Livestock sales which were Saturday morning are expected to increase greatly next week. Long pointed out, Mary sale is slated for 10 Saturdays. Livestock sales at 1 Saturday afternoon.

Advocate Readies Special Edition Conservation

Special issue of the Artesia Advocate featuring 14 New Mexico's Award winners in Eddy county will be issued. Two sections of the special have already been printed. Regular subscribers and news-buymers of the Advocate will receive the special edition at no price. Extra copies of the special will also be printed to fill orders and extra demand. There are 14 farmers and ranchers who have won the Bank-Award through programs of soil and soil conservation on their farms this year.

Awards will be made Sept. 5 at special ceremonies in Artesia, presided by Charles K. Johnson, Artesia, chairman of the state conservation committee on soil and water, and G. L. Beene, of Artesia, supervisor of the soil conservation service for southeastern New Mexico.

This issue is being published in cooperation with the SCS and is of interest to Artesia area business-people interested in promoting conservation practices in the area.

More than 30 local photographs, individual articles on award winners, and special features on conservation are to be featured in the conservation issue. In addition, a special statement on water conditions in the Roswell basin, from which North county ranchers and farmers draw irrigation water, has been prepared by a prominent geologist and will be featured in the Sept. 2 edition.

The conservation issue is expected to contain from 32 to 40 pages.

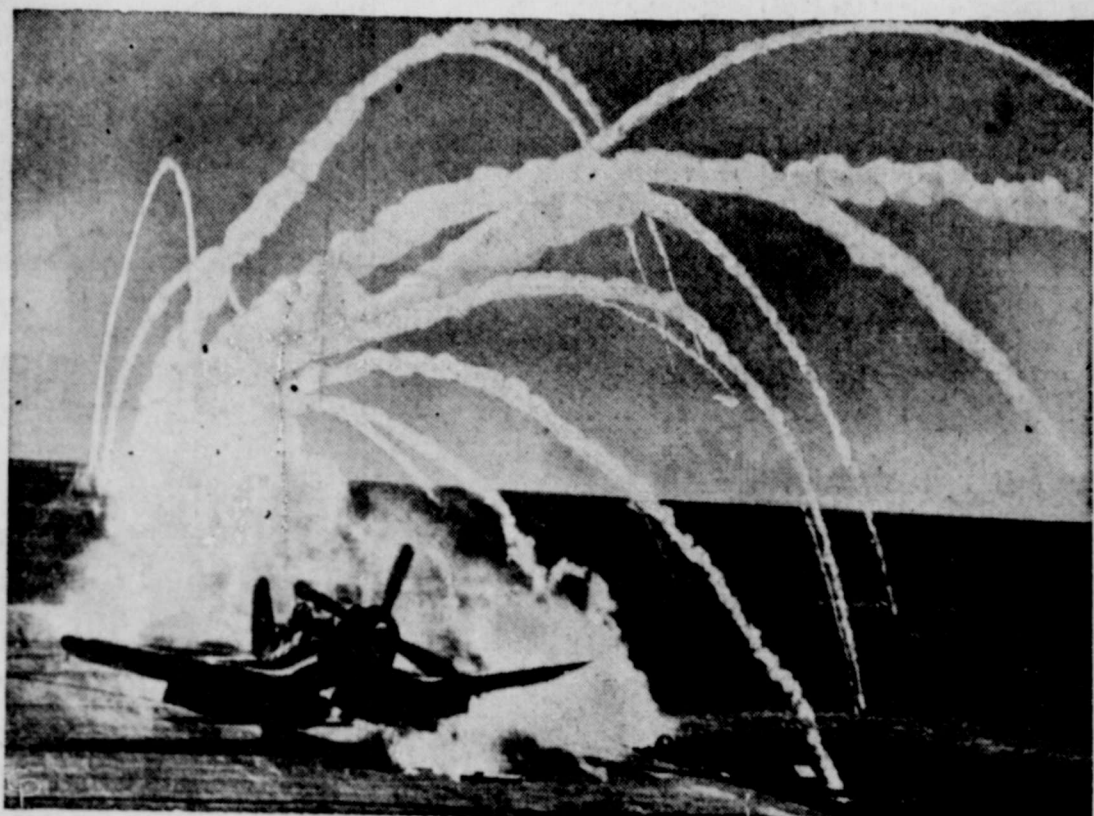

School Grads College Are Commended

Artesia high school and two of its graduates have been commended by colleges for the top educational background which has assisted the students to earn high grades.

The students are Kay Booker, in honorable mention from Occidental college of Los Angeles as well as high grades in 1951-52, and Donald E. Carson, who attended Tulane university in Louisiana. Dean R. W. French of Artesia said Carson had earned a place on that school's honor roll in 1951-52.

"We feel his good work here reflects the splendid training he received in your school, and we wish your continued interest in college through the enrollment of your better students."

Corbett Resigns As Lieutenant On Police Force

Resignation of Richard H. Corbett, Artesia police lieutenant for nearly 3 1/2 years, was announced Monday by Earl W. Westfall, chief of police.

Lieutenant Corbett's resignation is effective Sept. 1. He will continue his duties with the police department until that date, then will depart for Bellaire, Ohio.

Corbett said he believed the move is "in the best interests of myself and my family. I believe opportunity in eastern Ohio at the present time can no longer be ignored."

Chief Westfall stated Corbett's resignation was accepted "with great reluctance. He has been a valued member of our force."

Lieutenant Corbett joined the Artesia police April 1, 1949, and was promoted to lieutenant by Chief Westfall Oct. 21, 1949. Before coming to Artesia he was a deputy sheriff in Marietta, Ohio, and active in Ohio law enforcement for 13 years.

Lieutenant Corbett stated he regretted "very much" leaving Artesia. "I have enjoyed my association with Chief Westfall and with the members of our force," he stated.

The Corbetts have resided at 1204 Dallas in Artesia. They have two children, James, 13, and Robert, 11.

Future plans are not definite, Lieutenant Corbett said.

Lake Arthur to Register Students On September 1

Pupils will register at Lake Arthur school at 9 a. m. Monday, Sept. 1, and will be returned home at noon, according to announcement by B. E. Cross, superintendent.

Buses will run at regular time, and will return children home by noon, the superintendent pointed out.

Lake Arthur students will return to a much-improved building, he noted. For the first time grade students will walk on new hardwood floors. Six grade rooms, the nurses' room, and hall have been re-floored, he observed. Gym, library, home economics and other halls have been sanded and re-finished.

Adding greatly to appearance of rooms is sanding and varnishing of all desk tops in classrooms. In the home economics room and library, tables have been topped with hard plastic surfaces, Cross said.

A faculty meeting has been set for 2 p. m. Monday, the superintendent added.

New faculty members this year are Miss Janice Ruth Ridley, first grade; Miss Audrey K. Boatright, third; Gene Sooter, fifth and sixth grades, and glee club director; and Miss Barbara Jean Ramer, high school English and commercial subjects.

Returning faculty members are Mrs. Helen Cumpsten, second grade; Mrs. Maude A. Jackson, fourth; Miss Josephine Klier, seventh, eighth, and music; John Havener, Jr., mathematics, general electricity, physical education; and B. E. Cross, superintendent and social studies instructor.

School in Artesia begins Sept. 2.

Demo Officials To Meet With Grantham Here

Everett Grantham, Democratic gubernatorial nominee, will begin a busy day in Artesia with an 8 a. m. breakfast Wednesday for precinct committeemen. The breakfast conference is slated for Artesia hotel.

Other scheduled events on Grantham's one-day campaign officials and prominent Democrats here, as well as with many private citizens as possible, according to J. B. "Buster" Mulcock, state Democratic vice-chairman and precinct chairman.

Grantham will headquarter at the hotel during his stay in Artesia. Mulcock urged all Artesians who have thoughts or questions concerning Grantham's position on any subject to meet with the nominee at the hotel Wednesday morning.

Precinct committeemen from Hope, Cottonwood, Oilfield, Dayton, and Artesia have been invited to meet with Grantham for the 8 a. m. breakfast, Mulcock said.

Grantham will be returning to Artesia for the first time since the May primary election, in which he defeated former mayor Lake J. Frazier of Roswell. The Democratic nominee is to oppose Republican Gov. Edwin L. Mechem in November general elections.

Grantham is an Albuquerque resident and was formerly U. S. attorney for New Mexico. He resigned on announcing his candidacy for the Democratic nod as gubernatorial nominee.

Mulcock emphasized the wish that Artesians who may have questions, suggestions, or other matters, should visit Grantham at his hotel headquarters, preferably during the morning hours.

New Students in Artesia Schools Now Enrolling

Enrollment of students new to Artesia public schools is being carried on in principals' offices through this week, according to Vernon Mills, elementary school supervisor.

Enrollment of about 2,475 students is expected in elementary and Junior high schools, and about 270 in Senior high school, Mills has announced.

Buses are scheduled to run Friday, Aug. 29, at regular times to pick-up students who have not formally enrolled in the Artesia school system. New students on bus routes will be returned to their homes Friday noon.

Principals are in their offices from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m. to register new students. New pupils are those who will be in school, including pre-primary or first grades, for the first time this year.

New pupils riding buses should enroll at the school closest to their homes.

School in Artesia begins Sept. 2.

Tickets for six Bulldog home games are priced at $8 for reserved sections.

Stovall pointed out reserve tickets have been set aside for football parents of football players, and will be on sale today only. Tickets in the specially reserved section will be turned back for sale to the general public tomorrow if not all purchased by parents, Stovall said.

Individuals may buy up to four tickets apiece in the advanced section. (Continued on Page Eight)

Million-Dollar Annual Firm Schedules Full-Scale Opening

Re-opening of the million-dollar-a-year Payne Packing Co. in Artesia has been slated here for next Tuesday, Sept. 2, owner-manager J. L. Payne announced Monday. The firm has been closed since April 15 this year. In announcing re-opening plans, Payne said government regulations on meat and slaughtering houses as well as general market conditions now justify returning to operation.

The plant will re-open with full-scale operations next Tuesday, Payne observed, including hog market operations conducted by the business in the past.

Extensive office of price stabilization regulations, other government rulings, plus high cost of livestock and feed forced the plant to close in April, Payne recalled. The plant was then unable to operate in the prevailing market with a reasonable profit.

"We will start taking orders for meat and will start slaughtering again next Tuesday," Payne stated.

The wholesale meat-supply firm supplies groceries and other outlets in Lea, Chaves, and Eddy counties, operating as far east as Hobbs, north above Roswell, west to Clouderoft, and south to the Texas line.

The firm annually spends more than $1 million in meat purchases. It has a payroll of $75,000 annually for 25 members of its staff. The Payne Packing Co. is located on the Hope by-pass.

It was opened for business July 5, 1950, and was organized by Payne and a group of businessmen.

"Cattle are now cheaper for us to buy, and we are able to sell at a fair profit," Payne stated in pointing out changing market conditions which he said have permitted reopening of the plant.

Stock for slaughter is purchased from the three-county area centering in southern New Mexico's Pecos valley, Payne stated. "We buy nearly all our stock right here," he observed. "All animals are grain fed, permitting top quality."

Payne said he had been busy for the past several weeks in buying cattle, signing contracts, and otherwise arranging for reopening of the plant.

The firm will re-employ about 85 per cent of the people on the payroll when the plant closed in April.

Closing of the plant, attributed to stringent government regulations and a high-priced market, created considerable reaction in Artesia last April, and conferences with government officials followed.

The Chamber of Commerce, which reported it had been making progress on plans to bring a wholesale grocery house here, said the April closing had knocked those plans "into a hat." Whether efforts to secure the wholesale grocery firm will be renewed has not yet been learned.

Lengthy Agenda Faces Council For Wednesday

A lengthy session faces Artesia city council Wednesday night if old and new business on its agenda are any indication. The council is scheduled to meet at 7:30 in its new chambers in City Hall.

Discussion surrounding a proposal to hire former mayor Oren C. Roberts as either construction engineer or city supervisor is expected to come before the council. Councilmen were to have considered the question at their last meeting Aug. 13, but Roberts was unable to attend.

Mayor J. L. Briscoe has stated that hiring of Roberts to supervise proposed city construction, including a $93,000 sewage treatment plant would save the city many times over the $7,200 annual salary proposed for the job.

Councilmen have disagreed over whether to hire Roberts as construction engineer or as city supervisor. Roberts has stated he is still "very much" interested in any proposal the council may make. He cautioned the council in its meeting of July 23, however, to think the entire matter over "very carefully."

Other topics which may come before the council include street repaving, proposed improvements for Artesia airport, and two proposed comprehensive plumbing codes.

Artesia Drillers To Return Home Against Odessa

Artesia Drillers are scheduled to return home today for a game against Odessa at 7:30 tonight in Driller Park. Tonight's game will be the first of a three-game stand.

The series will conclude a critical 13-game round in which Artesia has faced top Longhorn league teams.

Following the Odessa series this week, Drillers will go to Roswell for two games slated for Aug. 29 and 30. Artesia then returns home against Roswell in two games Sept. 1 and 2.

Artesia has 14 scheduled games remaining. The Drillers are scheduled to complete the season here Sept. 8 with Midland.

School Faculties to Brush-Up On Guidance in Two-Day Meet

Entire faculty of the Artesia public schools will participate in a pre-school conference on the general theme "Guidance of the Child." It is the first to be held here.

Opening the conference on Thursday morning will be instructions and general remarks by Tom J. Mayfield, superintendent of the public schools. Keynoting the conference will be the address of Charles Mills, superintendent of Hobbs municipal schools, who will address the entire faculty on the topic of guidance at all levels.

The morning session will be in a body in the high school auditorium at which time general instructions will be given for the balance of the conference. Faculty will be given an opportunity to select the areas of guidance which they would like to attend for the afternoon of August 28.

Areas to be explored and conference leaders are:

"Guidance Within the Classroom," Charles Mills, superintendent of schools, Hobbs.

"Home Room Guidance and Opening Exercises," Ray Robbins, high school principal, Alamogordo.

"Testing System and Records," Mrs. Lucille Westerman, Roswell school, Artesia.

"Case Conference and Counseling," Mrs. Cathryn Hayes, Artesia Junior high school.

"Personality Development and Adjustment," Joe Stroud, guidance director, Carlsbad high school.

"Vocational Guidance," W. S. Bennett, distributive education coordinator, Artesia high school.

"Recreation and Leisure Time Activities," Miss Lillian McCormick, girls' physical education instructor, Artesia high school.

Highlighting the conference will be a social at Junior high school will be held at 7 p. m., August 28. (Continued on Page Eight)

Distributive Education to Begin Third Year in School

The cooperative distributive education program will begin its third year at Artesia high school with approximately 35 students in some twenty-five establishments throughout the city of Artesia.

The distributive education program is a cooperative arrangement between the student, the employer, and the school. Under this plan, the employer in the community furnishes the occupational training laboratory and the school provides related job information, and an opportunity for the student to continue his education.

While this form of education had its most rapid growth during the depression, it is equally necessary during periods of prosperity. When wages are high and labor scarce, the temptation to end regular school work becomes more pronounced. Unless some encouragement is given youth to continue their education, a large majority will never find their way back to regular school work. The part-time program is designed to partially solve this problem.

The cooperative distributive education program was the only organized plan for the edu-tion of the masses of Europe and America in the early days.

The present movement in part-time education is an application of this old idea to industrial and economic conditions of modern city life. The full-time school is not satisfactory for a large portion of our youth who are confronted at the same time engaging in work.

The idea of securing an education on the basis of working part-time in industry and business and attending school during the rest of the day is not new in the history of education. For many years, the "apprenticeship system" was the only organized plan for the edu-

MRS. EDNA BURCK, Correspondent

Circle I of the WSCS met on Wednesday afternoon at the Methodist Undercroft with the president, Mrs. A. A. Bailey, in the chair.

Officers made reports and written reports were prepared for the district officers.

Mrs. J. W. Wiggins led the devotionals, reading the Scripture references. The group sang "Blest Be the Tie That Binds," and Mrs. Bailey offered prayer.

Mrs. Wiggins led the lesson which included several talks on the status of women.

Mrs. Crockett discussed an article in the world outlook and gave references from the study book regarding the status of women in the Methodist church. Women may preach in the Methodist church, but cannot be members of the conference.

Mrs. Willoughby gave an interesting talk on "The Lady Who Licked Crime in Portland," from Coronet magazine. Mrs. Dorothy Lee, mayor of Portland, Ore., who cleaned up the city, was running for re-election during Mrs. Willoughby's recent visit to Portland, and it seemed that the only thing some people objected to was the fact that she was a woman.

Mrs. Lester Hinrichsen read a newspaper article on India Edwards opinion that the Republican party really gave the women of the party scant courtesy during the national convention.

The hostess, Mrs. Carl Ridgley, served delicious sandwiches, olives and punch at the close of the afternoon to the following: Mmes. A. A. Bailey, L. R. Burck, S. H. Crockett, J. F. Campbell, G. W. Christman, Lester Hinrichsen, C. A. Marshbanks, John Shockley, T. J. Shipman, J. W. Wiggins, Mattie Willoughby, W. P. West, G. H. Woolf, Miss James and Katherine Marshbanks.

J. T. West, former mayor of Hagerman, is quite ill at Carlsbad hospital. Mr. West had suffered several heart attacks some months ago and had not fully recovered his health.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Dorman and family of Marlow, Okla., and Mr. and Mrs. Pete Dorman and Robbie of Tahoka, Texas, left on Tuesday after an overnight visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Menout. They visited the Carlsbad Caverns Tuesday.

Mrs. George Gabbert and daughters, Gloria and Patsy, have returned from one of the largest family reunions which we have reported for some time.

The affair was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Bridges of Stanton, Texas, where 99 gathered on Sunday for a dinner on the spacious grounds.

Mrs. Sidney Allen left Friday to attend the wedding of her youngest son, Richard Allen and Miss Virginia Miracle which will be solemnized Saturday evening, Aug. 23 at a Fort Worth Baptist church.

Drillers, Broncs Split Double Bill Saturday Night

Artesia and Big Spring split a doubleheader Saturday night in Bronc territory, with Artesia taking the final 5-0 after Broncs had won the first 2-1.

Aremis Arencibia allowed Drillers eight safeties as against seven given up to the Bronc batters by Mike Rodriguez, who was credited with the loss despite one unearned run by the Oilers.

Vince Sarubbi, John Alonzo, Joe Bauman and Mike Rodriguez collected two hits apiece in the opener, but only Sarubbi scored, crossing the plate in the fifth inning.

Big Spring scored both runs in the fourth, with Juan Vistuer, centerfielder, and Costa, shortstop, notching the plate.

Artesia turned in a four-run ninth to cap the final game Saturday, aided by the two-hit pitching of Irvin Armin, who also drove in the fifth inning's single tally. Ackers came in on Armin's drive after having doubled.

Three runs came in the ninth on Paul Halter's homer with two aboard.

Oscar Reguera was credited with the loss in the final game.

The Quarterback Club

YOU FOOTBALL FANS who missed last night's Quarterback club meeting in the Senior high cafeteria probably wish by now you had attended. For the group showed a great deal of pep and enthusiasm over the forthcoming season and the club's program to assist both coaches and players in a successful season.

Keystone of the Quarterback club's program this year is an effort to buy at least one movie camera and sufficient film to photograph all Bulldog games this season. A camera with lens big enough to do the job on night football games does not come inexpensively.

Films shown after the game are a training aid to the football squad and the coaches, who can back up and show in slow motion or stills the errors which may have cost valuable yardage—or a touchdown. The team will get first use of the films, of course.

Those films are mighty interesting to the public, too, especially when the team plays away from home and many Artesians are unable to attend. Public showing of the film the week following the game, however, will recapture every play.

Membership in the Quarterback club is $3 for the year. The organization meets in the high school cafeteria, and has coffee and doughnuts as a snack during the evening. Three or four times during the season, the football team is brought in as guests.

Plan to attend the next Quarterback club meeting.

Extend Thanks to Them

THERE IS IN THIS community as well as every other community where local projects are being carried out a fine group of civic minded individuals who do these jobs.

We want our community to be as progressive as the next community. We want our Girl and Boy Scout programs, Red Cross campaign, Chamber of Commerce projects, Salvation Army work and other movements to succeed.

Back of everyone of these projects is a group of local citizens, men and women, giving of their time, their ability and their money to the undertaking. That is why they are succeeding.

Most communities need to take off a day now and then and pay tribute to these fine workers and to honor them for the good job they are doing.

And we in Artesia need to say thank you to this group who are carrying out their civic and community obligations and responsibilities. Without them these projects would not succeed and could not be carried out.

Worry About Your Own

IF WE COULD get every operator of a motor vehicle to worry about his own driving, his own lights, his own brakes and his own car—we could eliminate most of the accidents which occur on our highways today.

Unfortunately, however, we are told to be careful because of the other fellow. The other fellow is told to be careful because of our driving.

Yet the fact remains if each and everyone of us would employ care and caution and use the safety knowledge we have—we could eliminate 50 to 75 per cent of the accidents occurring today.

It isn't so much what the other fellow does, but rather what we do each and everyone of us. And if each of us would be careful then we would have only careful drivers and operators on the highways.

When as individual drivers we have our brakes and lights right for our own safety and when we are willing to drive carefully as individuals there will be less accidents and more safe driving on our highways.

Register, Then Go Vote

WE PROBABLY WOULD all be surprised if we actually knew how many good American citizens there are qualified to be eligible to vote who up to the present time have not registered.

We say, we would be surprised at the number of people—most of whom are complaining about the conduct of public officials—who aren't even registered so they can go and vote.

But they can register and qualify between now and 30 days prior to November 31. The registration books are open until 30 days before the date of the general election—October 6 this year.

But there is no need or use to register if we are not going to vote. The fact is it is a waste of time to qualify to vote and then to refuse or to fail to go to the polls and cast a ballot.

We have been doing that now for a good many years. We believe we need some changes. We believe we need some new faces in public office. We believe the average American citizen feels exactly the same way about it.

We believe in the two party system. We wish we had two strong parties. We don't believe there is much difference between these two parties because after all we should be good Americans before we are good party members.

But we know that any party which remains in power too long becomes corrupt. And we believe that about those in high places in the federal government—those who claim to be Democrats. Some of the real Democrats and good Democrats aren't convinced these individuals are good Democrats.

We believe if the Republican party had been in power for 20 years it would be time to change them, too.

But we don't bring about these changes sitting in our homes talking about the situation, complaining on the street corner, or writing letters to the editors of our newspapers.

The only way we can bring about the changes we say we want and we believe we want is by going to the polls and casting our ballot. To be eligible to do that we must be registered.

Do you believe in a Dollar sign?

There are a lot of signs to guide you to the best buy in automobiles. Popularity is a good sign. It means that a lot of people have tried a car and found it good. So it's important to know that Buick is today—and has been since 1938—the most popular car outside the "low-priced three."

Room, comfort, power, ride are good signs. So it's important to know that you can pay hundreds of dollars more and not beat the room and comfort you get in a Buick SPECIAL.

Nor, at the price, can you match its power. And only Buick gives you a real million dollar ride.

Doesn't all this give you a hint? Doesn't it suggest that you ought to try out a Buick—sample its Fireball 8 Engine—find out how it takes you over the road—feel the sure control that is yours on curves—discover its "big car" room and smoothness?

Do that—and look at the dollars on the price tag—and we know what you'll find out:
If you can afford a new car, you can own a Buick—and boy, what fun that will be!
Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice.

Sure is true for '52

When better automobiles are built BUICK will build them

North Eddy Girls Win High Place In State 4-H

Bobbie Jean Freeman of Artesia has won state first prize in senior division clothing demonstration competition. It was learned here this week-end.

Jacqueline McNeil of Cottonwood placed third in the state junior division clothing demonstration. Norma Jo Thigpen, also of Cottonwood, is first in the district junior dress review and will compete with winners from three other districts at finals at the State Fair in Albuquerque next week.

Miss Freeman won first with her demonstration on shoulder pads. Miss McNeil was third high with her styling stitching demonstration.

Judges awarded the ratings after observing winners in four district contests this year, rather than having a state-wide contest at State College, Las Cruces. The state 4-H encampment was cancelled due to polio.

Artesia Eagles Drop Finals in Twelve Innings

Artesia Eagles dropped a tough 11-10 decision to Van Horn, Texas, in finals of the semi-pro Southwest league Sunday in a game at Van Horn.

Heavy Artesia errors—14 of them—cost the Eagles the ball game.

Ken Foster went for 11 innings for Artesia before being relieved in the 12th by Raul Viton. Van Horn used four pitchers against the Eagles.

Van Horn started scoring in the first with two runs, added another in the second and two more in the third. Artesia scored singles in the second, third and fourth, then two more in the sixth to tie up the game.

But the Texans edged ahead with a single in the bottom of the stanza, piled on three more in the bottom of the seventh to counter four Artesia runs by McCortez, Cervantez, Foster, and Lugo.

The game was tied up again in the tenth when both managed one run. Van Horn slipped into victory in the 12th when Valdes knocked a single, came in on Martinez' single.

Distributive—

education program is designed to prepare youth for employment in the distribution of goods, services, and ideas. Distributive education is a specific vocational area of business training. However, by special arrangement with the state department of distributive education, an allowance is made whereby students may be enrolled in occupations other than the distributive field. This makes the training possibilities unlimited.

Practical Education—

The great majority of youth enter directly into the business and industrial world at the completion of their high school work. It is highly essential, therefore, that every opportunity be provided for a practical education which will fit high school youth into the world of work.

Although the primary purpose of the distributive education program is to serve this need, many students enrolled in the course may change their plans and continue their educational training in college. The work is accepted as entrance credit by most of the colleges in the Southwest.

Although the program is primarily set for the 1952-53 school year, there are still a need for several training stations. If businessmen are interested they can obtain more information by calling 141, asking for William S. Bennett, coordinator of the program. He will call on businessmen to give a complete explanation.

Lake Arthur—

All teachers except two have degrees at Lake Arthur school, Cross pointed out. He said the two lacking degrees have only a few hours remaining to meet degree requirements.

Experienced—All teachers are experienced except Miss Ridley, Cross stated. She is beginning her career as a teacher. Two teachers are new to the state. Miss Ramer is formerly of Robert L. Collins, draftsman seaman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Collins of 806 Bullock avenue, Artesia, has reported for duty here at the headquarters of Admiral Arthur W. Radford, Commander-in-Chief, U. S. Pacific Fleet.

Collins enlisted in the Naval service Jan. 12, 1951, and received his recruit training at the Naval Training Center, San Diego, Calif. He was graduated from Navy draftsman school, Port Hueneme, Calif., before coming to the Pacific Fleet Command. He is now assigned to the plane division there.

Before his entry in the Navy, the Artesia sailor was graduated from Artesia high school and attended Amarillo college and Eastern New Mexico university at Portales, N. M. He is a member of the Sigma Alpha Delta fraternity.
