ONE-MAN HAYING

The Minneapolis-Moline Bale-O-Matic is a new, better and lower cost way to perform one of the most important operations on the farm. It changes the hay harvest from a crew operation to a one-man operation, saves time and man-power, preserves more of the food value of the crop.

The Bale-O-Matic picks up green or cured hay or straw from windrow or swath, compresses it into uniform slices and ties it tightly with wire into compact, solid bales of uniform size and weight . . . even keeps an accurate count of bales for you. Baling hay the MM way saves valuable storage space, makes hay easier to handle and easier to feed.

Large diameter Timken-bearing equipped single or dual wheels assure light draft. See us for complete facts.

Interest In Band Growing, Director Says At Banquet

Hopes for continually growing interest in instrumental music in the schools and for a long-range band program, whereby the school bands will improve and grow year by year was expressed Friday night at a banquet for the band members by Russell Lewis, Jr., director.

The banquet was held in the high school cafeteria under the sponsorship of the Band Aides, with Mrs. J. H. Brown, president of that group, serving as chairman.

Director Lewis pointed out that increase in interest in band work during the last year was reflected by the fact there were only about 25 members out during the football season, whereas there were 49 in the senior band at the time of the recent concert.

However, he said, some of those playing in the senior band should have been in the junior band, a condition he hopes to overcome.

The band director said he hopes to have a concert band for those who have learned to play well enough, with a beginners' band for those just learning, even though they are in the high school classes.

Director Lewis said he hopes next school year to have 75 band students in the grammar schools and a total of at least 150 in the school system. He plans to have a good band ready for football season, he said.

Tom Mayfield, superintendent of schools and T. Stovall, principal of Artesia High School, both spoke briefly and each praised the work done during the last year by both Director Lewis and the Band Aides.

About 150 persons, including band members, Band Aides and guests, enjoyed the banquet and program.

Child Welfare Services To Be Told On Radio

Miss Hazel Young of Santa Fe, state supervisor of the Division of Child Welfare Services, Department of Public Welfare, will speak over radio station KSNP at 10:45 o'clock Friday morning to discuss the work being done by the division.

Burney Jones, station manager, extended an invitation to Miss Young to use the time, as there has not been a clear understanding in many areas of the state as to what the division is equipped to do and what it is unable to do.

It was announced there is now a full-time child welfare worker for Eddy County, J. K. Brantley, who is at the welfare services office at 509 West Main Street every Thursday. He can be contacted there on Thursdays.

Brantley has expressed his interest in and willingness to help with problems affecting the welfare of children.

The work of the division will be fully explained by Miss Young on the radio program and Brantley said it is felt that from her speech, there will be a better understanding of the social services offered to children in New Mexico.

Tomatoes Important

While the average farmer knows the value of a garden and always sees to it that he has ample garden planted to run his family through the year, there are still some men who glean their living from the soil who don't bother to plant a garden.

The aim in gardening, at all, is to supply the household with vegetables—summer and winter; and the farmer who does this is always repaid not only with money saved and convenience of having supply immediately at hand, but also by the nourishing value of home-processed foods.

As family sizes and needs vary as much as individual tastes, the garden should be as variable as anything could be. Thus a garden becomes such an individual matter that the seed list for each must be individually worked out.

However there is a principle involved that is general and that is "planning." Here is an example:

The tomato is among the most versatile of vegetables to prepare for the table and returns the most for the garden space occupied. So, there must be tomatoes. Properly handled, harvesting may start July 1 and tomatoes may be had fresh until several weeks after frost, or for about 120 days. At one and one-half servings a day, the fresh tomato amount should be about three and one-half bushels, as a serving for five persons is that needed to can a quart, a bushel canning 17 quarts.

For the remaining 245 days, the tomatoes must come from cans and, allowing two servings weekly, 70 quarts are needed, or five bushels more. The total becomes eight and one-half bushels, or 510 pounds. A correctly-tended plant yields 10 pounds and 50 plants are needed. Of these, 15 should be early (Break O'Day), and 35 late (Rutgers).

Other crops may be worked out as carefully based on family likes.

New Variety of Alfalfa Officially Named Talent

The promising alfalfa variety known as French alfalfa in southern Oregon variety trials has been officially named Talent alfalfa by the Oregon state college experiment station committee on new crop varieties, and seed increases are now underway to insure early commercial release of the variety.

Talent was selected as the name in honor of the community where trials were conducted.

White Mice Serving In Chemical Tests
Insecticide Shower Evaluates Formulae

An old-style phonograph rigged up to give a revolving shower bath to a white mouse is helping test new chemicals for effectiveness in stable fly control. The mice are pinch-hitting for dairy cows in making the tests, says the U.S. department of agriculture.

The old phonograph was one that played wax cylinder records. The test mouse is confined in a screen cage that replaces the old record holder. The mouse is rolled around several times under a sprayed solution of the new chemical, and then is rolled under an air stream until dry. The test comes the next day in another cage with 20 stable flies. If as many as four of the flies succeed in attacking the mouse without being driven off or poisoned, the chemical is not regarded as worth a full scale test on a cow. This is the first time white mice have been used in just this kind of experimental work.

Federal entomologists are searching actively for a spray that will protect animals from attack by stable flies and other blood-sucking flies and mosquitoes. Recent experience has proved abundantly how profitable it is for farmers to protect cattle from the torment of "fly time" and thus avoid the summer slump in milk production and gains in weight of animals on pasture.

How Smiley Bowled 'Em Over

Dropped into the bowling alleys the other night and there was little Smiley Roberts, who's built like a bird, showing the big fellows how to do it. He rolled an average of 18 for 5 games. That's bowling!

Later on, over a friendly glass of beer at Andy's Garden Tavern, I asked Smiley how he did it. "Practice, practice, and then some more practice," he said, "and I follow a regular set of training rules so I'll keep in good shape."

Then Andy chimes in. "To be really good at anything you've got to follow the rules. Take running this tavern. We tavern owners and the Brewing industry have a Self-Regulation program we follow to see that places getting beer and ale are run right. When you follow the rules—you'll stay out ahead of the other fellow."

From where I sit, in sports or business it's important to "keep in shape." There are training rules and tavern rules—and they both pay off!

DAV National Service Officer Assigned To NM

A disabled veteran of World War II who is now aiding his fellow disabled buddies in New Mexico has been "fully rehabilitated" and accredited by the Veterans Administration as a national service officer of the Disabled American Veterans.

He is Paul Demos of Provo, Utah.

now assigned permanently to the D.A.V. national service office at Albuquerque.

Demos was a member of the 10th class of national service officer trainees to be trained by the D.A.V. in co-operation with the Veterans Administration.

It marked the first time a veterans' organization has been able to have men and women—all disabled veterans of World War II—trained for its special work.

The D.A.V. now has a nationwide staff of 260 trained national service officers—the largest staff of any veterans organization—who are prepared to handle thousands of claims cases a day. They are located in every regional office of the Veterans Administration and through these offices cover all VA hospitals.

This staff is augmented by state department and local chapter service officers.

Last year the DAV obtained more than $18,000,000 in benefits for disabled veterans and their families.

The new D.A.V. service officer enrolled in the program late in 1946 and spent six months at American University, after which he spent 18 months in Veterans Administration offices and hospitals under the direction of experienced DAV service officers.

As a D.A.V. national service officer, Demos will represent his disabled comrades in applying for pension and compensation, assist in finding right jobs and help them in their social and economic rehabilitation.

He also will assist widows and dependents of veterans. This D. A. V. service is free of charge.

Demos served with the Navy and received his disability in that service.

most controversial programs ever introduced in Washington, supposedly would guarantee consumers low prices on agricultural products while maintaining the farmer's high return through direct payments covering the difference between actual consumer price and a support level established by the USDA.

Evans expressed the opinion that the nation's agriculture could not survive if it is placed under strict government domination.

"To my way of thinking," he said, "it is strictly class legislation and a method of false economy. It is being sold to the farmer on grounds that it will insure and give him better income; and it is being sold to the consumer on grounds that it will provide more food at a cheaper price."

"Actually it is the taxpayers' program which will load all of our people with a financial burden beyond endurance," Evans stated.

In the same issue of The Stockman, an editorial labels the Brannan plan, "Utopia without the price tag."

The New Mexico Cattle Growers Association consistently has opposed any form of government subsidies or support prices. During the March convention in Albuquerque, the association went on record opposing the Brannan plan, although at that time it still was in the rumor stage and had not been made public.

Feather Urges Bond Purchases During Opportunity Drive

Residents of Eddy County invested $74,912.50 in U. S. Savings Bonds during the month of April, the Treasury Department has reported to L. B. Feather, co-chairman of this county's Savings Bonds committee. Series E purchases totaled $84,912.50 of this amount.

"During the Opportunity Bond Drive, May 16 to June 30, this county's quota is $153,000 in Series E Bonds alone," said Mr. Feather.

"All Eddy Countians are urged to make arrangements to buy all the Series E Bonds they can during this Opportunity Drive. Our county has always done its part in previous bond drives and will do it again, if all of us will help."

Federal Farm Program Gets Sharp Criticism

Sharp criticism of Secretary of Agriculture Brannan's proposed new federal farm program is contained in a letter to all members of New Mexico's congressional delegation by G. W. Evans of Magdalena, president of the New Mexico Cattle Growers Association. Text of the letter is published in the May issue of The New Mexico Stockman.

"It appears to me from a distance that the program is calculated first to fool the public and second to completely regiment all segments of agriculture," Evans said.

Artesia Eagles Defeat Loving Second Straight

The Artesia Eagles defeated Loving on the North Roselawn diamond here Sunday 9-4, the second straight win for the local team against Loving.

The Sunday prior, the Eagles won 12-6 at Loving, which game a Carlsbad newspaper reported Loving lost because some of the best players were not in the lineup, but that they were well prepared for the Eagles in the return game. However, the Eagles came through again.

In the game Sunday, the Eagles retired Loving in the top half of the first inning and then scored three runs by Chayo, Lugo and Abel.

Loving failed to score in the second, but had two men on base, when Ollie, Eagles hurler, took the measure of the next three men. Artesia did not score.

The third and fourth were scoreless, but both sides did some nice infield work.

Loving ran in three in the fifth to tie the score 3-3. And in the sixth inning, Loving pushed another across to lead 4-3.

However, in the seventh, the Eagles decided to put the game on ice and blasted three visiting pitchers all over the field and scored six runs. Nene relieved Ollie at pitching and kept Loving from scoring.

The Eagles will travel to Mesalero Sunday to meet the Mesalero Indians. A special bus will be chartered to take fans wishing to see the game. Arrangements for bus transportation may be made through any member of the Eagles team.

Cox Motor Sponsors Sammy Kaye's New Program On Radio

Sammy Kaye's new radio program, the "Sammy Kaye Showroom" will be heard at 7 o'clock every Monday, Wednesday and Friday evening over state KSVP. The 15-minute transcribed program is sponsored by Cox Motor Company, local Chrysler-Plymouth dealer.

"Sammy Kaye Showroom" will combine the latest hit tunes from Broadway and Hollywood with some of the all-time favorites from the past. The melodic rhythm of the Kaye orchestra will be blended with the pleasant harmony of the trio of Kayedets and the Kaye Choir.

Vocalists with the Kaye orchestra range from tiny Laura Leslie, the little Baltimore soprano, to the rich baritone of Don Cornell, a New York City boy who has made good as a singer of rhythm numbers or ballads. Then there is Tony Alamo, a tenor from Cleveland, who has proved a popular newcomer to the orchestra with his sentimental ballads.

YOU'RE TELLING ME!

A 100-YEAR-OLD Crow Indian has been juggled in Memphis, Tenn., for selling gasoline as "medicine." For awhile, he certainly had his patients fueled!

However, it didn't take the cops long to decide the ancient redskin's medical ideas were oil wrong.

A thief stole 120 sermons from a ministerial student in the east. He's in for some mighty uneasy reading.

On the market is a new hat that contains a built-in radio. This should do much to help spread the fad of going bare-headed—especially during the daytime.

At this time of year the most accurate weather forecast is a brief one—simply a question mark.

A scientist says worms sometime utter a low, moaning sound. Just after, no doubt, they've looked into a mirror.

They're experimenting in the West Indies on developing a new type banana. The only improvement we can think of, off hand, would be one with a non-skiddable peel.

Landscaping Of Farm Grounds Is Increasing

Enrollment of New Mexico boys and girls in the national 4-H home grounds beautification program for 1949 is expected to increase, according to Travis Hughes, associate state 4-H Club leader. On a national scale, enrollment has more than doubled in the last five years.

"Four-H Club members start out by mapping the farmstead ground and making plans for improvement," Miss Hughes says. "They learn to use flowers, plants, shrubs, trees and grasses in landscaping. Sometimes dad and mother lend a hand in the job and share the satisfaction of turning the farm home into a beauty spot. Before and after photos are taken to show results."

For the 12th consecutive year, Mrs. Charles R. Walgreen of Chicago is providing merit awards for 4-H'ers having the most outstanding records of accomplishment in the project. County winners will receive gold-filled medals of honor and the state winner a 17-jewel gold watch. Judged on a national basis, eight state winners will be selected to attend the National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago, all expenses paid.

'Chicken Every Sunday' To Show At Landsun

Capitalizing on the entertainment trend it set with "Miracle on 34th Street," "Sitting Pretty," and "Apartment for Peggy," Twentieth Century-Fox has produced another delightful and heart-warming comedy in "Chicken Every Sunday," which previewers are claiming will be the best of them all. Starring Dan Dailey and Celeste Holm, the film opens Sunday at the Landsun Theater.

Based on Rosemary Taylor's best-seller, which told the hilarious story of life in a boarding house in Tucson at the turn of the century, the film depicts Dan and Celeste as the rulers of the roost. It represents a definite change of pace for the lanky song and dance man who climbed aboard the star bandwagon upon his release from service. As the lovable father, Dailey is always on the lookout for easy street, but he never quite finds it. Celeste Holm, who was honored with an Academy Award for her work in "Gentleman's Agreement," enacts the role of the patient wife who puts up with her husband's many schemes—but turns breadwinner by taking in roomers. Celeste visited with Miss Taylor before filming commenced on the picture and the authoress wrote on her return to Hollywood, "I can think of no one I'd rather have play my mother on the screen."

Heading the cast of "Chicken Every Sunday" are Colleen Townsend and Alan Young. Also featured in the imposing cast are Natalie Wood, William Frawley, Connie Gilchrist, William Callahan, Veda Ann Borg, Porter Hall, White Bissel, Katherine Emery, Roy Roberts and Hal K. Dawson. George Seaton served as director for the film, and collaborated with Valentine Davies on the screen play. William Perleberg produced "Chicken Every Sunday," which is from the stage play by Julius J. and Philip G. Epstein and Miss Taylor's book.

Tests Show Bad Taste Stops Deer Foraging

Bad taste on edible leaves and plants puts a stop to the foraging habits of deer, rabbits, cattle and other such animals, according to tests made at the Swan Island wild life refuge in Maine.

Through the co-operation and assistance of Maine's Department of Inland Fisheries and Game, taste tests on deer were conducted using bean plants, fruit trees, fresh cedar cuttings and a field of buckwheat.

Using a new deer repellent, it was found that deer nibble leaves sprayed with it and find them so unpalatable they leave the area in search of other food.

In a special test, four piles of fresh cedar cuttings were placed near a deer yard. Two were sprayed. Ten hours later the two unsprayed piles had been eaten, while the treated piles appeared to be untouched.

Tests in a field of buckwheat were typical of previous tests on bean plants and other vegetables. The animals passed the sprayed buckwheat and, in two days, consumed the unsprayed plants.

According to the chemical company technicians, the new deer repellent also has fungicidal properties and, in certain cases, acts as an insect repellent. By utilizing all of the advantages of the new material, it is possible to develop a spray program that will protect crops for a little more than the cost of partial protection.

Leather For Town

Brown suede suit.

By VERA WINSTON

COUNTRY FOLKS KNOW that there is nothing like leather and now those beautiful coats and suits even dresses of suede, so beloved by sportswomen everywhere, have taken on town size. Very dashing is this costume in slinky suede, so treated that it is as pliable as fabric. The snug bodice flares from the waist to a back-dipping tunic, and encrusted bands of suede, darker than the caramel brown of the suit, buckle at the chest. The skirt is straight and slim with a flared, slit flange at the hem.

The checkered flag is flashed only for the winner.

Take it easy on the curve and make it a good race.

Rierson Urges Cotton Farmers To Join Contest

Cotton growers of Eddy County were reminded by County Agent Dallas Rierson that application blanks for the 1949 cotton improvement and production contest for 1949 test are available at his office. While the final date for filling the applications is June 1, the agent urged growers who expect to enroll to do so at once.

He reports that six farmers of Eddy County have already enrolled. They are John Bowman, H. L. Green, Dan Duran, W. M. Simmons, Walter Chambers, A. R. Horton and V. F. Lowery.

Rierson points out that the cotton contest was planned and is being conducted by the 1517 Cotton Association in co-operation with the Extension Service, to encourage larger yields per acre of better quality cotton, the use of good seed of improved varieties, better cultural practices, profitable fertilization, control of insects and disease damage, and better harvesting and ginning.

He says that the sooner a contestant enrolls and begins the application of these suggested practices on his demonstration field, the more likely he is to produce a good yield of cotton.

The $5000 prize money in the contest includes a $100 sweepstakes prize, $500 to the winner of the senior division, $250 to the winner in each county and $50 to the junior winner in each county.

NEWS VIEWS

By MERV WORLEY

Comes now the season of the forgotten man . . . the June bridegroom. While the June bride is dashing here and there assembling the fanciest wardrobe she can find or beaming from society pages, or attending a flock of showers, the leading man in her life goes around as unnoticed as crumbs in a kangaroo's pouch. He makes about as much impression as a yank on a busted bell rope and the chances are he'd have to argue his way into the church if they didn't need someone to tote the ring. They even call his assistant the best man. So if you happen to meet a new groom, speak to him kindly. He'll appreciate it.

The local cynic read the above words and says he won't ever marry. Lots of other fellows have said the same thing . . . but school-houses are still being built. Before you take a trip, whether it's a wedding, vacation or business . . . let us check and service your car at ARTESIA IMPLEMENT & SUPPLY CO., 808 South First Street. Maybe you're thinking of going away for the Memorial Day week end. If so, be sure to let us check your car first. Phone 93.

When you gotta stop -you wanta stop!

"It can stop on a dime," the salesman promised you, "—and leave nine cents change!"

And your Buick did—when it was new and brake linings un worn and everything factory-tight and fresh.

But brake linings wear—lights grow dim with time—tires can lose their bite and traction.

And with a whole summer's driving ahead, what better time than this to bring your Buick back to new-car peak in all those details that mean so much to safety?

Our men, trained in Buick ways, will give you brakes that stop you as Buicks should, with new brake linings that are right in size and brake drums turned to perfect round.

They can replace sealed-beam headlights to give you new-bulb brilliance—and while they're at it, check battery, voltage, wiring and headlamp-aim to boot.

They'll check tires, switch them as needed, look into wheel alignment for easy steering.

In a word, they'll renew your Buick with the same care and interest they would lavish on their own—and do it at no greater cost than for just ordinary service.

So drop in. Get set for some summer fun that's up to lively Buick standard.

Check your car --- Check accidents!

Three great service and safety organizations across the country are alerting car-owners everywhere this month on safety-checking their cars.

They list ten vital question marks for you to think about—How are your Brakes? Lights? Tires? Steering? Wheel alignment? Defective glass? Rear-view mirror? Muffler? Windshield wipers? Horn?

Be sure your family rides in safety—ask your Buick service man to look over these check-points this month—and join the great drive for driving safety!

GASOLINE SEVEN DAYS A WEEK!

Vet Trainees Have Less Paper Work Than Prior

Veterans training under the GI Bill—as well as their school and training establishments—have less paper work to do under a simplified reporting system now in effect, the Veterans Administration said.

VA no longer requires monthly progress reports for veteran trainees in job-training establishments and in schools other than colleges and universities.

Instead, reports of conduct and progress are incorporated in a report of earnings, which veterans will continue to submit to VA every four months.

As a result of the new procedure, VA field offices will process at least 5,000,000 fewer forms a year, with an appreciable savings in clerical work.

Schools below college level also will report veterans' progress and conduct on the VA report of earnings.

As in the past, colleges and universities do not submit reports of conduct and progress, except to notify VA in cases of those students for whom conduct or progress has been unsatisfactory.

VA emphasized that schools and training establishments should continue to report promptly the discontinuance of any veteran from training.

VA urges veterans to make certain the required reports of earnings reach the VA regional office handling their cases before the 10th of the month after the date the reports are due.

Failures to submit reports in time might result in delays in subsistence checks, VA said.

The one-page report is simple. The veterans merely provides necessary information, signs his name and turns the form over to the official of the school or training establishment, who reports on conduct and progress and, when appropriate, earnings over the last four months.

New Mexico Oil-Gas Association Is Featured In National Magazine

The New Mexico Oil and Gas Association is described in a feature article in this month's issue of The Independent Monthly, official publication of the Independent Petroleum Association of America. The article, by Executive Secretary Art McQuiddy of the New Mexico Association headquarters at Roswell, tells of the formation of N.M.O.G.A. and its program of service to operators of the state and to other industries. The article points out that not only does the state association benefit those directly engaged in petroleum development, but by its activities is of assistance to each oil producing community and contributes materially to the economic growth of the entire state.

Important, although indications of oil were recognized as early as 1882. The state's oil association came into existence in 1929. It so happens that it was also in 1929 that the national association, Independent Petroleum Association of America, with which N.M.O.G.A. cooperates but is unaffiliated, was formed in Colorado Springs. Also, in that year, the nationally famous Hobbs field was discovered.

W. A. Nicholas was elected temporary chairman at the first meeting of the fledgling organization. Under his direction the founders developed a constitution expressing the purpose of the association as being for the protection of interests of lessees, royalty holders, permittees, operators and producers, so far as it would affect the oil and gas industry within the state of New Mexico. The present-day constitution has been revised only slightly but now stresses that the association devote itself principally and primarily to the orderly development of the oil industry in the state.

Many names famous in the petroleum history of New Mexico, and included in early rosters of the association, are also famous in other avenues of state development. To name a few there are H. B. Wright, Bob Atha, Ross L. Malone, W. A. Moore, Van S. Welch, V. D. Bodie, C. J. Dexter, A. N. Eitz, Senator T. E. Julian and many others.

One of the first efforts of the state association was to achieve a basic oil and gas conservation act. The association was eventually successful in obtaining this necessary to orderly development in 1935, when the State Legislature set up an Oil Conservation Commission. New Mexico, through its interests in petroleum development, became one of the first states to join the Interstate Oil States Company.

At the present time the association is diligent in its effort to maintain the petroleum industry as one of the greatest assets of the state. In this manner it is serving the needs of the oil and gas operators and at the same time is assuring progressive economic development

Recruiting Unit To Be Here Friday

Shown here are the members of a recruiting unit which will be in Artesia at the post office Friday in a drive for reservists in the Army.

The unit will be in charge of Capt. Barney Waldrop, shown at the left in the picture. Next to him is M/Sgt. Preston E. Triplett, former Army and Air Forces recruiting officer in Artesia, who is now stationed at Roswell.

Next in the picture come M/Sgt. Bill Tays and Sgt. W. F. Baldwin.

Any young men enlisting during the one-day drive here will be assigned to the recently formed 4124th Field Artillery, Training Battalion, Active Reserve, of Artesia, of which Col. Robert McCorkle is commanding officer.

All training in this unit will be at home. It meet at 7:30 o'clock each first and third Wednesday night in the assembly room of the city hall.

Captain Waldrop announced the Reserve now offers more benefits than in any other period in history. Because of bills recently passed by Congress, a full day's pay is given for two-hour class attendance. After 20 years in the Reserve a generous monthly allotment is given a soldier, provided he has reached the age of 60 years. Reservists are eligible for a two-week tour of duty with pay and allowances and are also eligible for educational courses with instruction either by mail or in person.

Directing the Association at present are Emery Carper, Artesia, as president and Van S. Welch, also of Artesia, as vice president. Treasurer is Harry Leonard, Roswell. The author of the article referred to is Art McQuiddy, secretary, also of Roswell. Members of the Executive Committee of the Association are D. D. Bodie, Jim Dunlany, Ralph Hendrickson, Jack Danlage, Bill Macey and John Kelly.

One of three pictures appearing in the magazine in connection with the article shows the executive committee and Niven Baird, former president and formerly of Artesia.

Another shows President Carper bidding Baird goodbye at the time he was transferred to San Angelo, Texas, by the American Republics Corporation.

In the third picture are seen some of the members of the executive committee with Gen. Patrick J. Hurley, speaker at the association's annual meeting on the Roof Garden of the Artesia Hotel last year, at which the general was the principal speaker.

A copy of the article is on file at The Advocate office, where it may be seen.

Bureau Of Mines Releases Two New Circulars

E. C. Anderson, director of the New Mexico Bureau of Mines and Mineral Resources has announced the release of two circulars.

Circular 20, "New Mexico Oil and Gas Summary Data for 1948," is a preliminary report on oil and gas production data for all pools in the state. Data was prepared and printed by the Lea County Operators Committee, assisted by the New Mexico Bureau of Mines. Release of statistical and engineering data on oil and gas production for 1948 in bulletin form is expected soon.

Circular 21, "Barite of New Mexico," compiled by Donn M. Clippinger, mining engineer of the bureau, is a compilation of all data on barite available in the publications and files of the Bureau at present. Increasing activity in the oil fields of New Mexico and West Texas has created a market for local barite for use in drilling muds, and the bureau has had many inquiries as to the occurrences of this material in the state.

These circulars are available at the bureau office at Socorro upon request.
