Did You Ever Hear Anyone Say . . .

I DON'T GO TO CHURCH BECAUSE—

1. The pastor never calls on me enough.
2. Every time I go they want money.
3. Not all the folks live up to what they put themselves up to be.
4. I went so much as a child, I've got all the religion I need.
5. The service lasts too long. I can't sit still for more than an hour.
6. I don't care for some of the people I come in contact with there.
7. I don't always agree with what I hear and see.
8. I don't think they have very good music in church.
9. Sunday is the only day I can be home with my family.

I DON'T GO TO MOVIES BECAUSE—

1. The manager of the theater never calls on me.
2. Every time I go they ask for money.
3. Not all the folks live up to the high standards of the film characters.
4. I went so much as a child, I've got all the entertainment I need.
5. The performance lasts too long. I can't sit still for more than an hour.
6. I don't care for some of the people I meet at the theater.
7. I don't always agree with what I hear and see.
8. I don't think they have very good music at the theater.
9. The shows are always held in the evening, and that's the only time I'm able to be home with my family.

Today's Meditation

Friday, May 16

GOD'S WATCHFUL CARE

Fear ye not . . . ye are of more value than many sparrows. (Matthew 10:31.) Read Luke 12:1-7.

That little fifth sparrow is, seemingly, of no value at all. Are not two sparrows sold for a farthing, and five sparrows for two farthings? The little fifth sparrow costs nothing; it is a "throw in" for the two farthings. Yet we are told that our heavenly Father cares for each sparrow and knows when each one of them falls. So to our fearful hearts we can say, "Are we not of more value than that little fifth sparrow?"

Jesus also said, "The very hairs of your head are all numbered." God cares. So greatly did He care that He gave His only begotten Son who redeemed us at such great cost. Our names are graven on His hands. No one shall pluck us out of His hands.

When I see those pierced hands of my Saviour, I cry, as did Thomas, "My Lord and my God," and know that I have been redeemed not with corruptible things, such as silver and gold, but with the precious blood of my Redeemer. Why should I be afraid?

PRAYER

O Lord, when fears beset and perils threaten, give me assurance that Thou dost know our fears and our needs and, above all, that Thou dost care. Help us to know Thy protecting care. Give us complete trust in Thee. For Jesus' sake. Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

Because my Father cares, I am not afraid.

Krilium Will Not Replace Fertilizer

Chemical Increases Soil Needs for Plant Foods

Krilium, the newly discovered chemical powder that can rebuild soil structure on rundown crop land within a few hours, will not take the place of fertilizers.

Midwestern agronomists who have tested this new soil conditioner, say that its use on farm land would actually increase the soil's need for plant food.

Prof. Emil Truog, of the University of Wisconsin's soils department, points out that Krilium does not add any nitrogen, phosphate or potash to the soil. But by improving tilth, increasing the soil's water-holding capacity and helping the soil "breathe" in more air, it promotes bigger crop yields per acre. More bushels mean a heavier drain on the plant nutrient supply.

Mixed with the soil, the new water-soluble chemical loosens tightly packed clay and clay loams and makes them fluffy and porous. It does this by "glueing" tiny soil particles together into crumb-like granules, ranging in size from a pin-

To build soil's organic matter supply, the best method is still plowing under well-fertilized sod crops.

head to a pea. More water can enter and be held for crops; more air gets in.

Prof. Truog points out that present manufacturing costs make the new product too expensive for farmers who work big acreages. He estimates that reconditioning an acre of soil would take 200 pounds of Krilium. At $2 per pound, that would cost $400.

Hope News

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Teel and children have been here from Junction, Texas, visiting Mr. and Mrs. Newt Teel.

Mrs. G. C. Shepperd received a beautiful powder box for Mothers' Day from her son, Joseph F. Rigio who lives at Santa Clara, Calif. Mr. Rigio is a Second Lieutenant in the Reserve Air Corps. When the powder box is opened music starts to play.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Anderson and Jean Kimbrough were in from the ranch one day last week. They drove back in a brand new truck.

Rev. Jack Noble and wife and daughter Sherell, left Wednesday morning for Odessa, Texas, where they will attend a Methodist conference. They will be gone four days.

The Hope Cafe is now open from 8 p. m. to 8 a. m. Mrs. Shepperd says the new schedule is working fine.

Mrs. Tom Harrison is at Roswell in the hospital. Saturday, Mrs. A. Young and Mrs. Newbille went to see her. On Tuesday, Mrs. Rood, Mrs. Hardin and Mrs. Blakeney called on her.

In the Longhorn league, we note Midland comes to Artesia May 19, 20, 21. Artesia is fighting their way to the first division.

Many Visitors Help Celebrate 'Fiesta' At Hope, May 10

The "fiesta" sponsored by the Hope petticoat government came to a close late Saturday night and everyone said it was a wonderful celebration. The parade consisting of floats representing the Girl and Boy Scout units and business firms toured Artesia in the morning. Returning to Hope at 11 a. m., they were joined by the Artesia and Hope roping clubs, all mounted. The highlight of the parade was four oxen hitched to an old covered wagon, driven by their owner Arrel Jernigan of Safford, Ariz., who made the trip here to participate in the "Petticoat" celebration. Mrs. Levia Blakeney and J. Cox rode on the front seat of the wagon representing the old times of this section.

While the parade toured Artesia and Hope, the Milam family from the Williams turkey farm played and sang old time tunes and they were really good, and we mean good.

The parade ended at the rodeo grounds where the W.S.C.S. of the Methodist church served a wonderful dinner to an estimated 300 persons. At 2 p. m. a program of roping and rodeo events took place, which was attended by several hundred persons. At 6 p. m., a chuck wagon supper was served free to everybody at the school grounds. At 8:30 dancing began at the high school gym and continued until the wee small hours of the morning.

Many visitors were here from all over southeastern New Mexico among them being Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Haskell from Carlsbad. Mr. Haskell, representing the Eddy County News, came equipped with a camera and took snaps of the leading events of the day. These pictures will appear in The Eddy County News.

Thanks are in order to all those who assisted in any way in making this celebration a success.

Oats and Oat Hay For Sale

I have 40 acres of oats and about the same of barley. It will soon be ready for harvest. I plan to combine the grain and bale the straw. There is new alfalfa growing with it which of course will be baled with the straw. The grain and the bales will be for sale in the field. H. WAYNE HORNBAKER, 1 mile south of Artesia.

Controls Worse Than Drought

The worst drought in its 99 years of history is being suffered by the fabulous King Ranch, which is the largest single beef-producing operation in the United States and perhaps the entire world. Its cattle population has been reduced from 85,000 to around 60,000 because of a dry spell which is now in its third year. In the last year alone the ranch owners have spent $1,000,000 on emergency measures.

Yet, bad as such a drought is, said Robert J. Kieberg, the ranch's president, government price controls are even worse when it comes to reducing the nation's meat supplies. And controls, he added, fall hardest on the small producers and feeders, on whom we depend for most of our meat.

Mr. Kieberg cited Argentina as an example of the disruption controls cause. That country historically has had beef in vast quantities. Yet a short time ago the Peron government imposed two meatless days a week—a measure made necessary because controls that were first imposed in 1926 and have been made tougher since have materially cut beef production. As Mr. Kieberg said, "The imposition of all sort of artificial controls disturbs the cycle planning and confidence of the producer," and, as an inevitable result, production sags.

Only in the free market is the producer assured of a price which will honestly reflect the economic conditions of the moment, whether that price be high or low. Only in the free market can the law of supply and demand—the natural law which governs all sound economic activity—function to the benefit of producer and consumer alike. And only in the free market can we have continued abundance.

Fellowship Supreme

Lesson for April 6, 1952

THE church of the twentieth century is taking a beating. We are living in one of the dark eras when the Christian church in large parts of the world is on the retreat. One - sixth of the earth's surface, that used to be called "Christian," is now dominated by anti-religious powers.

There were once 8,000 missionaries in China where now there are 200, and the number is growing fewer still. An inquiring minister in Georgia recently asked a number of American church leaders whether they thought we can call the United States a "Christian" nation. Most of them said No, and most of them thought that America is at present slipping farther away from Christ.

Dr. Foreman

What Did the Early Church Have That We Haven't?

NOW the question is: What did the early church have that we don't have? Why did they succeed where we have not been succeeding?

One quality which was strong in the early church, weak today, is fellowship. Let us first see what the New Testament idea of fellowship is not. It is not organization. It was not any one Big Man or Big Church or any pattern of organization that made the early church "click." Also, it was not simple nearness.

For many persons today, "belonging to the same church" with another person means no more than that on occasional Sundays they find themselves sitting within a few yards of each other. They do not know each other's names, perhaps, much less take any personal interest in each other's affairs.

Furthermore, the New Testament does not hold up subscription to a creed as the main feature of fellowship. All mathematics teachers believe in the truth of algebra and geometry, but that does not make a fellowship out of mathematics teachers. So you can have several hundred or several thousand people repeating the same Creed without ever being a fellowship or even knowing what the word means.
