BOY STARTS BLINDNESS TRAINING

WATERTOWN, Mass. (AP)—David, who may be blind as well as deaf, has started a seven-year course made possible by donations of kindhearted people all over the nation.

The 13-year-old Navajo youth from New Mexico arrived here last week to start study at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology for the Blind. The program is to teach him how to understand what other people say by placing his fingers on their lips. This way, he will be able to communicate even after apparent incurable congenital glaucoma robbed him of his sight.

On the first day, he made a hit with his youngsters being treated here as he drew horses, trees and lanterns. He has shown marked artistic talent, a fact which has made his misfortune even more cruel.

He had, currently over $4,000, been donated for his care here by the Indian Service had no other means of his own for the purpose.

$40,000 City Bond Election Set April 17

Meeting in special session at 10 p. m. yesterday, the Artesia Board of Education canvassed petitions for a $40,000 school bond issue for School District No. 16 and voted unanimously to hold an election for the bond issue April 17.

The canvassing of the petitions for the bond issue, which were circulated during the past 10 days, had found only one discrepancy, which left a total of 530 petitions.

Members present at the Board meeting were Howard Stroup, president; C. C. Nelson, vice-president; Earl Cox, clerk; and Mrs. P. Bunch, a member. Also present were Vernon R. Mills, superintendent of schools, and O. L. Gans, secretary. The only Board member absent from the meeting was George O. Teel.

The School Board passed a resolution stating that, since petitions for an election to vote the bond issue had been duly prepared and found to be in accordance with law, an election should be held for that purpose April 17.

The purpose of the $40,000 bond issue is to acquire sites, construct and equip new buildings, take care of increasing school attendance, especially in the High School plant.

Man Sleeping at Wheel Dies as Car Crashes

By The Associated Press

A Californian who left San Luis Obispo shortly before noon yesterday died early today in the crash of his car near Grants when it apparently went to sleep at the wheel.

Arthur Robert Vinsel, 41, of San Luis Obispo died of head injuries at 8:30 a. m. when his 1956 model Oldsmobile wagon plunged from U. S. Highway 66 and overturned a mile and a half west of Grants.

Mary E. Goodwill, 45 of San Luis Obispo, was injured, but Vinsel's wife and three children escaped unharmed.

State Policeman Ed Bell, who investigated, said the party left San Luis Obispo at 11:30 a. m. yesterday on a trip east and Vinsel, who was driving, apparently fell asleep at the wheel.

The death, and last night's deaths of a 19-year-old Farmington mother and her infant son in a head-on collision near Artee, raised the 1956 traffic toll to 47 compared with 41 a year ago.

State Policeman Gene Tow said the Ellen Noles and her 3-week-old son, Ralph Edward Mangum, died when their car and a truck collided on U. S. 550 6 1/2 miles north of here yesterday. He said the driver of the truck, Donnis Lewis Bowling, 41, Farmington, was injured.

House Votes $760 Million For Dams, Irrigation Units

WASHINGTON (AP)—House and Senate conferees will have elbow room of over 700 million dollars when they meet to compromise differences in the chambers' versions of the upper Colorado River project bill.

The House bill, approved yesterday by a 256-136 vote, calls for authorization of 760 million dollars worth of power dams, reservoirs and irrigation units in Colorado, Utah, Wyoming, New Mexico and Arizona.

This is just about half of the authorizations proposed in the Senate's 1 1/2 billion dollar version passed last year.

Even at the House figure, however, the project would be the nation's second costliest reclamation under aking, surpassed only by Missouri Basin project reclamation.

Chief Senate feature lacking in the House measure is provision for controversial Echo Park Dam—which would flood part of the Dinosaur National Monument in Colorado.

Conservationist groups jumped on the Echo Park proposal, calling it an invasion of a national park that could set an undesirable precedent.

Supporters of the overall project never admitted the accusation but dropped Echo Park out of the House bill, in order to cut down a sizeable part of the project's opposition.

On House passage yesterday, 136 Democrats and 120 Republicans joined to outvote 63 Democrats and 73 Republicans. Centered in "nays" also included members from sections of the agricultural Midwest, the South and the industrial East.

House members from the states to benefit voted heartily in favor of the project. This was helped along by addition of a provision—not contained in the Senate bill—specifying that just how revenues from the power dams are to be apportioned among the states to help finance the irrigation works.

Some of the upper basin states, particularly Colorado, had complained that the Senate bill would not give them a fair proportionate share of the power proceeds.

The House bill would divide this money under about the same formula that a 1922 Colorado River pact allocates water from the river.

The House accepted an amendment by Rep. Avery (R-Kan.) to bar for 10 years the production of price-supported crops in surplus on any new land brought under production by the project.

It rejected an amendment by Rep. Roosevelt (D-Calif.) to insert what he said was machinery to enforce a provision of the Colorado River Compact giving domestic and irrigation use of water priority over power production.

Chairman Engle (Calif.) of the House Interior Committee tagged Roosevelt's proposal as the "dry reservoir amendment" and said it was designed to prevent use of Glen Canyon Dam, great structure in the project, for water storage.

Also rejected was a proposal by Rep. Saylor (R-Pa.) to 1. Give the upper basin states an outright gift of $421,270,000 to build Glen Canyon power dam and 2. Let the states use the power revenues for proposed irrigation features.

If accepted, he said, it would be the "best, cheapest thing for the people of the United States."

Rep. Aspinall (D-Colo.), describing Saylor's proposal as "most disagreeable," said Westerners aren't asking for "handouts."

PROJECT STILL NOT REALITY, DECLARE NM STATE LEADERS

New Mexico leaders haven't let their enthusiasm over the House's approval of the upper Colorado River project impair their vision of what is yet to be done before the program is an actuality.

Gov. John Simms called the passage "a tremendous victory for the whole West and for New Mexico." But he pointed out that "the House and Senate versions must go to a conference committee and we still must get appropriations."

The house bill, passed 256-136, was not as extensive as one approved by the Senate last spring. The conference committee's job will be to put the two versions together in a form that will be acceptable to both the House and the Senate.

Observers pointed out that the House bill provides for only two projects in New Mexico: the Hammond Irrigation project and the Navajo Dam on the San Juan River.

Other projected projects of interest to New Mexico are the San Juan-Chama transmountain diversion project, the Navajo irrigation project and the Anaimas-La Plata irrigation project. These were either given "tentative authorization" or ruled "subject to immediate study," depending upon which bills' wording is used.

In either case additional legislation is necessary before money can be appropriated from them.

The overall bill, which would cost 760 million dollars under the House plan, must also be backed up by appropriating legislation before the plan takes effect.

Lovington Man In Disturbance Gets $25 Fines

A Lovington man, who said he was a former police officer, was fined $25 each on counts of creating a disturbance and assault and battery, in police court here today.

Odorn Ray Casselberry, Lovington service station manager, was arrested last night following a disturbance at a local bar in which he was accused of slapping a bar waitress.

Casselberry pleaded guilty to both of the above charges. A witness, Ramona Garcia, testified that Casselberry said he was a secret police officer and that he would close the place up.

Casselberry denied that he ever tried to pass himself off as an officer and said that he was swinging and shoving in an effort to get out of the bar when he struck some one, presumably the complaining witness.

Baptist New Mexican Gives Apology To Lea County Temperance Forces

ALBUQUERQUE, (AP)—The Baptist New Mexican, which earlier criticized Lea County drys for by-passing the New Mexico Temperance League in a Curry County campaign, tenders an implied apology in its current issue.

The paper earlier suggested the state league was "the proper temperance organization" worthy of financial support from those interested in the temperance movement.

The editorial drew the wrath of some Baptist ministers in Lea County, who were supporting an investigation of Clovis conditions by the Rev. Harold Gress of Lovington, beaten in a Clovis club and later indicted for perjury by a Curry County grand jury.

"We pray his fractures will not be permanent," the Baptist publication said of Gress' injuries.

The paper said its earlier criticism of the sponsors of the temperance organization in Lea County was made "without knowing who those sponsors were."

The editorial said the temperance forces had won in Clovis, which is dry under local option, but "in recent weeks it has been increasingly evident that the wet forces have been selling whisky in roadhouses and clubs. It is for this reason that a group of valiant citizens under the sponsorship of the Lea County league exercised themselves in a series of investigations that have already resulted in the temporary closing and perhaps permanent revocation of several clubhouses licenses.

"The valiant fight of the Curry County dry forces deserves the commendation of temperance forces everywhere."

Natalie Buck Will Run Again

Natalie Smith Buck, secretary of state, announced today she is seeking reelection.

Mrs. Buck said in her announcement, "I would like to state that during my first 14 months in office, I have had the pleasure of serving thousands of the citizens of New Mexico, as well as many officials and residents of other states. For this opportunity I am truly grateful."

She said, "I believe that I can be of still greater service to the public during a second term in this office, and I will sincerely appreciate support."

Mrs. Buck is a Democrat.

Student Council Officers Assume School Offices

Marshall Martin and Tom Mobley, student council president and vice president respectively, have assumed their offices at Artesia High School. They will serve for the remainder of the year.

Martin, a senior, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Martin, became president when that office became vacant this year. Hewas elected last April as vice president.

Mobley, also a senior, the son of Mr. and Mrs. T. N. Mobley, was appointed vice president by the executive committee of the council.

Elections will be held for next year's officers in April.

CASE OF AUTHERINE LUCY BORDERS ON TOTAL CONFUSION; SHE RESTS

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—The trustees' action came with in hours of an order from Federal Judge H. Hobart Grooms ordering her readmission to the university. She had been suspended Feb. 6 after riots on the campus over her presence.

Her attorney Arthur D. Shores said he had no idea what legal course he would pursue in an additional effort to have the 26-year-old former schoolteacher readmitted.

Miss Lucy herself was in New York for medical attention and "rest, peace and quiet."

She left Birmingham yesterday with Thurgood Marshall, chief counsel with the Federal Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People. The NAACP has been backing her efforts over the past 29 months to be admitted to the university.

In expelling Miss Lucy from the university, the trustees accused her of making "false, defamatory, impertinent and scandalous charges" against university officials.

The expulsion resolution said, "No educational institution can maintain necessary disciplinary action if any student, regardless of race, guilty of the conduct of Autherine J. Lucy be permitted to remain."

The Negro woman was enrolled at the university Feb. 1 in compliance with a Federal District Court order issued by Grooms.

In the wake of the riots, the Board of Trustees ordered her suspension for "her safety" and the "safety of others."

Miss Lucy's attorneys promptly filed contempt of court proceedings against 13 university officials and trustees. In the contempt motion Miss Lucy charged these officials had conspired with members of the mob to keep her from attending classes. The petition called the mob action a "cunning

Jesse Miller Faces Court In Road Accident

Jesse Miller of Roswell, who works for Malco here, is to appear in justice of the peace court at Angerman at 1 p. m. tomorrow to answer charges that he was driving on the wrong side of the road when his car and another driven by Robert McMath of Hagerman, sideswiped in a dense fog two miles south of Hagerman the morning of Feb. 23, state police said here today.

McMath was injured when his car turned over following the accident. He was taken by ambulance to the hospital here.

PEACE OFFICERS TO MEET

CLAYTON (AP)—The National Peace Officers Assn. holds its annual convention here April 22-24. Dave Jackson, Clayton, retired state police officer who is in charge of arrangements, said a pistol contest would be held in conjunction with the meeting. Gov. Simms has been asked to speak.

Boy Offers Dog To Some Blinded Vet

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government has turned down with thanks the offer by 12-year-old Edwin Lucher of Lake Geneva, Wis., to give his "German sheppard dog... as a guide" for some blind soldier.

"I think you are the most generous boy I've ever heard of," Veterans Administrator Harvey V. Higley wrote Edwin. "Very few grown folks would make an offer of their dog so that a blind soldier or veteran could train his dog to be their eyes."

On a sheet of paper torn from a notebook, Edwin had written on Feb. 14 from "Lake Iwanhoe," General Delivery, Lake Geneva: "I am Edwin Lucher age 12 and I have a German sheppard dog about 6 mo. old. And I would like to give him to the blind soldiers, as a guide for some one. The dog is a nice one, his name is Smokie Boy, please come and get him, it would make my 2 sisters, and 2 brothers and 1 very happy to know our dog can help some one. Thank you."

The Milwaukee Veterans Administration office forwarded the request on to Higley, who made it public today with his reply.

He explained to Edwin the VA no longer advises use of dogs for the blind. Thanking the boy on behalf of the nation's 22 million veterans, Higley said:

"I know he must be a fine dog to have such a wonderful master but, honestly, Edwin, I think you should keep 'Smokie Boy' because every boy should own a dog."

"You see, Edwin, we train blinded veterans to have their eyes" by teaching them to use what we call "the long cane." Once they get the knack of using the cane they don't have anything to worry about and—after all—a cane is so much easier replaced than a dog which must become old and die. When one gets attached to a dog he misses it so much after the dog dies, but with a cane, it's only a

BRITISHER WAS HEAD OF LEGION

AMMAN, Jordan, (AP)—Lt. Gen. John Bagot Glubb, dismissed as army commander, was escorted out of Jordan today under guard of 16 tanks. His ouster by King Hussein was a new blow to British prestige in the Middle East.

The British government, which set up Jordan's Arab Legion and has been subsidizing it, said it had assurance friendly relations would continue. But the Foreign Office in London said the "abrupt dismissal" of this distinguished officer brought deep concern to London officials.

Glubb, leader of the Arab Legion in the war against Israel in 1948, was dismissed as chief of the legion's general staff. Britain pays Jordan $22,400,000 annually for the support of the 20,000-man Arab Legion. This is more than half the budget of the Arab kingdom.

In January Syria, Egypt and Saudi Arabia offered Jordan an annual grant to replace the British subsidy. The declared aim of the offer was to strengthen Jordan against "any Israeli aggression," but Westerners expressed belief a more primary purpose was to strengthen Jordan's rejection of bids to join the Baghdad defense alliance, conferences to discuss the proposed grant have not been held, so far as is known.

King Hussein and Premier Samir al Rifai carried out the ouster of Glubb and other British officers to satisfy strong anti-Western elements.

John Grbac Is Named Deputy Mine Inspector

State Mine Inspector Garcia in Santa Fe announced appointment of John Grbac of Artesia as one of two deputy mine inspectors made possible through emergency funds from the State Finance Board.

Grbac will be stationed at Artesia, Garcia said, where he will be in charge of inspections of potash mines and sand and gravel operations in southeastern counties.

A second deputy inspector, still unnamed, will headquarter at Grants and will be in charge of inspections of mines in the area embraced by Grants, Four Corners, Magdalena and Socorro.

Grbac for many years was employed at Koehler by the St. Louis, Rocky Mountain and Pacific.

Artesian Pleads Not Guilty To Larceny Charge

One Artesia man pleaded innocent on arraignment in justice of the peace court here yesterday afternoon to a charge of grand larceny and three others pleaded innocent to charges of buying, receiving, or aiding in concealing stolen property, in connection with the theft of a quantity of gasoline from Malco refinery.

All four men were released after posting bonds of $1,000 each and preliminary hearings were set for the four at 9:30 a. m. March 13.

Clay Briggs, 1106 W. Main, is charged with grand larceny in connection with the case. Wallace Adams, Floyd Howard, and J. W. Howard, all of Artesia, are charged with buying, receiving, or aiding in the concealment of stolen property.

The charges were filed by Dist. Attorney Pat Hannagan.

Judge John Ellicott yesterday dismissed a case against W. Lee Clary, 55, arrested Wednesday at Carlbad and charged with obtaining money and property with intent to cheat and defraud.

The judge dismissed the charges against Clary after it was brought out in court that Clary had given the complainant a check in payment for a bill and told him at the time to hold the check for a period of 10 days, which testimony revealed was not done.

Hagerman School Assembly Is Devoted To FFA Week Program

National FFA Week was observed by the Hagerman FFA Chapter with an assembly, which was attended by the entire high school student body.

David Gomez, serving as master of ceremonies, introduced Calvin Graham as first speaker on the program. His talk was on "Why We Observe and the Purpose of National FFA Week." Next on the program was a report on the National FFA Convention by Daniel Gomez and Joe Elliott.

An electrical demonstration was given by Bobby Estes and Wayne Pilley. They showed what would happen when you overload circuits with too many appliances.

After the demonstration, the master of ceremonies turned the program over to the Greenhand FFA who presented their program on parliamentary procedure. Those participating were: Greenhand officers: President Frank Rhodes, Vice-president Wilbert Winkie, Sentinel Earl Callahan, Reporter David Wyman, Secretary Richard Long, and Treasurer Tom Barola. Other Greenhand members were:

'Never At Home' Discussion Led By Mrs. Cochran

"Never At Home," was the title of the program discussion led by Mrs. John Cochran at the Presbyterian Women's Association Friday afternoon in the Brainard Parlor.

Assisting Mrs. Cochran in the program, which was a discussion of migrant workers problems and their church affiliations, were Mrs. T. C. Stromberg, Mrs. J. A. Fairley, Mrs. Paul Francis and Mrs. Waldo Jackson.

Mrs. Lloyd Neville led the devotions. Mrs. Max Reasner, president, presided over the business session preceding the program. Mrs. Reasner served from the tea table centered with a bouquet of yellow spring flowers. Hostesses for the occasion were Mrs. Rex Wheatley, Mrs. Bev Graham and Mrs. George Stockton. Guests introduced were Mrs. J. E. Hull from Missouri and Mrs. Beck from Indiana. About 35 members attended.

Good Possibility Financial Pinch In District Courts Will Increase

SANTA FE (AP)—A state official says there is a good possibility the financial straits of district courts will increase as New Mexico's population grows and accompanying crime mounts.

"All district courts are fairly low on funds," State Comptroller Dan Smith says. He adds that the situation is nothing new. "It's a continuing problem," he says. "One of many years standing."

The primary trouble, he said, is that district courts have trouble getting money from the one-mill tax levy due them from the counties. "To get more money means bucking the governing body of a county."

He said that during the period from July 1 to December "a district attorney does well to get his salary. He often must wait until taxes come in before operating funds are available. And during that time his operation costs are largely from his own pocket. He must collect later. Our method of levying taxes therefore results in some difficulty."

"We've heard of cases where people who have committed crimes have gone free," Smith said, "largely because there was not enough money to pay for jury trials."

He said recent appointments of additional judges in some districts allows those districts to keep current on cases before them, but it also "multiplies expenses, which the counties must pay for."

Lamb For Easter Monday Luncheon

Easter Monday is a good time to entertain "the girls." Flowers are still fresh, silver holds its sheen, the best china hasn't been put away, and there are plenty of makings for a mighty good luncheon from Sunday's roast lamb and salad fixings.

Easter Monday Luncheon
Grapefruit-Avocado Salad
Lamb a la Queen in Shells
Poppy Seed Rolls
Lime Marmalade
Angel Cake
Coffee

Lamb A la Queen
Yield: 6 servings

3 cups cubed roast lamb
4 tablespoons butter
1/2 pound mushrooms, thinly sliced
1/2 green pepper—shredded
2 tablespoons flour
2 cups light cream
Add mushrooms, green pepper, and lamb to melted butter in skillet. Cook slowly 5 minutes. Add seasonings and sherry. Let wine cook away. Stir in the flour, mixing well. Transfer all to top of double boiler or chafing dish.
Stir in 1 cup cream. Mix remaining cream with beaten egg yolk. Add to lamb mixture. Cook until thickened. Cover and keep over hot water. Just before serving, stir in pimiento bits and chopped hard cooked egg, if desired. Serve hot in noodle baskets, pastry shells, or bread cases.

NM Guardsmen Taking Courses In Anti-aircraft

EL PASO, Tex. (AP)—New Mexico National Guardsmen and volunteer reservists are taking classes on anti-aircraft artillery weapons in an aerial and field artillery role, and next week will fire the weapons.

The six-month trainees, who will be taking a short respite from "war," will return to their battery areas over the weekend, but will return to the field next week for firing the weapons on which they have taken five months training.

The guardsmen took to the field Monday, and began a series of fighting off periodic "attacks" by air and ground units on their journey to the Hueco Range. The attacks continued through Tuesday. Wednesday the trainees inspected each other's defenses, and equipment was put on display while cadremen and officers explained the functions of the weapons.

The approximately 300 men are members of Batteries A and B of the 1st Training Battalion, U. S. Army Training Center, Anti-aircraft Artillery. They are entering the final phase of their six-months training.

Chavez Supports Democratic Ticket Including Simms

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Sen. Chavez (D-NM) said Wednesday night he will support Gov. John F. Simms and "every other Democrat" who is nominated.

Chavez made his statement in response to what he said were published reports in New Mexico that the senator would not support Simms and would back whoever ran against the Governor in the primary.

"Let us settle this once and for ever so that there will be no misunderstanding," Chavez said. "I repeat, however the Democrats select in an open primary will have my support."

Commission Set To Ask For More Indian Police

SANTA FE, (AP)—The state Indian Affairs Commission plans to ask appropriate authorities to employ and train seven more Indian policemen. At present there are two.

The commission agreed at a meeting late Wednesday that four of the additional officers would work in pueblo areas, two with the Mescalero and Jicarilla Apaches and one in the federal-state-private land "checkerboard" area east of the Navajo Reservation.

The group also decided to ask the liquor Director to investigate the possibility of extending authority to Indian Service officers so they can inspect liquor outlets near reservations.

Going My Way To A Good Breakfast?

Numerous routes lead to good breakfasts and no one way is the only way. It is the destination that counts—a breakfast that insures each individual a fair share of the needed nutrients for the day.

It is high time for the defense of those who do not follow beaten paths in their choices of good breakfasts, choices which often prove to be excellent, nutrition-wise. Traveling their independent ways are the children who like peanut butter or toasted cheese sandwiches for breakfast. On a different route are the people who prefer a bowl of soup or chowder to start the day. There is nothing so revolutionary about these breakfasts. Europeans long have had cheese and soup for the first meal of the day.

Any of these breakfasts can meet acceptable nutrition standards if they include a vitamin C-rich fruit, extra enriched toast or bread for energy and B vitamins, plus milk for children. In the sandwich meal, cheese and peanut butter are excellent protein foods. Cream soups are good for introducing milk to those who do not like to drink it.

Bread will be the basis of many of these meals. Scientists have shown that the cereal breakfast and the popular bacon, egg and meat are, calorie for calorie, equally efficient. The protein of bread, or cereal, staves off hunger and prolongs efficiency. The day's protein needs are best obtained if some protein food is eaten at each meal.

Which ever route is chosen, a good breakfast will be the destination if it follows the way of a vitamin C-rich food such as citrus fruit; a protein-rich food such as eggs, meat, bread, milk, or cereal and milk. Sandwiches of cheese or peanut butter are protein-rich foods, too. Additional servings of egg, or bread for energy and B vitamins, plus milk for children. In

Robinson Of Artesia Produces With Jump Shot Final Second To Defeat Lovington, 56-55

The Bulldogs fought their way and nail into the semi-finals of the District 4-A basketball tournament at Hobbs last night with a 56-55 victory over Lovington that was undecided until the last second of play.

Charles Robinson saved the day for the Bulldogs by sinking a field goal with a jump shot from about 20 feet out just as the buzzer sounded.

In the Artesia Lovington game Max Rattiff led off the scoring for the Bulldogs with 14 points, followed by Robinson with 10. Clyde Chaney and Jimmy Campanella each had eight, Bob Cerny five, Gary Crockett three, and Moore two points.

Billy Cates was top scorer for Lovington with 19 points, followed by Jimmy Smith with 10 points. Kim Nash, the Eagles' ace scorer, was top man for Hobbs with 20 points and Floyd Donham added 2, and Jerry McPeters and Marquis Landrum, 10 each, to lead off the scoring spree against Clovis.

Four Class B regional tournaments and a Class A district event open tonight, while three other A districts continue play in New Mexico's high school basketball scramble.

Class B regional tournaments at Las Vegas, Tucumcari, Silver City and Gallup open tonight with first round games, and the Dist. 3A tournament at Las Cruces will start first round play this afternoon.

Tournaments at Hobbs, Albuquerque and Santa Fe lifted the curtain on the heavy weekend of competition last night, with the favorites coming through with almost monotonous regularity.

Among the first day results Hobbs and Clayton were probably the most impressive. Hobbs opened up with an easy 85-50 conquest of Clovis in the Dist. 4A meet, while Clayton had no trouble with Taos, 66-28, in the 2A affair.

St. Michael's of Santa Fe, second seeded in Dist. 1A, however, gave indications it may be tough by blasting Albuquerque 71-41.

Hobbs' top-seeded in Dist. 4A, rushed out to a 45-17 lead at the half, and finished with a 29-point fourth quarter in breezing past Clovis.

Charles Robinson of Artesia capped the tightest game of first night competition with a jump shot in the last second of play that gave Artesia a 56-55 verdict over Lovington.

Portales broke out of a 17-17 halftime tie with Roswell to drop the Coyotes 34-30 in the other Dist. 4A first round game.

Eddie Lopez jammed in 23 points 19 of them in the first half.

Meanwhile, Stan Musial, another guy who knows his way around the National League, was huddling over with enthusiasm in the St. Louis Cardinals' camp in St. Petersburg, Fla.

"I feel better this spring than at any training time I can remember," said the six-time batting champ.

The managers made most of the news in the other camps yesterday.

New York Giants' skipper Bill Rigney named Foster Castleman as his No. 1 choice for the regular season base spot.

Pittsburgh pilot Bobby Bragan slapped a mid-night curfew on the Pirates, declaring, "We'll do things my way, so I can take the blame."

Cincinnati Manager Birdie Tebbels reported that 18 of the 37 players on the Redlegs' roster are pitchers.

The holdout ranks were reduced when Gene Woodling of Cleveland, Bob Miller of the Phillies, Chuck Diering of Baltimore, Whitey Ford and Irv Noren of the Yankees and Jack Dittmer of Milwaukee came to terms.

Senior From La. Wraps Up NCAA Scoring Crown
NEW YORK, (AP)—Bill Reigel, 65 senior from McNeese (La.) State virtually has wrapped up the small college individual scoring crown, NCAA statistics disclosed today.

Through last Saturday's games, Reigel had pitched in 948 points in 28 games for a 33.9 points a game average. Dave Olmsed of Clarkson, his closest competitor, has a 31.1 average on a 467 point total in 15 games.

By The Associated Press
The Class A district pairings today pit Highland and Valley, and Los Lunas and Gallup in first round games in Dist. 1A; Hobbs vs. Artesia and Portales vs. Carlsbad in semifinals in Dist. 4A; and Clayton vs. Espanola and Los Alamos vs. Raton in Dist. 2A.

In Dist. 3A at Las Cruces, Alamogordo takes on Coche, Belen meets Western, Las Cruces tries Socorro and Gadsden tests Deming in first round games.

The lineup on the Class B regionals is:
Region 1B at Gallup: Corona vs. Navajo Mission; Cathedral vs. Our Lady of Sorrows.

Region 2B at Las Vegas: Wagon Mound vs. Pojoaque; El Rito vs. West Las Vegas.

Region 3B at Silver City: Dexter vs. Hatch; Cliff vs. Eunice.

Region 4B at Tucumcari: Santa Rosa vs. Melrose; Fort Sumner vs. House.

Utah Claims Second Straight Skyline Crown

By The Associated Press
Utah avenged one of its two league losses and claimed its second straight Skyline Conference basketball title Thursday night with a 91-60 victory over Colorado A&M.

The triumph, the Utes' 11th in 13 league games and their sixth in a row, earned them a berth in the NCAA's western regional tournament at Corvallis, Ore., March 16-17. They have a chance to reverse their only other conference loss Saturday night when Wyoming 5-8 visits Salt Lake City.

Three other games Thursday night were anti-climatic, but served to spot Denver's Pioneers as a contender in the 1956-57 campaign.

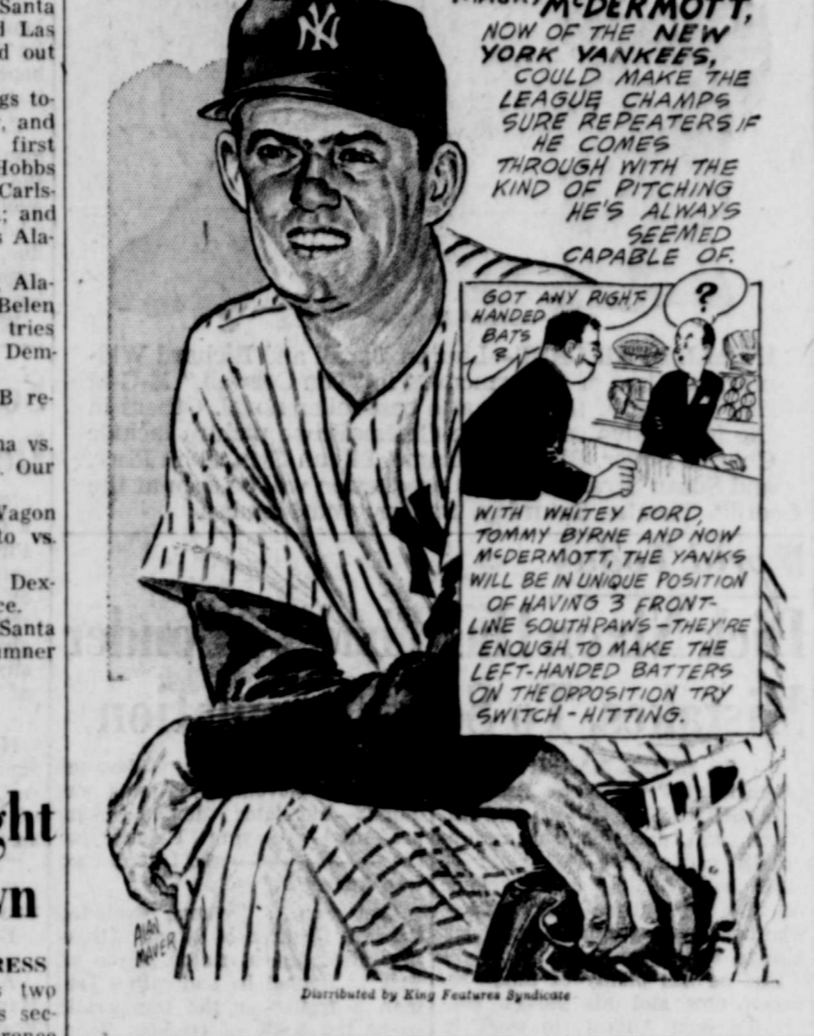

The Pioneers, with only one senior among their starters, hit a Skyline season scoring high in a 110-80 romp over Utah State, Brigham Young, runnerup to Utah for a second straight year, trimmed New Mexico, 75-69. Montana surprised Wyoming, 59-56.

The teams swap opponents Saturday night to close out the regular season. In addition to the Wyoming-Utah Clash, BYU is at Denver, Colorado A&M visits Montana and New Mexico is host to Utah State.

It was the Southern's survival-of-the-fittest shindig at Richmond, Va., that unveiled the upset, with Washington and Lee's four-star General laying the wood to George Washington 63-60. George Washington had been cofavored with West Virginia in the three-day tournament which opened last night to determine the Southern champ and NCAA entry.

Pair Of New All Americas Spotlight Close Shaves In College Basketball

By The Associated Press
Tom Heinsohn and Darrell Floyd, a pair of spanking new All Americas, shared the spotlight with an upset and a couple of close shaves in college basketball last night.

Heinsohn did everything but put out the 'cat for Holy Cross, popping in 51 points and clearing 42 rebounds as the Crusaders, warming up for the NCAA Tournament, routed Boston College 111-75.

Floyd, Furman's two-time All America, was only a step or two behind in point production with a total of 43 for a Southern Conference Tournament record while leading the Paladins to an 84-70 elimination of Virginia Tech.

Santee To Compete In Garden While Ruling Awaits Hearing

NEW YORK, (AP)—Wes Santee, America's controversial miler, returns to competition tomorrow night at Madison Square Garden with the blessing of a State Supreme Court justice and the approval of the Knights of Columbus track officials.

A court injunction signed yesterday by Justice James McNally and followed several hours later by a statement from K. of C. mee' director Tom Harjigan paved the way for the return of the 24-year-old Marine lieutenant.

Santee, only American to come close to the magic 4-minute mile and this country's chief 1,500-meter hope in the Melbourne Olympics, was handed a lifetime suspension Feb. 19 by the Amateur Athletic Union's Executive Committee.

The AAU action came after a special investigating committee reported the former University of Kansas runner had taken monies above allowable expenses for a number of meets in 1955, including three in California.

At Quantico, Va., where he is on duty with the Marine Corps, Santee said he had been working out despite the AAU ban.

Charles P. Grimes, Santee's attorney who sought the temporary injunction, said Wes would arrive in New York today. Justice McNally set March 9 for the hearing on the injunction. Upon that decision likely will determine whether Santee will be permitted to run meets at Cleveland, Chicago and Milwaukee later this month.

Yesterday's action set the stage for a return engagement between Santee and Ron Delany, an Irishman from Villanova who has ruled the mile roost all season. In their only previous meeting, at Boston Jan. 28, Delany won in 4-06.3 as Santee faded to fourth after following a blazing early pace. Wes was clocked in 4-08.8.

The AAU had no immediate comment on the Knights of Columbus decision to abide by an invitation, which its statement said was extended to Santee Jan. 19.

But after the injunction was signed Secretary-Treasurer Dan Ferris said:

"Now that the injunction has been granted, maybe the people involved will have enough sense to do the right thing."

The day after Santee's suspension and after Grimes had warned of his plans for an injunction, Ferris told meet promoters that Santee's entry in a meet—even with an injunction—would not be accepted. At the same time he advised meet directors they would face loss of AAU sanction "forever" if they permitted the Kansas to compete and that any athlete participating in a meet with Santee would jeopardize his amateur standing. The AAU rules forbid an amateur to compete against professionals.

Find Remains Shaky Favorite In New Orleans

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Alfred Vanderbilt's front-running Find remained a shaky early favorite today over a field dotted with some of racing's leading handicappers.

Find rated a slight edge over the Hasty House Farm pair of Sea O Erin and Mister Black in early forecasts for Saturday's big race, richest offering of the Fair Grounds' 83-day winter meeting.

Eric Guerin, who began his rise to national riding prominence at the Fair Grounds, will ride Find, while wily Willie Hartack, the nation's leading rider last year, will be aboard one of the Hasty House entries.

Robert Lee Baird, runner-up to Hartack in the 1956 jockey derby, will pilot C. L. Dupuy's broad-chested Galdar. Johnny Heckmann, fourth man among leading riders will handle Revere Knoll Farms' Smoke Screen and Bobby Usery will be astride Sam Tufano's late-finishing Sam Margin.

Gar Moore, general manager of the Fair Grounds, said he expected 11 or 12 horses to face starter Ruby White. Should 12 go postward, the race will gross $82,800 with about $48,900 going to the winner.

The Army sent 1,200,000 (M) passengers to world-wide destinations, 4,500,000,000 (B) passenger miles.

Maxwell Shares Lead In Mexican Open

MEXICO CITY, (AP)—Texas Billy Maxwell entered the second round of the Mexican National Open Golf tournament today with a share of the lead and the hope he'll continue his brilliant performance in international competition.

Maxwell, from Odessa, Tex., led at a blazing seven-under-par 65 yesterday, a score equaled by the caddy Margarito Martin.

Mexico City pro Percy Clifford led a first-round 67 nosed out former champ Tony Holquin, Midland, Ill., pro, who turned in a 70 along with Juan Neri of Mexico and Howard Johnson, Houston.

Other U. S. players who finished among the leaders were Vic Ghezzi of Englewood, N. J., and Dave Douglas of Newark, Del. with 69 and Jim Simpson, Fort Worth, Tex., with a 70.

Harold Pee Wee Reese Is Confident Of Fourteenth Season With Dodgers

By The Associated Press
Harold (Pee Wee) Reese got his nickname because he liked to shoot marbles as a youngster, still feels "like a kid" as he prepares to start his 14th season with the Brooklyn Dodgers.

"Maybe an injury will stop me," he said today. "But a 21-year-old can get hurt too. And barring something of that nature, there isn't the slightest doubt in my mind about my ability to have another good year."

Pee Wee batted 282 in 145 games in 1955 and there are some who will argue that he—not Roy Campanella or Duke Snider—was the most important guy for the Dodgers, who swept to their first world championship.

"I'm more confident this year than I was last spring," said the 31-year-old shortstop. "I had some serious doubts a year ago. My legs were giving me trouble and the day I told my wife that I looked like the beginning of the end."

He said that when the team reached the North, he looked up Leslie MacMitchell, the retired back star who had been the running coach in the Dodger camp for several years. MacMitchell told him that running over a hard infield track was the worst possible thing for a ballplayer to do.

It Will Happen Someday

ALL THE COMMENT about the state purchasing department and various state officials buying without calling for bids apparently so they can give the business to their friends or political allies is going to come to an end one of these days.

It should come to an end before now but, after all political party members always go along with one another and try to protect one another.

The Attorney general should prosecute every department head, every public official and the state purchasing agent every time they violate the state law requiring them to call for bids and to award contracts for services or merchandise to the low bidder.

However, that has not been done. It would also be possible for the district attorney to file a few charges against those who seem to think state laws are set up to be ignored rather than to be observed.

But as we have pointed out before the law requiring that bids be sought when the taxpayers' money is being spent were set up to protect all desiring to submit bids; to buy the service or merchandise at the lowest possible dollar and in this way make the taxpayers' money go as far as possible.

But for years it has always been a part of the reward for helping to elect public officials or for making generous contributions to party funds to enjoy some of the state business. It not only happens in our own state but it happens in the other states and it happens in the federal government, too.

However, since the state law requires that all expenditures above certain sums can only be made after bids have been requested and the low bid be accepted it is about time that the taxpayers and citizens tell the party leaders and political office holders they want the law observed and followed.

All parties are guilty and have been guilty of the practice and it has been going on for a long time but that doesn't mean that it is good or that it has to continue.

The day and time in our humble opinion is here now when public funds should be spent in the manner prescribed by law and the law provides for the calling for bids and the awarding of contracts to low bidders.

Sixty-Six-Year-Old Says Work Cure For Retirement Sickness

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP)—There are people who do want to do it in this world—whatever there is to be done—and there are those who don't care.

John R. Crooks always did what was to be done. He always smiled, but he also held behind his smile the fierce pride all true craftsmen have in a job they love.

Last summer, after 52 years in the same old salt mine, Johnny Crooks was put out to pasture on a well-earned pension. But, like many other retired men, he became despondently unhappy. He cured himself by going out and taking a job in a new field.

"The best remedy for retirement sickness is work," says Johnny today.

Any man wondering how to whip the "retirement blues" might be interested in Johnny's story.

In 1903 Johnny, a bandy-legged boy of 14, solemn in the dignity of knee britches and bowler hat, applied for an received the post of night office boy for the Associated Press, then as now the world's largest news gathering organization, for a salary of $4.50 a week.

For 40 years he was the news librarian of the Associated Press, filing on cards the history of a generation of news as it was made from day to day.

He also filed it in his heart, and when you asked him for it—well, it was there. Johnny was a long lesson in loyalty. He was strongly an organization man. He didn't get to travel much himself—there was a family to be raised—but he traveled and suffered in spirit with scores of foreign correspondents.

When Johnny Crooks, this skinny reservoir of news history, went to pasture last summer there was a big gap left in the office where he had worked for so long. It was a spiritual thing.

Johnny wasn't happy either. He cherished the inscribed gold watch (it was what he wanted) and other farewell souvenir gifts for more than half a century of service. He had the pension. He also was free now every day to watch the morning workouts at racetracks where, as a boy, he had dreamed of riding.

But he missed the daily bugle of duty, the active feeling of belonging.

After nine endless, restless weeks, Johnny heard of a part-time stenographic job in a Wall Street law firm, applied for it and got it.

Johnny, chirpy as a cricket now, says idleness is a curse to a long-time working man. He advocates a new start.

"It's a mistake for an employer to look at man's gray hair and refuse him a job," he said. "Gray matter goes with gray hair—and it's always worth hiring."

"It is work that keeps a man young. It is wonderful to learn new things. I've made a lot of new friends. I'm happier now than I've been in many a year."

Johnny, who has more bounce to the ounce at 66 than many a man half his age, gives this as his personal recipe for keeping pep:

"Don't dissipate. Don't overeat. Do everything in moderation. And attend church regularly."

The dismissal ended 30 years of Middle East service for the tough, wiry little 59-year-old soldier who learned the ways of the Arabs on camelbacks and around the desert campfires and built the Arab world's best army from scratch.

His enemies called him "The Uncrowned King of Jordan."

Glubb left by plane with his family for London today. An official announcement said his dismissal took effect yesterday.

The announcement said he would be succeeded by Maj. Gen. Radi Ourabb. To further meet the opposition demands that the army be "Arabized," Hussein also dismissed two senior British officers who had been serving with Glubb.

Extreme Arab nationalists had opposed Glubb. Opposition to him took a sudden upsurge after the British late last year tried to get Jordan to join the Western-sponsored Baghdad Pact, setting off a violent reaction from Egypt, Saudi Arabia and other opponents of that alliance.

World Today

Dick Nixon Has Time To Ponder Mistakes, To Seek Nomination

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP)—Richard M. Nixon—tall, dark, 43, and an unusually active vice president—can't help feeling self-conscious.

At this moment he doesn't know whether the Republicans will pick him to run again.

But he has plenty of time—between now and his party's convention next August—to work to keep his job and wonder what, if anything, he's done wrong.

He has worked hard for the Republican party—and for himself, of course, since he is ambitious—and for President Eisenhower, who has repeatedly praised him.

He has strong Republican support in Congress and among state chairmen and national committee men. But there is some Republican sentiment for ditching him.

When the time came for Eisenhower to say he'd run again—as he did Wednesday—he lauded Nixon once more but declined to say whether he wanted his vice president as a running mate again in '56. He will wait until the convention, he said.

Eisenhower knows that because of his health the voters this year will give solemn thought to the president and vice president they choose. It is a vote for the vice president on Eisenhower's ticket may be a vote for president.

Nixon was a hard campaigner in 1952, and again in the 1954 congressional campaign, which the Republicans lost. The Democrats, shooting around Eisenhower, made Nixon a main target just as he did with them.

Nixon said the usual things. He called the Democrats "Doomocrats" and "Democrats" and he spoke of them as "piano-playing letter writers."

Those weren't the things which turned the Democrats' fury against him. It was the way he charged them with being "soft" on communism and with letting Communism penetrate the government.

Truman apparently despises him. Last November Truman was quoted—but later denied using profanity—as saying "I don't like the ———— and I don't care who knows it."

Last Feb. 3 Truman exploded hardest. He accused Nixon of having called him a traitor. Nixon on Feb. 13 denied he had called Truman a traitor or the Democratic party the party of treason.

Leonard W. Hall, chairman of the Republican National Committee, said he'd give $1,000 to charity if Truman could prove Nixon called him a traitor.

Paul M. Butler, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, said Hall was "spitting hairs" and trying to "clean up" Nixon for the 1956 campaign. He didn't show where Nixon had actually called Truman a traitor.

But he said Nixon tried to give that impression and accused him of being the "leading practitioner of a cruel and malignant political weapon — the not-quite-liberal smear."

Without calling them traitors to their country, Nixon once did use the word in speaking of Truman, former Secretary of State Dean Acheson and 1952 Democratic presidential nominee Adlai E. Stevenson on Oct. 27, 1952, he said these three men were:

"Traitors to the high principles in which many of the nation's Democrats believe. Real Democrats are outraged by the Truman-Acheson-Stevenson gang's toleration and defense of communism in high places."

Nation's Business Should Provide Answers To Uncertainties By Easter

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—Business should have the answer to a number of its uncertainties before Easter.

Consumers may well pick March to show their hands in several ways:

1. With an early Easter, the blustery month of March will span the entire pre-Easter sales drive by the merchants.

2. If the month goes out like a lamb, the auto industry may get its first test of how healthy the hoped-for spring pickup in car buying will be.

3. The home building industry, also counting on spring to awaken the urge to own your own home, may find who is right: the one who says a revival in building is due, or the one who says mortgage money will stay tight and buyers chary.

What business will be watching is how strong a tonic March will supply. A seasonal pickup is expected—the usual quickening of the economy through gains in construction, farming and seasonal industries. The question is: Will the pickup be as strong as last year, or will it lack its usual punch?

The consumer isn't the only one who will be showing his hand. Congress has some decisions to make this month. Businessmen are resigned to its continuing for another year the 52 per cent income tax rate on corporations and for most of the excise taxes on some consumer goods like autos.

Business will look to Congress this month for at least a hint on what it will do about such important spending items as highways, schools, farm price supports, and foreign aid. There might even be a clearer notion if

Somerset Maugham Continues To Write Despite Age, Rheumatism, Bronchitis

EDITOR'S NOTE—Col Samra, a free-lance newspaperman from Flint, Mich., found himself a shipmate of Somerset Maugham on a Mediterranean cruise. They struck up a friendship and Maugham granted the young University of Michigan graduate one of his infrequent interviews.

By CAL SAMRA

NAPLES, Italy (AP)—Somerset Maugham, a living literary legend, looked out on the deep blue of the Mediterranean and then answered.

"Yes, Marcel Proust is the greatest novelist of the 20th century."

Ernest Hemingway? "A first-class novelist."

Board of the ship Esperia, Maugham was sailing back to his French Riviera home. He had visited Spain, Greece, Turkey, Egypt, Sudan and Italy.

"I thought I would like to do some more traveling before they lay me away," he explained. At 82 Maugham still finds activity a virtue. He has achieved success in almost every literary field. His plays include "The Circle" and "The Constant Wife." Among his novels are "Of Human Bondage" and "The Moon and Sixpence."

Today he writes on, though bothered by rheumatism and bronchitis.

"He's irritable if he isn't writing," explained Alan Searle, Maugham's secretary for 26 years. Searle confided that Maugham has forsaken fiction for the leisurely composition of an anthology of essays.

"And he's an enormous reader," Searle went on. "He reads all the young writers he can."

Among younger American writers, Maugham has kind words for Tennessee Williams, Arthur Miller and Truman Capote.

He believes the business of art is to entertain.

"Leave philosophy to the philosophers," he said, and then continued.

In the court hearing Wednesday, however, Marshall moved to amend the contempt proceedings, striking all references to a conspiracy.

In his findings, Grooms exonerated the trustees and officials of the contempt charges on the grounds they acted in good faith in excluding her from the campus after the riots. However, he ordered her readmitted by 9 a.m. Monday.

A federal court employe said unofficially the next move now is up to Miss Lucy's attorneys since the readmission order was predicated upon the fact that at that time she was a legally enrolled student.

Meanwhile, the Alabama House of Representatives in Montgomery whooped through a resolution to establish a committee to determine if the NAACP is controlled by Communists.

Under the terms of the resolution, which now goes to the Senate, Miss Lucy would be called as a witness.

The Senate approved a resolution by unanimous voice vote asking for federal funds to settle Negroes outside the South.

$139,000 Suit Is Filed By Lea County Couple

ALBUQUERQUE - A Lea County couple Thursday filed a $139,000 suit in U. S. District Court against a Texas trucker involved in a collision with their car last Feb. 5.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Anderson and their son, Stephen, ask the award from Jack Shaw, who they contended carelessly crashed his two-ton truck into their car near Lovington.

Mrs. Anderson asked $100,000 for permanent injuries including a brain concussion she said affected her vision. Anderson asked $25,000 for severe injuries, $3,600 for the destroyed car, $10,000 in punitive damages and $500 for injuries to his child, Stephen.

Two Men Force Woman To Help In Bank Robbery

PORT CHESTER, N. Y. - Two men robbed a drive-in bank Friday and holding captive all day of an estimated $175,000 after night a woman bank teller.

The teller, Mrs. Mary F. Kostolos, was reported unharmed. The holdup began at 10 o'clock Thursday night. As Mrs. Kostolos drove her car into the driveway at her home, two men got into the car and forced her to drive them around for five hours.

At 3 a. m., they made her drive to the drive-in branch of the County Trust Co.

Using Mrs. Kostolos' key, the men entered the bank and took her with them, holding her captive in the building in preparation for the 8 a. m. opening for business.

Delaware Woman Identifies Boy Found In Cold

TUCUMCARI - Miss Elise Cardullo, superintendent of a Delaware home for handicapped children, has definitely identified a child found abandoned here as 3 1/2-year-old Jimmy Trout of Wilmington, Del.

Miss Cardullo said she would appear before District Judge J. V.

Gallegos to seek custody of the child, who was made a ward of New Mexico's courts after he was found whimpering in the cold near here Feb. 20.

She is superintendent of Happy House, a private home for handicapped children where Jimmy was once treated for a deficiency in his left leg.

The child was badly bruised and scarred when found. Sheffir A. P. Garnett has issued an abandonment warrant for his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Trout, who left Wilmington early this month for a vacation trip.

Miss Cardullo said she had papers from Mrs. Katherine Trout of Cressona, Pa., Jimmy's grandmother, authorizing her to take the child to Happy House.

Dartmouth's first football score was made by C. W. Oakes, grandfather of Abner Oakes III, Dartmouth's current hockey captain. C. W. Oakes made his tally in 1881 against Amherst.

The HARVEST

It was said in the long ago that we brought nothing into this world and that we shall take nothing out. That is true for all material goods. It is false in the realm of the spirit. You and I are writing day by the day the story that must forever be our history. We are garnering the harvests of the years and storing them in the granaries of heaven. As women and men come to the closing hours of life on the earth, they gather up the "fruit of the spirit." Love and joy and peace and long suffering are not material. They are eternal goods.

How rich are we? When we stand before the heavenly cashier and ask for a statement, what will the little card carry as our record? Shall we hold in our hands a blank white card, with a dark background? Will the servant of the Most High say that our account stands at zero? How dreadful, when we discover we have been working and living for naught! But why wait? Most of us can guess what the bank account really is. Let's face that question now, for tomorrow we must know the final statement. Shall I make sure of my holdings in the divine treasure house? What is my harvest?

You In The Church...
The Church In You
Form a combination for good. We should attend church regularly. Every man, woman and child needs the influence of the CHURCH. Be faithful! Be a Churchman!
