City Planning

ARTESIA CITIZENS have discussed at some length at public meetings; over the air; over the coffee cup; in civic clubs; and in the homes, the matter of city planning.

They have urged and advocated that some definite steps be taken to insure proper planning; proper building; adequate zoning and other things, which are considered essential today.

No city, of course, can tear down what it has and start over, even though in many instances it may appear that is the wise thing to do. No city can begin all over and do the things, which have been neglected.

Those, who laid out the communities or the villages, which have grown into towns and cities, didn't know anything about city planning. They didn't need city planning in those days. It didn't matter whether the streets were wide enough; whether alleys were provided for; whether school sites and city parks were established. The things were not needed then.

The need has developed since then. They were not too much concerned about water lines; sewer lines; disposal plants; electric facilities; gas mains—they were not concerned because they were not needed in those days.

But times have changed. Conditions have changed. Needs have changed.

And although we may not be able to go back and do over what was done many years ago, we can certainly do those things, which need to be done now in every addition and extension we make to our city. We can provide for wide streets; for alleys; for water, gas, and sewer line extensions. We can lay out parks and school sites. We can provide for certain types of construction. We can protect the man, who invests a large sum in a home and protect his property.

And all cities and communities today need a planning committee. They need a body of individuals chosen and selected by the citizens from the citizenship in the community to discuss what the city needs to place first needs first; to secure the approval of the citizens and the taxpayers and to do those things, which need to be done.

In most instances these projects will cost money and this money will have to be provided and provided by the taxpayers. All of the things, which need to be done, can not be done at first. They would have to be planned and outlined and the projects carried on over a period of time.

But now we do things as the need appears. There is no system to what we do; there is no particular planning; there is no arranging. Yet the fact remains there are many things, which are never done.

But if we had a planning committee, which worked at the job, we could plan our projects; we could place first things first; we could do these things in order and over a period of time we would get the job done.

Today we hardly know whether to start and certainly we never know where to quit.

We believe it is time that Artesia set up its planning committee and adopt a definite system in its public projects and in its expansion program.—O.E.P.

Les Trois Mousquetaires

THE FAMOUS TRIO created by Dumas Pere, whose adventures and escapades were "all for one, and one for all," remind one of Los Trois Voleurs of Artesia, the American Legion, the Veterans of Foreign Wars, and the Disabled American Veterans, who have truly united "all for one, and one for all."

One cannot think of the Three Musketeers without thinking of the fourth Dumas character, D'Artagnan, for whom the trio fought. D'Artagnan, in this case, is the disabled veteran, as well as the widow and orphan of those who were in the armed forces and either died heroes' deaths, or since have passed on.

Locally Aramis, the DAV; Athos, the VFW, and Porthos, the Legion, have gone all-out in co-operation for their general cause. In order to do this they have formed the United Veterans Club of Artesia, which gives them something concrete, from which to begin.

That club in common, operated from a building owned by them all, makes them strong, so that they lend each other aid in their fights, whereas three single swords might be ineffective.

But with "all for one, and one for all" operating, the trio of veterans' organizations will go far. Each will become stronger and more skilled as time goes on. And the three as a unit, standing back to back, and with their swords flashing, can and will meet and beat many a challenge.

Although the disabled veteran and legislation for his assistance is always one of the primary objects of all of the groups, what the public sees at this time is their efforts to complete their home. And as a vehicle by means of which this can be accomplished they are sponsoring "Preparedness for Peace," the first annual observation of VJ-Day, to be a communitywide celebration at Artesia Thursday, Aug. 14.

On that day the United Veterans Club hopes to provide lots of fun and excitement for the people of this area. But they likewise hope to raise a sizeable sum, to be applied towards the completion of the building.

And in that respect, the veterans believe "the Lord helps them who help themselves," as demonstrated Sunday, when a number of them turned out to give a day's manual labor on the new building. That and subsequent workdays are planned in order that the Veterans' Memorial Building may be far enough along on VJ-Day that the public can use it.

As it now stands, only the main hall could be used, and that for a dance. But in addition, the vets hope to have an indoor carnival in the evening. So they are helping themselves, hoping that the citizens of the community will also help them on VJ-Day, without them having to depend upon the Lord.

So it is that Les Trois Mousquetaires have joined forces for a common cause. And in so doing they will help build a better veterans' understanding, a better community, and a better spirit of co-operation in many things.

The members are those same fellows for whom we thought nothing was too good several years ago. The least we can do now is to wish them godspeed and to give them every assistance in their endeavors, the immediate one of which is the VJ-Day "Preparedness for Peace" celebration.—A.L.B.

From The Pen Of A Youth

UP IN CHAVES COUNTY there is a contest going on, to last several weeks, in which the boys and girls of the community write essays on the subject, "Why I Want a Memorial Youth Center."

It seems the boys and girls up there are clamoring for about the same thing the Artesia youngsters have been seeking, a 'teen-age canteen. We came out recently for a combined YMCA-YWCA, which would serve not only the boys and girls, but adults as well.

And we stay by our guns on that score. But we to think the idea embodied in the essay contest at Roswell is a good one, whether it stresses a memorial youth center, a 'teen-age canteen, or a "Y."

And just by way of demonstrating that the young people have ideas of their own, here is the winning essay in the first week's contest, written by Claude Payne, Jr.:

"I want a Memorial Youth Center because the young people of this county need a place to go for recreation, dances, and get-togethers without a charge for it.

"We, as young people now, will some day be the voters and officeholders of Chaves County, and if we had a decent place for recreation and not run around so much, would make better citizens of county, state and country.

"I also want a Memorial Youth Center because if Chaves County sets an example, other nearby counties might do so and thus better their youth."

We agree with young Payne, who has said considerable in less than the allotted 100 words.

We believe he has embodied in his essay the very reasons why most of us want to see a memorial youth center, a 'teen-age canteen, or a "Y" in Artesia.—A.L.B.

Workers Needed

THERE PERHAPS isn't a business in Artesia that doesn't need some good workers—some individuals willing to devote their full time and attention to their jobs and willing to give $1 worth for a dollar's pay.

Slowly but surely the situation is changing. There are those now seeking jobs and yet encountering difficulty in finding them.

It is not because there are no jobs but rather it is because of our indifference to our work and our desire to go along as we did during the war.

Employers took most anything and put up with anything then. They can manage to get along now and they are not willing to pay high salaries and not get production.

It is perfectly true, of course, it costs to live. Living costs are far too high. And those working must have pay that is considerably above what they were receiving before the war.

But employers are not objecting to paying for work if they can get the work done. They are objecting, however, to paying and then not getting production.

One of these days before too long we are all going to have to settle back down to something near normal. And now would be a good time for us to start.

Workers and those seeking and wanting jobs are going to have to do the best job they know how to do; place their work and job first; put out a day's work for a day's pay and remember they can't be getting off for every occasion, which comes along.

We feel sure the average employer is perfectly willing to pay a fair salary but he wants a fair job done.

And we are all going to be just a little better off when we realize this; when we get back down to earth; and when we get living costs back to something like normal.—O.E.P.

It's cheaper to cut green weeds during the summer than to wait for them to burn next winter with resultant loss of property.

The four service clubs are working together; the three veterans' organizations are working together. Too bad some other organizations all falling in the same category cannot work together also.

All Americans know that whether the Democrats or the Republicans win the next election that the war debts must be paid.

As Artesia Grows

TWENTY YEARS AGO
(From The Advocate Files for July 28, 1927)

J. C. (Coke) Floore had been recommended for the Carnegie Medal after the killing of a wildcat in the backyard of his home. The cat, a former pet of the Sweet Shop, had strayed too far.

The confessions of Roy De Autremont and his official statement, which started appearing in June issues, still consumed five and a half full columns of the newspaper.

The Joyce Fruit Company had shipped about 100 head of cattle to market from Lakewood.

Dwight Lee and his wife had come up from Lakewood on Saturday evening and spent Sunday with home folks.

An eight-pound girl, Hattie Ruth, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cole July 23.

A windstorm had demolished a haybarn on the G. R. Brainerd farm. Fifteen Mexicans who were inside the barn escaped injury except for getting soaked by a heavy downpour of rain which accompanied the wind.

TEN YEARS AGO
(From The Advocate Files for July 29, 1937)

The shoes advertised by a local merchant as "flattering fall footwear" should have carried a guarantee for fallen arches and bunions from the looks of them. Those sharp toes and long lasts are uncomfortable just to look at.

Among those who renewed subscriptions to The Advocate 10 years ago were Ed Conner, W. C. Gray, E. A. Hannah, William Lineil, J. D. Jackson, I. C. Keller, and J. R. Attebery.

W. E. Rood of Gilbert, Ariz., had just arrived in Hope to take over the publishing of The Pensacola Valley News.

D. I. Clowe, J. S. Ward, and Leslie Martin were making plans to attend a district Rotary conference to be held in Silver City.

Betty Bruce, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Clark Bruce, then Artesia residents, and Niven Baird, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Baird, had both celebrated their seventh birthdays during the last week.

Employment Up In Eddy County, Rutz Reports

Employment has increased in Eddy County during the last 60 days, causing a substantial decrease in the number of job seekers, according to Howard J. Rutz, manager of the New Mexico State Employment Service in Eddy County, who said that his office placed 152 persons, of whom 33 were placed by the Artesia office, during the month of June, compared with 83 placed in May.

A corresponding decrease in claims for unemployment compensation and servicemen's readjustment allowances was also noted in June, he said.

At the present time the majority of job seekers are unskilled workers, laborers, farm hands, and sales and clerical workers. Very few skilled workers are unemployed, Rutz said.

On file at present are orders for bookkeepers, a collector, a male stenographer, sales clerks, electricians, maids, a tractor operator with bulldozer experience, and section laborers.

Many persons who are registered with the New Mexico State Employment Service are well qualified and need employment, Rutz pointed out, and requested that employers who are seeking qualified persons call the NMSES and place an order. The Artesia office is in the Ward Building.

Four-Ring Horse Show Is To Be Presented This Year At State Fair

A four-ring horse show will be presented at this year's New Mexico State Fair, opening Sept. 28. Entries in the four-division show will contest for $4525 in cash prizes, championship ribbons, and the coveted trophies offered by the major horse breeder associations of the West.

Horse show judging begins Monday morning, Sept. 29, with entries in the annual New Mexico show of the American Quarter Horse Breeders Association going through their paces, to be followed Monday afternoon by the first show in New Mexico under auspices of the recently organized National Quarter Horse Breeders Association.

There are 10 classes in each of the quarter horse shows, with $650 in awards in each show. Each association will provide its own approved judges and horses will show under the rules of the respective organizations.

The New Mexico Palomino Exhibitors Association will stage its annual Palomino show Tuesday morning, Sept. 30, with 11 classes each for stoke type and pleasure type Palominos, contending for total cash awards of $1950, championship ribbons, and the annual trophy offered by the New Mexico Palomino group. The Palomino show is under auspices of the Palomino Horse Breeders Association of America.

Sharp rivalry exists between the long established American Quarter Horse Association and the recently organized National Quarter Horse Association. The American registry was formed 10 years ago under the leadership of a group of prominent Southwestern quarter horse breeders. Albert K. Mitchell, well-known New Mexico cattle grower, is president of the American. The National Association was organized in Texas two years ago. It announced recently that its registrations had passed 5000.

Tuesday afternoon the fourth division of the horse show will be judged. In this group are classes for thoroughbreds, American saddle-breds, Tennessee walking horses, and Arabians, with $240 in premiums offered for each of these breeds.

The first cutting horse contest to be held at a New Mexico State Fair will be a feature of this year's horse show. A number of famous Southwestern cutting horses have been entered. The contest is a popular one with quarter horse fanciers and cattle folks. Another new feature will be a quarter horse reining contest.

Six special performance contests are scheduled for Palominos, with $65 in awards for each event. There are special performance classes also for five-gaited class, three-gaited class, girls' riding class, boys' riding class and boys' and girls' riding class. A light harness class is expected to fill, chiefly from members of the Albuquerque riding and driving club, although the event is open to the world.

The fair management is providing additional stable space for this year's horse show as entries are expected to be double those of last year, when a new entry record was set.

Postoperative weaknesses and shock which generally follows major operations may be considerably lessened by use of Vitamin C an hour before surgery, say reliable medical authorities.

Static tests of the new Navy rocket, Neptune, may be made late this summer, officials at the White Sands Proving Ground report. Actual firing is not anticipated before next year. The new rocket is expected to reach 235 miles of altitude, and attain a speed of 8500 feet per second at a height of 38 miles.

Cotton Improvement Application Deadline Has Been Set Aug. 15

Deadline date for filing cotton improvement applications for free classification and market news service on this year's crop is AUG. 15, New Mexico farmers are being reminded.

The latest count shows the majority of the groups already have filed applications, but home have not, William B. Lanham, manager of the Western area cotton branch, U.S. Department of Agriculture's Production and Marketing Administration, Bakersfield, Calif., said.

Free classification and market news service is provided under the Smith-Doxey Act for organized groups which meet certain requirements. Application blanks may be obtained from county agricultural agents, the cotton branch office at 517 U.S. Court-house, El Paso, or at his office, 212 Progressive Building, Bakersfield, Lanham explained.

Seven Millions Go Into Bonds First Half Year

New Mexicans invested $7,006,370 in U.S. Savings Bonds during the first half of 1947, Edwin G. Hobbs, state director of the U.S. Savings Bonds Division of the Treasury Department, announced. This total is $411,206.25 greater than the amount so invested in the same period of 1946, when allowance is made for the sales made during the Victory Loan Drive which were credited in the first three days of January 1947, he continued.

"It is encouraging to note that more than 74 per cent of this year's total was placed in Series E Bonds," Hobbs added. "This indicates that the investor of small amounts is not being priced out of his savings plans."

"Continued investments of part of their savings in U.S. Savings Bonds by residents of this state indicate that sound financial judgment is being used. Savings Bonds have a guaranteed redemption value and bring a return of a whole per cent above the average for securities of anywhere near equal safety. Also, payments for durable goods purchased are made largely out of income which is generally higher than before the war."

"It is anticipated that investments in U.S. Savings Bonds during the last half of 1947 will be made at an increased rate in view of the expected high income from agricultural sources."

Daniel P. Ryan, 78-year-old retired railroad boilermaker, reported to Columbus, Ohio, police thieves stole his log cabin, several farm buildings, and furniture. Before a police desk sergeant got a chance to ask Ryan to repeat the losses, Ryan explained somebody had stolen a complete model farm from his garage. He added he spent two years constructing the model farm, which he valued at $500, without use of a single nail.

CASTING FOR TOMORROW

A father teaches his son the thrill of fishing. And one day this son will teach his own son. Thus the world moves on. And whether it be the thrill of fishing, or the art of noble living, one generation teaches the next.
 Many a great lesson of life is learned in such a humble setting as this one. For the foundation of education and growth is the "man to man" fellowship of father and son.
 But Dad's free time is limited—these fishing trips are few and far between. Where else can this boy get the help he needs?
 School and college will provide many of the resources for a successful career. And the Church School will instill the spiritual understanding from which noble living springs.
 Wise is the father who gives the Church opportunity to help mold the life of his son—yes, and his own life as well.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL ...
 ALL FOR THE CHURCH
 The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend and support the church of his choice. They are: (1) For his own sake of his community and nation. (2) For the sake of his children's sake. (3) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church on Sunday and read your Bible daily.

SOCIETY

Officers Of 8-40 Are Installed On Friday Afternoon

Officers of the 8 and 40 were installed at a candlelight service at the home of Mrs. Raymond Bartlett, after a luncheon at Skinn's Drive-In Friday noon.

Mrs. Earl Darst was the installing officer. The new officers and their positions are: Mrs. W. H. Duerholt, president; Mrs. Frank Whitaker, first vice president; Mrs. E. P. Bujac, second vice president; Mrs. Sam Bryant, chaplain; Mrs. Oren Roberts, sergeant-at-arms, and Mrs. Charles Richardson, who was appointed secretary-treasurer.

The 8 and 40 is an honor organization of the American Legion Auxiliary. Its service objective is tuberculosis, juvenile type. The group has sent money to the National Jewish Hospital in Denver during the year. Every child in the hospital has received a birthday card from the chapter and special gifts have been sent on special holidays. The local women have received many letters from the children telling of their appreciation.

Idella Busby And Vernon Layman Are Wed In Roswell

Miss Idella Busby, daughter of Mrs. Alice Busby, became the bride of Vernon Layman in a quiet ceremony performed in Roswell Saturday afternoon. Justice of the Peace Puryear read the single-ring vows.

Dunnams Review Nation's History On Vacation Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Dunnam and daughter, Miss Janie Lou, returned during the week end from a visit to relatives in Alabama, Georgia, Virginia, and Washington, D. C.

Among the points of interest visited by them were the White House of the Confederacy, which Jefferson Davis occupied, at Monticello, old colonial home of Thomas Jefferson, near Charlottesville; Mount Vernon, Washington's home; the Robert E. Lee mansion and the tomb of the Unknown Soldier in Arlington; old Appomattox battleground, and the spot where General Lee surrendered his 9000 bedraggled soldiers to General Grant with 118,000 Union soldiers; the tombs of Generals Lee and Stonewall Jackson and the skeleton of General Lee's famous war horse, Traveller, at Lexington, and the Masonic Memorial Building erected to the memory of General Washington, at Alexandria.

While in Washington, D. C., they visited the capitol and saw the U.S. Senate in session; the Jefferson and Lincoln Memorials and the monument to Washington, and the Pentagon building.

In Kentucky they visited the old mansion of Judge Rowan, at Bardstown, where Stephen Foster, a kinsman, was visiting when he composed "My Old Kentucky Home." They saw the desk on which he wrote it and for which an offer of $25,000 has been refused, and the harpsichord on which Foster first played it. Near Hodgenville, they visited the log cabin in which Abraham Lincoln was born, and where he lived for several years prior to the family's moving to Indiana, and the spring where the Lincolns obtained water.

In Oklahoma, at Claremore, they saw the Will Rogers memorial.

One of the most unusual sights, or one that caused gasps of amazement, was a marker in the cemetery at Lexington, Va., where General Stonewall Jackson is entombed, bearing this inscription: "David McKinney, died 1854, aged about 70 years. Erected by Peter Fleming, his former slave."

Letter Telling Of Dog Poisoning Cannot Be Used Unless Signed

A letter received Tuesday by The Advocate regarding the poisoning of a dog cannot be used, because it is unsigned, other than by "A Dog Lover," which gives this newspaper no idea as to the identity of the writer or the authenticity of the message.

In fact, the editor of The Advocate read the first sentence, "Our dog died yesterday," and then, wondering whose dog it might have been, looked at the signature, "A Dog Lover." No more of the letter was read, for the entire staff was too busy at the moment to bother with anything anonymous.

However, the letter will be held a reasonable length of time for identification. If and when that has been accomplished, it can be published, with the writer's name withheld, if preferred, but not otherwise.

In addition, educational achievement tests are declassified. They cover a variety of subjects including algebra, arithmetic, chemistry, English grammar and composition, geometry, German, Spanish, physics, trigonometry and United States history.

These educational achievement tests are considered valuable mainly as sources of reference for high school and college tests as they were experimental editions and have been only partially validated.

OIL PAINTING ON DISPLAY
A recent painting by Wayne Hornbaker will be placed on exhibit Friday in the window of Peoples Mercantile Company Dry Goods Department. The painting is for sale.

The subject matter of the painting is taken from Cottonwood trees sketched on the Sandia Indian Reservation near Albuquerque, New Mexico.

Mr. Hornbaker has studied art at the University of New Mexico where he earned his bachelor's degree, and at the University of Southern California, where he received the degree of master of arts. He has taught art for five years at the Albuquerque High School.

His paintings have frequently been a part of the National Art-Week Exhibit in Artesia. One of his works is now hanging permanently in the library of Artesia High School. 31-1tp

In Columbia, Mo., a young man applied to Hamilton Holt, supervisor of the Veterans Administration office, for $10,000 in GI insurance and explained it was a new policy, not reinstatement he was asking. "Been in the Army, Bud?" Holt inquired. "Yup, three years." "Mind telling me how you avoided Army high pressure drives during that period," Holt continued. "That was easy; I was the insurance officer," came the reply.

'I give tires rough treatment.'

"The car I drive weighs over 4700 pounds. It should take a large size, 7-00-15 tire. To see just exactly what punishment The Gates Postwar Tire would stand, my Company put on 6-00-16 size. This smaller size naturally means each tire was heavily overloaded.

"I drove the tires over Arizona desert roads—25 days straight—10 hours at a stretch—averaging 50 to 60 miles per hour. Just to look at the tires now, you'd say they're practically good as new."—A. J. Ryan, Veteran Test Fleet Driver.

STILL RACING AGAINST TIME

• Working 'round the clock, telephone equipment manufacturers are delivering more telephones, switchboards, wire, cable and other items than ever before—and they're all being put to use as fast as they come off the assembly lines. Even so, the huge backed-up demand leaves us with nearly 65,000 unfilled orders for service in the seven-state area we serve.

• Providing service to new customers isn't all we expect to do. We want to give every one of our present customers the kind of service he wants. Many people who have been sharing party lines will want individual lines. We'll get going on that job as soon as we get enough equipment installed but it takes time to get caught up after long years of shortages.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Jane Cupper's "Daring" Bathing Suit

The Cuppers showed me some tin-types of their nineteen-ten vacation—picnicking on the beach with beer and pretzels, in bathing suits that made them look like they were dressed in street-wear.

Dee was smothered in a long-sleeved pull-over with knee length shorts, and looking embarrassed—as if he thought Jane's costume of a heavy blouse, two copious skirts, and long black stockings was a little daring.

We laughed a lot at those costumes . . . but come to think of it,

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Jane Cupper's "Daring" Bathing Suit

The Cuppers showed me some tin-types of their nineteen-ten vacation—picnicking on the beach with beer and pretzels, in bathing suits that made them look like they were dressed in street-wear.

Dee was smothered in a long-sleeved pull-over with knee length shorts, and looking embarrassed—as if he thought Jane's costume of a heavy blouse, two copious skirts, and long black stockings was a little daring.

We laughed a lot at those costumes . . . but come to think of it, as Dee says, we'll probably look just as funny twenty years from now, in what we call our "Modern" clothes. Only thing that won't change in the picture is that melon, wholesome glass of beer.

From where I sit, tolerance that lets us wear sensible, decent clothes—to give us sun and air and freedom—will keep that wholesome glass of beer a part of the American tradition.

Joe Marsh

THE LAW SAYS:

YOU MUST BE FINANCIALLY RESPONSIBLE IF YOU OWN OR DRIVE A CAR!

A policy with GENERAL CASUALTY COMPANY of AMERICA Protects Your Right to Drive Because

Under the New Mexico Safety-Responsibility law, you may be required to put up cash or other acceptable security in the amount of $11,000 after an accident involving injury to another person, or damage to his property.

A General of America AUTOMOBILE LIABILITY POLICY IS ACCEPTABLE SECURITY

If you or your automobile become involved in an automobile accident where there is personal injury or death to, or damage to property of another, you may be required to furnish security sufficient to guarantee payment of judgments which may ensue from future accidents.

If the required security is not furnished within 45 days YOUR LICENSE and registration WILL BE SUSPENDED, and even though you were not driving when your car was involved in an accident, if it was driven with your permission, your AUTOMOBILE REGISTRATION WILL BE SUSPENDED.

An automobile liability insurance policy will be considered adequate security.

The best and cheapest way to protect your right to drive is to buy an automobile liability insurance policy before you have an accident.

Forrest Sherman Of Turkey Creek Stricken At Wheel

Forrest L. Sherman, 56, a foreman on the Turkey Creek Ranch, died between 10 and 10:30 o'clock Monday morning on the ranch about 14 miles east of Artesia from a cerebral hemorrhage. It was found Monday afternoon by a coroner's jury in Artesia, with Justice of the Peace J. D. Josey sitting as coroner.

Mr. Sherman was stricken while at the wheel of a pick-up on the ranch, it was related at the inquest by Roy A. Wright, a camp man on the Turkey Creek.

He testified the two were in the pick-up headed for a tank, which he had reported leaking to Mr. Sherman. Suddenly, the witness said, Mr. Sherman said he was sick and was going blind. Then he slumped over the wheel.

Wright said he slid Mr. Sherman to the other side of the seat and took the wheel, holding the sick man up, while he headed to a place where Alvin Payne and Clifton Stark, county road maintenance men, were building cat-campers.

There the three tried to revive Mr. Sherman with water and by artificial respiration. In their testimony they were not certain whether he was dead at that time or not. Mr. Sherman was rushed to Artesia, where a physician pronounced him dead, the coroner's jury was told.

The jury: William Linell, W. C. Thompson, Charles Gaskins, Albert Richards, Glenn Howard, and Cliff Longbottom.

Funeral services for Mr. Sherman were from Ballard Chapel in Roswell at 7 o'clock Wednesday morning by Rev. Ralph Hall of Albuquerque. Burial was in South Park Cemetery in Roswell.

Mr. Sherman is survived by his widow; two sons, Edd and Sam Sherman, Roswell; his mother, Mrs. Joe Sherman, Seminole, Tex.; and three brothers and two sisters, Roger Sherman, Magdalena; and Roy and Bert Sherman, Mrs. B. B. Curry, and Miss Ollie Sherman, all of Seminole.

Forrest L. Sherman was born at Estacato, Tex., Dec. 6, 1890. He was reared at Lubbock, Tex.

Mr. Sherman, who was in the livestock business all his life, moved with his family to Roswell in 1929. He formerly owned and operated a ranch about 15 miles southeast of Roswell, but had been a foreman on the Turkey Creek Ranch since the first of the year.

Something Every-

of places in New Mexico and Texas have been invited to take part. And all are welcome, as are all fiddlers, the committee said.

Already confirmation has been had for about eight blocks of parade, to be staged the morning of V-J Day. But the committee hopes it will be several times that long.

In it will be both the Army band from Tucson and the Artesia municipal band, members of the American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars, and Disabled American Veterans, Boy and Girl Scouts, members of the Eddy County Sheriff's Mounted posse and the Goat Ropers' Club, cowboys and cowgirls, and a number of floats and other vehicles.

M. Sgt. Preston Tripiett and Don Bush, who are in charge of the parade, said some of the civic clubs have promised to enter floats, as have some of the merchants.

But the men are anxious for all organizations and businesses to have floats. They need not be elaborate or cost much to construct, Sergeant Tripiett and Bush said, expressing the hope all will get into the spirit of the day and participate, even if entries include plain, unadorned trucks and other vehicles.

Insofar as possible, they suggested, those that are decorated should follow out the theme of the day, "Preparedness for Peace."

The Chamber of Commerce has offered prizes of $25, $15, and $10 for the three best floats.

The new half-mile race track at the airport is coming along nicely and will be in readiness for "hot-rod" races the afternoon of V-J Day, for which more entries have been received during the last week.

The races will be one of the high spots of the day's entertainment and will be the principal event of the afternoon.

Another new feature of the program will be a chuck wagon, with ranch-style food, to be set up and run by members of the Goat Ropers Club.

One of the principal attractions in the evening will be the big V-J Day dance at the Veterans Memorial Building, with the music furnished by Luke Wills and His Boys, a well-known dance band.

Brown Opposes Planned Universal Military Training

Rather than the proposed universal military training program in the United States, it would be better to concentrate on modern methods and procedures which could be used were the need to come, Rev. Paul L. Brown declared Tuesday noon at the weekly Rotary Club luncheon.

Rev. Brown said he personally opposes the proposition of universal military training on the grounds that he does not believe such a program would be to the best interests of those trained and to society, and that it does not provide adequate protection and defense for the purpose for which it is planned.

The speaker spoke of the present experiment being carried out at Fort Knox, Ky., where a selected 664 young men are being trained under ideal conditions.

But there are 664 officers and men supervising the training of the 664, including 75 officers, three warrant officers, and 482 enlisted men, he said. Were the training to be adjusted to a national scale, with a comparable number of officers and men used to train the draftees, the cost would be six billion dollars a year, Rev. Brown declared.

He said it would be better to spend such money in developing modern weapons, which would be effective if needed.

Certainly, he admitted, the training being done at Fort Knox is ideal, but nevertheless Army life is abnormal and the boys lose the benefits of living at home.

Rev. Brown quoted Secretary of War Patterson and Secretary of State Marshall, a former general, as declaring it would take six months to a year to mobilize an army of young men who already had had military training.

With the ways of warfare being greatly changed and with the development of the atomic bomb, how could such a system be effective when the next war may take only six weeks, he asked.

However, he has told the story of previous trips at meetings of civic clubs and other groups, and he has painted a vivid word picture, backed up with color and black and white photographs which he took. And the pictures in the magazine are no better than those Frost took.

But the magazine story makes the account available to everyone, Frost said, and he advised that as many as possible read and enjoy the account of the wonderland embracing the rivers.

Wayne Hornbaker To Show Recent Painting At Peoples Friday

Wayne Hornbaker will have on display Friday in Peoples Mercantile Company's dry goods department display window one of his recent paintings, with the subject matter taken from Cottonwood trees sketched on the Sandia Indian Reservation near Albuquerque.

Hornbaker is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Hornbaker and attended elementary school here. He studied art at the University of New Mexico, where he earned his bachelor's degree, and at the University of Southern California, where he received the degree of master of arts. He has been teaching an art class the last five years at Albuquerque High School.

One of his works now hangs in the library of the local high school and his paintings have frequently been a part of the "National Art Week" exhibit in Artesia.

Mrs. Blocker To Open Laundromat Here On Monday

The Artesia Laundromat, the newest self-service laundry here, employing the most modern of automatic laundry equipment, will open Monday at 106 South Sixth Street, where Mrs. Beatrice Blocker, owner, has erected from an Army surplus building an L-shaped business place, 70x20 feet, complete in all details.

The business will be operated by Mrs. Harold Crozier.

At the opening Monday, to which the public is invited, a number of prizes are to be given at various hours.

The Laundromat is equipped with Westinghouse Laundromats, automatic units, which do a complete family laundry in half an hour, including washing, rinsing, and damp drying. The equipment is to be serviced by Blocker Electric Shop.

Included in the equipment are 21 of the Laundromat units, two extractors, two driers, and a starch machine, all using soft water.

Among the features of the Laundromat is a playpen for the youngsters, so they may play while their mothers are looking after the family wash.

At that time the Brownies and "fly-ups" will be hostesses to their parents and friends at an informal party. Announcements and complete details of this affair will be made at a later date.

Bruning Is Home After Hijacking In Nebraska

Myron Bruning returned home Sunday night from Nebraska, where he had a harrowing experience last week, in which he was robbed of his automobile and his money.

He related that he was in Lincoln on business and had his car parked in front of a hotel at night. When he started to enter his car, a man stepped up to him and prodded him with a gun, ordering the Artesia man to get in. Bruning said he was directed to drive for a few blocks, when he was ordered to stop. At that place a second man entered the car and Bruning was ordered to drive.

After going about 20 miles the man had him stop, robbed him of his money, put him out, and drove off with his car. They left with Bruning a box containing miscellaneous odds and ends.

Bruning said it was about 30 minutes before he was able to report the hijacking to officers.

During the 20-mile ride, Bruning said, one of the men engaged him in conversation, telling him the two were "hot," that they had a bunch of dope, which they had to transport.

They made no attempt to harm Bruning, he said, but merely informed him they needed a getaway car.

The men told Bruning before they drove away that they would mail him his keys to Artesia. They have not arrived.

The Bruning car is—or was—a 1946 Ford tudor.

Artesia Jewelry Is Selling Out; Owners Plan Store In Cruces

Morris Woods and Ivan Groseclose of the Artesia Jewelry announced this week they must move from their present location at 303 West Main Street and are therefore selling out their stock of merchandise in a close-out sale, except their watches and ladies' watch bands.

The owners have been unable to find another suitable location, but have been successful in locating quarters at Las Cruces, where they plan to open a business in the near future.

accompanied by Mrs. Watson, will return to Artesia for the night. From here they plan to leave Saturday morning on their vacation, which they plan to spend at Ruidoso and Cloudcroft.

Although the monthly luncheon of the Chamber of Commerce is usually held the second Friday of each month, it was moved up a week this month to fit in with Watson's itinerary.

lunch with us." However, Governor Mabry spoke briefly about highways, saying the administration is striving to spread the available road money throughout the state as equitably as possible. He said road costs today are about double what they were in 1939.

He said it is planned to build eight miles of secondary road to serve the farming community southeast of Artesia.

The road will tie on to Highway 83 a short ways west of the Oasis and will run south a mile beyond the Atoka road. Two roads will run from that section to Highway 285, one each through Atoka and at the south end of the north-south segment.

Governor Mabry said he could not say just when this work will be started, but "it should come this fall."

In reply to a question from Fred Cole as to how well the colleges in New Mexico will be able to cope with colleges in the older parts of the nation, some of which are heavily endowed, the governor said that from a maintenance and administrative standpoint, the New Mexico institutions of higher learning are in good shape, but that buildings are a big need.

Governor Mabry said surplus government buildings are being used at the colleges, which solves the problem fairly well.

He pointed out that it has been found the colleges of the state will receive 100 per cent of the amounts allocated for the biennium, whereas in the past it has been found necessary for a cut-back.

Drive Is Planned On Jack Rabbits Sunday Afternoon

For an afternoon of sport and fun, Frank Howard is inviting the general public for a real jack rabbit drive at 2 o'clock Sunday. Assembly for the shooting will be at the cattle guard just north of the Moutray farm on Seven Rivers.

Howard said to "bring your shotguns and .22 rifles out Sunday and we will make it a real round-up."

Conveyance is up to the individual. However, one will find a saddle horse to be more appropriate and will add to the sport of the afternoon, Howard said.

All ages, both men and women, are invited to take in the sport and to see who can bag the largest number of rabbits.

Artesia Junior Team Drops Out In Second Game

The Artesia 20-30 Club's junior baseball team, representing this community in the state tournament at Clovis last week end, was eliminated in the second game, when Tucumcari came out on the long end of a 19-11 score.

The Artesia boys played Tucumcari Friday morning, after being defeated last Thursday night by the Stromberg team of Albuquerque 8-3.

In that game, the Artesia team gave a good account of itself and played a nice brand of baseball. The stronger Stromberg team got only three hits off of Kenneth Foster, who pitched the entire game.

Ray Carpenter, one of the boys' coaches, described the game against Tucumcari Friday as a "wild and woolly feast of errors," in which either team could have won. Dan (Hunter) Booker and Foster pitched.

Carpenter and Floyd Springer, the other coach, said the Artesia boys have no ability, that they played hard and were defeated fairly and squarely. But they were disgusted with the way the tournament was conducted, saying the drawing was poor and the tourney was badly managed.

The tournament was won by the Joe Heaston Motors team of Albuquerque, which defeated the Stromberg team in the final game.

The night prior to the opening of the tournament, the members of the various teams were guests at a banquet, along with their coaches.

Large Air Sign On Kemp Shed To Guide Pilots

Artesia now can be readily identified from the air, with the completion Saturday of a large sign on top of the main lumber storage shed of the Kemp Lumber Company by the Civil Aeronautics Administration.

The city name appears in two places, one in high letters to designate the city and again in a boxed arrow, which points to the Artesia municipal airport. Within the arrow also is the figure, "4," to show the distance in air miles from the sign to the airport.

The boxed arrow is on the south slope of the building's roof, while the large identifying name of the city is on the north slope.

Completing the sign is a long arrow pointing true north, adjacent to which is given the latitude and longitude.

All lettering of the sign is in chrome yellow, outlined in black, which makes it readily seen from a considerable distance or height.

REMODELING ON OLD LAUNDRY BUILDING STARTS

Work of razing the south part of the old laundry building at Fourth and Main Streets is under way this week, in preparation for the erection of a new structure there.

Likewise work started on the front of the building, which is to be remodeled and tied in to the new portion.

Awards To Mark Cub Picnic And Meeting Aug. 8

A large number of awards will be given Friday evening, Aug. 8, when Cub Scouts of the Artesia pack have a midsummer pack meeting in the park east of Morris Field, it was announced by Walter G. Short, cubmaster.

The meeting will start at 6 o'clock, instead of 8 o'clock, as announced last week, and will start off with a picnic lunch. All Cubs and parents attending are to bring their own lunches, but cold drinks and other refreshments will be furnished by the pack committee.

Cubmaster Short said the awards to Cubs will be presented to those having earned them and present, provided their parents are present also. It is contrary to custom to make an award to Cub unless at least one parent is in attendance, he said.

The cubmaster urged all mothers to inform the Cubs in their dens of the picnic luncheon, and especially to inform those who are scheduled to receive awards. He stressed the point because there have been pack activities during the summer months. Regular pack meetings will be resumed with the opening of school.

Local 'Hot-Rod'

The entire power plant and drive assembly is underslung and clears the ground by only the prescribed four inches.

All-in-all "515" is truly a "hot rod," according to a number of Artesia citizens, who saw it race at Roswell Friday. It has been termed by some observers as the fastest racer in this section, and it probably will give a good account of itself at the races here on V-J Day.

LOOK AT THE BIBLE

The Bible is the greatest piece of literature ever written. It is a small book, yet all the libraries in America would not contain all the volumes that have been written about it. It has been the greatest inspiration of the poets, painters, authors, and composers. It has given a peculiar charm to the land whence it came. Its dates, customs, and incidents have been immortalized by their association with it and it has been the occasion of more study, research, and controversy than any other book. Indeed, it has been the dominating influence in our civilization.

In many instances the Bible has been greatly abused. It has suffered from misuse and abuse at the hand of both friend and enemy. Like a two-edged sword it cuts both ways and if not carefully handled may work harm. This is not the fault of the Bible, however, for anything that is capable of great good is likewise capable of doing great harm. One of the reasons for this is that people largely have not been taught how to study it, therefore, do not know how to use and appreciate it. In view of this let us take a brief look at the Bible and observe some of its divisions and purposes.

The major divisions of the Bible are the Old Testament and the New Testament. These titles within themselves suggest to some extent the purpose of each. A testament is a will. The Old Testament is God's will that existed until it was replaced by the new. The principal purpose of the Old Testament for us today is set forth in Romans 15:4, where Paul wrote, "For whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the Scriptures might have hope." The New Testament is the will of God concerning us today.

Each of these contains divisions. The Old Testament contains five books of law, viz., Genesis through Deuteronomy; 12 books of history from Joshua through Esther; five books of poetry from Job through Song of Solomon, and 17 books of prophecy from Isaiah through Malachi.

The divisions of the New Testament are: First, the four biographies of Jesus written by Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John. The book of Acts is history. The next 14 books, from Romans through Jude are letters written to different churches and individuals; and the last, Revelation, is a book of prophecy.

If one will observe these and other divisions of the Bible it will increase his appreciation of it and his ability to use it properly.

Young People of Baptist Church Sponsor Revival

The young people of the First Baptist Church have sponsored this week the "Artesia Youth Revival" which has been well-attended by both young and old alike. Services have been conducted at 7:30 o'clock each evening plus a daily radio program which has been given at 9:30 o'clock each morning on KSPV. The revival series will come to a close with the evening service Sunday. All services are held in the church auditorium, corner Grand and Roselawn.

Members of the youth team leading in this youth revival include three young Southerners who met on the campus of Hardin-Simmons University at Abilene, Tex. They are John Petry, singer from Houston, Tex.; Paul Stephens, young 21-year-old evangelist from Pensacola, Fla., and Gerald Martin, former B-24 navigator and now a student at Southwestern Theological Seminary in Fort Worth, Tex.

Stephens and Petry conduct a weekly radio program, "The Amazing Grace Hour," heard every Friday night on Station KXOX in Sweetwater, Tex.

Young 19-year-old John Petry was soloist with the world-famous Hardin-Simmons Cowboy Band during the last school year. He sang at football games, in chapel programs on several high school and college campuses in Texas and New Mexico, and also for the inauguration ceremonies for Texas' Gov. Beauford Jester. Petry gave up his job as soloist with the Cowboy Band to give more of his time to evangelistic singing.

After the Artesia revival, Stephens and Martin will leave for Midland, Tex., where they will do the preaching at the "Midland Citywide Youth Revival" under the auspices of the First Baptist Church there. Petry will go to Houston, Tex., to take up his duties as educational director at the Broadway Baptist Church. The team will return to their school work next September.

The Roman Catholic Church reveals its current membership in the U.S., Alaska, and Hawaii now totals 25,268,173.

She said she thought the man had been drinking. Ann Bramblett told Dallas police that a man driving a black convertible pulled up beside her as she waited for a bus, drew a water pistol, and emptied it in her face.

For the second time in six months the maternity ward of the Philadelphia General Hospital has been closed to new patients because of an outbreak of diarrhea which already has caused two deaths. The decision to close the ward to new patients came after Dr. Rufus S. Reeves, city director of public health, reported a second infant had died of the disease and gastroenteritis and 13 others have been placed in isolation.

Four-H Cannery Double Output For Family Use

Four-H Club members throughout the nation are making big strides in canning home-grown products for farm family use during the winter months, according to the National Committee on Boys' and Girls' Club Work.

The latest available Extension Service report shows that nearly 17 million jars of vegetables, fruits, meats, soups, and jellies were put up by 4-H canners in 1945, which is more than double the volume canned by members in 1937.

Many members learn how to preserve foods by taking part in the National 4-H Canning Achievement Program, in which merit awards for superior records are offered. Records of the committee show that 1237 counties in 45 states named medal winners in the 1946 program, as compared with 731 counties in 40 states in 1937.

Each state winner receives an educational trip to the 4-H Club Congress in Chicago. Six national winners selected from the state representatives are awarded $200 college scholarships.

This is the 18th consecutive year of the program, which is supervised by the Extension Service.

Last year's state winner in New Mexico was Margaret June Pirtle of Dexter.

County winners were named in Bernalillo, San Juan, Sierra, Socorro, and Union Counties.

Wiring On Farm Needs To Have Competent Care

"Amateur wiring or overloading of electrical equipment may cause a disastrous fire on your farm," County Agent Dallas Rierson said, urging farmers to get competent electricians to make any changes desired for the summer months.

"Most farmers think they are good electricians, but the fact remains that faulty installations and 'handy-man' repairs are causing a constantly growing number of farm fires," the county agent said.

Rierson particularly warned against overloading a circuit with temporary wiring for power tools and other machines. "Don't put in a homemade extension to the barn or other buildings. A faulty installation can easily set your barn on fire," he warned. "Be careful with portable lights, too. Don't let them touch flammable material. Hay or grain dust is particularly explosive.

"If you do have an electrical fire, use an underwriter's approved carbon dioxide or vaporizing liquid fire extinguisher to put it out. Every farmer should have one of these types of extinguishers hanging near electrical installations. Don't use water. Water can conduct the electricity

North America Is Bright Spot In Wheat Crop

The Northern Hemisphere—particularly the North American continent—is the world's bright spot this year so far as wheat production is concerned.

Canada expects to equal or exceed its 1946 crop of 420 million bushels. And the July 10 USDA report from U.S. wheat farmers added together another 25 million bushels to bring the current estimate for this country's bin-bursting 1947 crop to 1,435,551,000 bushels. A combination of record yields and all-time-high acreage, the new estimate is based on actual harvest reports from early winter wheat areas and improved prospects in the Pacific Northwest and the Northern Plains spring wheat area.

But in the remainder of the world prospects for wheat farmers are not so rosy. As reported by the U.S. Department of Agriculture, several other countries will harvest wheat crops larger than their 1946 production. These include Canada, with prospects for equaling or exceeding the 1946 crop of 420 million bushels; into your body with very unpleasant or even fatal results."

Putting pennies in blown-out fuses can also cause a bad fire, Rierson said. "Failing to replace a blown fuse properly is just like tying down the safety valve on a boiler. It's a bad risk."

"The best way to play safe with electricity is to have a responsible electrician inspect all wiring, motors, incubators, and brooders for possible fire hazards, and install any temporary wiring necessary for the growing season."

Valley Cotton To Bear Certified Tags This Fall

For the first time since its development, New Mexico's high-quality cotton will bear certified bale tags this fall, Marvin Hoover, state extension agronomist, announced.

"Previously, New Mexico cotton has been sold unlabeled as to variety, with the result that much other cotton has been palmed off as the product of this state," Hoover said. "By labeling our cotton as such, we will be able to insure good quality to the millers and prevent other varieties from being sold as New Mexico cotton."

Hoover explained that the New Mexico Crop Improvement Association, sponsors of the program, will furnish the tags for this fall's crop. Tags will carry the name, The 1517 Cotton Association, and the name and address of the grower. Every bale of cotton produced in the state will have a different numbered tag.

The "2815" strain of cotton, which is grown only in the Pecos Valley, will bear the same label, as it is a selection from the better-known "1517" strain, Hoover said.

"Any farmer who has planted 100 per cent of his cotton acreage to elite (foundation), registered, or certified seed is eligible to tag his line," Hoover added. "We shall probably certify more than 80,000 acres of New Mexico's 153,000 acres planted to cotton this year. Mississippi, the only state using certification in the past, tagged cotton from 100,000 acres last year."

"This program will probably step up the demand for our cotton to such an extent that it will soon command a premium on the market. As this program progresses, it will ultimately lead to the planting of only one variety of cotton throughout the entire state."

Soil Conservation Work Is Retarded By Government's Stand

"Regardless of the outcome of the Congressional controversy over the agricultural conservation appropriation, much ground will be lost," C. V. Hemphill, chairman of the State PMA Committee, remarked when he received information that the Senate had acted favorably toward the program.

"Because of the uncertainty of funds, many dirt-moving contractors have gone out of business and others have left the state in search of road-building and other construction work," he explained.

"According to reports from Eastern states, the manufacturers of liming materials are converting their plants to other uses. This gives us a pretty good idea of what will happen if the government fails to provide funds to assist farmers and ranchers in the preservation of our soil and water resources."

"Love" is the subject of the lesson-sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, Aug. 3.

The Golden Text is: "Let him that glorieth in this, that he understandeth and knoweth me, that I am the Lord which exercises loving kindness, judgment, and righteousness, in the earth." — (Jeremiah 9:24.)

Among the citations which comprise the lesson-sermon is the following from the Bible. "And we have known and believed the love that God hath to us; and he that dwelleth in God, and God in him." — (I John 4:16.)

The lesson-sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook: "A mortal, corporeal, or finite conception of God cannot embrace the glories of limitless, incorporeal Life and Love." — (Page 258.)

Russia, over 1946 levels but still struggling to overcome wartime handicaps and loss of productive acreage. Australia, with seeded acreage of 15 million acres substantially above recent years, and Argentina, where seeding is proceeding "under favorable conditions."

In Europe, however, this year's wheat crop may be as much as 10 per cent below last year's 1350 million bushel harvest—considerably under the prewar average production of 1670 million bushels. Flooding in the Spanish peninsula, poor spring weather in Balkan nations will keep Europe's need for grain imports high throughout 1947-48.

Total production of wheat in both Asia and Africa is expected to be near the 1946 level, while winter damage has reduced prospects for the Scandinavian countries. Winterkill, excessive spring rains, and floods have curtailed spring acreage and lowered yield prospects in the United Kingdom.

A Statement To Our Customers About Resale PRICES of PRODUCTS
 Built by International Harvester Company

Here at Harvester we are concerned over the fact that a growing number of our products are appearing on the resale market at greatly inflated prices.
 As manufacturers, we try to produce at the lowest possible cost. We cannot set the prices at which our products—tractors, motor trucks, farm implements, refrigeration, and industrial power equipment—are sold. We can and do suggest list prices which the great majority of our dealers adopt as their retail prices.
$20,000,000 Price Reduction
 Our basic price policy was publicly stated in March, 1947, when we announced price reductions at the rate of approximately $20,000,000 per year on our products. At that time, Fowler McCormick, Chairman of the Board, said: "ANY PRICE IS TOO HIGH IF IT CAN BE REDUCED."
 Practically all of our dealers cooperated with this policy and passed on the savings to their customers.
 The objective of the price reductions was to make it possible for customers to buy our products, which they need so badly, at lower prices. Naturally, this purpose is defeated when our products are sold by anybody at inflated prices.
IH Production at All-Time Peak
 Inflated prices are caused by the difference between supply and demand. To increase supply, we now have the greatest number of employees in history on our payrolls—almost 90,000 in the United States, as against about 60,000 prewar. Large new plants are getting into production in Louisville, Evansville, and Melrose Park. A fourth will soon be in operation in Memphis. The men and women now employed are turning out the greatest quantities of IH products of all kinds that we have ever made. These are also the finest products we have ever made, and recognition of that fact is an important contributing factor to the demand for them.

Distribution to Dealers
 But even record-breaking production is not sufficient to give your dealer—and other IH dealers—enough products to meet today's demand. We have tried to make the fairest possible geographical allocation of our products so that every dealer would get a fair share, and we know that dealers, in most cases, have tried earnestly to make the fairest possible distribution to their customers. But we also know that many of our products—far too many—are being resold at inflated prices. The public criticism and resentment of these resales are of real concern to us, as we know they must be to our dealers, because such reactions endanger the good will of both the dealer and the Company in any community.

Distribution to Customers
 Experience shows that many IH new products are being resold by users who decide they can continue to make out with their old equipment after they have had an inflated offer for their new equipment. To eliminate this, many dealers are taking measures to be sure that equipment purchased is for their customers' own use and is not to be resold.
 Nearly all IH dealers, we believe, are now using the basis of PRESENT NEED as their primary guide for the sale of scarce products. The customer whose need is real and urgent is not likely to resell.
What Price Should You Pay?
 While it may take a little more time to get delivery, we urge our customers to consider all of the factors mentioned here, before paying more than the list price for any IH product. Any IH dealer or branch can furnish the suggested list price for any IH product.
 We know that the overwhelming majority of IH dealers are as much opposed to inflated prices as we are. In the public interest, we have already asked their cooperation—and are now asking the cooperation of customers—in correcting this situation.
