good many people have asked that question in the past and more of them are asking it now.

All of the arguments advanced by the various profes- visited the Cardlsbad Caverns Sunsional groups as well as various vocations when the boards day. were set up to license those practicing that profession or working in that field, were that they would provide better service and to protect the public.

Most of us realize today this is not true.

We believe that those employing these individuals or going to them for advice or help or attention deserve to be pro- Hospital, where she had been a tected and to know they are going to those licensed in our patient since Tuesday of last week. state. We know of another case where one particular group in the state were very careful to set up provisions for all of Irkedthose within the state in that business to be granted a license and then set up rules and regulations they could not meet themselves for any outsiders desiring to come into the state to enter that field of service.

They didn't set up these regulations to protect the public and provide better service but rather to provide a 'closed corporaion' and to shut out competition.

We believe it is time for the legislature either to require some of these boards to either function and provide the services they are supposed to provide or for them to do away known in the commission of a ple. Rockets Blank NuMexers On Payte's 5-Hit Mound Triump

Roswell Wins 9-0; Rockets Amass 13 Hits

ROSWELL, A George Payte hurled a five-hit job for the Ros-well Rockets last night as he blanked the second place Artesia NuMexers 9-0.

Payte gave up singles to Eddie Locke and Manager Tom Jordan in hte first inning and pitched hit-less ball until the fifth when Frank Gallardo singled. Jordan rapped him for a double in the seventh and Bob Boyd had a one base knock in the eighth.

The 13-hit Roswell attack was led by Joe Guarino with four hits for five times at bat, one of them doubler. Dick Adams had two doubles for the Rockets.

Payte struck out six while allowing nobody a free trip to first, Loser Tom Buford, who went the distance for the NuMexers, whiffed one rocket and walk-

The two teams meet here again tonight, marking the final appearance of Artesia in Roswell during the regular season.

Hurricane Jackson Apologizes For Spoiling Charles' Comeback

'Hurricane" Jackson, the fantastic young fighter who had just battered Ezzard Charles into helpless ness, walked up to the 34-year-old ex-champ in the dressing room last night and told him, "That was one fight I hated to win.'

The tall, 24-year-old youngster from Far Rockaway, N. Y., with his second unanimous 10-round decision over Charles in less than a month, had spoiled the Cincinnati boxer's hopes for another crack at the world's heavyweight

In the ring before the TV cameras, Jackson was a dancing, weaving, cocky jack-in-the-box, finally staggering the baffled Charles in the 10th round and hitting him
