two seventh grades last Thursday on the subject of Brazil. The pupils found the talk of Mrs. Welborne particularly timely since the class is studying Brazil. Mrs. Welborne, a former resident of Brazil gave a very interesting description of the Brazilian country around Rio de Janeiro and Sao Paulo.

SOUTH AMERICAN COLONY PROPOSED FOR REFUGEES

WASHINGTON—Representative Dies of Texas proposed Saturday the political refugees from Germany and Austria be colonized in Paraguay, South American republic which he said has thousands of unoccupied acres.
In a letter to Hull, Dies said some such proposal would have to be adopted to prevent the United States being flooded by Europe's persecuted and jobless.

15 Years Ago

(From the files of the Advocate, March 30, 1923)

The Boy Scouts organized last Saturday morning at a meeting held in the Legion hall with about twenty members.

Organization of an Eddy county tariff club was completed in Artesia Thursday with A. C. Keinath and J. E. Robertson as chairman and vice chairman. The purpose of the organization is to cooperate with other clubs in resisting at a downward revision of tariffs on the southwestern products.

There will be no change in the Artesia-Lokewood road. At the last meeting of the commissioners' court the Carlsbad Chamber of Commerce sent a delegation requesting that the $70,000 road fund appropriated be diverted to roads of the south end of the county. The commissioners, however, stood firm in their determination to use the road money as first appropriated.

Drilling will be resumed Monday on the Buffalo Roswell oil well across the river east of Artesia.

The Fletcher cafe has changed hands, having been taken over by W. E. Perdue, manager of the Star grocery and meat market next door.

Dr. W. H. Ennis, formerly of Atlanta, Georgia and more recently of Eddy county has been employed as public health officer in Union county.

The C. A. P. ranch shipped two cars of fat yearlings Friday to the Peyton Packing Company in El Paso, Texas.

H. C. Holcomb, watchman at Lake McMillan, informs us there may soon be appointed a field deputy to look after the game and fish along the Pecos river.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Bryant returned home yesterday after spending several days in Roswell attending to business matters.

INTERESTING OLD PAPER

Perly George brought in an old issue of the St. Joseph Gazette, which has proven to be of unusual interest. The issue he brought to the Advocate office was dated at St. Joseph, Missouri, July 2, 1897 and of course chronicled the news of the day. From the headlines we learn that "The republicans are merciful" (which will be news to the present day New Dealers). The republicans placed sheep dip on the free list. Grand military parade is staged at Aldershot, England with her Majesty, Queen Victoria reviewing the flower of the kingdom's troops. The situation in Cuba grows worse, insurgents capture and destroy Bahia Honda. Oldest veteran of the Union army passes away. Holding their last caucus, protectionists settle all differences. Emperor Napoleon's letters are to be published, including 300 letters which were suppressed by the editors of Napoleon's correspondence. Yesterday was the hottest day of the season in St. Joseph. Two hundred and fifty thousand coal miners are ready to strike at Terre Haute, Indiana and also an ad on the front page, "St. Joseph Buggy Company, repairing at the lowest prices".

Mrs. Lowell Price returned to her home at Chandler, Arizona the latter part of the week after a visit at the home of her brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Leland Price and father-in-law, George Price.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Boulden Tuesday morning.

Rotary Anns Are Guests Rotarians Banquet Tuesday

Members of the Artesia Rotary club entertained their Anns and a number of guests Tuesday evening. A four course banquet was served at the Artesia hotel roof garden.

The program was different and delightful. The violin choir of Mrs. Doris Deter Welborne rendered several selections and the violin choir music was interspersed with three popular negro songs by the choir of the colored Baptist church here.

With M. Leslie Martin, vice president, presiding Rotarians entertained the Anns and guests with a little game of passing the buck, in which the lateral pass system was used effectively as eight or ten members said a few words and passed the main talk on to the next member. Topics discussed ranged from the California climate upward.

A. P. Mahone, biggest contributor to the milk bottle fund, introduced the visitors and the new Rotary Anns. Billie Paris, adopted member of the club made the only serious talk of the evening. He discussed the subject of "School Records and their Practical Value to Business Men."

Visitors and new Rotary Anns introduced included: Mmes. Laura Watson, Nellie Smith, E. A. Metzger, Neil Watson, Grady Booker, M. A. Corbin, John Rice and Miss Leila Bess Mann.

FATHER-SON BANQUET

The father-son banquet sponsored by the Men's club of the Methodist church, given at the First Methodist church last Thursday evening was one of the outstanding social events of the season for this organization and the unusual interest in the banquet was attested by the number present, eighty-three.

Starting at 7:00 o'clock, members of the Methodist missionary society served a chicken supper. Grady Booker served as toastmaster of the banquet and in an extemporaneous address told of the purpose of the banquet. Numbers on the program that followed included, "Toast to Dads" by C. B. Strebek and a dramatic sketch, "Confession of a Father to his Son," by Elwood Kaiser. Group singing was also part of the program. The singing was led by H. G. Watson.

While no definite announcement was made concerning future events of this kind, the father-son banquet is expected to become an annual event of the church and is expected to be the means of promoting a greater companionship between fathers and sons of the Methodist church.

The State Tax Commission Capitol Building Santa Fe, New Mexico.

WHEREAS, an emergency exists in the General County Fund in Eddy County, New Mexico, and WHEREAS, there is a deficiency in said fund by reason of the fact that there is no provision in the Budget for the Court House and Jail Bond Election, and

WHEREAS, there was no provision made in the Budget for the last payment of the 1929 paving assessment, which will be due in May, 1938, and

WHEREAS, certain monies in various funds are available, as follows, to-wit: Appraisal Fund ----- $ 139.63 Judgment Fund ----- 722.60 Paving Fund ----- 524.79

BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS, By JOE LUSK, It's Chairman.

(SEAL) Attest: R. A. WILCOX, Clerk.

March 17, 1938. Mr. H. F. Christian Treasurer, Eddy County Carlsbad, New Mexico. Dear Mr. Christian:

COPY In accordance with the resolution of the County Commissioners dated March 15, you are authorized to make the following cash transfers to the General County Fund: provided however, that any outstanding claim against these funds are paid upon having made the transfer: Appraisal Fund ----- $ 139.63 Judgment Fund ----- 722.60 Paving Fund ----- 524.79

Total ----- $1,387.02 It has been explained to this office that with the exception of the Paving Fund, the above funds are unincumbered, and that the claim against the Paving Fund will be paid immediately after the transfers have been made.

In order to meet the budgetary requirements, the County Commissioners are requested to pass a resolution on or about June 30, 1938 asking this office to allow budgetary transfers to the General Fund, said transfers to be made from funds that have an unexpended budget balance at the end of the fiscal year.

It now appears that there will be a budget balance of $1,250 in the Election Fund and perhaps a several hundred dollar budget balance in the Indigent Fund at the end of June 30, 1938. These savings may be used to meet the increased expenditure in the General Fund that will be caused by this transfer of funds.

Yours very truly, J. O. Gallegos, STATE COMPTROLLER By C. R. Sebastian, Chief Assistant State Comptroller, CRS: EB

Public Welfare In New Mexico

(Issued by the New Mexico Department of Public Welfare)

This is the first of a series of weekly articles designed to acquaint the citizens of New Mexico with the activities of the Department of Public Welfare.

Fifty-three persons received old-age assistance during the month of February in Eddy county. "Many old persons in Eddy county have misinterpreted the old-age assistance law, and believe that if they are sixty-five years of age, this fact alone qualifies them for old-age assistance," says Mrs. Chardee Donaldson, county director of public welfare.

"This is not so. Old-age assistance is based upon the need of the recipients as well as upon their age.

"True, an applicant must be sixty-five years of age or over in order to qualify, but he must also be actually in need of assistance. In addition, he must be a citizen of the United States and must have lived in New Mexico continuously during the year preceding the date upon which he makes application for assistance. He must also have lived in the state for five of the preceding nine years.

"If the applicant has met all of these requirements and can show proof that he has, he is entitled to old-age assistance."

Recipients of old-age assistance may not receive direct relief or any other assistance payments, such as aid to the blind. They may, however, receive commodities from the Federal Surplus Commodity Corporation, that consist of beans, lard, dried prunes, apples, apricots, fresh apples, oranges, grapefruit, potatoes, rice and potato flour, as well as various articles of clothing.

Old age assistance is permanent. This is, a person who qualifies for the assistance will continue to receive the amount originally assigned to him as long as his need exists, provided state revenues permit. If revenues drop greatly, the available funds will be distributed according to existing needs among the recipients.

COMMUNITY PROGRAMS OVER STATION KOB

On March 25th, station KOB at Albuquerque inaugurated what is known as "The Journal Salutes New Mexico," a series of programs dedicated to the various communities of the state. Las Cruces will be the subject of KOB's broadcast Friday, April 1st, Lordsburg, Lamay and Hobbs will be the next communities in order. Artesia will probably be on the air sometime in May over KOB.

TAX NOTICES MAILED

Tax notices have been mailed from the office of County Treasurer Harry Christian for the last half of the 1937 property taxes to property owners here. Penalties will be added May 1, 1938.

CCC Preserves Old Landmark in Queen Community

CCC enrollees under the direction of Project Superintendent R. L. Hunter of Camp F-37-N in the Guadalupe mountains have preserved the old chimney which marks the site of Queen, New Mexico. This old chimney of cut limestone is all that remains of what was the first settlement of the historical Guadalupe Mountains in the southeastern part of the state.

The first settlers came to the Guadalupe about 1883 and at that time Seven Rivers, a settlement to the north, was the closest post office and trading center. J. W. Tulk, now living in Roswell, homesteaded in the mountains in 1904 and started a store where the chimney now stands. A post office was established in a short time and Mr. Tulk named the post office "Queen" after Mrs. M. J. Queen, an outstanding character in the community, who had settled nearby with her family in 1894. Mrs. Queen remained on the Queen homestead until her death in 1922 and members of the Queen family still live on nearby ranches.

The town of Queen was probably at its best in 1907 but in 1910 there remained forty-four children enrolled in the rural school that had been established. Mr. Tulk and family moved from the mountain in 1911 and the homestead was purchased by Lee Middleton, who continued the store and post office. Jim Pickett built the chimney for Mr. Middleton who later sold the store to Tom Middleton. Tom Middleton operated the store and post office for a short time and then discontinued both as the majority of the people had gradually moved away.

The school was still occupied until 1932, when D. A. McCollaum, the last inhabitant of Queen, moved back to his ranch in Dark Canyon. The inhabitants moved out principally because of severe drought and bad roads.

All the buildings were torn down and moved except the one room school which stands deserted about half a mile to the west of the old post office site. The chimney remains to remind those who pass that way that once a community with its joys and sorrows existed there.

The property was next owned by Mrs. W. E. Thayer, then L. R. Pipkin and at present is a part of the ranch of Ralph Thayer, a prominent rancher in the Guadalupe Mountains. Mr. and Mrs. Thayer were interested in preserving this old landmark and gave Superintendent Hunter permission to do such work as was necessary to preserve it.

Early days in the Guadalupe were hard, according to Ralph Thayer, W. R. Shattuck, Fred Schermeyer and Mrs. Mary Queen Montgomery, all of whom have lived in the mountains for more than forty years. John and Dave McCollaum are also old timers on the mountain and all of them can tell some exciting stories of the early days and of the hardships and privations the first settlers suffered.

The Guadalupe district of the Lincoln National Forest extends from Bullis Spring on the north to the Carlsbad Cavern National Park on the south and is strictly a grazing district. In 1935 the Forest Service established CCC Camp F-37-N in Dark Canyon, just above the old Thayer homestead, which is now owned by Lt. Governor Dow. The work program for this camp has been quite diversified and has covered the construction of roads, trails, boundary and allotment fences, stock tanks, and two popular recreational areas. The work performed on the old chimney consisted of cementing the stone together in the arch of the fireplace and around the base. A small wire enclosure was built around the structure to protect it from stock and persons not interested in its preservation.

A Taos type or carved wood sign has been set up to inform the travelers that the chimney is all that remains of Queen, New Mexico.

This small job is just one of many that have been completed by the enrollees of Camp F-37-N during the three years the camp has been occupied. The improvements on the district have not only increased its productiveness but have gone far toward preserving the natural resources and have opened up a much-needed recreational area for southeastern New Mexico.

Much of the information related was furnished by Mrs. Ralph Thayer, who is quite familiar with and interested in the Guadalupe Mountains. Mrs. Thayer is like all others who have lived in these mountains; she realized there is "some intangible something" about the rugged Guadalupe no other mountains have.

Oliver Lee Heads State Cattlemen

New Mexico cattle growers, concluding their two-day annual convention at Santa Fe Thursday, elected Oliver M. Lee, pioneer Alamogordo cattleman, as president to succeed A. D. Brownfield, and named Clovis as the 1939 meeting place.

Selection of the new president by acclamation climaxed a lengthy session, in which the cattlemen by resolution put the association on record in regard to more than a score of questions facing the industry.

Con. W. Jackson of Las Vegas, who nominated Lee for the presidency, was elected as one of four vice-presidents. Others chosen were Gene Hayward, Colfax county; Tom Clayton, Deming, and Joe Lane, Jr., Roswell. In selecting Clovis as the 1939 convention city, the stockmen turned down invitations from Albuquerque and Santa Fe.

Without opposition, the cattlemen agreed to contribute one cent for each head of cattle owned to the national meat board to expend for "eat more meat" advertising.
