Pior Building Is Badly Damaged In Night Fire

Loss Estimated Between Five and Ten Thousand — Breaks Out Second Time on the Eve of Thanksgiving.

Fire accompanying an explosion of undetermined cause damaged the Pior Rubber Company building and plant to the extent of $5,000, possibly as much as $10,000, on the eve of Thanksgiving, it was estimated by Ben Pior, who could be quoted no more definitely until insurance companies had completed their adjustments.

The original damage was inflicted after the explosion at 7:10 o'clock Wednesday evening of last week, but fire again broke out at 10:25 o'clock, after it was thought all blazes had been extinguished.

The second fire was harder for the firemen to fight than the original, as it was confined largely to the space between the roof and the ceiling of the vulcanizing rooms and in the large service awning adjacent, whereas the original was in the vulcanizing rooms.

At the moment of the explosion, no one was in the building, but John Ector, colored attendant, was entering the west door of the vulcanizing room when the explosion came, blowing him back away from the building. He was not harmed, probably protected by the door.

The force of the explosion blew out the west windows and some of the ones to the north.

Immediately the entire room was ablaze and early arrivals thought the entire building was doomed. (continued on last page, column 3)

Sixty Persons Attend Clinic of Food Handlers

Dr. O. E. Puckett, county health officer, reported that about sixty persons attended the initial food handlers' clinic at Artesia Memorial Hospital Wednesday of last week, when everyone in Artesia handling cooked or raw food was ordered to appear for examination.

The clinic will be continued, with examinations given at the hospital from 10 to 3 o'clock each Friday. It previously was announced the weekly clinic would be on Wednesdays, but this has been changed.

Dr. R. T. Spencer, venerable disease clinician for Eddy County, was in direct charge of the clinic and he was assisted by Mrs. Annette Deering of Carlsbad, county health nurse, and Mrs. G. C. Kinder, Artesia school nurse.

Dr. Puckett, Dr. Spencer and the assisting nurses expressed their appreciation for the cooperation of the food handlers of Artesia last week.

DECORATE WITH SCHOOLS' COLORS

Hugh Kiddy, city decorations chairman for the Gateway Bowl Game, has requested that Main Street in the business section and the adjacent side streets be decorated with the colors of the contending schools, the decorations to be up no later than next Thursday, the day before the game.

As in past years, an attempt will be made to divide the city and Kiddy has assigned the south side of Main Street and the adjacent side streets to Jal, using the school's colors of purple and gold. The north side is to carry Deming's colors of scarlet and royal blue.

Kiddy suggested also that as many show windows as possible be decorated in a grid motif.

And, above all, said the chairman, the Stars and Stripes are to be displayed all day Friday, Dec. 5.

Old-Timer Is Back on Visit, First Since '05

Artesia was visited Saturday and Sunday by a man who came here first in February, 1905, when Artesia was a mere infant, then left and was gone for thirty-six years, but who would like to come back here to live, for he likes Artesia, he said, far better than Los Angeles.

W. E. Campbell, a youth from Missouri, drove a rig back in 1905 for the real estate firm of Higley, Hellberg & Blair, when excursions of prospective settlers came to the Pecos Valley, he recalled Saturday.

Having met J. Ross Blair on an excursion train, young Campbell was hired by him to work on the Blair ranch. Blair and his associates, C. L. Higley and Louis Hellberg, would put the young man to work as a driver when the trains came in.

When Campbell left Artesia, he did not leave the state, but went to Las Cruces and attended the high school section of State College in 1905-07, then graduated from the college in general science in (continued on last page, column 2)

Sale of Christmas Seals Brings in $100 This Week

Anti-TB Drive Opens on Monday With 1,200 Blocks Stamps Sent Out

The annual sale of Christmas seals under the direction of the local committee of the National Tuberculosis Association which opened Monday, started off well, with about $100 of the quota of $600 received up to this morning for the first three days, it was reported by Mrs. Charles Morgan, chairman.

The committee on Monday mailed out about 1,200 blocks of stamps to individuals, most of whom, it is believed and hoped, will remit for them, in order to help the association's fight on tuberculosis.

CHRISTMAS SEALS

However, the committee ran out of form letters from the national organization, of which 1,000 were received. Mrs. Morgan asked this morning that it be explained to those who did not receive letters with the stamps that Christmas seals are so well known and established (continued on society page)

Goat Ropers Are to Stage Rodeo Events At Arena on Sunday

The Artesia Goat Ropers Club is planning another rodeo at the arena at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon at which horse racing and roping will be featured.

The principal roping event of the afternoon will be between "Slick" Derrick and "Buzz" Taylor, who will rope six calves each. There also will be jackpot calf roping and jackpot goat roping.

The afternoon of roping and racing at a public event will be the first the club has sponsored for several months. It is expected that rodeo and roping fans will be here from a wide territory.

American Legion Is Ready for Barbecue And Dance Tonight

Plans are complete for the American Legion's "wild barbecue and dance" at the hut this evening, except for completing the barbecuing of the meat, which will be served in several varieties, including venison, to be free.

Loren Neeley, who is in charge, said this morning that advance ticket sales indicate the affair will be quite successful, more so than the early fall barbecue and dance of the Legion.

Dancing, with the music furnished by a local orchestra, will start at 9 o'clock.

Red Cross Enrolls 723 Members to Wednesday Night

Rural Districts Not in — Dexter Hopes for More to Come by Mail

As the clean-up squad in the annual roll call of the North Eddy County chapter of the Red Cross completed its work Wednesday, a total of 723 members had been reported, with the rural districts yet to be heard from, C. J. Dexter, chairman, said this morning.

The 723 members in the current drive contributed a total of $834.44, Dexter said.

The roll call chairman stressed that the official drive does not close until Nov. 30 and that there may be a number of persons who wish to join for 1942, who have not been contacted. There are many persons in this community, he said, who could afford to subscribe also for relatives and employees.

In his final appeal of the roll call, Dexter quoted a statement he heard a few days ago on the radio, "All you need is a heart and a dollar."

Although the Red Cross needs money, more than ever this year, Dexter said it is memberships he and his workers are after, so that everyone may feel he has a part in the splendid work done by the organization locally, nationally and internationally.

He has hopes that the mail will bring in many more memberships within the next few days. Subscriptions may be mailed to Dexter.

Dexter said the workers have completed their drive and there will be no one at either the bank or the postoffice on Saturday, so he will have to be reached personally or by mail with remaining subscriptions.

May Talk to Men in Service Direct Over W5FSP at Carlsbad

Milton B. Haines of Carlsbad, "ham" operator of amateur radio station W5FSP, has sent Artesia people a special invitation to use his facilities to reach boys in the Army, Navy or Marine Corps in any possessions of the United States.

His station was listed last week with a number of other amateur stations over the state, which have offered this free service.

Haines said that if appointments are made, it will be possible for relatives to talk direct to the boys, provided they are available at the other end. If they are not, then the messages will be forwarded to them by other "hams" at the receiving end.

The Carlsbad amateur radio operator may be reached by writing him there at Box 271.

ARTESIA BOYS PLEDGE BETA CHI FRATERNITY

The Artesia boys were pledged to Beta Chi, which lists seventeen neophytes.

Free Driving Tests Friday, Not for Official Records, but for Information of Individuals

Automobile drivers of the Artesia community, both private and commercial, will be afforded a rare opportunity Friday, when free safety driving tests will be given through the cooperation of Dr. H. W. James, president of New Mexico State Teachers College, Silver City, and the use of a truckload of special equipment.

The tests will be given at the American Legion hut from 8 o'clock in the morning to 5 o'clock in the afternoon.

Mrs. T. C. Hopkins, president of the Artesia Parent-Teacher Association, which is sponsoring the tests, with other local organizations cooperating, pointed out that there is nothing compulsory about the examinations and that the re-

A PROCLAMATION BY THE MAYOR

Whereas, the citizens of Artesia, under the sponsorship of the Gateway Bowl Association, have invited two outstanding football teams, Jal High School, representing Southeast New Mexico, and Deming High School, representing outstate, to meet in Artesia on Morris Field at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon, Dec. 5, in the third annual Gateway Bowl Game, and

Whereas, the contest will be of statewide interest and will attract our neighbors from many cities and localities over the state,

Now, therefore, I, Emery Carper, mayor of Artesia, proclaim the afternoon of Dec. 5, a half holiday and respectfully request that the several business houses close their doors from 1 to 4 o'clock on that day, in order that employer and employee alike may attend the Gateway Bowl Game.

I further request that the city be suitably decorated for the occasion, not only by unfurling the flag of our nation, but by displaying the colors of the two contending schools, purple and gold for Jal and scarlet and royal blue for Deming, on the principal business blocks as suggested by Hugh Kiddy, decorations chairman.

EMERY CARPER, Mayor of Artesia.

Bank Deposits At Two Million For First Time

Nearly Double 1936 Figure and Expected to Reach $2,200,000 in December When Cotton Money Comes in Faster.

Bank deposits in Artesia surpassed two million dollars during the last week for the first time in history and the First National Bank reached a new peak Monday, when the day's books showed deposits of $2,059,986.

The previous peak for the bank of $1,821,162 were shown. That figure was surpassed Nov. 12, 1941, when the day's business closed with more than $1,893,000 in deposits.

Since Nov. 12 there has been a continued increase in the daily totals and the two-million mark was reached Friday.

Bank officials believe there will be still greater deposits in the bank the next few weeks, with another all-time peak reached in December, when it is expected the high day's total of 1936, which was $1,098,562, will be doubled, although Tuesday fell slightly below the Monday total. This belief is based on the fact the cotton crop is quite late (continued on society page)

Artesia Lions Have Two Meetings of Interest in Week

Major Kelly of N.M.M.I. Speaks at Zone Banquet on World Conditions

Members of the Artesia Lions Club had two enjoyable meetings last week and this, the first Tuesday evening of last week, when they were hosts at a zone meeting embracing the Carlsbad, Hobbs, Lovington and Artesia clubs, and the second yesterday noon, when C. Messick, bell ringer over CBS, happened to be in town and visited the club at its weekly luncheon.

At the banquet meeting Tuesday evening of last week on the Roof Garden of the Artesia Hotel, Major J. R. Kelly of the New Mexico Military Institute staff at Roswell spoke on "World Conditions, Both Religious and Economic."

Major Kelly, who has addressed Artesia audiences on many occasions and is known to be a careful student and observer of world conditions, analyzed the economic and religious conditions and history in Europe leading up to the present turmoil.

The Lions were treated to two violin solos by Everett Dean O'Bannon, young son of Mr. and Mrs. Everett O'Bannon of the Cottonwood, accompanied by Mrs. Glenn Caskey.

Of fifty-five Lions attending, twelve each were from Carlsbad and Hobbs and eight from Lovington.

The bell ringer and his accompanist, a Mr. Burns, were on their way to El Paso for a personal appearance and Messick, a member of the Kiwanis Club, noting a sign at the edge of Artesia that the Lions were to meet and feeling an urge to attend a civic club (continued on last page, column 2)

Dr. Rule Is Guest Preacher Sunday at Presbyterian Church

Andrew K. Rule, Ph.D., professor of church history and apologetics at Louisville (Ky.) Presbyterian Seminary, was guest preacher at the First Presbyterian Church here Sunday morning and he and Mrs. Rule and their daughters, Barbara and Judy, were guests of the Rev. and Mrs. Henry S. Stout Saturday evening and Sunday.

Dr. Rule, who is on a sabbatical leave from the seminary, was an instructor of the Rev. Mr. Stout in his college days. He has been spending several months in Albuquerque in research work. Dr. Rule and his family plan to leave there the first of the month for Phoenix, Ariz., to spend the winter with a sister of Mrs. Rule.

The family visited the Carlsbad Caverns Saturday before coming to Artesia.

A SON IS BORN TO MR. AND MRS. JONES

A son was born Sunday, Nov. 16, to Mr. and Mrs. Boone Jones at their home. He has not as yet been named.

Mrs. Jones and her son, who weighed 8 1/2 pounds at birth, are doing nicely.

Morton, Elder Well May Extend Pool West of Grier No. 1

Flows Seventy-Six Barrels in Four Hours—Is the Only Completion

Highlighting the oil news in Eddy County this week is the possible extension of the pool opened some weeks ago by the Grier No. 1 of Nay Hightower, with the completion of the Root No. 2 of Morton & Elder, between five and six miles west of the Hightower location and about two miles north of the Grayburg camp.

The well, located in SE NW 7-17-30, made a test flow of seventy-six barrels in four hours through a 3/4-inch choke on tubing, which is at the rate of 456 barrels a day. Total depth was 2,768 feet.

The test was started only four hours after the well was cleaned and tubed after the shot, without building up back pressure.

At the time of the shot, the well flowed twice as high as the rig in a steady stream. A picture taken (continued on last page, column 4)

Santa Claus Is to Visit Artesia Kids On Saturday, Dec. 13

Santa Claus is coming to Artesia!

He will be here Saturday afternoon, Dec. 13.

The news was disclosed at the weekly Rotary luncheon Tuesday. M. G. Schulze, president, read a letter from Santa himself, saying he would be here at the municipal Christmas tree on Dec. 13 and that he would have treats for all the boys and girls of the community.

As Santa usually needs considerable assistance when he pays his pre-Christmas visit to Artesia, the Rotary president appointed Howard Williams, Charles Bullock and Ralph G. Roberson, Jr., to look into the matter and make all local arrangements.

Oil Allowable Is Set At All-Time High in State for December

New Mexico's daily oil production allowable was set Tuesday at an all-time high of 117,200 barrels for December.

The record figure was 100 barrels more than the previous top, set in May, 1939, and 700 barrels above the allowable for November.

Booming market demand, inspired by national defense and lease-lend, was given credit for the upswing.

The state oil conservation commission also approved a permanent proration order for the Eddy County fields, establishing them on the same basis as those of Lea County. It gave permanent effect to a status previously set up by emergency order.

Bids Accepted By Schools in Annual Classic

Have Among Best Records in State — Game Will Be on Morris Field at 2 O'clock on Friday, December 5.

Complete statistics about the Jal and Deming teams will be published in next week's issue, including season records, players, weights, positions and the like. Because final selection of one team was not made until Sunday, requests for statistics could not be answered in time for publication today, although both schools have complied.

Jal and Deming High Schools have been selected and invited to meet on Morris Field Friday afternoon, Dec. 5, in the third annual Gateway Bowl Game and officials of both schools have been accepted. So it will be Panthers against Wildcats!

The selections by the board of directors of the Gateway Bowl Association are believed to promise a splendid game, as the records of the two schools for the season are among the best in the state.

Jal has a perfect record in the state and Deming has lost only one game this year, that the first game of the season to Carlsbad by one point. However, after that defeat, the Wildcats really became wild and completed the season without another blemish on an otherwise perfect record. (continued on last page, column 2)

Must Register By Jan. 1 Sales On Installment

The Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas this week reminded business heads of the requirements of regulation "W," under which firms making installment sales of articles must register before Jan. 1 in order to extend their present licenses.

The regulations require that all persons engaged in the business of making installment sales of articles listed in the supplement to the regulation, of making loans in amounts of $1,500 or less, or installment loans in any amount secured by articles listed in the supplement and of discounting or purchasing, or lending on the security of, installment obligations arising from transactions described to register by the first of the year. Registration is accomplished by filing out form FR-563 and filing it with the Federal Reserve Bank of the district in which the registrant's main office is located.

WILL BE RESERVED BETWEEN THIRTIES

For the convenience of local people who will not be able to arrive at the Gateway Bowl Game until game time on Friday afternoon, Dec. 5, and wish to be assured of good seats and for persons in other communities who face the same problem, the association has set aside 600 seats between the two thirty-yard lines.

The tickets had not arrived this morning, but are expected by the end of the week, when they will go on sale locally in the First National Bank.

The general tickets, printed by The Advocate, are on sale under the direction of L. B. Feather. The reserved tickets, because each has to show the section, row and seat, had to be done by a specialty house, which is rushing them to Artesia.

GATEWAY BOWL AGAIN

Why, we wonder, should we tax our alleged mind to write the editorial indicated by the approach of the Gateway Bowl Game, when our admirable contemporary, The Current-Argus, in our sister city, Carlsbad, so aptly sells the idea to the people there?

Here and there, in the editorial, by substituting Artesia for Carlsbad, we have a great sales talk applicable to Artesia people.

Says The Current-Argus:

"The time is rapidly rolling around when a couple of the state's best high school football teams will meet at Morris Field in Artesia for the annual Gateway Bowl Game—the only present means by which the state's best in the way of prep gridgers may be chosen.

"And once again, about half of Carlsbad's ardent football fans will journey to the nearby city to take in the game.

"While the Artesia game is strictly a sports affair, and perhaps should not concern the business and professional circles of any city, we feel that it is more than just an athletic event.

"While Carlsbad and the rest of the state sat around squabbling over whether or not there should be an annual prep school play-off, a group of farseeing Artesia men took the bull by the horns and formed the Gateway Bowl Association.

"They issued invitations and prepared for the game even when it appeared for a while that nobody would come to their party but Artesia—things were that rough over the state.

"But wholehearted approval of the affair on the part of fans soon cut down the opposition and today the Gateway Bowl Game ranks as one of the major sports events of the state. Furthermore, it ranks as one of the best business boons Artesia has invented in a long time.

"We will continue to support the Gateway Bowl Game in every way possible, and we hope our fast-moving neighbors to the north ere too many years get to see an Artesia team in the host role as the Gateway crowd gathers.

"But whether they do or not, they have done a fine thing for the football of the state, and an even finer thing for the city of Artesia itself.

"Just to clear the record for the next statement, we do not want the Gateway Bowl Game in Carlsbad, and we shall not attempt ever to take it away from our neighbors.

"But the fact remains that there is no reason why Carlsbad shouldn't have had the idea, the action and the event just as much as Artesia.

"Except that, by grace of a little quick thinking and a fast downtown backfield, the Gateway City simply beat us to the punch.

"Which should be a lesson to us in the future not to sit around and let the world—and a lot of good ideas—go by the boards.

"And, while we're on the subject, let's make plans to take the biggest crowd in years up to the Gateway Bowl Game this year.

"Artesia's success is Eddy County's success and any county success should mean a great deal to Carlsbad—the county seat."

YOU CAN'T FOOL THESE YOUNGSTERS

Betty and Don Gibson, Artesia youngsters, already have written to Santa Claus, thus showing that they believe in giving the old fellow plenty of time in which to fill orders. Perhaps they have heard of priorities.

At any rate, the letters reached The Advocate office the day after Thanksgiving, heralding the opening of the pre-Christmas period.

And the postal employees knew how to reach Santa, for the letters from the Gibson children were dropped in The Advocate's box, thus assuring that they would be forwarded to the North Pole, workshop headquarters of Saint Nick.

The letters and subsequent ones addressed to Santa will be published in this newspaper, starting Dec. 11.

TAKE IT EITHER WAY

Headline in last week's Advocate: "Major Loren Neeley Has Legion Barbecue Practically in Pot."

Which has raised the question from several quarters just what was meant by that last word, if the editor was referring to himself.

In case you likewise wonder about it, you'd better be there tonight. So will Pot.

GUESS IT TELLS IT ALL

"Rams Defeated by Artesia Bulldogs 13-7," headlined The Portales Tribune last week, in regard to the football game the week prior. And then, in the middle of a strip of white space down the outside column, was: "This is the story Wallace Leach wrote and Billie Ruthe lost, but it's all in the headlines. Need more be said?"

COLEMAN, TEX., SOLVES WITNESSES PROBLEM

News story in The Fort Worth Star-Telegram under a Coleman, Tex., dateline:

"Six defendants charged with illegally distributing literature in the city of Coleman, and all allegedly members of Jehovah's Witnesses, were found guilty by a jury in county court here Monday.

"Three were fined $50 and costs and three were fined $5 and costs, each. All six of the cases were tried at the same time and all had been appealed from city court."

We do not know under what law or ordinance the fines were imposed, but whatever they are, we hope the Artesia city dads will look into it, so we can be spared the humiliation of periodically seeing un-American literature being distributed on the streets of this city under the guise of religion.

WONDER HOW THEY WERE FELINE!

The week's worst pun, from a headline in The Fort Worth Star-Telegram: "Four Men Don't Feel Up to Purr After Eating Cat."

Sands of Time

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO

(From The Advocate Files for Nov. 25, 1926)

Construction work on the first of the paving program started this week. With the guttering and curbing crew now at work at the end of Roselawn, rapid progress is expected until this street is completed.

The work of marking out the new state highway to the oil fields in Lea County was completed this week, so that travel over the road is possible now.

The Artesia High School football eleven displayed the best brand of football seen on the local field for several games Friday, when the husky Roswell team was outplayed and held scoreless for three quarters of the annual clash between the two teams. At that time the game was forfeited to Artesia, when Roswell expressed its desire to call its team from the field in respect to Miss Marie Ingalls, a member of the Roswell senior class, who was killed in a terrible automobile accident on the way to the game. Both schools were willing to end the contest for this reason, but under the rules Artesia was given a single point.

Walter Graham, who is traveling for a clothing company, returned the last of the week from a trip to Colorado and is spending a week at home.

Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Brainard are spending today in Roswell with their son, Guy Reed, and attending the Thanksgiving football game at the Military Institute.

The Artesia Rotary Club members enjoyed a very enjoyable evening Monday, when the Rotary Ann's were invited to participate in a banquet.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Richards returned Sunday from a hunting trip in the Guadalupe, but they didn't bag any game.

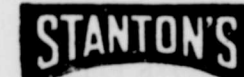

A number of New Mexico members of the American Legion are planning already on attending the 1927 annual convention next September, which will be held in Paris, France.

Francisco Gomez, 23, was smothered to death last night, when cotton seed in the gin at Otis caved in on him while asleep.

Two mayors cheaper than one—and the town's troubles vanish. When opposing candidates came out even in the election, both took office without pay and kept right on Mayoring when their term was up to save election expenses. Read of this simple way of curing municipal headaches, as told in The American Weekly, the magazine distributed with next week's Los Angeles Examiner. 48-11x

Civic Club Like Old Masterpiece Remains Perennially Young

A well-founded organization, like a painted masterpiece, may be old in years, but it is perennially young, even though the members as a whole may be growing older, A. L. Bert declared at the weekly meeting of the Artesia Rotary Club Tuesday noon, when he spoke on "Are We Growing Old?"

And the older the members and the longer they have served, he said, as in the case of the club, the better versed they are in avoiding the pitfalls which as younger men they might encounter, while the young members in-still new ideas to be weighed by the more experienced.

The three-minute autobiography of the week was given by Charles Gaskins.

It was decided by the club to have the annual Christmas meeting and exchange of gifts on Tuesday, Dec. 16.

MARRIAGE LICENSE ISSUED

A marriage license was issued at the county clerk's office in Roswell Tuesday to Lewis Bradford and Grace Murphy, both of Artesia.

Peccaries, or wild pigs, are staging a comeback in protected areas of Arizona, New Mexico and Texas.

WORLD NEWS
—in—
BRIEF FORM

From Near and Far, Some Timely, Some of Human Interest

At Fort Lauderdale, Fla., it was a bad day for Mail Carrier John F. Coleman, who reported: "At 800 S. W. Fourth Street a dog ran out and broke the skin above my left ankle. Iodine applied. At relay box on Northwest Broward and Seventh Avenue while making a collection, a scorpion bit my middle finger. Iodine applied. But I am still shaking from nearly stepping on a rattlesnake at 526 N. W. Sixth Avenue at end of steps under mailbox."

Flood waters swirled around the home of Stacy Moore, 55, former Haskell County, Oklahoma, sheriff, but he spurned rescuers who dutifully rowed out three times. "If the house goes down, I'll go with it," Moore shouted. The reason: In Moore's attic were ninety White Leghorn chickens which he admittedly didn't want to leave alone for fear someone would steal them.

Dominic Girado, 23-year-old WPA worker of Trinidad, Colo., says he is better than any man who boasts he chews nails and spits rust. Girado spat from his mouth a bullet fired from a rifle—and lived to tell about it. While hunting near Trinidad, Girado said, a stray bullet struck the base of his neck from behind, narrowly missing the spinal cord and the brain. Continuing its course, the bullet ripped into his mouth, its force spent. Girado calmly spat out the bullet—and most of his teeth. Physicians said his condition was "fair" and that he would live unless infection developed.

Thornhill, 27, of Paducah, Ky., brought to the U. S. marshal's office on a charge of failing to report an address change to his Selective Service board, explained he had been in jail. "Are you opposed to fighting in a war?" he was asked. "I used to be," he said, "but I ain't no more. I read a history book while I was in jail. Now I'm willin' to fight."

Janet Farrell, a sophomore at Mundelein College, just didn't know the Army when she sent a cake she had baked in her home economics class to one special soldier at Scott Field, Belleville, Ill. Not one—but twenty-five glowing tributes came back in the mail. "Judging from the sample, I wish to say that you are, no doubt one of the really few good cooks in the world today," one post card said. "The whole barracks is in a pleasant uproar of appreciative comment," reported another. "There are no words in Webster's dictionary to say thank you the way I wish I could. A fond admirer of your baking," said a third. The special soldier also wrote, saying he liked his piece, too.

"They called me Tarzan," a husky six-foot longshoreman told Magistrate Jenkin Hockett when he and two acquaintances appeared in night court after New York police had broken up a fist fight among them. "I don't like to be called Tarzan. I want to be called by my right name." "What is your name?" inquired the magistrate. "Harold Holmberg." "From now on stop calling him Tarzan," the court admonished the two acquaintances. "Call him Harold." He suspended sentence on the trio.

An Indianola, Miss., cafe owner who sells coffee for an Indian-head penny as an advertising stunt is facing a problem. A local garage owner who made a hobby of saving such coins is offering them to coffee drinkers at three for a nickel. He collected more than 2,000 of the coppers, which are gradually going out of circulation.

"I've lost a foot," said John Hunt at Philadelphia police headquarters. The desk sergeant looked him over and asked if it hurt. "It's a mummy's foot, 3,000 years old," said Hunt. "My father brought it from Egypt. It dropped out of my brief case."

Delegates to a convention at Winter Haven, Fla., didn't want to be without proof when they boasted of their fishing prowess upon their return home. One of them caught an eleven-pound bass. One by one, twenty others borrowed the prize catch to have pictures made showing them holding it aloft.

Such is Hollywood! Veronica Lake, the torrid glamour miss, rose to quick stardom without a screen kiss—except a peck at Ray Milland. So the studio decided to take steps. She's got a triple-header osculatory interlude with Robert Preston in "This Gun for Hire." You wouldn't believe it, but the publicity artists report

Veronica was trembling after the kiss—nine of em, in fact. Ordered to repeat for close-ups, she exclaimed "What, again!" "Of course," coaxed Preston. "Why do you suppose I took this part? I'm giving this day's salary to charity."

The caterer for a luncheon, in rooms of Russian art which Dr. Christian Brinton donated to the Philadelphia museum, forgot a container for the cherry jam. But, thanks to an enterprising waitress, all was well—until she passed the jam to Dr. Brinton. "That bowl," he choked, "it's a priceless piece of the collection!" Despite an oil boom and lots of money in its vaults, the Johnsville (Ill.) State Bank had to close. A new oil field usually means good business for everybody, but nobody wants to borrow money in Johnsville any more, and the bank had no income to meet its own expenses. At Little Rock, Ark., a modest slightly-bald man shuffled up to Lieutenant Commander Gene Tunney, former heavyweight champion. "Do you know this fellow?" asked Sports Editor Ben Epstein of The Arkansas Gazette. Tunney looked at the man for a moment. "Yes, I do. I fought you in Jersey City—in December of 1919—I knocked you out in the second round—your name is—Pierce, Bob Pierce." The former boxer, now an electrician, grinned: "That's right, Gene, I was the first man you ever knocked out." They hadn't seen each other since their fight twenty-two years ago.

DEFENSE BOND QUIZ

Q. When will the "drive" to sell Defense Savings Bonds begin?

A. There will be no "drive." Many people think of the defense savings program as like the Liberty Loan campaigns of the first World War, which were conducted for stated periods to raise specific quotas. The defense savings program is a long-range, continuing effort to stimulate the public to buy more and more Defense Bonds and Stamps month by month, and is essentially a program to promote mass saving, as well as to provide money for defense.

Q. Are the Defense Savings Stamps sold at retail stores exchangeable for Defense Savings Bonds?

A. Yes. They are the same as stamps on sale at postoffices and elsewhere.

Q. Who said: "I only regret that I have but one life to lose for my country"?

A. Nathan Hale, who gave his life for America, like great numbers of our fellow countrymen. We are only asked to lend our dollars for Defense Bonds and Stamps to defend the liberty for which they died.

Q. Where I work there is no payroll allotment plan for the buying of Defense Savings Bonds and Stamps. How can I get one started?

A. This depends on your position, and the kind of organization in which you are employed. Generally speaking, your immediate superior would be the proper person to receive your suggestion that you would like to have a voluntary pay-roll allotment plan introduced. The firm's bank can supply information about such a plan.

To buy Defense Bonds and Stamps, go to the nearest postoffice, bank, or savings and loan association; or write to the Treasurer of the United States, Washington, D. C. Also stamps now are on sale at retail stores.

Scientist for More Shake-ups In New Mexico

Dr. Stuart Northrup of the University of New Mexico is a strong advocate of more—but not bigger—New Mexico earthquakes.

"More frequent shocks are good," he said. "We believe many shocks in a fault region prevent one big quake."

"The seat of trouble is slight adjustments in blocks of rocks below the Rio Grande Valley floor, not volcanic activity and not movements in the mountains," he explained recently to the New Mexico Association for Advancement of Science.

New Mexico's earthquake region is centered in the Rio Grande Valley between Albuquerque and Socorro, said Dr. Northrup, who is recognized as a local authority.

He pointed out that the state had suffered more than 200 earthquakes, with the first one recorded in 1868.

"In general the Rio Grande Valley has a considerable amount of activity below the surface," he said, pointing out the concentration is usually between Albuquerque and Socorro.

The worst quakes were reported in Socorro in 1904 and 1906 with Silver City getting a good shake-up in 1938. Albuquerque felt slight tremors in 1932.

Driving Tests—

(continued from page 1) tions for drivers to consider before taking the tests, the answers to which will be revealed by the various devices, some of which simulate actual driving conditions. She asked:

"When you see a car coming, do you actually know how far away it is, how fast it is coming and where you will meet it?"

"After you pass car lights at night, do you know how long it is before you can see again?"

"How steady are you when put in a tight place driving?"

"In meeting or passing another car, do you see one or more?"

"Should you walk on the right or left side of the highway?"

"Everyone's eyes and nerves are different. Do you know what your handicaps are?"

Everyone from 16 years old up may take the test, Mrs. Stuart said. And, she added, "If Dr. James and Mr. Martin are going to all the expense to come to Artesia and to bring the college's equipment without cost, why shouldn't we turn out 100 per cent to show our appreciation—not to mention the personal satisfaction each one of us will derive in learning our driving weaknesses and limitations, if any."

Remittances may be made to Mrs. Morgan, or to Mrs. G. C. Kinder, secretary, or to Mrs. Raymond Bartlett, Mrs. Grady Booker, Mrs. Reed Brainard, Mrs. Roger Durand, W. E. Kerr or Miss Kitty Flint, members.

While the chief occupation in Europe today seems to be the taking of lives, the American Tuberculosis Association is striving to save lives.

But, Mrs. Morgan pointed out, tuberculosis and wars go hand in hand, as it has been demonstrated in the past, so the need for ample funds in the fight against the disease is certain soon to be greater than in the past.

Mrs. Morgan also stressed the point that Christmas seals, which cost a penny each, will not carry mail, but that mail will carry the seals.

Bank Deposits—

(continued from page 1) this year and much remains to be picked. Other farmers have thousands of dollars worth of cotton which has not been sold as yet. It is figured the deposits may total $2,200,000.

Bank deposits in Artesia first reached a million dollars in the oil boom days of 1925-26, when there were two banks here, after which that total was not attained again until 1936 at any time. However, the peak period of a total subsequent year has shown a total surpassing that figure.

Bank records show there has been a steady gain in the peak deposits each year since 1936, with the exception of 1938, when it fell slightly below the 1937 figure.

Yearly peaks the last six years: Dec. 7, 1936, $1,098,562; Dec. 2, 1937, $1,452,657; Dec. 19, 1938, $1,441,326; Nov. 24, 1939, $1,626,705; Nov. 22, 1940, $1,821,162; Nov. 24, 1941, $2,069,986.

Miss Catherine Filbert, daughter of Mrs. G. C. Kinder, who is a supervisor at Providence Hospital in El Paso, arrived Monday for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Kinder and her grandmother, Mrs. Nancy Eipper, and a sister, Mrs. O. L. Lusk, and children.

What to Serve When Entertaining Friends

One of the best ways to get more out of life is to enjoy everyday things to the full.

One woman, who realized this, looked about for an idea to entertain her friends, that could be based on something she could afford, and that they would enjoy. Her pies—that was the very thing—swankily served with coffee. And as coffee comes from Latin America, she decided to invite her friends to "Good Neighbor Parties," sewing parties in the afternoon for the groups working for the Red Cross, and bridge or games for the men and women friends invited for the evening.

Her pie and coffee tables became famous. Usually she served two kinds of pie—the big old fashioned kind—rich juicy apple, or thick custard pies cut in wedges in the traditional manner; sometimes fruit or chiffon pies or tarts, or one of the delicious Latin American "Tortas."

They were served with importance, buffet style, on a table covered with a filet cloth—a flower and candle bowl in the middle—the pies, plates and silver at one end—the coffee service opposite. Here is one of her most popular pies:

A Good Neighbor Torta

Line a buttered pie plate with cream cheese pastry. Make a lemon-apple filling, transfer to the pie plate, cover with criss-cross strips of pastry and bake in a hot oven, 400 degrees F.

Lemon-Apple Filling

Mix the grated rind of a lemon with 2 tablespoons lemon juice, 1 cup sugar, 2 egg yolks, a few grains salt, 1 tablespoon melted butter and 2 tablespoons flour. Add 1/4 cup hot water and 2 cups pared and grated tart apple. Then fold in the two egg whites whipped stiff.

Mr. and Mrs. Lum Richards, Sr., and their daughter, Mrs. Charlie Eagleton, and Mr. Eagleton, of Socorro visited the first of this week with their son, Lum, Jr., and family, and Mr. Richards' brother, Joe, who has been critically ill for several weeks.

Delbert Martin of Artesia, who had a big toe shot off in a recent accident, was dismissed from a Carlsbad hospital Tuesday morning.

Artesia Women First and Third In Can Contest

First and third places in Eddy County in a canning contest sponsored by a jar manufacturer were won by Artesia women and second place went to an Otis woman, it was announced by Miss Rosamond Deen, home management supervisor for the Farm Security Administration.

Mrs. Joe E. Rust of Artesia won first prize, which is two dozen wide-mouth Mason quart jars. Her exhibit consisted of a quart each of chicken, carrots and tomato preserves.

Mrs. Deward H. Glaze of Otis won second prize of a dozen Kerr wide-mouth Mason quart jars. Her exhibit consisted of a quart of beef, a quart of okra and a quart of plums.

Mrs. James Earl Reno of Artesia won third place, with a prize of a dozen wide-mouth Mason pint jars on an exhibit of a quart each of cherries, sausage and carrots.

Mrs. Rust's exhibit was sent to Las Cruces to be judged in the State FSA canning contest.

Miss Phyllis White, county home demonstration agent and Mrs. Emma Briscoe, a former home economics teacher of Alamogordo, were judges for the county contest.

Mrs. R. E. Warren of Artesia is recuperating in a Carlsbad hospital after undergoing a major operation.

Mrs. Louie Burch of Artesia was admitted to a Carlsbad hospital Wednesday for medical treatment.

Mrs. W. P. George returned last Thursday from Oklahoma City, Okla., where she had been visiting relatives for two weeks.

Pix Rhapsody

Jon Hall, appearing opposite Dorothy Lamour in Paramount's Technicolor island romance, "Aloma of the South Seas," which opens Sunday at the Ocotillo Theater, is a movie producer's dream come true. For not only does he possess the bronze, well-built physique demanded of the part he plays as the native prince, but he likewise swims like a fish and was actually brought up in the South Seas!

But the story behind the paracled actor reads like a Hollywood movie. A few years ago, Jon's distinguished cousin, James Norman Hall, co-authored the famous South Sea tale, "The Hurricanes." When Jon and his family read the original manuscript, they all agreed that it would make great material for a film, especially, said Jon's mother, if her son could play "Terangi."

The rest of the story is history. Jon won the role—and fame over night.

Since then, his career has included other "miracles"—like marrying the famous Frances Langford, owning the Florida orange grove which he has always dreamed of and achieving motion picture stardom in his own right.

Re-united with Dorothy Lamour for the first time since their record-breaking performance in "The Hurricane," which marked Jon's first appearance on the screen, critics hail his new romantic island adventure, "Aloma of the South Seas," as the most spectacular and outstanding in his career.

Wouldn't it help national economy and speed up armament progress if sword swallowers could be persuaded to go on a diet of used razor blades?

What the Boys Write Home Through The Advocate

Hq. & Hq. Sq. 23rd Air Base Group (R), Elmendorf Field, Anchorage Alaska
November 12, 1941

To The Advocate:

I am a little late in complying with your request for letters from the boys in the Army, but I am glad to have the opportunity to do so.

I have been in the Air Corps a little over two years and during that time have completed a course in radio operating and repair. For the last six months I have been carrying on the work of a radio operator in Alaska. Most of the work consists of air to ground and is very interesting, especially in this part of the country, where we run into many problems that occur in radio operating. If you are wondering about the weather up here, we have had two snow storms so far this season and the coldest night we have had was six degrees below zero.

We have league and squadron competition in all winter sports. Due to the fact that this is a new base and still under construction, that is about all the recreation that we have. We have at present a new U.S.O. building and Service Club under construction.

I wish to express my gratitude to The Advocate and members of other organizations that made it possible for the boys in the armed forces to receive the news from home, through their home town paper.

Yours truly,

Defense Board Says to Repair Farm Machinery

Every usable farm machine must be put in shape or kept in top condition if agriculture is to do its part in the 1942 farm defense program, Frank Beeman, chairman of the Eddy County USDA defense board, warned this week. The 1942 farm defense goals call for the highest total production of farm crops, milk, eggs and meat products on record, he said.

With the manufacture of new machinery and equipment in 1942 sharply curtailed because of defense demands on supplies of steel, copper and other metals, farmers will have to depend more upon existing machinery, Beeman explained. In addition to the scarcity of new equipment, farmers may find available farm labor limited in 1942.

Pointing out that the machinery now on farms was used this year to produce one of the largest crops on record, Beeman said that the bulk of this same machinery can be put into shape to make the 1942 crops.

In order to do this farmers should check all farm machinery and order any needed parts immediately, he said. Early orders offer the best assurance that farmers will obtain parts. Enough steel and other metals will be made available to manufacturers to meet the indicated needs for replacements.

Yet surveys show that nine out of ten houses are improperly lighted for safe seeing. And it's so unnecessary! Good light—and plenty of it—can be had for a few cents a night.

News Briefs of the "Sunshine State" Gleaned from Many Sources

Gallup will be the subject of a traveling, which will be filmed in that area next spring.

One of the cadets at a recent football game in Roswell kept praying for the Broncos to score two more touchdowns. "Just two more touchdowns," he kept crying, "just two more touchdowns. I gave fifty points and took the Institute," he explained to spectators. Finally the two touchdowns were scored. Turning to the cadet next to him the youth said: "Now, pay me that nickel you owe me."

The State Highway Department has ordered materials for the construction of eight washed-out bridges in Northeast New Mexico, Engineer Burton Dwyre said. He estimated the total cost would be about $75,000. At least some of the work is to be done by the department's special bridge crew, now working in Hidalgo County. The bridges to be replaced include seven on U. S. 64 and State 18 in Union County and one on State 39 in Harding County.

Out of ninety-six men interviewed by officials of the Remington Arms Company at Las Vegas, Albuquerque and Las Cruces three days recently, thirty-four were accepted for employment in the new arms plant at Denver, J. C. Mitchell, director of the New Mexico Employment Service, said.

The Roswell station on Continental Airlines was awarded the company's sales trophy for the largest increase in travel during the month of October of any station on the system. The trophy is a handsome silver model of a Lockheed plane, of the type used by Continental Airlines. The Roswell station showed an increase in travel in October of 31.52 per cent.

Steve Vidal, state administrator for the sale of Defense Savings Bonds, reported New Mexico rates forty-seventh in states for the amount of bonds sold and urged greater effort in the campaign. Nevada was the only state which sold fewer bonds than New Mexico in state rankings announced as of Oct. 1, when New Mexico's total sales amounted to $856,000. The sale of Defense Savings Stamps, speeding up since the opening of schools, amounted to $38,000 on Oct. 1 with $14,000 additional since that date, Vidal said.

Several families in Guadalupe County have as much as 2,000 cans of fruit and vegetables on their shelves at the start of winter, five or six times as much as usual.

Sierra comes near leading all of the divisions in the matter of old-age pensions during the month of October. More than eighty families drew down $1,573.10.

Curry County farmers are getting ready to plant considerable acreage of safflower as a cash crop for next year. Supplies oil protein cattle feed.

Paul A. Roach is directing a movement to place a suitable monument on the grave of Frank Worden, former land commissioner, at Hillsboro. It will be a granite horse with an empty saddle. Roach is land commissioner at Las Cruces.

The potato crop in the Melrose field, most of which is in South Quay County, this year covered 500 acres, producing from 100 to 160 sacks to the acre. No. 1 spuds brought the farmers $1.60 to $1.75 per sack.

Pinto bean growing affects more people in New Mexico than any other crop.

The "heaviest deer" contest for 1941 remains unsettled, although a couple of 280-pounders are reported. Elliott Barker, game warden, doubts whether any deer ever has been killed that weighed 300 pounds drawn.

More than 1,000 Navajo Indians worked in the carrot fields at Bluewater this fall. A few strayed over into the Estancia fields where the labor problem was most acute.

Relief Wings, Inc., devoted to humanitarian air service both in peace time and emergencies, was organized for New Mexico by Ruth Nichols, national director.

They are growing large this year, meaning the wild turkeys. A Taos man who doesn't want his name used for fear it will hurt his reputation, brought in a fat gobbler that weighed 32½ pounds. At the prevailing prices, that figures up to $9.75 on the hoof.

Burton G. Dwyre, state highway boss, will open bids soon on the thirteen miles on Highway 85 between Rowe and San Jose. That is a federal "must" road. When it is done it will finish the "high speed" road between Las Vegas and Santa Fe.

Harry S. Bowman, chief of manpower of the Selective Service at Santa Fe, is in Washington for several weeks intensive training, which would seem to indicate that a boom is coming on training enlistments shortly after the first of the year. He will be missed, of course, but the Selective Service will go right on selecting, the next or December roll being among the largest yet called.

The Rotary Club commemorated the arrival of Cabeza de Vaca Wednesday night of last week at Alamogordo with a "venison barbecue." Tom Charles, boss of the roundup, still refuses to answer fool questions about where the deer came from.

Abstracts of titles on more than 500 pieces of property in the city of Hobbs on which there are sewer assessment delinquencies are being prepared preparatory to foreclosure suits involving about $12,000, it was announced by the city attorneys. The city council recently asked that suits be brought to determine the legality of the ordinance under which the assessments are authorized, after many property holders refused to pay. The assessments were levied for maintenance of the sewer system in addition to an ad valorem tax to retire the bonds issued for the construction of the system.

Worrying about electricity apparently runs in the Carter family. Nancy Carter, daughter of State Public Service Commission Chairman G. S. Carter, wrote her father from Ward-Belmont School in Tennessee: "We can only have eighty watts in our rooms, and have to cut out a lot of social activity because the school electricity bill has to be cut down to 52 per cent, or the electricity will be entirely cut off." Tennessee is one of several states which have ordered curtailment of electricity use to provide additional power for national defense needs.

Driving licenses of juveniles who violate city or state traffic regulations in Albuquerque will be suspended, Mrs. Lou Garcia, probation officer, said. "We will do our part in cutting down accidents and aiding state police in their safety drives," Mrs. Garcia said. In the past, juvenile traffic offenders have been let off with warnings.

The federal government will cut New Mexico in for a share of $485,897.54 from mineral leases in the state this year. State Treasurer Rex French said the remittance would be the largest made to the state under the federal mineral leasing act, comparing with $388,689.11 last year, the previous high mark. Potash leases account for $71,057.11 and other mineral developments, chiefly oil, for $414,840.43. The state free text fund receives $272,500 of this year's amount. The rest goes to the state general fund.

A spirited race between two determined hunters and a fleet jack-rabbit resulted in a miraculous escape from death. The hunters, S. B. Skidmore and Paul Cooper of Albuquerque, were in pursuit of the rabbit when Cooper leaped from his station on the running-board and shouted, "Stop the car." "But I didn't have time to stop the car," related Skidmore, "so I jumped." Wreckers were attempting to remove the car from the bed of the Rio Grande, into which it plunged from the top of a 200-foot bank, several miles north of the city.

The New Mexico Masonic Grand Lodge has turned over a $100 check to the state library commission to help finance loan libraries in defense centers. The commission already has sent a 350-volume collection to the Albuquerque Air Base and it is working on a like project for the Fort Wingate ordnance depot.

New Mexico's Selective Service set-up, headed by Adj. Gen. R. C. Charlton, won new praise from federal headquarters. Major James T. Coatsworth, field representative from Washington, inspected state headquarters and reported it operating smoothly. "They are doing fine in New Mexico," he said, adding the state had handled its problem especially well.

The Sandia Mountain game refuge east of Albuquerque was opened for a four-day special deer season Nov. 27-30. Riflemen were to be given permits to shoot 200 deer, originally reserved for bow and arrow hunters. State Game Warden Elliott Barker announced the clean-up hunt after a special nine-day archery season in the area had resulted in only two kills.

A hitch-hiking prisoner who'd just escaped from a street gang in Iola, Kan., was exulting in his good luck in catching another ride—until his benefactors introduced themselves. One was Police Chief Harry Gardner, the other Sheriff Beatty Ray—just out for a spin. They gave him a ride—twenty miles back to jail.

Mr. and Mrs. William Miller were away when their home caught fire in Athens, Ga., but the telephone turned in the alarm. Switchboard operator Alma Patrick saw the light flash on her board. She heard a crackling noise over the wire and called the fire department.

Firemen saved the home. Flames had burned the wall behind the telephone and the instrument had fallen to the floor, knocking the receiver from the hook.

Hearing sirens in Philadelphia, Aaron Gold slowed down his car and shouted to a passerby: "Where's the fire?" In answer, firemen from three squad cars, a hook and ladder wagon and the insurance patrol swarmed around his automobile. A cigarette Gold thought he had successfully tossed out had landed in the back seat, igniting upholstery. Pedestrians pulled two alarms.

Successful experiments have been made with the use of pectin in treatment of wounds.

Motor Division Says It'll Be Old Tags for New

Automobile license plates for 1941 must be turned in by owners when they apply for their 1942 plates, which will go on sale Jan. 1, the motor vehicle division announced.

Or, as an Associated Press story put it, "New Mexicans won't be able to use their discarded license plates to patch the doghouse roof."

The old licenses are to be turned over to the Office of Civilian Supply for conversion into scrap iron. The method of handling them, however, has not been worked out yet. The sale date of the new plates, which will be black on white, will be about a month later than usual, because of the difficulty in obtaining new recording machinery for certificates. The deadline will be March 1.

The motor vehicle division warned that all recent purchasers of used cars should obtain title-transfer certificates from their dealers.

Without such certificates, it will be impossible for owners to get 1942 license plates, said Alfonso C. De Baca, chief clerk.

Finds It Takes Longer to Boil In New Mexico

What it says on the can about how long to cook things may be all wrong in New Mexico, says Grace Spoelstra, instructor of household arts at New Mexico Highlands University.

In a series of research experiments her students found what many a housewife in New Mexico long has suspected, that the boiling point of water at New Mexico altitudes is so low that everything has to cook longer at those lower temperatures, in order to be cooked at all.

"At such altitudes," says Miss Spoelstra, "the air pressure per square inch is lower. That means that steam begins to pass off quicker because there is less pressure on the fluid in the cooking vessel. In other words, things boil at lower temperatures. And the longer it takes to get the food cooked."

"Manufacturers aren't intentionally wrong on can labels. They just don't have special label recipes for the highlands."

The experiments showed that cooking of jellies, for example, takes from one and a half to three times as long, with a consequent greater use of fuel.

Gateway Bowl—

Raton, which went through the season unbeaten and untied in state play, received the original outstate bid for the clash, after a telegram to the Gateway Bowl Association from E. E. Harrison, superintendent, and news stories under Raton datelines indicated the upstate team was anxious to play here this year.

The school indicated, however, that acceptance of a bid would depend on approval of the North Central Scholastic Association, which evidently did not give its consent for Raton to play.

Harrison wired the school's regrets Saturday, after it was believed the contenders for the game had been settled. The selection of Raton and Jal was made at a meeting of the association board Friday evening, when season records up to and including Thanksgiving games were studied.

Deming was chosen at another meeting on Sunday. School officials were contacted by telephone and immediate acceptance of the bid was made. J. L. Burke, Jal superintendent, gave his approval of the selection, but regretted that Raton, which turned down a similar bid two years ago to play against, Jal, again would not be matched against the Lea County team.

In 1939, when Raton declined to compete, Silver City met the Jal Panthers, who won 19 to 6.

Hobbs High School defeated Clayton last season 23 to 7 in the second annual Gateway Bowl Game.

Although two other teams besides Raton and Jal are unbeaten in state play, Fort Sumner and Menaul of Albuquerque, members of the association board felt that Deming's tough ten-game schedule, marred only by a one-point defeat by the Carlsbad Cavemen, made it a more formidable foe for Jal than would the others. As it is an invitational affair—not a state play-off—the decision rested with the local group.

Deming ended the season last week by swamping Hurley 40 to 0. During the entire season, the Wildcats amassed a total of 360 points to thirty-three for their opponents. Jal, the team bidden to represent Southeast New Mexico, beat Eunice, Monument, Lovington, Artesia, Hobbs and Carlsbad in state play. It was the only school to beat Lovington.

Hollis Watson, president of the Gateway Bowl Association, said the game will start promptly at 2 o'clock. A parade is planned for an hour earlier, with the Jal and Artesia school bands, the latter representing Deming, both marching. The general public is invited to take part in the parade and floats will be welcome.

Although there are more committees to be appointed, Watson announced those which were named at the meeting Friday.

They include: Officials, Dr. L. R. Clarke, Fred Cole and C. D. Marshall; grounds and general seating, P. V. Morris and Floyd Springer; reserved section, Guy (Whitely) Roberts; ticket sales, L. B. Feather; public address system, Jim Ferguson; city decorations, Hugh Kiddy; parade, Calvin Dunn; police, "Tiny" Davis and State Guard members; playing equipment, the Rev. Henry S. Stout; publicity, A. L. Bert.

1911. While attending the college he was a member of the Aggies football team, during which time it did not lose a game, he said.

After graduation he worked for the Reclamation Service at Elephant Butte before going to the West Coast, where he is in the automobile business.

On his visit to Artesia, Campbell was taken about the city and into the country by S. W. Gilbert, one of the earliest settlers and probably the best posted man in North Eddy County on property over the years. Only two landmarks did Campbell remember, the Presbyterian Church, which was built in 1904, and the old J. R. Blair house.

Campbell was amazed at the modern little city and marvelled at the high school plant and Morris Field, saying the latter is the finest stadium of its kind he ever has seen.

Messick, who is on a tour of the West with his companion, not only performs on bells, but lectures about them. At the meeting Wednesday, he played several numbers, including "The Bells of St. Mary's," which the Lions enjoyed greatly.

Robert Ripley has said of Messick that he is the only bell ringer, who can play a complete song without laying down or picking up his bells.

Bernard Johnson gave a talk covering the minutes of past Lions International conventions.

Horace Smith was introduced as a new member. His classification is wholesale petroleum products.

Artesia Bulldogs Bow to Lovington In Season Closer

Lea County Team Wins 28 to 6 There on Thursday of Last Week

The Artesia Bulldogs completed the disastrous 1941 grid season at Lovington Thanksgiving Day, when the Wildcats romped on the local lads 28 to 6, for the eighth Artesia loss out of ten games played.

The sole Artesia score came early in the second quarter, when R. D. Wright, end, snagged a pass from Le Roy Harmon, fullback, and crossed the goal line standing. Harmon's try for extra point failed. Lovington scored on the last play of the opening quarter and Artesia reciprocated shortly after the kick-off as the second quarter opened.

The Wildcats again scored once in the second quarter and twice in the final period.

The Bulldogs, as the season is reviewed, had a bad start, losing the first six games.

However, the second, against the Hobbs Eagles, was a heart-breaker, the visitors running up a win by the safety route, the only points scored in the clash.

In the season opener, the Bulldogs went to Roswell, where the Coyotes won 26 to 7.

At Roswell two weeks later, the Colts of New Mexico Military Institute dealt Artesia another one, winning 37 to 7. The next week the Clovis Wildcats won 13 to 0 over the Bulldogs.

Jal, now invited to represent Southeast New Mexico in the Gateway Bowl Game here Dec. 5, dealt the Bulldogs their fifth straight loss, playing on Morris Field, where the visitors won 16 to 13 in another heart-breaking game.

The sixth straight was at the hands of Tucumcari, also in Artesia, with the upstate team taking the long end of a 6-to-0 score.

The Albuquerque Indians were the first to go down under the charges of Coach Buster Riddle, when Artesia won 13 to 6 in the Duke City.

The Bulldogs came back the next week, defeating Portales 13 to 7 on the Rams' field.

Carlsbad, in the traditional game between the two Eddy County teams, took another game from the Bulldogs here Nov. 14, with a score of 6 to 0. The Bulldogs fought through a close game on equal terms with the visiting Cavemen, but the breaks were against them, as they were about to score as the final whistle blew.

The Lovington game completed the season, a tough one for the Bulldogs, who seemed to be laboring under a jinx in several of the clashes.

Sports fans here feel that the Riddlemen had a better year, as far as real playing was concerned, than the scores show.

Pior Building—

However, firemen had the blaze under control exactly ten minutes after the fire siren sounded and they stopped throwing water from the pressure hoses five minutes after that, although a small hose was used for some time in extinguishing glowing embers.

Evidently a small blaze was overlooked under the roof, where it smoldered more than two hours, then burst into flame over a considerable area. Two watchmen were on duty, but they noticed no indication that there still was a fire prior to that time.

Although the fire was confined to the vulcanizing rooms, all other parts of the Pior plant were damaged somewhat by heat and smoke.

The west portion burned was built in 1923 and was opened as the original Pior store and service station in May of that year. The other room damaged most was added in 1927.

Used as the present office and a stockroom is a building erected in 1938, facing on Main Street. The latest addition just had been built, a recapping plant facing on Fifth Street and behind the other buildings. It and the office were damaged by smoke.

None of the new stock was damaged by heat, nor did any burn. Aside from being smoked, it is in perfect condition, Pior said.

About twenty-five used and recapped tires in the vulcanizing rooms were lost and the vulcanizing equipment was damaged somewhat.

No insurance was carried on either the building added in 1938 or the new recapping plant, but there was insurance on the portion of the building to which the fire was confined. The smoke and heat loss in the uninsured rooms must be underwritten by the Pior Rubber Company.

The Rev. Constantino Gonzales, pastor of the Mexican Methodist Church, announced this week members of the congregation are starting plans for a Christmas program.

Oil Activity—

thirty-three minutes after the shot showed the flow still going skyward to that height.

The well was drilled between two dry holes about a half mile apart and was decided on after J. B. Headley, Roswell engineer and geologist, had made a thorough microscopic check of samples and recommended the location. His findings having been proven, Morton & Elder now are moving a quarter mile east to drill the Root No. 3. Should it prove a commercial well also, the operators believe they will have proved that the pay from the Hightower well extends in a narrow formation through the No. 2 and to the west.

When they drilled the Root No. 1 to 4,000 feet, the operators struck a thick oil formation, but it did not produce. The No. 2 went through about 100 feet of pay.

While the Root No. 2 was the only completion in the Eddy County fields, four new locations were made. They were: Olen Featherstone, Brooks 1-A, NE SW 25-17-27; Sanders Bros., Etz 1, NW SE 34-16-30; Bassett & Birney, State 7-B, NW SE 11-18-29; V. S. Welch, State 1, NE NE 36-16-30.

Mrs. C. C. Dannenbaum, Mrs. J. Clark Bruce, Mrs. Bob Fulton and Mrs. A. L. Bert were in El Paso Monday and Tuesday, going in the Dannenbaum car.
