HELPING TO BUILD A GREATER ARTESIA

VOLUME FORTY-SIX

ARTESIA, NEW MEXICO, THURSDAY, MARCH 17, 1949

Merchants Plan Monthly Trade Days

Local merchants will stage an Artesia Trade Day the second Wednesday of each month, with the first one to be held Wednesday, March 13, it was announced at a meeting Monday noon of a number of businessmen with members of the Chamber of Commerce.

On each Trade Day, the merchants may offer special sales in items to bring shoppers to Artesia and a number of prizes will be given to persons who have received lucky tickets either on that particular day or on previous days of the prior Trade Day.

Shoppers will be offered special prizes at the participating places of business starting Monday for $1 spent on a purchase or on a gift.

These will be used in connection with the next Trade Day, after which they will be destroyed and the process will start over.

It is planned that there be a ticket box in each participating store for the convenience of shoppers. However, tickets may be dropped in any such box (not necessarily the one in the store where procured, it was pointed out. And they may be deposited at any time up to a deadline for collection, which is yet to be set.

At the meeting Monday, it was brought out that some block in the downtown area, to be designated between now and the initial Trade Day, will be roped off for the convenience of the shoppers who have deposited tickets and at which place the monthly gifts will be given.

Each participating business will have the privilege of giving a prize or prizes on any or all Artesia Trade Days.

The general participating fee has been set at $10 for the majority of businesses, especially those which do a large amount of merchandizing. However, a fee of $5 has been set for such businesses as service stations, cafes, beauty shops and the like.

Luther E. Sharpe, secretary-manager of the Chamber of Commerce, announced the fees will be used for the purchase of the prize tickets and of some of the prizes for newspaper and radio publicity, the printing of handbills and similar expenses.

At the meeting Monday, attended by about 40 representatives of local businesses, a motion by Don Jensen for the promotion of Artesia Trade Days, seconded by Lowe Wickersham, was passed without any dissenting votes.

At the request of J. D. Smith, chamber president, Manager Sharpe, who had been working with the retail merchants' committee on the idea for some time, explained the details as worked out up to that time. In a general discussion many ideas were brought out, some of which were incorporated in the final plans.

At that time 17 businesses were signed, to which number it is hoped to add several dozen Friday, when a committee of about 20 men representing the Chamber of Commerce and the merchants will make a canvass of the business districts.

That committee is to organize and make plans for the canvass at a breakfast in the basement of the Masonic Temple at 7:30 o'clock Friday morning, after which the drive will start.

The retail merchants' committee is composed of C. D. Hopkins, chairman; Clarence Key, Bert Jones, A. C. Sadler, M. G. Schulze, and W. W. Batie.

It has been pointed out that similar trade stimulating days have been sponsored by merchants in many communities with considerable success and some of the Artesia owners and managers have operated in such communities during periods when the same or some other type of trade days were in effect.

It has been found quite successful and tends to keep both home people and dollars at home, merchants said.

Recreation Park To Be Discussed This Afternoon

The matter of a municipal recreation park is to be discussed at a special meeting of the Artesia City Council at 4 o'clock this afternoon, it was announced by Mayor Oren C. Roberts.

He said the city has purchased a 13-acre tract on the east side of North 13th Street about a half mile north of Main Street, immediately north of the Grimlin farm, and plans to develop it for the proposed recreation park and athletic field.

Plans and preparations to that end are to be made at the special meeting this afternoon, the mayor said.

The council has been looking for a suitable place for some weeks and has considered a number of tracts, but the acreage on North 13th has been decided on for the park.

A few weeks ago Mayor Roberts called two mass meetings at which citizens and sports fans were privileged to give their ideas as to location and other matters in regards to a recreation park, but both meetings were poorly attended.

The mayor said at that time he would inform the council for consideration of the wishes of the few who attended the meetings, but that he hardly felt they represented a cross-section of the fans or the citizens.

Assessments for the street improvement program in Artesia, now being advertised, include the cost of the advertising, it was pointed out this week by Mayor Oren C. Roberts.

He said those property owners who have voluntarily gone ahead with paving which has been approved will be required to pay the cost of the paving improvements.

Mayor Roberts said the original plan of paving, curb, and gutter had been changed.

Scout Troop 28 Takes First At Court Of Honor

Boy Scout Troop 28, sponsored by the First Methodist Church of Artesia, won first place among the troops of the Gateway District at the regular Court of Honor held Friday night at the Methodist Church. Boys advancing to second class were Byron Rogers and Jimmie Walker of Troop 28, Jay Mitchell and Wayne Beddingfield of Troop 295 and Earl Plowman of Troop 8.

A first-class badge was awarded to Billy Dean Owens, a Star badge to Victor Gaba of Troop 295 and a Life badge to Leon Darst of Troop 295.

Merit badges were awarded John Green and Charles Waltrip of Troop 28 and Jimmy Yates, Leon Darst, Victor Gaba and Jon Easley of Troop 295.

The Court of Honor was conducted by Vernon Bryan, with Jay Mitchell, J. T. Easley and Ernest Thompson helping.

The boys in the newest Scout troop in the Gateway District were introduced, they are Explorer Post 28.

The opening and closing ceremonies for the Court of Honor were conducted by the Explorer Scouts with Doyle Pounds and Bobby Thorpe taking part.

Central P.T.A. To Assist In Pre-School Clinic

Central School Parent-Teacher Association voted at their regular meeting Wednesday of last week in the school music room to assist Mrs. John Heaton, school nurse, in a clinic for pre-school children to be held in May. A complete physical check-up will be given each child registered at that time.

Mrs. Heaton showed the group an educational film on menstruation, which she will later show junior and senior high school girls.

The association voted to go on record as supporting Sub-Bill 61, which concerns taking county school supervision out of politics. Each member was urged to write State Senator Milton Smith a personal card in support of this bill.

Members added two new by-laws to the constitution to the effect that the first vice president shall be program director and the second vice president shall be membership chairman, and that the P.T.A. shall establish a petty cash fund of $25.

The group elected a nominating committee composed of Mrs. C. Pardue Bunch, Mrs. Clyde Dungan and Mrs. David Saikin. They closed their business session with a vote to subscribe to the "Record of the Month" for grades one through seven.

After the business meeting, Mrs. Clyde Dungan and Mrs. I. L. Suratt presented a program on "Your Child's Music in and out of School." Mrs. Dungan took phases of musical education on children in the first through third grades and Mrs. Spratt on the third through sixth grades.

Mrs. Wallis was a member of the Church of the Nazarene.

The body of Mrs. Wallis left by rail Wednesday night for Pangborn for funeral services and burial, with arrangements made by Paulin Funeral Home.

Mrs. Varner Is Released Under $5000 Bond As Murder Charge Is Lowered To Manslaughter

The charge of first-degree murder against Mrs. Marian Della Varner of Artesia, 22, charged with the death of her 20-month-old daughter, Ramona, here March 3, was lowered to a manslaughter charge Monday in Carlsbad and she was released under $5000 bond.

After District Attorney Randolph Reese had lowered the offense on which Mrs. Varner will be tried in District Court, Don Bush of Artesia, defense counsel, filed a motion for a bill of particulars requesting that the state set out the specific acts or facts which will bring the charge within one of the manslaughter statutes or outside of the excusable statute, or which will prove that any homicide was committed.

Mrs. Varner was arrested the night of March 3 after the death that afternoon of her baby, when the state contended Ramona had come to her death as the result of a beating.

At a preliminary hearing Wednesday of last week before Justice of the Peace J. D. Josey, three physicians testified Ramona might have been suffering from pupura, a condition or disease characterized by livid spots on the skin, caused by a platelet deficiency.

It was brought out at that time in testimony that spots on the child might have been from pupura and that a child suffering from that condition might have come to her death from a slight blow.

The finding of a coroner's jury March 4 was that Ramona came to her death "by reason of cerebral and abdominal hemorrhages resulting from external injuries."

At the conclusion of the preliminary hearing the district attorney asked that Mrs. Varner be bound over on a first-degree murder charge, which, in New Mexico, is mandatory that an accused be held without being subject to bond.

The motion for a bill of particulars filed Monday by Attorney Bush cites the information in which District Attorney Reese "accuses Marian Della Varner of unlawfully killing Ramona Varner contrary to provisions of Section 41-2407 of New Mexico statutes, Annotated, 1941 Compilation."

The motion states further that "under said charge this defendant is entitled to know and be informed which particular offense set forth in Section 41-2407 the state will contend this defendant committed, namely: Voluntary manslaughter or involuntary manslaughter."

"If the state contends the defendant is charged with the offense of voluntary manslaughter, then the state be requested to set forth particulars of the offense sufficiently to enable her to prepare her defense."

"If the district attorney contends that the defendant is charged with involuntary manslaughter, then that the district attorney be required to set forth particulars of the offense charged sufficiently to enable her to properly prepare her defense, in that the state be required to set forth what unlawful act not amounting to a felony it will be contended by the state the defendant was committing at the time of the offense."

Old Licenses Are Taboo, Mulcock Says

Persons who are operating motor vehicles in New Mexico and working in the state, while carrying out-of-state licenses, are subject to arrest and a fine, Deputy Sheriff J. B. (Buster) Mulcock pointed out this week.

He said some 1948 Texas licenses have been observed here, the owners of which hope to wait until April 1 to apply for New Mexico licenses and then to purchase them for only three-quarters of the year. The new licenses are not due until April 1 in Texas, whereas the deadline for them in New Mexico was Feb. 28, Deputy Mulcock said.

Offenders, whether they are from out of the state or are old New Mexico residents still using 1948 tags are subject to a penalty of $1 a day since Feb. 28 plus a fine, he said. And besides, he added, they still have to buy 1949 tags.

City Dads To Clamp Down On Enforcement Of Traffic Lights

Mayor Oren C. Roberts said this week he and other members of the administration and members of the Police Department believe the stop-go traffic lights on Main Street have been installed long enough that Artesia citizens should be getting familiar with them and that steps will be taken soon to enforce the ordinance in regard to their use.

He pointed out that both the administration and police have been somewhat lenient with the traffic laws, especially as to pedestrians, in order to give those who through habit forget about them and sometimes progress against traffic might form a new habit as to the lights.

Now, Mayor Roberts said, he feels the period has been sufficiently long, and he asked the cooperation of both pedestrians and motorists in observing traffic not only at the lights but elsewhere in the city.

He said the city went to considerable expense in installing the lights for the convenience of the public, but for the successful operation of the lights the ordinance and regulations must be observed by both vehicular and pedestrian traffic.

It has been observed that traffic has been speeding up considerably since the lights were put into operation, Mayor Roberts said.

Unless the people co-operate and start observing the regulations in regard to the lights, it will be necessary to instruct Police Chief O. T. Lindsey and members of the department to enforce the traffic laws as written, the mayor added.

He pointed out that pedestrians crossing the street and vehicles in the street may cross an intersection only when the green lights indicate their line of travel is open, except in the case of right turns for vehicles.

Under this exception, a vehicle against which the red light is showing must come to a complete stop, but may then start and make a right turn, provided the pedestrian lane is clear. However, pedestrians in such cases.

The mayor said this does not mean to slow down and then dart around the corner to the right when the red is against a vehicle, but that a stop must be made.

Left turns may be made only when the lights are on the green, the mayor said.

He stressed that drivers have been observing the traffic lights better than pedestrians, who seem to think that if there is no cross traffic coming they may cross. It is tempting to do this, Mayor Roberts admitted, but it is contrary to the ordinance in regard to the lights.

Anton Hnulik, 85, Prominent Local Farmer, Is Dead

A. Hnulik, 85, a native of Bohemia and for many years a prominent farmer of the Central Pecos Valley, died at 1 o'clock Wednesday afternoon in a Carlsbad hospital after a lingering illness.

He is survived by his widow and six children of his eight children by previous marriages, five grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

The living children are Mrs. Hugh W. Kiddy, Mrs. Ned Martin, and Ellis and Richard (Buster) Hnulik of Artesia, Mrs. Cecil Elliott of Las Cruces and Mrs. Byron Yates, Jr., of El Paso.

Anton Hnulik was born June 8, 1863, at Cestine, Bohemia, and came to the United States as a young man at the age of 21 years.

He lived for some time at Oklahoma City, from where he moved to Roswell in 1916 and a year later he moved to Artesia.

'Sports Queen' To Be Selected On Friday At Boys' 'Razzle-Dazzle'

Members of the boys' physical education classes at Artesia High School are to present a "Razzle-Dazzle" entertainment in the school auditorium at 7:30 o'clock Friday night, in connection with which a "Sports Queen" is to be crowned.

Six candidates for the queen have been named, one each by the seventh through the 12th grades, and they are all piling up votes for the honor through coin jars in various Artesia stores, each of which bears the name of the candidate it represents.

The candidates: Seventh grade, Eileen Marshall; eighth, Peggy May; ninth, Shirley Thorpe; 10th, Loreta Wells; 11th, Oneta Johnson; 12th, Betty Brown.

Each penny dropped in a girl's jar counts one vote for her towards becoming the queen.

The funds raised through the contest, as well as the net proceeds from the "Razzle-Dazzle," are to be used to purchase baseball and track equipment for the high school athletic teams.

The entertainment is being staged by Coaches Floyd Davis, Claude (Jiggs) Whittington and J. R. Smith, with each in charge of a portion of the program.

Physical education boys under Coach Davis are to present a combination of spring styles show, in which they will unveil the "new look for women."

Coach Whittington is to be in charge of a "Dr. I. Q." quiz, in which a number of prizes from Artesia merchants will be given. There also will be five door prizes presented at that time.

Assisting on the program will be the school band under the direction of Russell Lewis and the girls' chorus, with Howard O. Miller directing.

Red Cross Drive For Funds Still Is Below Goal

The annual Red Cross campaign for funds is still lagging somewhat, but hopes are held that the goal of $400 will be reached, it was announced this morning by A. P. (Doc) Mahone, chairman of the North Eddy County chapter.

The campaign was launched by Mahone and his workers March 8, with plans to close the annual roll-call within a day or two, but responses in some quarters have not been as good as had been contemplated.

However, Chairman Mahone said, some of the old friends of the Red Cross have been as generous as during the war years, which gives him hope that the goal will be reached within the next few days.

One such friend, he said, is C. J. Dexter of Los Angeles, Calif., who for many years was rollcall chairman here for the Red Cross and who always did a good job. The current chapter chairman said Dexter never forgets the North Eddy County chapter of the Red Cross, and as usual has sent in a sizeable welcome check.

Again the local chairman asked that workers not be asked to call a second time, but that they be ready with their donations when someone calls.

Checks may be mailed to Chairman Mahone.

Scout Troop 295 Wins Basketball Tournament Here

Boy Scout Troop 295 is the champion among local troops after defeating Troop 28 in the finals of a four-troop basketball tournament last Thursday night in the high school gymnasium 17-6.

The consolation honors went to Troop 8, which won 14-13 over Troop 69 in one of the most closely contested games of the tournament.

Troops 295 and 28, the finalists, defeated Troops 69 and 8 respectively in the opening games of the tournament, which were played Tuesday night of last week.

In the championship game, Troop 295 took the lead in the first quarter and held it throughout.

Buddy Hayes led the champion team in scoring, with six points, all from field goals, while Leon Darst and Howard Price were tied for a four-point with four points each. L. Campanella, Hildreth Barker and C. Kidd tied with two points (Continued last page, this section)

Lion Candidates Are Mannequins At Style Show

Twenty-one candidates for the Artesia Lions Club turned out to be the entertainers Tuesday at a ladies' banquet in the basement of the Masonic Temple, when they became mannequins at a style show, and modeled some of the newest creations for women.

It had been announced there would be a style show and that a number of candidates would be inducted, but neither the majority of the club members nor the candidates knew that the new Lions would put on the performance.

The unsuspecting candidates paraded in true model style, wearing new styles furnished by Marie's Dress Shop, to which thanks was expressed for their loan.

Three of the Lions were honored at the banquet for their long service, while 12 received key awards for having obtained two or more (continued last page this section)

Always Reaching Out

IF AMERICANS would show as much energy and as much application in preaching Americanism and in displaying the merits of our form of government as is shown by those, who seek to undermine our government, there would be less Communism and less Communist activities in our nation.

That, of course, is a pretty well-known fact. But as Americans we go along taking it for granted that everything is fine and permit others to do things, which we are firmly convinced is their American right and privilege, even though we know they seek to destroy our way of life.

And those, who seek to destroy America, continue their work and their activities even when we know that the Communist party is not a political party but rather it is an organization formed and operating to destroy America.

They use every means possible in an effort to accomplish their purpose. They employ everything they can possibly use in their efforts. They reach out as far as they dare to reach in their work and in their program of causing discord, misunderstanding, confusion and dissension.

Recently one minister in the state received a letter from the Teachers Union in New York. This letter requested that the minister write a letter to the superintendent in Brooklyn, N. Y., and requested that the superintendent discontinue his investigations and his questioning of one of his faculty members. It urged that the superintendent be requested to halt his inquiries into the life, the beliefs, and the activities of this particular teacher, who has already been given two hearings.

The charges against the teacher is that he has slanted his lessons "pro-Soviet." And the argument is advanced that he is only carrying on the usual discussion of controversial subjects.

Personally we don't believe it is any of our business how the superintendent in Brooklyn runs his schools; how many investigations he makes; and how many hearings he conducts. We believe that is his business and the business of his school board.

And we don't believe that ministers, teachers, or anyone else down in New Mexico should be telling them how to run their schools in New York.

We know, of course, that this letter was not answered. But we do not know how many such letters were received in the state and we do not know how many may have accepted this invitation to write the superintendent in New York and request him to let this teacher alone.

The letter was from the Teachers Union and some may accept it in good faith and believe that they are exercising an American right.

But the fact remains that the investigations are being made into the teachings of lessons slanted "pro-Soviet" and any school board and any superintendent should be probing such teachings.

The fact is that we have been a little too liberal, too free, and too generous in permitting some of the so-called free teaching and preaching in our nation.

It is time that we halt some of the Communist teaching, which is not only being carried on in our schools and colleges, but on the lecture platforms and in other ways.

It is a fine thing to have liberty and freedom, but to grant this to those, who seek to destroy our liberty, is a serious mistake and it is about time that we became serious and take some steps to protect our liberty, our freedom, and our way of life from those, whose only desire is to destroy it.—O.E.P.

Right To Protest

EVERY EMPLOYER, who is paying in unemployment tax under the Social Security program, and who has an employe quit and who then promptly notifies the state office of this fact, has a perfect right to protest and to halt payment of unemployment insurance.

Many do not know this. Many employers fail to file their notice that an employe has left them; they fail to pay attention to the notices, which are mailed to them and as a result oftentimes are unable to secure a reduction in the rate which they are now paying under the present program because of this fact.

There are many instances, of course, where employes are entitled to the unemployment insurance and where they should receive it. There are other cases where unemployment insurance is collected and the former employer has no right to collect these payments.

The program is so set up that the employer can always file his or her protest against these payments. However, there are only some specific cases where they can halt or prevent these payments. One of these is when an employe quits an employer and that employer takes the trouble to file notice that this employe has left their employment.

In such instances they can hold up or halt these payments to the former employe if they were the last employer.

And, as we stated, payments to a former employe can delay the firm earning a reduction in their rate of taxation. And it is the employer, who pays into the unemployment insurance fund—the employe does not pay into this fund. Usually the rate is 2.7 per cent of every dollar paid in wages must be paid in unemployment insurance. The firm can earn over a period of time a reduction in this rate and have it drop down to 1.9 per cent. That is considerable saving to the firms having large payrolls.

And they have their rights—the right to protest the payment of unemployment insurance first because they were the ones, who paid in this fund, and secondly because it does effect their earning of a lower rate if payments are made out of the sums, which they have paid in for unemployment insurance.—O.E.P.

Be Kind To Editors Week

IT WOULD BE INTERESTING to see a compilation of all of the special days and weeks to which the American people are subjected.

A number of them are splendid ideas, but the thing just keeps growing and growing, until there is a week or day set aside for the observation of almost everything, except, perhaps, "Be Good to Editors Week." Mmmm—it might be well to give that one some thought! But to get back to the original trend of "thought."

It came to our attention the other day that we had overlooked one such special observation early in February, "National Sauerkraut and Frankfurter Week." No kiddin', there really was such a week so designated, but whether it was observed anywhere or not, we can't say. Come to think of it, we did have sauerkraut early in February—perhaps during that special week—but we had spareribs, which we prefer in that combination to franks.

Special days or weeks for the Boy and Girl Scouts, 4-H and F.F.A., and a number of others have considerable merit and should be continued. But we fail to see why newspaper editors should be deluged with requests for a lot of free publicity on this or that week or day which has little interest to anyone outside of some industry or selfish group. We don't fall for them, and few editors do, but we still have to waste a lot of time opening envelopes and glancing at the contents of such tripe.

If we ever go a whole week without a single such request for some off-brand day or week, we certainly will feel that at last we have observed "Be Kind to Editors Week."—A.L.B.

Kids Are Thoughtless

KIDS ARE FREQUENTLY THOUGHTLESS about the rights of others, while a few are downright mean. Both groups do considerable damage, but there is a wide gulf between them and the good but thoughtless ones should not be confused with the others.

In the good but thoughtless group are those who cut corners on their bikes or on foot and make it tough for the people who live there to grow lawns, on some of which they spend lots of money.

The others through pure cussedness seem to take a delight in doing damage, trampling down flowers, defacing fences and other property, or in other vandalism. Such ones should be caught and punished.

But we believe by merely pointing out to the good but thoughtless boys and girls that they should respect the rights and property of others they will think twice the next time and take just a few more steps and go around.—A.L.B.

Just A Little Interest

SHORTLY AFTER OR ABOUT JULY 1, Uncle Sam is going to pay over in interest a total of 447 million dollars to the old age reserve fund and to the unemployment insurance fund. Most of us complain rather loudly when we have to pay even a small amount of interest.

But this is interest which the federal government will owe to these two funds for the use of some 19 billion dollars, which the government has been using. This sum is a part of the nation's 250 billion dollar national debt.

There is today some $10,772,000,000 in the old age reserve fund and a total of $8,496,000,000 in the unemployment insurance fund or a total of approximately 19 billion dollars in the two funds. This money has been borrowed by the federal government and interest is paid on this sum.

There, of course, have been many arguments about whether these funds should go into the general treasury to be used but their use results in an increase of 447 million dollars this year and the funds, of course, are needed.

It is the old age and the unemployment insurance funds, which are being counted on to be a cushion in the event we go into another depression.—O.E.P.

Federal Taxes

NEW MEXICO AND NEW MEXICANS paid in to the federal government in all types of federal taxes for 1948 approximately $5,790,821 more than they paid in 1947, it has just been announced.

The federal government collected a total of $56,069,800 in all types of federal taxes during the calendar year of 1948. This compared with $50,278,979 in 1947.

For the fiscal year ending June 30, 1948, the total was $55,320,140 as compared with $48,116,166 for the year ending June 30, 1947, $45,944,588 for the year ending June 30, 1946, and $37,685,763 for the year ending June 30, 1945.

And this sum in federal taxes is actually more by approximately $4,000,000 than the actual revenues of the state from which appropriations for all purposes must be made.

It is worth a little study.—O.E.P.

Too many kind acts that speak for themselves, talk in a whisper.

United States Is Producer Of Third World's Cottonseed

This country, which normally produces more than a third of the world's cottonseed supply, accounted for much more than that in the 1948-49 season.

But North America was not alone in producing more cottonseed. Asia, which is the second largest cotton-producing continent, also visited Mrs. Beal's sister and family in Alamogordo.

R. L. Harrison of Albuquerque was in the community over the week end seeing after oil interests. Recent guests in the E. R. McKinstry home included Mrs. McKinstry's parents from Lubbock and Mr. McKinstry's mother from Hagerman.

George Beal of Alamogordo is a guest of his sons, George Beal II and Sam Beal and their families. Mrs. Jeff Richardson was honored with a birthday party at her home Monday of last week. Miss Duluth Richardson was hostess. A color scheme of blue and yellow was carried out. Refreshments of coffee and cake were served. Mrs. Richardson displayed many lovely gifts to Mmes. Earl Smith, Fanny Bedford, J. D. Peek, Marion Hannah, James Cleven, Ora E. McCann, N. G. Barton, L. D. Richardson, Carl Rothrock, Charles Wier and Ed Jackson.

Two directors of the Artesia Alfalfa Growers Association were elected at the annual meeting Saturday afternoon of members at the Chamber of Commerce rooms. The final count gave the same number of votes to W. Leslie Martin, incumbent and W. R. Hornbaker. Of the votes cast by members present, the count showed a majority of two for Hornbaker over Martin, but the proxies cast during the counting tied the vote. I. R. Reser, president of the association, presided.

A number of houses are being built in Artesia, some of which are nearing completion, as the city continues to grow.

Mr. and Mrs. Ara Green left Sunday for Magdalena, where they spent the night at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Stinnett, before continuing on to Albuquerque to attend the Will Rogers memorial and fiesta.

Baron J. V. Aurimma, perennial funds getter for the Salvation Army, spaghetti cook extraordinary and vocalist unusual, is again will run only about 2 per cent more than a year ago. China is slowly recovering from her small cottonseed output in the middle 1940's.

India's cottonseed production will run a little less than last year. This year's cotton in Pakistan, however, proved considerably larger than they very much reduced output of last year. About three-fourths of the Pakistan cotton crop is grown under irrigation. As new irrigation projects are already under construction and others are being planned, there may be a substantial increase in Pakistan cotton acreage in the next few years.

Considering all Asia, Africa, Europe, South America and North America, about 17 per cent more cottonseed is to be produced in 1948-49 than in the previous season. World cottonseed production now nears the world's average production before the war.

As Artesia Grows

Residents of this section are now enjoying a new mail service on first-class mail inaugurated Sunday by the Sun Set Stage Line, and one that traverses the valley from Roswell to Carlsbad. This service is confined to first-class mail and newspapers.

S. W. Gilbert was elected president of the Artesia Rotary Club at a meeting of the new board of directors last Thursday evening. R. L. Paris was chosen vice president and D. I. Clowe was re-elected secretary.

The concrete work on the basement of the new hotel is practically completed and workmen are pouring the concrete for the first floor.

Mrs. Flaught McCreary, Mrs. Will Foster and Mrs. Charles Dungan assisted in entertaining a number of friends celebrating the birthday of Mrs. Bob Corbin and Mrs. P. V. Morris at a dinner Sunday.

William Dooley, president of the Mesa Oil Company, gave a banquet to the board of directors of the company Sunday at the Majestic Cafe commemorating the birth of St. Patrick, the patron saint of Ireland.

J. S. Sharp, E. A. Hannah and Dr. H. A. Stroup drove up to the Arastia-Sacramento Camp Sunday. On the way home, they encountered a lively snow storm while crossing the divide from Weed to Mayhill.

TEN YEARS AGO
(From The Advocate files for March 16, 1939)

Advantages of the new equalization law, signed last week by Gov. John E. Miles, were outlined briefly Tuesday noon by W. E. Kerr, superintendent of Artesia schools, at the weekly Rotary luncheon. Mr. Kerr said he feels the law is an improvement over the so-called 1935 equalization law, under which Eddy County schools receive far less than their proportionate share of funds, but that only time will tell its true benefits.

demonstrating his varied talents in Artesia.

Miss Dorothy Gilmore, a freshman at Eastern New Mexico Junior College, Portales, was listed as one of the 60 students whose names appeared on the college honor roll.

Mrs. Jim Berry entertained the First Afternoon Bridge Club at her home Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Glenn Booker was hostess at a delightfully appointed dinner Sunday noon, complimenting Mrs. Emery Carper, mother of Mrs. Booker and H. G. Rowley, a brother-in-law of Mrs. Booker.

Every Egg Will Count When Cost Of Feed Is High

A laying flock must produce a lot of eggs these days just to pay for the expensive feed they consume. With feed prices at such a high point and other expenses at parallel levels, each layer will pay her keep only if she utilizes feed efficiently and produces eggs at a high rate.

Now is a good time to take stock of the management program. Perhaps one is forgetting a thing or two—things important enough to have a detrimental effect on the flock's production. A few of the management factors generally considered necessary to encourage high production:

Handle hens gently. Throwing hens off nests or roosts, kicking them out of the way, or any other type of rough handling will disturb production and may even stop it if the hens are injured. When in the henhouse, move slowly and deliberately, without exciting the flock.

Work on a regular feeding schedule. Anything that prevents the flock from getting feed and water at their accustomed time hinders egg production.

Give the birds plenty of fresh, clean water. About two 2½-gallon waterers per 100 birds is right.

There should be one nest to every five hens and each nest should be well filled with clean nesting material to reduce the number of cracked and dirty eggs.

Failure to maintain body weight while laying may mean an untimely molt, so weigh a few of the same birds every week or so, to check the condition of the flock.

Cull continually. It doesn't pay to feed birds that produce at a low rate.

Use good laying stock. A hen laying 250 eggs a year uses about half as much feed per dozen eggs as a hen laying 100 eggs a year.

Dirty eggs spoil more quickly than clean ones and are less attractive to buyers. Keep produce clean and cool.

Use artificial lights in the henhouse to make it possible for the flock to eat more and lay more.

Per-Capita Food Consumption Is Somewhat Lower

Per-capita food consumption in the United States during the 1947-48 period was somewhat lower than for a year earlier, but still 14 per cent above the prewar average.

Most of the decline in food consumption from the previous year was because of a reduction of available supplies of some livestock supplies, according to reports from the U.S. Department of Agriculture. Except for meat, decreases in consumption were apparent because of consumer choices in purchasing power rather than short supplies.

Food consumed in greater quantity in 1947-48 than in the preceding fiscal year were evaporated milk, dried milk, sugar, eggs, margarine, shortening and edible fats and oils. Decrease in consumption compared with 1947 were indicated for wheat, corn products, rice, butter, cheddar milk and cream, meat, peas and sweet potatoes, dry beans and peas, fresh and processed fruits and vegetables, peas and miscellaneous other foods.

Comparisons with 1945-46 indicate increases in average U.S. States civilian consumption of most fats and oils, some manufactured dairy products, sugar, beans and peas, eggs, and processed fruits. On the other hand, less cereal products, meat, fluid milk and potatoes and sweet potatoes, and processed vegetables, peas and miscellaneous other foods were consumed.

In contrast with average per capita consumption (1935-39), per capita consumption in 1947-48 more of type of food except wheat products, rice, butter, shortening, other edible fats and oils, peas and sweet potatoes, sugar, dry edible beans and peas.

J. T. Haile, who recently resigned as manager of the Artesia Safeway Store, assumed duties Monday as manager of the Artesia Batie Food Store, it was announced by W. W. Batie, owner. Haile, an experienced grocery clerk and manager, will have complete charge of the store, Batie said. The new manager immediately started putting into effect a number of changes in the store, although Batie said the general store policies will remain as heretofore.

Officer Blackwell Will Quit Police To Be Ranch Foreman

Officer J. M. Blackwell of the Artesia Police Department has tendered his resignation, effective April 1, in order to accept the position of foreman of the Joe Nunn ranch of 165 sections between Carlsbad and Pecos. He said he likes Artesia and the people here and regrets having to leave, but believes the step will be to his advantage in the long run. Everything is satisfactory and he has enjoyed working on the police force in Artesia, he said. Officer Blackwell, who was born and reared on a ranch, is experienced in both ranch and police work. He has been a member of the force here a year and a month. He started on an earned two-week vacation Wednesday, at the end of which he will terminate his connection with the police force. He plans to report on the Nunn ranch about April 5.

W. Ports, president of the local club.

"Jamborette" will be delivered by members of the Hobbs Kiwanis Club to the Artesia club in the near future, and then she will be given every attention by a local committee, in order to round her out for the big event.

Guests at the meeting here last Thursday besides Harrison were Charley Woodard of Fort Worth and Rex Morrison, vice president of the Las Vegas Kiwanis Club.

"The Power of God" is being brought to Artesia by the Training Union of the Baptist Church under the direction of J. T. Haile and tells the story, in a gripping and thrilling fashion of "the Power of God unto salvation to everyone that believeth and is the answer to the yearning cry for peace, through the gospel of Christ."

This modern story is set in the little town of Ellendale, which could be any town. "The Power of God" tells in modern story form what Christianity is, what it does

All Of Nation's Production Is Part Of Program

In discussing 1949 production goals William B. Crawley, assistant administrator for production in PMA, said that all parts of the nation's production program are important factors in the nation's success in meeting and exceeding its goals in recent years.

ment stations and land-grant colleges is an important factor in estimating and meeting production goals because improved strains and new chemicals affect the yields of crops.

Very definitely, the speaker pointed out, conservation is a part of the goals picture. The condition of the soil is the ultimate limiting factor in production. The progress in conservation has been a major factor in the 51 per cent per-acre increase in crop production over the 1923-32 period.

Price supports are important because they protect the farmer against the hazards of price collapse.

Elected farmer-committees play an important part in goal efforts because they administer the so-called "action" programs at local levels. They are close to their neighbor farmers. They better methods from research, the most effective conservation measures, and the price support programs are brought to the farmers of the country through their own elected committees in every agricultural county and community.

Goals, he point out, are set as a guide to farmers in their production plans. Instead of going ahead blindly producing without regard to needs, the goals provide the best estimate of what should be produced with the facilities available.

Goals and all the efforts and organization which support them, he pointed out, primarily benefit the consumer and make for a stronger and better country.

Severe Outbreak Of Hog Cholera Is In County

There has been a severe outbreak of hog cholera in Eddy County, said Dallas Rierson, county agent.

Hog cholera is the most severe disease of hogs and is found practically all over the world. In the Southern states, where the climate is usually mild during the winter-time, there are several outbreaks sometimes. However, the most prevalent time for hog cholera is in the fall months.

There have been several calls the last few days concerning hog cholera in this area and the agent wants to call attention to all farmers and ranchers with hogs on their places that it would be a good time to vaccinate.

There are two means of vaccinating hogs for cholera, by use of anti-serum, which will immunize healthy hogs but is not permanent, and by use of both serum and virus carrying the germ disease and will give permanent immunity. However, once live virus is used on the place it is necessary to continue a vaccinating program.

Another serum that has come out recently but not a great deal of work has been done on it, is the crystal-violet serum. Every farmer and rancher should figure out which practice he wants to use and get his hogs vaccinated at once, the county agent said.

Esteron 44 Results In Wild Onion Curbs

Wild Garlic also Found Vulnerable to Solution

Wild garlic and wild onion long have been two of the most troublesome weeds in southern lawns, pastures and certified grass and grain seed production fields.

As lawn weeds, these plants give the lawn an uneven, ragged appearance and produce a very disagreeable onion odor when mowed. In pastures, dairy cattle feeding on these plants produce milk with an off flavor which is of great concern to dairymen in several states. Seed production has been limited by the presence of wild onions in many fields because of potential contamination.

During the past three years many experiments have been made with varied forms of 2, 4-D to control wild garlic and wild onion. Tests with sodium salt of 2, 4-D were unsuccessful. Esteron 44 and the amine liquid salt formations, however, gave good control when used at the rate of three to four pounds of 2, 4-D acid equivalent per acre.

Apparently the amount of water used makes little difference in the results obtained. As many as 125 gallons per acre and a few as five gallons per acre were applied with equal success.

For pasture work, observers agree that Esteron 44 may be somewhat more effective than the amine salts, but because of the possible danger from volatility of the esters of 2, 4-D, it is suggested that the amine liquid salt be used where susceptible plants grow in immediately adjacent areas. (Lawns, for example, with adjacent flowers and shrubs).

Moisture Conservation Helps With Wheat Crop

A 30-acre field that had produced little during the last few years, even with favorable moisture conditions, produced a good wheat crop, according to the Kansas state college extension service.

"A combination of things made the land productive again," a conservation district cooperater said. "Use of sweet clover, seeded in the spring of 1946, for green manure and terracing, and contour farming for moisture conservation were important."

The land, he explained, was badly eroded. The soil was thin, dense and hard to work. It had not produced a decent crop in the previous six years and was practically idle land.

Gullies were plowed shut after the terraces were built, so that the whole field could be contour farmed. In addition, grass waterways were developed and more terraces planned.

Bathtub Fairly Recent Innovation in America

Although many Americans consider the daily bath essential to good health, most of their predecessors of a century ago never saw, much less bathed in, a bathtub in the home. For pre-Civil War Americans, bathing was a luxury indulged in a hut along-side the home. The White House got its first bathtub during Lincoln's term. The first all-iron tub was installed in New York City in 1870.

More Milk Per Cow Requires No Magic Wand

Dairymen may wish they had a magic wand that would make fewer cows produce more milk in 1949. Grains and protein concentrates are abundant and lower in price than a year ago. Milk is in good demand at favorable prices. The "magic" needed is that of persuading the small number of cows to convert the feed into more milk.

It can be done—to a certain extent—dairy authorities say. The only magic required for most dairymen is found in proper management and feeding.

U.S. Department of Agriculture Bureau of Dairy Industry research has proved that when cows are fed 10 per cent above the standard level the average cow produces four-fifths of a pound of milk for each pound of grain fed. When feeding 30 per cent above normal, the average cow produces half a pound of milk for each extra pound of concentrate feed.

Now is the time for most dairymen to take advantage of this opportunity for increasing milk production per cow. At current prices, a pound of butterfat will buy about 25 per cent more feed than it would a year ago.

During winter months, the feeding of more cottonseed meal in dairy rations is especially important. This is because cows are not getting from winter roughage the protein which they get from good pastures in the spring and summer.

A concentrate mixture containing 18 to 20 per cent of protein is needed by cows grazing dry, mature grass or stalk fields, or fed non-legume hay. An excellent mixture consists of 500 pounds of corn meal, ground barley, or sorghum grain chops, 350 pounds of cottonseed meal, 200 pounds of wheat bran or rice bran, 100 pounds of ground oats, 23 pounds of calcium supplement and 12 pounds of salt.

New Hay Chopper

This combination hay chopper and ensilage cutter, which can be operated by one man, has been introduced by the New Holland Machine company. The new machine feeds, cuts to desired length and blows corn, hay or other crops to mow or silo in one operation. Cutting in lengths ranging from 3-18" to 1 1/2", the chopper cutter can handle up to 20 tons of silage an hour.

Buy Fertilizer Soon, Farmers Are Advised

The use of fertilizer has increased so rapidly in recent years that there are two important reasons for farmers buying early in the season, the chances of getting their fertilizer are better, and the fertilizer itself will probably be in better condition.

Gordon Hoff, extension agronomist with New Mexico A. & C. College, explains that New Mexico farmers last year used 45 per cent more fertilizer than at the beginning of the war. Other areas which used little or no fertilizer before the war are now using large quantities. This means that fertilizer manufacturers can no longer work ahead and store enough to meet everyone's needs when the planting season starts. The farmer who buys his fertilizer and accepts delivery now will not have to worry when he gets ready to plant.

Farmers have hesitated buying early because of fear that the fertilizer might harden in the bag before it could be spread. Hoff says that the fertilizer which is for sale early in the year may be in better condition than some sold late in the spring.

Fertilizer needs to be cured ahead of bagging to prevent hardening or caking, he explains. Factories now have time to give proper aging before bagging. Consequently, most of the fertilizer prepared for market now will remain in good condition if stored in a dry place on the farm. Fertilizer bagged before sufficient curing, as it must be sometimes during the rush season, may become hard sooner than the properly cured fertilizer put in the bag several weeks earlier.

A good farm storage for fertilizer should have a wood floor, a tight roof, and protection from driving rain. Hoff advises against stacking the fertilizer more than six to eight bags high, as greater pressure may cause caking in the lower bags.

County Agent Sees Need Safe Farm Driveways

The farmer who condemns cities because of narrow streets and blind alleys may have a similar traffic hazard right in his own front yard, says County Agent Dallas Rierson. Rierson says that the farm driveway is a blind alley of weeds on many farms. "More than one-third of our farm accident victims are from motor vehicle mishaps," he points out.

According to the county agent, the National Safety Council recommends the following procedure in building a safe driveway:

Park the car in the driveway with the front bumper 10 feet from the nearest edge of the pavement or traveled portion of the highway. Measure a distance of about 700 feet or 290 paces, along the highway to the left and place a marker at the edge of the pavement on the side nearest the driveway entrance.

In the same manner set another marker 700 feet in the opposite direction, but this second marker should be on the side of the highway opposite the driveway entrance.

Sit in the driver's seat of the car. If the markers can be seen, the sight distances are proper if the traffic going by the farm does not exceed 60 miles per hour. If the markers cannot be seen, then weeds, bushes, and other obstructions must be cleared away to make the driveway safe.

If a heavy, slow-starting truck will be using the driveway, the markers should be set 830 feet away in each direction instead of 700 feet.

A highway right-of-way is usually 66 feet in width, Rierson says. If it is necessary to trim bushes or remove obstructions on this right-of-way, the matter should be taken up with the highway official under whose jurisdiction it falls.

Bess, Wonder Horse, Lives Varied Life

Talk about a varied life, Bess, the Wonder Horse, star of Crestview Production's Cinecolor spectacle, "Adventures of Gallant Bess," opening Sunday at the Land-sun Theater, has had it! She was foaled in the Everglades of Florida in 1933, just another chestnut Seminole Indian pony. She is now one of Hollywood's outstanding animal stars.

The foal was named Silver Nip and at an early age was bought by Joe B. Atkinson of Okeechobee, Fla., a noted horse trainer.

At the age of 8 months Silver Nip displayed signs of rare intelligence and Atkinson started teaching her tricks. At 20 months, Silver Nip had learned an exceptional routine and Atkinson took his beloved horse on tour with the Western Sports Shows. The thousands who saw Silver Nip fell in love with the new wonder horse.

Between performances and seasons, Atkinson kept up the horse's intensive training, until Silver Nip responded to 300 voice commands.

One day Atkinson heard that Harry Rapf, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer producer, was seeking the most intelligent horse in the world for a picture to be called "Gallant Bess." He brought Silver Nip to the Hollywood studio and put the horse through her paces for Producer Rapf.

Rapf was astounded by the horse's repertoire of tricks and by her response to orders in the screen test. Silver Nip was signed at once, but her name became Bess.

The picture was a huge success and "Gallant Bess," established Bess as the favorite horse of millions of filmgoers. Along with the showing of the film, Atkinson and Bess toured the country, visiting 108 cities where the wonder horse was viewed personally by several million fans.

Back in Hollywood, Bess was signed by Producer Jerry Briskin and Matthew Rapf for their Crest-

IT HAPPENED IN MARCH
1791 (4) Vermont entered the Union. 1775 (23) Patrick Henry's "Give me liberty" speech really started something. 1820 (15) Maine joined the U. S. A. 1838 (6) "Remember the Alamo!" It fell on that day. 1845 (3) Florida came into the Union, bringing citrus fruits and resorts. 1867 (1) Then came Nebraska to be a part of this great country.

When a state of PLENTITUDE is reached, that's quite enough for me. Because the word means being full—a great sufficiency.

In our neighborhood a family recently moved into a pretty Colonial-type home. Then they moved out in a hurry, when fire partially destroyed it. An overheated furnace was the answer. Watch this in your home.

Why was Julius Caesar so darned concerned about the "Ides of March"? The income tax law had not even been thought of at that time.

Perhaps some of your State Department's difficulties could exist in the fact that neighbors abroad may be silently sensitive regarding the manner in which many radio news analysts mispronounce names of foreign places and persons. ### Your Artesia National Guard

By M/Sgt. James Heald

Now as never before the National Guard offers a better opportunity for young men and especially veterans.

A veteran who served in the armed forces and held one of the first three grades can enter the guard now and apply immediately for a commission in the National Guard.

A young man who has not seen service may get a commission by first completing the 10-series of the Army Extension Courses and then passing the officers' board. After this, if accepted, the applicant will be commissioned and assigned to the parent unit.

Word has been received from Roswell that the units of the National Guard there are planning a dinner for the 200th group to be given Sunday, March 27. It has been reported that the adjutant general of New Mexico, Gen. Charles G. Sage and also the inspector general from the Fourth Army headquarters will be there.

The local unit is progressing splendidly and new recruits are joining right along. The men are taking more interest now that the unit is broken into sections for training. This assures a better opportunity for each man to learn his job thoroughly. When he knows the job assigned to him, then he has the opportunity to learn other jobs in the unit. We have been getting good reports from the Regular Army instructors for our training program and shall continue to improve the training to make it the best in the state.

For information concerning National Guard and the possibilities of promotion, see the sergeant any day Monday through Friday at the armory. Why not attend a drill of the unit on Wednesday night? Visitors are welcome any time to inspect the training equipment of the unit and we be glad to answer any questions. We'll see you then!

The new Plymouth line includes nine distinct automobiles. Special deluxe and deluxe types are on a 118-inch wheelbase, one inch longer than last year's. Special deluxe models are: four-door sedan, club coupe, convertible club coupe and station wagon. In the deluxe group are the four-door sedan and the club coupe. In addition, Plymouth will build three deluxe models on a brand new 111-inch wheelbase, a two-door sedan, a three-passenger coupe, and a new body type, the Suburban.

proved performance and efficiency with a new design cylinder head which increases compression ratio to 7 to 1. A new chrome plated compression piston ring reduces cylinder wear and provides greater protection during the break-in period. There are improved oil rings for greater oil economy, while a newly-designed intake manifold induces quicker, smoother engine warm-up and produces faster throttle response. Body styling which produces greater passenger room without excessive bulk also increases visibility. V-type windshields have 37 percent more area and provide excellent vision without distortion. Windshield wipers clear 61.5 percent greater area and the rear window is 35.4 percent larger.
