

WORLD NEWS —in— BRIEF FORM

From Near and Far, Some Timely, Some of Human Interest

For twenty years a locked safe, its combination forgotten, stood in the Adams County courthouse in Decatur, Ind. Curiosity finally overcame county officials and they called in a lock expert. A crowd gathered as he opened the door. It was empty.

Ruffled, frightened, but apparently uninjured, a carrier pigeon was removed at Lima, Ohio, from inside a lense-shattered headlight of an eastbound Pennsylvania railroad passenger train, which attains speeds of seventy miles an hour. Trainmen said the bird must have been struck by the locomotive between Fort Wayne, Ind., and Lima.

Saul Rayon of Houston was downhearted when Billy Boy, a horse he says attracts flies like no other animal, disappeared. He's happy now. Billy Boy has come home. Rayon is an insecticide manufacturer. Billy Boy is his demonstrator.

At Glendale, Ore., seventeen years after the death of his mother, Jess Tevebaugh received a $440 bequest. He found a tin can on the back porch cupboard of the farmhouse once occupied by his parents. In it were $405 in gold coins, $33 in currency and a note from his mother bequeathing him the money.

Falling eyesight brought 57-year-old Joseph Martino of New York City to the police line-up on the same old charge that has been plaguing him since 1919—picking pockets. Two policewomen stole him in a department store after they said he deftly opened a woman shopper's purse, closed it, put on his glasses the better to see its contents, opened it again and then closed it once more when he saw the haul would be too small.

Guy N. Tracy of Kansas City has further proof that accuracy pays in a tennis game. He smacked a ball out of the court. It rolled into rain swollen Brush Creek. Tracy waded in after it. As he reached to pick up the ball, a log knocked him off his feet. The current swept him a quarter mile downstream. He grasped a bridge support and weakly climbed to the bank. The ball floated by.

In Topeka, Kas., Alexander, the ugly robin, has become a psychopathic case. Alex was caught by a cat, got away in a near-naked condition. Dr. and Mrs. D. E. Weatherly administered first aid, kept him warm with a hot water bottle, and even dug him worms. He was finally turned out. But other birds have nothing to do with Alex. He wouldn't dig his own worms, kept running back home at meal time. "We're trying to ignore him," say the Wheatleys.

Like popped corn? Thirty thousand bushels of government owned corn popped so hard a recent night it wrecked a 40 x 50-foot five-story section of an old brick building in which it was stored at Kansas City. At least, W. R. Wilkerson, manager of the Empire Storage and Ice Company, which owned the building, blamed spontaneous combustion in the corn for the collapse. Two boxcars were overturned and almost buried in corn and brick. No one was injured, though two men were working in another section of the building.

Places of first day sale of five stamps in the new air mail series were announced by Postmaster General Walker. First day sales will be in conjunction with annual conventions of major philatelic societies. Cities of first day sale: Atlantic City, N. J., 10-cent purple stamp, Aug. 15; Baltimore, 15-cent brown stamp, Aug. 19; Philadelphia, 20-cent green stamp, Aug. 27; Kansas City, Mo., 30-cent blue stamp, Sept. 25; St. Louis, 50-cent orange stamp, Oct. 29. The sixth stamp in the series, the 6-cent, to be printed in red, will go on sale first in Washington, June 25.

Roland Warren Smith of Richmond, Va., has a hunch he will be called to military service the Fourth of July. On New Year's Eve he was notified of his local order number in the draft. On April Fool's Day he received his questionnaire. On Memorial Day came his notification to appear for his physical exam.

Mrs. Florence Holcomb is a nature lover, but she is all for forming a send-squirrels-back-to-the-country league. A dozen or so chattering, barking and fighting squirrels have taken over the space in the second floor ceiling of her home in Kansas City. At night the din is terrific, sleep impossible. There'll be more noise some dawn but Mrs. Holcomb won't mind. It will be police shooting the invaders.

At Kankakee, Ill., it was an ill wind which blew past Joe Kirsch as he opened his wallet. Fourteen dollars in folding money was whipped out of the purse by the wind and blew away.

An Antlers, Okla., farmer driving without a taillight and with only one headlamp was stopped by Highway Patrolmen Jess Faulkner and Charles Reese. The officers asked to see his driver's license. "There's my license tacked on the back," came the reply. "I never heard of a driver's license. When did they pass that?" The law was enacted in 1937.

Attending a public auction out of curiosity, a West Chester, Pa., tailor thought it was time to act when there were no bids on a three-story building. He started the ball rolling with $10,000 and that turned out to be the only bid. "It was just a joke," he explained afterward. "I thought the building would fetch several times $10,000 and I only wanted to get the bidding started. I don't want the building and I don't have the money to pay for it." A trust company agreed to another sale, but the tailor will be liable for the difference if the property brings less than $10,000.

When Utah called for bids on colored plastic tax tokens, girls in the tax commission office immediately saw in them a source of bright buttons. But from Commissioner D. E. Hammond came a warning. "If these are used for buttons, the ladies will have to do their own drilling." Unlike the present aluminum tokens, there'll be no holes in the new pieces.

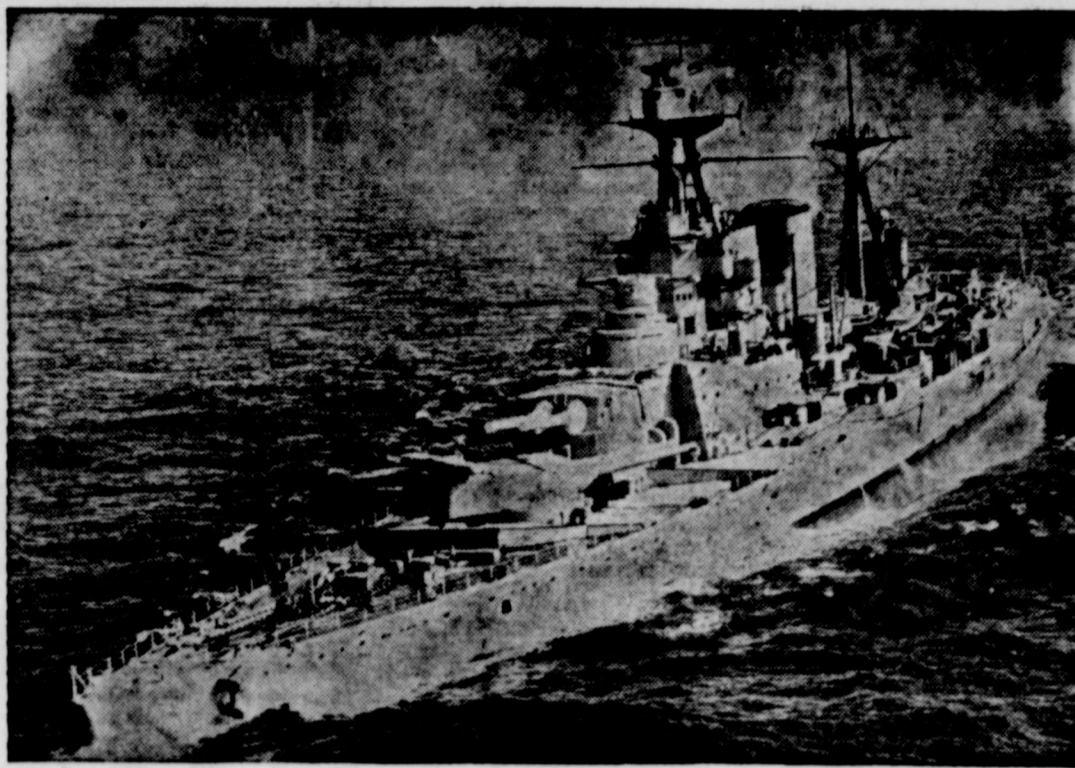

Mrs. Grover C. Hensley of Seattle felt she had grounds for divorce. Her 55-year-old husband, she testified in superior court, "seemed to take a great deal of pleasure in biting me." She won a divorce.

A Chicago council committee is going to gather evidence first hand on a charge that a man can't get a drink at Loop bars because the women edge him out. Alderman James McDermott made the allegation in proposing an amendment to the city's liquor code which would require that women be seated at tables before spirituous imbibing. The committee decided on a personal tour after no one showed up at a scheduled public hearing on the issue.

Poplar Bluff, Mo., school officials checked and double-checked, but could find no mistake in the total enrollment of grade school children. The count was: Boys 1,679, girls 1,679.

The hole moved as fast as Mrs. Nettie Thorne's golf ball so her hole-in-one didn't count at Portland, Ore. Mrs. Thorne took careful aim, then smacked the ball. It flew true to the green and plopped into the cup. But—a groundskeeper went right on with his work. By the time the ball arrived, he had cut a new hole and removed the flag from the one into which the ball dropped.

Fifty co-eds sun bathing on the roof of the San Diego State Women's College gymnasium caused an aerial traffic jam. The massed flights by cadets from an air school brought a complaint from the girls. The college asked that it be made a closed flying area, but no action resulted. But the problem was solved when the semester ended.

Applications Being Taken for Tenant Purchase Program

Deadline Set June 30—Wide Selection of Farms to Be Available

Loans to farm tenants, sharecroppers and farm laborers, with which to purchase their own farms, again will be available under the 1941-42 fiscal year's appropriation in Eddy County, according to Paul W. Ball, county RR supervisor for the Farm Security Administration.

Applications for loans under the tenant purchase program must be made at the Eddy County FSA office in the courthouse building in Carlsbad. Applicants started filling out their applications June 16 and may continue until June 30. No applications will be taken after that date.

Successful applicants who will receive loans will be given a wide choice in selecting farms which they wish to purchase. The price of the farm must be in keeping with values as determined by the county committee of Eddy County. Under this program, loans are made for a forty-year period at 3 per cent interest.

The above type of farmers should keep these dates in mind, as there will be no second opening of applications, Ball said.

The Eddy County committee is composed of William J. Bindel and Enea M. Grandi of Carlsbad and G. R. Brainard of Artesia.

Anyone wishing to submit an application may do so by obtaining blanks from the local Farm Security Administration office or from one of the committeemen.

Wild Ducks Like City Life

CHICAGO, ILL.—About a thousand wild mallard ducks live the year 'round right in the shadow of a large rug factory near the heart of Chicago's loop. The flock started with only a dozen but wild bird visitors dropped in the Olson Game Refuge Park. These ducks are volunteers. Their wings are not clipped. At this time of the year, they wander along a nearby grassy railroad embankment and lay their eggs. City life seems to agree with them for this is their sixth season.

John Bessire Writes From Coast There's Hope of Regaining Sight

John Bessire, Artesia blind boy who went to Los Angeles a few weeks ago for an operation by a specialist, in an effort to regain the sight in one of his eyes, writes that he has hopes, but that it will be several months before the doctor can tell whether he will be able to see or not.

He is at Exter, Calif., where his sister, Miss Bertha Bessire, joined him recently, and intends to remain there, for the specialist wants him to return to Los Angeles in about two months for another examination.

John wrote about another boy who had a similar operation, after which it was a year before he could see, and then sight came to him all at once.

He has made some good business connections and hopes to get some pianos to tune. In his short stay there, John has made three talks about the blind, one each at meetings of the Men's Club of the Methodist Church, the Lions Club and the Kiwanis Club.

John and Miss Bertha enclosed a clipping from the Exter newspaper telling about his talk before the Kiwanians, as well as a letter to him from the club president thanking the blind boy. The clipping reads, in part:

"The Braille system of printing or writing and the use of the 'Seeing Eye Dog' were explained by John Bessire, a blind man, to the members of the Exter Kiwanis Club at the regular meeting yesterday noon.

"Bessire, who recently underwent an operation in the hope of restoring the sight to his right eye, has been totally blind for two and a half years. He lost the sight of his left eye when hit by a ball while still a child. He attended the School for the Blind at Muskogee, Okla., as the sight of the other eye was deficient.

"While playing football at the school, Bessire suffered a blow to the head and was made totally blind.

"During the several years he was a student at the school he learned to read and write by the Braille system and completed a general course of study and majored in the trade of piano tuning ter, Mrs. J. H. Bridgman, and had many friends here to mourn her departure. Several years ago she moved with the Bridgmans to California, where she lived until her death Saturday.

and is now following this occupation in Exter.

"The speaker explained the means by which the Braille system is taught and stated that boys and girls are given a good general education, as well as offering opportunities for specializing in trades, domestic science, art, music and other specialized subjects.

"The training and work of 'Seeing Eye Dogs' was explained, showing it takes 2 1/2 to 3 months of intensive training to make a German shepherd dog proficient in his work, after which the blind person must be schooled for thirty days in how to interpret the actions of the dog and to communicate his desires to him.

"Training of dogs is done at Morristown, N. J., and while $900 is the price of a trained dog, the training school is endowed and blind persons pay but $150."

In his letter to The Advocate, John acknowledged again the efforts of the Artesia Rotary Club in providing funds for his trip to the West Coast for the operation. "I am writing this letter to you," he said, "in order to thank the members of the Rotary Club of Artesia for the great help that they all have been to me. Even if the operation isn't successful, I'll always be thankful for the chance they gave me to see again."

Mrs. Ira Stuart and daughter of Mentone, Tex., spent the week end here in the Austin Stuart home.

News Briefs of the "Sunshine State," Gleaned from Many Sources

State Land Commissioner H. R. Rodgers issued a regulation that partial payments on state oil and gas leases no longer would be accepted for more than a year in advance. The rule, he said, was designed to correct a technicality under which some lease-holders were avoiding payment of filing fees.

Eight New Mexico WPA allocations totaling $143,495 have been approved by President Roosevelt, including $24,768 for access roads near the army airbase in Albuquerque. Other projects: Street improvement in Wagon Mound, $28,670; road improvements in West Mora County, $43,558; improvement of the old county courthouse at Tucumcari, $8,048; addition to recreation building at State Teachers' College, Silver City, $1,442; National Guard armory improvements, Taos, $1,632; road improvements near Tularosa, $19,791, and $5,586 for state police registration station, Tucumcari.

About 100 New Mexico, Arizona, Southern Colorado and West Texas dentists are expected in Albuquerque for the State Dental Society convention June 30 to July 2, it was announced last week. Professional sessions will be marked by lectures and clinics conducted by members of society at the Hilton Hotel.

A movement to obtain signatures for a referendum on the $1,000,000 capitol building law was set in motion by the Bernalillo County Taxpayers' Association. Hugh Graham, association president, announced that Edgar Knight, formerly with the State Taxpayers' Association, had been named chairman of a petition committee and would seek 2,500 signatures in Albuquerque. To obtain a referendum, petitions must be filed from three-fourths of the state's counties and bear a number of names equal to 10 per cent of the total vote cast at the last preceding election. Graham assailed the building act for what he said was assuming another $1,000,000 debt without submitting the proposition first to the people. He said the present is not an opportune time for constructing the new capitol.

The New Mexico department of Veterans of Foreign Wars is ready to advocate continued compulsory military training for the nation's young manhood. The military training resolution was one of several for which the VFW voiced its support as it brought its convention to a close in Albuquerque last week with the election of Paul E. Culver of Albuquerque as state commander and the selection of Clovis for the 1942 convention. In other resolutions, the veterans favored outlawing Communism and other un-American parties, banishing "isms" from schools through non-use of textbooks condemned by veterans' organizations, restricting immigration above quota limits, and deportation of Fritz Kuhn, German-American bund leader, and Harry Bridges, Pacific Coast labor leader. Other officers elected were: Salem Curtis of Roswell, senior vice commander; Guido Zecca of Gallup, junior vice commander; W. C. Alexander of Gallup, quartermaster; James McCall of Carlsbad, judge advocate; Dr. D. F. Monaco of Gallup, surgeon, and E. A. Haggard of Tucumcari, chaplain.

Business sessions of the summer convention of the Southwest district of 20-30 Clubs at McGaffey July 25-27, will be highlighted by the election of officers. The district, embracing New Mexico, West Texas and Southern Colorado, now is headed by Herb Halladay of El Paso, district governor; Nen Hannawald of Albuquerque, lieutenant governor, and Kyle Sanders, Hobbs; Ed Meechem, Las Cruces; Joe Sisler, Pecos, and Forrest Barnett, Pecos, Tex., all deputy governors.

The State Land Office last week leased oil and gas rights on twenty-three tracts of state land for a total of $15,298.49, with bidders ignoring forty-eight offered tracts. Land Commissioner H. R. Rodgers announced. The seventy-one tract sale was one of the largest land office offerings in recent years. An eighty-acre Lea County tract brought the highest bid, $10,39, an acre, offered by Tidewater Associated Oil Company of Tulsa, Okla.

The Republican state central committee was called to meet in Albuquerque June 28 to elect a successor to retiring State Chairman John Emmons. The call was issued by Emmons after central committee was originally scheduled to meet in Santa Fe next month.

New Mexico's 1942 license plates will be set down in black and white. Motor Vehicle Director J. O. Garcia said passenger plates will have white numerals on a black background, with truck license colors reversed. The legend, "Land of Enchantment," is to be retained.

William T. Scoggins, Jr., Dona Ana County clerk, is the new president of the New Mexico Association of County Officials and Taos is the selection for the group's 1942 convention. Other officers named at the association's final convention session at Albuquerque were: John B. Romero of Gallup, first vice president; F. A. Vigil of Raton, second vice president; Jennie Martin of Hot Springs, recording secretary; Mrs. Pearl B. McGlathery of Lovington, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Mattie Hare of Grants, county treasurer.

flooded Rio Grande Valley from Velarde to San Antonio. Dr. J. R. Scott, state health director, said work started in the Espanola Valley and was to begin in the Albuquerque area, with crews spreading a film of oil over all standing water near communities to kill mosquito larvae. Cooperating in the project are the WPA, the Farm Security Administration, the state engineer's office, State Highway Department and U. S. Forest Service.

The conclusion had been written June 11 to a May 31 tragedy in which two small children of a Te-colitito couple were swept to their deaths in the Pecos River. After a week and a half of searching, sheriff's deputies found the body of Adela Lucero, 4, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arsenio Lucero. The body of Adela's infant brother had been recovered earlier. The children drowned when the wagon in which the Luceros and their four children were fording the Pecos overturned. Adela's body was found near La Junta, forty-five miles downstream.

The movement of the entire complement of the Albuquerque Army Air Base from former quarters at March Field, Calif., has been completed. It was expected that plans for formal dedication of the big base, six miles southeast of the city, would begin to take shape soon. Lieut. Col. Eugene L. Eubank announced the completion of the transfer of the 19th Bombardment Group, Heavy, and the 38th Reconnaissance Squadron from the coast. With the Fourth Air Base Group at Albuquerque since April, the units have a paper strength of about 200 officers and 2,200 men.

Selective Service has called upon New Mexico for 330 more draftees—300 whites and 30 Negroes—by July 10, the Military Department said. The call is the state's first since April.

William A. Watson, attorney for the New Mexico State Bureau of tor command, was "highly pleased" with progress of New Mexico's aircraft warning service. The organization, he told R. E. Holzer, retiring state defense council coordinator, is further advanced than any other in the command, which covers California, Arizona, Nevada and West Texas.

The U. S. Forest Service was given assurance by H. R. Rodgers, state land commissioner, that the policy of trading state forest areas for federal grazing land would be continued. The state, with 350,000 acres of timber, has been trading it to the Forest Service at the rate of one acre of state land for 12 to 16 acres of federal.

Clovis has been experiencing dust storms, indirectly caused by a series of torrential rains. Rainfall at Clovis since the first of the year totaled twenty-five inches plus, but what's happened: Fields pounded by heavy rains were left with a cover of fine dust when the surface dried. Farmers have been unable to work the fields adequately because the soggy under-soil impedes the progress of a tractor, or even an ordinary mule. A stiff breeze comes along—and pfffffft—another duster.

Charles L. Rose, superintendent of Carlsbad's city schools for the last two years, has accepted a similar position in the Hot Springs school system for the next two years.

"New Mexico, Land of Enchantment," the state's newly completed 1,400-foot color film produced by the State Tourist Bureau, is to have its "premiere" in Boston, June 29. Bureau Director Joseph Bursey is to take the scenic film to Boston to show it to the National Education Association's convention. After the middle of July, he said, the thirty-eight minute film would be available to civic groups, luncheon clubs, schools and other organizations in New Mexico and other states.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Bivens of Carlsbad, Miss Grace Kimball of Artesia and Douglas O'Bannon of Cottonwood motored to Ruidoso to spend Sunday.

How "Evil Eye" Finkle's terrible twinkle puts the hex on sports stars. They call him "Baleful Bennie the Blink," and his wicked ringside wink is credited with wiling many dum-founded prizefighters. Read about his curious career as told by Dan Parker, famous sports writer, in The American Weekly, the magazine distributed with next week's Los Angeles Examiner.

Mrs. Frank Smith underwent a major operation in Tulsa, Okla., last week. She is reported to be getting along nicely and expects to be home this week.

Mrs. C. R. Blocker, Mrs. Stanley Blocker and Miss Lelia Cooper are expected to return today from a business trip and visit with Miss Cooper's brother, Capt. H. W. Cooper, and Mrs. Cooper and their son, Joe Lane, in El Paso.

Their home is at Pasadena, Calif., from where they were called to Carlsbad on business and stopped in Artesia for a short visit.

Showers for June Brides Found to Be A Custom Begun Near the Zuider Zee!

Out with the crepe paper umbrellas; they're up this month in honor of June brides. Hark back to Holland for the first bridal shower, started unwittingly by a mean father many years ago. His daughter planned to marry the town miller, poor because he gave his bread to the needy instead of selling it. Papa declared she would have no dowry if she married the miller, and the poor people, conscience-stricken, got together and brought the best their homes had to offer—until the dowry was better than papa's!

Showers now assume all proportions, all classifications: Kitchen showers, book, linen and silver! Latest comer is the coffee shower; the bride-to-be receives several coffee makers (one for just two, one eight-cupper, one beauty for impressing in-laws), two cups painted with the happy couple's names, demi-tasse cups, sugar and creamer. Best of all she receives a set of rules for good coffee and the whole assembly sits down to refreshments like these:

Upsy-Daisy Salad

1 pkg. lemon-flavored gelatine, 1 cup hot water, 2 cups (1 No. 2 can) Florida grapefruit sections, 1/2 cup grated raw carrot, few grains salt, lettuce or other greens, mayonnaise.

Pour hot water on gelatine; stir until dissolved. Drain grapefruit; measure juice; add enough water to make one cup. Add to gelatine mixture. Chill until syrupy. Add grated carrot and salt; mix well. Dice grapefruit sections; add. Pour into 8 individual molds. Chill until firm; unmold on lettuce.

Shrimp-Stuffed Peppers

6 green peppers, 4 tbsps. butter, 1/4 cup chopped onion, 2 cups canned shrimp (2 No. 1 cans), 2 cups boiled rice, tomato juice, 1/2 cup buttered chopped Brazil nuts.

Remove stem ends from peppers; scoop out seeds. Cook peppers 5 minutes in boiling salted water. Melt butter in saucepan, add onion and saute 10 minutes. Add shrimp, rice and enough tomato juice to hold ingredients together. Fill peppers with mixture. Set in baking dish, pour 1 cup boiling water around peppers. Bake in moderately hot oven (400 degrees F.) 45 minutes or until peppers are done. Sprinkle with nuts during last 15 minutes.

Cherry Upside Down Cake

2 1/2 cups pitted sour cherries (1 No. 2 can), 1/3 cup shortening, 1/2 cup sugar, 1 egg, 1/2 cup all-bran, 1 tbsps. grated orange rind, 2 1/2 tps. cornstarch, 2/3 cup sugar,

Economics—

Folks who wonder where all the money goes these days can learn what happens to much of it by reading the annual reports of business concerns.

Typical is the annual report of an oil company, recently published. The company does an annual business of around $150,000,000. After operating and other expenses were paid, the stockholders received slightly more than $5,000,000. The company paid $7,500,000 in taxes, and collected from its customers over $30,000,000 in sales taxes on the products they bought.

In other words, the tax collectors get about seven times as much from this company as do the stockholders.

Want to Make Something of It?

It isn't spinach, it's ice cream! If they kids don't believe it, step around to the corner grocery store and name it. In addition to spinach, the new ice come in green pea, carrot and asparagus flavors, complete—with vitamins.

With the minimum of suspicion and effort, the nutritive value of fresh vegetables, plus milk and cream can now be absorbed painlessly even by problem children. Retaining the vegetable flavor, the dessert can be used along with meat courses in warm-weather menus and is recommended by physicians and hospitals for invalid diet.

Coffee Cooler

1/2 cup ground coffee, 1 1/2 cups milk, 1/3 cup dark syrup, 1/3 cup sugar, 1/8 tbsps. salt, 2 egg yolks, well beaten; 2 egg whites, 1 cup heavy cream, whipped; 4 1/2 cups freshly-made coffee, chilled.

Add ground coffee to milk in top part of double boiler; heat over boiling water 5 minutes. Strain through cheese cloth or very fine strainer into a bowl containing dark syrup, sugar and salt. Add to beaten yolks; chill. Beat egg whites until stiff; add the chilled coffee milk mixture to this with the whipped cream. Pour into tray of automatic refrigerator; freeze until firm; stir once after first hour of freezing. To serve, fill tall glasses half full of frozen mixture; add regular strength coffee (chilled) to fill.

Do you like a baffling mystery story? Then don't miss "The Green Diary" by the well-known author, Q. Patrick. It will not only give you a thrill but will tax your powers of deduction. This gripping serial of secret vengeance, and strange deaths, in which love and hate play dramatic roles, begins in The American Weekly, the magazine distributed with next week's Los Angeles Examiner.

The giraffes will be on platforms. Gargantua and Toto will appear in a streamlined, air-conditioned cage with chrome metal bars. Three-level runways will accommodate all their guests.

Cages for the other animals will be arranged in two circles. The elephants will be in the center, in a massed herd, so that they look more like elephants.

Even the big top is going to be different. The poles and posts, pains-in-the-neck to the customers, and screening off some of the most exciting features, will be gone. The big top is to be suspended from cables hung from four 200-foot steel towers.

Much of the streamlining will go on behind the scenes. The circus is being completely motorized. Out front twenty clowns again will climb out of the latest model coupe. Out back there will be unexciting but highly utilitarian innovations. Among them are diesel power plants and tractors and other petroleum-powered devices to help the circus folk, whether moving or showing.

Still there's no reason for circus fans to worry about what makes a circus a circus. The elephants will be available for diets of peanuts. There'll be the same fuzzy candy-sticks on sale. Pink lemonade is still lemonade no matter what they call it. The odor of tanbark never will be streamlined. And there's a rumor that the good old steam-piano (callopie to the erudite) is to stage a come-back in a great big way!

There's still one big problem to be solved, according to latest reports. That concerns the height of the glass enclosure around the monkey mountain. Nobody yet knows exactly how far a determined monkey can jump.

Transportation, 1932 Model—

New motor bus terminal, planned for New York City, will make it possible for folks from out of town to step from their bus into the subway and reach the Bronx or Brooklyn without getting lost in the streets.

Even the buses will enter the terminal by tunnel, and will draw up at any of fifteen platforms which will accommodate thirty vehicles simultaneously. Passengers will leave by tunnel to the subway, or, going to the street level, will find themselves close to Times Square.

The four-story terminal will be ten times larger than any present bus depot.

Unfinished Business—

Suggestions for amateur inventors and others not so amateur are: Umbrellas with windows; easily removable, popless corks; non-skid footstools; dinette furniture with concealed space for linen and table-tools; heated lounging robes for insomniacs; non-cracking cellobane; a dinner service for four; pint-size desk lights. Feminine consumers request that priority be given to featherweight plastic compacts for handbags and to slipless slippers.

Newsy Nuggets—

New "baby" tractor built for small farms can plow, disk, cultivate, plant, haul or act as a power plant and supplement larger machines on big farms.

Newest service stations are fitted not only with all the high speed appliances for restocking the car with fuel, oil and water, but with modern motor-testing apparatus as well.

Development in the use of chemical solutions for growing plants brings the prediction that trailer tourists will be able to grow their own food on the roofs of their rolling homes.

In 1821, a natural gas spring at Fredonia, N. Y., excavated to twenty-seven feet, supplied thirty burners. The light from each burner was regarded as equal to that of "two good candles."

Oil lamps were used to light the streets of New York in 1762.

Total motor vehicle registrations exceeded 30,000,000 for the first time in 1939.

Dear Friends:

More than a million young Americans are now in military training camps. Many local men are included in this number. They have given up good jobs for twenty-one dollars a month... comfortable homes for tents... personal freedom for rigid army discipline.

These young men are making sacrifices in order that you and I may be protected. Some few of them are, or will become, officers. Most of them, however, necessarily will remain in the ranks, constituting the great democratic army of a great democracy.

Many of these soldiers will be coming home on leave from time to time for short visits. We should greet and honor all of them with as much enthusiasm as if they were Colonels or Generals. There is no place in this new democratic military service for snobishness—no place for worship of high-sounding titles. The private soldier is doing just as much for us as is the high-ranking officer. His sacrifice is, in many instances, even greater. Isn't it up to us to realize this and to let the soldiers know we do realize it?

Sincerely
Albert S. Johnson

Then how long is a quart of this great New Motor Oil?

STRAIGHT FROM SIZZLING DEATH VALLEY COMES YOUR ANSWER...

The lock-guarded engines of 6 coupes faced the Death Valley desert with oil exactly up to "Full." Not a drop could be added. The destination of all 6 identical everyday engines was... Death! Here were 6 high quality motor oils getting the same strictly fair opportunity to show how long they'd let an engine live on one exact fill and no more. Down in Death Valley—hotspot of the U. S. A.—every car sped at 57 miles an hour, till its oil gave out and the engine smashed. The brand of oil that used up quickest was outlasted 8,268 miles by a revolutionary new oil in this impartial, certified test. This new oil exceeded the average mileage of the other 5 oils by all of 7,057 miles! Certified. This longest-lasting oil in the test, which your car can have today—at popular price—is new CONOCO Nth MOTOR OIL with its Man-made new Economy aid

IMPARTIAL
Latest available products of 5 leading competitors bought retail by Referee.
New everyday coupes used—identical. Broken in alike. Engines taken apart for Referee—to assure uniformity.
Cars tuned alike. Same Death Valley route for all. Drivers rotated to even up on skill.
One fill per car. None added. Engines under lock—under scrutiny—every mile.

when the worst of this "festering" attack is nipped in the bud—inhibited—by the life-giving Thialkene inhibitor in new Conoco Nth motor oil.

Now you'll never rashly exceed the proper oil-change period for your car and driving conditions—any more than you ignore traffic rules just to "get away with it!" But Certified Proof from the desert that new Conoco Nth could outlast the other oils in the test by as much as 161%, gives you more than mere hopes of long Summer mileage between quarts. Change to Conoco Nth—at Your Mileage Merchant's Conoco station... today. Continental Oil Company—Pioneers in Bettering America's oil with Synthetics

AND CONOCO Nth OIL OIL-PLATES YOUR ENGINE!

Long the keystone of Conoco success, OIL-PLATING comes from another great Conoco synthetic... man-made under the famed Germ Processed oil patent. By magnet-like action, OIL-PLATING is bonded to inner engine parts. Then it can't all drain down—not even overnight—not while you're using Conoco Nth. So OIL-PLATING is on guard against wear in advance!... and helps mileage, as it did in Death Valley. An OIL-PLATED engine is one more economy you get from a change to popular-priced new Conoco Nth oil.

CERTIFIED I hereby certify that the Death Valley Test and related work were thoroughly and fairly conducted. Engine Destruction occurred in each case at the mileage stated.
