Mrs. Puckett Receives Support Staff Award

"The MISD April Support Staff of the Month Award goes to a lady who was born and raised in Muleshoe," said Superintendent of Schools Bill Moore.

Mary Janice Puckett Brantley was one of seven children of Myrtle Puckett and the late Blondie Puckett. She was a 1958 graduate of Muleshoe High School (where she was active in Rainbow Girls, and school activities including girls' basketball).

In 1959, she married Curby Brantley. They have two children, Stephanie Barrett, a teacher in the Muleshoe ISD; and Curby Jr., employed by the Farmer County Tax Appraisal District.

Mary Janice has four perfect grandchildren--whom she lists as her full-time hobby.

In 1969, Mrs. Brantley became the secretary at DeShazo Elementary under Bill Taylor. This year will complete her 23rd year of service at DeShazo in the same capacity. In 23 years she has gone from purple dittos to xerox copies; from typewriters to computers.

"Her qualities as a great hostess and a dedicated and loyal employee have made her the right hand of the principal," Moore continued. "Mary Janice has become the 'mother' of many teachers and the 'second mom' to scores of children. Her concern for others, and loving and caring attitude have made her a trusted friend to teachers, parents and children.

Upon being notified of this award, Mary Janice remarked, "The students are what I like most about my job. I just love my job--I love everything about it."

Following the presentation of the award, Cindy Purdy, president, called the meeting to order and recognized John Robin Watkins, a visitor. Watkins attended the board meeting as the last part of the requirement to become an Eagle Scout.

Watson Scholarship Established

To honor retiring educator Elizabeth B. Watson, a $500 scholarship will be presented to a MHS senior who plans to enter the field of education as a career.

Mrs. Watson is retiring after a career of 50 years in education. Forty-six of those years have been in the Muleshoe Independent School District where she has served as teacher, principal, and assistant superintendent.

There will also be a reception honoring Mrs. Watson on Sunday, May 24 from 2 to 4 p.m. in the library at Elizabeth B. Watson Junior High School.

"Anyone wishing to contribute to the Watson Scholarship fund to honor Mrs. Watson may do so, said Bill Moore, Superintendent of Muleshoe Independent School District. Tax deductible contributions may be made to Muleshoe Independent School District, 514 West Avenue G, Muleshoe, TX 79347, or The Opportunity Plan, Inc., P.O. Box 1035, Canyon, Texas 79015. Please note on the check that the contribution is for the Watson Scholarship.

Superintendent Moore said, "Mrs. Watson has touched countless lives throughout her 50 year career. Through this scholarship in her honor, future lives will be touched for years to come. It is a great way for the community to be able to say 'thanks' to a very special lady."

The scholarship funds will be administered by The Opportunity Plan, Inc. in Canyon, and will consist of two payments to the recipient. The first payment will be made when the recipient enrolls in any college or university. The second payment will be made when the student enrolls in a Student Teaching course that will lead to a Texas Teaching Certificate.

Students wishing to apply for the Elizabeth B. Watson Scholarship should contact Linda Marr, counselor at Muleshoe High School.

Dear Sir/Madam:

I am a family historian who has tried repeatedly to obtain the death record of a relative from the Dept of Health, Vital Statistics for Texas. Every request has cost about eight dollars and has proved futile.

Now, I am hoping to get my information about my Great Grandfather, John Denton Ball or LD, as he was known, through your newspaper. He died 27 January 1950, at Earth and was buried at Olton, so records should exist. His wife's name was "Goldie" or "Goldia". My Great Gradfather's brother was Robert Green Ball. I also would like to obtain the record; information for him. However, I am not certain that yours was the newspaper that reported his (their) passing. I am also going to try the other newspapers listed in your area phone book in hope that one of the area papers has this information. It is my hope that your papers are indexed and the search would not be too troublesome! Or, if you know please let me know the name of the paper you believe would be the one that would have reported these

Senator Phil Gramm Reports

The Federal Reserve Board sliced another quarter point from the nation's key interest rate, cutting the cost of credit for the first time in 1992 in an attempt to bolster the economic recovery.

"Mortgage rates will follow almost automatically" commented one financial analyst.

U.S. Sen. Phil Gramm applauded the move, saying reductions in the cost of borrowing to finance home purchases will speed and strengthen the general economic recovery.

"I believe that the homebuilding and real estate industries will lead the national recovery," Gramm said. "A decision that makes it easier for families to purchase homes, and opens the market to more families, can have a dramatic effect on our economy."

Tips For Dining Out And Traveling

*Select a restaurant that will offer a variety of foods and a variety of choices. If a restaurant is unfamiliar to you, call in advance and inquire about menu options and methods of cooking.

*Try to pick a restaurant with a salad bar, which offers many low-fat, high-fiber choices. Steer clear of high-fat toppings such as cheese, bacon bits, croutons, and regular dressings. Soup and salad make a great combination, but be sure to choose clear broth soups instead of creamy ones.

*Read the menu carefully. Avoid items that are buttered, fried, breaded, creamed, or browned. If you're not sure about a recipe, don't be shy about asking your server. And don't be afraid to ask if items can be prepared in a different manner or substituted. You can also ask that an item, such as high-fat french fries or chips or bread, not be brought with the meal.

*Always be clear about what you order. Don't assume your server knows exactly what you want.

*Always ask for sauces and salad dressing to be delivered on the side. Order breads and toast without butter or margarine.

*Lean meats, poultry, and fish are healthiest baked or broiled.

Dance Company To Perform

The Hereford Community Concert Association will be presenting "Dance Through Time" a theatrical dance company. The company was founded in 1980 by noted dance historian and choreographer, Carol Teten. The non-profit performing company's unique artistic mission is to research, preserve and authentically present the dances of our European and American heritage from the last 500 years. Under Ms.Teten's leadership, the company has grown from a core of two dance apprentices working out of the director's home, to a highly respected company of eight professional dancers now based in San Francisco. The Company has carefully recreated an extensive and growing repertoire of authentic and theatrical dances of the past and present.

Although Dance Masters through the centuries left us records of dances of their times, very few people today have the knowledge and training to decipher these dance notations. Stimulated by the prospect of enabling dances throughout time to live again, Ms. Teten formed Dance Through Time. Through years of extensive research from original sources, deciphering multiple notation systems and languages, performances were created bringing these richly textured (provocative) dances of the past to new life. Dance Through Time's entertaining and accessible performances attract broad-based audiences from young children to grandparents, instilling a new respect and appreciation for the art of dance.

The Company performs year-round in concerts, special events, master classes, lecture-demonstrations and residences. Dance Through Time has received international recognition for its loving attention to authenticity, stringent artistic standards, and critically-acclaimed performances.

Texas county offices were required to make a report of participation and projected payments not later than Saturday, April 11, 1992. ## Southwest Association Of Western Horseman Celebrates Fifth Anniversary

The Southwest Association of Western Horsemen celebrates its fifth anniversary this year. It started in 1988 with a few horsemen and women in a meeting room of the Plains Coop Oil Mill. Today the group has a growing membership of 110 members. The purpose of the club is to offer classes for horsemen of any age and horses of any breed.

The club offers a wide variety of judged events such as Halter Classes, Walk-Trot, Western Riding, Reining, Working Cowhorse, and Lead Line for 6 and under.

Everyone should be aware of how county office employees are working for them.

Do Spring Cleaning With Store Brands

Spring cleaning shouldn't mean cleaning out your pocketbook, too! A recent price comparison survey of leading supermarket and drug chains shows that consumers can save up to 33% by choosing quality store brand cleaning products over the nationally advertised brands.

The survey, commissioned by the

McCoy's Operates 100 Stores

With the recent addition of a building supply center in Edinburg, Texas, McCoy's now operates a chain of 100 stores in six states. Founded by Frank McCoy in 1923 as a Houston-based roofing company, McCoy's has expanded in to one of the largest family-owned businesses in America's retail building supply industry under the direction of his son, Emmett McCoy.

Although the number of stores and sales volume have multiplied through the years, the basic structure of this third-generation company has remained the same. Efficiently operated stores, an emphasis on customer service, and the philosophy of store wide low prices are the three major ingredients formulating the chain's success.

Now headquartered in San Marcos, Texas, McCoy's has not only continued to expand in-side its home state of Texas, but has added locations in New Mexico, Arkansas, Oklahoma, Louisiana and Mississippi.

Private Label Manufacturers Association, and conducted by the Retail Tracking Index, Inc., an independent auditing service, monitored prices in five major cities on 15 products. Nationally, the shopping list cost $26.11 for national brands, compared to $17.44 for store brands, with a total savings of $8.67 or 33%.

This store brand savings is nothing new. The growth of private label during the past few years has shown that consumers are recognizing the increased quality and variety in today's store brands. Furthermore, one out of five products purchased are store brands.

Store brand products are products sold under a retailer's own name, or a name exclusively used by a retailer or buying group the retailer belongs to. In most cases, the store brand is composed of the same or comparable ingredients as the nationally advertised brand, while offering savings to the consumer. And, because the store's name or symbol is on the package, the consumer is assured that the product was manufactured to the store's high quality standards and specifications.

The Private Label Manufacturers Association represents more than 1,200 companies worldwide involved in the manufacture and distribution of store brands: that is, products that are sold under the retailer's or wholesaler's brand name in supermarkets, drug chains and mass merchandisers throughout the United States and abroad.

Texas Oil & Gas Report

Chairman Lena Guerrero and Commissioner Robert Krueger reviewed oil companies' May nominations to buy a total of 1,769,127 barrels of Texas oil per day. The nomination total, a decrease of 9,131 barrels daily when compared to April purchaser nominations, estimates Texas oil purchases in the coming month. May 1991 nominations totaled 1,868,705 barrels daily.

Chairman Guerrero also reported that May nominations for the purchase of Texas gas totaled 19,002,149 Mcf/d (thousand cubic feet per day). May 1991 nominations totaled 19,993,104 Mcf/d.

Major purchasers filed these May nominations from the floor at the hearing: Exxon Company, U.S.A., 117,000 barrels per day, down 2,500 barrels; and Amoco Production Company, 142,000 barrels per day, unchanged.

Chairman Guerrero reported that crude oil and petroleum products imported into the U.S. averaged 6,888,000 barrels per day for the month of February 1992. This was an increase of 44,000 barrels per day from the same period a year ago.

Fine Line Exists Between Discipline and Abuse

No one really knows how many children are abused physically, sexually or emotionally each year because most abuse occurs in the privacy of homes and many victims do not report abuse because they fear breaking up the family, suffering punishment or not being believed if they do tell.

But it is know that an alarming of child abuse cases are reported to the Texas Department of Human Services each year. In fiscal year 1991 (September 1990-August 1991) 91,094 cases of child abuse were reported, and 34,875 cases were confirmed. Of those 34,875 cases, there were 55,392 victims of which 103 died.

April is National Child Abuse Prevention Month, and Texas PTA reminds parents and teachers that the line between discipline and abuse is a fine one.

"While having children is one of the most natural things in the world, being a good parent may not be," Shirley Igo, Texas PTA president said.

The Texas PTA, in affiliation with National PTA, opposes corporal punishment. True discipline is corrective, and when given by either parent or teacher, in wisdom and a spirit of love, tends to strengthen the will of the child towards appropriate behavior. Good discipline leads and directs, rather than threatens and coerces through fear.

According to the National Committee for Prevention of Child Abuse, "discipline is not punishment; discipline is not shame; discipline is not guilt; discipline helps the child to think; discipline helps the child to learn so that present and future behavior is changed; discipline helps the child to grow intellectually and emotionally--it enhances his self-confidence and self-image; discipline is best taught by example."

Abuse satisfies the need of the parent. It only helps children think in terms of pain, hatred, revenge and hostility.

Discipline should help a child develop a sense of self-worth--the most important ingredient necessary for a child's positive behavior in the future.

Following are suggestions for parents and teachers to follow when creating loving relationships with children while still setting and enforcing the limits they need:

*When children misbehave, let them know that it is their action that is disliked and not who they are.

*Rewarding good behavior is more effective than punishing misbehavior

*Try to "catch" children being good. Be generous with praise.

*Discuss report cards with children. Find at least one good thing for which to praise the child, even if it is for attendance--no tasks.

*Punishment should be used to help teach children about the consequences of their behavior--never punish in anger.

*Setting a good example is the best way to teach children how to behave.

*Physical punishment teaches a child that hitting is okay.

*Words hurt. Telling a child that he is stupid or lazy will lower his self-esteem.

*Make it a habit to spend time together.

If you have reason to suspect that a child is being abused or neglected, you are mandated by law to report it. For more information, contact the Texas Department of Human Services at 1-800-252-5400.

With 840,000 members, Texas PTA is the largest child-advocacy organization in the state and is committed to promoting the welfare of children and youth in the home, school, community and place of worship.

LOUISA'S LETTER

Dear Louisa,
A cousin of mine, whom I haven't seen in years, is planning to visit me. We have always been fond of each other and have kept in touch by writing to one another and letting each know about the children and the relatives who have married or divorced or passed away.
The reason I am writing you is to get your opinion on how I should find out how long she expects to stay.
-Cousin--MO.

Answer:
Tell her how delighted you will be to see her and ask if the week of a certain time will suit her to come as that will also fit into your plans.
For entertainment let the relatives know of her visit and invite them in for the occasion.
They will probably reciprocate by having her and you for meals or a party during the visit.
Louisa.
