Hope Fiesta A Success

In spite of the high wind and the dust storm, the Hope Fiesta was considered a success by the Petticoat government. About 750 persons were served at noon and a like number were present to enjoy barbecue for supper.

The rodeo was not such a success, only 90 cars were present to see the cowboys perform. But you could not expect anything else with the wind and dust the way it was.

The "Chick Sale" float won first prize in the parade; the 4-H club second and the float representing Clem & Clem third prize.

If it had been a nice day, I don't know what we would have done with the crowd. People came from all over, Carlsbad, Roswell and the mountains. Everyone said they had a most wonderful time. Mrs. Toney and her three little girls gave a Hawaiian dance program before supper and it was enjoyed so much.

The wind had gone down by 6 p. m. and it was a pretty sight to see people sitting under the trees, enjoying the barbecue supper with all the other accessories. It made a pretty sight indeed to see children playing around under the trees.

We are fortunate the storm was no worse, no one was killed, no houses demolished and everyone went home with a kindly feeling in their hearts for Hope and the Petticoat officials.

The dance in the evening was well attended with nearly 400. The Fiddlin' Fools from Hope furnished the music and was enjoyed by all.

Everyone is waiting for another year to roll around, that they may come and be guests of the Petticoats once more.

The Petticoats wish to thank all those who helped in preparation for the Fiesta and also during the Fiesta. And also a Thank You for all the barbecue meat and other good things donated. Mrs. Elmer Madron deserves a vote of thanks for helping direct traffic.

Clem Weindorf and Mrs. M. D. Brantley spent many an hour painting banners for the Fiesta. Sorry to say the banners could not be used as wind was just too strong. Nevertheless, their efforts are appreciated.

Entertain for Mrs. E. F. Harris

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Cole entertained for Mrs. E. F. Harris Sunday, the occasion being her 75th birthday. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Harris and daughter Ethel, Mr. and Mrs. Hylton Cole and family of Carlsbad, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Cole and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Cole.

Junior Newsom and Dean Mansel were married in Carlsbad last Saturday. They will make their home in Artesia where the groom is employed. Sunday they visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Newsom in Hope.

Mr. and Mrs. Bonnie Altman were visitors in Artesia Tuesday.

Vacation Bible School in June

Hope Baptist Church, Earl H. Brock, mission pastor. Sunday school 10 a. m. each Sunday; preaching 11 a. m. and 7:15, first and third Sundays; prayer meeting, 7:15 each Wednesday evening.

Elk Mission: Sunday school 10 a. m., each Sunday; preaching 11 a. m., second and fourth Sundays.

We were at Elk last Sunday, had a good day, good crowd at each service. We have good reports for the Sunday school here at Hope, our Men's Bible class is getting started in good shape.

Our Vacation Bible school is scheduled for June 8 through 12. We want all the boys and girls to make not of this date and make your plans to attend. Boys and girls who have ever attended a Vacation Bible school, are always sorry it is over and glad the next year when it starts. I think one of the reasons why, is because the teacher has to do all the studying, we juust come along and feast on the labors of the teacher. You parents take note and make plans for your children to attend. And you boys and girls make not so you can remind Dad and Mother you want to go to Vacation Bible school.

We plan a new department this year, a nursery, and we want all children above the age of two. We will have a nursery, beginner, primary, junior and intermediate department. We already have the faculty chosen and they are beginning preparation. Let's really make it a school that is worthwhile, come be with us in our worship service next Sunday.

Hope News

"It Happened to Us" . . . Part II. Lucille Bail recalls the early days of her marriage when, because of Desi's and her conflicting careers, she was on the verge of getting a divorce. She tells what kept them together in this exciting second part. Read it in The American Weekly, that great magazine distributed with next Sunday's Los Angeles Examiner.

George Fisher and family of Ruidoso were here for the celebration. George played for the dance Saturday night.

Floyd Newsom and family of Vealmore, Texas, I. E. Newsom and wife of Seminole, Texas, Chas. Parrish and family of Artesia and M. V. Clanton and family of Artesia visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Newsom Sunday.

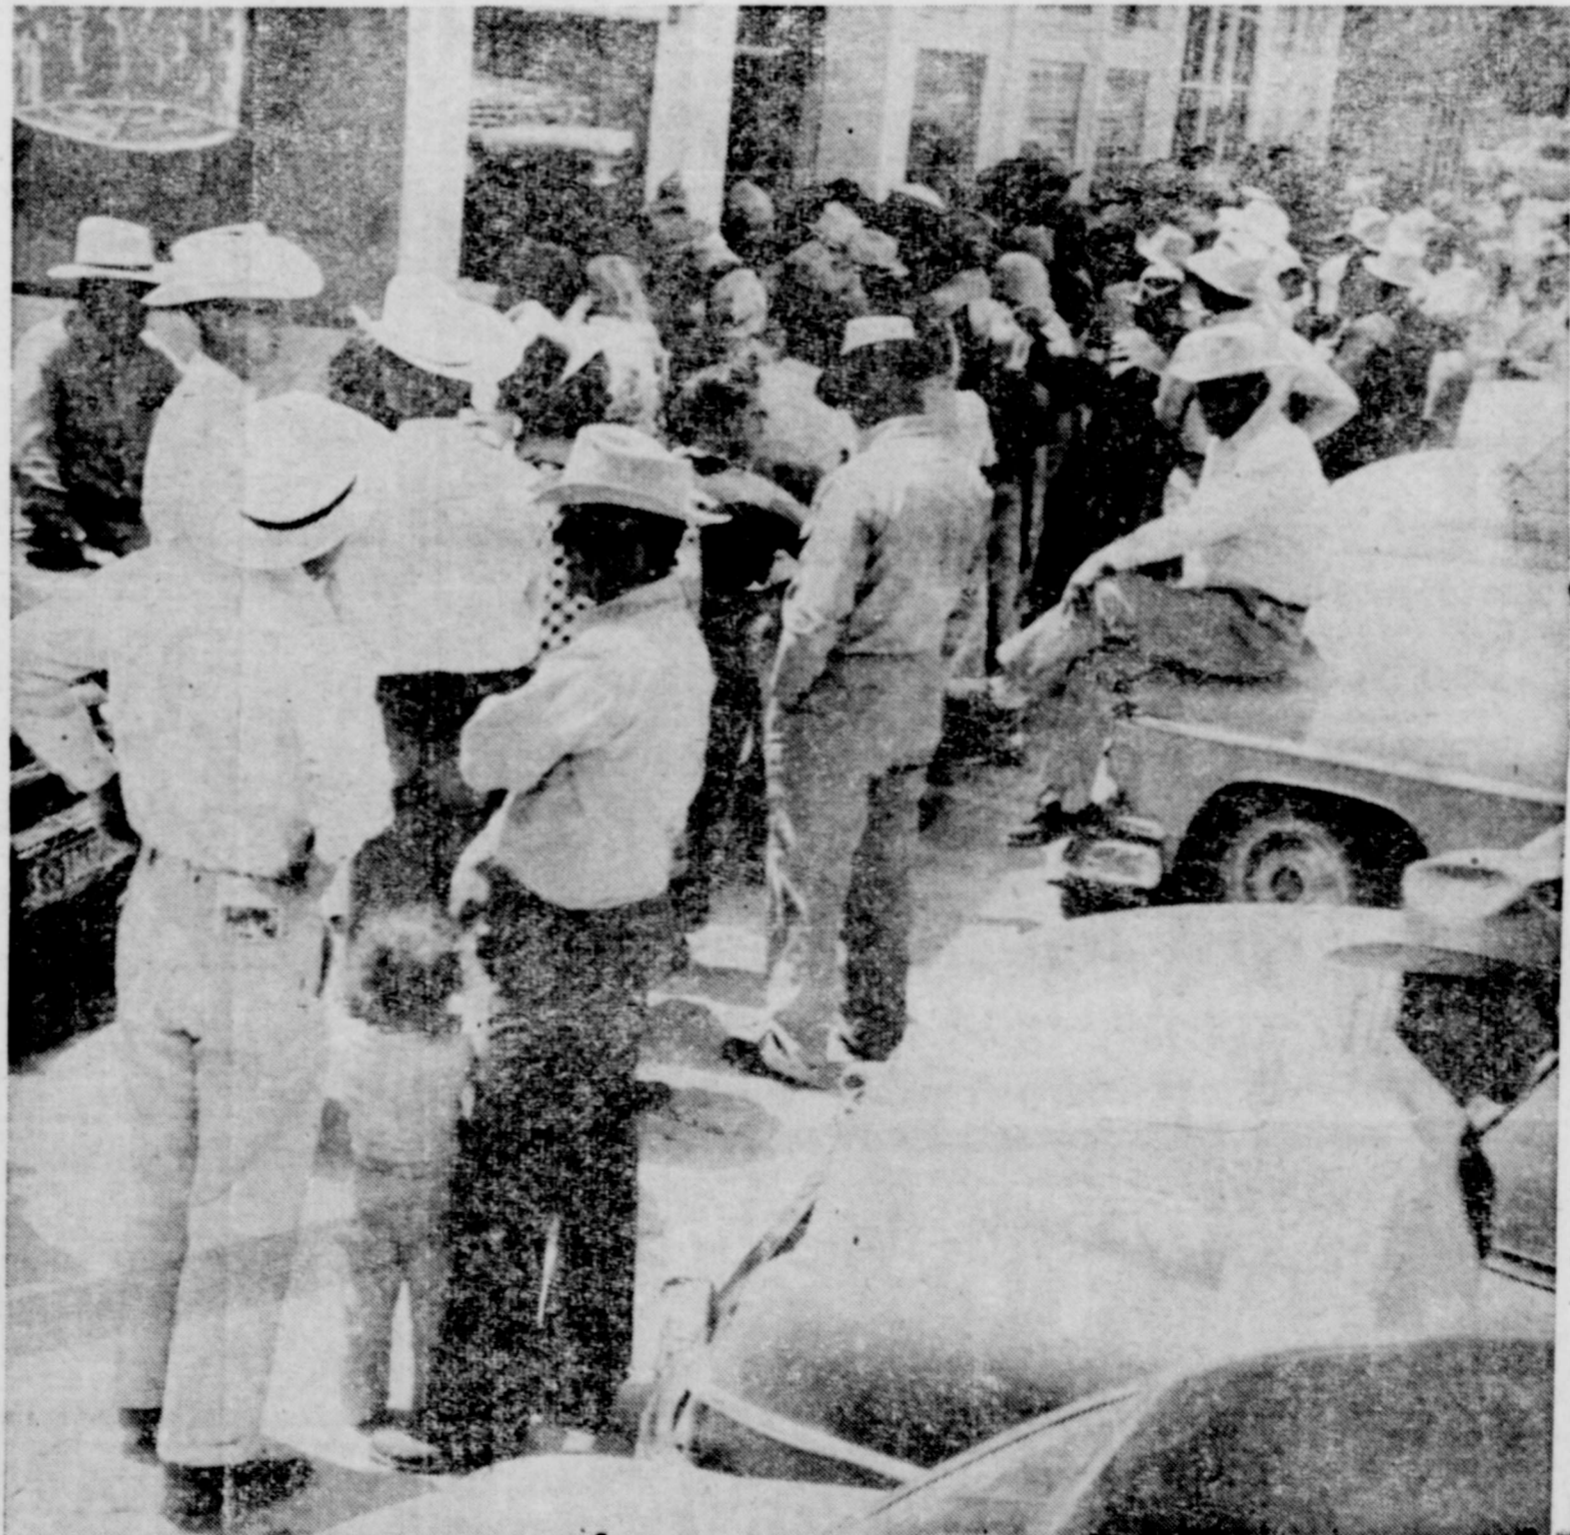

Mr. and Mrs. John Neal of Oregon arrived in Hope Tuesday and are visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Newsom. They left Wednesday morning for Carlsbad, where they expect to locate.

Mrs. Ethel Altman, Tempe Cox and Ruth Harris were in Artesia Tuesday afternoon interviewing Supt. Mayfield in regard to school matters. They also talked to Tom Wiley by phone.

Easements for securing the right of way for Highway 3 through Hope have been received by the town board and are being signed.

Mr. and Mrs. V. M. Bass of Weed were here Saturday attending the Fiesta.

Claberon Buckner from Roswell was here over the week end visiting his mother, Mrs. Ella Buckner. Later this month, Claberon and family will leave for Iowa for a visit with relatives.

Hundreds Wait Patiently Outside for Fiesta Food

ALL THESE PEOPLE were waiting outside in high winds and occasional dust gusts Saturday noon at Hope as the Petticoats served more than 400 people for the noon meal during the annual Petticoat Fiesta. Petticoats served all comers at no charge.

Sage and Cactus

By Doughbelly Price

This Chavez-Hurley election squabble would be funny if it wasn't so expensive. The lawyer is the only one that can win. It is easy to see who loses. The taxpayer. Imagine two hundred smack a day for the lawyers, plus expenses. And that plus can cover a lot of country and they want the Senate to hand out another gob of money. If I could get that kind of a deal the job would last from now on.
Let some old cowman try to get two hundred a day and expenses for something and listen to the squawk.
And it takes just as long and just as much study to make a cowman as it does to make a lawyer. The cowman has to face the summer sun and winter rains. The lawyer has to face a nice warm gas heater in winter and one of them old air conditioned offices in summer. The cowman gets broke. The lawyer gets the E plubris Unium. It dont add up right to me.
The taxpayer should enter a demurrier on that grab. Let the case revert to the status quo. In toto. Look at me scatter the legal jargon. Who said I wasn't smart. Better be careful about buying this state land. If you pay too much they keep it, if you dont pay enough they will take it away from you. That is a good game.
Heads I win, tails you lose. And dont worry about signing a contract. It aint no good anyway. New Mexico is a funny little old state but the election contest is about all there is left to laugh about.

"Mr. Republican" Speaking

Washington — Senator Robert A.
Taft has been drafted onto the Eisenhower governmental "team" and is rapidly becoming the President's greatest asset in establishing the new administration and geeting it over its first big hurles. This was evident as I visited with Senator Taft in his office on Capitol Hill. What did the senator consider to be the most important message from Washington that I could carry to the American people through the column, the Harding College Monthly Letter, the radio program and the other media of our National Education Program?

"An appeal for patience," he said.
Then, with hard-hitting logic, he backed the President on the widely debated question of whether tax cuts of a balanced budget should come first. "The important thing," he said, "is to reduce expenses, and I believe the administration is going about this job with enthusiasm and good faith."

Cutting Under Way

"We can expect to learn any day now what the administration feels the expenditures will have to be for the fiscal year beginning in July," said the Senator. "Then we can tell whether the budget will be balanced and whether a tax reduction is feasible." After 30 days in Washington, talking to Treasury Department officials, and key men in the Department of Defense, the Post Office department, and others, I'm convinced that the new official family operating the federal government is going to drastically cut expenses.

KEYS MEN'S WEAR

116 W. Main, Artesia

"Mr. Truman's budget called for the expenditure of $78 billion during the year beginning July, 1953," Senator Taft noted. "Taxes will produce about $70 billion if they are not reduced, so that there is a deficit of $8 billion. Therefore, Mr. Truman's budget will have to be cut $8 billion before we even balance the budget or can justify any reduction in taxes."

Man of Knowledge

The Senator from Ohio, universally respected for his integrity, intellect, and both practical and theoretical knowledge of government, is assuming the role of friend, confidant and advisor to the new President, the man he fought so sharply for the Republican nomination at Chicago last July. It is characteristic of him to cast off personal feelings and work unselfishly for the nation and his party.

And Senator Taft thinks that for the nation's good President Eisenhower is right in placing the first emphasis on a balanced budget. In fact he himself advocated such a policy during the campaign and his insistence on it undoubtedly was a factor in the President's decision. There could be no permanent gain toward fiscal soundness in Washington, Senator Taft contends, if taxes were cut and yet the national debt mounted as a result of an unbalanced budget.

States Policy

"The Republicans never promised any reduction in taxes in 1953," he reminded me. "After I conferred with General Eisenhower in New York early in the campaign, my statement promised a balanced budget in 1953, and further reductions in expenditures of $10 billion, to a total of a $60-billion budget in the fiscal year 1955. I stated that I thought a tax reduction could be given in the beginning of 1954 for the ensuing year, a substantial tax reduction of about 13 per cent. This is still my guess, although I hope there might be a still further reduction of expenditures."

It is my opinion that once the Eisenhower team has "learned the ropes" in the various agencies and departments, Senator Taft's will be one of the most powerful voices in Washington for whittling the federal government down to proper size.

But it will take time, he cautions.
That's why he feels an appeal to the taxpayers for patience is so important. "A year or so from now," he said, "the people may expect to see the tangible results of our program, and I predict that the administration will make real progress."

Let us all hope the promise is fulfilled.

A few weeks ago we published an item about Ray Justice buying 200 head of mules from John Prude about 40 years ago. He bought the mules alright but not from John Prude. He bought them from John Prather, who at that time was owner of over a thousand head of horses and mules.

Mrs. Jesse Buckner and children from Carlsbad were up Saturday and attended the celebration.

Mrs. Key from Capitan was here the past week visiting her sister, Mrs.
Ella Buckner.

Mrs. Anna Reed from Artesia was up Friday visiting relatives.

Max Johnson and Frances Johnson were up Sunday and removed furniture from the Johnson hotel.

Mrs. Ella Buuckner and son Hollis and Mrs. Key drove up to the Sacramento Mountains Sunday afternoon and viewed the country above Weed.

Helen, Katherine, Wilma and Edith Hardin were up from Artesia Saturday and attended the celebration.
They also assisted in decorating the car but the wind raised havoc with their efforts.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Massey of Roswell were here for the celebration and enjoyed visiting old friends.

cupation.
