Committees Make Final Holiday Plans

Final plans to coordinate Christmas plans will be made today in a noon session meeting of Chamber of Commerce agencies in-charge. C of C Pres. Ralph Hayes has announced. Plans have already been made to string Christmas lights and decorations in the community this Sunday. The lights, however, will not be turned on until next Saturday. The official opening day for the Christmas season. Plans scheduled for next Saturday, Nov. 29, are an appearance by Santa Claus with his live reindeer, Santa Claus give-away programs, traveling of windows entered in the chamber's annual window contest. Plans for this year's Christmas program in Artesia will be essentially the same as the program in 1951. Only a few changes have been planned, it is observed.

Plans to meet today to coordinate Christmas holiday planning in the business observation is being held are the chamber's recreation committee, the Christmas committee, and executive committee. Plans will be formally turned over to Santa Claus on Nov. 29, next Saturday. Nov. 29, Santa Claus will be giving the signal to businessmen to formalize their observance of the Christmas season.

Information on Santa's plans will be released next week. Santa Claus gift program was eliminated this year from the Yule promotion plan because of the volume of other gifts. Hayes stated.

Artesia observed Christmas will be only one Christmas tree this year in the city. The tree in the fifth and Main, because of the broken and funds not available for replacing this year.

Christmas Returns Received

Christmas returns from the county residents will be coming in by mail to the headquarters of the North County Tuberculosis association. John Heaton, county health secretary, announced yesterday.

John Heaton, county health secretary, announced yesterday that the post office has delivered Christmas returns to county residents and will be returning their contributions to the headquarters of the North County Tuberculosis association. Heaton said, "The cheerful returns are invaluable in helping to raise funds for the fight against tuberculosis."

Christmas Seal Sale which runs from Nov. 17 and will continue through Dec. 25 is conducted annually by the National Tuberculosis association, including the North County Tuberculosis association.

Though early returns are light, Heaton feels certain that Artesia residents will be as generous in buying and using Christmas seals on their holiday cards as last year.

The postmen bring to our attention the contributions of the people in this area. I like to recall that it was a postal worker who started the whole thing. It was Einar Holboell, a postal clerk, who first started using a special stamp on Christmas mail to raise money for the fight against tuberculosis.

Heaton explained that Christmas Seal money is used in this county for tuberculosis prevention and other projects.

Construction on 24 New Defense Houses Authorized

Building permits amounting to $113,000 have been issued to American Builders, Inc., of Albuquerque, to build 24 more two and three-bedroom defense houses, a check of city building permits disclosed this week.

The Albuquerque firm, which had constructed 27 FHA homes here prior to launching its 72-unit defense housing project, plans an additional 17 two-bedroom units and seven three-bedroom units in the 1100 and 1200 blocks of Clayton.

Duplex Defense Housing Project Near Completion

About 25 per cent of duplex apartments being built for defense workers will be completed the first of the week, according to a monthly newsletter prepared by Carl Foster, manager of the New Mexico employment security commission Artesia office.

Another 10 apartments in the project, located near Junior high school, will be completed each week until all 40 apartments in the project are finished, Foster reported.

The manager also reported: Present local labor demands are for insurance salesmen, automobile and truck mechanics, some sales clerk work, and domestics.

There has been some increase in the activity in the petroleum industry which has reduced the number of oil field workers registered as unemployed.

Southwest Potash corporation is making a few hires; however, they have applications on hand from workers in this area to more than supply any needs for some time to come.

About 25 per cent of the apartments being constructed for defense workers will be ready for occupancy the first of the week and another 10 apartments will be finished each week until all of the 40 apartments are completed.

Construction is continuing on the 10-room school as well as 72 homes being constructed under the defense housing program. Rental housing is very scarce in Artesia, and while the completion of the above units will relieve this situation to some extent, desirable housing will continue to be difficult to obtain.

Cotton harvest, which should be completed about the first of December, is the principle farm activity and with the completion of this harvest a number of workers will be released to offset any shortage of unskilled workers in this area.

Today's schools teach three R's better than ever before, J. Cloyd Miller, president of New Mexico Highlands university at Silver City and past National Education association president, told Artesia Lion club Wednesday. "We hear a great deal of criticism that we are not teaching these subjects (reading, writing, arithmetic) as well as we used to," Miller pointed out. "Actually we teach them better in our schools than we ever did. It more pupils that the students who couldn't learn the three R's were forced out of school—we'd hold them back from advancing until they eventually dropped out. Now we try to keep students in school the entire 12 years, and do the

The Albuquerque firm, which had constructed 27 FHA homes here prior to launching its 72-unit defense housing project, plans an additional 17 two-bedroom units and seven three-bedroom units in the 1100 and 1200 blocks of Clayton. All units are for sale to defense workers who are also veterans.

Fred Sproul of American Builders has announced that attempts by his firm and by the Artesia Chamber of Commerce to have qualification rulings on defense housing here have not met with success.

Purchase of the new housing is limited to certain U. S. government employees, and to workers directly hired by oil exploration and refining companies, plus workers directly hired by potash mining companies in the area.

A broader ruling which would have permitted purchase or rental of defense housing by workers in allied industries which service the defense industries, has been declined by regional federal housing officials in Kansas City.

Meanwhile, Clyde Gilman chairman of the Chamber of Commerce housing committee, said Thursday the current projects under construction by American Builders and by Edgar H. Snow of Casa Bonita, Inc., are the only ones planned for Artesia in the immediate future, to his knowledge. (Continued on Page Six)

Mary West Is Named to College Who's Who Book

Mary Lois West of Artesia, a student at Eastern New Mexico university, Portales, is one of 17 ENMU students accepted for recognition in the 1952-53 edition of "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges."

Miss West is a junior and is the third Artesia student in a New Mexico university to be accepted in the Who's Who. Selection at ENMU for the honor is by a secret campus committee on basis of scholarship, leadership, and cooperation in educational and extracurricular activities.

best we can for each individual," he declared. Miller also pointed out that now schools teach the three C's—culture, citizenship, and character.

"We may not have a course in character meeting for a certain hour every day," he stated, "but through our entire program are opportunities for character development. Miller stressed community control of the school's educational offerings for young people of the particular community. "That is the difference in our educational system and that of other nations," he declared. "In no other country is there public education such as we have in America. "In this country we have the local community's people deciding what is to be taught, who is to

Chamber Of Commerce To Nominate Four Directors At Membership Meeting Monday

Library Plans Open House in New Quarters

Open house in its new quarters in basement of City Hall will be held from 12:30 to 5:30 Saturday by Artesia Public Library, Mrs. S. P. Yates, chairman of the library board, has announced. On display for the first time Saturday will be new furniture purchased for the library, as well as special exhibits of books and a collection of paintings by three local artists.

The open house has been planned to close the library's celebration of Book Week, which has been marked by special displays of new books being received almost daily at the library. Local Paintings—Paintings by local artists to be hung at the library for Saturday's open house include work by Wayne Hornbaker, Helen Mapes, and Dorothea DeMars.

Mrs. Donald Knorr, librarian, noted the library plans to have a continuing exhibit of work by these and other local artists, and will periodically change the exhibit.

New furniture to be shown Saturday, includes a combination magazine and newspaper rack in the main reading room, a new book truck. Two children's tables including a large, round reading table and one with a sloping top designed to hold large picture books.

Scheduled for early delivery to the library is a large beg board display on which actual books and other bulk materials can be displayed, giving an advantage over the bulletin board type of display.

Books Displayed—Books are being displayed in the windows of a downtown department store as part of Book Week, and Mrs. Knorr suggested that residents seeing a new book in the window display may make reservations for the volume when it is placed in circulation following Book Week.

A table where residents may donate books from their personal collections to the library will also be a part of Saturday's open house. Mrs. Knorr pointed out the library may use the book for its own shelves, or if a duplication, will pass it on to a deserving receiver.

During the afternoon Saturday, library board members will be in attendance at the open house. Members of the board, of which Mrs. Yates is chairman, include Mrs. Effie Wingfield, Mrs. L. B. Feather, Mrs. Ralph Rogers, Mrs. P. V. Morris, Mrs. Hollis Watson, Miss Ruth Russell, Mrs. Harold Kersey, and Mrs. Curtis Bolton.

DAV to Accept Toys as Gifts For Needy Kids

Disabled American Veterans will accept toys to be given Artesia needy children at Christmas-time, chapter officers have announced. Toys for this program may be left at Veterans Memorial building. Donors may also call the building, phone 559-J, or telephone F. F. Blessing at Loring Cleaners for pick-up of the toys.

necessities, Miller pointed out. Industrial arts has become an accepted part of the school program. A continuing shortage of teachers is threatening to become even more serious than at present, he pointed out. "We needed 160,000 new teachers in the elementary schools this year, but the colleges graduated only 32,143 this year."

As a result of this shortage, some states are granting certificates to high school graduates and to older teachers who take a brief refresher course before returning to the elementary classrooms. "Fortunately in New Mexico this has not become highly critical yet," Miller noted, "for we can offer comparable or better salaries than many other states. However, New Mexico has never produced enough teachers to take care of its needs, and we lose 10 per cent of

Humorist's Talk Is Slated for Next Knife-Fork

Members of Artesia Knife and Fork club will have as their next guest speaker William E. Skadden, humorist and able man on the platform. He will speak at the Masonic Temple Monday, Nov. 24 at 7 p. m., according to John E. Cochran, Jr., president, who is the chairman of the committee on arrangements.

Plans are being made to entertain the large crowd of members and their house guest who are expected to be on hand to hear Mr. Skadden.

According to those who have heard him, Skadden is one of the rarest of the rare birds—and one who is as welcome as he is hard to snare—a humorist who is really funny. This is of importance as alas not a few speakers who come highly touted for their humor, turn out to be much less funny than they have been advertised.

Deadly Weapon Assault Charges Are Reduced

Charges of assault with a deadly weapon against two Artesia men who allegedly beat two other men with brass knuckles were reduced in Artesia justice of peace court Tuesday to a lesser charge.

Judge J. D. Josey said charges were reduced to assault and battery following a consultation between the two charged men and Asst. Dist. Atty. Charles Feezer. The men agreed to plead guilty to the lesser charge, were fined $100 plus doctors' and hospital bills incurred by their victims, and given 30-day deferred jail sentences.

Monday the two men—Herbert A. Halterman and John T. Sachaczinski—pleaded guilty to an assault and battery charge lodged by a third man following a beating by the pair two weeks ago.

Halterman and Sachaczinski had pleaded innocence during their arraignment on the assault with deadly weapon charges. An Artesia resident and a Walker Air Force base airman had filed the deadly weapon assault charges against the pair after the two men forced one off the road between the Ranch House and Artesia and attacked the other as he was leaving the Ranch House.

our teachers every year. "What can we do? "We can maintain salaries, increasing them where necessary. We can devote attention to teacher housing problems, which is one of the first concerns of a teacher looking for a job.

"And our children are still going to overcrowded schools, which are a tremendous problem in Artesia, as they are in every other city." The educator urged Artesia businessmen to be concerned with the problems of the schools, taking an active part in school affairs, and offering suggestions for meeting continuing problems—teacher supply such as teach supply and adequate school housing—in the local community.

Response Good To Community Chest Drive

Good reception of Community Chest workers has been reported by campaign chairman Mrs. H. R. Paton, who said Thursday the Red Feather drive has been with the best response in its four years.

More than $3,000 had been collected by Wednesday toward Community Chest's $9,317 goal, and drive officials were hopeful conclusion of the campaign will see an over-the-top subscription.

Many drive workers have not yet made early reports on their collections, and it is believed an amount substantially in excess of $3,000 has been collected but remains unreported to date.

Drive workers are being urged to an early conclusion of the campaign, which will give operating funds to Girl Scouts, North Eddy County Tuberculosis association, United Defense Fund, Artesia Council of Social Agencies, and Council of Social Agencies welfare fund.

Workers are still needed in the campaign for some districts, drive officials noted. Business district away from the heart of town is not being fully covered, and campaign workers who may devote time to that area are urged to call the Girl Scout office, center for the Community Chest campaign, at phone 1156.

Residential, industrial, business, and rural canvassing division have been set up to push this year's Community Chest drive, which is sponsored by the Allied Council of Social Agencies, an organization including nearly every Artesia civic, social, and welfare agency.

Residential areas are being covered by Central School Parent-teachers association in that school's area, Girl Scouts in the Park school area, Henry Hernandez on the North Side, and Mrs. Ora Collie in the Carver school area.

Workers for the farm division have not been fully recruited as yet, Mrs. Paton reported, and persons interested in this phase of the Community Chest campaign are urged to contact the headquarters.

Get-Together—Meanwhile, Floyd Springer, president of the Council of Social Agencies, said arrangements are (Continued on Page Six)

Individuals representing the community, schools, students, citizens, and teachers will take part in the brief ceremony. No "outside speaker" has been obtained for the event.

The general public is urged to tour the building, which incorporates latest educational construction features, achieved at exceptionally low cost.

MISS Sally Sears, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Sears of Artesia, will be entered in the El Paso Sun Carnival queen contest under sponsorship of Artesia Lions club, the organization voted Wednesday.

Funeral Services For Mrs. Rideout Planned Today

Funeral services for Mrs. Luther Rideout, an Artesia telephone operator for 25 years, will be held at 2:30 this afternoon, relatives have announced.

Mrs. Rideout died suddenly at 6:30 Wednesday evening in Artesia General hospital, following a very short illness. She was 50.

Funeral services this afternoon will be held in Pauline Funeral Home chapel with Rev. Ralph O'Dell officiating. Burial will be in Woodbine cemetery.

Pallbearers will be Reed Dowell, Bill Horner, Ed Watson, Charlie Scott, J. L. Jover, and W. F. Hinde.

Born Gladys Thelma Yeager on Jan. 5, 1902, in Guthrie Center, Iowa, Mrs. Rideout was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Yeager.

On Feb. 1, 1923, she was married to Luther Rideout in Artesia. Mr. Rideout survives his wife.

Mrs. Rideout came to Artesia in 1908 from Iowa. As a telephone operator she won the goodwill of many people across the community, and is widely known throughout Artesia.

Survivors include her mother, Mrs. W. A. Yeager, and her widower, as well as two sisters and two brothers. They are Mrs. Helen Hiser of Artesia; Mrs. Myrna Fox, Silver City; C. C. Yeager, Houston; and W. H. Yeager and Kirk E. Yeager of Artesia.

Thanksgiving Service Planned For Thursday

Annual union Thanksgiving Day services will be held in Artesia at 10 a. m. next Thursday in the First Methodist church, the Artesia Ministerial Alliance has announced.

Services on Thanksgiving Day will be under direction of Rev. William McMahon. Participating ministers will include the Reverends Ralph O'Dell, Arthur G. Bell, Raul Salazar, and R. L. Willingham.

Members attending the discussion should have read the selections from the Pelotomiesian War by Thucydides.

Housing Matters to Be Discussed

Nominations to fill four vacancies in the Artesia Chamber of Commerce board of directors meeting will be considered at a general membership meeting scheduled for noon Monday in Elks Hall, Pres. Ralph Hayes has announced.

Members whose term of office expire Dec. 31 this year include Bill Keys, C. D. Hopkins, Bob Bourland, and G. Taylor Cole. All are eligible for re-election except Hopkins, who will have served two consecutive terms as of Dec. 31.

Other business to come before the general chamber membership meeting will be appointment of a budget committee to study the chamber's 1953 budget and to outline plans for a fund campaign.

Finances have been a critical problem in the organization this year, having forced the board of directors into borrowing $2,000 to operate the C of C until the end of the year.

Other matters to come before the membership meeting will include the Christmas project, housing, and such other matters as members may introduce during the session.

A five-man nominating committee to be appointed by Hayes will nominate two men for each of the four vacancies, the president pointed out. Customarily one of the names nominated is that of the incumbent.

Nominations may also be made from the floor during the general meeting.

In answer to queries, Hayes also listed expiration dates for other chamber directors' terms: Dec. 31, 1954—Stanley Carper, W. M. Siegenthaler, Ralph Hayes, A. C. Sadler, Charles K. Johnson.

Dec. 31, 1953—Clyde Guy, J. L. Taylor, George Ferriman, Thad Cox, Wayne Faulin, Cecil Waldrep. 1953 Ineligibles—At the end of 1953, Guy, Taylor, Paulin, Cox, and Ferriman, will be ineligible for re-election, Hayes observed.

On the nominating committee will serve an outgoing director (Hopkins is the only one), an incumbent, and three from the chamber's membership, Hayes said.

Voting on new directors will be conducted mail through a system insuring absolute secrecy, the C of C president declared.

Ballots are sent to all paid-up members by mail. Voting is done on the ballots by marking only an X against the candidate being voted for. Ballots are unsigned, and there is no indication of the voter's identity. Ballots are returned to the chamber in an enclosed, stamped, addressed envelope.

A special three-man canvassing committee appointed from among the membership will open and tabulate the ballots.

Artesia Hunter Gets Buck Two Hours Before End

Artesia High School Principal's Election as Vice-President of State Educators Confirmed

Travis Stovall, principal of Artesia high school, was announced by the executive board of the New Mexico Education association Thursday following a convention last month. The nomination of Stovall as vice-president of the NMEA was confirmed at the convention. NMEA provides for write-in by

of the State Association of Secondary Principals he helped organize the State Association of Student Councils. And now he is the active chairman of a group that is slowly evolving a state high school activity association—a long needed advancement for New Mexico.

These are the days when we hear so much about minorities on the American scene—the 167 more or less junior and senior high school principals—we're just a drop in the bucket among the more than 6,000 members of our profession—have a candidate for vice-president. He is the cream of our crop, selected from our stalwarts by a committee of ten, all of whom have their eyes open. We give you your consideration and your support the principal of the Artesia high school. Some will say he is a sectional candidate (all who live in a house and work in a district of New Mexico will forgive him for that). Some will say that he lives among the oil wells and has the valley of the Pecos only at heart. High school principals, his co-workers, know better.

These are the days when political cliches float through the air with the greatest of ease. You will say educational cliches follow not so far behind. "Educational opportunity equalized for all the children of New Mexico is not just a vain dream. This leader from the principals ranks whom I am nominating is not a believer in swift change (he is not a radical) but he does believe in moving and moving in the right direction. Our candidate believes in educational opportunity equalized and realized.

The classroom teachers of Artesia admire his professional leadership. For the first time in the history of local association work in our state—a local association—the Artesia Education association—has written to all the other local groups in the state and the subject we admit is the candidacy of their own high school principal. "Our candidate has served long in the NMEA, the NEA, and in the Artesia local group. As president of the State Association of Secondary Principals he helped organize the State Association of Student Councils. And now he is the active chairman of a group that is slowly evolving a state high school activity association—a long needed advancement for New Mexico. "I did not come here to extol the virtues and list the accomplishments of our candidate. My pleasant responsibility is to place in nomination a school man, a principal who believes in democratic action, who knows how to work with large groups. "And to the point—for the principals of New Mexico, for our profession and for all the children of all the people for vice-president of the NMEA I enthusiastically nominate Travis Stovall of Artesia."

Artesia Will End Season Tonight With Tilt Against Cruces

Seven Seniors To Play Last Bulldog Game

Artesia's Bulldogs will close their 1952 football season away from home tonight against the fighting Bulldogs across the mountains at Las Cruces.

Artesia, on the basis of season records, is rated a slight favorite over the Las Cruces, but a fiery build-up at Cruces, climaxed by a three-day Homecoming celebration; plus Las Cruces' revenge motives, is expected to give Artesia plenty of trouble.

In addition, Coach Cal Hall, as reported in another story on today's sport page, is again beset with the injury jinx which may take as many as four key players from tonight's contest.

For seven of the Bulldogs, tonight's game will be their last contest on a high school gridiron. Seven graduating seniors will have plenty of chance to wind up their high school careers in a blaze of glory.

On the field for the last time under Artesia High school's banner will be co-captains Yumpy Barker and Bill Brown, the passer-receiver team that has clicked to make the difference in many a game; Bobby Loyd, hard-driving and at times brilliant in attacking; Jimmy Dew, whose last year has been beset by a knee injury that has not allowed him to do justice to his fine ability on the line; the always reliable Doug Whitefield who has again and again speeded and twisted for key yardage; Don Golden, Artesia's shining candidate for all-state center; and tough Howard Price, another Bulldog capable of great play but severely handicapped in his last year by injury.

Artesia may expect these Seniors will be playing for high stakes tonight—the chance to be better remembered in the minds of townspeople as a fighting team that but for some mighty bad breaks might have made the championship.

Reserves may make the difference in tonight's game, for both Bulldog teams are known to be weak on reserves, although Artesia will enter the fray with more of its key personnel crippled.

Tonight's game will be played on the field at Aggie Memorial stadium on the New Mexico A&M college campus at Las Cruces, where a sell-out crowd has been conservatively predicted for tonight's over-the-mountain classic.

Las Cruces has plenty of motive for gunning the Artesians, who have licked Las Cruces twice in two years of contests between the schools.

The Las Cruces record to date shows only one loss, and that to Roswell by 9-7 in the first game of a season which opened late at Las Cruces due to that city's polo drive.

After the Roswell loss, Cruces turned to beat Carlsbad 19-0, Deming 50-0, Alamogordo 44-14, St. Michael's of Santa Fe 39-7, and Albuquerque High 38-14.

Artesia defeated Roswell 26-0, Alamogordo 28-0, St. Mike's 22-0, and Albuquerque High 14-0, but lost out to Carlsbad by 6-0.

It is not expected that Artesia's sub bench will see much action tonight, in contrast to last Friday's romp over St. Mary's in Artesia. Coach Hall will rely heavily on those regulars still able to see extensive action.

The entire squad has been drilling over the last two weeks to pat down a new offensive for tonight's game against Las Cruces. The offense was given a dress rehearsal at last Friday's St. Mary's game.

THE ARTESIA ADVOCATE SPORTS

Cruces, Coming From Behind, Out to Take Second Place

By EARL DAPP
Sports Editor, Las Cruces Sun-News

Las Cruces Bulldogs, rebounding from a disastrous loss in their opening game of the season at the hands of the Roswell Coyotes, 9-7, followed through by taking the next seven games on their schedule to place them in a position to take the second spot in the New Mexico class A conference race, if they are successful in getting by the Artesia Bulldogs.

Early season prospects for the Bulldogs of Cruces appeared mighty slim indeed. The coaching staff, at the outset of the season, were faced with the task of rebuilding the team from the ground up, as seven lettermen answered the initial call for practice.

The problem was doubly difficult, for at the time practice was opening in most schools throughout the state, Las Cruces was suffering in the grip of a record-breaking epidemic of polio. However, though undermanned, and with practice session held to a minimum, the Cruces squad made the trip to Roswell and were patted with their first and only defeat of the season.

Decline of polio in the area brought an influx of potential grid talent out for the practice sessions at Union Field, and the squad gained from a slim 21 players to 60 by the time the Bulldogs went into preparation for their clash with the Carlsbad Cavemen, champions of New Mexico class A ball for two years running. The game won by the Cruces stopped the Cavemen win streak at 21 consecutive contests.

After the Carlsbad fracas, the Bulldogs offensive machine slipped into high gear, and they rambled to lopsided victory over Alamogordo, Deming, St. Michael's of Santa Fe, Albuquerque and Silver City.

In probably their toughest encounter of the year to date, the Bulldogs came from a 14-12 half-time deficit with Albuquerque, to blast out a 38-14 triumph.

The Bulldogs, spearheaded by the running of four fine backs, Lawrence Lopez at the T-quarter slot, fleet-footed Jerry Apodaca at one half, and hard-running Skipper Duke at the opposite half, along with the explosive Rudy Estrada in the fullback position, have rattled the defensive formations of their opponents.

Defensively, it is the work of Coach Hall said the new tactics were called for "because Artesia has been scouted so many times by Las Cruces this year, just as we were by Carlsbad."

three players, Jack Glover and Frank Steele at the terminal posts, and big Joe Singleton at left tackle that has allowed only 51 points in eight games.

The balance of the line, which averages close to the 170 mark, are Don Padilla and John Barela at guards, Bobby Robles in the right tackle spot, and Jack Mayfield at center.

The Bulldog offense operates from the "T" with variations, with Lopez in the hand-off slot.

The Nov. 21 fracas with Artesia, set in the New Mexico A&M Memorial stadium, has been designated as "Homecoming" for Las Cruces Union high school, and the Cruces will be out to prove, beyond the shadow of a doubt, their right to second spot in the state.

Three Bulldogs May Get Hand As All-Staters

Artesia has some important contributions to make to New Mexico college football, along with other schools in the state, according to J. D. Kailer, sports editor of the Albuquerque Journal.

Kailer in his column lists the top players seen by his staff in 1952 high school grid games and points out the material available for the state's universities.

Some Artesia fans are thinking Kailer may also be tipping his hand on possible all-staters.

Stalwarts from Artesia mentioned by Kailer are Bill Brown for end, Yumpy Barker at quarterback, and Larry Beadle, fullback. But says Kailer, none of his staff have seen Carlsbad or Hobbs in action this year, and so those boys aren't mentioned. He lists his observations this way:

"At ends, Las Cruces' Jack Glover and Artesia's Bill Brown get the nod; Hobbs—Ken Morrison and Tom Pruett—tackles hold sway in these posts; Highland's Teddy Rhodes tops a good crop of guards; Albuquerque's Mike Schlick takes center. The backfield presents a man-sized headache. Las Cruces' Larry Lopez or Artesia's Yumpy Barker, quarter-

Quarterback Club Slates Officer Election, Two Films for Monday

Election of officers will be the key business before the Artesia Quarterback club next Monday night in a meeting scheduled for 6:30 in the Senior high school cafeteria. Pres. Fritz Crawford has announced. Coffee and doughnuts will be served during the program.

Also slated for Monday's meeting are showing of the Carlsbad and St. Mary's games with Artesia, Crawford has announced. The club is also to discuss plans to work with the high school Pep club in preparing a post-season football banquet.

Attendance by every member who can possibly be free Monday night was urged by Crawford, who pointed out that increasing number of projects by the Quarterback club calls for an election of officers by all the organization's members.

Mathis Fires 379 In A&M College Rifle Match

Despite a blistering 379 fired by Johnny Mathis of Artesia, captain of the New Mexico A&M Rifle and Pistol club rifle team, his team lost to the Las Cruces club in first match of the season.

Top score fired by M-Sgt. F. D. Conway of the Cruces team was 377.

Shooting with Mathis were Robert Rabe, Phil Wilson, John Lockhart, and Quinnie Flint.

back; Farmington's Ralph Boan and Bill Keys, Hobbs' Dave Murrell and Don Spoonmore, Santa Fe's Joe Chavez, Albuquerque's Jack Brown, Highland's Tom McDonald, halves; Artesia Larry Beadle, Las Cruces' Rudy Estrada, Farmington's Clark Manwarren, and Highland's Rusty Schaffer, fullback Glover and Boan are juniors, the rest graduate in June.

Full text of Kailer's column urging graduating high school athletes to consider New Mexico colleges rather than out-of-state schools will be printed in the Artesia Advocate in a forthcoming issue.

High School Pep, A Clubs Sell Season Cage Tickets

Season tickets for Artesia Senior high school basketball games are now on sale by members of the A club and Pep club, Coach Reese Smith has announced.

Tickets are priced at $5 for the nine Bulldog home cage games, and mean a saving of $1.75 over single admission purchase, Smith pointed out.

Members of the two clubs will canvass the community, but Artesians by-passed in the drive may phone 815-J (the school athletic office) or drop in at the school to make their purchase.

Cruces Designates Artesia Game As Homecoming

Artesia's game with Las Cruces Friday night will be the climax of a three-day homecoming for Las Cruces Union high school students, according to reports reaching here this week.

Features of the Cruces Homecoming, which are calculated to stir interest of students, adults—and football players—to a fever pitch, include color day Thursday, a cheering session and bonfire Thursday night, a big float parade, and a closed dance for students and alumni following the big Artesia-Las Cruces game.

Learning of all the ballyhoo, one Artesia fan shook his head Wednesday, pointing out "Cruces in just its usual spirit is tough enough, but this really makes it rough."

Central School PTA Launches Study Program Toward School Improvement

About 90 teachers and parents attended the regular meeting of Central school PTA at the school music room Wednesday, Nov. 12.

The program opened with a dramatized song, "Frog Went A-Courting," given by fourth grade pupils under direction of Miss Jean Rogers, music teacher.

During the business meeting conducted by the president, Mrs. C. S. Powell, the executive committee reported a new committee is to be appointed to study improvements needed at Central school.

Mrs. Wallace Beck, membership chairman, reported 163 members to date, 27 of which are men, and all the teachers have joined.

Miss Marvel Milam, executive director of Southeast New Mexico Girl Scouts, spoke briefly on "Girl Scouting and the Community Chest." She pointed out how necessary it is to have financial support as well as interest and volunteer work to keep a good Girl Scouting program in the city and area.

Those present were divided into small "buzz" groups of three to five to discuss the purposes of local, state, and national PTA associations. After six minutes of discussion each group reported back a summary of their session. The following were the group subjects and their leaders: Publications of PTA—Miss Nina McCarter; programs—Mrs. Winifred Haralson; membership—Mrs. Wallace Beck; publicity—Mrs. C. P. Bunch; meetings—Mrs. Wayne Adkins; national PTA—Jean Stone; purpose of PTA—Mrs. Ralph Petty; PTA state scholarship fund—Mrs. Walter Short; service projects—Mrs. F. F. White; money-making projects—Mrs. Charles Bullock; "50 teachers to a classroom" project—Stacey Stalcup; improvements needed at Central school—E. J. Treat; PTA emblems and themes—Mrs. Howard Lewis.

The meeting concluded with cold drinks served by the hospitality committee, Mrs. Wayne Adkins, chairman.

Methodists Plan Thanksgiving Vesper Service

Thanksgiving vesper services at the Methodist church will be held at 4:30 p. m. this Sunday, Nov. 23, Rev. R. L. Willingham has announced.

An organ prelude will begin at 4 p. m.

The church choir under the direction of Mrs. Glenn A. C. Key will present the program, with Miss Jean Rogers, Mrs. Kenneth Ford, and Mrs. Loyd Taylor presenting solos.

Justin D. Bradbury will give a cornet solo.

Organ music will be by Charles Cox, and Miss Peggy Rogers will be pianist.

Response Good—

Community response to the Community Chest idea and appeal has been generally "better received" this year, Springer observed, and "this may mean growing understanding of the idea toward a united campaign."

Gilman observed the chamber will be acting as rental agency for the Casa Bonita duplex houses, which will accommodate 40 families. Rental on the units is $76 for two-bedroom, $86 for three-bedroom, with stove, refrigerator, and such accessories as venetian blinds, but otherwise unfurnished.

Humorist's—

(Continued from Page One) dinner promise that Mr. Skadden will offer no earth-shaking problems. His wit sparkles and his "nifties" come off on schedule and there are many of them. His lecture is a riot of laughter, and his audiences are given the idea that he is getting as much fun out of the matter as they are.

Skadden has been popular all over the United States. Of course, what he has to say does have a serious side to it, but it is so adroitly camouflaged and so expertly sugar-coated as to make its existence almost unnoted amid the chuckles and unrestrained guffaws which are the by-products of any speech Mr. Skadden makes.

This is the final meeting of the Artesia Knife and Fork club for the 1952 season. The new season begins Jan. 1 with the first meeting held on Jan. 27, 1953. Renewals are now due. Meetings will be held before Dec. 31. Club, Box

Lake Arthur GI Given Five-Day Rest From Korea

Sgt. Condell Pollard, route 1, Lake Arthur, recently spent a five-day vacation from Korea on a rest and recuperation leave in Japan.

A member of the 25th Infantry Division, he stayed in one of the finest hotels in Japan and enjoyed many luxuries unobtainable in Korea. The leave is part of the Army's policy to give the fighting soldier a rest from the rigors of combat.

Pollard, an assistant mess sergeant in Company K 35th Infantry Regiment, entered the Army in February, 1951.

Lutheran Church Mission Festival Slated Sunday

Annual mission festival of Emmanuel Lutheran church of Artesia, Ninth and Washington, will be held at 4 p. m. this Sunday, Nov. 23, according to Rev. Arnold Miller, pastor.

Speaker will be a student pastor, N. Zipay of Hobbs.

Highlight of the program will be dedication of a new organ.

Visitors are welcome to attend the program. Reverend Miller stated.

Melvin Roberts Is Returned To Country

Returned to the United States aboard the attack carrier USS Princeton last week was Melvin W. Roberts, airman, USN, son of Mrs. W. B. Hickey of 705 Mann, Artesia.

The Princeton had eight months of combat duty in Korea and its planes participated in some of the most spectacular air raids of the Korean conflict.

They blew up the important Siuho Dam close by the Manchurian border, were the first to attack through the heavy flak at Pyongyang, at Kowon, and at vital power plants just south of the Yalu river.

They gave close air support to UN troops at White Horse mountain, Chorwon, and Sniper Ridge. The ship received high praise from Commander Naval Forces Far East.

Three Artesians Pledge A&M Fraternity

Three New Mexico A&M college students from Artesia recently pledged Tau Kappa Epsilon, national social fraternity.

The pledges are Earl L. Darst, son of E. D. Darst; J. H. Jones, son of Iva Jones; and Franklin D. McAnally, son of Artie McAnally. All are enrolled as freshmen.

Jones is a general agriculture major, and McAnally is majoring in animal husbandry.

Story League Honors Scout Troop Birthday

Artesia Story League gave a birthday party for Girl Scout troop 18 Monday afternoon in honor of the troop's third birthday.

Representing Junior Story League, Lou Ann Siegenthaler told the story, "The Red Boots," and Barbara Butte told "The Thanksgiving Turkey." Following the program a committee from Senior Story League made up of Mrs. Carl Lewis, Mrs. Thad Cox, and Miss Marvel Milam served individual cupcakes topped with a candle, and chocolate milk.

The girls sang songs and played "Sally in the Cellar." Brownies participating were: Linda Arrington, Cathy Feezel, Phyllis Gilchrist, Claire McGinty, Gwen McCaw, Barbara Thompson, Billie Sue Parry, Sue Ellen Storm, Kay Tyree, Joan Ray, Mary Yates, Carolyn Kennedy, Susie Livingston, Marilyn Campanella, and Mary Ella Mayfield. Troop leaders are Mrs. Hugh Perry and Mrs. W. C. Thompson, Jr.

Accidents Increase Since Korean War

The National Labor-Management Manpower Policy Committee reports a 12 per cent increase in occupational injuries since the start of the Korean war.

Last year some 16,000 lost their lives and two million others had lost-time accidents. The committee adds (think of this) that more than 70 per cent of job injuries happened where there were no organized safety programs.

The cost to industry and to individuals may well run over 1 1/2 billion dollars this year. One life insurance company figures the average cost of accidental injuries, of all types, is $825. Another insurance company estimates that an industrial accident now costs management not four but five times as much the insurance payments for the injured or to his estate.

How to Figure Cost Of Using Appliances

The name plate on the appliance will state the wattage that it draws. Electricity is billed on the basis of kilowatt hours used. One kilowatt hour is equal to 1000 watts being used for one hour. Divide the wattage of the appliance by 1000, and you will have the number of kilowatt hours it will consume for one hour's operation. For example, if the wattage of the appliance is 500, divide it by 1000. This equals 5 or 1/2 kilowatt hour per hour of operation.

The first time an airplane was used to drop bombs was during the Italian campaign in Tripoli in 1911.

America's Indians of the western plains are believed to have eaten crickets and grasshoppers as a delicacy.

Feathers grow evenly all over a bird's body only on penquins and kiwis.

A porcupine has some 30,000 quills that it loosens by thrashing its tail.

School Districts

SERIOUS INEQUALITIES in assessed valuations per pupil in North Eddy county school districts have been pointed out by Supt. of Schools Tom J. Mayfield this week in asking for a state survey of school districts in the county.

The purpose of that survey would be to propose recommendations for realignment of the districts in the county—especially in North Eddy county. We seriously doubt whether any other school districts in the county would be affected.

This is the situation which Superintendent Mayfield has outlined:

Artesia must educate children from the rural schools in grades nine through 12 in most instances, although children are received from lower grades in some instances. When a rural district sends children to finish their education at Artesia schools, tuition of $14 per pupil is paid to the Artesia school district.

However, cost of educating those pupils is far more than $14. For each pupil in the Artesia school district there is an indebtedness of $52, incurred in the district's building program which although well-planned, can never outpace valuation power for bonding. Thus the $14 tuition falls far short of meeting the $66 per pupil actual expense incurred by the Artesia system.

It has been pointed out that when Carlsbad began to educate the children of potash miners, especially of Potash Corporation of America, that property was switched from the Lakewood school district to the Carlsbad school district.

This has not been done in the case of Artesia, which must educate the children of oilfield workers and children from rural schools. The oil properties are located in the Atoka school district for tax purposes, giving that school district an assessed valuation per pupil of $17,850.63, as against $5,418.43 in Artesia. It is readily seen that Artesia has only about one-third the assessed valuation per pupil that Atoka has.

There undoubtedly will be strong opposition at Atoka to any change in this set-up. Any community desires strong autonomy over its local institutions, feeling that local people can best deal with local situations. Certainly this feeling must be respected by all concerned in an approach to the problems of providing the best education possible for all the children in North Eddy county.

We are sometimes prone to forget the ultimate welfare of the child in such discussions, but this, especially in education, is our paramount concern. There are ways and means by which Atoka can have a strong voice in its school administration in the event a re-districting should be recommended following the state survey. It has been noted in other similar situations that the matter of school board representation is a paramount question. That question might be effectively met, for example, if Atoka community residents are strongly enough interested in their school's welfare to set-up a citizen's advisory panel, which might give even more people a voice in their school administration than is available at present.

There are very serious problems in-

THIS LAND OF ENCHANTMENT—

New Mexico Magazine Editor Defends State's Publication Against 'Highways' Comparison

ANSWERING CHARGES that New Mexico has fallen behind in its national publicity designed to promote tourist interest in the state, the editor of New Mexico Magazine defends that publication in comparison against with Arizona Highways.

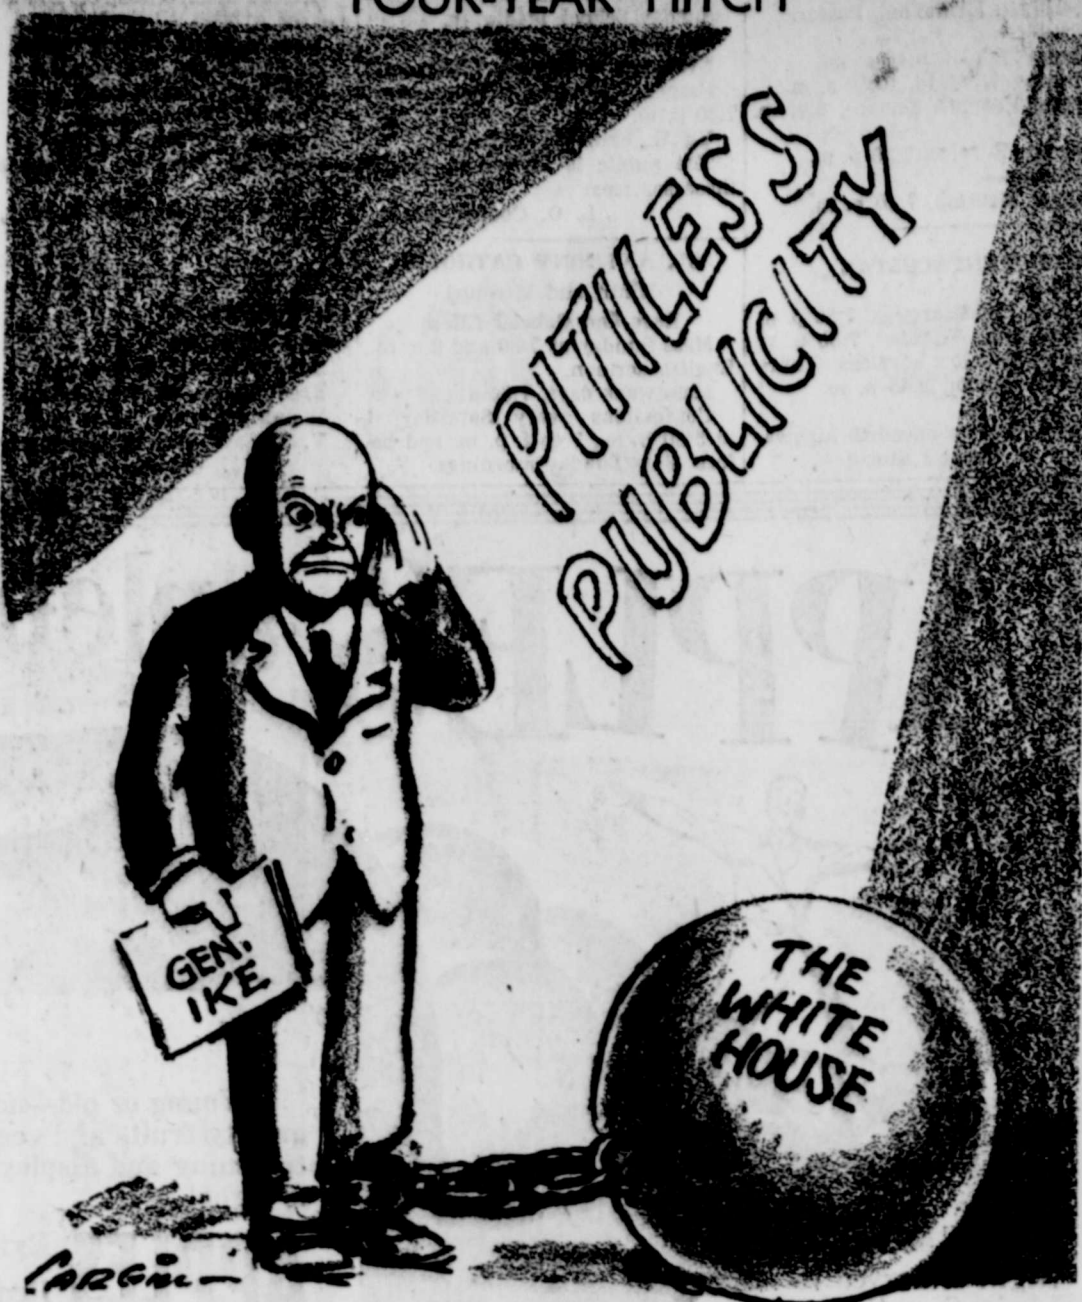

R. C. Pettigell, Jr., and Thomas G. Summers, publishers of Sun Trails magazine, declare "Arizona Highways magazine is 28 years old, has 300,000 circulation, and is known and admired throughout the world. "New Mexico magazine is 30 years old, has 13,000 circulation, most of which circulation is inside New Mexico.

"In terms of state publicity, therefore, Arizona Highways magazine is doing 23 times as big a job for Arizona as New Mexico's magazine is doing for New Mexico." Editor of New Mexico magazine George Fitzpatrick had this to say about these particular charges:

1.—"If we had $100,000 to work with, we could do with New Mexico magazine anything that Arizona Highways does for Arizona. "Until this year, Fitzpatrick said, "We had a little over $10,000 from the departments which have space in the magazine. This year we received about $8,000 for color work, or in the neighborhood of $20,000 altogether.

2.—"I took Arizona Highways about 10 years to develop their circulation on a national basis to where a distributor took them over for newsstand sales." Added Fitzpatrick: "It's not an overnight thing with any kind of a magical success formula. It takes time. Arizona probably spent around $2 million of state money in getting the magazine to its present position. I'd estimate that in the same time we have spent about $100,000."

FOUR-YEAR HITCH

NEW MEXICO EDITORS ARE SAYING—

Modern Security Rulings Unrealistic—Reds Know of H-Bomb Explosion Before U.S. Public

AEC 'SECURITY'

The Los Alamos scientists have achieved what for the moment seems the ultimate scientific achievement— apparently. The H-bomb has been touched off successfully at Eniwetok— probably.

The "apparently" and "probably" qualifications are necessary because the only information about the achievement comes from an eyewitness' account reportedly sent by an unidentified observer at Eniwetok to a Los Angeles resident and quoted by the Los Angeles Examiner.

All of which makes the AEC's super-duper security precautions look pretty silly. The AEC spends millions to make sure unauthorized persons don't find out our atomic secrets, then somebody lets the cat out of the bag with simple letter to a friend or a relative.

This brings up again, of course, the question of just how necessary all this secrecy may be. With Los Alamos only 35 miles away, it has been common knowledge for months that an attempt would be made to explode the H-bomb at Eniwetok this fall, but it was strictly hush-hush as far as the AEC was concerned. All press services and most newspapers would have given their eye-teeth to have assigned reporters to the great experiment to give their readers, at the proper time, a factual account of what happened without disclosing secrets. But this was not permitted. Instead the news dribbles through in a letter, with the AEC refusing to confirm or deny that an H-bomb has been detonated. With modern detection instruments, it is a foregone conclusion that if the Hell bomb is at last a reality, the Russians know that it has been exploded and knows when it was exploded and how powerful it was.

The feeling is growing in many quarters that the AEC's entire security policy should be re-checked and revised in light of today's realities. All this, of course, takes away not one whit of the magnitude of the achievement of the University of California's Los Alamos Scientific Laboratory, assuming the "leak" is corroborated. The military and peacetime implications of such an experiment are limitless.

There seems every reason to believe that the scales in the A- race have tipped our way. —Santa Fe New Mexican.

RESULT COULD BE GOOD

The United States Senate has pledged its support to Patrick J. Hurley in his proposed investigation of the vote cast for senator in New Mexico. Meantime, Dennis Chavez, the senator-elect, and incumbent, and his brother, David Chavez, have declared that they will fight the matter to a bloody show-down.

With the cards stacked against him to begin with, Hurley will need all the help the Senate can give him, plus the blessings and help of Lady Luck and the fairies, for Chavez knows how to hide the shells of the eggs he sucks.

THOUGHTS IN PRINT— Better Business Bureau Writes Some Words of Christmas Caution

CHRISTMAS IS A SEASON in which those who would handle consumers work freely and heavily, the Better Business Bureau of New Mexico has warned in its latest publication. Not only is there the customary personal approach on the street, but also the mail-type, which may not be so honest or deserving as the type you meet on the street.

Many irate citizens have been complaining to better business bureaus about having merchandise mailed to them that they have not ordered and do not want—and being billed for it, the New Mexico BBB reports.

No long ago, a physician received such a package with the following letter: "We are taking the liberty of sending you three exceptionally fine ties. Because these ties have the approval of thousands of discriminating customers, we know you will like them. Please send $2."

The indignant doctor replied: "I am taking the liberty of sending you $2 worth of extra fine pills. These pills have helped thousands and I am sure you will appreciate my thoughtfulness in sending them. Please accept them in payment of the ties which you sent me recently."

Many consumers do not realize it, but purchase on the lay-away plan is technically a sale. The seller usually takes the article from his stock and is obligated to deliver it according to the terms of the agreement. He may lose several opportunities to sell it, if the purchaser later decides he does not want the article, the seller is not obligated to make a refund or exchange. Both parties are bound equally by the terms of the agreement, the New Mexico BBB states.

A number of complaints have been made to the bureau in the past about stains which do not appear on clothing until after it convict anyone, or to change the result of an election may be a hard job, inasmuch as the violators are bound to be pretty smooth operators.

If these alleged practices can be shown up, and a few convictions secured in Hurley's proposed investigation, it might be that a genuine service will have been rendered to the state. We can hope it will turn out that way.—Roswell Record.

THE STATE'S SEVEN COLLEGES ARE ASKING FOR $11 1/2 MILLION TO OPERATE ON IN THE NEXT FISCAL YEAR, WITH MORE THAN A THIRD TO BE SPENT ON ERECTING NEW BUILDINGS.

That's more than twice the amount received from the last legislature, but an anticipated general five per cent enrollment increase makes the building programs imperative.

COFFEE TALK—

Senior Class Melodrama Is Promoted With Professional-Type Photographs

THE SENIOR CLASS PLAY, scheduled for Wednesday, Dec. 3, is a tight melodrama entirely laid in a courtroom with some grim drama, if publicity photos made by Abe Trop are any indication of the action to come. Trop made a series of professional-type theatrical promotion pictures for use by all the publications now interested in covering Artesia, and the kids took part wholeheartedly. We're having a batch engraved and think the readers will be surprised to see what the seniors have produced.

FROM ONE OF THE BIG motor companies with a new car in the showrooms has come a handout pointing out price reductions on some of its models. Lowest price model was just under $1,600. We took the price list, which we were supposed to print as news, to the dealer, who graciously pointed out that federal taxes, transportation and handling charges, state tax, and a few other minor things add another $350 on to a car of that price. We would like to see the actual price of a new car for materials and labor as it comes off the assembly line, devoid of taxes included in the FOB price, such as on tires, many accessories, etc.

THE OTHER DAY IN A meeting of the Artesia Education association, we noticed all the lady teachers seated on one side—about 40 of them—and all the men teachers on the other side. This is a seating arrangement traditional in schools which carries over into adult life. Just what its purpose is probably lost back in educational history somewhere, and as far as we know, has been discontinued in these days when even elementary education is going co-educational.

To Save Money Keep Shoes Well Shined

Leather shoes, particularly those of the men and boys in the family, often take a beating, but in wet fall and winter weather.

Leather chemists of the U. S. Department of Agriculture say that mud and water—as well as excessive dryness—can ruin leather, but that proper oiling and greasing protects it. To save on shoe bills they stress the need for keeping shoes clean, pliable and water-resistant. Boots and shoes for farm or other heavy outdoor use need greasing. Those for street wear need polishing only, although it may help to grease or oil the soles of these shoes.

Frequent polishing with flexible wax polishes is not for appearance only. It keeps leather soft and pliable and gives it a finish that helps turn off water and prevents an accumulation of dust and dirt. Just off the press is a revised edition of "Leather Shoes, Selection and Care" (F. B. 1523). Single copies are free on request from the Office of Information, U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C. Of special interest in selecting and caring for men and boy's shoes, it offers many helpful facts about leather shoes generally.
